His example will continue to be seen in the lives of those who come in contact with him and his influence will be felt for many years to come. A noble servant yet a humble pastor, he well deserves the: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

the Rev. Keeran Willis concerning his pastoral relationships."

Motion made by Rev. George Riddle that the Called Meeting of Presbytery go into executive session; duly seconded. Passed.

Dr. James Brown reported Dr. Harry Moffett's absence and regrets at not being able to be present.

REPORT of Commission on the Minister and His Work by Rev. E. D. Witherspoon:

"Your Commission on the Minister and His Work has had placed in its hands two requests from the Reverend Keeran C. Willis. These requests are as follows: 1. That the pastoral relationship, now existing between him and the Westview Presbyterian Church, be dissolved; 2. That he be divested of the office of the Gospel by Kings Mountain Presbytery in which his membership is held.

Your commission has studied these requests at length and in detail. Members of the Commission have talked, upon a number of occasions, with Mr. Willis concerning his requests, and the Commission has investigated thoroughly the reasons which prompted them. The Commission has been informed by the Clerk of the Session of the Westview Presbyterian Church that the congregation has concurred in the request for the dissolution of pastoral relationships. As a result of its very thorough study of this matter, the Commission recommends to the Presbytery:

1. That the request for the dissolution of the pastoral relationship between the Westview Presbyterian Church and the Reverend Keeran Willis be granted, effective May 21, 1963. Passed.

2. That the request of the Reverend Keeran Willis that he be divested of the office of Minister of the Gospel be granted, and that he be permitted to demit the ministry without censure, effective May 21, 1963. Passed.

3. That the disposition of the church membership of Mr. Willis be placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, to await such time as he will designate in what local church he wishes his membership placed. Passed.

4. That, while recognizing a technical irregularity, since the Presbytery feels that in view of Mr. Willis' desire that this matter be concluded at a called meeting of the Presbytery at the earliest possible date, and, in view of the fact that it is confident that it is acting for the good of the Westview Church, for the good of the cause of religion in general, and for the best interests of Mr. Willis, Presbytery go on record as believing that it has met the spirit of the requirements of the Book of Church Order, Section 112, Paragraph 1. Passed.

Report as a whole adopted.

Message from minister expressed thanks for help and encouragement given while he was in the Presbytery.

Minutes were read and approved.

Rev. Charles Alexander, Moderator, closed the meeting with prayer.

CORRECTION MADE IN COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON MINISTER & HIS WORK, Rev. George Riddle.

The Commission on the Minister and His Work has met regularly each month since the last meeting of Presbytery. In addition to its meetings its members have been in repeated contact with each other by mail and telephone. It is with regret that the Commission reports to the Presbytery the loss of several men who have moved from our bounds. It is with gratitude to God that we are able to present several men to the Presbytery today who have accepted calls from churches within its bounds.

Your Commission reports the following action taken:

1. The dissolution of the pastoral relationship between the Reverend Tinsley P. Bradley and John C. Robinson Memorial, effective June 30th., 1963, in order that he might accept a call from the Green Springs Church and the Cleveland Church, Abingdon Presbytery.

2. The dissolution of the pastoral relationship between the Reverend Arthur Beard and the Hephzibah Church, effective June 30th., in order that he might accept the calls of the Marshville and New Salem Churches, Mecklenburg Presbytery.

3. The dissolution of the pastoral relationship between the Reverend Archie L. McNair and the Goshen Church, effective July 10th., in order that he might accept a call from the Forsyth Church Atlanta, Georgia.

4. The dissolution of the pastoral relationship between the Reverend Charles Alexander and the Mount Holly Church, effective July 15th., in order that he might accept an appointment by the Board of World Missions.

We regret to report that the following churches are vacant: Brittain, Union Mills, Cramerton, Goshen, Hephzibah, Robinson Memorial, Saluda, and West View.

Before presenting its recommendations the Commission would remind the churches of the Presbytery of the requirements relative to the call of a minister as set forth in the Book of Church Order, sections 26:3 and 25:2. These sections state that all items mentioned in a call, i.e., manse, hospitalization, etc., as well as salary, constitute "terms of the call". (This interpretation is that of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly) and that the terms of a call can be changed only with the consent of the Presbytery. In brief, the call of a minister is issued by the congregation which fixes its terms, and must be approved by the Presbytery. Such a call can be changed only by vote of the congregation, with the consent of the Presbytery. This matter is brought to the attention of the churches of Presbytery because the time is approaching when new budgets will be brought into being, and because the Commission still remembers the confusion of late, scattered, and no reports about this matter in the early months of 1963.

The Commission recommends that permission be granted the New Hope Presbyterian Church to make the following changes in its call to its pastor:

1. To increase salary from $5,000 to $5,400.
2. To increase car expense allowance from $400 to $600.
3. These changes to become effective July 1, 1963.

The Commission recommends that the calls extending to the following men by the churches indicated be approved, that they be examined at the time designated on the docket of Presbytery and, if the examinations be sustained as satisfactory, that commissions be appointed to proceed with their installation:

1. The Reverend Robert H. Brown, of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church who has accepted the call of the Springwood Church. The terms of the call are as follows: $5,100 remuneration with $600 of this amount designated as car expense and $300 as manse expense; this amount to be paid in the following manner: $1,500 by the Springwood Church, $1,500 by the First Church, Belmont, through Presbytery's treasurer, and $2,100 by the Church Extension Committee. The call includes the use of the manse, four weeks vacation, and participation in the Ministers Annuity Fund and the Group Insurance Plan of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

2. The Reverend James H. Nowell, of Concord Presbytery, who has accepted the call of the First Presbyterian Church, Rutherfordton. The terms of the call are as follows: $5,900 salary, plus $600 automobile expense, and participation in the Ministers Annuity Fund.

3. The Reverend Richard P. Shaw, of Enoree Presbytery, who has accepted the call of the Union Church. The terms of the call are as follows: $5,000 salary, plus $800 for car and manse expense; a manse; a vacation of one month; participation in the Minister's Annuity Fund and in the Group Insurance Plan of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. Payment of moving expenses.

Motion to adopt report and recommendations. Passed.

COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES Rev. Paul Thrower

Kings Mountain Presbytery has at the present only three active candidates for the ministry. However, today your Committee on Candidates is presenting and recommending the reception of one who will become the fourth.

The Committee through its chairman has been in close contact with its candidates during the year and has recently received a written report from each.

Mr. Robert A. Wilson, of Lowell, Middier at Columbia Seminary, (Box 177), Decatur, Ga., writes that he and his wife had a very enjoyable and enriching experience in their work at Saluda this summer. He served the Saluda Church and worked as assistant director of the Camp of Presbytery. In addition to his present studies he is taking part in a course in Hospital Pastoral Care at Emory University Hospital. He is doing occasional preaching on Sundays. His wife is again teaching in one of the Atlanta high schools.

Mr. Richard J. Keever, of Lincolnton, Junior at Union Seminary, Richmond, Va., graduated from U. N. C. in the Spring, and he writes that he had a rich experience in his summer service with the Institutional Service Project in Dorothea Dix State Hospital, Raleigh, sponsored by the Protestant Chaplains' Council at State College. He was one of 18 college young people who served as psychiatric aides in the mental hospital. In the endeavor to give respect, concern and love, not to be found anywhere else in their lives, the patients and experiences, gave new meaning concerning the proclamation of the Gospel of Christ.

Mr. Bailey P. Phelps, of the First Church, Shelby, who graduated from St. Andrews, is now a Junior at Austin Seminary (Box 208), Austin, Tex. He worked this past summer with the Y. M. C. A. Camp and in other projects, directing recreation and giving counsel to children and young people. He seems much pleased at the seminary and is convinced more than ever that God has called him into His service. He and his fiance announced their engagement this summer, in view of marrying after her graduation from Rice University, sometime next summer.

Mr. Dewey D. Murphy, upon approval of Presbytery today will become our fourth active candidate. Mr. Murphy is married and he and his wife have two young children. He is a native of Belmont, a graduate of Belmont Abbey College, and has worked with two electrical companies in Burlington the past few years. While in Burlington he was a member of the Baptist denomination, but having felt the call to the ministry he desired to return to his mother church, so to meet the rules of our Book of Church Order he has now been a member of the East Belmont Presbyterian Church since Spring. He is a brother to Rev. C. D. Murphy who was pastor of that church. During the latter part of the summer he has attended the language school at Columbia Seminary, where he is now enrolled as a Junior.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the names of our candidates and prospective candidates be placed on the Stated Clerks' mailing list, so as to receive announcements of the meetings of Presbytery, the minutes, and other helpful information.

2. That the names of all in-active candidates be dropped, and in case interest is ever revived they be again fully examined as new candidates.

Motion. Receive and adopt this report.

Amend. Write one last letter to the candidates demand a statement from them before placing on inactive list. Seconded. Passed. Report. Passed.

Received: Mr. Dewey Murphy. Rev. Paul Thrower stated the facts about the committee's conferences with Mr. Murphy. Vote to accept passed. Moderator questioned Mr. Murphy concerning his personal faith and reasons for entering the ministry.

Motion. Examination be sustained as Satisfactory. Passed. Questions proposed by the Moderator and answered by the candidate, Mr. Murphy, in the affirmative. Prayer by Dr. James N. Brown. Charge to Candidate by Rev. Paul Thrower. Presbytery stood for the declaration of acceptance of Mr. Dewey Murphy is now a candidate and Presbytery extended him the right hand of fellowship.

PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL: Rev. Paul Ashley.

The Treasurer of Presbytery reports that as of September 30, 1963 he has received $103,175.00 of the $169,227.00 due on Benevolences for the first nine months of the church year. There is a deficit of over $66,000.00 and churches are urged to pay their benevolence on a monthly basis.

Council would like to report to Presbytery that the Treasurer's books of Kings Mountain Presbyterial have been audited for the period beginning September 22, 1962 and ending September 23, 1963 and were found in order. Audit report by Butler & Stowe was filed with Council and Stated Clerk of Presbytery.

New Expense Vouchers have been made by Council and all committees of Presbytery should get as many as needed from Mr. Richard Hobson before leaving the meeting of Presbytery today. As of October 22, 1963 Presbytery's Treasurer will pay expenses on this new Voucher only. Also, each Committee Chairman must sign voucher or Treasurer will not pay voucher. If any Committee Chairman desires to authorize a Sub-Committee Chairman to sign expense vouchers, Presbytery's Treasurer must be notified in writing. Your co-operation in this matter will enable the Treasurer to pay expenses incurred by any committee or person within five days.

Some churches have indicated that their Benevolence apportionment is incorrect. Presbytery's Treasurer used the formula adopted by Presbytery and if any church does not accept its apportionment, the Treasurer must be notified in writing. This is the only way he can keep his records correct and all churches are asked to assist him in this matter. Two reports of monthly receipts and disbursements of Presbytery's benevolence account will be sent minister and treasurer of each local church.

The books of Presbytery's Treasurer will be closed January 5, 1964 and all Benevolence payments received by then can be included in the 1963 yearly report. Please advise your local church treasurer of this date.

"The General Fund Agencies are made up of a family of causes (1) the General Council, which is the planning and publicity instrument of the Church, (2) the Presbyterian School of Christian Education at Richmond, Va., (3) the Mountain Retreat Association, having as its responsibility the care of the General Assembly grounds at Montreat and the operation of Montreat-Anderson College, (4) the Commission on Tel., Radio and Audio-Visuals; this agency, the newest of the church has the task of working out ways for using these modern inventions for making known the gospel of Christ, (5) Stillman College, our only Negro College, (6) the Historical Foundation, (7) the American Bible Society, (8) the Presbyterian Foundation, and (9) the Bd. of Wm.'s Wk. These agencies should be thought of as important because of the plurality of their no. but other than that our comm. would call your attention to the fact that most all of these agencies are making a distinct and vital contribution to the cause of Christ in their own right.

Recommendations:

1. We recommend that each congregation not only remember that June is the month for us to emphasize these agencies; that April 26 is a special day to recognize Presbyterian School of Christian Education; that June 7 is Montreat Sunday; that Jan. 19, 1965 is our next Stillman College Sunday, but that on these special occasions some progressive action be made by the local church to help the cause specified."

Report of Council: Rev. Paul Ausley.

The Treasurer of Presbytery reports that $211,064.11 or 93.5% was received from the churches on regular Benevolence for the 1963 church year, Our Budget was $225,953.00 leaving a deficit of $14,571.00. However, $9,422.00 was received for special causes, making a grand total of contributions for Benevolences of $220,487.00 leaving a deficit of $5,149.00. We would have come much closer to paying our benevolences in full had the Central Treasurer received the 16 checks for 1963 amounting of $3,340.00 prior to January 6 which was the closing date for his books set by Presbytery.

The excellent report on Benevolences is possible because churches are continuing to send regular monthly payments on benevolence. We urge the continuance of this policy for 1964.

Council would like to remind all churches to notify the Central Treasurer of your acceptance of Presbytery's askings for 1964. This is necessary since Synod and General Assembly desires to know what Kings Mountain Presbytery has accepted for the current year which will enable them to make their budget. Page 14-15 Presbytery minutes list the askings of each by Presbytery.

Council desires to express its appreciation to the Committee on Minister's Salaries for their work and offers their whole hearted support to the recommendations they will present to Presbytery today. This matter has become urgent since we have so many vacant churches and neighboring Presbyteries have taken action to revise their minimum salaries. Adopted.

2. That Presbytery take some interim action on an informal basis to take proper care of the hardship cases that now exist in the Presbytery. Such money raised would be Presbytery benevolence.

3. That Presbytery consider the cases of those churches that would be affected by the raise in professional expense in 1965 and adjust Presbyteries askings accordingly. 1—Passed; Nos. 2 & 3 be referred to Church Extension Committee to report at April Meeting, 1964. Passed.

Substitute motion: Send to General Assembly as overture; Substitute-motion, Lost: Substitute-motion: Refer matter of Educational Insurance to Council for study and report at spring meeting of Presbytery. Special Committee on Book of Church Order: Dr. Harry Moffett. Kings Mountain Presbytery offered the following interpretation of the authority over use of church property in the light of the following statements in the Book of Church Order, Chapter 12 - Paragraph 3.

"The committee appointed by the Moderator to clarify the meaning and limits of the sentence in Chapter 12 - Paragraph 3 of the BCO which reads as follows: "in matters of special importance affecting the property of the church they (the Deacons) can take final action only with the consent of the congregation."

Offers the following statements of interpretation:

The sentence quoted above is limited by the sentence proceeding it which reads as follows: It is their (the Deacons) duty also to have the care of the property of the congregation, both real and personal, and to keep in proper repair the church edifice and other buildings belonging to the congregation.

The "matters of special importance" are matters of property disposal, alteration or repair, or any property expenditures not covered by the budget and of sufficient magnitude as to involve the risk of indebtedness or special financial appeals to the congregation.

The responsibility for the use of church property by any group and for any activity or program resides solely in the Session which has the responsibility clearly imposed upon it by the BCO, Chapter 15—Paragraph 6. Special attention is called to items 8, 9, 10. Approved.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COMMITTEE: report by Rev. Frank Elliott.

Work Day, May 2 and 16, by W. H. Prultt; N. C. Week at Montreat, by Rev. George Webb; Adult Workshop, Montreat, by Sidney Maxwell.

Received as information:

The Christian Education Committee of Kings Mountain Presbytery is proceeding with the usual calendar of events with a few changes. In Senior High work the Sub-committee has been reorganized, with 4 Sub-committees. Week-end with a missionary has been turned over to World Mission Committee and the Collegiate Retreat to the Christian Education Sub-committee on Christian Higher Education.

Participation in Presbytery's programs has been good and a complete summary will be compiled at the end of the Camp & Conference season. Camp Directors continue to find difficulty in securing qualified counselors. We solicit your encouragement and support in sending your young people and winsome, committed adults as counselors to your camp at Bear Wallow. The fee for a week at our camp is still $10.00 in spite of inflationary trends. Counselors are boarded without charge.

We are fortunate to have an experienced and willing Area DCE serving within our Presbytery. Miss Dorothy Ray, P. O. Box 62-Akers Station, Gastonia, N. C. Miss Ray is available to all of us for assistance in Christian Education Programs, either in Leadership Training, Consultation, clinics, or for Worker's Conferences. It is suggested that every minister, Sunday School Superintendent, and Christian Education Committee confer with her at least once each year in order to enable her to make the best possible contribution to our Christian Education Ministry.

HOME MISSIONS:

The Church Extension Committee has concurred with the action taken by the Session of East Belmont Church in discontinuing the work at the Alexander Memorial Chapel, effective April 1, 1964.

Study is in progress for the grouping of churches which will enable a more effective ministry to be carried out by these churches in the communities in which they are located. Recommendation No. 1 has come out of this study.

The Board of Church Extension has discontinued its practice of sending vacation funds to the Presbyteries. The Committee feels however that there is still a need for this aid and has offered one gift of $150.00 this year.

There are two reservations at the William Black Home available for the Church Extension Conference, August 6-12. Anyone wishing to use these reservations is asked to speak to the chairman of the Committee today.

Work has begun on an addition to the John Knox Church Education Building. The contract was let for $19,859.48.

Ruling Elder Contact Men have been assigned for the aid-receiving churches as follows

Robert Adams: Springwood; Westview; Robinson Memorial

Jake Burgin: Hephzibah; Northside; Linwood, Glendale

W. A. Hambright: Dixon, Columbus, Saluda

Sam Strain: Ellenboro, Duncan's Creek; Union Mills, Brittain; John Knox.

MINISTER'S SALARY:

The Church Extension Committee was instructed by Presbytery to study ways and means of implementing the action of Presbytery in regards to the proposed minimum salary for ministers.

The Sub-Committee on Minister's Salaries of the Church Extension Committee (Ruling Elders W. A. Hambright; Sam Strain, Robert Adams, Jake Burgin) made this study. They requested information from Presbytery's Commission on the Minister and His Work on the present salaries paid in our Presbytery. They secured similar information from the Board of Church Extension. This information showed:

(1) That Kings Mountain Presbytery's proposed minimum salary for '65 and '66 would make it the highest in the Synod;

(2) That its proposed minimum salary places it in the upper 1/3 of the Presbyteries in the General Assembly;

(3) That this proposed increase will affect all aid-receiving Churches;

(4) That the ministers of self-supporting churches, with the exception of Dallas and Castania, presently receive above the proposed minimum for '65;

(5) That this is also true for the proposed increase for '66 (with the exception of the above mentioned churches and Shiloh and Union).

The Recommendations No. 2 and No. 3 of this report are based on this study.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

No. 1 That Presbytery approve the grouping of the Linwood Presbyterian Church and the Glendale Presbyterian Church.

No. 2 That Churches experiencing difficulty or hardship in meeting Presbytery's minimum salary for their Minister submit their case to the Church Extension Committee for consideration.

No. 3 That Churches experiencing difficulty or hardship in meeting the increase in professional expenses for their minister, as proposed by Presbytery, submit their case to the Church Extension Committee for consideration.

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK: by Rev. J. B. Bradley. Report follows:

The Commission on the Minister and His Work of this Presbytery reports that at the present time there are only three fields in the Presbytery which do not have a call outstanding to a minister. These are East Belmont, Goshen and Hephzibah. Two vacant fields have extended calls to ministers and are waiting to receive replies at the present time. These are Glendale-Linwood and Westview in Mt. Holly.

Four fields in the Presbytery have received favorable replies from ministers to whom they have issued calls.

The Reverend Charles Emerson Smith has accepted the call to the Cramerton Church to become their pastor and is at Presbytery today to be received by the presbytery and arrangements made for his installation, the way being clear.

The Reverend Jack Roger Marrow has indicated his willingness to accept the call of John C. Robinson Memorial Church and hopes to appear before the presbytery in the near future to consummate arrangements in this connection.

The Reverend Jack C. Robinson has indicated his willingness to accept the call of West Avenue and hopes to appear before the presbytery in the near future to consummate arrangements in this connection.

Mr. Robert A. Wilson, candidate for the ministry under the care of this presbytery has indicated his willingness to accept the call of Unity and Macpelah churches and hopes to appear before the presbytery in the near future to consummate arrangements in this connection. Mr. Wilson anticipated graduation from Columbia Seminary at the close of this school year.

In the light of the above report, your Commission would recommend:

1. That the call of the Cramerton Church to The Reverend Charles Emerson Smith be found in order.

2. That the Presbytery proceed to examine Mr. Smith, with view to receiving him into the presbytery, placing the call of the Cramerton Church in his hands, and the way being clear, arranging for his installation as Pastor of the Cramerton Church.

3. That the Call of John C. Robinson Memorial Church to the Reverend Jack Roger Marrow be found in order.

4. That the call of the West Avenue Church to the Reverend Jack C. Robinson be found in order.

5. That the call of the Unity and Macpelah Churches to Mr. Robert A. Wilson be found in order.

6. That the Presbytery of Kings Mountain, at the conclusion of the business of the day and at time for adjournment, adjourn to meet at the call of the Moderator, at such time and place as will facilitate the reception installation and as the case may require ordination of these men who have indicated their willingness to accept the above mention calls and any others which may be consummated in time to be presented at the Presbytery Called Meeting.

7. That the congregations of Macpelah and Castanea Churches be requested to take the necessary legal steps to deed the manse property at Unity to the Unity Church.

MOTION: Presbytery to proceed to examine Rev. C. Emerson Smith. Transfer letter from Mobile Presbytery of C. Emerson Smith presented. Received. Adopt; report as a whole adopted.

PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL REPORT: Dr. Paul Ausley. Report adopted as follows:

Council was instructed by Presbytery to approach the Board of Annuities and Relief relative to the feasibility of an educational insurance policy for ministers and employees of our church. Your chairman has taken this matter up with Dr. Vick, Executive Secretary of the Board of Annuities and Relief, and they are pursuing this matter dilligently. Several insurance companies have been contacted and they hope to have something concrete to propose to the board when it convenes on June 29. After this meeting, Dr. Vick will report to me their action and I shall inform the July Meeting of Presbytery what action was taken.

All Committees of Presbytery desiring funds for the operation of their Committee must submit their request to the Stewardship Committee of which Richard Shaw, minister of the Union Church, Rt. 3, Gastonia, is the new chairman. This is necessary since Stewardship Committee must have this information in order to calculate the Presbytery Tax which supplies funds for these committees for the 1965 church year. Chairman of all committees please take notice and make your request prior to June 15.

Central Treasurer of Presbytery reports that of the $59,671.08 apportioned to the churches, $42,629.27 had been received. This means we have a deficit of $17,041.81 for the first quarter in receipts from the churches. The Treasurer also reports that $6,538.10 has been received for Special Causes. Please observe and see if your church has paid its askings in full for the first quarter. If not, Sessions are requested to see that their churches make their payments monthly as adopted by Presbytery.

The books of the Treasurer of Kings Mountain Presbytery have been audited. They were found in order.

Council would like to remind the Sessions of the various churches that the Deacons are requested to attend the Summer Meeting of Presbytery to hear the Stewardship report on the Benevolence Askings for 1965.

During the time which has elapsed since the April meeting, all Churches in the Presbytery have called pastors, with the exception of the Glendale-Linwood field and the Hephzibah and the Saluda church. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON STEWARDSHIP

Report To

PRESBYTERY OF KINGS MOUNTAIN

In making an examination of the record of giving for the Presbytery toward the work of God's kingdom in 1963; we take note of the fact that no church in the Presbytery gave more to benevolences than it did to current expenses. We also see that the churches of the Presbytery contributed $5,411 less to benevolences in 1963 than they did in 1962.

The per capita giving for all causes in 1963 throughout the General Assembly averaged $110.26. The average per capita giving for the Synod of North Carolina was $108.66 which caused the Synod to be ranked 11th among the 16 synods. The Presbytery of Kings Mountain ranked first among the nine Presbyteries of our Synod with a per capita giving figure of $125.83. This figure represents a 7.26 per cent increase over last year and placed the Presbytery 12th among the 80 Presbyteries of the General Assembly.

While we have every right to be pleased with the standing our Presbytery holds in the per capita giving figure — we should feel some sense of shame in that our giving to benevolences has decreased. We would, therefore, challenge every church to exert every effort to meet the benevolent askings presented on page four of this report and if possible to take a step in faith and go beyond the mere acceptance of your respective apportionment.

In preparing the Benevolence budget which is being presented today, your committee sought to determine the needs behind the various request presented by the Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly. The total of the request that came to us was $269,127.46. While we would like to challenge the people with this amount, we felt it unwise to reach for such a large goal at this point. In recognition of the fact that the Presbytery accepted 92 per cent of the askings of the agencies last year, we are recommending that the Presbytery accept 94 per cent of the askings of the agencies for 1965. This amount is $249,960, which represents a 4.48 per cent increase over last year's budget.

Your Stewardship Committee is suggesting that those churches who feel they could profit by having the minister of another church who places a strong emphasis on stewardship to come and speak to their church — seek to arrange a pulpit exchange sometime during the stewardship season.

We would also remind the churches of the fact that the filmstrip and record entitled "Stewardship Visitor Training Kit" which would be of help in the EMC is available from the committee. Another Filmstrip and record entitled "The Plan" which is for use with young people in introducing the correct view of handling God's possessions is also available.

Finally, we are pleased to announce that three area Stewardship Rallies will be held in the Presbytery this Fall. The speaker for the Rallies will be the Rev. Charles C. Cowser, D. D., Secretary of Stewardship of the General Council of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

The Rallies will be held from 7:00-9:00 o'clock each evening, and they will be as follows:

Central Area — Wednesday, October 21, First Presbyterian Church of Kings Mountain

Eastern Area — Thursday, October 22, First Presbyterian Church of Belmont

Western Area — Friday, October 23, Tryon Presbyterian Church

Additional information will be mailed to each church in the near future, but each minister, church officer and church member who is working in the stewardship program of the local church is invited. The cost will be $1.25 per plate.

The Stewardship committee recommends that the previous report be received as information and that its recommendations be adopted as follows:

1. That the Stewardship Emphasis Season begin October 19, 1964, and continue through November 15, 1964; that November 8 be designated as "Dedication Sunday" for the Every Member Canvass; and that the theme of the Canvass be "Thanks Be to God."
2. That churches use the Every Member Canvass Manual published by the General Council to conduct Every Member Canvasses in which every family in the congregation is visited and that each church be asked to:
 - a. Commission adequately trained visitors to visit every family.
 - b. Make every family aware of its responsibility for the total program of the Church both on the local and benevolence level.
 - c. Urge every family to adopt the tithe as its minimum goal and to begin to move towards it by increasing in 1965 the percentage of its income which it gives to the Church.
3. That Kings Mountain Presbytery adopt as a minimum Benevolence budget for 1965 the amount of $249,960, with amounts and percentages to the various causes of the Assembly, Synod, and Presbytery as shown on page three.
4. That this budget be apportioned to the churches of Kings Mountain Presbytery as indicated on page four.
5. That each church recognize its responsibility to see that it secures the full amount of its apportionment for each Assembly, Synod, and Presbytery agency, before making over and above gifts to any cause or causes. (Each church will at this point make such decisions with knowledge of its own situation. Each church should recognize that supplemental offerings are taken so that the amounts received may be applied to the church's apportioned share for that particular cause, while a special offering is an over and above offering for work not in the budget of any agency.)
6. That churches remit monthly one-twelfth of their total annual benevolence acceptance, making the contribution to benevolences the first responsibility to be paid by the church treasurer each month.
7. That Presbytery's tax for 1965 be set at $1.25.

COMMISSION ON MINISTERS AND HIS WORK: by Rev. J. B. Bradley

Your Commission met on the fourth Monday in July and September, to attend to business which was presented to it. The August meeting was omitted.

In the light of the fact that Synod has brought this matter to the attention of the Presbytery, and in the opinion of the Commission on the Minister and His Work our Presbytery should institute a "Program of Orientation", for all ministers who are received into our Presbytery and who are laboring under the supervision of the Presbytery. Such an "Orientation Program" should include the presentation of information which will enable all newly received members to become acquainted with the members of Presbytery, have knowledge of the working of the Presbytery, and know something of the geography of our area. To this end we would suggest:

1. That the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery be instructed to provide these men with a Manual of Presbytery, a copy of the last Minutes of the Presbytery along with a resume of any meetings which have been held since the last printing of the minutes, and with a map of the Presbytery and one of the Synod.

2. That these newly received members be encouraged to make inquiry, of the Stated Clerk or the Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work, concerning information which they feel will enhance their work in their local church and in the Presbytery.

Calls to two ministers are to be presented to the Presbytery for approval at this meeting. The Hephzibah and Saluda churches are the only vacant fields in our Presbytery at the present time.

We recommend:

1. That the program of Orientation as outlined above, be officially instituted and perpetuated in this Presbytery.
2. That the call of the East Belmont Church, to the Reverend Olin Adolphus Radford, be found in order.
3. That the call of the Glendale and Linwood churches, to the Reverend Samuel Browne Hoyt Jr., be found in order.
4. That the way being clear, these respective calls be placed in the hands of the ministers, and proper arrangements be made for their installation.

Respectfully submitted.

October 1-18 has been designated Church Extension Emphasis Season. Your committee would like to have an opportunity to speak to your joint officers meeting, or General meeting of the Women of the Church, or any other meeting where we can be of service to you in speaking on the subject. Our Presbytery needs to know what has been done, is being done, and needs to be done in the field of Church Extension. Please contact any member of the Committee or the Chairman for such a program.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM: Mr. Ed Byrd, Chairman.

The Committee urges the churches of Presbytery to join it in a serious self-examination in light of the facts of this next paragraph.

Kings Mountain Presbytery reported a net loss in Church Membership for 1963. The reason for this is due in part to three factors. First, we are last in the Synod in "spiritual birthrate". Our growth by profession of faith was only 2.23% of our total membership. Secondly, we are last in the Synod in "soul-winning" ration. That is, it took more Presbyterians to win one person for Christ in Kings Mountain Presbytery than in any other Presbytery in the Synod of North Carolina. It took 45 persons to win one in our Presbytery. Throughout our whole church it takes 34.81 persons to win one profession of faith. Thirdly, we are last in the Synod on per centage of Church School growth since 1940. We show a decrease in Sunday School enrollment from 8310 in 1960 to 8175 in 1963 or decrease of 1.6%. We have grown since 1940 by 33.25% while the Synod as a whole has grown 72.72%.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON LOCATION AND RELOCATION: Mr. Jake Burgin, Chairman.

The Hephzibah Church is building a new church on a new location. A survey of possible sites was made by Mr. James Earhart of Atlanta and the Church will be located on one of the approved sites.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS: Mr. Dick Hobson, Chairman. Plans are well under way for our Presbytery's First Home Mission Church Engathering. The officers and their wives (or husbands) of all aid-receiving churches have been invited to the meeting on November 1st at the First Presbyterian Church in Gastonia.

There are two vacant Home Mission Churches at this time: Hepzibah and Saluda.

GRANTS-IN-AID have been given to the Westview and Glendale Churches in the form of challenge funds for needed additions to their manse. The Matthews Belk gift of $2,000.00 was used in this manner. The John Knox Church was challenged to raise $15,000 by a grant of $5,000 towards their new Church School addition.

LOANS have been made to John Knox for $6,000.00 and to Unity Church for $10,000.00. The Unity Loan is for three years at 4% interest.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND MANSE BUILDING: Mr. Jim Nowell, Chrm.

Any church which plans to seek financial help from Presbytery, Synod or the Assembly in a Church or Manse building project must first confer with this committee. Presbytery has also said such a conference must take place before contract is let or building is started. Manse renovations and additions at Westview and Glendale were approved. The Committee is presently working with the Hepzibah Church in its building program.

REPORT FROM BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION IN REGARDS TO THE PRESBYTERIAN DEVELOPMENT FUND

The Board is ready to make the first distribution of Presbyterian Development Funds to the qualifying Presbyteries. The policy concerning this distribution is as follows:

"Any Presbytery having sites approved by the Department of Survey and Church Location will have returned to its Church Extension Committee on an annual basis 50% of the net amount of Presbyterian Development Fund money coming to this Board from said Presbytery to be applied toward the cost of Church and Manse sites purchased after January 1, 1962.

Under the plan outlined above, all amounts designated by a particular church or individual for projects within the Presbytery of jurisdiction shall be returned to the Church Extension Committee of the Presbytery for the purpose designated and shall be counted as a part of the returnable percentage referred to in the paragraph above."

Application for these funds are to be made through the Presbytery's Church Extension Committee.

AD-INTERIM COMMITTEE — Rev. George Riddle:

YOUR AD-INTERIM COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY PRESBYTERY ON CHURCH MEMBERSHIP REPORTS AS FOLLOWS:

The assignment your committee seems to indicate a rather broad field in the areas of requirements for those wishing to become members of the church, as well as, requirements for Christian living within the body of the church. The assignment, as we understand it is that we should draw up an overture to the General Assembly asking that the General Assembly take steps in the direction of more strict regulations and laws in this area.

Your Committee is heartily in agreement with the idea that more circumspect lives should be lived by all members of the church and that one way of at least making a start in this direction is to more thoroughly instruct those who are about to make their Profession of Faith.

Our Church has always recognized the need for a fuller understanding of the meaning of discipleship on the part of, not only those who are just now coming to make their Profession of Faith in Jesus Christ, but also on the part of those already church members. Our Church is even now calling upon all church leaders and church members to recognize the fact that if one is to hope for salvation through Jesus Christ he must manifest this hope by truly being a bondservant of Jesus Christ

In addition to the Bible, our Church has provided the Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Book of Church Order, including the form of government, the Rules of Discipline, and the Directory for Worship and Work of the Church, as guides in Covenant Living.

Finally, our Church is now providing what we consider to be adequate materials and resources through the Covenant Life Curriculum.

THEREFORE, let us, rather than presenting an Overture to the General Assembly concerning Church Membership, challenge every officer and every member of our churches to use diligently the tools, materials and equipment at their disposal, to the Glory of God and for the advancement of His Kingdom here on earth.

Respectfully submitted:

J. B. Bradley

Motion: the two be received as candidates; Passed.

PRESBYTERY COUNCIL: Rev. Paul Ausley

Presbytery's Central Treasurer reports that for the first nine (9) months of 1964 the amount of $134,663.97 of the $179,010.36 pledged has been received. Presbytery asked that churches pay one-twelfth of accepted benevolences each month. Many churches are failing to comply with this request resulting in a deficit of $44,346.39. Elders and ministers are urged to take this matter before local Sessions and see if they can arrange to bring their benevolence payments up to date.

Presbytery's Treasurer's Books will close on Wednesday, January 6, 1965. All churches must send in their benevolence by this time if it is to be included in the 1964 annual report. Please advise your church treasurer of this date.

Council, upon the order of Presbytery had the Treasurer's books of Kings Mountain Presbyterial audited by Butler and Stowe of Gastonia, N. C. for the period September 23, 1963-September 24, 1964. Books were found in order and a copy is being filed with Stated Clerk and Council.

We are continuing to have problems preparing Docket for the meetings of Presbytery. Council always meets two weeks prior to the meetings of Presbytery to act upon request for specific time on Presbytery's Docket. We solicit your co-operation on this matter and we will do our best to give time desired. Simply write me, or the Stated Clerk prior to Council meeting.

Dr. Ausley Moore, President of St. Andrews, has requested that I call your attention to the fact that 1964 ends the three year period we were to pay your pledges for the campaign in 1961 for St. Andrews College. There were only 17 of the 45 churches in Kings Mountain Presbytery that pledged to this campaign. Total pledged $51,999.68 of which $28,105.99 has been paid leaving a balance of unpaid pledges $23,893.69. Churches are asked to remit pledges this year if possible and those churches that have not taken any action to support St. Andrews to do so.

RECOMMENDATION

1. Council recommends that Presbytery request Council to Overture Stated Clerks Association what should be retained in the files of Stated Clerk.

Paul K. Ausley, Chairman

SYNOD HOMES: No Report;

Motion: Presbytery have prayer for Rev. J. C. Kovach who had a heart attack and is recovered to preach again; Passed. Prayer by Rev. E. D. Witherspoon.

WORLD MISSIONS: Rev. Wilson Rhoton:

Presbytery's World Mission Committee met on Sunday, September 13, 1964 at the First Presbyterian Church, Gastonia, N. C., with seven of the nine members present. Mr. Kovach asked to be excused because of illness.

We submit the following report to Presbytery:

1) MISSIONARY ITINERATION:

Beginning this year, the Board of World Missions is initiating an itineration policy designed to offer the most efficient relationship between the furloughed missionaries and the Synods and Presbyteries possible under present conditions. Because of the demand of churches for missionaries so completely overreaches the number of missionaries available, the Board, beginning now, is assigning a certain number of missionaries to each Synod of the church, and making these missionaries available for Itineration in the Synod during the months of November, January, February and April, May, June. During the months of October, December and March, the Board reserves the time of these missionaries for use in their supporting churches.

The following missionaries have been asked to the Synod of North Carolina for itineration during the World Mission Season:

Rev. Hugh Linton Rev. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell

Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Oliver, Jr. Miss Doris Moore

Miss Elizabeth McNeill

Synod's Committee has assigned to Kings Mountain Presbytery the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell for February 5th through 12th, and Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Oliver, Jr., Sunday, February 28th.

Motion: World Mission Committee be given time at January meeting to report on the World Mission season. Seconded; Passed.

2) Annuities & Relief — Dr. J. N. Brown, Chairman

Presbytery's Committee on Annuities and Relief presents the following Report:

Our Committee attended the special meeting held on October 29-30, 1964 at St. Andrews Presbyterian College at Laurinburg.

Dr. George Vick, Secretary of Annuities and Relief of the General Assembly, spoke to the Committees of each Presbytery of the Synod of North Carolina on "The Responsibility placed on our Board in the field of Annuities, Insurance, and Ministerial Relief, as it seeks to work under the principles approved by the General Assembly." In Kings Mountain Presbytery practically every minister in our Presbytery is now a member of the Annuity Fund except a few of the older ministers who have retired, and they are on Ministerial Relief.

The Kate Reynolds Fund was thoroughly discussed.

1. Item 10 in the will of Mrs. Kate Billing Reynolds is as follows:

"To my trustees four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) in trust to pay the net income therefrom for the maintenance and support of aged Presbyterian Ministers of the Synod of North Carolina as now constituted, the said income to be disbursed semi-annually to such of said ministers, as shall be certified by the authorities of the Presbyterian Church of the Synod of North Carolina, or its successors, to be entitled to receive the same and in such respective amounts as said authorities shall designate."

2. Conditions For Participating In The Fund:

(a) In order to participate in the Fund, a minister must be a member of a Presbytery of the Synod of North Carolina.

Ministers transferring from other Synods at the time of retirement or subsequent thereto for the purpose of participating in the Reynolds Fund, in order to qualify, must have previously served in the Synod of North Carolina at least ten years. (Minutes 1964—page 177).

(b) The age for participation shall be the age set by the General Assembly for participation in the Ministers Annuity Fund, or 65 years of age, or over.

(c) No minister, except those who have reached the age of 75, shall participate in the fund so long as he is employed in the regular exercise of the ministry.

(d) In order to participate in this fund it is necessary that every eligible minister should supply the Chairman of Ministerial Relief of his Presbytery with all the necessary information concerning his status, when requested to do so.

3. Method of Distributing the Fund:

(a) It shall be the duty of the Committee of Ministerial Relief of each Presbytery to furnish to Synod's office of the Stated Clerk, a list of all members of their Presbyteries who may be eligible for participation in the Fund, and the reason therefor, but the final certification to the Trustees of the Fund shall be left to Synod's Committee.

(b) There shall be submitted with this list all necessary information, as to service rendered.

(c) All funds available shall be disbursed on an equal basis among the participating ministers (Minutes 1964—page 196.)

(d) All funds available for distribution shall be disbursed at each semi-annual distribution according to the terms of the will.

4. Changes in Rules:

That changes in these rules, both as to eligibility and method of distribution of the benefits of the Fund, shall be by a majority vote of the Synod.

The Retired Ministers of Kings Mountain Presbytery are as follows:

(According to Minutes of April, 1964).

R. T. Baker, Danielsville, Ga.
 Walter L. Baker, Route 2, Gastonia, N.C.
 J. H. Dulin, Route 2, Clover, S.C.
 Coyt Hunter, 2620 Commonwealth Ave., Charlotte, N.C.
 A. Hal Key, Route 1, Midland, N.C.
 I. S. McElroy, Jr., 2500 Kennmore Road, Richmond, Va.
 A. C. Miller, Jr., 861 W. Main St., Shelby, N.C.
 P. D. Patrick, 922 Derrydown Way, Decatur, Ga.
 W. D. Ratchford, Route 4, Box 471, Charlotte, N.C.

J. L. Shannon, 822 Vine Street, Gastonia, N.C.
 Walter G. Sommerville, 129 Summit Ave., Mount Holly, N.C.
 Howard M. Wilson, 304 E. 4th Ave., Gastonia, N.C.
 John W. Young, Box 143, Burnsville, N.C.

All of these ministers are receiving aid from the Ministers Annuity Fund; or Ministerial Relief; or The Reynolds Fund; or Social Security. Some of these ministers are receiving aid from more than one of the above funds, according to their qualifications, needs, and requests.

