So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built into it for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit. ~Ephesians 2:19-22~

Message from the Pastor

It has been my privilege to serve as pastor of Piney Grove Baptist Church since January 1987. It has been exciting to see how God has worked in the life of this church. I have experienced personally God's hand at work in Piney Grove in recent years, and as we look back over the past one hundred years it is evident that His hand has been upon this church from the very beginning.

Piney Grove has been set in this community to be a shining light for Christ. During this one hundred years many lives have been touched through the ministry of this church. We are keenly aware that Piney Grove is more than just a place or a people. We are a vital part of God's plan for His church as the apostle Paul points out in Romans 12:4-5 and 1 Corinthians 12:12-13.

Just as God has used Piney Grove to be a shining light these past one hundred years, I am confident He will continue to bless and use this wonderful church to minister and reach many others in the years to come. On behalf of the Gray family, I would like to express our deep love and appreciation to Piney Grove for allowing us the opportunity of being a part of God's work here in this special place.

Your friend and pastor,

PINEY GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH
The First One Hundred Years

In 1899 William McKinley was president. There were 38 states in the union. There were 25.6 persons per square mile in the country. There was no income tax, and women did not have the right to vote. There had been droughts in the plains, floods in the Mississippi valley, and blizzards in the high plains. The Governor of North Carolina was D. L. Russell. In Surry County the first graded school was organized in Mount Airy, and the first school tax was levied. In the Piney Grove community, there was a new church organized!

Piney Grove Baptist Church was organized August 8, 1899. Rev. Columbus Hampton Stone, Rev. N. J. Matthews and Rev. C. C. Arrington composed the presbytery. The charter members were Abraham Jackson Badgett, Martin Draughn, Joseph Sawyer Smith, Shepherd H. Snow, Mary Jane Doss Badgett, Laura Jane Blue Hemmings, Elizabeth Holyfield Doss, Samantha Rebecca Park Smith, Hulda Frances Walker Draughn, and Mary Cornelius “Neal” Cave Marion.

From the first business meeting until the present time, Piney Grove has minutes from its business meetings. The first entry in the church minutes follows (exactly transcribed):

October 7, 1899 - The church met according to appointment Elder C. H. Stone preached and after preaching the church was caled together fellowship tested all present were in peace there not being a corum present the election of a pastor was deferred until Sunday Oct 8, 1899 the church met according to apointment and after preaching by C. H. Stone the church proceeded to elect C. H. Stone as their pastor for the next year and C. H. Stone accepted and agreed to serve.

The following month the decision was made to call the church Piney Grove. The minutes from that meeting follow as written by the clerk.

November 11, 1899 - The church met according to appointment after preaching by the pastor the church was caled together by the moderator fellowship tested all present in peace the clerk not having the minutes of the last meeting the reading of the same was omitted it was then decided that the church be caled Piney Grove there being no further business on motion adjorned.

In the early years of the church, services were not held every Sunday. Services were usually once a month on Saturday evening and the following Sunday morning. For awhile the services were held on the third weekend in the month, then changed to the fourth, and then to the second. There were several winter months when there were no services. In the days of horses, buggies, and wagons, the minister and the members had obvious difficulties when winter weather arrived. The business meetings were held “after preaching” on Saturday evening. It was during these meetings that the “doors of the church was open for the reception of members.” An interesting tradition was the fellowship being tested to determine if all present were in peace. Sometimes there were problems and certain church members were excluded from the fellowship for various reasons. However, there were incidences when the individual involved would ask the forgiveness of the Lord and the church and then be restored to the fellowship.

The church was in existence for a year before deacons were elected and delegates appointed to represent the church in the association. The reason for the delay was the want of a presbytery for the ordination service. The presbytery was made up of two or three ministers who “examined the candidates as to thire doctornal belief.” The first deacons were elected on August 11, 1900. The minutes of the meeting are as follows (exactly transcribed):

church met and after preaching by Brother A. J. (Andrew Jackson) Williams was caled together by the pastor and proceded to ordain Deacons A. Badgett & J. S. Smith were examined by the presbytery C. H. Stone & A. J. Williams and pronounced orthodox then ordanation prayer was offered by C. H. Stone & A. J. Williams delivered the charge then the church proceded to apoint deligates A. Badgett & Martin Draughn to represent them in the Association then on motion the church ajorned.
The first communion service mentioned in the minutes was planned on December 7, 1901, for observing the next day.

The first decade of the church’s existence reflected a church establishing itself as a part of the association of other Baptist churches. Although there was an earlier reference to the “association,” the minutes of July 1903 refer to the “new Surry Association.” The excerpt from the July 18 minutes states that “...the moderator apointed the following brothers delagates to represent the church in the new Surry Association to meete with little Richmond Church Thursday before the 3 Sunday in August 1903 J. A. Blue A. Badgett Martin Draughn” (This was indeed the organizational meeting of the Surry Baptist Association and Piney Grove was one of twenty churches that made up the original membership). The first “colection taken up on Sunday for state mision $1.09” was recorded in the minutes of April 8, 1905.

An early tradition at Piney Grove is included in the minutes of May 13, 1906. When a church member died, there was a formal obituary written by an appointed committee. On the page of the minutes following the business entry, the following tribute is found (exactly transcribed). It is the first of several such memorials in the early minutes.

This page set a part to the memory of Sister Elizabeth Doss

In Memory of Sister Elizabeth Doss

Sister Doss was born July 31st 1828 and fell a sleep on Dec 14 1905 She lived to the ripe old age of 77 years 4 months and 8 days Sister Doss was a consistent member of Piney Grove Baptist Church at her death Sister Doss was a mong the first to aid and assist to organize Piney Grove Baptist Church She was a member of the misionary Baptist Church more than 20 years She has filled a useful life and read a large famly Piney Grove looses one of its best and oldest members we umbley bow in submission to the will of our heavenly father who doeth all things well

The first treasurer’s report was recorded in the minutes of August 12, 1906. The exact transcription of the report follows:

Report of the treasure of Piney Grove Baptist Church

collected for S.S. Expenses - $2.27c collected for state missions - $2.00 collected for minitt fund - 65c
    total - $4.92

Paid out as fowlers paid to S. S. Board for literatur for Piney Grove Sunday school - $2.27c Paid to the finance commitee of the Surry Association for state missions - $2.00
Paid in the minitt fund - 65

    total - $4.92

The first evidence of the pastor being compensated in any way was in the minutes from July 20, 1901 - “... the church agreed to help the pastor as follows A. Badgett $3.00 J. S. Smith $2.00 Martin Draughn $1.00 Shep Snow $1.00 Laura Hemmings 25c”

Piney Grove Baptist Church was rebuilt in 1909-1910. The contributors are listed in the church minutes, and their contributions ranged from .25 to $39.00. The total amount raised was $262.55. An organ for the new church was purchased in August 1910 with the proceeds ($22.50) from a box supper. The church bell was bought by another group of contributors with contributions ranging from .25 to $3.00. The amount spent on the bell, steeple, and construction of the steeple was $21.79. The bell not only signaled the beginning of church services, but tolled to announce to the community that a death had occurred. This bell hangs in our bell tower today.
In the minutes of February 27, 1915, there is a treasurer’s report of the proceeds of a box supper ($12.50) received for the purchase of a lamp for the church. In June of the same year, there was a committee appointed to “solist funds for the different objects” composed of Maggie Gillespie, Ella Blue, and Bettie Draughn. It is thought that the objects weren’t “objects” at all but various offerings and funds. In the minutes of August 14, 1916, the following phrase was found: “a collection for the different objects was taken - associational missions $2.00, orphanage $1.75, minuitt fund .25 total $4.00.”

On February 27, 1916, George E. Burrus was elected pastor. According to the church minutes, “Bro Burrus accepts the care of the church for the next year the church agrees to give Bro Burrus $25.00 for his services.” This is the first evidence of a pastor receiving a stipend of any kind. Previously there were “collections” taken for the pastor.

On November 25, 1916, there was a resolution in memory of Joseph S. Smith, one of the charter members of Piney Grove. At the October 21, 1916, business meeting of the church, the pastor appointed a committee composed of John A. Blue, David F. Lambert, and S. Marion to write the resolution. Earlier there were obituaries of deceased members entered into the minutes. This was the first time a tribute was put in the form of a resolution. It is recorded as follows:

Whears it has pleased almiity god to remove our Bro and associate J. S. Smith from his labors on earth and whears it is the wishes of the members of Piney Grove Baptist Church to record there last tribute of respect to his memory while wee deeply deplore his untimely death still wee humbly bow to the will of our heavenly father In his death his family loose a kind fathr his church a faithful member the community a good citizen Bro J. David Lambert and Charles Smith were ordained as deacons on July 25, 1917. On June 14, 1919, a new organ was purchased for the church with the proceeds of a pie supper. The cost was $75.00.

