A Personal Message From the Editor:

WILLIAM K. QUICK
Directory Editor

To the Ministers and Laymen of the Conference:

In the 1880's the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, produced a pictorial directory of the pastors. Since we are well into the final third of the 20th Century, it seems appropriate that another Directory be produced!

Significant changes during these intervening 90 years have brought about two church unions:

- (1) Union in 1939 of the three major Methodist branches to form The Methodist Church.
- (2) The 1968 union with the Evangelical United Brethren to form the United Methodist Church, the second largest Protestant denomination in America.

As Conference Director of Methodist Information and Public Relations for the past decade, many occasions have arisen when photos and information regarding ministers would have been useful. The Raleigh Area has grown so rapidly in the past 25 years that it's impossible for the ministers to know each other. We recognize faces and read names but often can't associate a name with a face. The 1971-72 Directory will help, I trust, to remedy this. I regret that due to illness or other reasons some 45 ministers are not pictured although all are included in the directory at the back. My personal thanks to those pastors who did cooperate in making this Directory possible.

My deep thanks to Pictorial Directories of America and their representative, Mrs. AuRilla Goodnight, fellow Methodist from Charlotte, for their genuine interest and cooperation to make this Directory a reality.

The Conference Directory will serve a very practical purpose in assisting us to become better acquainted. It will also become, in time, an invaluable historical directory for future generations. Just as the 1887 Photo is the only pictorial record we have of two generations of Methodist preachers from the Civil War to the early 1900's, so the 1971 Directory will provide a vital link between the generations.

Regrettably, one cannot produce such a project without it becoming immediately dated and soon, obsolete (from a practical standpoint). It is, I hope, a meaningful effort to be enjoyed and appreciated by all. With apologies to all whose "good side" wasn't photographed in Fayetteville!

William R. Cannon

William R. Cannon is a Chattanooga, Tennessee native and was born April 1916.

He received the AB degree from the University of Georgia in 1937, the Bachelor of Divinity degree from Yale in 1940, and the Ph.D. degree from Yale in 1944.

He entered the North Georgia Conference of the Methodist Church on trial, and was ordained a Deacon in 1940. When ordained an Elder in full connection 1942, he was assigned to the pastorate of Stewart Avenue Methodist Church Atlanta. In 1944, he was appointed to the faculty of Candler School of Theology at Emory University.

In 1953 he became dean of Candler school of Theology. He served in this position until his election as a Bishop of The United Methodist Church on July 27, 1968. He was assigned to the Raleigh Area. Following the retirement of Bishop Paul Hedrick of Virginia, Bishop Cannon was assigned the Richmond Area as well.

He is author of the following books:

A Faith for These Times, 1944; The Christian Church, 1945; Theology of John Wesley, 1946; The Redeemer, 1951; Our Protestant Faith, 1949; History of Christianity in Middle Ages, 1960; Journeys after Saint Paul, 1963.

He was a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences in 1948, '52, '60, '64 and '68 and an observer to the Second Vatican Council.