The General Assembly has for all practical purposes absolved itself of responsibility in the case of ministers and their families, who do not participate in the Ministers Annuity Fund. (See Minutes 1953) Our Committee would therefore recommend:

(1) That every minister of our Presbytery become a member of the Ministers Annuity Fund of our church.

(2) That he carry all the Insurance that he possibly can through the Presbyterian Ministers Fund.

(3) That he participate in the Major Medical Benefits for the protection of himself and family.

(4) That he participate in Social Security.

Signed J. N. Brown, Chairman

REPORT TO THE PRESBYTERY

Meeting at the First Presbyterian Church

Gastonia, N. C.

January 28, 1965

Your Commission would report, that during the past three months we have found it necessary to meet only one time. This one meeting was held on January 25, 1965.

There are only three churches within our bounds without the service of a resident pastor. They are, Hephizbah, Ironton and Saluda.

Changes in calls for 16 Churches have come to the attention of your Commission. Nine of these changes in Calls are to ministers working under the Church Extension Committee. The changes bring their salaries up to the minimum prescribed by the Presbytery for 1965. The minimum set by Presbytery is $5,600.00 Details in these cases are handled by the Church Extension Committee, with the prior approval of Presbytery.

Requests for permission to change the terms of their calls to their Pastors are included in our recommendations.

Your Commission Recommends:

1. That the request for permission to change the terms of their calls to their ministers be granted to the following Churches:

A. Armstrong Memorial: Increase in salary of $250.00 per year, and increase the car expense $50.00 per year.

B. Stanley: Decrease in salary of $700.00 per year and add $800.00 per year car allowance.

C. Dallas: Increase car allowance $500.00 per year.

D. Kings Mountain First; Increase salary $200.00 per year.

E. Castanea: Increase salary $250.00 per year.

PERMANENT AND SPECIAL COMMITTEE REPORTS1) Stewardship: Richard Shaw, Chairman

TO: Presbytery of Kings Mountain

REGARDING: Promotional Material of the General Council

The General Council in Atlanta is planning to produce as the major stewardship promotional material for the year 1965 an attractive, informative and challenging brochure featuring the work of all the Assembly Boards and Agencies.

The Synod of North Carolina (as well as other synods) has been given the privilege of including its respective work in the brochure.

The Presbyteries have recently been given the same privilege.

Each Presbytery will be allowed four pages in the brochure which measures 4½" x 11" — at a cost of approximately $150.00.

Feeling that the Stewardship Committee, the Christian Education Committee and the Church Extension Committee would benefit most from this promotional literature — I have contacted the chairman of each committee and they have agreed that the expense should be equally shared by the three committees involved.

I regret that I cannot recommend this as a report of the Stewardship Committee, but time would simply not permit a called meeting of the committee since additional information had to be secured from the General Council after this matter was referred to the Stewardship Committee two weeks ago by Presbytery's Council.

In light of the above information — I would recommend:

1. That the presbytery of Kings Mountain participate in this promotional endeavor. Adopted.

2. That the Stewardship Committee, The Christian Education Committee and the Church Extension Committee equally share the expenses involved. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard P. Shaw,
Chr. Stewardship Com.

Moved that 1) be adopted. Seconded and passed.

REPORT OF PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL

The books of Presbytery's Treasurer have been audited by Butler and Stowe, Certified Public Accountants, Gastonia, for the 1964 church year and were found to be in order. A total of $273,003.72 was received from the churches in Presbytery, showing an increase of $44,533.88 over the 1963 church year.

Council would like to commend the churches of Kings Mountain Presbytery for their increased giving to Benevolences. However, there is one account that showed a deficit. This account was Presbytery's Office and it's support is derived exclusively from Presbytery Tax. There were seven churches that failed to pay the 1964 Presbytery Tax and three that have not paid their 1963 Presbytery Tax. We call upon Elders and Ministers to check with their church treasurer and see that their Presbytery Tax is paid for the delinquent years, in order to eliminate the $660.34 deficit in the account of Presbytery's Office.

Council unanimously voted to commend Treasurer of Presbytery, Mr. Luther Cansler, for the fine work he has done as treasurer. All of us know Mr. Cansler did not desire this job but took it when no one else would. This job is one involving more work than most people realize and entails sacrifice in time and labor. Council will ask Presbytery to approve a recommendation in connection with this office.

Your chairman would like to report that Synod's Council voted in the negative to hire a Synod Finance Director.

Council has been requested to make known to ministers the following information:

The Georgia Alcoholic Rehabilitation Clinic offers an intensive one week course twice a month. Only eight people can participate in each course. This is an introduction to a feeling appreciation of the person who is addicted to alcohol from observation of group interaction participation in your own group and the use of lectures and film resources. Cost is $40.00, which includes room and board for the week living at the clinic. Full scholarships are available. In the event there are those who would like an intern year in alcoholic training and pastoral care, stipends of $300.00 a month are available with a limited amount of space available for living at the clinic. Anyone interested, contact me for complete information.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Presbytery expresses its appreciation to Mr. Luther Cansler for the splendid work he has rendered as Presbytery's Treasurer.

2. Presbytery approve a financial campaign by Union Theological Seminary for capital funds within the bounds of Kings Mountain Presbytery in 1966.

Report adopted.

CHRISTIAN RELATIONS:

Rev. C. Emerson Smith—

The chairman of the Christian Relations Committee assisted the former chairman, the Rev. Bart Hellmuth in planning and putting on a Conference on Christian Service, held in the Shelby Presbyterian Church on January 31st.

The chairman represented this Presbytery at the meeting of Synod's Permanent Committee on Christian Relations. Among other things this committee allocated scholarships to promote attendance at various Seminars and Conferences on Christian Relations. It also arranged for a bill to be introduced in the State Legislature to guarantee full privileged communication to ministers of the gospel. This bill died in committee.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Emerson Smith, Chairman

CHURCH EXTENSION:

Rev. Richard Hobson read a communication requesting the Church Extension Committee to act positively for Presbytery and the good of the Church. Motion was made. Motion: Presbytery express its support of the Church Extension Committee in the committee's efforts to study the changing needs and opportunities in Presbytery and its aim to help make adjustments in methods and to regroup work in order more effectively to meet the opportunities in Presbytery. Passed.

COMMISSION ON MINISTER AND HIS WORK:

Rev. J. B. Bradley reported. Report adopted.

Your Commission has met regularly during the past quarter on the fourth Monday of each month. Two meetings were held in the First Presbyterian Church of Gastonia, and the third meeting was held in the Shelby Presbyterian Church.

A request from Reverend Albert B. Drake, that the pastoral-relation existing between himself and the Bostic and the Spindale churches be dissolved effective March 1, 1965. in order that he might accept a call of the Society Hill Presbyterian Church in Pee Dee Presbytery, South Carolina, was received. The representatives of the Bostic Church and the Representatives from the Spindale Church attested to the concurrence of these two congregations in this request. The request was granted and the Stated Clerk of Presbytery was requested to send the letter of dismissal from this Presbytery to the Presbytery of Pee Dee.

The Chairman of your Commission attended a meeting of the Committee on the Minister and His Work of Synod, which was held in Raleigh on March 8, 1965. This was a most profitable and fruitful experience.

There are five churches within our Presbytery without regular pastoral supervision at the present time. Ironton is being supplied through the Lincolnton Church. Saluda is securing supply ministers usually from Asheville Presbytery and certain plans for the summer are set forth further in this report. Hephzibah, Bostic and Spindale are vacant.

The Camp Committee, Sub-committee of the Christian Education Committee, reports that they have engaged Mr. Sam Austin, rising senior at Columbia Seminary, now serving the Hayesville, North Carolina Church. The Church proposes to supply the Saluda Manse and utilities and $100.00 per month for the months of June, July and August. The Christian Education Committee plans to supply $200.00 per month for the months of June, July and August also.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the action of the Commission in dissolving the pastoral relation between the Reverend Albert B. Drake and the Bostic and the Spindale Churches be approved, and that the dismissal of the Reverend Mr. Drake to Pee Dee Presbytery be approved.

2. That the action of the Christian Education Committee and the Saluda Church in securing the services of Mr. Sam Austin for the summer months, under the conditions set forth above, be approved.

3. That this report of the commission be adopted as a whole.

Respectfully submitted,

James B. Bradley, Chairman

Oral report by Rev. Frank Elliott — Trustees of Presbytery have endorsed the loan from Synod's Church Extension Committee to the New Hope Presbyterian Church in the amount of $40,000. Loan is completed and Trustees have endorsed the note of the New Hope Church in the amount stated. Admitted to record. Passed.

STEWARDSHIP:

Report by Rev. Richard Shaw — adopted.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

PRESBYTERY OF KINGS MOUNTAIN

The Stewardship Committee presents the first reading of a proposed amendment to the Manual of Kings Mountain Presbytery.

The section of the manual which the committee wishes amended now reads: (page 11-16b) "The apportionments of this budget to be requested from each church. These apportionments shall be made by the application of the formula used by the General Council — based one-third on membership, one-third on total giving less building fund, and one-third on total benevolences."

Due to the fact that the General Council never intended for the above formula to be used by presbyterys, and due to the fact that it has met with considerable opposition, the Stewardship Committee presents the following:

(page 11-16b, amended) "The apportionments of this budget to be requested from each church. These apportionments shall be made by application of the following formula:

The local church's budgeted benevolent giving standard — as compared to the General Assembly's average budgeted benevolence giving.

All churches with a budgeted benevolence giving equal to or above the General Assembly Average — will be asked to increase their accepted apportionment of the current year by 5 per cent.

Churches 1-10% below the G.A. av. will be asked to increase their current accepted apportionment by 10%

Churches 11-20% below the G.A. av will be asked to increase their current accepted apportionment by 20%

Churches 21-30% below the G.A. av. will be asked to increase their current accepted apportionment by 30%

Churches 31-40% below the G.A. av. will be asked to increase their current accepted apportionment by 40%

Churches 41% or more below the G.A. av. will be asked to increase their current accepted apportionment by 50%

Examples: Church	Old Formula		New Formula
	apportionment	asked	Accepted	asked
117 Mem. 49 percent under G.A. av. of $18.26	1904	1905	1906	1907
162 Mem. Above G.A. av. of $18.26	$2,996	$2,134	$1,000	$1,400
485 Mem. Above G.A. av. of $18.26	$4,672	$4,794	$4,367	$4,365
	$14,157	$15,531	$15,531	$16,306

RESOLUTIONS:

Dr. J. N. Brown

The Committee on Resolutions and Thanks wishes to express its sincerest appreciation and gratitude to the Shiloh Presbyterian Church for being the host to Kings Mountain Presbytery at its April meeting.

We wish to thank the Rev. Mr. Richard Hobson, pastor of the church, and the Session for the splendid way in which every detail was carefully planned for expediting the business of Presbytery in the most efficient manner.

We were much impressed by the splendid Service rendered by the organist Mrs. Ruth Hambright who selected most appropriate hymns for worship, and especially for communion.

The refreshments at intermission were devoured by the members of Presbytery with enthusiasm.

The tasty and appetizing noon meal prepared and served by the Women of the Church under the able leadership of Mrs. P. A. Francis, President of the Women of the Church was wonderful. Every evidence was given by the Presbytery of a sincerest appreciation.

For the courtesy, kindness, and hospitality of the Shiloh Church, we the members of Kings Mountain Presbytery express our genuine gratitude, and we thank you one and all.

Subject — Reforming Our Churches

Gentlemen:

We are all aware that we often carry on the business of the church as if we were still driving horses and using buggies. Quite often we just plain do not keep up with the times. Much as we would like to it is hard to keep up with the population shift and to make the best use of our resources in an increasingly mobile situation.

Many of you are particularly concerned with churches and fields with a marginal challenge, quite often unable to provide full support for a minister and so quite often vacant. Does the Executive Committee of Church Extension and the Commission on the Minister and His Work need a clear expression from Presbytery with regard to grouping of fields, the calling of ministers to certain works, and the consolidation and even closing of churches?

The ministry of the church ought to be efficient and flexible enough to provide for pastoral oversight in a way that uses ministers' times and talents to the best possible advantage. We do not always do this. Knowing that much of this has been thought out by many involved, and realizing that there are obligations to minister to people wherever they are, the following proposal is submitted.

1. Wherever possible a grouping of churches be effected to eliminate the need for home mission support on a long term basis. This can be done in many cases by grouping a smaller church with a larger church.

2. That where a work is showing marked and steady progress, that this need not apply. The ultimate aim of all such work (with the possible exception of inner city work) should be to help a church come of age.

3. That Presbytery, taking note of the increased transportation facilities, better communication and centralization of schools, public services and businesses, encourage all small local churches to bring their local church programs and congregations together to the end that a better more complete work may be done.

Such a policy firmly promoted, should do much to promote the health of the overall organization of the church. Many churches will begin to be givers rather than takers from Presbytery. They will be able to meet the apportionment, Presbytery tax, and increased bene-volences. Those who can provide a challenge to a minister will not be without pastors, and can enjoy a better ministry of sustained proportions. Youth work can be at a higher level.

A clear note of direction in this matter could go a long way to help sessions find their way to giving the churches an attitude of fulness and participation in the work of KMP.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

Rev. Sam Hoyt made motion: The letter received by Church Extension Committee be admitted to record.

NEW BUSINESS:

Dr. Harry Moffett made motion — Move that the Chairman of the Commission be designated convenor for a joint conference of the Commission and the Executive Committee of Church Extension before the summer meeting of Presbytery to discuss matters of mutual concern and if wise to propose to Presbytery any permanent channel of communication between these two agents of Presbytery, Passed.

Minutes read and approved.

MOTION to adjourn.

Closed with prayer by the Moderator, Rev. Richard Shaw.

The One Hundred Ninety-First Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

West Avenue Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
January 16, 1951

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-First Stated Session at the West Avenue Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A. M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Rev. William A. Gamble, presided and led the Presbytery in prayer. After the singing of a hymn and the reading of the Scripture from the eighth chapter of the Gospel of John, the Rev. J. W. Stork led the Presbytery in prayer. The Moderator preached a sermon on the subject, "Freedom through the Truth," from the text John 8:32, 36.

Memorials—The following Memorial to the Rev. Robert Hall Morrison Brown was read by the Rev. Jonas Barclay and was adopted.

Robert Hall Morrison Brown was born in Charlotte, N. C. on December 7th, 1872, and passed to his reward on November 26, 1950. He was reared in Charlotte, was graduated from Davidson College in the class of 1893, and was graduated from Union Theological Seminary in 1899. He was ordained by Mecklenburg Presbytery in 1902, and served as pastor at Bolivar, Tenn. in 1902, was pastor at Goodman, Miss. 1903-06, was pastor at Jeanerette, La. 1906-12. He then did postgraduate work at Princeton Theological Seminary in 1912 and 1913. Later he was Stated Supply at Sumner and Charleston, Miss. 1915 and 16. His last years were spent in Charlotte suffering from a disease of the throat, where he succumbed to a heart attack last November 26th.

Mr. Brown was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, where his parents Col. John E. Brown and his mother Laura Morrison Brown were honored members. It may be of interest to the younger members of Presbytery to recall that Mrs. Laura Morrison Brown was one of five daughters of Dr. Robert Hall Morrison, each of whom married Confederate officers. By what might look to us as a strange providence, not only was Morrison Brown physically incapacitated from preaching the Gospel for years, but also his gifted young brother, Rev. Edmonds Brown was cut off early in his promising ministry. Surviving Mr. Brown are his wife, the former Miss Florence Whitworth of Louisiana, now residing in Charlotte, and his two nieces, Miss Frances Brown of the faculty of Duke University, and Mrs. Charles A. Logon, wife of the distinguished returned missionary from Japan, recently of Lexington, Ky. "They serve, who only stand and wait." "God hath his mysteries of grace, ways that we cannot tell. He hides them deep, like the secret sleep of him he loved so well."

Jonas Barclay

The following memorial to the Rev. Alexander Hugh Fraser was read by Rev. J. G. Garth and was adopted:

Rev. Alexander Hugh Fraser, who died on Jan. 4, 1951, at Charlotte, N. C. in the 90th year of his life was born in Bridgeville, Nova Scotia, on June 7, 1861. He retired from the Presbyterian ministry in March, 1940, having preached the gospel over 50 years. He was a member of Mecklenburg Presbytery since 1930, though he had done supply work in the Presbytery since 1922. He was honorably retired by Mecklenburg Presbytery in 1940.

Mr. Fraser was brought up on a farm by strictly religious parents, who were John and Catherine Forbes Fraser, members of the Scotch Kirk, where one service was held in Gaelic for the old folks while an English service was conducted for the young people.

Mr. Fraser attended Pictou Academy in the county of that name, and taught school for one year, and in 1887 he entered Auburn Seminary in New York. As a student he conducted services at Avon and Jamesville, N. Y. and was ordained by Syracuse Presbytery June 19, 1890, and installed pastor at Jamesville. Being troubled with asthma, he decided to go to the west for relief, and settled in Atlantic, Iowa, in 1892 where he remained until 1895. During this pastorate he married Hannah May Abbott of Shelby, Iowa, his first wife who was the mother of his son, Abbott Henry Fraser, his only child who survives him.

Mr. Fraser's next work was as pastor at Marion, Iowa, which was signalized by a remarkable service in which he received into membership 131 on Easter, 1896, and baptized 70 of them. The prayer meeting usually numbered 200 in attendance. His next work was to supply the church at Avoca, Iowa, from 1898 till 1901, when he moved to Kearney, Neb. where he served till 1908. He was a member of the general assembly in Columbus, Ohio, in 1907. He served the church at Shelby, Iowa in 1909, and then moved to Buffalo, N. Y. to be pastor of Walden Avenue Church.

Having an attack that affected his throat Mr. Fraser was compelled to take an extended rest, and he gave up his work and moved to Nova Scotia to the old farm, which resulted in a complete restoration of his voice and he went back to Nebraska and served at Broken Bow Church for eight years. His wife, Hannah May Fraser, died Oct. 1, 1920, and he and his son moved to Charlotte in that year.

Mr. Fraser began at once to do supply work in Mecklenburg Presbytery. On June 2, 1922, he married Miss Georgia G. Macgillivray, of Nova Scotia, who survives him. In 1927 Mr. Fraser became stated supply at McGee Church in Hoskins, suburb of Charlotte, and he remained in this capacity until his retirement in 1940. His work was greatly aided by the service of Mrs. Fraser in the auxiliary of the church.

Mr. Fraser is survived by his wife and his son, and two brothers, J. W. Fraser of Charlotte and Dr. A. J. Fraser, a minister in New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

This is the epitome of a long and useful life of four-score years and ten, sixty years in the ministry, fifty of them active. He was a brilliant student of the word, and a faithful expounder of the doctrines of the gospel. His teaching was supported by an exemplary life, characterized by humility, kindness, and useful service. Even down to old age he brought forth the fruits of righteousness and faith, and went down at last like a shock of corn, matured and life-giving by his word and conduct. Though afflicted in the end with deafness, he still loved to attend the house of God and by his presence adorned the doctrine. He loved prayer and the word of God, and the aroma of his spiritual life abides in his community and in the Presbytery. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. They rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

John G. Garth

The following memorial to the Rev. John Mack Walker was read by the Rev. O. C. Williamson and was adopted:

Rev. John Mack Walker was born near Burlington, N. C. on April 7, 1883, and died in Greensboro of a heart attack on Dec. 11, 1950. He was the son of Joseph Henry Walker and Mrs. Susan Moore Garrison Walker.

He entered Davidson College and graduated in the class of 1907. He taught school for a few years in North Carolina and Georgia, and entered Union Theological Seminary where he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1912. In 1913 he was married to Miss Annie Muller English who by her splendid personality, deep consecration and very efficient work as Mistress of the Manse and in the Children's Division of the Sunday School contributed a great deal to his ministry until her death in Feb. 1950. He is survived by two sons, Rev. J. M. Walker, Jr. of Roanoke Rapids, N. C. and Dr. Thomas English Walker of Duke Hospital; and two daughters, Miss Lila Peck Walker, member of the faculty at Women's College, Greensboro, with whom he was making his home at the time of his death, and Mrs. James Womack, Jr. of Richmond, Va.

During his ministry he held three pastorates. He was licensed by Orange Presbytery in July 1912 and installed and ordained as pastor of the Leaksville and Spray Churches where he remained until 1914. He had a very fruitful pastorate at Marlinton, West Va., from 1914 to 1920. He came to Steel Creek in the fall of 1920, and all during his pastorate of 28 years it has been the largest country church in our Assembly. As a preacher he was faithful in proclaiming the whole counsel of God, true to the faith, and practical in his sermons, and as a pastor he was greatly beloved by his large congregation. His ministry was marked by patience and tact, and in his firm faith in the final victory of the right. Under his leadership Steel Creek added materially to its physical equipment, building a Sunday School annex, a splendid Community House, and installing a Hammond organ in the church. In addition to his consecrated work as pastor Dr. Walker by his own liberality inspired Steel Creek to a splendid record in stewardship, as shown by the first 25 years of his pastorate, when contributions to Benevolences were $187,186.00 and to local expenses were $166,921.00. Another prominent phase of his pastorate was the development of leadership among the younger men in the congregation. The interest of the congregation in Foreign Missions was very active.

Davidson College gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1933. Not only in his own congregation did he render an effective service, but he was a leader in thought and action in Mecklenburg Presbytery, twice having been Moderator, and for years Chairman of the Home Mission Committee, being very zealous for Church Extension. He was very active in the work of the Synod of North Carolina, and served as Moderator in 1936. Because of his health he asked to be retired in 1948, living at his home in Montreat until last fall when he moved to Greensboro. Funeral services were conducted Dec. 13 in Watts Chapel at Union Seminary by Dr. B. R. Lacy, Jr., and he was laid to rest in Richmond's Hollywood Cemetery by the side of Mrs. Walker.

John M. Walker was one of God's noblemen, quiet, reserved, humble, faithful in work and friendship, never impatient in the home, pastorate or Presbytery, always ready to render service where needed, always friendly and sympathetic, with a calm and steadfast trust in Christ as his Saviour, and in the final accomplishment of that which is right. He was an inspiration and has left a lasting influence with all who knew him.

O. C. Williamson

The Rev. C. E. S. Kraemer led the Presbytery in prayer for the relatives of the deceased.

History of West Avenue Presbyterian Church—The following history of the West Avenue Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. V. F. Alexander, Historian of the Church, and was adopted:

The West Avenue Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, at the corner of West Trade and South Cedar Streets, dates back to the summer of 1908, when a Sunday School was organized in the neighborhood of the present church.

Several enterprising men of the Second Presbyterian Church along with Mr. W. H. Belk of the Monroe Presbyterian Church, purchased the building and lot on the corner of West Trade and Cedar Streets, which was the home of the Olivet Baptist Mission, in order to organize a Presbyterian Church in this part of the city. A committee was appointed by the Session of the Second Presbyterian Church, consisting of Captain William Anderson, J. C. McNeely, J. J. Adams, and W. A. Jamison. On October 12, 1908 these men organized a Sunday School with sixty charter members.

A short time later a similar Sunday School mission nearby, which was sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, decided to join hands with the group using the Olivet Church building.

On May 20, 1909, Mr. T. T. Gillespie, a Theological Seminary student, was engaged by the Second Church to take charge of the work through the summer. The work progressed to such a degree that on July 30, 1909, a petition bearing the names of seventy-seven people was presented to Mecklenburg Presbytery for a separate organization. In August of the same year this petition was granted by the Presbytery and a church was organized with 77 charter members—66 by letter and 11 by profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Two elders and four deacons were also elected. The church was named "West Avenue Presbyterian Church."

On January 1, 1910, the Reverend Mr. H. M. Pressly, of Walla Walla, Washington, took charge as stated supply of the West Avenue Church. The church grew and soon became self-supporting under his leadership. After nearly nine years, he resigned in November of 1918. The church membership had grown to 200 and the Sunday School to 300.

The late Reverend Mr. C. C. Anderson, of Hugo, Oklahoma, was then called as pastor and began his ministry on May 11, 1919. It was during this pastorate that the present church building was erected. Mr. Anderson resigned on April 1, 1926, after approximately seven years as the minister.

The Reverend Charles William Summerville, D.D., teacher of Bible at Queens Chicora College, was secured as supply until another pastor would be secured. On November 1, 1926, the Reverend Mr. Parks W. Wilson began his ministry—serving until February 1, 1929.

The one man generally considered as the moving spirit of the West Avenue Church, was the late Mr. W. A. Jamison, more affectionately known as "Uncle Billy." He was an Elder in the Second Presbyterian Church at the time of the first organization of the Sunday School in this community. He is regarded as having organized the idea of starting a church in this section of Charlotte and he was the first Superintendent of the Church School. He was elected an Elder at the time of the organization of the church and remained in that office until the time of his death.

The Reverend W. W. Akers, D.D., began his ministry on April 21, 1929—closing January 1, 1941, the longest pastorate in the history of the church. Because of his love of his people and his tirelessness in visiting, he was known as "The Shepherd" and was so honored by a memorial in the church. It was during this pastorate that a manse was purchased for the church.

On February 15, 1942, the Reverend Holmes Rolston, Th.D., was installed as pastor, concluding his ministry to the West Avenue Church on May 31, 1949, to become Editor-in-Chief of the then Committee of Religious Education and Publication—now the Board of Education. During Dr. Rolston's pastorate the church was cleared of all indebtedness and a house and lot adjoining the church was purchased. This debt was also paid and a building fund was started, looking to that time when the congregation would be ready to build their new church.

Mr. Wentz J. Miller, a student at Union Theological Seminary, was engaged by the church to fill the pulpit for the summer of 1949 and endeared himself to the hearts of this congregation.

On January 1, 1950, the Reverend Mr. G. Dana Waters was called to the present pastorate. Under his splendid leadership the church has developed along many lines. The Rotary System was inaugurated in the Board of Deacons, with the election of six additional deacons. These men were ordained and installed along with four additional Elders, after a course of instruction in the duties and responsibilities of their respective offices.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is now administered quarterly at the evening hour of worship, as well as at the morning service.

The membership of the church has grown by the addition of seventy-two new members—twenty-five having been received on profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and forty-seven by a transfer of their church membership or a restatement of their faith. The present roll of membership numbers approximately six hundred and fifty (650) members.

A new Baldwin Electronic Organ has been purchased to replace the old pipe organ in the church. The rostrum in the Sanctuary has been rebuilt and carpeting laid.

The Sunday School has always been led by an able staff. The late Elder W. A. Jamison was the first superintendent, being succeeded by Elder Dave H. Johnston, who in turn was succeeded by Elder J. D. Ramsey. Mr. Ramsey served in this capacity most acceptably for twenty-three years, continuing the policy of Bible and Catechism instruction. On December 3, 1950, with the reorganization of our Sunday School Department, Mr. Ramsey resigned and Mr. R. P. Stewart, one of our new deacons, was appointed Superintendent by the Session. Monthly Workers' Conferences have been established for coordinating the work of the Church School along with a Session's Committee on Religious Education. The Fellowship Bible Class sponsors a nursery during the morning hour of worship.

Fellowship Groups have been organized for the Primary, Junior, Pioneer and Senior Departments and meet each Sunday evening. Out of these groups have grown four youth choirs who, under the direction of the former Minister of Music, Pieas H. Norman, and now under the splendid leadership of the pastor, the Reverend G. Dana Waters, assisted by Mrs. Waters, furnish the special music for the evening worship services.

The history of West Avenue Presbyterian Church would not be complete without a mention of the Women's Work, which is one of the outstanding features of the church's life, contributing liberally both to current and benevolent causes and to the spiritual life of the church. We are grateful for the past leadership. The present president, Mrs. Rhyne Sadler, has done a most acceptable service to the church's program. There are eight circles, including the Shut-in Circle. A number of meetings have been in the evening in order for the business women to attend. "Day by Day" was furnished to each member of the Church. The Birthday Party of the Women of the Church was given in May. They had studies on both Home and Foreign Missions during the year and in December, a Joy Gift Program was presented. A most liberal offering was given to each of these causes. The Women of the Church sponsored a delegate to the Conference for Negro Women in Winston-Salem. They gave an offering to Barium Springs Orphanage, sent clothing to Crossnore School, sent "piece packages" for War Relief, sewed for the Presbyterian Hospital and have prepared and served all meals in connection with the church and also served refreshments to the young people on Sunday night. In 1950 they had a Bible Study for the Women of the Church on the Book of Hebrews, led by the Pastor, the Reverend G. Dana Waters, on six successive Wednesday evenings.

The Men's Work has had an unusual experience in the development of the "Fishermen's Club" within the organization of the Men's Club. Approximately twenty-five of our men have had training in the skills of VISITATION EVANGELISM and meet two nights each month to present the claims of Christ to their fellowmen. These "Fishermen" have been responsible for winning forty-four new members in the past year.

Let it here be said that we glory not in our accomplishments—but rather that we rejoice in the evidences of the Grace of God in our midst. Perhaps the most singular blessing has been in the decision of two of our young men to enter the Gospel Ministry. This will give us three, one having been previously taken under care of the Mecklenburg Presbytery.

It is with gratitude and thanksgiving unto God, that we read this, the history of the WEST AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Mrs. V. F. (Evac) Alexander, Historian

Reports of Commissions—The following Commission to install Rev. H. E. Mallinson as pastor of Park Avenue and Cameronian Churches made its report which was admitted to record:

The commission appointed to ordain Howatt E. Mallison and install him pastor of the Park Avenue and Cameronian Churches met at Park Avenue Church at 2:50 P. M., Sunday, November 16, 1950. It was constituted with prayer and D. K. Snyder was elected clerk. Ministers present: R. H. Stone, C. S. Miller, Dan Carlton, and D. K. Snyder. Elders present: Vance Baucom, and Sam Brazelton.

The chairman, Rev. R. H. Stone, explained to the congregation the duty of the commission. Mr. Mallinson preached a sermon from the text Matthew 11:1-15. The commission approved the sermon as a satisfactory part of trial, and the trial as a whole was approved. The chairman then propounded to the candidate and the congregation the constitutional questions. Both parties having answered in the affirmative, the commission proceeded to set Mr. Mallinson apart by the laying on of the hands of Presbytery, and thus ordained him to the Gospel ministry. Rev. C. S. Miller led in the ordination prayer. The chairman then declared Rev. H. E. Mallinson duly ordained and installed pastor of the Park Avenue Church.

Rev. D. K. Snyder charged the pastor and Elder Vance Baucom charged the congregation. The pastor pronounced the benediction.

The commission took recess until 7:30 P. M. when it again convened at Cameronian Church. Rev. D. K. Snyder preached the sermon. Rev. R. H. Stone presided and propounded the constitutional questions, and then declared Mr. Mallinson duly elected and installed pastor of the church. Rev. C. S. Miller charged the pastor and Elder Sam Brazelton charged the congregation. A prayer of consecration was led by Rev. Dan Carlton. The benediction was pronounced by the pastor.

Your committee presents as candidates for the gospel ministry wishing to come under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery Mr. Richard Lyon Morgan, now a student in his first year at Union Theological Seminary, and Mr.

William Edward Newton, also a student in his first year at Union Theological Seminary. Mr. Morgan is a member of the Morven Church and Mr. Newton is a member of the Myers Park Church.

Your committee presents as extraordinary cases Mr. Harold Stonewall Mace and Mr. Roy Play Riddle outstanding young business men and members of West Avenue Church in which we are meeting. Because of their personal religious experiences, their clear calls to the gospel ministry, their business experience, their ages, their records in the service of their country, the committee recommends that they be received as candidates for the ministry under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery with the following provisions: that in the event they attend Columbia Theological Seminary as planned, that they enter in the Spring semester and follow an orientation course for the remainder of the year, that they then take the full three years of Seminary work, that they take any summer courses and any courses in college work available at Emory University or other schools nearby to widen their education as far as possible. We believe these men will become valuable and useful ministers in the Presbyterian Church.

The One Hundred Ninety-Second Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Route No. 7
Charlotte, N. C.
April 17, 1951

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Second Stated Session at the Nevin Presbyterian Church, Route No. 7, Charlotte, N. C. on the above date at 9 A. M.

The Moderator, Rev. A. L. Thompson, presided and called the meeting to order. After the singing of a hymn the Rev. D. A. Huffines led in prayer. The Moderator preached a sermon from the text Matthew 26:20.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was conducted by Rev. H. B. Carter and Rev. J. C. Lawrence.

History of Nevin Presbyterian Church—The following History of the Nevin Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. John Stewart and was adopted:

More than forty years ago a group of women held prayer service in the Nevin School house. In this group were Mrs. Ida Barnette and Mrs. Mollie Wardin who have passed on to their reward. These services continued for about two years. Then later, Mrs. Lester R. Auten and Mrs. Joseph Wardin conducted Sunday School during the summer for the children of the community.

About 1910 Mr. R. D. Small moved into the community and he began a Sunday School in the Nevin School house. Later he gave up the Sunday School work and the school closed.

Rev. Quinn, an A.R.P. minister held service every Sunday afternoon. Then in 1922 Captain W. H. Stewart, a prominent man in our community at that time was very active and interested in the work. One afternoon for some reason the preacher did not arrive and the people wanted to go home, but Capt. Stewart said, "No, let us go in and have a prayer meeting." This was the beginning of the present Sunday School organization. A few weeks later a protracted meeting was held. Capt. Stewart moved to Columbia, S. C. soon afterwards, but the work continued to go forward.

In 1923 Mr. John A. Auten was elected Superintendent of the Sunday School, and he served faithfully until 1927 when his health failed. So

Mr. R. P. McGraw conducted the Sunday School until the summer of 1929. Mr. Auten then returned to the work.

On many occasions services were held by Rev. C. O. Williams of Statesville A.R.P. Church and Rev. J. F. Ligon, pastor of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian Church. In the spring of 1929 Mr. J. A. Auten and Mr. J. H. Stewart conferred with Rev. E. A. Dillard about organizing and building a church. After this meeting a petition was sent to Mecklenburg Presbytery. A commission composed of Dr. Charles R. Nesbet, Rev. C. C. Beam, Rev. E. A. Dillard was appointed by Presbytery to organize a Church. On the third Sunday of June, 1929 Nevin Presbyterian Church was organized with 23 charter members.

The community was canvassed and the people gave of their money and labor, and many outside of the community greatly assisted in financing the building. Blythe Bros. gave the lot on which to build the church. Mr. W. H. Belk gave the brick, also assisted in financing the building. The Home Mission committee of Mecklenburg Presbytery gave $1,000.00. Tenth Avenue Church gave generously for the work.

The first service was held November 3, 1929 with an audience that completely filled the building. Dedication service for the new church was conducted by Rev. E. A. Dillard. The older members of the church are grateful to Mr. Dillard for his earnest work in getting the church established.

Rev. W. B. McSwain, a student at Davidson College, came to be regular supply in 1931. He served the church faithfully during the summer.

In the fall of 1931 Rev. Moody Moss of Charlotte, came to be pastor until 1935. His health failed and he gave up the work.

The first dally Vacation Bible School was held during Mr. Moss's ministry on May 14, 1934 for eight days with an enrollment of 93.

The summer of 1935 Dr. J. S. Sibley became Pastor and faithfully gave himself to the work of the Church.

On April 3, 1938 Rev. W. W. Hartsell was installed as pastor of Nevin Presbyterian Church. He was the first minister to live in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Hartsell worked hard for the up-building of the church. Under his ministry the membership increased, the church program was better organized and many improvements were made. A lot was purchased for the erection of a manse and a well was drilled and paid for. In February, 1940 Mr. J. W. Gettys, Mr. J. L. Thomas and Mr. Hartsell repainted the Church. Most of the expense was sponsored by the Women of the Church. Mr. Hartsell and his wife continued faithfully until the fall of 1941.

From 1941 to 1942 Rev. J. G. Garth acted as supply pastor. The Church is grateful to him for his service during this period.

On May 3, 1942 Rev. W. T. Smith was installed as pastor. His work continued until the end of the church year 1943. During his ministry the young people's work was re-organized and a choir with an enrollment of 16 young people was organized. The Class rooms were equipped with the folding doors with the Women of the Church sponsoring the expense. It was during Rev. Smith's ministry that the Nevin Church was grouped with the Newell Church. The two churches formed a self-supporting group. Until this time Nevin Church had been a Home Mission Church.

On November 7, 1943 Rev. F. Clyde Pratt was installed as minister of both the Nevin and Newell Presbyterian Churches. Mr. Pratt faithfully gave of himself to the work of the two churches. It was largely through his efforts of visiting and ministering in both communities that a rapid increase of growth began in both churches.

In 1947 the Officers of our Church felt that Nevin Church should have a full time minister. The congregation shared their belief and a plan for the building of a Manse was approved. This manse was completed in October of 1948 at a cost of approximately $12,000.00.

At a regular called congregational meeting Rev. F. Clyde Pratt who was living in the Newell Manse and also minister to the Newell congregation, was called to be the full time minister of the Nevin Church. He and Mrs. Pratt moved into the Nevin Manse in November, 1948. Under his pastorate the spiritual growth has been inspiring. Each year a visitation Evangelism Program has been carried out under his leadership. Each Monday a Visitation Program is carried out—proven helpful. By his earnest preaching and faithful service the membership has increased from 73 to 359.

The Sunday School which consists of 30 teachers under the leadership of Mr. E. I. Wingate and Mr. Boyce Hastings, has an enrollment of 308. A Church bus was purchased to bring those in who were without other means of transportation. Because of lack of space and the problem of being overcrowded for class rooms, the Men of the Church built a hut to accommodate the Men's Bible Class at a cost of about $1,500.00. They have been responsible for the modern improvements in the basement which includes class rooms, toilet facilities, a modern kitchen, a new automatic furnace. The class divisions are made of pine paneling and tile floors. Ralph Davis installed the furnace, Mr. E. I. Wingate and Fred Jenkins did the electrical work. Mr. John Stewart did the plumbing and carpentry work. Perhaps 100 or more men helped in some way in this development in the basement. The church contributed about $4,000. The job was estimated at about $13,000.

Other improvements made during the ministry of Rev. Pratt have been painting of the church, new roof, porch and walk cemented. Equipping a Nursery Room, which began February, 1949 has enrolled now over 30 from birth to 4 years.

The stained windows were a gift from Mr. Lee W. Overcash. On December 25, 1949 the Consonata organ and Deacon chimes were given to the Church by Mr. Lee W. Overcash in honor of his wife, Mrs. Mary Overcash. The church installed the Tower Chimes in the fall of 1950.

No history of the Nevin Presbyterian Church would be complete without some word of appreciation for the services of the Women of the Church. Since the spring of 1944 the Women have sponsored the Church Bulletin which is published weekly by Mrs. Ralph Dutton. They are responsible for the Pulpit Set, the carpet on the floor, the shrubbery around the church building, the equipment in the pastor's study and many other touches of improvement in the Church.

The financial progress of the Church has grown from a budget of $1,200 to $15,000.

In February, 1951 the congregation voted to begin an Educational building. The work is now in progress. $8,000 has been borrowed from a local bank. The church plans to go on a "pay as you go" policy for the rest. The Building Committee consists of the Church Officers with Mr. Vance McGee Chairman, Mr. J. H. Stewart Chairman of the Construction. This new Educational Building when completed will have 20 rooms, giving the church approximately 35 rooms.

In March, 1951 a Boy Scout troop was organized with about 25 boys meeting each week in the Hut.

For all these blessings we are indeed grateful to God for we know that it is only through Him as He has inspired the people to do what has been done. It is our prayer that we may so use these blessings so as to further serve our fellowman and glorify our Heavenly Father.

The Session of the Myers Park Church brings this overture in the confidence that the whole of Mecklenburg Presbytery is aware of the distinguished, sacrificial, and wise leadership which was given to the establishment of the Camp by the Rev. J. Walton Stewart. Without his assistance and apart from his inspiration the Camp would not have been erected, certainly not at this time. In recognition of this service which the Rev. Mr. Stewart has rendered to our Presbytery, and in token of our appreciation to him, the Session of the Myers Park Church submits unanimously this overture.

The One Hundred Ninety-Third Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Troy Presbyterian Church
Troy, North Carolina
July 17, 1951

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Third Stated Session at the Troy Presbyterian Church in Troy, N. C., at 9 A. M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Rev. G. Dana Waters, presided and led the Presbytery in the opening exercises, consisting of the singing of a hymn, the reading of the Scripture from Ephesians 4 and prayer led by Rev. R. F. Boyd. The Moderator preached the sermon on the subject, "Walking Worthy of Our Vocation," using as his text Ephesians 4:1.

History of the Troy Church—The following history of the Troy Presbyterian Church was read and adopted.

History of the Troy Presbyterian Church, Troy, N. C.

On Sunday November 9, 1897 a commission of Fayetteville Presbytery met in the courthouse in Troy, county-seat of Montgomery County, and organized the Troy Presbyterian Church. Members of the commission were Reverends K. M. McIntyre, A. W. Lauchlin, and C. H. Dobbs, Jr., and ruling elders D. D. McKinnon and K. E. McAuley. The church was organized with sixteen charter members. Rev. K. M. McIntyre, D.D., home missionary and builder of churches throughout Montgomery and Moore Counties, was the first pastor and served faithfully until shortly before his death in 1908. Mr. D. S. Poole was the first elder and clerk of session. The first meeting place for the newly organized church was in the Troy school house. Services were held there until the erection of a building in 1902. This building, a frame construction, was located on the main street of the town. However, this early choice of location seems to have been unfortunate and soon proved inadequate for the needs and greater interest of the congregation.