A treasurer’s report was recorded in the minutes of July 13, 1919, and appears as follows:

World War I had come to an end by this time in history, and the soldiers returning home from Europe brought with them some unwelcome baggage: influenza!! The flu epidemic occurred around 1918 and lasted well into the 1920’s. It is estimated that over 20 million people died in the United States, and the Piney Grove community was certainly touched by this illness. Dr. Monroe Stone and his wife traveled through the community making house calls. Dr. Stone tended the sick and his wife helped with cooking and household chores. Five people are known to have died in the church community. Jesse Atkins, age 25, died November 13, 1918. Four others died within two weeks in March 1920. Chaney Lambert, age 59, died March 5 and her daughter, Maggie Lambert Gillespie, age 34, died March 11. Samantha Smith, a Piney Grove charter member, age 51, died on March 12, and her son Luther Smith, age 18, died on March 13. The graves of these five people are in our church cemetery, all within a few yards of each other.

The first mention of a revival at Piney Grove was in the church minutes of July 20, 1924. The entry states “Piney Grove Baptist Church met Sunday night July 20 1924 church called in conference fellowship in peace and our revival meeting was started which lasted 12 days in which time 16 was united to the church by baptism and 6 by letter first collection taken for Bro Draughn $32.52 second $5.70 adjourned”

In December 1927 the collection for the cooperative program was 25 cents.

In February 1932 the church initiated a “year round” Sunday school. In September of the same year, the church appointed officers and committees. They were:

- finance committee - Ella Moser, Ila Atkins, Tessie Griffith and Virginia Lawson
- preparation committee - Harvie Griffith, B. M. Johnson, R. M. Hardy
- canvassing committee - B. E. Hardy, S. C. Smith, Ella Draughn, Fannie Simmons, Ella Blue
- sickness committee - Vera Blue, Cora Marion, Ella Blue, P. F. Draughn, B. M. Johnson, R. M. Hardy
- treasurer - S. C. Smith
- ushers - Harvie Griffith, Charlie Johnson

The piano for the church was purchased by contributions and the proceeds of a sale held by the church which raised $9.00. The purchase date was November 21, 1935 and the price paid was $85.00.

In March 1936 the church purchased the Piney Grove School building and property. The earliest mention of a homecoming was in July 1937. In August of that year Edd Haymore, Charlie Johnson, and Jesse Woodruff were added to the deacon board.

In July 1939 fifteen Piney Grove members moved their memberships to Blues Grove to establish that church. People from Piney Grove and several other area churches had been holding Sunday afternoon services in a brush arbor in that community. In that same month, there was a two-week revival with 37 additions to Piney Grove (30 baptisms, 5 by letter, and 2 by statement). This is the largest group of people to join the church and be baptized at one time. The baptismal service was held on Sunday, July 16, 1939, in Fisher River just north of the bridge on Old Highway 601, the baptismal area for Piney Grove for many years. The service was held during Sunday school time with the congregation returning to church for the worship service. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Simpson allowed the baptismal candidates to change from their wet clothes in their home. The last river baptism was in 1968 in Mitchell River near Mountain Park. From then until 1974 when the current sanctuary with a baptistry was completed, our church held baptismal services in neighboring churches (Calvary and Dover) which had baptistries.

In August of 1939 the church asked for two services each month to begin in October and “the budget person was to raise $15 each month for the pastor.”

The late 1930’s and early 1940’s were apparently very active years in the life of Piney Grove. The church had supported the establishment of Blues Grove and was at the same time experiencing growth in membership and building a new church. Although these were the years of recovery from the “great depression” and the time of World War II, the people of Piney Grove were faithfully carrying on with the work of the Lord. The minutes of September 1940 state that there was a revival the third week of the month with Lucille Eads being the first person to accept Christ in the new church. There are no details about the plans or the process of building this new church in the minutes. However, current church members recall that the timber was donated by church members, a sawmill was set up by George Slaydon across the road specifically for the church building project, and the work was done by church members who volunteered their time and talents. On October 1 and 2, 1941, Piney Grove was host for the 39th Annual Session of the Surry Missionary Baptist Association. In addition to the regular business items at this session, our church minutes report that on Wednesday afternoon, October 1, “...our Association was honored with Governor J. M. Broughton speaking to us which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.” Certainly this was an event long remembered in the Piney Grove community.

By January 1942 the church debt of $170 was paid off with a balance of $2.50 left in the treasury. At this meeting “plans were made to have the dedication of the new building and the annual grave decorating day on the fifth Sunday in May.” The May 1942 minutes state that the church debt was paid and “Mrs. B. M. Johnson and Mrs. Herman (Lillian) Simpson raised the money for the floor mats and curtains.” On the fifth Sunday in May “the church met in the dedication service and corner stone laying a large crowd attended and the program was enjoyed by all.” In July of this same year a revival was held, and there were 23 additions to the church. On the third Sunday in October long time pastor, G. A. Tucker, resigned to “accept an all-time church in Greensboro with the third Sunday in November being his last service.”

On December 27, 1942, Rev. Ralph Ferguson was elected pastor. The following July (1943) the annual revival was held with another 20 additions to the church. Silas Smith was called into the ministry in 1943, and Jesse Woodruff accepted the call to the ministry in 1944. In April 1945 there is the first evidence that services were being held twice a month and continuing with the Saturday evening and Sunday morning schedule. Rev. Ferguson announced his resignation at this time to “accept work in Sunbury (Gates County), North Carolina.”

Rev. Ray Billings was elected pastor the first Sunday in July 1945. Other officers elected in August of that year were as follows (exactly transcribed from minutes - Collie is actually Coley):

Treasurer - Millard Marion
Sunday School Superintendent - Collie Marion
Church Clerk - Lois Smith (Hodges)
Sunday School Teachers
  Adult Class - Mrs. B. M. Johnson
  Two young peoples classes - Paul Hardy and Mrs. Roy Johnson
  Junior Class - Mrs. Bertha Stevens (Chilton)
  Primary Class - Mrs. Lillian Simpson

On the first Sunday in November, Rev. Billings resigned to “accept all-time work at White Plains Baptist Church.” It is evident that the ministry was in a transitional phase at this time. Previously most ministers served more than one church and traveled to different ones on given weekends each month. As the congregations grew, there was more interest in increasing the frequency of meeting as was happening at Piney Grove, which now met twice a month. Apparently many churches were moving to services each weekend, and therefore the need for full-time bi-vocational ministers was increasing.

On the third Sunday in November, there was a collection taken for wiring the church which was $111.50. Piney Grove was moving into the modern era with the rural electrification movement. By the third weekend in July, “The church decided on Saturday night to let a committee have charge of getting the church wired for electricity as soon as possible.”

Rev. Johnny Weatherman was elected pastor on the first Sunday in January 1946. In May there was a service and dinner on the third Sunday to honor the service men who had returned home. Rev. Jesse Woodruff was in charge of the program.
In May of 1947, Carlie Marion, Ben Draughn and Sidney Johnson were ordained as deacons, and in November G. A. Tucker returned as pastor.

As Piney Grove continued to grow, there was a need for additional Sunday school facilities. In March 1948 a “contract for the labor on the Sunday school rooms was let to Sidney Johnson, B. M. Johnson and Jesse Woodruff for the amount of $400.00.” The Sunday school rooms were added and a “hot air heating system” was installed at a cost of $2,800. The church was also painted for $453.

Rev. Wesley Cook was elected pastor on the last Sunday in November 1948.

The decade of the 1940’s ended with the purchase of a new piano (old one traded in plus $400 cash) and insulation added to the church building for a cost of $181. In 1949 Mr. Roy Johnson, son of B. M. and Vina Johnson, accepted the call to the ministry, and Piney Grove granted him a license to preach on the first Sunday of July 1949.

The church moved into the 1950’s with a new pastor, Rev. E. M. Gough, who was elected the third Saturday night in August at a monthly salary of $50. He was ordained at Piney Grove on November 30, 1950. In June 1951 Rev. James Byrd began his service as pastor of Piney Grove and in August the church started having preaching services every Sunday with the exception of the fifth Sunday.

In the early 1950’s the church became more “mission minded” with the implementation of Training Union in 1950 and the organization of the WMU. In February of 1951, a group of ladies from Piney Grove met at the home of Lena Marion to discuss the organization of a Women’s Missionary Union (WMU) for the church. Miss Kitty Sullivan, the Surry Baptist Associational Missionary, Mrs. W. H. Poindexter, wife of Calvary’s pastor and the Associational WMU President, and Mrs. R. C. Paulette, wife of the pastor of Mount Airy First Baptist, also attended. Minutes from the meeting list the following officers elected and ladies in attendance. Lillian Simpson-Presidents, Ida Johnson-Vice President, Lena Marion-Secretary, Nina Hardy (Moser), Faye Beasley, Addie Hardy, Minnie Lambert, Mrs. Tom Fowler, Olene Haymore, Mrs. B. M. Johnson, Lucille (Mrs. Leonard) Lambert, Ruth Woodring, Margaret Hardy, Helen Woodruff, Dot Quesinberry, Irene Atkins (Campbell), Bertha Stephens (Chilton), Ruth Johnson (Berry), Mrs. J. L. Byrd (wife of the pastor), Pansy Hardy, Ethel Simpson, Rose Harrell, Lillian Draughn, Iris Hayden, and Lucy Haymore. The next meeting of the group was scheduled for March 12, 1951, at the church. This organization has been the mainstay of the mission organizations at Piney Grove. Sunbeams for the small children was initiated in 1953 and G.A.’s started meeting in 1955. R.A.’s met for one year only (1957-1958) and disbanded. The Training Union had apparently floundered for a time because it was reinstated in 1959 and continued until 1962.