Between the years 1906 and 1924 the church was served by a succession of pastors among whom were Reverends L. Smith, W. L. Wilson, W. H. Eubank, and W. E. Furr. During these years steady growth and progress is recorded. The contribution of ruling elder C. J. Poole during these years cannot be over-emphasized. His inspired leadership and service contributed to the spiritual and material growth of the church. Two sons, Rev. C. K. Poole and Rev. Scott McNair Poole are serving churches at the present time.

Early in 1922 plans were discussed and formulated for a new church building. A lot was donated by Dr. A. F. Thompson and deeded to the trustees as a site for the new building. In 1924 the congregation voted to start work on a new church. The foundation was laid during the pastorate of Rev. J. Hector Smith, and final plans were formulated for a commodious building that would take care of the needs of the church for years to come.

However, soon after the foundation was laid, funds were exhausted and the work temporarily halted. The old church, however, was abandoned and services were held in the county courthouse.

In January 1928 the services of Rev. W. C. Copeland were secured as pastor. Ruling elders at this time were C. J. Poole and Dr. S. H. McCall. The membership numbered forty-four and the Sunday School enrollment was seventy-five. The church continued to face the almost impossible task of completing the new building. Funds were solicited from every possible source. Early in 1930 the main part of the building was completed and the congregation with gladness of heart moved from the courthouse into their new sanctuary.

On November 23, 1930 Rev. W. C. Copeland tendered his resignation. The congregation with regret concurred with him in his request. On February 28, 1932 a call was extended Rev. C. C. Hamilton to become full-time pastor of the church. Mr. Hamilton served faithfully and with distinction during the three years of his pastorate. The building debt was considerably reduced under his leadership and notable progress was made. On August 25, 1935 the pastoral relationship between Mr. Hamilton and the Troy Church was dissolved in order that he might accept a call to the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Charlotte.

On May 10, 1936 a call was extended Rev. A. L. Thompson, then a student in his senior year at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Thompson began his pastorate in June and under his excellent leadership the church realized material and spiritual progress. During the four years of his pastorate the membership more than doubled, there being some forty additions. Additional elders and deacons were elected and a progressive program of religious education was launched. Mr. Thompson resigned his pastorate in 1940 to take up work in Raleigh, N. C.

On November 24, 1940 Rev. A. W. Shaw was called as pastor. The dignified and stately manner of the new minister soon endeared him to the hearts of the people. Much that is recorded during the six years of his ministry reflect the depth and forcefulness of his preaching and his great passion for order and proper procedure. Under his leadership an out-post Sunday School was organized in a nearby settlement. From the time of Mr. Shaw's resignation in March 1947 until June 1948 the church was without a pastor. However, there was no let-up in the program or work. Sunday School and Church services were held each week and the services of Rev. J. M. Hatch were secured from April through August of '47. It was early in this year that a manse fund was begun and a building committee elected. This committee composed of Dr. C. N. Ecker-son, Mr. Jason Blackwell, and Mr. Horace McCall, Jr. did an excellent work, and it was not long before a lot had been secured and considerable funds solicited. Presbytery's Home Mission Committee granted substantial assistance for this program and brick for the manse was donated by the W. H. Belk fund. In March 1948 work was begun on the manse and brought to completion in August of the same year. In the meantime the services of Rev. M. L. Topham had been secured as pastor, having come from Seminary on June 1 to begin his work. The officers and members feel a deep sense of gratitude and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his blessings.

Building the manse was the first step in a program of material expansion and improvement. Since then, with the single exception of the roof, which was recovered a few months prior to the building of the manse, the church has been completely overhauled. Minor repairs and improvements too numerous to mention have been made. Construction of a fellowship hall, two class rooms, an office, a fine kitchen and rest-room facilities have added immeasurably to the program and life of the church. The church has been painted inside and out, a nursery provided and furnished, much needed equipment purchased, a new automatic heating system installed, additional ground property adjacent to the building acquired, a tennis court and recreation area begun, the manse yard graded and shrubbery planted.

Parallel with our growth in material expansion and improvement there has been a steady growth in membership. Fifty-five new members have been received in the past three years. The Sunday School has been re-organized and classes for every age group are provided. There is an excellent teaching staff under the capable leadership of Mr. A. T. Russell, Superintendent. The officers of the church number seven elders and eight deacons. Dr. C. N. Eckerson is Clerk of Session and Horace McCall, Jr. is chairman of the Board of Deacons.

The Women-of-the-Church, organized in 1908 with six members, have grown to a present membership of fifty. This organization has been a constant support and inspiration to the overall life and work of the church. The program and work of this group is ably supervised by the president, Mrs. David H. Harris.

There is an active Men's Club. Meetings are held monthly and well attended.

The Young People are organized in Senior and Pioneer Fellowships. A joint program is sponsored each Sunday evening by these groups.

Gradually the church has assumed more and more its share in the financial support of the work. The Every-Member Canvas has been successful and the budget has grown from year to year. The Church owes a great debt of appreciation to Presbytery's Home Mission Committee. A constant support down through the years, the Committee has ever sought to strengthen and encourage the work. It is our sincere hope and earnest prayer that soon this congregation can come to full support. At present only one-fifth of the pastor's salary is requested of and assumed by the Committee. The church at present is free of debt.

Thus, it is our belief and we feel confident in stating that this church today stands on the threshold of its greatest service. It is our prayer that God may continue to bless and to lead his people in paths of service for His Name and the expansion of His Kingdom.

The One Hundred Ninety-Fourth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Fourth Stated Session in the Steele Creek Presbyterian Church, Route 3, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A. M. on the above date.

The last Moderator present, the Rev. G. Dana Waters, presided in the absence of the Moderator, the Rev. F. S. Johnston. After the singing of a hymn, the Presbytery was led in prayer by the Rev. Jonas Barclay. Upon invitation of the Moderator, the Rev. Watt M. Cooper preached the sermon on the subject, "Evangelism."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated. Rev. W. B. McSwain and the Rev. T. W. MacLean were in charge of the Communion Service and were aided by the elders of the Steele Creek Church. At the close of the service the Rev. Robert F. Boyd led the Presbytery in prayer for our sick ministers and those ministers who had lost loved ones by death.

History of the Steele Creek Church—The following supplementary history of the Steele Creek Presbyterian Church was read by Elder Paul E. Cathey and was adopted.

HISTORY OF STEELE CREEK CHURCH

(Supplement to History published in minutes of Stated Meeting April 21, 1936.)

The history of Steele Creek Church, founded in 1760, now covers nearly two hundred years (191 to be exact). Time and space do not permit the giving of a complete history on this occasion; so only the highlights of the past fifteen years have been listed here, while referring those who are interested, to the minutes of Presbytery for April 1936 for an earlier and more complete history.

Presbytery last met at Steele Creek on Oct. 17, 1944 in the midst of the Second World War, while gasoline and meat rationing were in effect and when possibly Steele Creek's chief concern was for the welfare and safety of the 156 service men and women from Steele Creek who were scattered throughout the world at war. Most, thanks be to God, returned safely; only 6 lost their lives in the service of their country.

The present church building was erected in 1889 and was dedicated on April 7, 1889 by Rev. J. B. Shearer, D.D., President of Davidson College. The Sunday School building was erected in 1923, and the Community House in 1926. For years Steele Creek had no building program, but early in the 1940s, in spite of the Second World War, a Beautification and Improvement Fund was started which gradually increased to form a nucleus for the program which was started after the war.

The manse was completely remodelled in the fall of 1948. Much of the work was done by members of the congregation who gave sacrificially of their time and labor, thus cutting the cost to a minimum.

Under the inspiring leadership of Rev. Watt M. Cooper, two units of the long-range building program have been recently completed. These are the renovation of the Church and Sunday School buildings and the remodelling of the Community House. The work on the church began in July of 1950 and the first service in the renovated church was held on Jan. 7, 1951. Preaching services and Sunday School were held in the Community House during the renovation. Notable changes in the church include the cutting of a center door for the main entrance and the addition of a choir loft to the rear of the pulpit. All new furnishings and fixtures were installed in the church with the exception of the pulpit furniture and the communion table.

Work on the remodelling of the Community House was begun early in 1951. Again, much of the labor on both units was given free by members of the congregation. Notable changes in the Community House were the building of a chapel in the front end of the building and the moving of the entrances to the side facing the church. The walls of the main room were panelled with the boards from the old church pews. The kitchen was enlarged and modernized.

The total building program including the manse represents an expenditure of approximately $90,000.00 with an indebtedness of approximately $22,500.00 which is covered by pledges.

Following in the footsteps of many notable pastors, Rev. John Mack Walker came to Steele Creek in November of 1920 and remained the pastor until May 1948, when he resigned because of ill health. Steele Creek's hearts are filled with gratitude to God for this long and fruitful ministry. "As a preacher he was faithful in proclaiming the whole counsel of God, true to the faith, and practical in his sermons." Mrs. Walker, the former Miss Annie Muller English, proved herself a real helpmeet in all the work of the church. The Walkers, by their own liberality inspired Steele Creek to a splendid record in stewardship, particularly in the cause of missions. For a time, after leaving Steele Creek, the Walkers lived at Montreat until the death of Mrs. Walker in Feb. of 1950. Dr. J. M. Walker died at Greensboro on Dec. 11, 1950. Both are buried in Hollywood Cemetery at Richmond, Va. A console model Baldwin piano was recently purchased by the congregation and placed in the sanctuary as a memorial to Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker who were great lovers of sacred music.

During the time that Steele Creek was without a pastor (from May 1948 to Oct. 1949) the pulpit was supplied by several ministers, two of whom were Dr. Bernard Boyd and Rev. Wm. Smith, III, both of Davidson College.

Rev. Watt M. Cooper, was called to the pastorate at Steele Creek in Sept. of 1949 and was installed on Oct. 30, 1949. He and his wife, the former Miss Mary Gambill, have already endeared themselves to the congregation by their constant exhibition of true Christian character and faithful service. Last year 84 joined the church at Steele Creek.

Projects and programs at Steele Creek would be practically impossible without the support of its loyal and faithful women who are the real backbone of the church. In the recent building program women of the church took leading parts on both building committees and were invaluable in the work of redecorating the church. In the matter of stewardship of possessions the women again take the lead, particularly in the matter of mission causes. No task is too large or too difficult for Steele Creek's women, who are truly loyal and faithful to the Kingdom's cause.

In November of 1949 there was a marked revival of the Men's Organization of the church. New officers were elected, committees set up, and regular activity planned. They now meet once a month, usually for a supper meeting and a planned program. A Boy Scout Troop is sponsored by this organization and many other fine projects have been completed. "Lead on, O King Eternal" the men of Steele Creek are on the march.

The Young Adult organization, under the leadership of Mrs. J. B. Watt, is one of the strongest organizations of the church.

The work of Steele Creek's Young People also deserves special mention in the account of recent progress. In the matter of special offerings to missions they deserve special praise; for all through the last fifteen years this has been their special emphasis project. They, too, bear out the fact that Steele Creek is a mission-minded church. Miss Maggie Whiteside (now 94 and the oldest member of Steele Creek) and Miss Rena Brown (who is 88) can still speak with pride of the Young People of Steele Creek because it was they who sponsored the Band of Earnest Workers here long years ago, and gave the church its mission background.

Steele Creek has given many sons to the Building of the Kingdom. These are still living and active in the ministry:

Rev. H. L. Cathey	Rev. W. Cook Neel

Rev. R. M. Pegram	Rev. T. A. Freeman
Rev. O. C. Williamson	Rev. Wm. A. Brown

Rev. John Mack Walker, Jr.

Steele Creek now has one candidate for the ministry, Lee Williamson, Jr. Miss Myrtle Williamson, on the faculty of Stillman Institute at Tuscaloosa, Ala., is a daughter of the church. She has long been active in the work of the church.

Many wise and strong men have served on the official bodies of the church; their influence adding moral strength and Christian character to the work of the church.

The sixteen elders now serving the church are:

R. W. Boyles	R. F. Freeman
G. F. Brown	C. S. Garrison

Steele Creek, long famous for its congregational singing, still shows great interest in the music of the church. In March of 1950 Mr. I. H. Freeman and Mr. E. B. Byrum resigned from the Music Committee and were presented specially inscribed Hymn Books in recognition of their long years as leaders of music at Steele Creek. Mr. Freeman completed nearly 50 years as leader of congregational singing. Two organized choirs, Adult and Junior, now assist with the worship program of the church. The first director for the Adult Choir was T. F. Hibbard of the Queens College faculty who came to Steele Creek in March 1950 and was succeeded by E. Lindsey Merrill, the present director and also of the Queens College faculty. The Junior Choir was more recently organized under the direction of Mrs. E. Lindsey Merrill.

For a number of years Steele Creek supported work at two chapels. Beaty's Chapel on the northwest bounds of the congregation has ceased to be active for the time being, but is still a challenging field for the church. It is hoped that the work will soon become active again in that area. Freeland's Chapel, on the York Road, was organized into a church on Oct. 31, 1948, and is now known as Clanton Memorial. The work there seems to be going forward in a fine way.

"There's a place for every worker
In the vineyard of the Lord
Where with all their powers united
They can toil with one accord."

May the church that is honored today continue to be "as a city that is set on a hill," shedding the light of truth and Christian influence on all who come within its bounds. May its people follow in the train of the faithful who ran with patience the race set before them.

"To God, the only Wise,
In every age adored
Let Glory from the Church arise,
Thro' Jesus Christ our Lord."

Report of Presbytery's Council—The following report of Presbytery's Council was read and adopted.

1. That in accordance with the request of the 1951 General Assembly and of the Synod of North Carolina, that a benevolent budget of $479,510 be adopted for the church year 1952-53 to be divided as follows:
Assembly—$179,864; Synod—$126,046; Presbytery—$73,600.
2. That the following apportionments be made to the individual churches of the Presbytery. (See list.)
3. That the contributions from the churches to the benevolent causes be divided according to the following schedule of percentages: (See list.)
4. That March 2, 1952, be designated as Every-Member Canvass Day, and that every church be urged to conduct the canvass in such a manner that every member may be enlisted in the total work of the church.
5. That the theme of the 1952 Every Member Canvass be, "Increasing Our Service to Christ and His Church."
6. That the Stewardship Season, February 3-March 2, 1952, be utilized by every pastor, Session and Diaconate for presenting: (1) the total work of the Church as represented by both benevolences and current expenses; and (2) the acceptance of a stewardship of life and possessions by the membership of each church.
7. That Presbytery approve the following Special Days and Offerings:
 1. April 13—Overseas Relief and Inter Church Aid
 2. May 11—Mother's Day—Presbyterian Home
 3. June 8—Father's Day Offering for Defense Service Council
 4. November 4—Self Denial Offering for Church Extension
 5. Thanksgiving—Presbyterian Orphans' Home
 6. December 21—Joy Gift Offering
 7. February 3—Self Denial Offering for World Missions
8. That every church be called upon to recognize its responsibility for the work of the Assembly, Synod and Presbytery as represented by the benevolent goal assigned to it by the Presbytery's Council.
9. That every church be reminded that its benevolence goal has not been completely met until each cause has received the designated amount assigned to it by the Presbytery.
10. Believing that the expense of the Presbytery's Office and maintenance and upkeep of Camp Walton Stewart belong in the Presbytery's expense budget rather than in the benevolent budget, the Council recommends that beginning with the Church year 1952-53 that each Church pay to the Presbytery $1.00 per member to care for Presbytery's business, providing for a budget of $9,250.00 for the Presbytery's Office and $4,800.00 for Camp Walton Stewart, and these causes be paid by the Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Presbytery. Churches may pay on a monthly basis.

That the following apportionments be made to the individual churches of the Presbytery.

Report of Committee on Home—The following report of the Committee on Homes was read and adopted:

REPORT OF PRESBYTERY COMMITTEE ON HOMES

Your Committee on Homes would report that the following information has come to us from the Homes in which this Presbytery, with others, is deeply interested.

As to the William Black Home located at Montreat, N. C.: It was opened for guests for the first time this past summer and was operated most pleasantly and efficiently without deficit. However, in order to complete the building and adequately equip same it was necessary for the Board of Directors to borrow $8,000.00. Immediately confronting the directors is the necessity of building and equipping servant quarters. To do this several thousand dollars more will be needed.

As to the Presbyterian Home located at High Point, N. C., the trustees are doing everything possible to open the Home for guests by January 1st. Mr. R. A. Short has been secured as manager and other members of the operating staff are being secured.

As to the Barium Springs Home, the work in all departments is being carried on with efficiency and consecration. At present there are 275 children in residence. There are always needs, but two stand out prominently now. First, there is the need for qualified house mothers. Second, there is the need for more funds. To quote words from a report from the home, "The rise in prices effects the Home acutely."

With this information before us, your Committee on Homes would present the following recommendation for your approval—

1st. That we commend the director and operating staff of each institution for their loyalty and efficiency.

2nd. That each congregation in our Presbytery that has not yet met the askings of the William Black Home be encouraged to meet these askings as early and as fully as possible.

3rd. That each session be requested to appoint a Committee to promote a liberal offering for the Presbyterian Home on Mother's Day 1952.

4th. That each session be requested to appoint a Committee to set before the congregation the special and specific needs of the Children's Home and at the Thanksgiving season promote a most liberal offering that the pressing needs may be fully met.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. Young,

Chairman of Presbytery's Com. on Homes

The One Hundred Ninety-Fifth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Presbyterian Junior College
Maxton, N. C.
January 15, 1952

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Fifth Stated Session at Presbyterian Junior College in Maxton, N. C., at 10 A. M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Dr. Roy F. Whitley, presided and led the Presbytery in the opening exercises. Rev. A. Leslie Thompson led the Presbytery in prayer after which the Glee Club of Presbyterian Junior College sang. Rev. L. C. LaMotte read the Scripture from John 14: 1-14 and the Moderator preached his sermon on the subject, "Where Do We Go From Here."

Memorial—The following Memorial to Rev. O. C. Williamson prepared by Rev. J. G. Garth was read and adopted:

ORIN CONWAY WILLIAMSON
By John G. Garth

When I heard of the death of O. C. Williamson, on Oct. 19, 1951, I thought of the words of King David when he heard of the sudden death of Abner, commander-in-chief of Saul's armies, as the king spoke to his own council, "Know ye not that a prince and a great man hath fallen in Israel this day?" The death of Dr. Williamson was not unexpected, as he had fought with his ailment for a long time, but the strong stalwart figure had met with physical disability and had conquered it, and those who loved and admired his fine frame, and knew of his indomitable will had hoped he would gain the victory again. But it was not the will of God. His splendid physique, and his equally big mind and heart, had done the Father's will, and now the Master said, "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou has been faithful in a few things. Enter now into the joy of thy Lord."

The funeral was held in his childhood church, Steele Creek, conducted by two old friends, Rev. Watt M. Cooper, the pastor of Steele Creek and Rev. John W. Grier of Huntersville, who had been a friend of the deceased for many years. And burial was in the old colonial cemetery of the church, where lie many whose lives had been associated with this old church which was organized in 1760.

Orin Conway Williamson was born in Steele Creek community on May 29, 1893, and at his death was 58 years old. His parents were Logan Wallace Williamson, and the former Mary Clark, who reared their family in Steele Creek, and gave them a religious devoted home. Conway was a loyal Christian, and began taking his part in all the exercises of this famous old church. After receiving the common and high school education in the community, he entered Davidson College at 19 years of age in 1912, as a candidate for the ministry. When he had gone two years to Davidson, his course was interrupted in 1914, but he returned to college in 1916, and was graduated with the B.A. degree at Davidson in 1918. He also had a short military experience in World War I. In 1918 he entered Union Seminary in Richmond, Va., and after three years, he received the B.D. degree in 1921. He was licensed to preach by Mecklenburg Presbytery on May 23, 1921 and on July 15, 1921, he was ordained by Albemarle Presbytery as a foreign missionary, and spent six years in missionary work in Mexico.

Soon after his ordination, on July 18, 1921 he married his childhood sweetheart, Lois Faires, of Steele Creek church, who accompanied him to Mexico and assisted him in his missionary work. Two sons were born to their union, Donald Clark and Norval Faires, who have grown to manhood and entered business.

In 1928 Austin Seminary, at Austin, Texas, appointed Mr. Williamson as instructor in Spanish for Mexican candidates for the ministry, and he spent five years in this work. During his stay in Austin, he became supply minister at the Presbyterian church in Victoria, Texas, and in Cameron, Texas, thus keeping his contacts with practical ministerial work. While at Austin, Davidson College, his alma mater gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. In 1933 he accepted the call of the church at Alexandria, Louisiana, and continued pastor there until 1936, when he became pastor at High Point, N. C. where he spent eight years.

The church at High Point is a large congregation, and they had an ambitious building program, which the congregation found laborious. Under Dr. Williamson's leadership the church was paid for. While at High Point the synod of North Carolina appointed him chairman of the Religious Education committee, and this work prospered under his guidance.

In 1944 Dr. Williamson was suddenly stricken with a slight brain hemorrhage, and was advised by his physicians, to rest and give up High Point church for a smaller congregation. He yielded to their counsel, and undertook the rigid rice, saltfree regimen and under it improved. Under the guidance of God, Cook's Memorial Church near Charlotte felt constrained to call Dr. Williamson for their first whole time pastor. They built a commodious manse for him, and immediately the church began growing in every way. The Sunday School outgrew its facilities and an annex was built, and the hut enlarged. Congregations became larger, and activities of all kinds became numerous. Synod chose Dr. Williamson as moderator in 1946, and presbytery asked him to take over ministerial education and relief work. Many other forms of service were thrust upon him. He was doing his best to meet them, when suddenly in the spring of 1951, the heart began to give way, and he resigned himself to God's leading.

Hospital experiences in Charlotte and at Columbia gave no permanent relief and at last on Friday, Oct. 19, at the Veterans' Hospital at Columbia, S. C., the noble organ beat its last, and the strenuous task was over. Cook's Memorial and High Point manifested their love and grief as they took part in the final rites.

Dr. Williamson gave us all a valuable exhibition of patience, fortitude, fidelity, and devotion to our Master and we now testify to our appreciation of his qualities and the inspiration of his example. May God keep his loyal family in His love and care and give his congregations the abiding sense of his demonstration of faith and devotion to Christ. He was a strong preacher, faithful to the word; a loving faithful pastor; a tower of strength in presbytery and synod; and a loyal devoted friend.

Dr. Williamson is survived by his wife and two sons, a brother, Rev. D. Lee Williamson, missionary to Brazil and three sisters, Mrs. George Leeper of Parkton, N. C., Mrs. D. A. Huffines, of Cameron, N. C., and Miss Myrtle Williamson, of Stillman College faculty, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO LARGER CATECHISM

The General Assembly of 1951 approved and sent to the presbyteries for their advice and consent the following amendment to the Larger Catechism: (Page 50 of the Minutes)

7. That the Assembly adopt and send down to the presbyteries for advice and consent an amendment to Question 183 of the Larger Catechism in order to bring this part of the Catechism into accord with the corresponding clause in the Confession of Faith by the deletion from Question 183 the words "nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death." The Larger Catechism on this subject will then read:

"Q. 183: For whom are we to pray? A. We are to pray for the whole church of Christ upon earth, for magistrates, and ministers, for ourselves, our brethren, yea, our enemies, and for all sorts of men living, or that shall live hereafter; but not for the dead."

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE BOOK OF CHURCH ORDER

1. Amendment to Par. 96 (1). (Pages 46 and 47 of the Minutes)

That an amendment be submitted to the presbyteries striking out the words "by a Congregation" and substituting the words "of a church" in the last sentence making the last sentence read "The Presbytery shall not approve a Minister's being called as Pastor or as Stated Supply of a church which he has served as Temporary Supply, unless a period of six months has elapsed between the ending of the Temporary Supply relationship and the issuing of a call to be Pastor or Stated Supply."

2. Addition to Par. 119. (Page 67 of the Minutes)

"(5) Do you promise to seek to cultivate a truly Christian spirit, full of understanding, forbearance, gentleness, courage, and good will?"

"(6) Do you promise to seek to spread Christianity by your personal witness and through the benevolent program of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to the ends of the earth?"

3. Amendment to Par. 140. (Page 47 of the Minutes)

The amendment will read as follows: "The day appointed for the ordination having come, and the Presbytery (or the Commission appointed by the Presbytery for the purpose) being convened, a Presbyterian minister, or layman, previously appointed or invited for that duty, shall preach a sermon adapted to the occasion. The member appointed to preside shall afterward . . ." the balance of the paragraph to be retained as at present.

4. Amendment to Par. 147. (Page 46 of the Minutes)

Amend the third sentence of the first paragraph by striking out the words "after consultation" and substituting "by the session, after it has consulted" so that the paragraph will read: "When a minister reaches the age of seventy years the relationship between him and the church or churches he is serving shall automatically terminate. All such Ministers, whether they be Pastors, Associate Pastors, Assistant Pastors, or Stated Supplies are eligible for re-election in the same capacity for a term of one year at a time, not to exceed five terms. In the re-election of Pastors and Associate Pastors a congregational meeting shall be called for that purpose by the Session, after it has consulted with the Commission on the Minister and His Work, as provided in Paragraph 96. No installation is necessary when a Minister is re-elected by the same church or churches. In every case, the time for retirement shall be September 1, following the seventieth birthday."

5. Amendment to Par. 304. (Pages 49 and 50 of the Minutes)

304 (1) When a church member shall remove his residence within a metropolitan area where there are several churches or when a church member shall remove his residence to a city, town or community other than that in which the church of which he is a member is located so that it becomes impossible or impracticable for him to continue active relationship with his church and he so advises the Session, his name shall be immediately transferred to a separate roll for non-resident members. The names on the non-resident roll shall be reported to the Presbytery in the annual statistical report as a part of the total membership of the church.

(2) In all such cases of non-residence as those described above, it shall be the duty of the Pastor and Ruling Elders of the church of which he is a member to inform him that according to the teaching of our Book of Church Order it is his duty to transfer his membership as soon as practicable to a church where he is now living, which he can attend. It shall also be the duty of the Pastor and Ruling Elders to notify the Pastor and Ruling Elders of a church, or one of the churches, as the case may be, into whose area he has moved, and request them to take pastoral oversight of the member, with a view to having him transfer his membership. If a member, after having been thus advised, shall neglect for twelve months to have his membership transferred, and shall manifest no interest in, and make no contributions toward the support of, the church of which he is a member, his name shall be retired by the Session to a separate roll for retired members.

(3) The name of any member whose residence has been unknown for two years to the Session, or who for two years has not attended its services, contributed to its financial support, or otherwise manifested an interest in the church may, after diligent effort to locate and re-enlist said member has failed, be retired by the Session to a separate roll for retired members. The names on this retired roll shall not be reported to the Presbytery in the annual statistical report as a part of the total membership of the church.

(4) If a member whose name is upon the retired roll and whose life in the meanwhile has been free from scandal shall resume his attendance upon the ordinances of the church, the Session shall restore his name to the roll of communing members.

(5) If a member whose name is upon the retired roll because of non-residence alone shall request a certificate of dismissal the Session shall grant such a certificate, with the notation that the member was in good standing up to and including the date non-residence began, giving the date when possible.

(6) When a Session places an officer on the non-resident or retired roll for any of the above reasons, it shall at the same time dissolve his official relationship with the church and report its action to the congregation.

6. Amendment to Par. 362. (Page 47 of the Minutes)

The amendment will read as follows: "After these questions have been answered in the affirmative, baptism may be administered, if there be present any candidates for the ordinance. Prayer shall then be offered, after which the minister may say: 'Forasmuch as you have made confession of your faith and received Christian baptism, you are now admitted to all the privileges of this congregation, including participation in the sacrament of the Lord's supper and full fellowship in the Church, which includes all believers in Christ throughout the ages.' A brief charge may be added and the whole concluded with a benediction."

Their gifts will enable Presbyterian Junior College to carry on a more effective service to young people in the ministry of Christian education.

2. That each congregation consider making a contribution to the Firm Foundation Fund of Presbyterian College from any undesignated or unpledged balances in the treasuries of the congregation, or its various groups, as we come to the end of this Church year.

3. That in each congregation the pastor, elders, and deacons, through the budget committee, consider earnestly how it will be best for that congregation to help in the Firm Foundation Fund Campaign and to decide upon and adopt some plan for contribution to the Firm Foundation Fund in the new Church year, so as to send in the gift before December 31, 1952. In some congregations a gift may be put in the budget. In some congregations a special offering may be taken in April or at some other time.

Resolutions of Protest to the President of the United States
—The following resolutions were adopted by the Presbytery:

Mecklenburg Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, representing nearly 27,000 Presbyterian churchmen in the State of North Carolina, meeting in its 195th Stated Session at Maxton, N. C., voted to send to you and the Senators from the State of North Carolina the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the President of the United States has announced the appointment of an Ambassador from the United States of America to the Roman See, Vatican City; and

WHEREAS, this action by the President is contrary to the practice, principles, and traditions of the United States of America, based upon the principle of "the separation of Church and State," a principle we continue to regard as valid and in force; and,

WHEREAS, this action comes after repeated assurances to individuals and groups that the appointment of an Ambassador to Vatican City would not be made as long as the President was in office and that the presence of the President's personal representative to the Vatican was only a matter of temporary expediency;

THEREFORE, we the members of the Presbytery of Mecklenburg of the Presbyterian Church in the United States do hereby most vigorously protest the action of the President of the United States, and call upon the Congress and the Senate of the United States of America to abide by the time-honored custom of this country in refraining from recognizing the official status of one branch of the Church above all others by this proposed unprecedented act;

And we do hereby instruct the Stated Clerk of this Presbytery to forward copies of these resolutions to the President of the United States and the United States Senators from North Carolina, and the Representative from the Tenth District of the State of North Carolina to the Congress.

The Presbytery voted to adjourn.

The minutes were read and adopted.

The One Hundred Ninety-Sixth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

The Moderator, Ruling Elder P. F. Howerton, presided. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. J. Gilbert Kirckhoff. The Moderator spoke on the subject, "David, the Missionary."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated, led by Rev. L. I. Stell and Rev. D. E. Wilkinson.

Memorial—The following Memorial to the late Rev. J. G. Garth prepared by the Rev. R. H. Stone was read and adopted:

REV. JOHN GOODALL GARTH

The first date in the life of John Goodall Garth is February 11, 1871, when he was born in Paducah, Kentucky. The closing date in the chapter of his earthly life is February 22, 1952. Within those eighty-one years and eleven days there was an interesting and highly useful life.

He was the son of Robert G. and Jennie Elizabeth Cambell Garth. His higher education was at Clarksville, Tennessee in Southwestern Presbyterian University, from which he received a degree of Master of Arts in 1894 and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Divinity School in 1895.

The Western District Presbytery licensed him on April 5th and ordained him July 4, 1895. From 1895 to 1901 he was pastor at Humboldt, Tennessee. The next four years he was pastor at Murfreesboro, Tennessee. In 1905 he came to North Carolina where he was to labor for the rest of his life.

His first pastorate in his new Synod was at New Bern, 1905-1908; from 1908 to 1918 he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Hickory. In 1919 he was in Rutherfordton. In 1920 began his thirty-two years of service in Mecklenburg Presbytery.

First, he taught in the famous Baird School, but the pulpit and not the classroom was his fort and his calling. During his two years of teaching he was stated supply at Mallard Creek in 1920 and at Steele Creek in 1921. In 1922 he became pastor of the Seversville (now St. Andrews) and Thomasboro Presbyterian Churches. This relationship was terminated in 1926 when he became editor of The Presbyterian Standard, a position he held until 1931.

During this time he was stated supply at Sugaw Creek from 1927-1929; stated supply at Providence Church from 1929-1933; and stated clerk of Mecklenburg Presbytery from 1926 until 1937. In 1940-1941 he was treasurer of benevolences and secretary of stewardship. In 1941 he was honorably retired by Mecklenburg Presbytery, but he continued to preach until within a few months of his death.

The life service of Dr. Garth was accentuated by his writings as well as by his pulpit ministry. He was a lucid writer and editor. He is the author of "Idyll of the Shepherd," 1911; "Sixty Years of Home Missions in the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina," 1949; and "The Little Gospel" which came from the press about one week before his passing. This latter work is a condensation of the cream of his scholarship and preaching. He wanted dearly to see this book in print and when it was done, God called him home. He was Religious Editor of The Charlotte Observer and had a weekly contribution which was widely read. In recognition of his journalistic and literary talent he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature in 1950 by his Alma Mater, Southwestern.

There were two important romances in his life. The first resulted in his marriage to Miss Ethel Voorhees, at Union City, Tennessee in June, 1896. She died in 1934 and was buried in Hickory. Three children survive this union: Mr. Cornelius Voorhees Garth, of Hickory, N. C.; Dr. Robert C. Garth, of East Williston, N. Y.; and Mrs. Mary Charlotte (Mrs. R. W.) Adams, of Chapel Hill, N. C. In December 1941 he was married to Miss Sara Wilfong Grier, of Charlotte. She survives him and now lives near Lincolnton.

Dr. Garth was endowed with many sterling qualities. He was a genial friend. Hosts of people loved him dearly. He was a good singer and possessed a voice that led him into quartets where he was known as "a sweet singer in Israel." He had good business ability. There was a strict adherence to conviction—whether it be the Confession of Faith, The Book of Church Order or something of a lesser nature. He was a forceful debater. A fine sense of humor added to his geniality. He was a tireless worker, and was planning for his Sunday newspaper columns within a few hours of his homegoing.

In so many ways so many people and church organizations depended upon him. He is greatly missed. Even though his body is at rest in Hickory it may be said of him as of Abel—"He being dead yet speaketh."

History of Wilmore Church—The following History of the Wilmore Church was read by Mrs. Charles Gadd and was adopted:

HISTORY OF WILMORE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

In January 1913 a Mission Sunday School was started by a few members of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. These faithful workers erected a building on Bland Street near the corner of Mint Street and the Sunday School grew rapidly. In a short time it had an active membership of 132.

In September 1914, a petition was sent to Mecklenburg Presbytery in its meeting at Matthews, N. C., asking for the organization of a Church. A commission was appointed to organize this Church. The commissioners were Dr. D. H. Ralston, Chairman; Rev. W. H. Adams, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church; Elders J. P. Kirkpatrick and W. H. Belk. This commission met in the Chapel on November 1, 1914 and organized the Church with 28 charter members. These members being: Mrs. Joseph A. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Walker, Mr. C. D. Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McKnight, Mr. R. M. Frazier, Mr. Chas. L. Pace, Mr. W. J. Williamson, Mr. Robert H. Gadd, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McKnight, Mr. David Porter Cooper, Mr. Paul C. Chambers, Mr. W. W. McKnight, Mr. R. C. Frazier, Mrs. W. C. Gadd, Mrs. J. D. Williamson, Miss Lelia Jane McKnight, Miss Harriet Z. McKnight, Miss Margaret L. McKnight, Mrs. C. H. Barger, Mr. Chas. S. Wilson, Mrs. Ethel Kiser Wilson, Mrs. M. A. McCready, Mr. R. H. Stevens and Mrs. Lily M. Chambers.

The commission reconvened on December 20, 1914 with the congregation for the purpose of electing officers. The elders elected were C. D. Wilson, H. E. Wilson and N. J. Phillips. The deacons elected were R. H. Stevens, E. T. McKnight and Frank Williamson. In this meeting the Rev. F. H. Wardlaw was called as pastor. To complete this memorable day the congregation adopted the name "Wilmore Presbyterian Church" at the suggestion of Mr. Lee Phillips.

Rev. Mr. Wardlaw served as pastor for two and one-half years, after which the Rev. C. C. Myers served from April 1917 to December 1919. The Church was without a regular pastor from this time until April 1921, but during the time it was served by supply pastors who were Rev. W. T. Pearman, Rev. J. L. Caldwell, Rev. T. C. Guy and Rev. D. C. Young.

Rev. Mr. Young supplied the month of March 1921 and subsequently answered the call to serve as regular pastor until October 1921. The Church was again without a regular pastor until August 1923. During this period it was supplied by Rev. B. F. Yandell, Rev. Daniel Iverson, Rev. G. C. Huntington and Rev. L. W. Brown.

The Rev. W. H. Cassidy became the regular pastor in August 1923 and continued to May 1925. The Rev. S. B. McLean supplied from June 1925 to August 1925 at which time he accepted the call and became regular pastor.

In January 1926 Rev. Mr. McLean was asked to see about getting a loan on the Church property to buy a suitable lot on which to build a new church. The lot on the corner of Mint Street and West Park Avenue was purchased. On September 8, 1926 a building committee consisting of Rev. McLean, S. L. Suggs and N. J. Phillips was named to make plans for the new Church building.

On January 17, 1927 the trustees, N. J. Phillips, C. D. Wilson and J. F. Sing were empowered to negotiate a loan not to exceed $6,000.00 for the purpose of building a new church. The old church property was sold for $11,500.00 and $4,500.00 was borrowed to complete the financing of the new Church. The new Church was completed in May 1927 at a cost of $18,000.00.

In November 1927 a lot was purchased on West Boulevard, adjoining Wilmore School, for building a manse. This manse was constructed by Mr. S. L. Suggs and completed in February 1928 with a valuation of $8,000.00.

Rev. McLean ministered to this congregation for 17 years until his health forced him to retire in September 1942. When he came to Wilmore in August 1925 the Church had a total membership of 43 and at the end of his first seven months as regular pastor the Church had 20 additions. His 17 years ministry at Wilmore were faithful and fruitful and at the time of his retirement in September 1942 the total membership was 338.

Dr. J. S. Sibley served as supply pastor from September 1942 until May 1943 when Rev. W. Ted Smith accepted the call and became pastor.

At this time the indebtedness of the Church was $3,110.00 and on the manse $1,568.00, a total of $4,678.00. In less than two years the indebtedness was paid in full and the Church was dedicated February 4, 1945. The building fund was continued for the purpose of accumulating a fund for future building. It was in June 1945 that plans were begun for an addition to and remodeling of the present building. The building committee was W. P. Costner, Chairman; R. L. Porter, J. F. Graham, J. B. Long, R. D. Goodman and H. K. Youngblood. The finance committee being Z. V. Keziah, Chairman; L. W. Henkle, J. R. Jamison, H. F. Porter, Carl Snipes, B. H. Moore, Mrs. F. S. Porter, Mrs. H. K. Youngblood and Miss Mary Adams.

The Building Committee secured the architect's drawing and the enthusiasm mounted, the Finance Committee went into action and the building fund began to grow and a total of $40,000.00 was raised in three years.

The general contract was awarded to the Barger Construction Co., of Mooresville, N. C. and on November 10, 1947 the ground breaking ceremony was held and the construction got under way. The construction was completed in October 1948 at a cost of approximately $85,000.00. The formal opening service was November 14, 1948.

The Church of the Open Door, an Interdenominational Church on Tuckaseegee Road petitioned the Presbytery in April 1948 to establish as a Presbyterian Church. Elder Guy M. Neel of Wilmore who was leading them in their worship, urged Presbytery to act favorable on their petition. After much debate Presbytery declined this petition, but suggested and urged that this Church become affiliated with Wilmore in the capacity of an outpost of Wilmore until a suitable site for their Church could be located. In May 1948 this Church of 29 members was received into full communion and fellowship of Wilmore. They chose the name of McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Chapel and elected the following officers: A. R. Cathey and R. E. L. Prather as Elders, J. C. Reid and Jack M. Threath as Deacons. On February 5, 1950, 39 members of the McQuay chapel were dismissed to become charter members of the McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church which was authorized by Presbytery in January 1950 to establish.

In March 1951 we were very fortunate in securing Miss Cora Wayland as Director of Religious Education. Until this time the Church had been without a Director of this Office.

The Church Council was organized in April 1951. It is composed of the Pastor as Chairman; the Clerk of the Session, the Chairman of the Board of Deacons, the President of the Women of the Church, the Director of Music and Superintendent of Sunday School. The Council meets once each month to plan and promote the program of the Church.

Our Young People's Department is moving forward with much progress under the leadership of Miss Wayland, with Mr. and Mrs. John P. Smith as adult advisors.

The Music Department is a strong asset to the program of the Church. We have two active choirs, the adult and the young people. The third a junior choir is in the advance stages of development. The success of this department is due to its enthusiastic members and Mrs. Ernest Kales who organized this department and was its director for several years. Mrs. Kales resigned this office in January 1952 and was succeeded by Mrs. Tom Harrill.

The Women of the Church are, as in the years past, giving their wholehearted support to the Kingdom of God. The organization, comprised of nine circles, is under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Gadd. Their latest material contribution to the Church was the shrubbery recently planted on the grounds.

The Men's Fellowship Club with Mr. Zeb Keziah as President affords Christian fellowship each month in its regular supper meeting.

Our Sunday School, superintended by Mr. R. M. Stevenson, continues to grow. Our enrollment is 438.

Our Church Membership, as of March 31, 1952 is 575.

The Session of 15 Elders is composed of: R. M. Stevenson, Clerk; H. G. Benfield, W. P. Costner, W. P. Glenn, J. R. Jamison, W. A. Lowrance, J. T. Nivens, H. F. Porter, R. L. Porter, J. P. Robinson, W. D. Rogers, J. P. Smith, W. T. Whiten, C. D. Wilson and H. K. Youngblood.

The Diaconate with 22 Deacons is composed of: C. H. Phillips, Chairman; M. E. Alexander, Fred Bollinger, Archie Brown, A. E. Cobb, Roy Edwards, T. A. Greene, N. L. Greene, I. Eugene Grey, L. C. Helms, L. W. Henkle, M. B. Hunter, Ernest Kales, J. P. Kerns, Z. V. Keziah, B. H. Moore, J. C. Phillips, P. S. Porter, Floyd Porter, Fred Potts, W. Ted Smith, Jr. and H. M. Wheeler.

As we think back through the 38 years that Wilmore has been in the service of our Lord we praise God for all His many blessings and for all the many souls that have come into the fold of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Commission on the Minister and His Work—The following report of the Commission on the Minister and His Work was read and admitted to record.

Report of the Commission on the Minister and His Work to Mecklenburg Presbytery—April 15, 1952. Re: Horace L. Thomas.

At the stated meeting of Presbytery in January, 1952, Horace L. Thomas appeared before the Presbytery and was received as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Since that date he has been supplying the South Park Church where his ministry has been most pleasing to the congregation and profitable in the Gospel.

On March 21st a committee from the South Park Church appeared before the Commission on the Minister and His Work to request the approval of the Commission to extend a call to Mr. Thomas to become their minister. The Commission gave the matter careful consideration and finally gave its consent with the understanding on the part of all concerned that the Presbytery would have to make the final decision and that it might not sustain the advice of the Commission.

Your Commission has in hand a call from the South Park Church for the pastoral services of Mr. Thomas, offering him a salary of $3,300.00, with a manse and ministers annuity fund payments provided for. This call is in the proper form and we recommend that it be placed in his hands at such time as the Presbytery sees fit.

As this is an extraordinary case and must be handled under the provisions of Paragraph 118 of the book of Church Order we give the Presbytery the following information.

Horace L. Thomas is a graduate of Forest High School, Dallas, Texas. Since his high school graduation he has had the following training: One year training at the U. S. Air Corps Technical School, Chanute Field, Ill., from which he graduated. He has taken courses in Greek, Homiletics, Logic and Pastoral Administration at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma. He attended the graduate school of Social Work at "Our Lady Of The Lake" College in San Antonio, Texas. While stationed in Richmond, Va., he studied sociology at the Richmond Professional Institute and took courses in Economics and Public Relations at the Richmond School of Business Administration. He attended schools of Religion for Religious Leaders at Union Theological Seminary and local church schools in Oklahoma City and Charlotte. At the present time he is taking a course in Philosophy at Queens College.

His principal training for the ministry has been under the auspices of the Salvation Army, where he holds the rank of Captain. This training was received in the Southern Training College of the Salvation Army in Atlanta, Ga. The course for officers includes one year of study at the College and one year of field work and home study. The course at the Training College includes courses in Bible, Homiletics, Public Speaking, Church History, and Doctrines of the Church. In addition to these daily courses, special courses in Social Work, Group Leadership, and Corps Administration are included. At the completion of this two year course of study and practical field work a commission is granted but only at the end of a five year period are all the privileges usually granted to an ordained minister conferred upon him. Capt. Thomas has completed all the training required by the Salvation Army and has the highest recommendations from that body. His Divisional Secretary writes, "I have known Captain and Mrs. Thomas over a good number of years, and I know them both to be of the highest caliber, morally and spiritually. They have given good service as Officers in the Salvation Army, serving in many fields of Christian endeavor that would well equip them as leaders and Ministers of the Gospel."

It was the desire of Captain Thomas, expressed when he was received as a candidate under care of this Presbytery, to go as soon as the way was clear to take his theological studies at Union Seminary. This is still his desire and he has not sought the call from the South Park Church. It is his hope that if the Presbytery sees fit to permit him to accept this call, the church will release him from time to time to pursue his studies as opportunities present themselves.

It is the opinion of your Commission that Captain Thomas has many of the qualifications necessary to make him a good minister in our church. While he does not have all the educational background usually required, he has not received training in any institution that is opposed to the Presbyterian Church in the United States, its ideals, its government, or its present program. It is his desire to take all future training in institutions approved by our Presbytery and to equip himself as rapidly as possible for a full and complete ministry to his local church and our beloved denomination.

We therefore make the following recommendations:

1. That Presbytery exercise the authority given it under Paragraph 118, Book of Church Order, and waive the parts of trial usually required of a candidate for the ministry due to the practical experience in the case of Horace L. Thomas.

2. That Presbytery proceed to examine Mr. Thomas for licensure with a view to his early ordination in the South Park Church. It is the personal wish of Mr. Thomas that he be ordained in the manner approved by our church when he is installed as a minister in the Presbytery. He makes no appeal to his present standing as an ordained minister as an Officer in the Salvation Army.

3. That his examination in academic subjects be waived in view of his educational training and background.

4. That this complete report be made a matter of record in the Minutes of Presbytery and that it be not considered as setting a precedent in such matters but is the action of Presbytery solely on the basis of the information and conditions of this case.

Respectfully submitted,
Commission on the Minister and His Work

L. Thomas to be examined for licensure here and ordination in his own church. These men were recommended by the Committee for licensure and the Presbytery proceeded to examine them according to the provisions of the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as satisfactory. Mr. Pollard and Mr. Thomas were excused from preaching their sermons before the Presbytery and will preach before the Commissions appointed to ordain and install them. The Calls from the Churches were placed in the hands of the Commissions to be put in the hands of the Ministers when they are ordained.

Mr. William Moore Boyce, Jr., preached his sermon before the Presbytery. It was approved as satisfactory. He was then ordained to the Gospel Ministry with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery and solemnly set apart with prayer to this office. He was also granted the powers of evangelist for his work in the Chaplaincy. Mr. Boyce was received into the Presbytery upon the signing of the Covenant. Commissions were appointed to ordain and install Mr. Pollard and Mr. Thomas. (See Report of Committee on Installations.)

Moderator Nominated—Rev. H. S. Robinson was elected Moderator Nominee for the next meeting of Presbytery.

Sub-Committee on Women's Work—The Rev. F. C. Pratt presented Mrs. R. A. Willis, president of the Women of the Church of the Presbytery. Mrs. Willis made the following report which was adopted and after the report the Presbytery engaged in prayer for the Woman's Work.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" has been the directing light for the Women of the Church of Mecklenburg Presbytery for the year 1951-1952, and God has richly, beyond all expectation, "added all these things" unto us. With praise and thanksgiving to Him, we present the report of our part of the great work of the church.

Ninety organizations reported a total membership of ten thousand four hundred seventy-seven in one hundred seventy-four day and two hundred evening circles, a gain of four hundred fifty-seven. The trend is toward more general meetings as well as circle meetings held in the evening with a larger percentage attendance at both. Gifts to all benevolent causes amounted to seventy-three thousand nine hundred fifty-two dollars with gifts to local churches amounting to forty-two thousand seven hundred forty-six dollars, making the total amount given one hundred sixteen thousand six hundred ninety-eight dollars, a gain of nine thousand three hundred fifty-three dollars. The birthday offering was four thousand five hundred thirty-five dollars and forty-eight cents, and three hundred eighty-four dollars and seventy-five cents was contributed to White Cross.

Two well attended Presbyterial-wide Officers Training Classes, one for evening and one for day groups, were held in March with Mrs. R. M. Pegram of Louisville, Kentucky teaching. Twenty-six attended the Synodical Training School and fifty-nine the Women's Training School at Montreat. More support was noted for Stillman Training School at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and North Carolina Training School at Winston-Salem. The third annual Institute for Christian Living, sponsored by the women of Mecklenburg Presbytery, was held in Charlotte in May with eighty attending.

Seven District Conferences were held in September with nine hundred attending and contributing three hundred three dollars and eleven cents to Home Missions and one hundred seventy-five dollars for delegates to Synodical Training School from the seven hostess churches. The programs carried the theme "Faith-Works" with the Tithing Adventure stressed.

Two new organizations, Turner and Trinity, made ninety reporting, one, Salem, having disbanded. In November Camden was organized.

Eighty-five organizations reported work with Visitation Evangelism, and twenty-one outpost work. Nine hundred helped with Vacation Bible Schools, one thousand three hundred forty-five taught in Sunday School, and one hundred seventy-five served as youth advisors. Fifteen Honorary Life Memberships and one Memorial Membership were given. The Joy Gift was larger in all churches. Assembly's Special Causes received more educational emphasis and promotion through the local church programs and pulpits. We are encouraged by an increase in daily Bible readers, tithers, Bible study, and family worship. A greater outreach into community service through hospital service and auxiliaries, united prayer services for peace, and work with other church women in all community and civic organizations and clubs indicate a more integrated Christian witness and life. Special projects for World Missions show the consciousness of a world community and a church world service. Overseas Relief and Interchurch Aid has received clothing and money by special contribution from most organizations and carried in the budget by all. World Missions has been stressed, more interest noted, and participation in more varied projects. Projects for orphanages, schools, scholarships, and hospitals in the mission fields; and medical supplies, Bibles, school supplies, and letters and gifts to missionaries and their families sent to many countries show an increased knowledge of world mission needs and a consecrated effort to meet those needs.

Special helps noted by the local presidents in promoting the work are: the program and study materials including Presbyterian Women; use of film strips, slides, and films; talks by world and home missionaries; and information received from the agencies of our church.

Petition to Organize Church—The following petition to organize the Eastminster Chapel into a church was presented and was approved by the Presbytery. A Commission was appointed to organize the Church on May 18, 1952. The Commission consists of Rev. Charles G. McClure, Rev. J. C. Lawrence, Rev. R. H. Stone, Rev. J. A. Carriker, Mr. W. E. Price, Mr. M. B. Query. The Quorum will be two ministers and one elder.

The Congregation of Eastminster Presbyterian Chapel, located at the intersection of Washburn and Chipley Aves., in Charlotte, N. The Session of the sponsoring church, Caldwell Memorial, which carries the Chapel's 108 members on its roll has approved this request of the Eastminster people. The Session of Caldwell Church has generously agreed to support the Chapel during the present church year as formerly. The Eastminster people desire the date of organization to be May 18th (Sunday) at an hour to be set later.

86 signed petitions accompany this request, together with the Chapel Roll of 108 members of the church:

The One Hundred Ninety-Seventh Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Cameronian Presbyterian Church
Rockingham, N. C.
July 15, 1952

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Seventh Session at Cameronian Presbyterian Church in Rockingham, N. C. at 10 A.M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Rev. C. E. S. Kraemer, presided and led the Presbytery in its opening exercises. Rev. W. M. Walsh read the Scripture and Rev. R. H. Stone led in prayer. The Moderator preached a sermon on the subject, "The Words of Jesus."

History of Cameronian Church—The following history of the Cameronian Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. Rebecca Johnson and was adopted:

CAMERONIAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Pee Dee Manufacturing Company was organized in 1876. In 1833 the rock dam was built, and it was along in this early period that the company decided to build a chapel for the use of its employees. Up to this time they had been using a two-room dwelling house on the opposite side of the street. Here the Company also maintained a Free Public School for the benefit of its employees—and it was the first public school in the entire South, and perhaps in the nation, to be operated by a mill company for the benefit of its children. The school was in session every week day of the year and attendance was compulsory. After the school was moved to the new chapel, Dan Bolton lived in the house for many years.

All denominations used the Community Building for their church home and it was the gathering place for all social and educational meetings.

On May 29, 1895, a Presbyterian Church was organized here with two elders: George Warburton and E. S. Hart. It had fifty members. The name given was Cameronian. John P. Cameron was instrumental in beginning this work. The Presbyterians had to buy the building then.

The Home Missions Board paid four hundred (400) and the congregation two hundred (200) dollars. Back then money was not as plentiful as it is now and they had a hard time reaching this goal.

A list of the fifty-five charter members follows, (of May 29, 1895):

D. M. McInnis, Jennie McInnis, N. N. McInnis, Maggie McInnis, Mrs. E. C. McInnis, L. C. McInnis, Cornelia McInnis, J. A. McInnis, K. A. Bolton, Mrs. K. A. Bolton, B. J. Bolton, Mrs. B. J. Bolton, M. J. Bolton, Della Batton, M. A. Poole, Maggie Smith, S. A. Moffitt, Charles Worley, Mrs. Charles Worley, E. A. Wicker, Maggie Wicker, Lizzie Wicker, Russell Wicker, Charles McKenzie, W. A. Patterson, Ed Patterson, J. A. Robinson, Mrs. J. A. Robinson, Maggie McNair, Mamie McNair, Mrs. Anna McAuley, Mary McAuley (Hasty), Ella Tally, G. A. Whitley, George Warburton, W. G. Northam, E. M. Phillips, Mrs. E. M. Phillips, Mrs. E. S. Hart, W. A. Pittman, Amanda Allen, J. A. McKay, E. S. Hart, H. B. Hart, Frank Hart, George Hart, John Phillips, Mrs. John Phillips, Lizzie Phillips, Mrs. S. E. Northam, Mary Northam, Mrs. Mollie Hart, Bettie McInnis McDonald, R. L. McDonald, Louise McInnis.

The pastors, to the best of our knowledge, that have been in this church are: Rev. Law, Rev. W. R. Coppedge, Rev. McDonald, Rev. J. H. Curtis, Rev. A. J. Hodgen, Rev. R. L. Patrick, Rev. W. Ted Smith, Rev. Rankin, Rev. J. B. Reiley, Rev. D. K. Snyder, Rev. Homer Spencer (now a missionary in Mexico), Rev. Frank Beatty, Rev. Howatt Mallison, our present pastor.

Down through the years this large and comfortable building has been one of the most popular gathering places in Richmond County. At the old time revivals, school breakings, home talent plays and other attractions of high type, you had to be on hand early to get a seat. Extending friendly greetings to strangers was a never-falling habit with these good people.

The Pee Dee Academy was built in 1902, resulting in the discontinuance of the school at the Community Building, where Mrs. Mamie Thomas taught for a number of years.

As time passed, other churches were organized in the community. The Methodist Protestants organized in 1903, the Methodists in 1905, and the Baptists in 1917.

This building that we are now meeting in is the second structure erected at this place, the first having been blown down in a great storm in 1884. This structure was immediately repaired by the faithful members and as you can see is in excellent condition today. The Sunday School rooms were added in 1943 and the outside was brickveneered in 1944. This interior was remodeled and the gas heating system installed in 1949.

Our Young People's work was organized on January 14, 1931, under the able leadership and guidance of Rev. J. B. Reiley. This continuous work has been a wonderful blessing to this church and to our whole community.

Present officers of this church are:

Board of Elders 1952: H. T. Baldwin, C. W. McLendon, M. C. McKenzie, Jr., Colon McDonald, Lee McNeely.

Board of Deacons: Norman Gillis (retired), John Bethune (retired), Woodrow Hicks, Jesse Taylor, Thomas Sanford, Hollis Gillis, Arthur Batton, Henry Baldwin.

Superintendent of Sunday School: Lee McNeely.

President of Women of the Church: Mrs. M. C. McKenzie.

President of Presbyterian Youth Fellowship: Miss Helen Grace Taylor.

Throughout its life Cameronian Church has been bringing people to our Saviour Jesus Christ. In the two years of our present pastor's ministry twenty-four have joined the church and six infants have been baptized.

The 1952 Vacation Bible School was held June 5th through June 13th. Enrollment was one hundred forty-two and the average attendance was eighty-six. This proved to be the most successful Bible School ever held at Cameronian.

In May of 1950 the Church purchased a house to the rear of the Church, adding much needed land and a future manse to the property. Over $1500 was spent to remodel the house and make it habitable.

The Commission is instructed in consummating the organization of the Sardis Church as a church in Mecklenburg Presbytery in the Presbyterian Church, U. S., that Elders and Deacons elected to office in the new organization who have formerly served in the same office when the congregation was of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church shall not be "reordained" to their office. This instruction is based on the conviction of Mecklenburg Presbytery that officers ordained by an A. R. P. Church should have their ordination regarded as according to the Scripture, the Honor of Christ, the Head of the Church, and for the ongoing of the Kingdom.

Communications Read—Several Communications relating to the reception of the Sardis Church into Mecklenburg Presbytery were read and received as information.

Report of Presbytery's Council—The following report of Presbytery's Council was read and adopted.

F. E. Debele, Jr., Secretary

Report of Committee on Bills and Overtures—The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported that the following Overture was placed in their hands and they recommend that it be placed in the hands of Presbytery's Council for study and report at the next meeting of Presbytery:

The Session of Amity Church respectfully requests the privilege of presenting an overture to this Court seeking relief in the matter of the assessment of Presbytery's Tax for last year, and the plan for the future assessment, collection, and distribution of the said Presbytery's Tax.

1. Presbytery's Tax at the new rate fixed last fall (October 1951) is not yet due.
 - a. Presbytery has demanded payment as of April 1, 1952.
 - b. Amity has made payment under protest.
2. The purpose and proposed uses of this tax we believe to be unwise and un-Presbyterian.
 - a. It is something new in this Presbytery to levy a per capita tax for the support of the benevolent work of the Church.
 - b. A per capita tax cannot be an equitable tax, and except in a very limited degree is wholly indefensible.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. Johnston, Moderator
J. C. Kuck, Clerk of Session

Memorial—The following Memorial to the late S. B. McLean was read by Rev. R. A. Young and was adopted. The Rev. J. W. Stork led the Presbytery in prayer for the family of Mr. McLean.

MEMORIAL TO REV. S. B. McLEAN

Rev. S. B. (Sylvester) McLean was born on April 21, 1880 at Maxton, N. C. and died July 30, 1952 at his home in Charlotte, N. C. He was the third son of John Allen McLean and Mary Virginia Brown McLean. Through his father he was a descendant of a line of honored and honorable forbears whose history in this country and state began with the arrival in Wilmington, N. C. on October 16, 1792 of his great grandfather, John McLean of Mull, coming from Greenock port of Scotland.

Rev. S. B. McLean received his early education in a school operated by his cousin, Miss Hattie McBride, at Maxton, N. C. and, in the higher grades, at the school of Professor Quakenback at Laurinburg, N. C. His academic and professional education was received at the University of North Carolina, from which institution he received his degree in law. He was licensed to practice law in February 1903, settled in Maxton, N. C. and continued in the active practice of law for nineteen years. During the last eight years of his legal ministry he was solicitor of the Ninth Judicial District of North Carolina. At the expiration of his term as solicitor he purchased a large stock farm in the Central Steel Creek community of Mecklenburg County and moved to this farm in the early part of 1921. Until January 1925 he operated this farm and as farmer, Superintendent of the Sunday School and religious leader rendered a most valuable service to the entire community.

Feeling that he was called to preach the gospel—this conviction becoming deeply dominant after mature thought and much prayer—he applied to Mecklenburg Presbytery for licensure and was licensed by that Presbytery at its meeting at Norwood on April 15, 1925. In May of that year he was asked to supply Wilmore Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N. C. On August 16 of the same year the Wilmore congregation issued him a call to become its pastor. He accepted the call and on October 4, 1925 was ordained to the gospel ministry and installed as pastor of the congregation. For seventeen years he remained the active and honored pastor of this congregation, retiring on account of ill health in June 1942. During his pastorate, in the mind and in the spirit of Christ, he was a real undershepherd to the flock and through his faithful ministry as both pastor and preacher the congregation grew in spiritual conviction, material liberality and in numbers from a few more than 100 to 337.

Rev. S. B. McLean was a Christian minister of deep earnestness, broad sympathies, high ideals of loyalty to both God and man and definite convictions as to the supreme authority and plenary inspiration of the scriptures of both the Old and New Testaments. He was, also, a man who knew the Lordship of Jesus, the power of prayer, the joy of service and the blessings of a Spirit-filled life. After forty years of faithful, fruitful and Christ-directed labors in three fields of operation he had the added experience of retiring from the active pastorate. Yet for him there was no retiring from the active ministry. When his voice was little stronger than a whisper he was ever ready to give testimony as to his faith and join with his family and friends in earnest thanksgiving and petition. He even made use of the telephone in speaking to his friends and fellow-Christians words of encouragement and challenge. Over the phone also, on occasion, he would ask a friend to join him immediately in audible prayer and petition.

Of course environment and modes of service have somewhat changed since the time of Oliver Goldsmith. Yet his description of the Godly minister in his poem, "The Deserted Village," is most appropriately applied in speaking a memorial word about Rev. S. B. McLean:

"Unpracticed he to fawn, or seek for power,
By doctrines fashloned to the varying hour;
For other aims his heart had learned to prize,
More skilled to raise the wretched than to rise.

—Thus to relieve the wretched was his pride,
And even this fallings leaned to virtue's side;
But in his duty prompt at every call,
He watched and wept, he prayed and felt for all.

—His ready smile a parent's warmth exprest,
Their welfare pleased him, and their cares distrest;
To them his heart, his love, his griefs were given,
But all his serious thought had rest in heaven."

History of Charlotte First Church—The following history of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, N. C., was read by Mr. John James and was adopted:

Charlotte, N. C.
August 1, 1941

INTRODUCTION

The ensuing sketch originated in an Abstract of the Title to the First Presbyterian Church property, compiled primarily for the information and satisfaction of the Abstracter. For good reasons, it has been expanded to its present form and content. Because the history of this Church is so closely related to the history of Mecklenburg County and the City of Charlotte, the sketch begins with their formal establishment and includes a large sector of their history, but it is beyond the scope of this article to show how that relation subsisted. It is to be taken or granted for the present purpose.

Frequent references to official records are made. These require no explanation except as to Deeds. In the early days each Register or Recorder kept a separate series of Deed Books, identified by his name on each book, to wit: Alexander, Harris, Ross, Deed Book numbers, therefore, are referable to the Alexander series or the Harris series, as the case may be, until the third series, which began under Ross. After Ross no new series was adopted but his serial numbers were continued on down to date, without reference to the Register's name.

This sketch concerns legal matters and official records almost entirely, with the indulgence of a modicum of poetic license by way of occasional comment. It does not purport to portray any other phase of the matter. However, the compositor hopes, by it, to make a substantial contribution to the aid of anyone who may hereafter undertake to write a comprehensive history of the old First Presbyterian Church and what great things the Lord hath done for us through it, "whereof we are glad."

This undertaking, tedious in accomplishment and of small tangible benefits, was set in motion by the kindred interest of one whose appreciation of the effort is a very large part of the compensation for it. Accordingly, the finished product is affectionately presented to Buck Summey, with the compliments of John James.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY AND THE CITY OF CHARLOTTE

In the year 1761, Charlotte of Mecklenburg, a Grand Duchy in Northern Germany, became the bride and Queen of "Our Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, etc." According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, "Queen Charlotte, though a lady of no special beauty or charm, made the King a good wife, as they both shared a taste for simple domesticity." It was a graceful compliment to the bride and a tribute to the simple domesticity of the Sovereigns that the Scotch-Irish of His Majesty's Cawtawba Settlements christened their county Mecklenburg and their principal city Charlotte.

Mecklenburg County was formed February 1, 1763, by Act of the General Assembly, Chapter XII, Laws of 1762, ratified the 11th day of December, 1762, at New Bern, entitled:

"AN ACT FOR DIVIDING THE COUNTY OF ANSON, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES."

"I. WHEREAS by Reason of the large Extent of the County of ANSON, It is greatly inconvenient for the Inhabitants to attend Court of the aforesaid County, general Musters, and other public Duties by Law required:

"II. BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED BY THE GOVERNOR, COUNCIL AND ASSEMBLY, AND IT IS HEREBY ENACTED BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE SAME, That from and after the first Day of FEBRUARY, the said County of ANSON shall be, and is hereby divided into two distinct Counties, by a Line beginning at Lord CARTERET'S Line, six Miles North-east from Captain CHARLES HART'S plantation on BUFFALO Creek, and to run from thence to the Mouth of CLEAR Creek, which empties itself into ROCKEY River, below Captain ADAM ALEXANDER'S; and from thence due South to the Bounds of the Province of SOUTH CAROLINA: And that all that Part of said County which lies to the Eastward of said dividing Line, shall be a distinct County, and remain and be called by the Name of Anson County; and that all that Part of the said County lying to the Westward of said dividing Line, shall be thenceforth one other distinct County, and called by the name of MECKLENBURG.

"VII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, . . . that Robert Harris, Sen., Robert McClannahan, Richard Berry, Nathaniel Alexander, Abraham Alexander, John Frohock, and Thomas Polk, the Survivors or Survivor of them, be, and are hereby appointed Commissioners, and empowered and Directed to agree and contract with Workmen, for erecting and building a Court House, Prison, Pillory, and Stocks, for the use of the said County of Mecklenburg." State Records of North Carolina, Vol. XXIII, page 589.

On November 1, 1763, George Augustus Selwyn, an English Gentleman who owned large bodies of land in North Carolina, appointed as his Agents and Attorneys in Fact, to sell and execute Deeds for his said lands, "Henry McCulloch of Chiswick in the County of Middlesex, Esqr., and Henry Eustace McCulloch of North Carolina." Harris Deck Book 6, page 186, Mecklenburg County.

On January 15, 1767, for a consideration of 90 pounds, George Augustus Selwyn, by a Deed executed on his behalf by Henry E. McCulloch under the power conferred as above, conveyed to Abraham Alexander and Thomas Polk of Mecklenburg County and John Frohock of Rowan County, and their successors as Trustees and Directors, a tract of land "in Mecklenburg County, on the waters of Neale's and Garrison's Creeks, being part of my tract of 100,000 acres of land known by the name of the Tract No. 3, and bounded as follows: to wit:

BEGINNING at a White Oak about 150 yards from Thomas Polk's line, running thence North 40 West 240 poles to a Pine; thence South 40 West 240 poles to a Hickory; thence South 40 East 240 poles to a Black Oak saplin; thence to the BEGINNING, including the Cross Roads and containing by survey 360 Acres of land, all of which premises are more particularly described and set forth in the plan or map thereof hereunto annexed."

This land was thus conveyed to them as "Trustees and Directors of a Town or Town Common proposed to be laid off upon the land hereby granted, by such name, under such regulations, and in such manner as the said Trustees and Directors and their successors or a majority of them shall judge most convenient and fitting or as may be directed by any future Act of General Assembly". Harris Deck Book 9, page 125, Mecklenburg County.

The appropriate Act of General Assembly, Chapter XI, Laws of 1766-1768, was ratified at New Bern, on December 3, 1768, entitled:

"AN ACT FOR ESTABLISHING A TOWN IN MECKLENBURG COUNTY."

"I. WHEREAS it hath been represented to this Assembly that Three Hundred and Sixty Acres of Land was granted to John Frohock, Abraham Alexander, and Thomas Polk, as Commissioners, in trust for the County aforesaid, for erecting a Court House, Prison, and Stocks, for the Use of said County; which said Three Hundred and Sixty Acres of Land was afterwards by them laid off into a Town and Common; and that Part of the said Three Hundred and Sixty Acres of Land hath likewise been laid out into Lots, of Half an acre each, on some of which good habitable Houses have been erected; and that by Reason of the Healthiness of the Place aforesaid, and convenient Situation thereof for Trade, the same might soon become considerable, if it was erected into a Town by Lawful Authority, to which the said Frohock, Abraham Alexander, and Thomas Polk, Commissioners aforesaid, who are now seized in Fee of the said Three Hundred Sixty Acres, and those who claim under them, having consented.

"II. Be it therefore Enacted, by the Governor, Council, and Assembly, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Three Hundred and Sixty Acres of Land, so laid off by the Commissioners or Trustees as aforesaid, be, and the same is hereby constituted, erected, and established, a Town and Town Common, and shall be called by the Name of Charlotte.

"III. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That John Frohock, Abraham Alexander, Thomas Polk, Richard Berry, Esquires, and George Allen, and every of them, be, and are hereby appointed directors and trustees, for directing the building and carrying on the said town; and they shall stand seized of an indefeasible estate, in fee, in the said three hundred and sixty acres of land, to and for the uses, intents, and purposes hereby expressed and declared; and they, or the majority of them, shall have full power and authority to meet, as often as they shall think necessary; and cause an exact plan of hundred acres of the said land to be made, as near as may be, agreeable to the streets and lots already laid out, and the residue thereof shall be and remain for a common thereto; and that the said directors shall insert a mark or number on each lot; which said plan shall be kept in some convenient place in the said town, for the view of such persons who have, or incline to have a lot or lots in the same.

"IV. And whereas eighty lots already laid off in the said town, have been purchased; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said directors, or the majority of them shall make and execute deeds for granting and conveying the said eighty lots to the purchasers, their heirs and assigns, forever; and also to every other person who shall purchase any other lot or lots in the said town at the cost and charges of the grantee to whom the same shall be conveyed, he or they paying to the treasurer herein after appointed, the annual rent of one shilling, for each and every lot; and every person claiming any lot or lots by virtue of any such conveyance, shall, and may hold the same in fee simple.

"V. Provided, nevertheless, that every grantee of any lot or lots in the said town so conveyed, or hereafter to be conveyed, shall, within three years next after the date of the conveyance for the same, erect and build on each lot so conveyed, one well framed sawed or hewed log house, twenty feet in length, and sixteen feet wide, and ten feet high in the clear, with brick or stone chimney or chimnies, or proportionable to such dimensions, if such grantee shall have two or more lots in said town; and if the owner of any lot shall not pursue or comply with the directions of this act prescribed, for building and finishing a house thereon, then such lot upon which such house shall not be built and finished, shall be revested in the said directors; and they or the majority of them may, and are hereby impowered and authorized, to sell such lot for the best price that can be had, to any person applying for the same in such manner and under such restrictions, as they could or might have done if such lot had not before been sold or granted; and the money arising by such sale to be applied as the directors, or the majority of them, shall think proper, for the use of the town."

VI. (Thomas Polk appointed Treasurer.)

VII. (Succession of Directors.)

Session Laws of North Carolina, 1761-1769, Book 345, page 159, in Secretary of State's Office.

The County as first established embraced what is now Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, and about half each of Union and Cabarrus Counties. Apparently the Commissioners who had been appointed to build a Court House, Prison, etc., had acted promptly and located them at the Cross Roads in Charlotte, but there were determined efforts to take them away from Charlotte on the grounds that it was not centrally located; so that when Lincoln County was carved out of Mecklenburg by Chapter X, Laws of 1766, 1768, the Commissioners were authorized to dispose of this property and build elsewhere at any time after the expiration of seven years. Also, as usual, lots in Charlotte were sold at a great rate, but when it came to building on them the houses required by the Charter, the purchasers were unable or unwilling to do so and were in danger of losing their investments, so an appeal was made to the General Assembly for relief.

Accordingly, the General Assembly of 1774 settled both problems by:

"AN ACT FOR ESTABLISHING THE COURT HOUSE IN THE TOWN OF CHARLOTTE, IN MECKLENBURG COUNTY, AND FOR REGULATING THE SAID TOWN."

"I. WHEREAS, by an act, 'intituled', An act for dividing the county of Mecklenburg, and other purposes, the Court of the county was directed to be held in the court house then built during the term of seven years, which said term is near expiring; and it having been represented that the removal of the seat of the court from the said court house, and the disposal of the same, agreeable to the before recited act, would be inconvenient to many of the inhabitants of the said county, and discourage the trade and commerce of said town;

"II. Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor, Council, and Assembly, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this act, the said court house already built in Charlotte town be, continue, and remain the court house of the said county of Mecklenburg, and the inferior court of the said county shall hereafter be constantly held therein; any thing in the said act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

"IV. And whereas by an act, for establishing a town in Mecklenburg County, every person having a deed for any Lot in the said town of Charlotte is required to build a house, of the dimensions in the said act specified, within three years after the date of the conveyance for the same, which is found to be injurious to the inhabitants of the said town; Be it enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that no person or persons shall forfeit his or their lot or lots for not building on the same, except such lots shall front on one of the main streets in the said town; any law, usage, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding." State Records of North Carolina, Chapter XIV, Laws of 1774, Vol. XXIII, page 966.

So Charlotte, "erected into a town by lawful authority", with its public buildings and its investments made secure, "by reason of the healthiness of the place and convenient situation thereof for trade", began to "become considerable", and precocious, as well it might. Being mostly frugal Scotch-Irish Presbyterians, the people of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County were burdened and aggrieved more than others by Taxation without Representation. For example: Notwithstanding the simple domesticity of the King and Queen and the appreciative response of the Mecklenburgers, the General Assembly passed:

"AN ACT TO AMEND AN ACT INTITULED AN ACT CONCERNING MARRIAGES.

"I. Whereas by an Act intituled an Act concerning Marriages, it is Enacted, That no Minister, or Justice of the Peace, shall celebrate the Rites of Matrimony between any Persons, or join them together as man and wife, without License or Certificate of Publication, as mentioned in the said Act; and

"Whereas the Presbyterian, or Dissenting Clergy, conceiving themselves not included in the Restrictions of Ministers mentioned in that Act, have joined Many Persons together in Holy Matrimony, without either Licence or Publication; whereby the payment of the Just and Legal Fees to the Governor on such Occasions, has been eluded, and the Validity of Marriages may be endangered;

"II. Be it Enacted by the Governor, Council, and Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That all Marriages that have been, or shall be solemnized, before the first Day of January next, by any of the Dissenting or Presbyterian Clergy, in their Accustomed Manner, shall be and are hereby declared to be as Valid, legal and Effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if performed by any Minister of the Church of England, under a Licence taken and granted according to the Directions of the aforesaid Act.

"VII. And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of January next, it shall and may be lawful for any Presbyterian Minister, regularly called to any Congregation, in this Province, to celebrate the Rites of Matrimony between Persons, and join them together as Man and Wife, in their usual and accustomed Manner; under the same regulations and restrictions, as any lawful Magistrate in this Province might celebrate and solemnize the same.

"X. Provided always, That the Minister of the Church of England, serving the Cure of any Parish, shall have the Benefit of the Fee for all Marriages in the said Parish, if he do not refuse to do the Service thereof, although any other Person performed the Marriage Ceremony." Chapter IX, Laws of 1766. Ratified December 1, 1766. State Records of North Carolina, Vol. XXIII, page 672.

What price domesticity! Would they stand for that? Shades of Henry VIII, they would not! The wonder is not that there was a Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence but that it was not made before May 20, 1775.

The "exact plan of one hundred acres of the said land", which the Directors of the Town of Charlotte were to cause to be made under the original Charter, cannot now be found; but, according to a later map made for the purpose of establishing and marking the original lots and streets while possibly the original plan was still in existence, they numbered the lots serially, without block numbers, beginning in the block at the Southerly intersection of Trade and Tryon Streets, or the present "Square", then the East corner, then the West corner, and then the North Corner. From there the numbering can be followed on the map but the formula becomes progressively difficult of application as it expands.

These lots were sold by serial number, "as by the plan of sd Town will more fully appear". Apparently the blocks or squares were numbered not many years later, as mention is made of them in the deeds long before the block numbers appeared on any map.

The oldest existing map of the City originated in this wise:

On May 3, 1850, the Board of Commissioners "Ordered that James Parks, the County Surveyor, be employed by Sam'l A. Harris to survey the outside lines of said Town and Survey all the streets of said Town and designate by stake the width of all the Streets".

Minute Book 1, page 264.

On December 31, 1852, James Parks, Surveyor, was ordered to make a plan of the Town, to include additional territory brought in by an Act of the Legislature "recently passed", and to designate certain streets as Graham, Polk, Brevard, and Alexander, "so called in memory of the Patriots of the 20th May, 1775, whose names they bear." Minute Book 2, page 42.

On August 24, 1855, it was "Resolved by the Board That the Platt of the Town of Charlotte, as made and presented by James Parks, Surveyor, be and the Same is hereby adopted as the Platt of said Town, with the width of Streets and Extension thereof as set out in said Platt." Minute Book 2, page 124.

The original of this "Platt" is carefully kept in the archives of the Engineering Department of the City of Charlotte and may be seen by special dispensation. It shows the lots numbered from No. 1 to No. 1923, but if the block numbers were given they have faded out entirely. More complete maps of the Town were made by Beers in 1877 and by Butler in 1892, both showing the buildings and the ownership of the lots.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The First Presbyterian Church property consists of 8 lots, each 6 poles wide and 12 poles deep according to the original plan, constituting the entire block now known as Square No. 19. Lots Nos. 145, 146, 147, and 148 front on Trade Street and embrace the Southerly half of the block; Nos. 153, and 154 front on Church Street, embracing the Easterly quarter of the block; and Nos. 155 and 156 front on Fifth Street, embracing the Northerly quarter of the block. Thus the original property was a quadrilateral parallelogram 24 poles or 396 feet on each side and had an area of 4.225 acres. By the widening and straightening of the bordering streets it has lost considerable area, the present lateral dimensions being given on the City Street Assessment Maps as 357.5 feet on Trade Street, 383 feet on Poplar Street, 359 feet on Fifth Street, and 384 feet on Church Street. Lately the entire block has been inclosed with a heavy iron picket fence, which is both ornamental and, presumably, effectual in forestalling further encroachments in the interests of "Trade". In fact, the fence actually incloses a strip of land on the Church Street side, about 3 feet wide at the Southeast gate and about 4 feet wide at the Northeast gate, which is designated on the City maps as street area. The City Engineer explains that this strip of land would be included in the street if it were widened and the street lines straightened to conform with Church Street North of this property. Whether it will be done remains to be seen. Undoubtedly it could be condemned, if necessary.

The first conveyance of any of the lots embraced in the Church Property was on March 22, 1772, when, for a consideration of 9 pounds and 15 shillings, Proclaiming Money, Thos. Polk, Abraham Alexander, Robert Elliott, Commissioners and Trustees of the Town of Charlotte, "By virtue of a written Deed of Trust from George Augustus Selwyn to Messrs. Abraham Alexander, Thomas Polk, and John Frohock, Esqrs., and their successors as trustees and Directors, etc., and by virtue of a written act of assembly for establishing Sd town of Charlotte . . ." conveyed to Weightstill Avery "Thirteen Lotts in said town of Charlotte called and known and distinguished in the Platt of sd town by there respective Numbers Viz No. 155, No. 156 . . ." (others not in this property). Apparently this Deed did not accurately express the intent of the parties, or possibly the purchaser had failed to build the houses required by the Charter and thus had forfeited his title, so on April 1, 1774, another Deed was made, omitting Lot No. 156, further describing the property as lying "to the Right Hand of the Road leading from the Court House to the Tuckasejah Ford", and reserving a Ground Rent of "Nine Pence Sterling or one Shilling Proclamation Money for Each and Every of the said Thirteen Lotts", payable "Annually forever hereafter on the fourth Day of January hereafter."

Other lots were sold and conveyed in the same manner at various later dates, but in no case is the recorded chain of title complete from the original purchaser back to the Commissioners who later conveyed the whole block as hereinafter set out. This does not import any defect in the title. The law then did not require the recordation of a Deed in order to protect the title as it does now.

It seems likely that the titles re-vested in the Commissioners of the Town for failure to build the houses required by the Charter or by Sheriff's Sale for failure to pay the Ground Rents reserved or the direct taxes later assessed. The recorded Deeds conveying the several lots during this interm and later are shown on the last page hereof.

The one recorded re-conveyance to the Town Commissioners as above is of passing interest, to wit:

On November 16, 1819, for a consideration of $125.00, William Davidson conveyed to Wm. Smith, John Irwin, Sam'l McComb, and James Cowan, Commissioners of Charlotte, and their successors, "Lots 146 and 154; 29 square poles out of the front of No. 147; 24½ square poles out of the front of 148; and 59 square poles out of the front of 156 . . ." stating in the concluding paragraph of the Deed that, "The aforesaid lotts are granted to the aforesaid Commissioners and their successors for the use and benefit of a Church now building."

The Lots 146 and 154 so conveyed were purchased by William Davidson from John Baxter January 15, 1817, for $25.00, and the parts of Lots 147, 148, and 156 were purchased at Sheriff's Sale for taxes June 14, 1817, for $9.25.

There is a persistent misapprehension that if the First Presbyterian Church should ever sell the property or cease to use it for church purposes it would revert to the heirs of William Davidson. No provision is made in the Deed for such a reversion. No right of re-entry and re-possession is reserved in such or any other event. A comparison of the cost with the sale price discounts the idea of a gift or that the stated use was any part of the consideration for the conveyance, for failure of which the Deed might be set aside. There are none of the elements which the law hold essential to working a forfeiture of title. The Supreme Court of North Carolina has long and consistently held that the mere statement of the expected or intended use of property, without full and pertinent provisions in case of a failure of such use, is wholly inoperative to bind the property to that use or to qualify the estate otherwise sufficiently conveyed. The latest pronouncement on the subject appears to be in 1931 in the case of The First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh vs Sinclair Refining Company, 200 N C 469, a much more specific instance, in which it is said, "A clause in a deed will not be construed as a condition subsequent which qualifies the estate conveyed thereby and the breach of which will defeat said estate, unless the clause expresses in apt and appropriate language the intention of the parties to that effect; and a mere statement of the purpose for which the property is to be used is not sufficient to create such condition."

This is not to discredit William Davidson's motives. He may have preferred to keep the property but was willing to sell it in conjunction with a worthy public enterprise; and the celebrated clause in his Deed does have a sentimental value in identifying his conveyance with that enterprise, as well as a historical value in fixing the time when the first church building was erected upon the premises.