Rev. Cecil Hooper of Elkin was elected pastor in 1957. The parsonage was built during Rev. Hooper’s service at Piney Grove, but he never lived in it. Rev. Hooper resigned in August of 1959 and agreed to stay until the church could find another pastor. Rev. L. E. Myers also of Elkin came to Piney Grove as pastor in 1960 and was the first minister to live in the parsonage.

The 1960’s were characterized by a futuristic congregation who began to organize the operations of the church and make plans for expansion of the building and grounds. Land purchases were made for expansion of the cemetery, a new church building was being discussed, a constitution was drawn up and adopted, the finances of the church were organized by a committee, the church initiated the use of offering envelopes and bulletins, and a rotating deacon board was established.

The first finance committee was appointed in August of 1960. Members included Junior (B. J.) Hodges, Sidney Johnson and Brady Hardy. In August of 1963, there were discussions about a new church building. The deacons were appointed as a committee to select a plan to be brought before the church. On August 16, 1964, the church voted to purchase additional land from Mrs. Lucy Haymore and exchange part of the land with Dorothy Shinault for an equal amount of land adjoining the cemetery. Fred Johnson and James Hayden were ordained as deacons in February 1965. Rev. Elwood White followed Rev. Myers as pastor of Piney Grove and served until May 30, 1965. Rev. Lee Pridgen came as interim pastor on June 20 followed by Rev. William T. Bassett in October. In that same month a committee under the guidance of Rev. Bassett, was elected to draw up a constitution. Its members included B. J. Hodges-Chair, James Hayden, John Lee Johnson, Sidney Johnson and Silas Smith. The constitution was adopted on March 23, 1966. Also in March 1966, the following motion was adopted by unanimous vote of the church. "The deacon body moves that a vote of appreciation, confidence, and gratitude be extended to Mr. Brady Hardy for his consecrated and diligent leadership as chairman of the deacons for the past ten years, and until the present adoption of a constitution which initiates a rotation system of the chairmanship." The next month there was a motion to consider installing restrooms in the church, and in May Rev. Marvin M. Turner was elected full-time pastor. Then in June "permission was granted by the church to the young men's class to build a shelter for picnics and dinners." The brick work on the structure was completed by students in a brick masonry class taught by Grover Haymore at Surry Community College. By September the deacons made a motion to "start a building fund to be used only for the building of a new church." In October a "Dollar-a-Month Club" was started with funds going to the building program. The use of offering envelopes was initiated in November.

In Febrary 1967 the church voted to have a private telephone line installed in the parsonage. Prior to that time the parsonage had been on a party line and confidentiality of conversations could not be ensured. In April Mr. and Mrs. Herman Simpson offered to sell the church land to expand the cemetery for $500 an acre. The church bought the property and approved selling grave plots at $50 each. The stipulations for a grave site included a vault, stone marker, and no shrubbery. An additional half acre of land was purchased from the Simpsons for cemetery expansion in early 1968.

On July 24, 1968, the constitution was amended to facilitate a rotating deacon board which we still have in place. In October the building committee was asked to report on its progress.

Rev. Turner announced his retirement (effective on May 30) on January 22, 1969. Rev. J. Steven Perrou was elected pastor on May 25. In the business meeting of the 28th, the church voted to "fix up the parsonage" for the new pastor. That fix up included painting, waxing floors, and a new electric range. During the Perrous' tenure at Piney Grove, they adopted an infant daughter, Dianne, who was the first baby to live in the parsonage. Juanita, Rev. Perrou's wife, was an accomplished musician who served as the music director. The choir performed its first Christmas cantata, "Night of Miracles," under her direction in December 1969.

Church bulletins were used for a time in the 1960's with a drawing of the church by Juanita Perrou gracing the cover.

On October 19, 1969, the Surry Baptist Association dedicated its minutes to the memory of Rev. Silas C. Smith. Rev. Smith, the son of Piney Grove charter members, served several churches in the Surry Baptist Association including Blues Grove, Little Mountain, Ladonia, Paul's Creek, Copeland, Pleasant View, Oak Grove, Salem Fork, Central View, and Oak Grove in Virginia.

On January 27, 1971, a motion to eliminate the assembly between Sunday school and worship service was made. It was during this time that the "birthday rabbit" had been fed each week. The rabbit was a wooden money bank. As the persons who had celebrated a birthday during the previous week came forward to "feed the rabbit" (one penny for each year of the celebrant's life) the congregation sang "Happy Birthday" to them. In the early days of the church, the funds from the rabbit were used to purchase floral tributes upon the death of a church member or close relative. It was immediately after this assembly that a tradition near to the hearts of the children of Piney Grove took place. Mr. B. M. Johnson would station himself to the right of the pulpit, and all of the children would quietly and politely hold out their hands for three pieces of candy corn, no more and no less. Mr. Johnson was totally fair with each child! After his death in 1959, Mr. Brady Hardy continued the tradition for a number of years. This assembly had been a long tradition, and Piney Grove still has an adult assembly before Sunday school.
In June 1971 the church voted to purchase identification markers for unidentified graves in the cemetery. Families of the deceased were encouraged to pay the nominal charge for these markers.

In July Rev. Clyde Ball was issued a call to serve as Pastor of Piney Grove. He accepted, came to us directly from the seminary with his new bride, and was ordained at Piney Grove. He and his wife moved their membership on September 5. Their first child, a daughter Heather, was born while they were serving our congregation. He resigned in December 1972.

The youth of Piney Grove were becoming more active in the church, and in May 1972 Thursday evenings were designated as time for “recreation on the church grounds.” By the next year Bruce Hodges had been elected recreational director for the church. On April 28, 1974, the first youth service was held with Bruce, Jean Johnson (Ingram) and Cheryl Campbell (Story) serving as coordinators.

On December 24, 1972, there was a special business meeting held following the Sunday morning worship service to accept building plans for the new church building (our current sanctuary). In January 1973 Mr. Jack Greenwood of Mount Airy was asked to draw the plans for construction. In May Rev. Gerald Hewitt returned as interim pastor. In October another special business meeting was held on Sunday to allow time for questions and answers with the building committee regarding the proposed structure. Fund raising for financing the building was still going on, and on this same Sunday pledge cards for those who wanted to make a financial commitment toward the building fund could do so. On November 28, 1973, Mr. Greenwood’s building firm, Blue Ridge Enterprises of Mount Airy, was given the contract to build the new church. The building committee for this project was chaired by Grover Haymore, and the members were Audrey Wright, Gurnie Simpson, Cecil Beasley, and Lois Hodges.

On Sunday, March 3, 1974, formal ground breaking ceremonies were conducted at 12:00 noon for the new church building. The site of the new construction was on a lot to the north of the 1940’s structure. Following the morning worship service, the congregation filed out to the site of the ground breaking. Woltz Stone told the group the meaning of the church to its people, Nina Moser spoke of the meaning of the church in the community, and Rev. Oren Bradley, Superintendent of Missions for the Surry Baptist Association, addressed the group regarding the church and its meaning in the world. After a service of consecration, the traditional ground breaking with shovels was conducted by representatives of the church organizations and ministries: James Hayden-deacons, Lillian Simpson-Baptist Women, Lois Hodges-Sunday school, Bruce Hodges-choir, Susan Johnson-music ministry, Lloyd Hayden-trustees, Grover Haymore-building committee, Cheryl Campbell (Story)-youth, Tina Patterson (Butcher) and Dawn Johnson (Marion)-children, and Gerald N. Hewitt-minister. A plow attached to ropes was then used so that all present could participate in the breaking of the ground. The members and friends of the church pulled the ropes and Mr. Brady Hardy served as the plowman.

In early 1974 Rev. Gerald Hewitt requested a change from interim to full-time pastor of Piney Grove until the building program could be completed. He agreed to serve for $100 a week (Sunday and Wednesday services) and asked that the balance of the pastor’s salary that was designated in the budget be put into the building fund for the new church. The church agreed to furnish the parsonage with essential furniture and kitchen utensils so the Hewitts could spend the night on weekends. This would permit them to visit and become more actively engaged in the community.

This year of 1974 was indeed another exciting one in the life of Piney Grove. The rest home ministry, coordinated by Fay Hudson since its inception, was initiated and is still going strong today. The first church directory was published with Dot Simpson and Susan Johnson coordinating the effort. Bruce Hodges, son of B. J. and Lois Hodges, was licensed as a minister. Then in September the transition to the new sanctuary was begun by a motion to accept the church from the contractors. On October 6, 1974, the first service, a baptism, was held in the new church. There were no pews in the sanctuary at the time and everyone just walked over from the old church and stood for the service. After drawing numbers to determine the order, Junior Key was the first person baptised, followed by Bill Haymore, Kent Moser, Angela Hewitt, Sharon Johnson, Donna Patterson (Dotson), Jay Hooker, Patti Hardy (Miller) and Dawn Johnson (Marion). Services continued in the old church until October 27. At the conclusion of the service that day, the congregation met outside to witness the removal of the cornerstone and its contents. The cornerstone and the pulpit Bible were then taken into the new sanctuary where the service was concluded with prayer and the singing of the “Doxology.” In the meantime on October 13, there was a deacon ordination, and Larry Patterson was the last deacon ordained in the old church sanctuary before it was demolished. The first service in the new church was on Sunday, November 3, 1974. Communion was held, Jackie Bowman was baptised, and Russell Simpson joined the church by letter. The first wedding in the new sanctuary was that of Terry Draughn and Kay Chilton who were married on December 7, 1974. The first funeral service conducted in the church was for Mrs. Lucinda Nixon Fowler on January 29, 1975.