It is generally understood that the First Church was originally a community church. No positive statement of this appears but numerous records of collateral matters strongly support the proposition, namely:

William Davidson made his Deed to the "Commissioners of Charlotte and their successors", November 16, 1819, in connection with "a Church now building". Nothing is stated as to the cost, size, or architecture of the building but one can scarcely avoid the conclusion, from the records hereinafter cited, that it was a Town Church, that it was a brick church, that it was financed through the Bank of New Bern, and that the noble experiment ultimately failed as a community enterprise. Doubtless the leaven which first started working finally leavened the whole lump, for we find that when the community enterprise collapsed the Church was already known as the Presbyterian Church. The records are silent as to the details of launching the enterprise but eloquent of its labors to survive, as witness excerpts from the Minutes of the Board of Commissioners of the Town:

Minute Book 1, page 45—July 14, 1826.

"Be it ordained that the Commissioners will sell at public sale on the first day of December, 1826, Sundry lots in The Town of Charlotte for the purpose of Raising Money to pay off the debt due The Bank of Newbern on account of Building The Church."

Minute Book 1, page 55—December 21, 1827.

"Be it Ordained by the Board of Commissioners of Charlotte that they will offer for Sale at public Auction at the Courthouse in Charlotte on the 16th day of February, 1828, A Number of Vacant Town Lots lying in different quarters of Said Town Land, the proceeds of which to be applied to the payment of the Commissioners Note due the Bank of Newbern given to said Bank for the balance due of the expense of building the Town Church in said Town of Charlotte."

Minute Book 1, page 56—January 23, 1828.

"Be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Charlotte and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, that on the 16th day of February, 1828, will be offered for sale before the Court house door in Charlotte all the pews on the ground Floor of the Brick Church to the Highest bidder on a credit of 12 months with interest from the date, the proceeds of which sale to be applied to the discharge of a note due from the Commissioners of Charlotte to the Bank of Newbern—And be it further ordained that if any of the said pews remain on hand for want of bidders that any of the Commissioners may sell them at a rate not less than the average price of those sold at auction."

Minute Book 1, page 71—July 2, 1832.

"On motion of John Irwin it was agreed that as many of the unconveyed Church Pews as can be sold at $25.00 shall be sold and conveyed and the proceeds applied to the payment of a Note due by the old Commissioners for building the Church."

"On motion of John Irwin it was further agreed that a number of unsold Town Lots shall be exposed at public Sale on the Monday of the August Court or at private Sale previous to that time and as much of the proceeds thereof as may be necessary applied to the discharge of the balance of the above named note—and the balance of the sale if any be appropriated hereafter."

Sad to relate, there was no balance to "be appropriated hereafter," for on December 12, 1835, a Deed made by D. R. Dunlap, Wm. J. Alexander, J. D. Boyd, Isaac Hyams, and W. Morrison, Commissioners of the Town of Charlotte, to John Irwin, recites that the said Commissioners were indebted to the Bank of Newbern for money borrowed in the sum of $674.00, which debt the said John Irwin had paid, and in consideration of such payment the Commissioners conveyed to John Irwin the following property:

"Lying and being in the County of Mecklenburg and Town of Charlotte, whereon the Presbyterian Church now stands, known on the plat of said Town as Square No. 19 and Lots Nos. 145, 146, 147, and 148, fronting on Trade Street, and Lots Nos. 153, 154, 155, and 156, back, all of which said lots form a square and are bounded on the East by Church Street, on the South by Trade Street, on the West by Pine Street, and on the North by the grave yard lots."

Of course Poplar Street was the Westerly boundary instead of Pine Street, and Fifth or "Cemetery" Street intervened between the Northernly boundary and the grave yard lots, although that street had not yet been opened.

This conveyance was made to John Irwin in trust . . . "that the said John Irwin, his heirs, executors, or administrators shall convey said lots of land whereon the Presbyterian Church stands with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging as above described in fee simple with special covenants to such trustees and their successors as shall or may hereafter be chosen by the members of the Presbyterian Church in the Town of Charlotte who hold to the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church as set forth in the constitution of said Church as amended and ratified by the General Assembly at their Session in May, 1821, in Philadelphia, on condition that the members of said Church pay to the said John Irwin his executors and administrators the sum of Six hundred and seventy four Dollars with lawful interest thereon within the time of two years from this date, being the amount paid by the said John Irwin in satisfaction of the debt due by the Commissioners of the Town of Charlotte as before stated; But should the members of said Church fail well and truly to pay the said John Irwin his Executors or Adms the above sum with interest thereon within the time stated then and on that event the said John Irwin his Exctrs or adms, heirs or assigns are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the property or any part of it herein conveyed after advertising said sale for forty days in at least four public places for cash and the proceeds of said sale shall apply in the first place to the payment of the debt due himself and the expences of sale and the balance of the money arising from such sale shall pay over to the trustees of the Presbyterian Church aforesaid and should the said John Irwin sell as aforesaid a part of the above named lots for sufficient to pay the aforesaid debt interest and expences of Sale then and in that case the said John Irwin his heirs Exctrs or assigns shall convey the portion or part of said lot unsold to the trustees of the Presbyterian Church aforesaid."

On March 24, 1841, for a consideration of $674.00, the receipt of which is acknowledged, John Irwin conveyed to Joseph H. Wilson, Joseph Sumner, David Parks, James H. Orr, and H. B. Williams, Trustees of the Presbyterian Church of the Town of Charlotte, the same property which was conveyed to him by the Commissioners in 1835. John Irwin conveyed the property in trust "for the members of the Presbyterian Church in the aforesaid Town of Charlotte who hold to the Doctrines of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as set forth in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms and Directory for the Worship of God as ratified by the General Assembly at their Sessions in May, 1821, and amended in 1833".

So the title to the property finally vested; and it is for the use and benefit of those members of the Church who are sound in the faith according to the standards set up in the Deeds. Not everyone that saith Lord, Lord, with Presbyterian unction, has a part in it. First Presbyterians, above all others, should know the Confession of Faith and the Catechisms and the Directory for the Worship of God. They do.

According to the William Davidson Deed there was a "Church now building" on the premises on November 16, 1819. Other records hereinbefore cited indicate that it was a substantial brick structure, sufficient for the congregation's needs for many years while the town was growing slowly, and there is no mention in these records of any other until the year 1857, when it appears that this building was demolished and a new one erected in its place.

By his Will, dated May 6, 1846, probated at the January 1847, Term of Court, recorded in Will Book I, page 78:

"William Carson bequeathed "to my Executors for the use of the Presbyterian Congregation in Charlotte one Thousand Dollars, to be put at interest and the interest used for keeping the church in Repair, but should there cease to be a congregation in the place then the principle and interest to go to my Nephew J. H. Carson as the rest of my property. I leave all the rest of my property (subject to the management of Executors) of every kind and description whatever to my Nephew James H. Carson now being with me—that is to say when he arrives at Twenty one years of age I wish him to be put in possession of the Plantation on which I now live and any negroes that may be unsold and what money may be necessary to carry on business or any other business he may be engaged in, and four years afterwards to be paid the remainder."

On April 25, 1857, David Parks, H. B. Williams, and John A. Young, "Trustees for and in behalf of the Presbyterian Church in the Town of Charlotte", mortgaged the property to Joseph H. Wilson and Wm. Johnston, Executors of Wm. Carson, deceased, on the following terms:

"Whereas said Wm. Carson by his last Will and Testament bequeathed as follows, to wit: "I leave to my Executors for the use of the Presbyterian Church in Charlotte one Thousand Dollars to be put to interest and the interest used for keeping the Church in repair, but should there cease to be a congregation in the place then the principal and interest to go to my nephew J. H. Carson as the rest of my property"; and

"Whereas said congregation is now engaged in the Execution of a New Church Edfice upon the site, upon the one which existed at the Death of said Testator, for the more convenient accommodation of the members of said Church, and in defraying the expense in the construction thereof said congregation stands in need of the Corus of said fund and in a Congregational Meeting have requested said Executors to lone to said congregation the funds aforesaid and have instructed the Trustees of said Church to mortgage the property of said Church to said Executors in order that they may be enabled faithfully to carry out the purposes of their Testator in regard to disposing the bounty of aforesaid and protecting them against the contingency which might arise in case the fund aforesaid should be called for by the residuary Legatees . . . "

They, therefore, conveyed the property "in trust to secure the said parties of the second part in the lone of one Thousand Dollars as aforesaid and in case said congregation shall fail well and truly to (word omitted) the interest on said fund when demanded or in case said congregation should fail well and truly to refund the principal and all accrued interest thereon when demanded by the said parties of the Second part and their Heirs are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the property aforesaid or so much thereof as may be nessissary to pay off and fully satisfy the debt aforesaid and all accrued Interest thereon after having advertised the same for 30 days so as to enable said parties of the second part in good faith to carry out the provision of the will aforesaid and in case said congregation should fully discharge and pay off the debt aforesaid when demanded with all accrued Interest thereon then this indenture to be void."

Of course, there has never ceased to be "a congregation in the place", so no one has ever been entitled to demand payment of the debt and perforce the mortgage has never been in default and has never matured. What would be the outcome if now, 95 years after the devise, the event should occur upon which "the principle and interest to go to my Nephew J. H. Carson as the rest of my property", which was to be paid to him four years after he reached the age of twenty-one years? How much Interest would be due and from what date? To whom would it be due? Who could rightfully demand the principal and interest? As a practical matter, assuming the factual situation to be no other than as hereinbefore elted from the records, the answer seems to be that as this money was "to go to my nephew J. H. Carson as the rest of my property", and the rest of the property was to be paid over to him four years after he became twenty-one years of age, then the contingency upon which the bequest was defeasible no longer applied after he reached the specified age and the event had not yet transpired.

Here ends the title examination. As written instruments and legal proceedings were indexed on the records, until lately, in the names of the Trustees individually, it would be impossible to bring the title examination down to date without a complete list of their names from the year 1857. It is quite unlikely that there have been any further such instruments or proceedings. However, the building has been remodeled and enlarged from time to time, within the memory of many persons now living. The date of the organization of the congregation is given variously from the year 1821 to the year 1832. A long succession of able divines has ministered to the congregation, including many noble and notable personages. These interesting facts could be made definite and the record of them preserved by some expert research and reminiscing before the records and the memory of them are lost. May it be so!

Presbytery's Council—The following Report of Presbytery's Council was read and adopted:

Presbytery's Council presents the following Stewardship Report:

For the year 1951-1952, Mecklenburg Presbytery gave to Benevolences:

Assembly's Causes	$186,746
Synod's Causes	132,098
Presbytery's Causes	162,125
Congregational Missions	29,789
Miscellaneous Benevolences	57,735

Total.....$568,493

These contributions amount to $21.41 per capita. The increase in miscellaneous benevolences the past few years shows a definite trend towards independency of action by congregations instead of distribution by percentages asked by Assembly, Synod and Presbytery.

We offer for the consideration of Presbytery the following recommendations:

1. That Presbytery adopt as its Benevolent Budget for the nine months period April 1, 1953-December 31, 1953, the apportionments below for Assembly's and Synod's causes, as sent down by Synod and the amount for Presbytery's causes as approved by your Council.

Assembly's Causes	$156,431
Synod's Causes	107,323
Presbytery's Causes	65,865

Total.....$329,619

Compared to last year's budget on a twelve month's basis, the increases are:

Assembly's Causes	$ 21,530
Synod's Causes	12,788
Presbytery's Causes	10,665

2. That the contributions from the churches be applied to the totals accepted by Presbytery for the various Benevolent Causes and be distributed according to the following schedule of percentages:

ASSEMBLY'S	Per Cent	Amount
World Missions	24.4	$ 74,575
Church Extension	11.6	35,260
Education	4.3	13,760
Annuities and Relief	3.8	11,727
General Fund	6.7	20,484
Inter-Church Agencies2	625
Total Assembly's Causes.	51.0	$156,431
SYNOD'S
Church Extension	5.8	$ 17,819
William Black Home7	2,355
Presbyterian Home	1.0	2,944
Barium Springs Orphanage	3.6	34,499
Educational Institutions	13.6	41,505
Religious Education	1.5	4,710
Campus Christian Life	1.0	3,050
Inter-Church Agencies2	441
Total Synod's Causes	27.4	$107,323
PRESBYTERY'S
Church Extension	20.4	$ 62,265
Christian Education	1.2	3,600
Total Presbytery's Causes	21.6	$ 65,865

*$306,120 does not include $23,499, which is our share of the $100,000 Thanksgiving Offering for Barium Springs. 3.6% will net the balance of $11,000.

4. That February, 1953 be approved as Stewardship Emphasis Season, and that March 1, 1953 be designated as Every Member Canvass Day for the nine-months' period, April 1, 1953-December 31, 1953, and that the theme of the Canvass be "Thy Will—My Command", and that November 8, 1953 be designated as Every Member Canvass Sunday for the twelve-months' period, January 1, 1954-December 31, 1954.

5. That the period of October through December, 1953 be set aside as a season in which we encourage tithing. (Not only was the Church's whole level of giving raised materially by the "Tithing Adventures" in 1951, but the whole spiritual tone of the Church was improved.)

6. That Synod approve of the following days and supplemental offerings for Synod's Causes:

- (1) For the Orphan's Home at Barium Springs, an over-and-above offering taken annually at the Thanksgiving Season. (Goal of $100,000 included in the Budget).

7. That we commend to pastors and church officers the observance of Special Seasons and Special Days, as well as monthly and Seasonal Emphases for the period October 26, 1952 through June 6, 1954, as recommended by Assembly and Synod.

Respectfully submitted,
Rufus A. Grier, Chairman

SUPPLEMENTAL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That, in order to make effective Recommendation No. 19 of Synod's Council, that Manual of Presbytery be revised so as to include in the membership of Presbytery's Council the President of the Mecklenburg Presbyterial and Treasurer of Mecklenburg Presbyterial.

2. That Presbytery approve a per capita tax of 75 cents for the period, April 1, 1953-December 31, 1953, to cover the expenses of Presbytery's Office, maintenance and upkeep of Camp Walton Stewart, and the office of the Stated Clerk of Presbytery, including assessments of the Assembly and Synod.

3. That the salary of the Executive Secretary be increased to $4400 and manse allowance to $1200 effective April 1, 1953.

4. That no change be made in the present policy of Presbytery's Expense Fund.

5. That the Barium Springs percentage of the present benevolent budget be corrected to care for Campus Christian Life which was left out of the budget.

The overture from the session of West Avenue Presbyterian Church requesting that November 3, 1952 be set aside as "Pre-election Day of Prayer" on the part of the Churches of Mecklenburg Presbytery was the only paper that came into the hands of your Committee of bills and overtures.

This request asks that the doors of the Churches be opened from the hours of 6 A.M. to 9 P.M. that the people may come in the spirit of repentance and confession and offer their petitions for God's guidance in the responsibility of casting their ballots.

The Presbytery heartily endorses this request. In those instances in which it's impractical to keep the doors of the Church open on Monday, November 3, we recommend that this suggestion be incorporated in the worship service on the preceding Sunday.

Report of Committee on Resolutions—The following report of the Committee on Resolutions was read and adopted:

Be it resolved:

1. That the Presbytery of Mecklenburg congratulate the pastor and members of the First Presbyterian Church for the excellent work they have performed through the years and for the recent additions to their physical plant.

3. That Presbytery express its thanks for the warm, spiritual surroundings; also for the excellent lunch served by the ladies of the Church.

The One Hundred Ninety-Ninth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Mallard Creek Presbyterian Church
Route 10, Charlotte, N. C.
January 20, 1953.

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its One Hundred Ninety-Ninth Stated Session at the Mallard Creek Presbyterian Church, Route 10, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date.

After the singing of a hymn, the Rev. Stewart W. Yandle led the Presbytery in the opening prayer. Dr. C. W. Robinson, the Moderator, brought a message centered about the life of Luke the physician and his association with the Apostle Paul. Rev. A. Leslie Thompson led the Presbytery in prayer.

History of Mallard Creek Church—Mrs. W. T. Alexander read the history of Mallard Creek Church which was adopted:

THE HISTORY OF MALLARD CREEK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Old Mallard Creek Meeting House was built in the year 1824. Supply preachers were furnished by the Concord Presbytery until the year 1825, and then an agreement was made with the Rev. Samuel C. Caldwell for one sixth of his time.

One infant was baptised during Rev. Caldwell's pastorate. After the death of Mr. Caldwell, Mallard Creek was without a preacher except supply preachers from the Concord Presbytery until the year 1827 and then an agreement was made with the Rev. W. S. Pharr for one third of his time.

The church was duly organized. Ruling Elders had been elected and ordained and the sacraments of the Lord's Supper and Baptism were administered.

To this newly organized church in connection with Ramah Church, Dr. Pharr continued to preach to the Mallard Creek congregation one half of his time as stated supply until his death on December 27, 1866. He served the congregation thirty-nine years.

Mallard Creek Church flourished and grew under the wise leadership of the pastor.

Dr. Pharr served Ramah Church and lived in his own house in the Ramah neighborhood, but was buried in the old cemetery at Mallard Creek Church where he labored and was so dearly beloved. Ramah and Mallard Creek were the joint fields of his long and successful career as a servant of God.

The following were the first ruling elders chosen by the Mallard Creek congregation: James Daugherty, Robert Query, Thomas Hope, Matthew Wallace, and Edwin Wier.

William Manson Alexander was the only deacon Mallard Creek had until 1850. His name appears for the first time on the church records in 1830. He was the first clerk of the session. His last record was written July 27, 1849. He died May 29, 1850 in the sixty-seventh year of his life. Some elders died, other moved away. The following were elected to fill vacancies—Nathaniel Harris, Henderson Query, William Hutchison, and S. W. Caldwell.

The first effort to build the new Mallard Creek meeting house was made August 24, 1854. Work commenced May 1, 1855 and finished May 1, 1856.

Rev. Pharr set May 9, 1856 for the dedication of the new church, but there was still a debt to be paid before the dedication could be made. Rev. Pharr said that the people had given so much in material, labor, and money that he felt a delicacy in asking them to pay more, and yet it would have to be done in order to carry out the plans of the dedication. He made the appeal and the response was so liberal that the debt was paid in full, and enough left over to build the present Session House. This was a great day for Mallard Creek congregation.

The costs of the building were—

Building costs	$2,897.00
Cement	3.50
Cementing	12.00
Furniture	40.00
Carpet, etc.	54.50

New Mallard Creek Meeting House was dedicated May 9, 1856 by a sermon preached by Rev. W. S. Pharr.

S. C. Pharr, D.D., preached as a supply during the year 1867 one half of his time.

The Rev. John J. Kennedy supplied during 1868.

Walter W. Pharr was called as pastor of Mallard Church, May 9, 1869 and was installed May 28, 1869 to serve one half of his time.

During Rev. Walter W. Pharr's pastorate the ruling Elders were James Query (elected and ordained) 1845, John Kirk 1845, J. M. Earnhardt 1869, William G. Garrison (dismissed) 1869, James R. Hutchison 1869, B. H. Garrison 1845. The deacons were James Montlieth (elected and ordained) 1868, Leander Query 1868, J. A. Dearmon 1868, F. E. Query 1868, and J. M. Alexander 1868.

In 1879, the call was made to the Rev. W. W. Pharr for all his time. The salary was $650.00 ($600.00 to be paid by the white members, and $50.00 to be paid by the colored people). Dr. W. W. Pharr was greatly beloved by the people of Mallard Creek, whom he served so faithfully until declining health caused him to resign as pastor on September 21, 1884. Dr. Pharr lived in his own home in the congregation.

E. A. Sample, a candidate for the ministry, preached at Mallard Creek during the months of November and December, 1884, and received as his pay $40.00 for services rendered.

In February, 1885, Rev. W. E. McIlwaine began to preach every other Sabbath at a stipend of $15.00 per day and his ministry lasted until the 19th day of April, when a call was made to the Rev. R. B. Morrow for all of his time at a salary of $700.00 per annum and the use of the manse. Mr. Morrow was installed as pastor of the Church on November 8, 1885, and his pastorate continued until November, 1888. Rev. W. C. C. Foster preached from February 10, 1889 for the remainder of the year.

Rev. J. B. Cochran, a licentiate, was called in January 1890, and was ordained and installed as pastor of the Church on May 9, 1890, and continued his service until August 26, 1891.

The Rev. Rodger Martin, D.D., began his pastorate in 1892, and closed it in 1900.

A short interim between the pastorages of Dr. Martin and that of Rev. Jonas Barclay was filled by J. T. Allison, who preached occasionally.

On November 1, 1902, the Rev. Jonas Barclay began his ministry which lasted until the middle of the following year. In August, 1903, the Rev. J. E. Summers was called and he continued to be pastor until December 26, 1909.

Rev. Sample preached a few months during 1910 as supply, and in September, Rev. J. L. Beatty came to the Church and remained until 1913.

In May, 1914, the name of Rev. John E. Wool appears as moderator and continues in the minutes until June, 1919.

Rev. John G. Garth was supply for several months until the calling of Rev. L. E. Wells in 1920, who was pastor until September 17, 1922.

Rev. W. H. Frazer began his ministry on the first Sunday of November, 1922. He taught his Volunteer Band of Young People every Sabbath morning at 9:45, rain or shine. The young people of Mallard Creek were well drilled in the Bible and the Church history, also in all the tenets of the Faith of our Fathers. Mallard Creek celebrated her 100th Anniversary in 1924, with a big Homecoming and good preaching.

In 1926, a movement was started for the purpose of erecting an educational building to relieve the congested condition of the Sunday School. During the first part of the year 1927, this house was erected and the main auditorium was repaired and refinished at a cost of $7,000.00.

The church school has an able corps of teachers and faithful officers who kept the Sunday School moving in a forward march, ever on the alert to improve the school and increase its influence and usefulness.

The new pews were put in during Dr. Frazer's pastorate. Three pianos were also bought or donated. Dr. Frazer started a County-wide Barbecue on a small basis as a treat for his Volunteer Bible Class. It grew from year to year and the proceeds were used to pay for the Educational Building and other improvements.

The Church Grounds were laid out, and shrubs and flowers were planted.

The ingathering reached its height during Dr. Frazer's ministry. The men gave the cotton from an acre of land. The boys, girls, and women donated some produce to be sold for a Thank Offering for Barium Springs Orphanage.

One year, we had a big truck-load of cotton bales with Dr. Frazer sitting on the tip-top of the load. The picture was taken in front of the Church, and will live in the minds of all those who saw it as a reminder of what can be done by a great leader and willing followers. These were the happy, thrilling days. Dr. Frazer had the faculty of making work seem like fun or pleasure. Everyone loved to work for and with him.

Presbytery met at Mallard Creek in 1933.

Dr. Frazer resigned his pastorate in 1938.

Mr. C. N. Morrison was installed as pastor on the first Sabbath of November, 1938, and continued to serve the congregation until 1945 when he resigned to accept a call to Bethesda Presbyterian Church in South Carolina. Mr. Morrison was an earnest faithful pastor, ever looking forward for something to keep the people busy in the Lord's work.

Presbytery met at Mallard Creek October 20, 1942.

More men and women took the courses sponsored by Queens College and the city churches than at any previous date. He saw that those teachers and officers who signified a willingness to go had a way to go.

Mr. Morrison edited a Church Paper each month—"The Mallard Creek Presbyterian." During the war, he sent a copy to each boy in the service. The boys were very appreciative, and wrote of thanks, telling how much it meant to them to have the news from the Church and neighborhood.

The Community House was fitted up as a play place for the young people. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison went with them, and guided their sports. The men had a baseball game on the playgrounds. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," was their motto.

Three or four young people attended camp at Cheraw every summer. Mr. Morrison always went along.

Rev. W. S. Patterson was asked to supply the Church until a new pastor was called, which he did in a most acceptable manner. He kept the Church working and growing. He usually came with a car-full of people who had not been attending regularly—but who did attend from then on. Mrs. Patterson was a fine worker in the Sabbath School. The congregation was very fond of the Pattersons and as a token of their affection, the men built a garage at Davidson for them as a parting remembrance.

Henry Seymour Robinson was called as pastor in January of 1947, at a salary of $2,500.00, and the use of the new manse. The new manse is an eight room brick house, very conveniently arranged, with two baths, running water, central heat, electricity, venetian blinds, cabinets enough to please any woman, and ample closets. The new manse was dedicated in a beautiful service by the pastor and his family on December 8, 1948. Open huose was held for the members of the congregation.

The men of the church give an annual Barbecue—the proceeds of which are applied to the building and grounds fund.

The new manse was built from the accumulated funds of this source at a cost of approximately $20,000.00. A well was drilled in 1949, and rest rooms installed at the Church.

Mallard Creek celebrated her 125th Anniversary on September 4, 1949, with a big Home-coming and preaching by Dr. Walter W. Pharr, minister of Mount Hope Presbyterian Church in West Virginia. He is the grandson of Mallard Creek's beloved W. W. Pharr—a worthy son of a noble father and grandfather. All the kith and kin of the Pharr family came to the Homecoming, especially to hear Dr. Pharr preach. The Celebration continued all the next week, with fine preaching every night by Rev. C. O. Williams, pastor of Chandler Rd. A.R.P. Church, of Brookhaven, Georgia, and good singing led by Gene Davis of Charlotte. The Celebration closed the Second Sunday in September with the Celebration of The Lord's Supper.

Under the wise guidance of the pastor, Rev. Henry S. Robinson, the attendance of both Church and Sabbath School has increased to the extent that the congregation had to provide more room for the fast growing Sabbath School.

In the spring of 1950, a campaign was started to secure the necessary funds for a building. An architect was called in to estimate the cost of the building to meet the needs. The estimated cost was $35,000.00. The deacons canvassed the congregation for funds to start the building. Those who had timber donated trees—others cut the timber and hauled the logs to the saw mill—so that there would be no money spent for lumber for the proposed building. The men of the Church worked Saturdays and two nights a week—doing such work that did not require skilled labor. The other work was done by contract. The building was completed in 1952.

The Women's Work was first organized under the pastorate of Rev. W. W. Pharr. The first organization was known as the Female Benevolent Society. This is a copy of the charter of the first organization:

State of North Carolina, Mecklenburg County. We as the members of a benevolent Female Society belonging to the congregation of Mallard Creek Church for and in consideration of the manifold blessings which God has been pleased to bestow in His infinite mercy upon us and for the many favors and privileges which we now enjoy, do consider it to be the imperative duty incumbent upon each one of us is the discharge of our Christian duties to contribute something for the promotion of His church and for the propagation of benevolent purposes in general and in view of these facts, we do hereby pledge ourselves to pay over to the treasurer of the aforesaid society the sums annexed to each of our names annually, as at such times as may be deemed the most appropriate by the Society to be used and disbursed with as aforesaid. This the 27 day of April, 1855. The most of the women of the church belonged to the Female Benevolent Society.

The charter members were Elizabeth Alexander $1.00, Martha Query $1.00, Eliza Earnhardt 25c, Margaret McClean 25c, Hannah Garrison 25c, E. S. Alexander $1.00, Isabella Query 50c, M. J. York 50c, Mary Hutchison $1.00, Elizabeth Cochrane 50c, Caroline Alexander 50c, Margaret L. Harry 50c, Elizabeth Wear 25c, Mary A. Alexander 20c, Margaret Pharr $1.00, Sophena Alexander $1.00, Mary Caldwell $1.00, Mary A. Caldwell 50c, Adeline Alexander 25c, Abey Orr $1.00, Margaret Dixon 25c, Nancy Dixon 25c, S. E. Dixon 50c. These names were added in 1856—Margery H. Alexander $1.00, Mary Huey $1.00, Mary McGinnis 25c, Jane C. Query 25c, Sarah M. Query 25c, E. M. Neel 25c, Adelaide Kirk 50c, R. A. Alexander 25c, Mary Remes 25c.

For a long time, the Benevolent Society met at the Church during the Spring Communion. Friday and Saturday were observed as preparatory services for the Communion on the Sabbath. All three days were strictly observed as a season of prayer and worship with two sermons daily. Later, the Church had spring and fall communions. The Female Society kept pace by having Spring and Fall meetings. In 1867, a Missionary Society was formed, but we have no record of who belonged to this society. We find receipts given by the Church for money paid to the cause of missions. The Women's Missionary Society continued to function until the consolidation with the Ladies Aid Society in 1915.

Mrs. W. T. Alexander was elected the first president in 1915, and Mrs. Martin Oehler was the last president of the Ladies Aid Society. We worked under the name of Ladies Aid and Missionary Society until July, 1922, when we became members of the Women's Auxilliary. We divided into circles, and have been working in small groups ever since.

The women of Mallard Creek Church have been willing workers regardless of the name under which they worked. The women furnished the present church with carpets, rugs, communion sets, and Baptismal fonts. They also built the wire fence around the new cemetery, furnished the stove room and the pastor's study at the manse. This last information was found in an old letter written by the pastor R. B. Morrow to the N. C. Presbyterian in 1885.

In July 1885, a committee was appointed to buy a tract of land not to exceed 25 or 30 acres for the purpose of erecting a manse for the pastor of the Church. The land and the erection of the manse combined did not exceed a $1,000.00. The house was a seven room, two story building with front and back porches, with a well installed on the back porch. A barn and a garden were enclosed with a fence on the property. Mr. R. B. Morrow was the first pastor to live in this manse.

Mallard Creek Sabbath School was organized in June, 1861. B. H. Garrison was elected superintendent and John Kirk assistant superintendent. They served for thirteen years. Mr. Garrison resigned in 1874, and McAmmie W. Caldwell was elected superintendent with John Kirk remaining assistant superintendent. They continued in this capacity until September 18, 1876.

The Sabbath School was reorganized on April 29, 1877. H. M. Dixon was elected superintendent and B. H. Garrison, assistant superintendent.

In 1878, John R. Pharr was elected assistant superintendent.

One of the significant things in the history of Mallard Creek Church is the loyalty of the membership to those things that have been proposed by their chosen and constituted leaders. We stand today in the midst of life looking back upon the gains which arise in our vision from the achievement of our forefathers. We look to the things which challenge us and call for our very best. We have a great heritage in what has been done; we have a great urge to do the things as nobly in our day as our forefathers did in their day.

John and Henderson Dixon, Junius Hunter, Eldred Flow, Luther Query, William Benfield, and Homer Spencer have gone from this congregation and have preached the gospel of Jesus Christ in other Presbyteries and in other Synods.

The following members of Mallard Creek Church have served their fellowmen as doctors—Dr. J. H. Bigham, Dr. W. W. Pharr, Dr. J. W. Flow, Dr. Victor Hunter, Dr. Frank Flow, Dr. Gerden Foster, and Dr. James Moses Alexander.

In two other lines of Christian endeavor, mention should be made of faithfulness in service. I refer first to the Clerks of the Session in this Church. Three names stretch over a long period of recording of the history of this organization. The one is B. H. Garrison, who began as clerk of session on May 27, 1853, and laid down his pen, retiring from this office on March 25, 1894. Another name is F. E. Query, who was elected to the office upon the retirement of Mr. Garrison and who continued until October 7, 1900. Mr. R. W. Alexander made his first entry in the session book as clerk on May 2, 1901 and continued to be the faithful scribe who put down the things that were done in the church until his death, February 12, 1939. Mr. W. B. Bingham was then elected to succeed Mr. Alexander, and is the faithful clerk of the session at the present time.

For twenty-one years, Ruling Elder J. C. Kirk wisely and faithfully served as Superintendent of the Sabbath School. He was noted for his punctuality—never late for Church or Sunday School—always at the post of duty in a quiet gentle manner.

For twenty-six years, the Ruling Elder, H. Y. Galloway wisely guided the destinies of the Bible School of this congregation, with tact and wisdom. He secured teachers, effected organizations, directed the efforts, conserved and increased the interest, and made the Sunday School to be one of the outstanding Sunday Schools of a country church in the entire Southern General Assembly. Upon his resignation, March 31, 1939, Ruling Elder J. A. Kirk was elected for a term of two years and faithfully guided the Sabbath School until the expiration of his term of office March 31, 1941. It was during Mr. Kirk's administration that the first Daily Vacation Bible School ever to be held in this church was conducted.

Proposed Amendments to Book of Church Order—The Presbytery approved all of the following proposed amendments to the Book of Church Order:

The General Assembly of 1952 approved and sent to the presbyteries for their advice and consent the following amendments to the Book of Church Order:

1. Amendment to Paragraph 70. (Page 53 of Minutes)

When the membership of any church exceeds one thousand, one additional representative may be sent for each additional one thousand, or major fraction thereof. He shall have the privilege of the floor and shall be entitled to one vote.

2. Amendment to Paragraph 126. (Page 53 of Minutes)

12. That overture 12 from the Presbytery of Bluestone, requesting that paragraph 126, Book of Church Order, be amended, be answered in the affirmative, so that the second sentence of the third section of paragraph 126 would read, “The relation shall be established and terminated by agreement between the Session and the Assistant Pastor, Mission Pastor, or Minister of Education involved.” The amendment would bring sentence two into harmony with sentence one of the same paragraph, as amended in 1951. The above proposed amendment is sent to the presbyteries for their advice and consent.

3. Amendment to Paragraph 126. (Page 81 of Minutes)

1. That the General Assembly propose to the Presbyteries that The Book of Church Order be amended by adding the term "Minister to Students" to the list of official titles recognized in Paragraph 126, and add the following explanatory section:

A Minister to Students is a Minister called by a particular church, a combination of churches or other Church courts, or by a special ecclesiastically controlled committee to perform the functions of a Pastor to students. Such a call shall be approved by the Presbytery within whose bounds the work is, and such a Minister shall be installed according to the provisions of Paragraph 138A. (See below.)

4. Addition of Paragraph 138 A. (Pages 81 and 82 of Minutes)

2. That the General Assembly propose to the presbyteries that The Book of Church Order be amended by adding a new paragraph in Chapter XXV; such paragraph to be inserted between Paragraphs 138 and 139 and be designated 138A; and such paragraph to read as follows:

"When a Minister to Students shall be called, not by a particular church, but by a combination of churches or other Church courts, or by a special committee, Presbytery having given its approval, arrangements for his installation shall be made by the Presbytery in which he is to labor and at the request of the group which has direction of his work.

"The form of installation shall follow a procedure similar to that of a Pastor, using the following questions:

(1) Are you willing to accept the charge of this group of students as their Minister, agreeably to your declaration in accepting your call?

"(2) Do you conscientiously believe and declare, as far as you know your own heart, that, in taking upon you this charge, you are influenced by a sincere desire to promote the glory of God and the good of the Church?

"(3) Do you solemnly promise that, by the assistance of the grace of God, you will endeavor faithfully to discharge all the duties of a Minister to Students, and will be careful to maintain a deportment in all respects becoming a Minister of the Gospel of Christ, agreeably to your ordination engagements?"

The Minister having answered these questions in the affirmative, the presiding Minister shall propose to the representatives of the Church court, courts, or other Church agencies under whom he has to serve and to whom he is responsible, the following questions:

"(1) Do you continue to profess your readiness to receive whom you have called to be your Minister to Students?

"(2) Do you promise to encourage him in his labors and to assist his endeavors for the glory of God, and to the edification of the Church?

"(3) Do you engage to continue to him while he is your Minister to Students, that competent worldly maintenance which you have promised, and to furnish him with whatever you may see needful for the honor of religion and for his comfort among you?"

5. Amendment to Paragraph 263. (Pages 54 of Minutes)

When a minister, against whom there are no charges, does not engage in any definite work in the church for a period of two years, that fact shall be reported to his Presbytery by the Commission on the Minister and His Work. The Presbytery shall then require the minister to show cause why he should not be divested of his office. In case there is a divestiture, it shall be construed as without censure. This provision shall in no way interfere with honorary retirement because of age or disability.

6. Amendment to Paragraph 303. (Page 53 of Minutes)

303. When a church member shall remove his residence beyond the bounds of the congregation of which he is a member, so that he can no longer regularly attend its services, it shall be his duty to transfer his membership by presenting a certificate of dismission from the Session of the church of which he is a member to the church with which he wishes to unite. The Session must grant such a certificate to any member of the church who is in good standing, if it be requested for another church in our own denomination, or one recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Jesus Christ.

The Session may receive members by certificate from other churches in our own denomination or in any other denomination recognized by our own as a branch of the true Church.

The Session may receive members by verbal statement when it is impossible or impracticable for applicants for membership to receive or secure certificates of dismission from their churches. This verbal statement is understood to be a simple statement to the effect that membership in good standing is held in a church which is recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Jesus Christ. In all such cases the Session shall record such members as having been received on certificate.

The Session may receive members by restatement or by reaffirmation of faith in Jesus Christ, it being understood that restatement and reaffirmation are synonymous. Such restatement or reaffirmation is understood to mean more than the simple statement that at one time the applicant was a member of some church. It is understood to mean, under examination by the Session, a restatement or reaffirmation of personal faith in Christ as Saviour and of willingness to promise to serve Him to the best of one's ability when received into the membership of the Church. In all such cases the Session shall record such members as having been received on reaffirmation.

When a Session receives a member by statement, restatement or reaffirmation, the church of which he was a member shall be duly notified, when this is possible.

7. Amendment to Paragraph 363. (Page 53 of Minutes)

363. When persons are received from other churches by letters of dismission, by statement of their active membership in some other church, or by reaffirmation of faith, their names are to be announced to the congregation, with a recommendation of them to its Christian confidence and affection.

Retiring Moderator's Address—Presbytery adopted a motion that the Retiring Moderator's address be made available and that copies be sent to our Church papers for publication.

The Moderator, Rev. Lawrence I. Stell, presiding led the Presbytery in its opening exercises of worship and preached on the subject "Christian Living."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated. Rev. Russell M. Kerr and Rev. R. G. Balnicky had charge of the service.

History of Thomasboro Church—The following supplement to the History of the Thomasboro Presbyterian Church was read by Mr. T. C. Wright and was adopted.

SUPPLEMENT TO HISTORY APRIL 1948-APRIL 1953

On April 20, 1948, during the pastorate of the Rev. J. L. Griggs Mecklenburg Presbytery met at Thomasboro Presbyterian Church with 180 ministers and ruling elders present. At this meeting a brief history of the church to that date was read.

The intervening years for this church have been very significant ones marked by unusual growth in all phases of the work. The spirit of unity, ever a possession of this church since her inception, was never more prominent. For this, we are grateful to our Triune God.

The building program which was begun in 1947 was completed. On December 5, 1948 a Home Coming and Consecration service was held with four former pastors and two ministers who were sons of the church taking part in the service.

At a congregational meeting February 20, 1949 it was decided to sell the manse at 225 Bradford Drive and rebuild at a new location. It was sold for $7500.00, and a lot was purchased at 111 Bradford Drive from the J. E. Thomas estate at a cost of $1530.00. In November 1949 plans were completed for the erection of a new manse, and the building responsibility was entrusted to W. H. Baker and B. L. Thomas. Construction began promptly and progressed rapidly. By the end of March 1950 the two story brick residence with eight rooms was completed at an approximate cost of $19,000.00.

On January 29, 1950 the Rev. J. L. Griggs announced to the congregation his resignation as pastor of this church to accept a call to Gordon Street Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga. At a congregational meeting February 5, 1950 the congregation reluctantly concurred in Mr. Grigg's request to dissolve pastoral relations with this church. At this time a nominating committee was appointed to secure a new pastor as follows: B. L. Thomas, W. H. Baker, M. R. Moore, and Mrs. Roy Gwaltney.

The membership continued in their faithfulness and supported this committee with their prayers. The committee worked diligently in their search for a new pastor, and was one day led to the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, N. C. to hear the Rev. Samuel H. Zealy. Mr. Zealy was invited to visit the field and to preach for us, which he did on April 30, 1950. A call was formerly extended to Mr. Zealy on May 1, 1950. His reply of acceptance was glorious news. He preached the first sermon as pastor on June 18, 1950 and was installed September 3, 1950.

Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Zealy the church has attained new heights. Mr. Zealy has stressed Visitation Evangelism and Tithing. As a result 188 members have been added to the church, and 170 persons are listed as tithers. There is now a membership of 538. Our new church school is flourishing with a most capable staff at its helm. Among our problems at the present is inadequate space. The enrollment is 346 with an average attendance of 282. There are 17 elders and 16 deacons.

With a view toward future expansion of the educational plant, a house and lot near the church was purchased in June 1952, and complete payments were made in October of the same year.

The services of Miss Mae McClure, graduate of Queens College was secured as Director of Religious Education effective September 1, 1952.

Two of our young men have this year offered themselves as candidates for the ministry—George Edward Melton who is now a Junior at Davidson College and Roy Gwaltney III who is a Junior at Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Ga.

All departments of the church are well organized and functioning. Interest is high on the part of the members. A monthly letter by our pastor to every family keeps us a well informed church.

Mr. Zealy has faithfully and fearlessly preached the Word of God. He has stressed spiritual growth, and stewardship of our time, talents, and possessions.

The total contributions to Benevolences this year was $4,701.00. The total expenditures amounted to $43,313.00.

We gratefully acknowledge God's guidance in all our ways.

Report of Committee on Church Extension—The following Report of the Committee on Church Extension was read and adopted:

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

If the work of Home Missions is judged by its fruits of professions of faith and baptisms, we have a good report. There have been 398 received into churches whose ministers' salaries we have supplemented. Of these 232 came by a profession of faith, 138 were received by letter and 28 by reaffirmation. This is the largest number by profession of faith within a number of years—if not the record. God is yet honoring the preaching of His Word and the Holy Spirit is drawing people unto Christ as Saviour.

The results of this year have been made possible on the human level by the addition of some new ministers and by the continued consecrated spirit of evangelism of some of those who have been longer serving.

The Eastminster Church which we have aided through the years has become an organized church. We have encouraged the organization of a new Sunday School for Negroes in the Cook's Memorial community.

Practically four and one half acres have been purchased adjoining the Nations Ford Homes Development and plans are under way for the construction of a building there. The new Sunday School at Star has been making progress and they are now meeting in their new building. A petition is being circulated for the organization of the Star Presbyterian Church.

Consideration has been given to the purchase of other properties suggested in the Hyde Report.

Finances

Our report for the year is attached—showing receipts and their sources and disbursements. We are happy to report that the majority of our aid-receiving churches have taken a larger share of their pastor's salary for the year 1953. Of special mention is the Benton Heights Church, which on April 1st came to full self-support.

During the year the Church and Manse Fund has been greatly increased in its ability for usefulness. There are scores of new participants. The Committee is yet desirous of making it still more powerful in its aid for buildings.

Your Committee has promoted the formation of the Belk larger Parish consisting of Banks, Six Mile Creek, Rehoboth and Unionville Presbyterian Churches. We feel that the pastor, Rev. S. Wylie Hogue, Jr., will make phenomenal success of this venture.

Personnel

There have been transfers of good members of our personnel and there have been excellent additions. After Seminary graduation, Mr. C. Don Coffey, III, comes to take the pastorate of the Ridgecrest and Oakboro Presbyterian Churches. The only vacancies pressing to be filled now are the Cameronian and Park Avenue Churches.

Too much cannot be said in appreciation and in thanksgiving to God for the services of the splendid laymen who have conducted many services throughout the year.

As we enter a new year, we ask for the continued support and prayers of the Presbytery for our Committee, our zealous and consecrated ministers and lay workers. With the Presbytery's unqualified backing and blessing of God, we will lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON NEGRO WORK

Your sub-committee has met six times during the past church year and the following is the situation in the various fields of our Negro Work in the Charlotte area:

1. Double Oaks—Rev. Moses James left this field in January for new work in Chattanooga, Tennessee. At the present time Sunday School and Youth Programs are being directed at Double Oaks by James Cooley, elder in Amay James Church. James Cooley and his family are living free of charge in our apartment in the Double Oaks section. Attendance in Sunday School averages from 10 to 20 and at Young People's Meetings from 25 to 30.
2. Oaklawn—A student from Johnson C. Smith University is directing the Sunday School. The R. A. Dunn Foundation is paying him $35.00 per month. He also visits in the community two afternoons per week. Average attendance in Sunday School is 35 to 40.
3. Cook's Memorial—Sunday School is being held there each week with the help of leaders from Cook's Memorial Presbyterian Church in the old A M E Church Building. Average attendance is 60. Recently, a piano was contributed to this work by Mr. Walter Kellen.
4. Shuman Avenue—A Religious Education worker (woman) is conducting Sunday School and Youth Work and Visitation. Programs are being held in the Administration Building of the project there. She is being paid $150 per month by the R. A. Dunn Foundation. Average attendance is 40 to 60.
5. Amay James—Rev. Leon Anderson left this work Feb. 1, 1953, to serve as Regional Director of Religious Education for the Assembly's Negro Work. White laymen are conducting Sunday services there. Average attendance is 30 to 60. The congregation has invited Rev. J. E. McKenzie of Mooresville to preach there Sunday April 12, in view of extending him a call to serve as pastor of their church.

6. The sub-committee has invited the Rev. Andrew A. Allen, pastor of one of our Negro Churches in Greenville, S. C., to visit the Double Oaks and Oaklawn fields in view of serving as pastor of these two fields. We expect him to make us a visit soon.

7. Your sub-committee has been in constant contact with Dr. Alex Batchelor and Rev. Lawrence Bottoms of our Assembly's Negro Work office. They have been seeking Negro ministers for our fields. There appears to be a critical shortage of ordained Negro ministers. Your sub-committee has also interviewed the Seniors at J. C. Smith University and there is a possibility that one of them may be interested in our work. We have been in communication with a number of Presbyterian USA Negro ministers but as yet have been unable to secure the services of any of them. Ministers and Elders of Presbytery are urged to pray that God will send us Negro ministers to serve our field.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

Your Sub-Committee on Evangelism would report that it is our desire to render all possible assistance to the cause of Evangelism. Through the Presbytery's office we have cooperated with the Charlotte Preaching Mission in that communications were sent as requested to our churches by the Publicity Committee and posters were delivered to churches within a thirty-mile radius or were given to responsible individuals who would deliver them.

There is on hand in the Presbytery's office a limited amount of material needed for Visitation Evangelism. It may be had for the asking.

Your Chairman has attended the initial meeting of the Synod's Sub-Committee on Evangelism, at which meeting the new Director of Evangelism, Rev. M. B. Faust, outlined some plans for the future. Your Committee will cooperate with Synod's Committee in any Synod-wide campaign of Evangelism.

There has been referred to us a communication from the Synod and from the General Assembly. We have given consideration to them. The following recommendations are made: 1. That S. M. Inman, Jr., President of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Mecklenburg Presbytery, Mrs. Boyce W. Hunter, President of the Women of Mecklenburg Presbytery and Howard B. Arbuckle, Jr., President of the Men of the Presbytery, and their successors in office, be elected to the Presbytery's Council on Evangelism—said Council to be composed of the Sub-Committee on Evangelism in the Presbytery and the aforehand officers and their successors.

2. That S. M. Inman, Jr., Mrs. Boyce W. Hunter and Howard Arbuckle, Jr., and their successors in office be elected to the Synod's Council on Evangelism.

3. That each local congregation be urged through its session to appoint a Committee on Evangelism, representative of various adult and young people's working groups of the congregation.

4. That all churches be urged to have at least one evangelistic meeting each year.

5. That our churches be urged to have a monthly program of Visitation Evangelism.

6. That all pastors be urged to follow up their members who have moved away: (a) By writing the Presbyterian pastor or pastors' association in the community to which the member has moved, and (b) That a report of such Presbyterians who have moved away be made to the Stated Clerk at each regular meeting of Presbytery, and that such information be forwarded to the Division of Evangelism.

Your Committee on Evangelism is ready to assist any church needing help in any evangelistic meeting by suggesting ministers who have been used of God in soul winning. It is our desire to be of help in this regard.

We call upon our pastors to keep the cause of evangelism in the forefront in the thinking, planning and activity of each congregation. May we be reminded that "He that winneth souls is wise" and that it was first in the thought and passion of our Lord.

REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE OF CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

Letters have been exchanged with Rev. Malcolm P. Calhoun, Secretary of the General Assembly's Board of Church Extension.

He advised that pamphlets and other material were being prepared and would be sent to Presbytery Chairmen. Some of this material was later received, including:

"National Security and the Christian Message,

"Divorce and Re-marriage,

"Roman Catholicism and Protestantism,

"Religion and Morals."

These are copies of reports made to the Church in previous years. They deal with important matters, and perhaps have already been read by many of our ministers.

The emphasis upon these topics would vary according to an individual's background and point of view. It is suggested that the booklet on "Roman Catholicism and Protestantism" is of importance in view of the continuing and vigorous efforts of the Romanists to propagandize the United States and influence those in high places and low.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON RADIO

With the departure of Rev. J. B. Ficklen, who had been named in October as Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Radio, the writer was asked to resume the Chairmanship of this Sub-Committee.

In the plan of the Synod's Committee for Radio broadcasts over a period of weeks, our Presbytery was asked to provide the message for one week. Radio Station WBT in Charlotte kindly continued its cooperation in recording the messages. Rev. Samuel M. Glasgow, D.D., prepared the message and the Chairman took him to the studios of WBT. His message, "Facing These Days Without Monotony," was processed by the Assembly's Committee in Atlanta, and a good job was done. The message was broadcast by WBT on Saturday before Easter.

Information is not at hand as to what other radio stations in the bounds of our Presbytery used or will use these programs.

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Two Hundred First Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Paw Creek Presbyterian Church
Paw Creek, N. C.
July 21, 1953

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred First Stated Session in the Paw Creek Presbyterian Church, Paw Creek, N. C. at 9 A. M. on the above date.

The Rev. Hugh B. Carter, the Moderator, led the opening exercises and preached the sermon. The Rev. M. B. Prince, Jr., led in prayer.

Memorial—The following memorial to Rev. W. H. Frazer written by Rev. W. A. Gamble was read by Rev. G. Dana Waters and was adopted.

WILLIAM HENRY FRAZER 1873-1953

William Henry Frazer was born in LaFayette, Alabama, September 16, 1873, and died in Charlotte, North Carolina, June 19, 1953, shortly before his eightieth birthday, of injuries received two days earlier in an automobile accident.

His parents were John Alexander Frazer and Nancy Emeline Abernathy Frazer. He was married October 25, 1899, to Miss Sarah Winnie Jones, of LaFayette, who "preceded him home" in 1943. To this union were born two daughters, Winnie Love, and Emily Jones (Mrs. James B. Kuykendall, Jr.) who survive and live in Charlotte, and a son, William Henry Frazer, Jr., who died in infancy.

He attended Southwestern Presbyterian University, Clarksville, Tenn., 1894-97, graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Arts; and Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., 1897-99, graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Three honorary degrees came in later years: Doctor of Divinity, from Presbyterian College of South Carolina in 1908; Litt. D., from Davidson College in 1928; LL.D., from Southwestern in 1937.

He was licensed July 12, 1899, and ordained October 21, 1899, by Atlanta Presbytery in the Synod of Georgia. He was pastor of the Georgia Avenue church in Atlanta, 1899-1901; of the Tatnall Square church, Macon, Ga., 1901-06; of the First church, Anderson, S. C., 1906-1917. While at Macon he was Stated Clerk of Macon Presbytery, 1902-06. During his ministry at Anderson he organized and conducted a preparatory school for boys, known as Frazer Fitting School.

In 1917 he began his fulltime work with educational institutions. He was President of Belhaven College, a girl's school controlled and operated by the Synod of Mississippi in Jackson, 1917-21. Then he was President of Queens College, and Queens-Chicora College, Charlotte, 1921-39. He resigned the Presidency in 1939, and thereafter gave himself to the pastorate and supply-ship.

While at Queens he supplied the Sugaw Creek church and was pastor of the Mallard Creek church, in Mecklenburg Presbytery. After his retirement from educational work, he was pastor of the Pineville, Banks, and Six Mile churches, a group of churches in Mecklenburg Presbytery, from 1939 until 1947, when he was honorably retired by Mecklenburg Presbytery.

Dr. Frazer was a preacher of the full and simple gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. He believed the Bible to be the Word of God, not just a book "containing" that Word mixed in with writings of merely human origin. He was a diligent and painstaking student, and spoke with the authority born of knowledge and spiritual experience, with the authority possessed by one who is an honest and humble and fearless spokesman for God.

Dr. Frazer was a school administrator who was wise and tireless and courageous, carrying forward the development of the schools in material things and in things of the Spirit. The Editor of the Charlotte, N. C., Observer has written of him:

"When he took over the presidency in 1921, Queens was a small college hardly known outside of the Carolinas. When he retired eighteen years later, the school had been accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, it had been expanded with new buildings and equipment. During his tenure Queens became known not only for its high scholastic standards, but also for the deep spiritual influence it had on its students. This influence was infused into it by the example of a President who lived his creed."

Upon leaving Belhaven College the Board of Trustees adopted the following resolution concerning him:

"Be it resolved by the Board of Trustees of Belhaven College that the highest commendation and the most earnest thanks of this Board be given to Dr. W. H. Frazer for the work accomplished for good at Belhaven College, and particularly for the business-like administration of the affairs of the college, and the Christian spirit manifested by him in administering the responsibilities and duties entrusted to him."

Dr. Frazer was an accomplished and popular after-dinner speaker. His stories, most of them with settings in the South and Southern situations, seemed to be always available for his use in bringing smiles or in relieving tension in individuals or groups. His book, "The Possumist," records many of these fine stories.

Besides his sermons, Dr. Frazer left several other pieces of writing, being the author of Bible Notes, 1923; "The Possumist," 1924; "Fireside Musings," 1925; "Challenging Mantles," 1926. For several years immediately preceding his decease, he was a Contributing Editor for the Southern Presbyterian Journal, of Weaverville, N. C., set for the defense and propagation of the faith once delivered to the saints, a journal in the inauguration of which he had shown a deep interest.

One of Dr. Frazer's greatest contributions came late in life. After he had been "retired" by Mecklenburg Presbytery, he engaged in supply preaching and pastoral work for churches which had lost their minister and had not yet called another. More than a dozen churches in the Charlotte area and other parts of the General Assembly were blessed by these temporary ministries. The fine work that he did in this field of service is an interesting commentary upon our Assembly's lately-adopted rule for the compulsory retirement of Ministers.

It will be of interest, as well as a deserved tribute to Dr. Frazer, to set down some of the many thrilling comments received recently from churches which he served as interim Pastor. Ministers, judges, business men have written the following statements:

"Dr. Frazer's ministry served as a blessing in the Government Street church, Mobile; First church, Tampa; Central church, Mobile; according to my personal knowledge. When a minister leaves a church, in the interim between pastorates the work usually suffers, but in Dr. Frazer's case he always left the church stronger in every department after his ministry of temporary supply, and what is more he never interfered with the pulpit committee in the efforts to get a full-time Pastor. He did not use the office to place men of his choice but brought honor to the office of temporary supply. Young and old rallied to his ministry. Perhaps his greatest contribution was in pastoral visitation, which he did with a whole-hearted love for individuals."

"Dr. Frazer supplied the South Highland church, Birmingham, during the month of February 1947 and moderated the congregational meeting for the call of a new Minister. He endeared himself to our people by his forceful and Bible-grounded sermons, his sympathetic help to the sick, his never-failing good humor. He had an almost inexhaustible supply of good stories and jokes for dinner meetings. We were sorry to give him up."

"While with us at Central church at Mobile, Dr. Frazer endeared himself to all by the sincerity of his preaching, the friendships formed by his constant visiting; and the influence of his great Christian character has left us a beloved memory."

"Dr. Frazer won the hearts of this fine congregation of the First church, Tampa, during the time of his supply-ship here, 1947-48. In all his work, he exemplified the qualities of a true Christian. He was a diligent and faithful Pastor, and an unfailing friend to every one according to their needs."

"Dr. Frazer took the interim pastorate of this congregation under the most difficult of circumstances. Almost immediately, his good common sense, his delightful humor, his wide knowledge of the Church, his forceful personality, and his inordinate love for people... set this people well on the road to a wider and greater service than it had ever known before. His faith in the future of this church was contagious, until now, less than two years after his work, the Lakeland church is in the midst of a $250,000 building program which will be, in no small measure, somewhat of a memorial to his effective work."

"Dr. Frazer served as Stated Supply of the Shenandoah church in Miami for seven months during 1951-52, and greatly endeared himself to the hearts of these people. He was an eloquent and scholarly preacher, and his fine Christian spirit and winsome humor made him a favorite among old and young alike. His service to this church and others was in the highest and best of our great Presbyterian heritage and will bless our people for years to come."

"The news of Dr. Frazer's death caused genuine sorrow in Gainesville, Fla., along with the feeling that the Church at large, as well as our First church here, has sustained a great loss in the translation of one of our noblest and most useful ministers. The service he rendered since his retirement was as invaluable as it was unique. Few people are so gifted as to be able to step into a temporary situation and discharge the obligations with such fidelity and satisfaction to the flock."

"The First church of Concord, N. C., had the privilege and blessing of the pastoral services of Dr. Frazer from April through August 1952. During that time he rendered our church and community valiant service. In addition to preaching splendid sermons, his outstanding work was in visiting the sick and shut-ins. Because of his radiant personality he was always able to bring cheer and comfort to those who were in special need. He knew how to 'pray with and for the people'."

"Our Oakland, Fla., church was the last field Dr. Frazer served, and we all feel that he was a great inspiration to us. We all knew him well because he was a frequent visitor in our homes. We are all better Christians because his sermons always rang true to the Word of God and gave evidence of his careful and prayerful preparation."

"We of Palma Ceia church loved Dr. Frazer and deeply regret the unfortunate accident which caused him to leave his work."

"Dr. Frazer acted as supply minister for the Second Presbyterian Church of Charleston, S. C., during the summer of 1950. Through his fine preaching, delightful personality and charming ways, he ingratiated himself into the hearts of the members of the church to such an extent that he virtually took the place of a regular minister, and the church experienced none of the letdown which usually occurs at such periods."

"Dr. Frazer was supply Pastor at Hopewell church from October 1952 to January 1953. His pulpit ministry was absolutely sound in doctrine, thoroughly scriptural, practical, comforting, and helpful. In his Bible teaching he unfolded the scripture in a most enlightening manner. He was prompt in response to calls in cases of sickness, death, sorrow or trouble in the congregation. He won the friendship and confidence of every one he came in contact with."

Many will recognize the suitability of the words of the Editor of the Charlotte Observer: "Few men have had such wide contact as Dr. Frazer had with the people of his faith; few have exerted such a profound influence over such a great area. He went about doing good."

Dr. Frazer would subscribe to Paul's words (Romans 14:8), "Whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." And we can be sure that he will go on loving and serving and praising in glory the One whom he loved and served and praised while here.

History of Paw Creek Presbyterian Church—The following History of the Paw Creek Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. Quinton Holton and was adopted.

HISTORY OF PAW CREEK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

1809-1953

About a half mile south of this building is a small stream flowing in a southwesterly direction toward the Catawba River into which it empties. The name of this stream is Paw Creek, so named no doubt by the Indians, from the large number of papaw trees growing on its banks. From the Papaw Creek the neighborhood took its name. When our forefathers received authority from Concord Presbytery to organize themselves into a Presbyterian Church, it was natural that they should desire this same name.

In the pastorate of the Rev. S. C. Pharr, D.D., on December 28, 1865, the name was changed by vote of the congregation from Paw Creek to Caldwell, in memory of the Rev. Samuel C. Caldwell, first pastor of the Church. It was done by a majority of the congregation present. It is not stated that Presbytery was asked to make the change. The name Caldwell uniformly appears in the Sessional records, and no criticism made by the Presbytery; so we suppose the name was changed according to law. The name, however, was a misfit and was changed back to Paw Creek at the fall meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery in 1882.

The original territory of Paw Creek extended from the Catawba River on the west to Chadwick Mill on the east, and was bounded on the north by Hopewell and on the south by Steele Creek. Within these bounds, or on their borders, are many other churches at the present time which drew from Paw Creek at their organization. They are as follows: Moore's Chapel Methodist, Mulberry Presbyterian, Pleasant Grove Methodist, Cook's Memorial Presbyterian, McGee Presbyterian, Thomasboro Presbyterian, and Homestead Methodist. In addition Paw Creek gave her Negro Membership in the organization of Woodland Presbyterian Church, and perhaps also to Morning Star Methodist Church, these latter two being Negro churches. Within the original bounds of Paw Creek, are also the following Churches: Chadwick Methodist, Chadwick Baptist, Thrift Methodist, Thrift Baptist, St. James Methodist, and Thomasboro Baptist. Paw Creek has also helped enrich the life of the Presbyterian, A. R. P., Methodist and other churches of Charlotte and Mt. Holly through her gift of members.

The early official records of the church have been lost, and the only records of available information concerning the early days of Paw Creek are two brief historical sketches. One by an unknown author, and another by Mt. T. T. Johnston, an elder in the church. This sketch was dictated by Mr. Johnston in his eighty-ninth year.

The writer of the older sketch says: "In spring of 1807 the people of this vicinity, desirous of having the gospel preached to them, and being remote from other churches, thought of erecting a place of public worship in their own neighborhood. Accordingly for this purpose, a meeting was held at the house of John Hipp, when it was unanimously resolved to send a petition to Presbytery to this effect."

The writer says the petition was opposed by the Presbytery, which convened at Centre Church, Iredell County, and that nothing decidedly was done until the autumn of 1810 when, after much opposition, it was received as a vacancy.

Mr. T. T. Johnston, born in 1790, says the church was organized in 1809, but was not enrolled by Presbytery until 1810. The late Rev. R. Z. Johnston, who was an accurate compiler of historical data, gives the date of organization as 1809.

The church has, during her history, erected three church buildings. In 1809 the people erected a small log structure which served until 1824. In the autumn of 1824, the people decided to build a new structure. This was a large frame building, which was dedicated in the autumn of 1826. In the summer of 1881, known as the dry year, the congregation undertook the erection of a third house of worship. The work was not completed that summer, and the walls were injured to such an extent during the winter following that it was necessary to tear them down. The work was begun afresh, however, and on the last Sunday in March 1882 the pastor, Rev. G. L. Cook, preached the first sermon in the new brick church, which stood south of the site of the two former buildings. In 1927 work was begun on an addition to this brick church. This addition consisted of a Sunday School Building and a portico to the front of the church. This work was completed in 1928 at a cost of $14,000.00. At the completion of this work there was debt of $6,000.00 on the church. The congregation finished the paying of this debt in 1939; and Rev. C. G. Lynch, a former pastor, preached the dedication sermon on Easter Sunday 1939.

The following sons of this church have served in the Gospel Ministry: John Hays Johnston, after taking two years in Davidson College and two years in Union Seminary, preached a few months, perhaps a year, and then gave up the ministry; Rev. S. L. Cathey, 1898 until his retirement in 1946 (Rev. Mr. Cathey died in 1949); Rev. L. C. Campbell, 1916-1927 (Rev. Mr. Campbell died in 1927); Rev. C. M. Campbell, 1918—his death in 1951; Rev. W. L. Baker, 1921-present; Rev. T. B. Hoover, Jr., 1939-present; Rev. John Henry Sadler who was ordained May 17, 1953.

The following is a roll of the pastors of the church: Rev. Samuel Caldwell, 1809-1819; Rev. John Williamson, 1819-1842; Rev. H. B. Cunningham, D.D., 1843-1858; Rev. Robert Burwell, 1858-1864; Rev. S. C. Pharr, D.D., 1864-1869; Rev. James S. Barr, 1869-1872; Rev. Mr. Query, about 6 months; Rev. R. H. Chapman, D.D., 1874-1877; Rev. George L. Cook, 1877-1888; Rev. J. J. Kennedy, 1889-1892; Rev. W. C. C. Foster, 1893-1896; Rev. J. S. Shaw, 1896-1899; Rev. George L. Cook, 1899-1906; Mr. S. S. Harrison, 4 months; Rev. J. E. Berryhill, 1907-1913; Rev. C. G.

Lynch, 1913-1918; Rev. C. H. Rowan, 1918-1924; Rev. R. P. Walker, D.D., 1924-1926; Rev. C. H. Rowan, 1926-1943; Dr. John R. Rosebro, stated supply, 1943-44; Rev. F. S. Johnston, 1944-present.

We are proud of the growth of our church since Presbytery last met with us in 1942.

In 1944 the Rev. Frank S. Johnston came to us from Wilmington, N. C., and is still serving as our present minister.

The membership has increased 90 members and the offering to benevolences has grown from $1,442.00 to $11,437.00. The present Sunday School enrollment is 299 members.

Many improvements have been made on the present church building. The hearts and voices of the people sing praises to God now with the sweet music which is rendered on the Hammond electric organ installed in 1945. The entire sanctuary was renovated and an automatic oil furnace was added. A few years ago the Women of the Church started a carpet fund and in 1951 the floor was covered with a beautiful carpet. To add to the beauty and comfort of the building, new seats were purchased and used for the first time the first Sunday of January, 1952.

The young people of the church were largely responsible for the Fellowship Building which was completed in 1949. This building has certainly been a blessing to the members of the church.

Every summer the Men's Fellowship Club of the church sponsors an annual fish supper which started on a very small scale. Each year it grows and this year more than 500 plates were served to the members and their friends from far and wide. The members do not think of this event as a means of making money but rather as a social where good Christian fellowship is enjoyed by all who attend.

Everyone, especially the boys of the church, are very grateful to the Men's Club for the two scout groups which were organized in 1952.

At the present time the members of the congregation are making plans to build a new modern manse for our pastor and his family. Our prayer is that God will lead and direct us in this undertaking.

Our fathers laid the foundations here deep and strong in faith and in the assurance that God will carry to a successful conclusion the work begun more than one hundred and forty years ago. But He is expecting through us to accomplish His purpose. It remains for us to determine the kind of superstructure that shall be built on the foundation already laid. If we build into it the gold and silver and precious stones of unwavering faith and unfeigned love to God and man, linked with sincere godliness in our daily living, then there will be found in this place a glorious church that will gather into her folds the weary and heavy laden who need and covet the rest and the peace she can offer them through Christ Jesus her Lord and Savior.

The Commission appointed to ordain and install the Rev. C. McD. Coffey, III made its report which was admitted to record.

Ridgecrest Presbyterian Church
June 14, 1953

Just before 3:00 P.M. the Commission appointed to ordain and install Mr. C. McDonald Coffey, III met in the Sunday School room of the church and was organized and constituted with prayer. Present were: Rev. Watt M. Cooper, Chairman, Rev. Ben F. Moore, Jr., Rev. R. H. Stone, Rev. Stewart Yandle and Mr. H. P. Efrid. Rev. R. H. Stone was asked to be secretary for the Commission. The Commission united with the congregation in a service of worship, conducted by Rev. Watt M. Cooper. The sermon was preached by Mr. C. McDonald Coffey as a trial part. It was "The New Commandment." The sermon was sustained as satisfactory together with the examination as a whole. The constitutional questions were asked by Rev. Watt M. Cooper and there followed the service of ordination and installation. Mr. Cooper led the ordination prayer. The charge to the pastor was given by Rev. R. H. Stone and the charge to the congregation was given by Rev. Ben F. Moore, Jr. After the singing of a hymn, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. McDonald Coffey, III. The congregation came forward to welcome him.

The Commission stood in recess until they could drive to Oakboro and at 4:30 P.M. a service was held there with Mr. Cooper presiding. The presiding officer preached the sermon on the subject "The Pentecost Experience." He then asked the constitutional questions and the charges were given by the same one as at Ridgecrest. Rev. C. McDonald Coffey was declared at each place duly called and installed pastor. Following the benediction by Mr. Coffey, the congregation at Oakboro welcomed him as their pastor.

The Commission retired to the Sunday School room, read and approved the minutes and was adjourned with prayer led by Rev. Stewart Yandle.

Committee on Church Extension Manual—The Committee on Church Extension presented a Manual of procedure for their Committee which was adopted and is as follows:

PREAMBLE

Whereas:

At the One Hundred Eighty-eighth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery, First Presbyterian Church, Hamlet, N. C., April 18, 1950, the Committee on Presbytery's reorganization, Rev. James A. Jones, Chmn., presented the report of the Committee for its second reading. The report was adopted, viz:

"2. The appointment of a Committee on Church Extension. This Committee should be composed of 21 members and assigned the fol-

Following functions to be discharged by sub-committees of the whole: Christian Relations, three (3) members; Evangelism, five (5) members; Radio, three (3) members; Negro Work, three (3) members; Missions, seven (7) members. The Subcommittee on Missions should take over the functions of the Special Committee on the Location and Relocation of Churches. It is understood that the Committee on Church Extension will possess certain 'executive powers' which it may discharge on its own, or designate to its Subcommittee on Missions, to assure the efficient operation of the duties assigned to it." (Page 45, Minutes of Mecklenburg Presbytery, 187th and 188th Stated Sessions), and whereas:

Subsequently the Negro Work and Home Missions Subcommittees have merged (as a committee of ten) for more efficient work, and is referred to hereafter as the Committee on Home Missions.

Therefore: The following Manual of Procedure for the Church Extension Committee of Mecklenburg Presbytery has been adopted as of July:

ORGANIZATION

1. The Committee on Church Extension shall be composed of twenty-one (21) members who shall be assigned to subcommittees by the Presbytery at the time of appointment.

2. Members shall serve staggered terms as appointed by the Presbytery. Members appointed to each subcommittee shall also serve staggered terms. No member of the Committee shall succeed himself unless he has served less than a full term or serve in any dual capacity on two subcommittees.

3. The Committee on Church Extension shall meet to hear and review reports of all subcommittees semi-annually. The Chairman shall call these and such other meetings as may be necessary for the conduct of Committee business.

Each Subcommittee shall meet at least once quarterly upon call of its chairman.

4. A quorum for the Committee shall be seven and shall include at least one member from each Subcommittee.

5. Chairmen of the various Subcommittees will be appointed or reappointed annually by Presbytery at its fall meeting.

6. Inasmuch as a very close relationship exists between the various Subcommittees of the Committee on Church Extension and the Executive Secretary and the Office of Presbytery the Executive Secretary may be invited to sit with the Committee and the Subcommittees.

7. The Committee shall coordinate a budget based upon the budgets of each Subcommittee.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

It shall be the duty of this Subcommittee to:

1. Annually issue a pastoral letter to each member church and minister of Mecklenburg Presbytery. Such letter shall contain lists of important books or articles on the pressing moral and social issues of our time.

2. Bring to the attention of Presbytery any pertinent local problems of which the churches of this Presbytery should be cognizant.

3. Make recommendations.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

It shall be the duty of this Subcommittee to:

1. Promote evangelism among the churches of the Presbytery.
2. Promote city-wide and county-wide lay visitation evangelism.
3. Promote simultaneous preaching services by cooperating with ministerial associations.
4. Promote an annual exchange of ministers in Presbyterian pulpits in cooperation with Presbyterian Ministers Associations.
5. Commend to Presbytery in its annual report such churches as have done outstanding work in the field of evangelism, individually or corporately.
6. Address a pastoral letter at least once annually to member churches and ministers of the Presbytery. Such letter shall contain lists of important books and articles on the subject of evangelism. It shall also contain lists of available workers in the field of evangelism locally whether speakers, visitors, musicians.
7. Make recommendations.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

The duty of this Subcommittee shall be three-fold:

1. The care of Home Mission Churches. A Home Mission Church is one that without help from Presbytery through the Subcommittee on Home Missions would be unable to conduct regular worship services.

In discharge of this duty the Subcommittee shall have:

- a) Authority to cooperate with churches in question with regard to securing pastors or other church workers, and to enlist voluntary personnel from amongst clergy and laity.
- b) Authority to prepare and administer a budget subject to the authority granted by Presbytery for the same.
- c) The responsibility for securing and disbursing money made available through the Church and Manse Building Fund or other special funds which it may secure.

2. The assistance of weaker churches. A weaker Church is one that can provide for itself no more than a minimum of staff and activity and finds itself unable to carry on such a program alone that will enable it to compete successfully, etc. with other churches in the community so as to result in steady growth.

In discharge of this duty the Subcommittee shall:

- a) Have authority to lend its staff or paid workers for short periods of intensive help, say quarterly, provided the church will assume at least one third of the financial outlay required.
- b) Encourage stronger churches to assist specified weaker churches in some "church buddy" cooperative program. Interest Presbytery Men and other lay groups in this "church buddy" plan. Will urge the stronger churches to consider financial assistance where advisable.
- c) Exploit every possibility for the strengthening of these existing weaker and smaller non-self-propagating churches in a given area before new work in such area is organized. (For new work, cf. under 3 below).

3. The location and relocation of churches.

In discharge of this duty:

1. Exploit every possibility for the strengthening of the smaller existent churches in the general area.
 2. Consult with the pastors and sessions of all churches holding the Presbyterian and Reformed System of Faith within a radius of three (3) miles from the proposed site of a new church.
 3. Ascertain by suitable house visitation and other reliable means for obtaining public reaction or response the local need for such new work.
 4. Analyze the proposed area with respect to natural or artificial barriers that may affect church going in a given neighborhood, e.g., dangerous crossings, railway lines, creeks or other impediments—particularly with respect to movement of children.
 5. Adopt the principle that no new work will be started until points (1) to (4) above have been duly considered and that one and one half surface miles shall be considered the minimum distance for churches except for unusual situations created by (4) above.
 6. That 8 miles be the minimum distance between rural churches.
- b) The Subcommittee shall be consulted by existing churches in matters of contemplated merger; relocation; and establishment of mission outposts.
- c) Any church that feels its interests jeopardized by the actions of the Subcommittee has the right of appeal to the decision of Presbytery.
- d) Make recommendations.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON RADIO AND TELEVISION

It shall be the duty of this Subcommittee to:

1. Address a pastoral letter to each member church and minister in this Presbytery at least annually. This letter shall contain information with regard to the worthwhile programs which come over the air.
2. Cooperate with ministerial associations in general religious programming and coordinate such programs for Presbyterian participation; exploit ways and means to interest ministers in this medium for religious education. Serve as liason between churches and broadcasting outlets.
3. Act as consultant to the Office of Presbytery in any matters which relate to necessary publicity through the channels of radio or television.
4. Make recommendations.

*Note: The duties of the former Committee on Location and Relocation of Churches may be found in the Minutes of the 153rd Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery on pages 20-23, a gist of which is: (1) To make surveys with regard to location of churches that may need relocating; (2) To locate areas where new churches should be built; (3) Provide publicity about the need for the work; and (4) Counselling with churches, considering their locations, and with communities that are in need of churches.

To Mr. Irwin Belk we extend our thanks for a Presbyterian tie. Gratitude is extended to those who have inspired us with reports and sermons.

For a good day in His service we thank God and the Paw Creek Presbyterian Church.

We request that this report be made available to the pastor of the congregation.

Report on Unionville Church Property Matter—The Rev. R. H. Stone made the following report on the Unionville Church Property matter which was adopted:

Pursuant to instructions given at the last meeting of Presbytery relative to disposition of a part of the property of the Unionville Presbyterian Church on which the Manse is located, I went to Mr. John S. Cansler, chairman of the Trustees of the Presbytery, and laid the facts before him. He gave his opinion that the trustees of the Church by order of the Unionville Presbyterian congregation could sell some of their property if the funds were used for the improvement of the Church as directed by Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
R. H. Stone

Mecklenburg Presbytery gives its approval and endorsement to the teaching of Bible in the Public Schools, supported by funds raised by voluntary subscriptions with attendance upon such classes being voluntary.

Report of Presbytery's Council—Presbytery's Council presented the following Stewardship report which was adopted:

For the year 1952-53, Mecklenburg Presbytery gave to Benevolences:

Assembly's Causes	$188,221
Synod's Causes	227,869
Presbytery's Causes	105,910
Congregational Missions	43,097
Miscellaneous Benevolences	58,117

Total

$623,214

These contributions amount to $21.85 per capita. The increase in miscellaneous benevolences the past few years shows a definite trend towards independency of action by congregations instead of distribution by percentages asked by Assembly, Synod and Presbytery.

We offer for the consideration of Presbytery the following recommendations:

1. That Presbytery adopt as its Benevolent Budget for the church year January 1-December 31, 1954, the apportionments below for Assembly's and Synod's causes, as sent down by Synod and the amount for Presbytery's causes as approved by your Council:

Assembly's Causes	$230,764
Synod's Causes	140,364
Presbytery's Causes	84,800

Total

$429,174

2. That the contributions from the churches be applied to the totals accepted by Presbytery for the various Benevolent Causes and be distributed according to the following schedule of Percentages:

4. That October 19, 1953-November 15, 1953, be approved as Stewardship Emphasis Season and that November 8, 1953, be designated as Every Member Canvass Day, and that "First Things First" be the theme of the fall 1953 canvass.

5. That the period of October through December, 1953, be set aside as a season in which we encourage tithing. (Not only was the Church's whole level of giving raised materially by the "Tithing Adventure" in 1951, but the whole spiritual tone of the Church was improved.)

6. That Presbytery approve of the following days and supplemental offerings for Synod's Causes:

- (1) For the Orphan's Home at Barium Springs, an over-and-above offering taken annually at the Thanksgiving Season. Presbytery's quota is $24,322 and is accepted but not included in distribution of percentages by central treasurers.
- (2) For Religious Education to promote Vacation Bible Schools in the Synod to be taken in April.
- (3) For Synod's Educational Institutions, to be taken on Christian Education Day, Sunday, April 25, 1954.
- (4) For The Presbyterian Home, to be taken Mother's Day, May 9, 1954.
- (5) For Synod's and Presbytery's Home Missions, to be taken at a date to be set by the Executive Committee of Church Extension, not in conflict with other causes.
- (6) That we commend to pastors and church officers the observance of Special Seasons and Special Days, as well as monthly and Seasonal Emphases for the period January 1-December 31, 1954, as recommended by Assembly and Synod.
- (7) That Presbytery approve a per capita tax of $1.00 for the period January 1-December 31, 1954, to cover the expenses of Presbytery's Office, maintenance and upkeep of Camp Walton Stewart, and the office of the Stated Clerk of Presbytery, including assessments of the Assembly and Synod.
- (8) That inasmuch as miscellaneous benevolences amount to nearly ten per cent of our total benevolences that the Council be instructed and authorized to confer with pastors and officers of churches which channel disproportionate amounts to outside causes rather than through denominational agencies.

- (9) That the Council be authorized to confer with pastors and church officers in the case of churches contributing nothing to benevolences through Presbytery's central treasurer or through regular denominational institutions or agencies.
- (10) That the Council through its Stewardship Committee arrange Stewardship conferences in the bounds of Presbytery to explain the budget to the officers of the various churches and promote the cause of Stewardship throughout the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

Rufus A. Grier, Chairman

Manual Change—The following request for a Manual change was presented by the Sub-Committee on Religious Education of the Committee on Education and was adopted on first reading.

At the present time the Sub-Committee on Religious Education consists of six members elected by the Presbytery plus four ex-officio members, namely, the chairman of the S. S. superintendents, the president of the Men of the Presbytery, the president of the Youth Council and a representative of the Women of the Church. The six regular members are in three classes of two members and each class serves three years. The ex-officio members change almost yearly.

The work of the sub-committee is divided into the following groups:

Children's Work	1 member
Youth's Work	3 members
Young Adult Work	1 member
Men's Work	2 members
Leadership Training	2 members
Camp Stewart	3 members

This division of the work requires more personnel than the committee has.

We would like to submit the following change which we believe would rectify our deficiency:

1. That there be nine regular members on the Sub-Committee of Religious Education plus the four ex-officio members.
2. That the nine members be in three classes of three each and serving three years.
3. That the classes of 1954 and 1955 be increased to three by the election of one additional member and that the class of 1956 consist of three members.

We feel that the Sub-Committee on Religious Education has a big job to do and that with the addition of the above personnel will be better equipped to do a job.

Presbytery recessed for supper with prayer by the Rev. G. Dana Waters.

NIGHT SESSION

Presbytery reconvened at 7:30 P.M. with prayer led by Rev. S. M. Inman.

Resolution of Thanks—The Rev. Warner L. Hall expressed the gratitude of the Presbytery to the Rev. C. E. S. Kraemer and the members of the Charlotte First Church for their hospitality during this meeting. The Presbytery confirmed this expression of thanks by a unanimous vote.

Privilege of Floor—Presbytery granted the privilege of the floor to those members of the Committee, appointed to discuss the Plan of Union, who were not members of the Presbytery.

Plan of Union Discussed—The Rev. C. E. S. Kraemer presided and directed the discussion of the Plan of Union. Mr. W. E. Price and the Rev. H. S. Robinson discussed the Concurrent Declarations. Mr. A. 2. Delete paragraph 11, chapter 34, page 186, Plan of Union. This paragraph having to do with property of a particular church.

3. Rewrite a portion of the "Supplemental Covenant and Agreement" page 21, Plan of Union, so that churches in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall have the same privilege of withdrawing from the Union that is afforded churches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The Two Hundred Second Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Robinson Presbyterian Church
Route 8, Charlotte, N. C.
October 20, 1953.

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Second Stated Session in the Robinson Presbyterian Church, Route 8, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Rev. John A. Carriker, presided and led in the opening exercises of worship. The subject of the Moderator's sermon was "The Necessity of Christ."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated led by the Rev. Russell M. Kerr and the Rev. C. E. S. Kraemer.

History of the Robinson Church—In lieu of the History of the Robinson Presbyterian Church, the Rev. W. B. Neill made the following report of the building operations of the Church.

Report on the Building Operation of Robinson Presbyterian Church, made to Mecklenburg Presbytery, at its Fall Meeting in the above church, October 20th, 1953.

"How did you do it with such a small group?" was the question that was asked by scores of friends and visitors who came to see the church after it was completed. In answering that question, we say:

- I. We needed a church. That made the appeal.
 1. It was so poorly built it could not be made comfortable. The heating was the same kind it had when it was built, more than sixty years ago. We wanted comfort.
 2. The greatest need was facilities for the Church School. We longed for a room for each class, where the teachers could do their best work.
- II. God wanted us to have a church. These are the evidences:
 1. Mr. C. K. Thomas, one of our Deacons, had for many years been with one of the large lumber companies in Charlotte, and just before we got ready to build he opened a shop at his home in the community. We think God sent him home to be ready to help us, as he did so well.

2. We were having difficulty in deciding whether to build to the old church or build new, and God sent a storm one Sunday morning and shook the church so badly that we knew we did not want to build to it. Then we had to rethink our plans. We did not have much money, and we could not afford to have a church debt.