The dedication service and open house was held on February 2, 1975, with Rev. Oren Bradley, Surry Baptist Associational Superintendent of Missions, as speaker. Dr. Perry Crouch, the General Secretary/Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, was in attendance as well as former pastor Rev. L. E. Myers and wife. Mrs. Marvin M. Turner, the wife of a former pastor, was also able to be with us on this special day. Pews from the old church made by Coy Abraham Badgett, were placed in the balcony of the new sanctuary to provide additional seating. The pulpit chairs and table were also moved from the altar of the old church to the vestibule of the new sanctuary. This furniture remains in place today. The table currently used by the teachers of the Bertha Chilton Sunday School Class was made from wood used in building the first church and then used as sheathing in the second church. When the present church was constructed, that part of Piney Grove’s previous church buildings was preserved in the form of a table.

Piney Grove immediately utilized its new facilities to glorify God and enhance the work of His people on earth. A revival was held beginning on February 9, 1975, and Piney Grove hosted the Associational Meeting on February 25. By June rules for the use of the fellowship hall had been adopted and in August the WMU presented the church with a new communion set. A new church directory was published in November and on December 8 the Brotherhood and RA groups were reorganized.

The cornerstone laying for the new sanctuary was held on Sunday, March 7, 1976, the second anniversary of the ground breaking. The cornerstone of Mount Airy granite was set in our present church building to the right of the main front doors. A sealed metal box containing over 35 items was placed in the wall behind the stone. Some of the items were a history of the church, a New Testament, the church bulletin and a tape recording of the service that day, newspapers, information on Bicentennial activities occurring in the area, Sunday school quarterlies, a listing of the 1975-1976 church officers and teachers, photographs of Sunday school classes, 1976 coins as well as a 1914 half dollar from the cornerstone of the old church, postage stamps (first class was 13 cents), a blank check, an Avon cosmetics catalog, and other items.

On March 24 the church wrote a letter of recommendation for Bruce Hodges to attend Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest.

As the cemetery continued to grow, it was determined that a committee was needed to supervise its expansion and upkeep. The cemetery committee was established June 30 and the members were B. E. Hardy, Sidney Johnson, and Woltz Stone. In December the church accepted a new Allen organ from an anonymous donor.

The establishment of a choir robe fund was the first order of business in 1977. In June a telephone was installed in the church and in September Rev. Hewitt requested a return to interim status. In October a pulpit committee, including Faye Beasley, Billy Campbell, Grover Haymore, Eileen Kidd, and Dot Simpson was elected.

On May 28, 1978, Bruce Hodges was ordained into the ministry. This event followed a week of youth emphasis which included a program on Saturday night, May 27 by the Mills Home Tour Choir. In July a long range planning committee was established to study building, program, and ministry needs of the church. Rev. Gerald Hewitt announced his resignation on July 31 effective on August 31. On August 20 the church extended a call to Rev. Dwight Austin to serve as pastor. His first sermon was on Sunday, October 8, 1978. Also in October, Lois Hodges, Kathy Woodruff, Nina Moser, and Susan Johnson attended the first Professional Women’s Retreat at Ridgecrest, the Baptist Conference Center near Asheville. The next year these four were joined by Carolyn Sawyers and Jean Johnson (Ingram). It is believed that this is the first time anyone from Piney Grove had participated in events at Ridgecrest. During this year the Mission Friends, G. A.’s and Acteens were reinstated. Central air conditioning was added to the parsonage in 1979, and a sound system was installed in the sanctuary with a speaker in the nursery. In November a new church directory was published.
In 1980 the church was again in need of more space, and a building committee (Faye Beasley, Faye Hudson, James Hayden, Clyde Haymore, and Tommy Haymore) was elected in February. At the same time, a bell tower committee was established. In August rules were drawn for cemetery plots, and in September after 25 years of service, the church treasurer, Sidney Johnson, relinquished the position to Jerry Sawyers. Mr. Johnson remained cemetery fund treasurer until 1995.

Dwight Austin resigned August 15, 1982, and a pulpit committee was elected on September 5. Its members included Cecil Beasley, B. J. Hodges, Bill Campbell, Fay Hudson, Jean Johnson (Ingram), and alternate Sheri Haymore. Jesse Woodruff agreed to serve as interim pastor.

On Sunday morning January 16, 1983, Mr. Brady Hardy announced that during the previous week someone came to his house and handed him a note on the church building marked “paid in full.” This announcement was followed by plans for a note burning ceremony that was conducted on March 6 by Gerald Hewitt. This accomplishment was immediately followed by another building project - an addition to the parsonage which included a living room, bedrooms and an additional bathroom. The church secured a loan for $30,000 to finance this expansion.

Charles Lennard was called to serve as Piney Grove’s next pastor, and his first Sunday was June 5, 1983. Piney Grove’s first “Hanging of the Green” was held on Sunday evening, December 11, 1983.

Smoking was banned in the church building in 1984, and a copier was purchased for the church office in 1985. In May the loan on the parsonage expansion was paid, and in that same month, Charles Lennard submitted his letter of resignation. A pulpit committee was established in July, and its members included Oliver Hudson, Frank Reynolds, Lois Hodges, Judy Riggs, Brenda Davis, and alternates Jean Johnson (Ingram) and Larry Patterson.

The church called Rev. Kermit Gray as pastor and his family came to Piney Grove in the middle of a snow storm in January 1987. His first sermon was Sunday, January 18, 1987. He is still faithfully serving Piney Grove. Rev. and Mrs. Gray’s daughter, Alison Leigh, became the bride of William Taylor Bartholomew on Saturday, July 18, 1998, in Piney Grove Baptist Church. She is the only child of a pastor to be married in our church.

The youth of Piney Grove went to Garden City, South Carolina, for the first summer retreat and Bible study with the youth and leaders from Highland Park Baptist Church in July 1987. This was the start of a tradition for the youth that continues today. In September 1987 the church voted on a building plan for a new fellowship hall and additional Sunday school space. To finance this next expansion of its facilities, the church elected to use the “Challenge to Build” fund raising program of the Baptist State Convention. Tom Riggs and Brenda Davis served as co-chairs of the effort.

In January 1988 the church voted to change homecoming from the first Sunday in July to the third Sunday in September. When the church community was largely agricultural, the first of July was when the crops were “laid by” meaning that they were in the growing phase between planting and harvesting. This was a good time for homecoming and the revivals that immediately followed. As people moved from agriculture to public employment, early July was not a good time for homecoming and revival because many companies gave their employees vacation time around the Fourth of July holiday; therefore, many of the church families would be away on summer vacation during this time.

The 1988 Surry Baptist Associational minutes were dedicated to the memory of Rev. Jesse F. Woodruff who died February 28, 1988. Rev. Woodruff served as a pastor in Surry County, Wilkes County, and in Virginia. He also served as interim pastor of Piney Grove in 1982.

The efforts of the church to finance the new fellowship hall and educational wing through the Challenge to Build Project were successful. A contract was awarded to the J. G. Corum Company of Mount Airy in January of 1989 to construct the addition to the church and the bell tower at an approximate cost of $300,000. The ground breaking was held on February 5 and construction took place over the next several months. The addition was dedicated on Sunday, October 22, 1989, in a service led by Rev. Kermit Gray with Rev. Bill Pearson (Director of Missions for Surry Baptist Association) delivering the dedication sermon and Dr. Gerald Hewitt (former pastor) the dedication prayer. The debt on this project was retired in March of 1996.
Piney Grove has grown significantly in the decade of the 1990s. The Sunday school attendance has grown from an average of 110 before the addition of the educational wing to an average of 180 today. The church responded to this growth by enlarging the deacon board from nine to twelve members in April 1990. The deacons participate in the “Deacon Family Ministry Plan,” and with the growth in church membership they needed additional members to adequately serve our congregation. In June a committee was nominated to research the transportation needs of the church. In October the church voted to apply the excess funds in the checking account toward the purchase of a van for church use. The guidelines for use of the vehicle were approved in January 1991, and the new van was picked up from Scenic Motors on February 28. It is still serving the needs of Piney Grove today.