3. Another one of the Deacons came up with the suggestion that we saw the lumber for the church ourselves. When asked about the timber in the community he said, "There is more than we think," and went on to say, "We have some and the church can have all of it if it needs it." That gave us heart and we began to work on that plan. We think God gave him that thought.

4. Just before we began to build, some land in the community, on which there was fine timber, changed hands. If that change had not come about we would not have received one stick of it. As it was we were given more than twenty thousand feet. These are some of the reasons we think God was working with us.

III. We wanted a church, and we were willing to work for it.

1. On January 1st, 1950, we went to cutting and hauling logs. It was an inspiring sight to see twenty-five or thirty men at work in the woods, all over the area. From that time on nothing could have stopped us. In less than two weeks we had hauled enough logs to make sixty-five thousand feet of lumber. We did all the work that could be done by untrained men. The old church was taken down and the lumber was made ready to use in the new church.

2. Our organization was very simple. The Board of Deacons was the Finance Committee and made all of the plans to keep up the interest. It worked at it for five years before we began the building. And finally the Board told the church when we had twenty thousand dollars in the bank we would start the building. The year we began the building we raised more than ten thousand dollars.

We had a five-man Building Committee, as follows—H. E. McComb, chairman, H. C. Sullivan, C. K. Thomas, W. C. Flowers and V. H. Brawley. J. C. Dulin was treasurer, and he had no other funds except for the building.

3. The women were working all the time. They were the inspiration, often for the whole church. Some of the years they raised five hundred dollars. When the Building Committee told the church that it could not have a steeple, the Evening Circle said it would raise the money for it, and did, and got the steeple.

One woman was raising money all the years for the carpet, and those who liked to give to special things were giving to that.

4. We had many friends who made contributions, some of them were large ones. We would like to mention all of them by name, but we can not on account of space, and too we might miss some one.

One woman right here in the community who is in a church in another denomination got interested in an organ fund, and after working in every way her genius would suggest she finally, when we began thinking of buying an organ she turned over five hundred dollars to the treasurer, which was the first money for the organ.

We all worked, hoped, and prayed. And this is the way it was done.

The Two Hundred Third Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Covenant Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
January 19, 1954

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Third Stated Session in the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Rev. J. Cecil Lawrence, the Moderator, preached the sermon and led the opening prayer.

History of the Covenant Presbyterian Church—The following sketch of the History of the Covenant Presbyterian Church was read by Ruling Elder R. D. Hutchison and was adopted:

Eighty years ago upon petition signed by sixteen members of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, Mecklenburg Presbytery granted the petitioners permission to organize Second Church. There were thirty-four charter members. The first services of the new church were held in the County Courthouse, which then stood where the Selwyn Hotel now stands; and the first sermon preached to the congregation was by Dr. Robert H. Chapman, whose text was "Fear Not, Little Flock, for it is your Father's Good Pleasure to give you the Kingdom." A lot was purchased on North Tryon Street one and a half blocks from the Square, and the church building was completed in 1875. A new church building was constructed in 1892 and was the home of the congregation until 1951.

By permission of your Presbytery, Westminster Presbyterian Church was organized November 28, 1897; it was the daughter of First and Second Churches. Its first church home was in Dilworth on South Boulevard, the building now occupied by the Greek Orthodox Church. As the years passed, Westminster grew in numbers and in strength, and its people became convinced that they should have a new church home at a more desirable location. The lot at the intersection of Morehead Street and Dilworth Road, being a portion of the property now occupied by Covenant Presbyterian Church, was purchased, and on May 28, 1930, ground was broken for the new church. This was the home of Westminster until June, 1951, although it was the intention of the congregation to greatly enlarge the edifice and funds were being accumulated for that purpose.

In the early 1940s, many members of Second Church were of the opinion that a more spacious and pleasing sanctuary, a larger and better equipped educational building, and other facilities, should be provided in order that the church might continue to go forward in its work and not stand still, or possibly slip backward. North Tryon Street was almost entirely given over to business and was overrun with traffic, and the church property was too small to permit any substantial enlargement of the church building. It was decided that rather than attempt to enlarge the old building, that a new edifice should be constructed to be located upon a new site. Where to build the new church was a tremendous problem. Careful and prayerful thought and investigation were given to a site for the new church building. It was found that the geographical center of the congregation was on Morehead Street near Dilworth Road. This was very near Westminster. Other possible locations were undesirable or too near to one or more of our sister churches. Finally, someone had an inspiration and suggested that Westminster and Second might be joined together as one great church. After much prayer and consecrated hard work by the officers and congregation of the two churches, this was accomplished.

It is unnecessary to tell of the sale of the Tryon Street property, the acquiring of additional land, the employing of architects, engineers and contractors, the raising of money, and of the many other things that were necessary to be done. However, a statement by one of the architects concerning these, our buildings, is succinct and enlightening:

"Covenant Presbyterian Church buildings, erected 1950-53, in the triangle between Morehead Street and Dilworth Road comprise one of the largest church plants in the State and one of the most noteworthy groups of church edifices in the country. The buildings, laid out around a center court, are dominated by the 170 foot stone tower of the sanctuary. The architectural design is similar to the Gothic style of the English churches and the Sanctuary is not a great deal unlike St. Andrews at Heckington in Lincolnshire which was built 600 years ago. The entire group is built of native gray and tan granite from the Salisbury quarries and the intricate Gothic details of the exterior are all carved in limestone. The massive exterior doors of solid mahogany are adorned with the finest examples of the wrought iron craftsman's art. The interior atmosphere is that of the oldest cathedrals for here the artistry of the stained glass windows is equal to any found in this country. The long marble aisle through the nave leads to the chancel and its focal point, the apse. Here in the chancel the lacework of Gothic detail is all carved in mahogany. The pews of the nave, seating 1,200 persons, are also mahogany.

It might be of special interest to the members of the Presbytery of Mecklenburg to note the stained glass windows in the church and chapel. A great deal of care was put on the subject matter of the windows. In order that the members of Presbytery might the better understand the windows, we submit the scheme which was followed:

The east windows of the Chapel depict the miracles of our Lord under three headings—Jesus as the Lord of Nature, the Lord of Life and the Lord of Death. The windows on the west side, including the gallery window, are the parable windows. The gallery window shows the parable of the Last Judgment; and reading from back to front the other windows show first the Similitudes of the Kingdom; secondly, the Citizen of the Kingdom; thirdly, the Kingdom of Heaven as Judgment; and fourthly, the Kingdom of Heaven as Redemption. The three windows in the apse of the Chapel are the Trinity windows—the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

The windows in the Church are divided into several sections, the main gallery window is the Apocalypse window or Christ the King. On either side are two small windows giving parts of the ancient hymn of praise, the Benedicite. The east nave windows of the Church are the Old Testament windows, and reading from the rear to the front are the Creation window, the Patriarche window, the Nation window and the Prophets window. The west nave windows tell part of the life of Christ, beginning with the Nativity window proceeding through the Preparation window, the Disciples window and the Teaching window.

The east transept is devoted to the history of the church. The three lancets of the great window show the early church, the Reformation and Presbyterianism in America. In this transept also is the Psalm window.

The west transept window depicts the service of the church under the three headings of Education, Foreign Missions and Home Missions. The material used here all has some relation to the life of this particular church. Also in this transept is the Prayer window.

The three apse windows tell the crowning story of the Christian message—the Passion, the Crucifixion and the Resurrection of our Lord, with the Last Supper, the Crucifixion and the Resurrected Lord pictured in the rose windows of each of these three. Beneath each rose are four scenes relating first to the Passion, then to the Crucifixion and lastly to the Risen Lord.

A devoted member of the Session of Covenant Presbyterian Church, looking upon this beautiful sanctuary and all of the buildings and property which now constitute the physical part of this church, remarked "Who told us that we could do this?"; and all of us knew who had told us for it was He who said: "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom."

Report of Committee on Christian Education—The following report of the Committee on Christian Education was read and adopted

Your Committee on Ministerial Education wishes to report that Mecklenburg Presbytery now has 41 candidates under her care preparing for the Gospel Ministry. The reports from the Colleges and Seminaries in which these men are studying have been satisfactory, and their diligence is to be commended. There are at present seven men who are not in touch with your committee and contact has not been established with them. Letters are being written to them to discover the status of their preparation and their plans.

Recognizing the responsibility laid upon the Committee of Ministerial Education for "planning with care a meaningful and inspirational worship service for the receiving of candidates into the Presbytery," we submit the following order of worship which was approved by the General Assembly: (See attached Order of Worship) and which we recommend using. Such a service should lift a man's whole ministry to a high level of spiritual consecration and should be for all the members of the Presbytery a heart-searching rededication.

Mr. Robert Lee Combs, a candidate for the ministry and a regular student at Union Theological Seminary has asked for the consent of Mecklenburg Presbytery to continue his studies as a "special student" under the extraordinary case clause. He states he has found it necessary to discontinue his Greek studies for the time being and expresses his desire to attempt the course of languages (Greek and Hebrew) offered by the Seminary at a time after his ordination. The committee approves Mr. Combs' request and recommends that he be identified as a "special student" and enrolled under the extraordinary case clause.

AN ORDER OF WORSHIP

RECEIVING OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

(The receiving of Candidates for the Ministry shall take place in the presence of the Presbytery, duly constituted.)

The Moderator (or other presiding Minister) shall say:

"Our help is in the Name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth."

"How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace!"

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest."

In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church, we are now to receive under the care of Mecklenburg Presbytery (names of candidates), who have been approved by their church Sessions and by the Presbytery as candidates for the Gospel ministry of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Holy Scriptures require that trial be previously had of them who are to be ordained to the Ministry of the Gospel, that this sacred office may not be committed to unworthy men; and that the churches may have an opportunity to form a true judgment respecting those who are to minister to them in holy things. For this purpose Presbyteries are authorized to enroll as candidates for licensure and ordination such persons as in their judgment give promise of usefulness in this sacred office, after the training and trial of their talents prescribed in the Book of Church Order.

(The Candidate shall stand before the Moderator, who shall say:)

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg, having approved your testimonials and sustained your examination, now requires you to make answer to the following questions:

Do you, as far as you know your own heart, believe yourself to be called to the office of the Christian Ministry?

(The candidate shall answer: I do)

Do you promise in reliance upon the grace of God to maintain a becoming Christian character, and to be diligent and faithful in making full preparation for the sacred ministry?

(The candidate shall answer: I do)

Do you promise to submit yourself to the proper supervision of the Presbytery in matters that concern your preparation for the ministry?

(The candidate shall answer: I do)

Do you desire now to be received by this Presbytery as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry in the Presbyterian Church in the United States?

(The candidate shall answer: I do)

(The Moderator—or someone appointed by him—shall give the candidate(s) a brief charge.

The Candidate shall then kneel, and the Moderator—or someone appointed by him—shall lead in a prayer of dedication.)

(Suggested prayer:)

Almighty and eternal God, graciously accept this (these) Thy Servant(s) as in faith and humility he (they) dedicates himself (themselves) to the service of Thy Kingdom. Bestow upon him (them) the grace of Thy Holy Spirit, that he (they) may be instructed in the deep things of Thy truth, enabled by purity of life to adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour, and guided into ever fuller knowledge of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, whom to know is life, whom to serve is freedom, whom to love is joy. Spare him (them), we pray Thee, that in due season, enriched in grace, learning and experience, he (they) may be ordained to the office of the Holy Ministry. Teach him (them) to have a steadfast care of his (their) own soul(s); conserve in him (them) the gifts of Thy love; that, holding fast his (their) profession without wavering, he (they) may finish his (their) course with joy, and finally, of Thy mercy, receive a full reward in Thine eternal and glorious kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Then the candidate, together with the Presbytery, shall stand, and the Moderator shall say:)

In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church, I do now by the authority of this Presbytery declare that you are acknowledged and received as a candidate(s) for licensure and ordination in the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and I do now direct that your name be recorded on the roll of this Presbytery as a candidate for the Ministry.

(The Moderator shall then extend to the Candidate(s) the right hand of Christian fellowship, and afterward shall say:)

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

We wish to present to the Presbytery the following young men who wish to be received under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery as Candidates for the Gospel Ministry:

1. Mr. William Ward Davis, Jr. (Born June 19, 1934 at Waxhaw, N. C.) a member of the Sharon Presbyterian Church of Charlotte—a student at Charlotte College.

2. Mr. Grover Curtis Moore (Born September 4, 1914 at Antioch, N. C.) a member of the Benton Heights Presbyterian Church of Monroe, N. C. Mr. Moore is married, has three children. He finished high school at Indian Trail, N. C., and plans to attend Columbia Theological Seminary. Mr. Moore is an Elder and the Superintendent of the Sunday School of his church.

The committee recommends that he be received as a candidate for the ministry under the extraordinary case clause.

3. Mr. Armand Joseph Moreau (Al) Born July 31, 1934 at Portland, Maine) a member of the Myers' Park Presbyterian Church of Charlotte—a first year student at Davidson College.

4. Mr. Eugene Ramsauer Rucker (Born June 15, 1930, at Atlanta, Georgia) a member of the Plaza Presbyterian Church of Charlotte. He completed one year of study at Queens College prior to his service in the United States Navy. Following his discharge, he entered Mitchel College at Statesville, N. C., and was on January 13th notified that he had been accepted at Davidson. Mr. Rucker is married.

These young men have all made application according to the procedure of Presbytery—their applications have all been found in order and are most commendatory—the sessions of their individual churches recommend them in the highest terms—they have counseled with your committee and we recommend them to Presbytery to be received as candidates for the Gospel Ministry.

Report of Subcommittee on Religious Education—The following Report of the Subcommittee on Religious Education was read and adopted:

The Subcommittee on Religious Education of Mecklenburg Presbytery feels that it has just concluded a successful year's work in the various areas that are assigned to it.

In Leadership Training full co-operation was given the Queens-Charlotte School of Religion which was well attended by members of the Presbyterian churches of the community. On November 15-17, 1953, a Leadership School was held at Candor for the members of the eleven churches in that area.

The Senior High conference was held at Camp Stewart on July 6-11, 1953 under the able direction of Rev. David Wilkinson. There were 147 delegates and 19 faculty members who attended and used the theme "This I Believe." It was felt that the young people went out from the conference with a greater knowledge of and a stronger faith in our basic doctrines. A Fall Rally for Seniors was held on December 6, 1953 at Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The Pioneer camp was held in two sections, during June 1953, and was ably directed by Rev. Hugh Carter. Both sections of the camp were full to capacity and excellent work was done. We, on the committee, feel keenly the loss of Mr. Carter in our program.

Vacation Bible Schools were held in most of the churches in the Presbytery, and the attendance was most gratifying.

Two Men's Rallies were held during the last church year. The first was held in the late spring at the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, with Dr. Marshall Dendy as the speaker; and the other, in the fall at the First Presbyterian Church, Albemarle, with Col. Carl LeCraw as the speaker. Both were well attended. A meeting of the Sunday School superintendents and the DRE's of the Presbytery was held in November at the Myers Park Presbyterian Church, with an attendance of 55.

A Young Adult Retreat was held at Camp Stewart in July, 1953 over a week-end. Despite a good program and careful advance planning, the attendance was small.

We feel that great strides forward were made at Camp Stewart when a full-time supervisor was employed to oversee the camp and the work of the caretaker. Mecklenburg Presbytery has a tremendous investment at stake in Camp Stewart, and time is fast taking a toll of some of the buildings.

So much for the record of the past year, which we believe was a good one. Let us look at the plans for 1954:

In Leadership Education—A school will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, Hamlet, N. C., January 24, 25, 26, 1954. A North Mecklenburg School of Religion, sponsored jointly by Queens College and the churches in that area, will be held March 22-26, 1954. A Vacation Bible School Workshop will be held May 5 at a location in the eastern part of the Presbytery. The Queens-Charlotte Vacation Bible School Workshop will be held late in April.

In Senior High Work—A rally for the Stanly, Montgomery, Richmond, and Anson area will be held at the Presbyterian Church, Norwood, on February 14, 1954. A similar rally for Union District will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, Monroe, on February 21, 1954, and one for Mecklenburg at Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church on February 28, 1954. The Senior Conference will be at Camp Stewart, June 14-19, 1954, with Rev. David Wilkinson serving as its director.

In Pioneer Work—A Pioneer Conclave will be held Saturday, May 1, 1954, at Camp Stewart. The first section of Pioneer Camp will be at Camp Stewart June 21-26, 1954, with Rev. Wylie Hogue, Director, and the second section, the following week, June 28-July 3, 1954, with Rev. James R. Crook, Director. A training course for the adult advisors to Pioneers will be held March 29, 1954 at a time and place to be announced later.

Children's Work—A laboratory class for teachers of nursery children will be held February 8-11, 1954 in the morning 9:30-11:30 at Myers Park Presbyterian Church. Miss Adeline Hill will be the leading teacher. There will be a group of children being taught, and the teachers attending will observe. Registrations will be limited, but it is desirable to have representation from every church.

Men's Work—Since the Men's Work has been organized into districts with a vice president in each, there will be a conference or rally held in each of the seven districts of the Presbytery during the year.

Young Adult Work—Plans will be announced later.

Camp Stewart—A committee is working to see that the camp is in as good physical condition as the financial support will allow.

Your Subcommittee would like to present the following recommendations:

1. That all churches be urged to observe Sunday, January 31, 1954 as Assembly's Youth Sunday and that an offering be sent to the support of Presbytery's Youth Council.
2. That all churches be urged to give full publicity and support to the Men's Convention in New Orleans, October 15, 16, 17, 1954.
3. That the Subcommittee be authorized to make a study of the physical needs of Camp Stewart, both from a standpoint of replacement and additions and bring in definite recommendations of the Fall Meeting of Presbytery, 1954.

Respectfully submitted,
James B. Kuykendall, Jr., Chairman

Report of Committee on Nominations—The following report of the Committee on Nominations was read and adopted.

Your Committee on Nominations presents the following Nominations:

3. For the Subcommittee on Homes:

Report of Committee on Presbytery's Records—The following Report of the Committee on Presbytery's Records was read and adopted.

The Committee on Presbytery's Records has examined the Minutes of the 201st and 202nd Stated Sessions, together with called and adjourned meetings of Mecklenburg Presbytery. It has found the records to be in excellent order. The Committee recommends that Presbytery express appreciation to the Clerks for the efficient manner in which they have kept the records.

Ben F. Moore, Chairman

Report of Committee on Sessional Records—The Committee on Sessional Records made the following report which was adopted.

The Sessional records were examined by the Presbytery as a Committee of the whole and exceptions were noted. The Sessions were reminded of the exceptions. The Committee also calls attention of the Sessions that some of the records are not in a form which will insure their preservation. Care should be taken to guard against loss of pages from the records. In this regard we recommend special care of loose leaf books. Pages of these books should be numbered.

Report of Committee on Resolutions—The Committee on Resolutions made the following report which was adopted:

Mecklenburg Presbytery, meeting in 203rd stated session at Covenant Presbyterian Church of Charlotte, expresses grateful appreciation:

To Ministers, staff and officers of Covenant Church for courtesy and hospitality in placing at our disposal the facilities of their newly completed structure;

To Dr. Warner Hall and the Rev. Robert Turner for guidance and helpful information;

To the women of Covenant Church for a delicious and most satisfying meal;

To Mr. R. S. Hutchison for most interesting and informative history of the Covenant Church.

The Presbytery would further assure the Covenant Church of their mutual gratification upon the manifest evidence of their progress to date, and of their earnest prayers for God's continued guidance and abundant blessings upon their future efforts.

The Presbytery would also make available to the Ministers and Congregation of Covenant Church copies of this resolution.

Respectfully submitted,
Committee on Resolutions
C. McDonald Coffey
Grier Wallace
H. P. Cathey
Rev. Howard Chadwick, Chairman

Presbytery voted to adjourn.

The Minutes were read and adopted.

The Presbytery adjourned with prayer by Rev. C. Don Coffey to meet at the Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church, Route No. 9, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A.M. on April 20, 1954.

The Two Hundred Fourth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church,
Route No. 9, Charlotte, N. C.
April 20, 1954.

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Fourth Stated Session in the Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church, Route No. 9, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Moderator, Rev. Watt M. Cooper, presided and led the opening exercises. The Rev. M. B. Prince, Jr., led the opening prayer. The Rev. Harold D. Hayward read the Scripture. The Moderator preached the sermon based on the text Matthew 5:16.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated. The Sacrament was administered by Rev. Kirk N. Nesbit and Rev. Homer A. Spencer assisted by ruling elders in attendance.

History of the Williams Memorial Church—The History of the Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church was distributed to the Presbytery in printed form. It was adopted and is as follows.

HISTORY OF WILLIAMS MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Williams Chapel of which Williams Memorial Presbyterian Church is the outgrowth was located five miles from the heart of Charlotte, North Carolina, on the Beattie's Ford Road. The community in which it was located was a mining district with the usual vices. In fact, a bar room stood directly across the road from the brush arbor in which Rev. J. C. Williams of Hopewell Presbyterian Church came to preach to those interested.

Soon the interested group increased and the need for a building was evident. Rev. Mr. Williams had been called to his final rest and Rev. Frank Leeper had succeeded him at Hopewell. The outpost of Williams Chapel was still active—so much so that in 1881 a building lot of two acres was purchased from Mr. McRhee and during the summer a frame building with a seating capacity of three to four hundred was erected. Rev. W. E. McIlwain then became pastor at Hopewell.

Before the year closed, an active Sunday School was in progress and some twenty-eight people had united with the Chapel. For the next four years, the work showed much promise. From the minutes of Mecklenburg Presbytery dated "Paw Creek, March 27, 1885," one reads:

"A petition for the organization of a church at a place, known as 'Williams Chapel,' in the bounds of Hopewell Congregation (Mecklenburg Co.), was presented by Rev. Wm. E. McIlwain. The Petition set forth reasons for a separate organization. The matter was considered and Presbytery directed the Ex. Com. Home Missions to organize a Church, if they find the way clear." (Rec. Meck. Pby., V. 3; 1883-87, p. 187.)

Then from the report to the Presbytery meeting at Swannanoa Aug. 27, 1885 the following is found in the minutes of that meeting:

"The Commission instructed at last Spring Meeting to organize a Church in Mecklenburg Co. made the following report which was approved:

"According to the order of Presbytery made in March last at Paw Creek, a Presbyterian Church was organized in Mecklenburg County on the 25th day of April, 1885, with 73 members from Hopewell Church, & 3 members from Paw Creek Ch. making the whole membership 76. By a Unanimous vote the new Church was named WILLIAMS MEMORIAL CHURCH in honor of Rev. J. C. Williams deceased a former pastor of Hopewell Ch. who preached frequently at a stand in the grove near the new Church Building in which the members were organized into a Church of our Order. I. A. Frazier, B. F. Brown, & J. C. Hutchison were elected elders, & J. L. Jamison & W. H. Puckett Deacons; and they were ordained and installed to their respective offices.

"It is recommended that Presbytery receive and enroll this New Church organization under the name & style of the WILLIAMS MEMORIAL CHURCH.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. Watson, Chm., in behalf of
Ex. Com. Home Missions. (Recs.V.3.p.206)"

The church was originally a frame structure consisting of one large room with a pulpit at one end. At this altar, E. H. Little, President emeritus of the Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co. was the first baby baptized. Later this building was remodeled by adding a vestibule and two class rooms at the front. In the spring of 1923 this building was torn down and a brick veneer building was erected. In addition to the auditorium, there were seven Sunday School rooms in the building. On November 14, 1948, the Congregation voted to undertake a program to build an educational building and remodel the Sanctuary. The buildings were completed and used for worship on Sunday, December 25, 1949.

Spiritual growth is evidenced by the fact that four sons of the Church have entered the ministry. They are Rev. Charles H. Little, Rev. Fred E. Gray, Rev. Coyte Hunter, and Rev. J. Kennedy McConnell. One member, Marcus B. Prince, Jr., is now preparing for full time service. Evidence is noted, too, by the number who have gladly served the local Church in official capacities and have been active in interdenominational organizations.

The various organizations within the Church proper, such as Sunday School, Choir, Women of the Church, Men of the Church, and the Young People have been active since the organization using the appropriate name for the given period.

The Charter Officers were, Mr. I. A. Frazier, Mr. B. L. Brown, and Mr. J. C. Hutchison, elders; Mr. J. L. Jamison and Mr. W. H. Puckett, deacons.

The Roll—The following were present or enrolled during the meeting.

The Two Hundred Fifth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
July 20, 1954

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Fifth Stated Session in the McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Rev. H. G. Bedinger, the Moderator, preached the opening sermon and led the opening prayer.

History of the McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church—
The following History of the McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church was read by Rev. M. B. Dudley and was adopted.

McQUAY MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HISTORY

The McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church is located in the Glenwood Section of Charlotte, three miles west of the heart of the city. Only a few members of the Church can remember when this section of Tuckaseegee Road was just a muddy lane. It was not until 1917 that this community began to grow. It was then that the United States Government located Camp Green in this section. At the close of World War I, the late Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Linsey established the first Sunday School in one of the old camp buildings. From this one chapel, other churches have been established.

In January 1948 the members of an interdenominational group went before Mecklenburg Presbytery, meeting in the Mulberry Church, to ask that they be organized. Reverend F. S. Johnston of the Paw Creek Presbyterian Church acted as spokesman for the group. He presented their cause before Presbytery. After much consideration, the Presbytery decided that the time was not right for the organization of a Church. Instead a chapel to be known as McQuay, was formed and placed under the care of the Wilmore Presbyterian Church. Mr. Guy M. Neel, an elder of the Wilmore Church, was chosen to lead the people.

For two years the members of the chapel looked forward to their organization into a Presbyterian Church. At the meeting of Presbytery in Albemarle, January 1950, Mr. Neel presented a petition of organization. The Reverend W. T. Smith, pastor of Wilmore Church had a large part in the organization plans. The date for organization was set for February 5, 1950.

Prior to their organization, the members of the Chapel met in the building given them by Mrs. Jennie McQuay in memory of her son, Mr. E. H. McQuay. On February 5, 1950 a Commission from Mecklenburg Presbytery organized the church with fifty-one charter members.

Having previously been known as McQuay Chapel, it was considered fitting to name the Church in honor of a mother and son who were among the early leaders. Thus the name McQuay Memorial Presbyterian Church was chosen.

Mr. Neel continued as the supply pastor until the last of March 1950. The Presbytery secured layworkers until June. For the summer months, Mr. J. R. Dail, a student at Union Theological Seminary, served as the pastor.

In the fall of 1950, the congregation sold the land given by Mrs. McQuay and purchased the lots now owned by the Church. The Reverend Walter Baker became a temporary supply for the Church in November 1950.

Until a temporary building could be erected on the new property, Sunday school classes were held in the homes of some of the members, and the preaching services were held in the St. James Methodist Church.

In the spring of 1951, a frame structure was purchased from the city of Charlotte and made ready for use as a temporary sanctuary. The ground breaking for the present building was held on July 4, 1951. The first services to be held in the new Church were on March 9, 1952. Since then the women of the Church have purchased an organ, and the Men's Club have equipped the hut with kitchen facilities.

Following the resignation of the Reverend Walter Baker, Mr. Bland Dudley was called as pastor. He was ordained and installed on July 11, 1954.

The Manse is now under construction on Rogers Street and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Report of Committee on Ministerial Education—The Committee on Ministerial Education made the following Report which was adopted.

The Committee on ministerial education would introduce Mr. Clifford Douglas Caldwell and Mr. Vance Baucom, candidates for the Gospel Ministry who present themselves to Mecklenburg Presbytery for examination leading to their licensure.

Mr. Clifford Douglas Caldwell has completed his theological training at Union Theological Seminary and comes to us by transfer as a candidate from Holsten Presbytery, Synod of Virginia. His thesis on "Predestination: Calvin vs. Arminias," and his exegesis of Isaiah 52:13—53:12 have both been reviewed and approved. For his sermon, he will preach on "A Priceless Inheritance" from II Timothy 1:6-7. Mr. Caldwell has been called to the St. Andrews Church.

Mr. Vance Baucom, candidate under the extraordinary case clause has completed two years at Union Theological Seminary as an English student. By virtue of his special status as a candidate, he is not required to present an exegesis of a passage of Scripture. His thesis written on "The Personality and Work of the Holy Spirit" has been read and approved. He will preach his sermon on the subject: "The Advocate" from John 14. Mr. Baucom has been called to the W. Henry Belk Church.

We recommend both of these men to Mecklenburg Presbytery for licensure, and following Presbytery's approval of their trial parts that the calls be placed in their hands. (NB par 137 B Ch 0.)

The following young men have asked to be received as candidates for the Gospel Ministry under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery:

1. Mr. Arthur McKee Dye, Jr. (born Sept. 26, 1935) a member of the Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian Church, Charlotte and a sophomore at Davidson College.
2. Mr. Leslie Auston Everett, Jr. (born Nov. 8, 1933) a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Monroe, N. C., and a Junior at Guilford College.
3. Mr. James Preston Sample, III (born June 1, 1935) a member of the Amity Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, and a sophomore at Duke University.
4. Mr. James Hoyt Sell, Jr. (born October 6, 1936) a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Monroe, N. C., who will enter Davidson College this fall as a freshman.

These men have met with your committee and we are satisfied as to their Christian character, personality, vocational fitness and the physical, mental and spiritual qualifications. Their references and testimonials were highly commendatory.

We recommend that they be received under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery pending approval of their examination on experimental religion and their statements of motives for seeking the Gospel ministry.

Fathers and Brethren:

Mecklenburg Presbytery now has 44 candidates under her care for the Gospel Ministry, with two additional candidates in preparation for lay service. We would emphasize the continual need for challenging the youth of our Presbytery with the call of Christ to Christian service. "The fields are white unto harvest and the laborers are few."

Following a contact with all of our candidates by mail, Mr. Samuel B. Schulken, Jr., has requested that his status be changed from "candidate for the ministry" to "candidate for lay service." Mr. Schulken who is unusually talented musically feels he is called to serve in the field of music, and would prepare himself as an organist-choir director. He plans attending the Westminster Choir College.

Mr. George Edward Melton and William C. Washam have both asked to be dropped from the roll of candidates—they being under the present conviction that they can serve our Lord best as consecrated laymen.

Your Committee on Ministerial Education therefore recommends:

1. That the status of Samuel B. Schulken, Jr. be changed from "candidate for the ministry" to "candidate for lay service."
2. That George Edward Melton and William C. Washam be dropped from the roll of candidates.

G. Dana Waters, Chairman
Committee on Ministerial Education
Mecklenburg Presbytery.

Ministers Received—The following Ministers seeking membership in Mecklenburg Presbytery, presented certificates of transfer: Rev. W. F. Mitchell of the Mississippi Valley Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church; and Rev. W. T. Taylor of the St. Lawrence Baptist Church, Inverness, Mississippi. Their certificates of transfer were found in order and the Presbytery proceeded to examine the Ministers in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as satisfactory and they were enrolled upon the signing of the Covenant.

A Call for the services of Rev. W. F. Mitchell from the Sunset Hills Church was placed in his hands and accepted by him. A Commission was appointed to install him. (See Report of the Committee on Installations.)

MEMORIAL TO REV. CHARLES HOWIE LITTLE, WRITTEN BY REV. J. W. GRIER AND READ BEFORE MECKLENBURG
PRESBYTERY AT ITS 206TH STATED SESSION,
SEPTEMBER 14, 1954

Rev. Charles Howie Little, Honorably Retired member of Mecklenburg Presbytery, died July 29, 1954 and was buried July 31, 1954 in Sharon Presbyterian Church cemetery adjoining the church of which he had been pastor for thirty-three years.

Mr. Little was born in Mecklenburg County near Charlotte, September 28, 1872. was the son of George Washington Little and Ella Elizabeth Howie Little. He married Miss Bonnie Lucy Anderson of Etowah, N. C., July 1, 1912. This union was blessed with two sons, Lieutenant Commander George Anderson Little, who was killed in the service of his country in 1945, and Charles Howie Little of State College, Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. Little received his elementary education in the public schools of Mecklenburg County and took his High School work at the Gray High School in Huntersville, N. C. He entered Davidson College in 1892 and graduated from that institution with the degree of A.B. in 1896. In the fall of 1897 he entered Princeton Theological Seminary and after one year he transferred to Louisville Theological Seminary from which he graduated in 1901. He was licensed by Potosi Presbytery July 18, 1901 and was ordained by the same Presbytery September 25, 1901.

His first pastorate was New Madrid, Missouri, 1901 to 1906. He then came back to North Carolina and was the pastor of Unity, Macpelah, and Castanea churches in Kings Mountain Presbytery from 1906 to 1913. In 1913 he became pastor of Sharon Church in Mecklenburg Presbytery which church he continued to serve until retirement in 1946. During the Sharon pastorate he was also pastor of Carmel and Amity Churches from 1913 to 1923. Since retirement Mr. Little has continued to be an active preacher. He has supplied many churches, the more recent ones being Banks, Rehobeth, Six Mile Creek of the Belk Larger Parish. It can be truly said that Charlie Little was a faithful servant of his Master.

History of Cook's Memorial Church—The following History of the Cook's Memorial Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. George L. Cook and was adopted.

This community was once a part of the Paw Creek Presbyterian Church territory. The minister at Paw Creek in the 1880's, Rev. George L. Cook, held a number of services in the community from time to time which led to building a chapel in 1887 on what is now Highway 16. There this church was organized with thirty-six members on December 19, 1891, named for its founder, and grouped with the mother church, Paw Creek.

The one-room chapel was used until a new church with four Sunday School rooms was built under the leadership of Rev. C. H. Rowan. The location was changed to a larger lot, the present site. The members contributed timber from which the lumber was sawed, and the men of the congregation worked together in building the church. It was started in 1922, completed in 1923, and dedicated in 1925 with an impressive service. A fellowship hall, known as the Community House, was also built in Mr. Rowan's pastorate.

After a division of the field was made in 1944, a manse was built here. Rev. O. C. Williamson, D.D. accepted a call and was installed on December 17, 1944 as this church's first full-time pastor. Dr. Williamson did not spare himself in the work of the church, and it prospered in his hands. Three Sunday School rooms were added and other improvements made. Many new homes were being established in the community, congregations grew larger, Sunday School rooms overcrowded. In the spring of 1950 the congregation elected a Planning and Building Committee to consider enlarging the church plant. After careful consideration, a new church building was recommended and a study of plans began. In this the pastor was very interested, but in the spring of 1951 his health which had been impaired for some time failed, and he requested a dissolution of the pastoral relationship. A resolution was passed by the congregation expressing to Dr. Williamson deep appreciation for all his service as pastor and friend, with gratitude for rich spiritual blessings received through his untiring zeal and devotion. Appreciation was also expressed to Mrs. Williamson for her leadership in the Women of the Church and in the Sunday School. Dr. Williamson's earthly life ended on October 19, 1951. His influence lives.

On May 4, 1952 the Rev. Robert W. Rayburn was installed pastor, and the work of the church goes forward.

In the fall preparations for building were intensified. The Committee devoted much time, thought, and painstaking work in drawing plans best suited to our needs. The Church authorized a special financial campaign, and a brochure telling the story of our dreams and plans for a new church was prepared and distributed. Architectural drawings were presented to the congregation and approved. Ground was broken for the building on June 7, 1953 after which construction began and moved steadily until completed. This building includes the sanctuary and fourteen class rooms. It is not merely steel and brick and mortar. Built into it are time, talent, means, gifts large and small, hopes, memories, prayers—our house of worship built to the glory of God.

The doors of the new church were opened on March 7, 1954. The first sermon in the sanctuary was preached by the pastor on "The True Marks of the Church." In his prayer this petition: "Grant, O God, that the visible church may ever point toward the invisible whose foundation and chief cornerstone is Jesus Christ." A spirit of loyalty is shown in the various organizations within the church—officers, Sunday School, Women of the Church, and Youth Fellowship.

The church lot contains almost eight acres. The church membership is 493, the Sunday School enrollment 550. The cost of the church approximately $114,000.00. We are humbly grateful for material and spiritual growth through the sixty-three years of our church's history.

In the words of the old hymn, "Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices." May He Who gives the growth be our constant Guide.

4. Approved Rev. W. W. Peters for Call to Hamlet Presbyterian Church.
5. Approved the Call of Robinson Church for the services of Rev. W. B. Neill for one year as temporary supply pastor.

Your Commission recommends, in line with the Assembly's request, that churches of the Presbytery be urged to recognize the value of experience and to consider for call older men of experience along with their consideration of younger men.

Your Commission recommends that minimum salaries for Ministers hereafter called to Churches in this Presbytery be as follows: For single men $3300.00 and for married men $3600.00 with Manse and 7½ per cent annuity agreement in each case.

Minister Received—The Rev. Hugh M. Jefferson seeking membership in Mecklenburg Presbytery, presented a certificate of transfer from Granville Presbytery which was found in order. A letter of commendation from the Stated Clerk of Granville Presbytery was read. The Presbytery proceeded to examine Mr. Jefferson in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as satisfactory and he was enrolled upon the signing of the Covenant.

A Call for the services of Rev. Hugh M. Jefferson from the South Park Church was placed in his hands and accepted by him. A Commission was appointed to install him. (See Report of Committee on Installations.)

Report of Committee on Ministerial Education—The Committee on Ministerial Education made the following report which was adopted.

Mecklenburg Presbytery now has 46 men in preparation for the Gospel Ministry—of which 22 are in college, 19 in seminary, and 5 whose preparation has been interrupted by military service or other circumstance. In spite of this seemingly large number of candidates, we would remind Presbytery again of the continual need for challenging young men and women to answer the call to full-time Christian service.

Mr. Billy Shaw Howell, Jr., a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte and a student in the Senior class at the University of North Carolina, is asking to be received as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry. Mr. Howell has met with your committee and we are well satisfied with his references and testimonials as well as with his personal, vocational and spiritual qualifications.

We recommend that Mr. Howell be received as a candidate for the ministry pending Presbytery's approval of his examination on experimental religion and his motives for seeking the Gospel ministry.

G. Dana Waters, Chairman for the Committee on Ministerial Education

Candidate Received—The Committee on Ministerial Education presented Mr. Billy Shaw Howell, Jr., a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. to be received under the care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the Gospel ministry. Being satisfied with the recommendations of the Committee the Presbytery proceeded to examine the Candidate in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as satisfactory. Mr. Howell was received as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry under the care of Mecklenburg Presbytery. The Rev. Charles E. S. Kraemer gave the charge to the candidate and Ruling Elder Nat G. Speir led the prayer of dedication.

Report of Presbytery's Council—The report of Presbytery's Council was read and adopted. The report is as follows.

REPORT OF PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL

The Council met on Sept. 10 at 11:00 in Presbytery's Office.

Mr. J. B. Kuykendall, Chairman of the Committee on Religious Education, presented the following requests: that operational funds for Camp Stewart be increased from $400 to $500 per month; that $3,000 per year be placed in the budget for replacement of cabins at Camp Stewart; that the Committee on Religious Education be granted permission to solicit funds in the Presbytery over and above this amount for urgently needed repairs and replacement. The monthly operational payments come out of our Presbytery Expense Fund. The Council recommends these requests to Presbytery.

The Committee on Annuities and Relief was granted ten minutes on the docket.

The attention of Presbytery is called to the increasing arrearages in Presbytery's Expense Fund. The Council requests that Presbytery direct the Council to write each church in arrears in the Presbyterial Expense Fund reminding it of its obligation to pay.

The Council recommends that the chairman of the Stewardship Committee, the Clerk of Presbytery and the Executive Secretary form a committee to make a study of churches which are not paying their benevolent budget and report their findings to the Council.

The Council asks Presbytery to urge each church to observe Youth Sunday as requested by the General Assembly and that the special offering taken be forwarded to our central treasurer or an amount put in the budget and specified as an over and above gift to our youth work.

The Stewardship Committee report is as follows:

STEWARDSHIP REPORT
MECKLENBURG PRESBYTERY
SEPT. 14, 1954

For the nine months of the Church Year April-December, 1953, the churches of the Presbytery contributed to all benevolent causes the following amounts:

Assembly Causes	$155,435
Synod Causes	169,901
Presbytery Causes	67,173
Cong. Missions	52,341
Negro Work Campaign	38,685

Total All Causes$499,130

Deducting the special item for the Negro Work Campaign, the total given to all regular causes is $460,445 for the nine months. Extending this to twelve months would have resulted in a total of $575,556 or $47,658 less than the amount contributed in the last full church year.