By June of 1992, the Long Range Planning Committee made a motion that the nominating committee put into place a building committee to address the future building needs of the church. This motion was approved and the fruits of the committee’s efforts were realized on November 24, 1996, when the church approved plans to proceed with our next building program - a new sanctuary and educational space. The church also voted to adopt the “Challenge to Build” approach to fund raising again since it had worked well with our prior building program. At the January 22, 1997, business meeting, members of the Challenge to Build steering committee - Rickey Cornett, Brenda Davis and Judy Riggs - were approved. Tommy Haymore, Melanie Hudson, Errol Hill, Clarence Huffman, Susan Johnson, Eileen Kidd and Dean Slate were nominated to serve on the building committee. Because of the success of the fund raising effort, the church is expected to move into the next phase of the building program within the next year.

The 1990’s also saw the church establish a benevolence fund to assist church and community members with financial burdens. An audio tape ministry was initiated to share church services with shutins. The Hispanic program for children was developed as a result of summer Backyard Bible Schools held in the community. On March 25, 1992, the choir members were measured for robes that were to be purchased from the choir robe fund that was established in 1977. The ivory robes with red collars were worn for the first time on July 5. In 1994 Choirchimes were purchased, and the congregation enjoyed their debut on Easter Sunday, March 3. In August of 1995 Piney Grove was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of North Carolina. In August 1997 the building and grounds committee enclosed the picnic shelter to provide additional Sunday school space, and there are currently two classes using this facility. In 1998 and 1999 the church produced an Easter drive-through pageant.

This year of 1999 is the centennial year for Piney Grove Baptist Church. A centennial committee including Judy Riggs-chair, Susan Johnson, Jean Ingram, Janice Beasley, and Irene Campbell was elected to prepare this document and plan events throughout the year. Beginning with the Hanging of the Green program on Sunday evening, December 6, 1998, Piney Grove has been celebrating its past. The theme of the program was “Remembering Christmases at Piney Grove.” Since that time there has been at least one activity or emphasis each month planned to commemorate events from the church’s past. These activities included a pie supper, revival, Saturday night singing, old-fashioned day, grave decoration and dinner on the grounds on the Sunday before Memorial Day, charter member profiles, candy corn for the children, a communion emphasis and hat and glove Sunday on July 4, an ice cream social on the parsonage lawn, Sunday school director and teacher recognition, and homecoming. We will conclude this year’s events with a centennial celebration service on Sunday, October 24.

Piney Grove Baptist Church was established and nurtured by people whose faithfulness to God and service to their fellow man is evident. The church is indeed a people rather than a place. A people who believe that “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

PINEY GROVE PASTOR PROFILES

(Information from church records and other sources listed with each pastor profile.)

1899 - Columbus Hampton Stone  “A pioneer preacher of the Blue Ridge Foothills, ‘Preacher Stone,’ or ‘Brother Hamp’ as he was called, preached in a plain down-to-earth language, traveling on horse or mule back or in his buggy drawn by his roan mare.” This tribute to C.H. Stone certainly says a lot about this dedicated early preacher in our community. He was instrumental in organizing several churches in the area wherever there was a group of people interested. Often these groups held their services in the community school houses until a proper church building could be built. Preacher Stone was born in September 1854 and died on September 15, 1915. He is buried in the New Hope Baptist Church cemetery near Dobson in the community where he and his wife, Melissa Bennett Stone, lived and reared their nine children. Genealogy note: Preacher Stone’s son Walter married Ada Park, sister of Piney Grove charter member Samantha Park Smith and his daughter Laura Frances, married I. Auscar Park, Samantha’s brother. (Information from Ida Hodges Stone, the widow of Cecil Stone who was a grandson of C.H. Stone and The Stones of Surry by Charles H. Stone)

1900-1903 - Andrew Jackson Williams  Born in Burke County on May 30, 1849, Rev. Williams lived in the Zephyr community and pastored several churches in the area during his career, either walking or riding a mule to his weekly services. He died in July 1931. One of his ten children was Willie Byrd Williams who lived on Mitchell’s River near Mountain Park and maintained an area of the river used by churches for baptism. During the 1960's Piney Grove used this place for its baptismal services. (Information from Surry County Heritage Book, Volume I)

1903-1908 - T. G. Marion

1908-1911 - C. C. Arrington  The Surry County Heritage Book, Volume I lists Christopher Columbus Arrington born in 1853 and Christopher Columbus Arrington, Jr. born in 1878, both of whom were Baptist ministers. It is likely that one of these gentlemen from the eastern part of the county was our pastor.

1911-12 - J. H. Hanes  Rev. Hanes assisted with the ordination service for Rev. George Tucker.

1912-15 - Thomas Scales Draughn  Rev. Scales Draughn, born February 14, 1885 to William and Carrie Ann Draughn, was a well-known and loved minister and educator in Surry and Yadkin counties. In 1904 he married Fairy C. Dockery, and in 1912 he was ordained to the ministry. He served as postmaster at the Crutchfield, NC post office for 11 years, taught school for eight years, and operated a general mercantile store. He also had the ability to locate hidden water sources with a divining rod. Rev. Draughn lived to age 83, and during his 55 years in the ministry he performed over 500 weddings, conducted more than 3,000 funerals, baptized at least 2,000 converts, and pastored 16 churches, all on a half- or quarter-time basis. Although Rev. and Mrs. Draughn had no children of their own, they certainly added numbers to the family of God through their ministry. (Information from 75 Years: Fairview (NC) Baptist Church.)

1915-23 - George Edgar Burrus  According to the Surry County Heritage Book, Volume I, Rev. Burrus was a native of Rockford, NC. Born May 15, 1871, he was both a well-respected teacher and preacher. He, too, served as pastor of a number of church in the early 1900's. He died on March 3, 1963.

1923-26 and 1927-28 - Everet B. Draughn  Rev. Everet Draughn was the brother of Rev. T. S. Draughn, Piney Grove’s pastor from 1912 to 1915. (Information from outside source.)

1926-27 - Ira D. Ferguson  Rev. Ferguson was the father of Rev. Ralph Ferguson who served as Piney Grove’s pastor in 1943. (Information from church members.)
1928-43 and 1947-48 - George Arthur Tucker  Rev. Tucker was born April 14, 1890, the son of Buford and Catherine Cook Tucker. On March 10, 1908 he married Rejina Mae Jackson. Rev. Tucker was ordained as a minister in 1909 at Holly Springs Baptist Church by Rev. John Henry Hanes and Deacon Willie Chilton. During the active 50 year of his ministry, he served as pastor of 14 churches in Surry, Moore, Guilford, Yadkin, and Stokes counties in North Carolina. The churches and his time of service were: Slate Mountain, five years as a mission and twenty years after becoming a church; Piney Grove, sixteen years; Highland Park, eight years; Little Mountain, fourteen years; Copeland, three years; Hills Grove, two years; Mount Carmel, four years; Salem, four years; Rocky Knoll, four years; Friendship, five years; and Olive Grove, five years. Red Branch Church at Carthage (Moore County), NC was founded by Rev. Tucker in 1922, and he served as its pastor for seven years. He performed 514 marriages, was speaker for 397 revival meetings, baptized 1,500, and conducted 1,443 funerals. He helped with the organization of 31 churches and the rebuilding of several. In the Surry Association, Rev. Tucker served as Vice-Moderator and as chairman of the interdenominational Sunday School work. Through the years, his wife worked diligently with him in the churches and cultural activities. They were the parents of eight children and over 20 grand- and great-grandchildren. One outstanding memory many of Piney Grove’s adults who were children during his time as pastor is of the “Booster Band” composed of the children in the church who sat together during revival services in the choir area. When asked what they were boosting for, the group would enthusiastically respond, “We’re boosting for church and Sunday School.” Their reward for perfect attendance during the revival was a piece of chewing gum. Rev. Tucker’s children have many fond memories of Piney Grove, the friendships made with church families, and the Sunday dinners eaten in many of the homes. Rev. Tucker was the pastor who baptized the group of 30 people from the 1939 revival. George Tucker died on February 22, 1973. His funeral service was held at Hills Grove Baptist church and burial was in the Westfield Friends Meeting cemetery. (Information from family members, Surry Baptist Association Annual Minutes 1973, and church members.)

1943-44 - Ralph Ferguson  Rev. Ferguson was born in Ararat, NC on January 2, 1917. His first pastorate was Hill’s Grove Baptist Church. He then pastored Salem, Salem Fork and Piney Grove. In 1945 he was called to pastor three part-time churches in Gates County, NC: Hobbsville Church; Beulah Church in Sunbury; and Cora Peak. He resigned two of these in order to further his education. He was then called to First Baptist Church in Robersonville, NC where he served 12 years. He next went to Calvary Baptist Church in Durham. Then he was called to the First Baptist Church Sierra Norwood in Miami, Florida where he served for five years. He returned to North Carolina and retired in 1970 after pastoring Konnoak Baptist Church in Winston-Salem for 12 years. After retirement he served three interim pastorates: Pleasant Hill in Elkin, Dobson First Baptist, and Friendship in Mount Airy. He was interim pastor at King First Baptist at the time of his death on April 26, 1987. His wife, June, lives in Winston-Salem. After leaving Piney Grove in 1944, Rev. Ferguson returned for several revivals and other special services. (Information from Mrs. Ferguson.)

1944-45 - Ray Billings  Rev. Billings pastored several churches in the area. Members of his family still live in Surry County. A grandson, Dennis McMillian, is a pastor in the Surry Baptist Association. (Information from church members.)

1945-47 - John Weatherman  Rev. Weatherman was a man of large stature, remembered for his powerful sermon delivery. Folks in the community said that on summer nights when church windows were open, his powerful voice could be heard echoing through the countryside. (Information from church members.)

1948-50 - Joseph Wesley Cook  Rev. Wesley Cook was born December 15, 1914 in Surry County, the son of Dowell F. And Elizabeth Simmons Cook. He married Elsie Mae Taylor on March 26, 1932. The Cooks were parents to two sons, Richard and Raeford, and a daughter, Janice. Olive Grove Baptist Church ordained Rev. Cook on November 7, 1948. He attended Fruitland Bible Institute and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. In addition to Piney Grove, he pastored Slate Mountain, Little Mountain, Brown Mountain, Stoney Ridge, and Woodville. Rev. Cook died on June 15, 1973. On one occasion during his time at Piney Grove, Mrs. Cook prepared a meal and the Cooks entertained the deacons and their wives in their home. (Information from church members and Slate Mountain Baptist Church: 75 Year History.)
1950-51 - Elono Montgomery Gough  Rev. Gough was born November 7, 1886 in Yadkin County. He came to Surry County as an employee of Moody Funeral Home in Mount Airy where he served as a funeral director and undertaker. He had formerly been employed by Vogler Funeral Home in Winston-Salem. Rev. Gough was ordained to the ministry at Piney Grove in November 1950. He died on April 12, 1964. Mrs. Gough died on July 13, 1999. They both are buried in the Piney Grove cemetery. Two children, a daughter Jo Ann Paris of Winston-Salem, and a son, Phillip Gough of Union, SC survive as do seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. (Information from church members and Moody Funeral Service records.)

1951-56 - James L. Byrd  Rev. Jim Byrd, born April 7, 1901, was a jovial man who could preach a spirited sermon. He was an employee of Mount Airy Mantle and Table Co. and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He pastored several churches in the Surry Association during his years in the ministry. He had a strong bass voice and enjoyed singing. His grand-daughter, Mary Ann Hicks, served as the pianist at Piney Grove during his pastorate. Rev. Byrd died on July 26, 1990. His funeral service was held in the Chapel of Moody Funeral Home in Mount Airy with burial in the White Plains Baptist Church Cemetery. (Information from family members and Moody Funeral Service records.)

1956-59 August - Cecil Hooper  Rev. Hooper was born October 4, 1917, in Cullowhee, North Carolina. However, when he came to Piney Grove in 1956 he was no stranger to our community. He had served in the CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) Camp near Dobson in the 1930's. Rev. Hooper pastored churches in the Surry and surrounding associations, serving as bi-vocational pastor in the early years of his ministry while working at Chatham Manufacturing Co., in Elkin. In the later years of his ministry he served as a full-time minister and resigned his last church, Oak Level in Roaring River, NC, in May 1992. Rev. Hooper enjoyed rabbit hunting, and Piney Grove’s current pastor Kermit Gray hunted with Rev. Hooper on one occasion. One church member recalls his fondness for cornbread and milk eaten not from a soup bowl, but a large vegetable bowl. Rev. Hooper died on July 29, 1992. His wife Lucille lives in Elkin as does their son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Patsy, their three sons and families, and one granddaughter. (Information from Mrs. Hooper and church members.)

1960-62 - L. E. Myers  Rev. Myers was born in Hayes, NC in 1914. A World War II veteran, he entered the ministry after his discharge. His first churches were in Winston-Salem and Kernersville and later in the Elkin area. Rev. and Mrs. Myers were the first couple to live in Piney Grove’s newly constructed parsonage. Rev. Myers retired from active ministry in 1995 after a 55-year career. He is still available for Sunday morning supply preaching. An accomplished woodworker, Rev. Myers still enjoys making grandfather clocks and “working with his hands” as he phrased it. He and his wife, their three daughters and their families reside in the Elkin area. (Information from Rev. Myers.)

1962-65 - Elwood White  Rev. White, a Surry County native, was a graduate of Dobson High School and Piedmont Bible College. Since leaving Piney Grove he has served churches in the Rocky Mount and Roanoke, Virginia area. He and his wife, the former Lorene Hall, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary in 1999. Their three children, Richard, Cathy, and Mark, and their adopted child, and their families live in the Rocky Mount/Roanoke area. Due to declining health, Rev. White no longer actively serves as a pastor. (Information from family members.)

June 1965 - Lee Pridgen, Interim  Rev. Pridgen was a retired minister from Winston-Salem. He and his wife, Grace, enjoyed coming to “the country” at Piney Grove and spending Saturday nights in the parsonage. They were the benefactor of fresh garden produce, country butter and milk, and eggs shared by the Piney Grove congregation. Rev. Pridgen is remembered by some for the summer cord suits and white shoes which he wore each Sunday. (Information from church members.)

1965 October-1966 May - William T. Bassett, Interim  Rev. Bassett, a recent seminary graduate who was enrolled in the School of Pastoral Care at North Carolina Baptist Hospital, guided the church through the development of its first constitution. B.J. Hodges recalls that the Constitution Committee met for many long hours on Saturday and Wednesday nights and Sunday afternoons (see church history 1960's). Rev. Bassett's wife, Eva Maude “Tinker,” may be remembered for her many beautiful hats. She once made the comment that “...as the minister's wife, I feel I need to wear a hat to church on Sunday morning.” After leaving Piney Grove, Rev. and Mrs. Bassett and their children, Randy and Melanie, moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where Rev. Bassett accepted a position as Chaplain at the Veterans Administration Hospital. (Information from church members.)
1966 May-1969 May - Marvin M. Turner  Rev. Turner was born in South Carolina in 1904, the youngest of 12 children. He was a graduate of Wake Forest College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He served Baptist churches in Kentucky, Ohio and North Carolina until his retirement in 1969. He also taught in the North Carolina public school system for several years. He was married to Victor Holland Turner, a native of Boiling Springs, NC. She was a public school teacher in North Carolina for many years, and retired from teaching in 1973. While in Surry County, Mrs. Turner taught at Franklin Elementary School. Upon Rev. Turner’s retirement from Piney Grove in 1969, the couple moved to Forest City, NC where they resided until Rev. Turner passed away on May 7, 1974, at the age of 70. Mrs. Turner continued to reside there until she moved to the Brookridge Baptist Retirement Home in Winston-Salem, where she passed away in August 1993, only eleven months after she moved there. Rev. Turner had many hobbies, including flowers (especially azaleas and camellias), woodworking, fishing, and hunting. The vegetable garden he grew while at Piney Grove was the envy of many church members. The years he spent as a pastor of numerous churches were very dear to him, and he maintained many friendships with these people until his death. The Turners had one daughter, Frances, who is married to Wayne Southern. The Southern’s reside in Greensboro. Frances is a CPA and partner in the firm of Shabaz, Southern, & Company in Greensboro. Wayne is a realtor and residential building contractor. Piney Grove was truly one of Rev. Turner’s most enjoyed pastorates, and the friends made there were very dear to him and Mrs. Turner. (Information from Frances Turner Southern and church members.)

1969 May-1970 September - John Stephen Perrou  Rev. Steve Perrou was a native of Valdese, NC. He attended Appalachian State University and served six years in the US Air Force. He received a B.S. Degree from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville and a Master of Divinity Degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC. Steve and his wife Juanita moved to Piney Grove in May 1969, bringing with them Juanita’s beautiful baby grand piano which occupied most of the parsonage living room. Both of the Perrous were outstanding musicians. Juanita worked with the choir building their confidence and in December of 1969 the choir presented John W. Peterson’s Christmas cantata, “Night of Miracles,” which remains one of the church’s most popular cantatas. Steve Perrou organized and directed Piney Grove’s first youth choir. He also took the youth on their first retreat, an overnight trip to the Groundhog Mountain cottage of Surry Baptist Association’s Director of Missions Rev. Oren Bradley. Juanita was an accomplished artist and drew the sketch of the church building for Piney Grove’s first bulletins. New Year’s Eve of 1969 saw the church celebrating the beginning of the decade with a watch night service and the Perrous’ adoption of their daughter, Lori Diane, who was the first baby to live in the parsonage. Steve Perrou died on May 27, 1997 in the Veteran Administration Medical Center in Durham. Juanita lives in Garner, NC and is still active as a church musician. The daughter Diane and her husband Thomas Charles Calloway, Jr. live in Texas. They have two children, Ashley and Thomas. (Information from Mrs. Perrou, church members, and “The Winston-Salem Journal.”)

1970-71 - Gerald N. Hewitt, Interim (see 1986-87 biography)

1971 September-1972 December - E. Clyde Ball A Surry County native born in Elkin on December 28, 1941, Rev. Ball holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from NC State University and a Master’s of Theology Degree from Dallas Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Lillian, were married on August 14, 1971 in Dallas, Texas. Following a honeymoon in Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado, the Balls moved to Piney Grove to assume the pastorate on the first Sunday in September 1971. In December the Balls hosted a Christmas open house at the parsonage where the guests admired Lillian’s Chrismon tree. Their first child, Heather Lynn, was born October 25, 1972. The Ball family moved from Piney Grove in January 1973. Rev. Ball presently serves as pastor in Cochran, Pennsylvania. Daughter Heather Moffitt lives in Chicago where her husband is a seminary student. A second daughter, Sara Elaine, lives in West Virginia. Piney Grove finalized plans for the present sanctuary and north wing during Rev. Ball’s pastorate. (Information from family members and Rev. Ball.)

1973-74 Interim; 1974-78 Bi-Vocational - Gerald Hewitt (see 1986-87 biography)

1978 September - L. E. Myers, Interim (see previous information 1960-62)
1978 October-1982 August  - Dwight Austin  Rev. Austin was born June 27, 1952, to Wayne and Ellen Austin of Taylorsville, NC, where the family was active in Antioch Baptist Church (also the home church of Pamela Keller Gray, wife of Piney Grove’s current pastor). It was at Antioch that Rev. Austin was licensed and ordained. He holds an Associate in Arts degree from Caldwell Community College, a Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University, and a Master of Divinity degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Piney Grove was Rev. Austin’s first full-time pastorate and he, his wife Sharon, and young son Jeffery moved into the parsonage in October 1978. A second son, Joel, was born while the family was at Piney Grove. Dwight Austin had an outstanding bass voice which added much to the choir as he readily accepted solo parts. The Austin family, which includes a third son, Bobby, currently resides in Windsor, NC in Bertie County where Dwight pastors Cashie Baptist Church, founded in 1770. Jeff is the Minister to Children and Youth at Aulander Baptist Church, Joel is a student at Campbell University majoring in Trust Law with a desire to be in international corporate law. Bobby is a rising freshman at Holmes High School in Edenton. Dwight Austin sends the following personal message to the Piney Grove congregation.

“My greatest memories of Piney Grove are of the stalwart saints who have served so well. Men like Sidney Johnson, Brady Hardy, Harley Atkins and B.J. Hodges. I remember the open and generous spirit of the Bill Campbell family and the ‘Red’ Beasley family. The dedication and foresight of the choir and the excellent musical program which was such a blessing to me in my time there. I remember our first planning for the addition, which now compliments the beautiful worship area, and of paying off the note on the original structure. I recall fondly the quiet dedication of Grover Haymore and his family and of Dot and Gurnie Simpson—how they made me laugh. Such a rich and memorable heritage coupled with such a tremendous present era of service can only result in greater service to the Kingdom and more glorious results for the colony of God which is called Piney Grove.” (Information from Rev. Austin and church members.)

1982 - Jesse Franklin Woodruff, Interim  (See photograph in memorial/tribute section.) Born September 14, 1906 in Alleghany County, Rev. Woodruff had been an active member of Piney Grove prior to his call into the ministry in 1944. He had served as church clerk 1936-39 and as Sunday School Superintendent 1940-42. He was ordained as a deacon at Piney Grove in August 1937. He attended Glade Valley Private School and graduated in the first class of Glade Valley Baptist Bible Institute in 1948. Rev. Woodruff served churches in Surry and Wilkes counties and in Virginia. He helped organize and was a charter member of Highland Park Baptist Church in Mount Airy. He was first married to Alma Quesinberry who died in 1943. Their children are Faye Beasley, Foy Woodruff, and Audrey Wright. Faye and Cecil Beasley and Audrey and Jesse Wright are active members of Piney Grove. Jesse married Helen Johnson in 1945. Their son is Don Woodruff who also attends Piney Grove with his wife Tammy and son Justin. Rev. Woodruff died February 28, 1988 and is buried in the Piney Grove cemetery. The Surry Baptist Association Minutes for 1988 were dedicated to Rev. Woodruff. Both of his sons-in-law and a grandson, Michael Beasley, are ordained Deacons at Piney Grove. (Information from family and church members.)

1983 June-1986 May - Charles Lennard  “A native of Florida with a love for North Carolina,” is the way Charlie Lennard describes himself. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of South Florida at Tampa and a Master of Divinity Degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, NC. Married for 29 years to Linda Adams Lennard, the couple has two children. A son, Charles, serves in the US Air Force in Italy. He and wife Cherie have a son Tristan, born on May 15, 1999. Daughter Kimberly is married to Brian Johnson, who is on active duty in the Navy, and lives in Virginia. They have a son, Hunter, born March 2, 1998. Rev. Lennard and his family came to Piney Grove after his graduation from seminary. In 1986 he resigned from Piney Grove and returned to Florida. From 1990-94 he pastored Southside Baptist Church in Sun City, Florida. He returned to Waynesville, North Carolina and pastored Barbellville Baptist Church from 1994-96. He currently is General Manager of Coloroc Materials, Inc. and is available for interim pastoring, preaching, and public speaking. Also, he serves as Sunday School teacher to the senior adults at Riverview (Florida) Methodist Church. The people at Piney Grove enjoyed Rev. Lennard’s enthusiastic spirit for special church projects. The Leonards continued the tradition of Christmas open house at the parsonage, and many folks fondly remember Linda’s delicious chili. Charlie Lennard sends the following personal message to the Piney Grove congregation.
“What has left a lasting memory to not only me but my family as well of our time at Piney Grove was the treasured relationships that were formed with so many of its people: picking peaches with Mama Lena Atkins; learning the value of family from Sid and Ida Johnson; taking trips all over the state with Gurnie Simpson; trout fishing with James Hayden; eating pound cake on the porch of Hadley and Pearl Harrell; the wealth of common sense wisdom learned while eating at the table of Harley and Callie Atkins. And so many more. It is the character of people like these that enhance growth in anyone who walks along their path, no matter how short the time.” (Information from Rev. Lennard and family members.)

1986-87 - Dr. Gerald N. Hewitt  Gerald Hewitt is a native of Maiden, NC. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wake Forest University in 1958; a Master of Divinity Degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1962; a Master of Arts Degree in Public Administration from Appalachian State University in 1976; and a Doctorate of Education Degree in Educational Administration from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 1983. He had a productive career with the North Carolina Baptist Hospital, Inc. beginning in 1956, serving in positions as Business Manager, Vice President for Patient Financial Services, and Assistant Corporate Secretary. He retired from NCBH in 1993. He served as an elected member of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Board of Education from 1984 to 1992. He was active in various professional groups and served on committees of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Convention. He was a trustee of the North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc. 1978-79.

Gerald Hewitt served at Piney Grove on three different occasions. From 1970-71 he served as interim pastor during a time of major transition for the church. The congregation was meeting in its second building, which needed repair and modernization. There was much discussion about planning for a new building, but some reluctance to attempt such a bold move.

During 1973-74 Rev. Hewitt served a second interim period, but was voted as pastor (bi-vocational) for 1974-78. By this time the church had selected a proposed building design for a new sanctuary and educational wing. Construction of this new facility took place from March through October 1974 by Blue Ridge Enterprises, Inc. of Mount Airy. Rev. Hewitt led the congregation in breaking ground for the new facility and coordinating the many “first” events in the sanctuary. Attendance and membership increased during the period. The budget grew and payments on the debt for the new building were made with ease. The congregation accepted a proposal that the Pulpit Committee cease seeking a pastor during the construction period and until a time in the future that Rev. Hewitt, in consultation with the leadership and the church, deemed it time to seek a full-time pastor. This arrangement lasted until the summer of 1978.

Upon his return as interim pastor in 1986-87, Rev. Hewitt had become Dr. Hewitt, having earned the Ed.D. degree from UNC-Greensboro. Once again the church was experiencing growth and the need for additional educational space was evident. A Building Committee was at work on design and proposal development.

Dr. Hewitt summarizes his experiences at Piney Grove as follows.

“The adjective unique is appropriately used. I am grateful to God and to the trust of the congregation of Piney Grove for affording me the opportunity to be a part of such significant events that stimulated the growth in programs, participation, evangelism, and children’s ministry in this wonderfully progressive church. The Hewitts learned what ‘sonker’ is and to love it as a dessert at Piney Grove Baptist Church.”

Gerald and Phyllis Hewitt reside in Winston-Salem. Their three children are Timothy, Scott, and Angela. Their two grandsons, son of Tim, are Jonathan and Nathan. During Dr. Hewitt’s ministerial career he has served five pastorates (two bi-vocational) and 19 interim pastorates. During the Hewitts’ time at Piney Grove, the couple celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a service of renewal of their wedding vows. (Information from Dr. Hewitt and church members.)

1987 January-Present - Kermit L. Gray  Rev. Gray was born on January 12, 1941, in Wilkes County, NC. His home church is Dennyville Baptist church in Rhonda. He attended Clingman Elementary School and graduated from East Wilkes High School in 1959. From 1962 to 1964 he served in the US Army with a 13-month tour of duty in South Korea. Rev. Gray received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Mars Hill College in 1969 and a Master of Divinity Degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC in 1972. In August 1968 he married Pamela Keller from Taylorsville, NC, also a student at Mars Hill. Pam has taught public school and currently serves as a substitute in the Surry County Schools. In 1993 the Grays were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary by a reception hosted by the Piney Grove congregation. The Grays have two children: a son, Joel, born in 1973, is an NC State University graduate and an employee of IBM in Raleigh. A daughter, Alison, born in 1976, is a Campbell University graduate and public school teacher in Franklin County, NC. Alison was married to Taylor Bartholomew on July 18, 1998, making her the first pastor’s child to be married at Piney Grove. Rev. Gray served from 1966-68 as interim pastor at Briar Creek Baptist Church in Wilkes County; from 1972-75 at Long View in Raleigh; from 1975-79 at Olive Branch in Durham; and from 1979-87 at Forest Park in Randleman, NC. The Gray family moved to Piney Grove in 1987 in the middle of a January snow storm. During Rev. Gray’s pastorate, the church completed its second major building project with the south wing of Sunday school classrooms and a larger fellowship hall. With this building addition, Sunday school attendance grew from about 110 to the current average of 185 per week. Rev. Gray has been active in the Surry Baptist Association, serving as Vice-Moderator in 1993 and as Moderator in 1994 and 1995. He also frequently teaches seminary extension classes. In April 1999 he visited South Africa with a team of 13 Surry Baptists as a part of the partnership between North Carolina and South African Baptists. The church is currently involved in its second “Challenge to Build” program with plans for a larger sanctuary and additional educational space in the near future. (Information from Rev. Gray.)

PINEY GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH
CHARTER MEMBERS
August 8, 1899

1. ABRAHAM JACKSON BADGETT (April 12, 1856-June 26, 1906)
2. MARY JANE DOSS BADGETT (January, 1866-August 13, 1914)

Abraham Badgett’s roots in Surry County run deep. His great-great-grandfather arrived in Surry County in 1772. Abraham married Mary Jane Doss (daughter of Thomas Jefferson Doss and Elizabeth Holyfield Doss) on February 7, 1884. They had two sons: Jesse Quinton (m. Ellie Mae Cassell) and Joseph W. Quinton’s descendants remain at Piney Grove. In August 1900, Abraham was one of the first two Deacons ordained at Piney Grove. At the time of his death, a page was “set a part to the memory of Brother A. Badgett” in the church minutes book written by S. F. Thompson, T. G. Marion, and J. A. Blue “Committee.” Abraham joined Piney Grove by baptism; Mary Jane, by letter. They are buried in the cemetery of Copeland Baptist Church.

3. ELIZABETH HOLYFIELD DOSS (July 31, 1828-December 14, 1905)

Elizabeth Doss was a widow living with her daughter and son-in-law, Mary Jane and Abraham Badgett, when Piney Grove Baptist Church was organized. Elizabeth was the widow of Thomas Jefferson Doss (1806-1891). At the time of her death, a page was “set a part to the memory of Sister Elizabeth Doss” written by J. A. Blue, J. S. Smith and A. Badgett “Committee.” Elizabeth joined Piney Grove by letter. She is buried in the cemetery of Copeland Baptist Church.

4. MARTIN DRAUGHN (January 11, 1844-July 24, 1915)
5. HULDA FRANCES WALKER DRAUGHN (March 2, 1847-December 6, 1917)

William J. Draughn and his wife Nancy Marion Draughn moved from Yadkin County to Surry County in 1851. They had 15 children. Their fourth child, Martin, married Hulda F. Walker in 1867. They had the following children: Edmund “Ed” (m. Nicy Simpson); Martha (m. L Johnson); Lular (m. Wylie Riggs); Irene (m. William Collins, who was a half-brother to charter member Shepherd H. Snow); John and Leatha. Ed and Nicy had seven children: Walter (m. Betty Smith, daughter of Joseph and Samantha Smith); Lucy (married Ed Haymore); Myrtle (m. Floyd Simpson); Wade (m. Verlie Marion); Wesley (m. Sadie Robertson); Myrtle (m. Floyd Simpson); Charlie (m. Lillian Kidd); and Rosella (m. Wilson Mitchell). We have the descendants of Lucy Draughn Haymore, Wade Draughn, and Wesley Draughn active in our church. Martin and Hulda joined Piney Grove by baptism. They are buried in the Piney Grove cemetery.
6. JOSEPH SAWYER SMITH (November 8, 1854-October 1, 1916)

Joseph Sawyer Smith was the son of Freeman (died February 1865 as a Civil War POW) and Lucy Jane Dezern Smith. He married Samantha Rebecca Park on April 17, 1887. They had twelve children: Eula (m. Ruel Doss); Betty (m. Walter Draughn, son of Martin and Huldah); Molly V. (m. Cletus Lambert); Charlie Lewis (m. Etta Lambert, sister to Cletus); George Dewey (m. Grace Kennedy); Vergie Ada (m. Jesse Copeland); Silas Columbus (m. Lema Doss); Luther (died March 12, 1920 on the same day as his mother during the influenza epidemic); Addie Frances (m. Brady Hardy); and Fredrick Arthur (m. Janie Sports). In September 1900, Joseph was one of the first two Deacons ordained at Piney Grove. When Joseph Smith died in 1916, a tribute to him was recorded in the church minutes in the form of a resolution. This resolution was prepared by “Committee. John A. Blue, David F. Lambert, and S. Marion.” The descendants of Silas Smith and Addie Smith Hardy continue to be active at Piney Grove. Joseph and Samantha joined Piney Grove by baptism. They are buried in the Piney Grove cemetery.

7. SAMANTHA REBECCA PARK SMITH (March 9, 1869-March 12, 1920)

Samantha Andrew Data members, to Collins). Three-year-old Errol, Shepherd 10. Copeland contributions February post 9. Neal 8. continue epidemic); Columbus 7. 6. 5. 4. Columbus 3. 2. Columbus 1. Columbus

8. MARY CORNELIUS “NEAL” CAVE MARION (March 22, 1870-September 13, 1946)

Neal Marion was the daughter of Algias Richard Cave and Mary Adeline Burrus Cave. She married John Marion, and they were the parents of the following children: Ivory (m. John Lewis); Vance (m. Bertha Atkins); Nettie (m. Albert Bingman); Hattie (m. Coley Atkins); Evie (m. Andrew Danley, m2. Columbus “Lum” Whitt); Jack (m. Euna Marion); Delmar (m. Carnie McMillian); Floyd (m. Mamie Marion); and Ella (never married). Descendants and families of Ivory Marion Lewis, Jack Marion and Floyd Marion continue to be active at Piney Grove. Neal joined Piney Grove by letter. She is buried in the Piney Grove Cemetery beside her husband John.

9. LAURA JANE BLUE HEMMINGS (VENABLE) (January 1871- June 10, 1954)

Laura Jane Blue Hemmings was a sister of Daniel Curtis Blue of Turner’s Mountain (which was once a rural post office). She was married to John Hemmings, who died in 1892. They had a daughter, “Miss Lillie” (born February 1893), who taught school at Piney Grove, Ivy Hill and New Home. Laura Jane is the first women to be mentioned in the church minutes book when, in July 1901, she and three men were listed as making contributions to an offering for the pastor. On December 18, 1909, Laura Jane moved her church letter to Copeland Baptist Church. She remarried at Copeland to Richard Venable. “Miss Lillie” married Charlie Perkins. In 1932 Lillie died, leaving seven children ages three months to 14 years. One of those children was three-year-old Mamie who later married Joe Hill. Joe and Mamie have seven children, one of whom, their son Errol, came full circle back to Piney Grove. Laura Jane joined Piney Grove by baptism.

10. SHEPHERD H. SNOW (1874-)

Shepherd “Shep" Snow was the only child of Ruel and Sara Hutson Collins Snow (Sara was the widow of Rufus Collins). Shep married a lady named Georgia, and they had a daughter, Mary Lee. Shepherd moved his family to West Virginia. He is a half-brother to William Collins, son-in-law of Martin and Hulda Draughn. Shepherd joined Piney Grove by baptism.

Brady was involved in the church as music director, choir member, cemetery committee member, and deacon. Addie's parents, Joseph and Samantha Park Smith, were charter members of Piney Grove, and Piney Grove was always her church. She served for many years as a Sunday school teacher for the Senior Adult Ladies. Both Brady and Addie were faithful in their attendance and service to Piney Grove until age and poor health forced their retirement. All of their children became members of Piney Grove and served in various capacities.

In Loving Memory of Gurnie Simpson
1920 - 1984

Gurnie grew up in the Piney Grove community. He attended Sunday school as a young boy. At age sixteen he went to South America and worked in highway and bridge construction. Following the attack on Pearl Harbor, Gurnie returned home and joined the Marine Corps and trained at Parris Island, South Carolina. Some of his training was as a sharp shooter. He attained the rank of Sergeant 2W, served over seas at Okinawa, Ryukyu Island and China. He returned home in February 1946. Gurnie and Norma (Dot) Tickle were married on June 26, 1948. Their children are Larry, Gary, Jean, Joan, and Bonnie Carroll who died in 1955. They have one grandchild, Katie Hamel. All members of the family have been members of Piney Grove. Gurnie and Dot were baptized together in Fisher River by Rev. Cecil Hooper, pastor and Mr. Tom Fowler, deacon. Gurnie loved Piney Grove where he served as deacon and on various committees, his favorites being the bell tower and cemetery committees.