1. We recommend to the Presbytery the acceptance of the full askings for the Assembly and Synod Causes as sent down to us by the Synod. The amounts are as follows:

For Assembly Causes	$258,252
For Synod Causes	148,252
Total	$406,504
For Presbytery:
Church Extension	90,000
Christian Education	4,800
Special Replacement Fund for Camp Stewart	3,000
Total for All Causes	$504,304

2. We recommend that the contributions from the churches be applied to the totals accepted by Presbytery for the various benevolent causes according to the following percentages:

FOR ASSEMBLY CAUSES:	Per Cent	Amount
Inter Church Agencies	2%	$ 820
World Missions	25.1	126,553
Church Extension	11.5	58,087
Christian Education	4.4	22,206
Annuities and Relief	3.6	18,332
General Fund	6.4	32,254
Total Assembly's Agencies	51.2%	$258,252	$258,252
FOR SYNOD CAUSES:
Synod Church Extension	4.3	21,780
Presbyterian Home9	4,601
Presbyterian Orphans Home ..	4.6	23,001
Religious Education	2.1	10,696
Ch. Campus Life	1.5	7,673
Educational Institutions	15.8	79,734
Inter Church Agencies2	767
Total Synod Causes	29.4%	$148,252	$148,252
FOR PRESBYTERY CAUSES:
Pres. Church Extension	17.8	90,000	97,800
Pres. Religious Education	1.6	7,800	97,800
	19.4%	100% $ 97,800	$504,304

3. We recommend that the budget be apportioned to the church according to the formula adopted by the General Assembly (Minutes 1954, Page 89, and by the Synod (Report of Synod's Council to the 1954 Meeting of Synod) as follows:

One-third (1/3) apportioned on the basis of membership; one-third (1/3) on contributions to Assembly, Synod and Presbytery Causes for the last three years; and one-third (1/3) for total contributions, less building expense, for the last three years. See attached schedule.

We, also, recommend that this be adopted as the formula for figuring benevolent apportionments in the future.

While the approval of the above recommendation will result in radical changes in the benevolent apportionments in many cases, and while we realize that some churches may have difficulty in attaining this goal at this time, we urge the churches to study these apportionments carefully and assume as large a share as possible. We also request the churches to notify the council through the Presbytery's Office of the share assumed.

4. That Presbytery approve a per capita tax of $1.00 for the year 1955 to cover the expense of Presbytery's Office, maintenance and upkeep of Camp Stewart, and the Office of the Stated Clerk of Presbytery, including the assessments of Assembly and Synod.

Respectfully submitted,
 Samuel M. Inman,
 Chairman, Sub-Committee on Stewardship.

This shall not be understood to preclude nominations from the floor.

2. The nominating committee shall present the names of elders to be commissioners to the Assembly after consulting the sessions of churches to secure suggestions of names; giving care to protect the interests of the smaller churches and assuring equitable representations from all churches. Suggestions for names may be sent to the Executive Secretary's office. This shall not be understood to preclude nominations from the floor.

Report of Committee on Minutes of General Assembly—

Your Committee notes several matters of interest to our Presbytery and its Committees, such as the new paragraphs on Testing of Candidates for the Ministry and the proposed Communicant classes for adults.

The Two Hundred Seventh Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Myers Park Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
January 18, 1955

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Seventh Stated Session in the Myers Park Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 a.m. on the above date. The Presbytery was opened by the invocation by the Rev. Robert Turner and the scripture was read from I Cor. 12:25-I Cor. 13.

The Rev. Warner L. Hall, the Moderator, preached the sermon on "The Nature of the Church" and called the meeting to order.

Memorial—The following Memorial to Rev. E. L. Flanagan was read by Rev. W. H. Johnston and was adopted.

Memorial to Rev. E. L. Flanagan written by Rev. W. H. Johnson and read before Mecklenburg Presbytery at its 207th Stated Session, January 18, 1955

ERNEST LELAND FLANAGAN 1886 - 1954

Ernest Leland Flanagan was born in the Bethel community of York County near Clover, S. C., on January 30, 1886. He died there November 10, 1954. His parents were James Adams Flanagan and Mary Ida Wallace. These both died while Leland was a small boy.

He grew up on a farm in the Bethel community in the home of an uncle, William Wallace, in whom were found those qualities of character that marked him as a worthy scion of a house that was devoted to the simple virtues of truth and honesty.

This youth was nurtured in the wholesome heritage of the sturdy Scotch-Irish immigrants who came into the Upcountry of South Carolina in Colonial days. In the years of his boyhood and youth on his uncle's farm he found himself in daily contact with those things that spoke so immediately of God's creative power and of His loving providence that filled every day with evidences of His goodness. On every Sabbath day Leland went with the family to the services of the sanctuary where his uncle was an honored Elder in historic old Bethel Church.

Out of a youth such as this, when in the years of early manhood, the long, long thoughts of youth began to take on substantial form, it is not surprising to find the youth, now become a man, irresistibly impelled by the Holy Spirit's gentle grace to the Saviour's service in the field of the Christian ministry.

His early education was received in the public schools of his home community and at Bethel Academy. He entered Davidson College in 1903 and was graduated from there in 1907.

After his graduation from college he taught school one year, 1907-1908, at McConnellsville, S. C.; then for two years, 1908-1910, he was assistant principal at Charlotte High School, Charlotte, N. C.

In the autumn of 1910 he entered Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia; and in 1913 he received the Bachelor of Divinity degree from that institution.

He was licensed by Bethel Presbytery on December 28, 1910; and was ordained by Norfolk Presbytery in October of 1913. His first pastorate was in a group of churches, Belle Haven and Wachapreague, on the Eastern Shore of Virginia in the years 1913-1917.

In the summer of 1914 he visited Palestine and some of the Mediterranean countries of Europe. While on this trip the First World War began to exercise its paralyzing influence on the lands of Central Europe. The party in which Mr. Flanagan was traveling was held for some time in Switzerland until permission could be secured and an opportunity found for crossing war-alerted France.

In 1917 Mr. Flanagan was called to the Park Avenue Church in Norfolk, Virginia. By this time the country was being drawn into the war, and he felt increasingly the urgency of the call to give himself to the chaplaincy among the men of the armed forces. In the summer of 1918 he took the chaplain's course of training at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Kentucky, and was assigned to the Transport service.

On September 5, 1918 he was married to Miss Sophie Butler Grover of Norfolk, Virginia. For all the following years she was his devoted companion, his efficient co-worker and his tender comforter in the sorrows that came his way.

After the war had ended he returned to the work of the pastorate, having received a call to the First Presbyterian Church of Wilson, North Carolina in Albemarle Presbytery. In this pastorate, 1919-1926, some of his friends think he did the finest work of his life. Under his leadership the church established seven out post Sunday Schools. From these out posts have since come three organized churches, Berea, Bethany and Westminster.

At the close of his pastorate in Wilson he received a call to the West End Church in Atlanta, Georgia; where he served from 1926 to 1935. In Atlanta he suffered a nervous breakdown which with encroaching blindness caused his retirement from the work of the ministry.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan, William Wallace, Ernest Leland, Jr., James Grover and Lacy Howell who died in Atlanta at two and a half years of age. Ernest Leland, Jr., was killed in Germany in the Second World War.

While he was at Wilson, North Carolina, Mr. Flanagan served on the board of trustees of Davidson College; and while he was in Atlanta he served on the board of Thornwell Orphanage in South Carolina.

In 1941 Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan moved to Davidson, North Carolina, with the purpose of educating their boys at the College; but the Second World War disrupted their plans, the boys were soon in the armed forces of the nation and they moved back to the farm at Clover, South Carolina in 1942. Here he suffered a fatal heart attack on November 10, 1954. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Arrowood, a boyhood friend of Mr. Flanagan, Rev. W. H. Bowman of Clover and Rev. David H. Coblenz of Bethel; and Leland was laid to rest among his fathers in the quiet peace of that lovely churchyard where he and they await the coming of the Lord in His glory.

"For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

"Report of the special committee to make arrangements for the discussion and consideration of the Assembly's Action on Church Union referred to Mecklenburg Presbytery."

Your special committee has had several meetings and has given most careful consideration to the responsibility assigned to it. We would make the following recommendations:

1. That the Presbytery engage in a discussion of the matter of Church Union with speakers being heard alternately for each side as far as possible.
2. That each side be allowed a total of sixty minutes, if they so desire, before a call for the question will be in order.
3. That each speaker speak only once for a time not exceeding ten minutes.
4. That the Reverend Warner Hall be heard as the first speaker for Union, and that Elder Angus Shaw be heard as the first speaker against Union.
5. That the parliamentary law forbidding discussion after the call for the question be set aside and that the following apply in this case: After the call for the question has been acted on by the Presbytery, the Reverend James A. Jones be heard for not exceeding fifteen minutes as the closing speaker for Union, and that the Reverend C. G.

McClure be heard for not exceeding fifteen minutes as the closing speaker against Union. No other speakers are to be heard and no further discussion is to be allowed after the call for the question.

6. That Presbytery vote by roll call from the enrollment cards without designation of church or office. After the close of the debate the Presbytery engage in a season of silent prayer to be closed by the Moderator, after which the vote will be taken without further discussion or debate from the floor.

7. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the traveling expenses of Dr. L. Nelson Bell, Mr. Paul Hastings, and Mr. Halbert Jones who led the discussions in the popular meetings sponsored by this committee.

Respectfully submitted,

A motion was made granting the right to commissioners officially excused by Presbytery before recess for lunch to cast their ballots before leaving the session for the day. Presbytery recessed for lunch as it was led in prayer by Dr. J. W. Grier.

The categorical question was read by the Moderator, after which Presbytery engaged in a season of silent prayer concluded by a prayer by the Moderator. A roll call vote by secret ballot was taken. A committee of tellers of which the Rev. A. Leslie Thompson was chairman, was ap-

The Two Hundred Eighth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

First Presbyterian Church
Monroe, N. C.
April 12, 1955

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Eighth Stated Session in the First Presbyterian Church, Monroe, N. C., at 9 a.m. on the above date.

The Rev. Russell M. Kerr, the Moderator, presided and led the opening worship, assisted by the Rev. H. D. Hayward. The sermon on "Sonship" was based on text in Ephesians 1:5. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was celebrated under the leadership of Rev. W. M. Boyce and Rev. David Wilkinson assisted by the elders of the churches of Presbytery.

The following Memorial to Rev. T. H. Mitchell, prepared by the Rev. Q. N. Huneycutt, was read by the Rev. Fred Debele, Jr., and adopted.

Thomas Harvel Mitchell was born in Boston, Kentucky, on July 14, 1889. He and his sister Lily were educated at home by their school-teacher parents, Joel Tunstall Mitchell and Mary Mitchell. As the father moved about the home missions of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., Thomas acquired his secondary schooling in various academies and boarding schools. He attended Missouri State Normal, Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., and obtained his A.B. degree from Maryville College at Maryville, Tennessee, in 1915, having taught school for a number of years to obtain money to finish his education.

Tom served in France during World War I, and after returning home he spent most of his time for the next few years in Veterans hospitals.

In 1922 he entered Princeton Seminary from which he graduated in 1925. In May 1924 he was married to Esther Mary Kell, whom he had known since Maryville days. He was ordained in 1927 by Concord Presbytery as an evangelist. He served in the Presbyterian Church, U. S., until 1931 when he received a call to Mineral Ridge, Ohio, in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. In 1936 at the time of the conflict in the Northern Church he withdrew and became a minister in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church, serving the church in Youngstown, Ohio.

In 1938 he returned to North Carolina and served a field in Mecklenburg Presbytery, consisting of Bethlehem, Peachland and Polkton.

He became connected with the N. C. State Board of Health in 1942 and served in a supervisory capacity in the offices in Raleigh until his death, December 8, 1954.

He and Mrs. Mitchell have two sons, John, dean of boys in the Durham City High School, and Robert, an assistant editor on the "Raleigh Times."

Mr. Mitchell was a very thorough, painstaking man, endeavoring to do a good job with any task assigned to him. He was a tireless worker, and was always zealous that truth be kept from error. With his passing the Presbyterian Church has lost a staunch friend.

The history of the First Presbyterian Church of Monroe was read by Mrs. William J. Brewer and was adopted.

HISTORY OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MONROE, NORTH CAROLINA

The early History of Presbyterianism in Monroe is incomplete, as no permanent records can be found. It is known that somewhere between 1850-1855 a Presbyterian Church was organized in Monroe with 12 members and that D. F. Hardin, Aaron Stegall, F. C. Williams and Mr. Alexander were elected Elders. A short time before this church was organized a new county called Union County was formed from parts of Mecklenburg and Anson, with Monroe as the county seat. The Monroe church being organized in a new town was for some reason permitted to die. And for 20 years or more there was no Presbyterian Church in Monroe, and only one small country church in the county. During this period came the War between the States when the South was almost depleted of men and many of our college boys and older school boys were called to the colors, and following the war it endured the humiliating and harassing days of reconstruction. During these dark days it really seemed that if there ever was an opportunity for Presbyterianism in Union County that day had passed.

The field appeared to be thoroughly occupied with other denominations. But the growth of Monroe, the building of new railways, the springing up of new towns along these lines, the incoming of Presbyterians seeking business and homes, ushered in a brighter day for a church here.

Mr. Legette Blythe in his book, "William Henry Belk—Merchant of the South" says Mr. Belk as a child attended Old Tirzah A. R. P. Church, near the Belk home.

A dispute arose in the church, cause unknown. The pastor, Dr. Robinson, decided the thing to do was to turn over to the regular Presbyterian Church, and about two-thirds of the members were in accord with the pastor. So Old Tirzah became a Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Belk, mother of W. H. Belk, was very happy.

There was not a Presbyterian Church in Union County when the Belk family moved to Monroe. There were a few Presbyterians in Monroe at that time. Mr. Belk's mother, Mrs. Sarah Walkup Belk Simpson, started a Sunday School with the help of Dr. Daniel A. Penick, and later a church was organized with 17 members.

With a view of reorganizing a Presbyterian Church in Monroe, occasional preaching services were held during the years 1870-1873, by Dr. Daniel A. Penick of Rocky River Presbyterian Church of the Concord Presbytery, Rev. W. M. McDonald of Philadelphia Church, and Rev. R. Z. Johnson of Providence Presbyterian Church.

In early of 1873 the Mecklenburg Presbytery appointed the Rev. S. C. Alexander to organize a church in Monroe. The Church was organized September 26, 1873, and today our church is the oldest church organized by Mecklenburg Presbytery; not the first, but oldest, as the first church organized is not now in existence.

The Rev. S. C. Alexander was engaged for one-fourth of his time. Col. Samuel H. Walkup, and W. M. H. Fitzgerald, were elected Elders and they with 11 other members were not slow in securing a house for worship. The Methodist Episcopal Church offered to sell their building, a small one-room house located on the present site, for a sum of $1,300.00. The Elders, with a few other members, gave their individual note for the property. When the note became due these individuals with a little help from Presbytery paid off the note and had the property conveyed to themselves. It was almost two years later before the title was formally made to the trustees of the church.

Where the Presbyterians held services and Sunday School before they purchased the little church from the Methodists is a supposition. Likely in the homes, too they might have gone to Tirzah or Old Union. Miss Minnie Simpson, one of our oldest members, says the oldest Presbyterian Church in Union County was the Old Union Presbyterian Church, and was located not far from Bethlehem Presbyterian Church on the Concord highway. Miss Minnie's father attended Old Union Church when he was a boy, and he was born in 1809.

Bethlehem is a granddaughter of Old Union, a few generations removed. As an indication of the terrible struggle this new church had to undergo it is necessary to show its growth under its different pastors for its 25 years of existence. During the administration of its first pastor, the Rev. S. C. Alexander, from 1873-1877, the membership was increased from 13 to 36. Some of the members were Mr. W. H. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Trott, Mr. W. H. Simpson, Mrs. Lucinda Simpson, Mr. Samuel H. Walkup, Mrs. Sarah N. Simpson, Mrs. Isabella Austin, Mrs. Cynthia McLellan, Mrs. J. F. Hilton, Mr. Jasper Swann, Mr. John R. Simpson, Mr. Enoch Yandle, Mr. James F. Austin, and Miss Sallie Simpson. Eleven of these came from other Presbyterian Churches and were received by certificate and five on profession of faith. In January 1875 Mecklenburg Presbytery paid to the Committee the sum of $800.00, and the title was formally made on the 30th of January to the trustees of the Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. R. A. Miller who was compelled to resign on account of ill health after serving the church seven years, from 1877-1884, received into the church 64 communicants, but due to removal by dismissal and death the membership of the church was not greatly increased.

The Rev. P. R. Law was next called and served until the latter part of 1887. Thirty-four were received into the church during his pastorate. During this pastorate the frame manse was built which burned while the Rev. D. P. McGeachy was pastor of the church. The Rev. C. W. Robinson entered upon the work as pastor early in the year 1888 and continued until June 1890, when he was called to another field. Thirty-eight members were received during his pastorate. The church was without a pastor from June 1890-1891, when the Rev. H. M. Dixon was called from evangelistic work in Charleston Presbytery to this his first pastoral work. He entered upon the work in May 1891 and continued through 1902. During his ministry 112 members were added, but the church during his administration, as well as those who preceded him, lost heavily through death and dismissal, and the report sent to Presbytery for that year showed only 86 members living within its bounds.

About this period in our church history the South was fast returning to normal. Progress was showing on every hand. Its merchants and business enterprises were able to accumulate surpluses and especially was this true in this section. This being true, Mr. Dixon, with his Session and Board of Deacons, began laying plans for the erection of a new church building. The following members were appointed as the Building Committee of the new church: R. A. Morrow, chairman; Dr. J. M. Belk, treasurer; S. O. Blair, secretary; W. A. Lane, C. H. Polly, S. B. Hart, G. W. Van Pelt, and Rev. H. M. Dixon. Today this church stands as a memorial of the planning and untiring efforts of Rev. H. M. Dixon, his official boards, and the membership of 96 loyal workers.

The history would not be complete if it were not made known that the beautiful chandeliers in the building were gifts of a faithful and devoted woman of the church, Mrs. Ellen Elizabeth Fitzgerald, at a cost of $500.00. Her name is commemorated today by the beautiful hospital of our city, which bears her name. Rev. H. M. Dixon was succeeded by Rev. George H. Atkinson, who served the church for five years, 1903-1909. All bear witness to his fidelity, his energy, and his enterprise, for it was during his ministry that the debt of the new church was paid off and the building dedicated to the glory of God, April 8, 1906.

Rev. George F. Roberson supplied for about a year when Rev. R. F. Kirkpatrick was called. He served about two years, 1910-1912. Much construction work was done during his ministry. The church is indebted to his energy and enthusiasm for the pipe organ, which was installed during his administration. He was called to the Second Presbyterian Church of Memphis, Tenn., the part of 1912. He was succeeded by Dr. H. E. Gurney who was faithful to every phase of the work. He served the church 11 years, 1912-1923. Rev. W. B. S. Chandler was called in the early part of the year 1923. The church can point with pride to his splendid record. The first four years showed an increase in membership of 154, and other years showed substantial gains. Our Sunday School Building stands as a memorial to the planning of Rev. Chandler and his faithful and loyal Building Committee. In the fall of 1932 Mr. Chandler was stricken with paralysis and was not able to carry on his work. He resigned his pastorate April 1, 1933. As a tribute to his faithful service, he was voted an honorarium of $100.00 per month for one year.

He was succeeded by Rev. D. P. McGeachy. The congregation continued to grow in numbers, and we trust in the warm and glowing graces of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. The new brick manse was built during Rev. McGeachy's pastorate. The debt on the Educational building was paid during this pastorate also. Rev. McGeachy was called to Peace Memorial Presbyterian in Clearwater, Fla., March 1943, thereby leaving the church without a pastor until September 1943. When Rev. Robert Turner was called. The congregation continued to grow during the short pastorate of this loyal and faithful servant of God. An outstanding feature of his administration was the adoption of the Rotary System of election of Deacons. Another feature was the morale of soldiers at Camp Sutton, and entertainment of the soldiers in our recreation center.

The Rev. Robert Turner resigned to accept work as Secretary of Concord Presbytery and left January 1, 1945.

His successor, Dr. R. F. Whitley, entered upon his work as pastor, June 1, 1945. Perhaps the most outstanding feature of the present pastorate is the emphasis placed upon the young people. Five groups meet each Sunday evening with a combined enrollment of eighty-six and an average of twelve adult workers. These young people are attending church services in large numbers. Special series of sermons are preached to them each February, special groups invited, and the church has a period of fellowship for them. The regular church attendance has increased during the present pastorate, one-third in the morning service, and has more than doubled in the evening services.

The physical improvements of the Sunday School have been outstanding. The top floor of the education building has been done over, the whole building has been redecorated, and $5,000.00 spent in one year on the kitchen, and the establishing of a nursery.

The budget has been increased from $12,000.00 in 1945 to over $24,000.00 in the past year. The report this year will total over $30,000.00, expended to all causes.

A building fund has been established and over $26,000.00 has been saved up in the regular budget.

The church has received into its membership during the present pastorate 389 new members. This is a net increase of 135. We had 416 members in 1945 and have at present 551.

The Sunday School is under capable and faithful leadership and teachers. The completion of the new Sunday School building in 1931 has enabled us to do departmental work. It has increased social activities of the church.

Highlights for 1953-54

Our church has been blessed materially and spiritually during these two years. The average attendance at the services has been more than in the previous year. The sanctuary was outgrown, which necessitated the complete renovation of the Annex. The Board of Deacons with some friends purchased pews, refinished them, and installed them for additional seating space. They painted the Annex and put down a new carpet. They paid for this work outside the church budget at a cost of $1,500.00. A public address system was then installed to insure everyone hearing distinctly.

During the past two years 91 members have been received into the church, 34 on profession of faith, and half of these have been grown people and heads of families.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL is bursting at the seams. It needs more class room space now. The enrollment reached an all-time high during the year, 450. The building was painted and the equipment was brought up to date. The Sunday School expended $2,400.00 during the past year.

THE WOMEN OF THE CHURCH had their best report yet during the past year. Most of their $2,300.00 of contributions went to benevolences. Over and above their regular budget they established scholarships for our two ministerial students now in college, furnished a double room at Presbyterian Home in High Point, and contributed about $500 to local congregational benevolences.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE have five groups meeting now in expanded sessions in the evening. Their evening enrollment is about 90 and have an average attendance of about 70. The Senior Girls have formed a Vesper Choir and sing for the evening services where the congregation is made up of more than half with young people. Five ministers have gone out from these groups in the past ten years.

THE FINANCES of the church are in excellent condition. The budget last year was $24,000.00. It contributed $34,040.00. Benevolences got $11,009. The building fund amounts now to $56,000.00 at maturity. The budget for 1955 has been subscribed. The people are generous and are responding magnificently to the future needs of the work.

As to the past, we can say "Truly the Lord hath done great things for us, wherefore we are glad." As to the future, it is our prayer that we continue, to devote our resources, and to proceed unafraid, and to make Christ and His Church first.

The Commission of Presbytery appointed to install the Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson as pastor of the Tenth Avenue Church met in the office of the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Charlotte at 6:45 p.m., Sunday night, January 30, 1955.

All the members of the commission were present, to wit: Rev. Robert P. Turner, Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence, Mr. B. S. Gray, Mr. David Kimbrell, and Dr. Roy E. Hoke.

Rev. Turner presided and Dr. Roy E. Hoke was elected clerk. The meeting opened with prayer. Each member present was briefed as to his part in the service. The Commission then repaired to the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church for the installation service. Due to the fact that the sanctuary of the Tenth Avenue Church had been destroyed by fire a week earlier, the kind offer of the First Church to use their sanctuary for the installation of Rev. Williamson had been accepted by his congregation.

The service began at 7 p.m. The Rev. Turner led in the prayer of invocation and the Lord Prayer. He also read the scripture lesson.

The sermon—"The Church of God"—was delivered by Dr. Lawrence. The constitutional questions to the congregation and pastor were propounded by Dr. Hoke. After all the questions had been answered in the affirmative, Rev. Turner made the declaration of installation. The charge to the pastor was given by Mr. B. S. Gray; the charge to the congregation was delivered by Mr. David Kimbrell. Rev. Turner offered the installation prayer. The pastor, Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, pronounced the benediction.

At the close of the service a large congregation came forward to greet the new pastor, his wife and children, and all the members of the Commission.

After the close of the service, the commission retired to the office of the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in the old Manse. The minutes of the meeting were read and approved. Dr. Lawrence led in prayer as the Commission adjourned.

2. To Install the Rev. E. L. Stoffel.

After the prayer by Dr. J. A. Jones, the Commission elected Dr. Sparrow moderator of the Commission and Dr. Lawrence Stell as clerk of the Commission. The parts of the installation were assigned. The Commission took recess to the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church for the worship service and for the actual installation. During that service, Dr. Tom Sparrow presided. Mr. W. E. Price led in prayer. The scripture and sermon were delivered by Dr. Lawrence Stell on the theme, "The Man and His Message." The constitutional questions and declaration of installation were given by Dr. Sparrow. Dr. Warner Hall charged the congregation and delivered the installation prayer. Dr. Stoffel concluded the service with the benediction.

Following the service, the Commission met and approved the minutes of the commission. The transactions of the Commission were concluded with prayer by Dr. J. A. Jones.

Report of the Committee on Ministerial Education—The Committee on Ministerial Education made the following report which was adopted.

Your Committee on Ministerial Education wishes to report that Mecklenburg Presbytery now has 46 candidates under her care preparing for the Gospel Ministry. Twenty-one are in college, 18 in seminary, three in service, and four in an inactive status.

The grades and comments from the colleges and seminaries in which these men are studying have been exceptionally good during the past school year. With few exceptions all have written an annual report to the Committee telling of their school and field work experiences.

We would again emphasize to each minister and elder the need for constantly challenging our youth with the call to the Gospel ministry and to Christian lay-service!

The following men have transferred their candidacy from Mecklenburg Presbytery:

Robert Lee Combs—to Albemarle Presbytery.

George H. V. Hunter—to Fayetteville Presbytery.

Thomas Allen Little, Jr.—to Potomac Presbytery.

The committee presents the following men who are asking to be received as candidates for the ministry under care of Mecklenburg Presbytery:

1. Mr. Samuel Monroe Busch, a member of the Pageland Presbyterian Church. He is a business man, has attended the University of South Carolina and is presently attending Union Theological Seminary. He is married and has one child.

2. Mr. John Weaver Campbell, a member of the Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian Church. He is a student at Charlotte College and plans to take his theological training at Union Seminary.

3. Mr. William Barney Huntley, a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. He graduates from Duke University this spring and plans to enter the service of our country and then to seminary.

4. Mr. Frank Blair Turner, a member of the Trinity Presbyterian Church. He is a student at Queens College and plans on taking his theological work at Union Seminary.

5. Mr. Donald Reid Wilson, is a member of the Plaza Presbyterian Church. He is graduating from Central High School this spring and will enter college this fall.

Your Committee recommends that these men be examined for enrollment as candidates for the Gospel ministry.

With regards to Mr. Busch, we recommend that he be received as a candidate for the ministry under the extraordinary case clause and that he be admitted to Union Seminary as a special student to take at least two years of study there. We further recommend that in the light of some preparation toward his college degree, he seek out ways and means whereby he can, during the summers while at seminary, complete his college work—probably at the University of Richmond—and that, if it is possible for him to complete his college work that he take the full three years of seminary work leading to his divinity degree.

The Committee on Ministerial Education would also present:

Mr. W. N. Clark, Mr. Leighton S. Ford, Mr. William D. Lively, Mr. Joe S. McClure and Mr. Edward A. McLeod.

Mr. W. N. Clark graduates from Union Seminary this spring and comes to Mecklenburg Presbytery by transfer of his candidacy from Albemarle Presbytery. His thesis: "The Meaning of Joy" and his exegesis on Romans 5:12-14 have both been found to be well presented.

Mr. Clark has been called to the Mt. Gilead Presbyterian Church.

Mr. William D. Lively has completed two years of study at Union Seminary as a special student under the extraordinary case clause and comes to Mecklenburg Presbytery by transfer of his candidacy from Bluestone Presbytery. His thesis on "The Free Will of Man" has been reviewed and is well thought out. Being a special student, the exegesis is not required.

Mr. Lively has been called to the Brainard Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Joe Stuart McClure graduates from Union Seminary this spring. His parts for trial have all been found well prepared and interestingly presented. His thesis is on "The Roll of Agape in the Ministry of Christ;" his exegesis is on Romans 5:12-14.

Mr. McClure has been called to the Huntersville Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Edward Armand McLeod graduates from Union Seminary this spring and comes to Mecklenburg Presbytery by transfer of candidacy from Fayetteville Presbytery. His thesis on "Saving Faith" and his exegesis on the Romans 5:12-14 passage are of good content and well presented.

Mr. McLeod has been called to the Morven and Camden Presbyterian Churches.

Mr. Leighton S. Ford graduates from Columbia Seminary this spring and comes to Mecklenburg Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry by transfer from the Canadian Presbyterian Church.

His thesis on "The Testimony of Luke's Gospel to the Divinity of Christ" and his exegesis of Philippians 2:25-30 are both splendidly prepared and presented. His sermon "The Work of the Holy Spirit" is from Acts 1, 2:1-11.

Mr. Ford is seeking ordination as an evangelist at this meeting of Presbytery in order that he may join the Billy Graham team in Scotland immediately.

Your Committee presents the following recommendations:

1. That Mecklenburg Presbytery proceed to the examination of these men for licensure and that Mr. Leighton S. Ford be ordained as an evangelist.

2. That the rules of Presbytery be set aside relative to the preaching of a sermon by each of the candidates at the time of their examination for licensure and that candidates W. N. Clark, W. D. Lively, J. S. McClure and E. A. McLeod preach their sermons at the time of their ordination before the respective commissions of Presbytery.

3. That Presbytery hear the sermon of Candidate Leighton S. Ford as a part of trial for his ordination.

G. Dana Waters, Chmn.

Clark, Jr., who was received into the Presbytery as a Candidate for the Gospel Ministry from Albemarle Presbytery; Mr. Leighton S. Ford, Presbytery of Chatham, Chatham Presbyterian Church in Canada; Mr. Edward A. McLeod, received as a Candidate from Fayetteville Presbytery; Mr. Joe S. McClure, and Mr. William D. Lively, a Candidate transferred from Bluestone Presbytery. On motion of the Chairman of Ministerial Education, the candidates were then examined in accordance with the Book of Church Order.

Recess for Lunch—The hour arriving set for lunch, Presbytery was led in prayer by Rev. W. M. Walsh and recessed at 12:30 p.m. until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Presbytery reconvened at 1:30 and after the singing of a hymn and a prayer led by the Rev. Tom McLean, a motion was made rescinding the action on the order of business after lunch in regard to the order of the day after lunch to permit the hearing of the sermon of Mr. Leighton S. Ford as a part of his trial for ordination.

Moderator Nominated—The Rev. Shelton M. Hutchison was elected as Moderator-in-Nomination for the summer session of Presbytery. The Rev. Leslie Thompson made a report of the Bi-centennial Committee for the celebration of Presbyterianism in Mecklenburg to be held June 14, 15, 16th. The report was received as information.

Mr. George Stovall, President of the Men of Presbytery, reported on the coming meeting of the Men of the Synod, to be held June 10, 11, 12th at Davidson College.

The Rev. Warner L. Hall spoke on behalf of the Board of Church Extension, Division of Negro Work, urging payment of pledges made by churches to the Negro Work campaign in order that the challenge fund might be claimed by the specified time.

Examination Continued—The examination of the Candidates for Licensure and Ordination was resumed after Lunch. The motion was made that the examination of the candidates thus far be sustained. The motion then prevailed that the rules of the Presbytery be set aside in the case of the men other than Mr. Ford and that they be allowed to preach their trial sermons at the time of their ordination and installation before the respective commissions appointed.

A motion was made that Presbytery proceed to the licensure and ordination of Mr. Ford, and that his trial for licensure be accepted in lieu of the trial for ordination. The Moderator then propounded the constitutional questions in accordance with the Book of Church Order. After the laying on of hands by members of Presbytery, the prayer of ordination was led by the Rev. Dwight L. Barker. The Moderator then declared that Mr. Leighton S. Ford was duly ordained as an Evangelist.

A motion was made that the Committee on Ministerial Education bring in a recommendation concerning the hearing of candidates' sermons. It was also ordered by Presbytery that the Committee on Ministerial Education study the matter of the examination of Candidates for licensure and ordination with reference to reducing the amount of time required.

Petition for Church on South Tryon Presented—A petition containing 100 or more names for the organization of a church on South Tryon was presented. A motion was then made to appoint a Commission to organize a church on South Tryon. The Moderator then appointed the following to serve as a Commission to organize a church at South Tryon on the Sunday following occupancy: Dr. Cecil Lawrence, Chairman; Rev. D. E. Wilkinson, Rev. R. H. Stone, Mr. W. E. Price, Mr. C. M. Hassell, Mr. Jones Pharr, and Mr. Rufus A. Grier.

Report of Church Extension Committee—The report of Committee on Church Extension consisted of four parts, consisting of the reports and recommendations of its four sub-committees, viz. Christian relations, Evangelism, Radio and TV, and Home Missions. The report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN RELATIONS

This sub-committee consists of two members without a chairman, the former chairman having removed from the bounds of Presbytery. The following provisional report is presented, herewith, to the larger committee of which we are a part.

Furthermore, in connection with the recommendations of this report adopted by Synod your sub-committee makes its own recommendations to Presbytery:

1. That Synod's Committee's recommendation number two be followed; namely, that at some meeting of Presbytery this year thirty minutes be set aside for a discussion of the alcohol question at the level of our local churches and, in addition, that Rev. Sam Inman be invited to lead the discussion. Your Committee suggests the summer meeting of Presbytery as appropriate.
2. That Synod's Committee's recommendation number four be followed; namely, that our directors of summer camps at Camp Stewart be requested to give to the campers a briefing on the alcohol question during the course of instruction at the Camp this summer.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

During 1954 your Sub-Committee on Evangelism has been ready to help churches in need of evangelistic preachers. Members of our committee have personally conducted a number of meetings and have been given the privilege of counseling with pastors.

We followed your suggestion for an exchange of pulpits in the counties outside Mecklenburg County. The majority of the ministers did not approve of the plan. Our plans for a Presbytery-wide conference on Evangelism were merged with those of the Synod's Committee on Evangelism which culminated in the regional conference held in the Myers Park Church. We promoted this widely.

For the evangelistic exchange and for future evangelistic meetings we have carried in the Presbytery's office the supplies needed.

We recommend:

1. That the churches which have had special services follow them up with a continuous program of evangelism.
2. That each church which has not had an evangelistic meeting plan for one; that thorough spiritual preparation be made for it and that a minister who can best lead people to the Saviour be secured.
3. That all churches not now enrolled in the "Forward with Christ" program consider making it one of major emphasis in the life and work of the Church.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON RADIO AND TV

In the interest of the promotion of the "Forward with Christ" program, this committee worked in cooperation with the Sub-Committee on Home Missions in arranging weekly broadcasts of Presbyterian messages over radio station WSOC in Charlotte and over the stations in Aibemarle, Rockingham, Wadesboro and Monroe. There was complete coverage.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

Your Sub-Committee on Home Missions respectfully submits the following report for the year 1954. Under the blessing of God there was progress: of the 414 people received into the churches, to which a salary supplement is made, 133 came by profession of faith and 281 came by certificate or reaffirmation. The W. H. Belk Church and the Forest Hill Church were organized. The sanctuary at the W. H. Belk Church was completed. We made a contribution to the W. H. Belk Manse, which was also completed. Because of the phenomenal growth in the Sunday School there an adjoining house was purchased for use of Religious Education.

Aid was given to the Camden Church to add to the usefulness of their church, to the McQuay Church to construct a manse, to the Turner Church to build a manse, helped make a down payment for the new location for the Brainerd Church, to the North Charlotte Church to assist in their manse payments.

We are grateful for the support of the churches. Our income from benevolences was $55,962.32, or practically 70% of the amount for which we were in the budget. The Erdman Love Chapel property was sold for $7,000.

Your Committee financed the work of the Minister to the Hospitals, shared part of the cost of printing The Mecklenburg Presbyterian, raised a Vacation Fund of $729.50; $42,867.00 was expended for salaries.

We are pleased to report that as of January 1, 1955, the following churches came to full self-support: McQuay Memorial, Rev. M. Bland Dudley, pastor; Locust-Indian Hill Presbyterian Churches, Rev. Crawford White, pastor; and the Biscoe-Star group, of which Rev. F. C. Wilkinson is pastor.

During the year there was in the Church and Manse Building Fund $6,874.37, of which $4,362.99 was disbursed as follows: The W. H. Belk Church, $300.00; The W. H. Belk Manse, $1,355.33; The McQuay Memorial Manse, $1,275.83. The remainder is being held for the Forest Hill Church and manse. A study of the financial report will reveal other activities of Kingdom progress in which we have been engaged.

New fields of opportunity have been surveyed and construction was begun on the church for Negroes at 2516 South Tryon Street. Your Committee as a whole and in special committees renders aid and counsel to officers, pastors and lay workers of our constituent churches. We anticipate the petition for organization of the church within the immediate future.

Through you we covet and ask for the prayers and continued support of the individuals and churches of the Presbytery as we face golden and ever-increasing opportunities for extending the Church of Jesus Christ.

The Home Mission Committee would make the following recommendations.

1. That the trustees of the Presbytery be authorized to convey to the trustees of the Star Presbyterian Church, Star, N. C., our property on which the Star Presbyterian Church is built, said property being registered in Book 104 of Deeds, on page 80 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Montgomery County. (Signed) H. D. Hayward, Chmn.

In answer to the proposed campaign goal of $400,000 for Mecklenburg Presbytery in a Synod wide campaign for Church Extension, a motion was made asking Synod's Committee on Church Extension to present a campaign for funds for specific amounts for specific projects. The motion also conveyed the sincere desire to express to Synod the Presbytery's continued interest in this matter.

Presbytery's Council—The report of Presbytery's Council was made and adopted with recommendations as follows:

1. That Presbytery meet on September 20 instead of the usual

October date. We further recommend that the manual be changed to make the date of the fall meeting of Presbytery the third Tuesday of September instead of the third Tuesday of October.

2. That the audit of all funds handled by Presbytery's office be approved.

Report of Sub-Committee on Woman's Work—The Rev. Robert W. Rayburn presented Mrs. R. A. Willis, Jr., 2nd Vice President of the Women of Presbytery, who made the report for Mrs. Boyce Hunter, President of the Women of the Presbytery. The report was received as information and the women commended for their service in the Church.

Report of Committee on Bills and Overtures—The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended the adoption of an overture presented by the Commission on the Minister and His work to the General Assembly relative to the work of our Board of Annuities and Relief. The recommendation was adopted.

The request of nine churches of Mecklenburg Presbytery asking the General Assembly to discontinue the Committee on Co-operation and Union was answered in the negative. The recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was sustained by Presbytery.

Committee on Resolutions—The report of the Resolutions Committee was read and adopted.

Mecklenburg Presbytery meeting in its 208th Stated Session at First Church, Monroe, Tuesday, April 12, 1955, expresses its gratitude to the host pastor, the Reverend Dr. Roy F. Whitley, the church staff, especially Mrs. Walter A. Henderson, church secretary, the officers, and to the congregation for their gracious invitation and for the very fine way in which they provided for our every need.

Presbytery also wishes to thank Mrs. Robert Iceman and Mrs. Wm. J. Brewer for leading us in worship in music. Also, we would thank Mrs. Brewer for her expressive reading of the interesting and well written history of the church.

We would commend the leadership of the church for the position which it holds and exercises in the community, for the vitality of its program, for the alert intelligence which is evident in the way in which the work of the Church of Jesus Christ is done in this place.

We are grateful to Mrs. Clegg Seli, president of the Women of the Church, and her committee for a delicious lunch, graciously and beautifully served.

We thank the people as a whole for the hospitable way in which we were received, for the "pauses that refreshed," for the courteous way in which they placed at our disposal their buildings, grounds and themselves. We appreciate this service of love to Presbytery.

This committee wishes Presbytery to note that since lunch was served in the basement of the church school building we should, by a rising vote, express our indebtedness to the church that, before our visit, the leaks were fixed.

Presbytery requests the pastor to pass these sentiments on to his people.

Presbytery hereby expresses its gratitude to God for the quality of character of young manhood now entering the Gospel ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ evidenced in the candidates received under our care this day and those examined with view to their licensure and ordination.

J. N. Stribling
Geo. A. Fletcher
H. P. Cathey
S. Wylie Hogue, Jr., Chmn.

Committee on Synod's Minutes—The Committee appointed on Synod's Minutes made a verbal report which was received as information.

A letter from the Board of Annuities and Relief containing pertinent facts and information was read by Rev. R. A. Young. Rev. Lawrence I. Stell reported that a number of churches had not as yet been enrolled in the "Forward with Christ" Program. Those not having done so were urged to do so.

Proposed Amendments to the Book of Church Order—The Presbytery approved the following amendments to the Book of Church Order: Amendment to Paragraph 126, Paragraph 232, Paragraph 147, and Amendment to become Paragraph 145A. The Amendment to become a new Chapter on the Book of Church Order on the Certification of Directors of Christian Education was defeated.

Place of Next Meeting—The place of the next meeting of Presbytery is Camp Stewart, July 19th.

The Presbytery voted to adjourn.

The Minutes were read and adopted as amended.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer led by the Moderator to meet 9 a.m. July 19, at Camp Stewart, Charlotte, N. C.

Report of Presbytery's Special Committee on 200th Anniversary Celebration—The special Committee of Presbytery appointed to arrange for the 200th Anniversary celebration or organized Presbyterianism in this section made the following report which was adopted. Members of the Committee were presented to the Presbytery and commended for their outstanding work.

Presbytery's Committee appointed to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of organized Presbyterianism in present Mecklenburg County is happy to report the successful staging of the historical drama, "Voice in the Wilderness" by Dr. LeGette Blythe, depicting the rise and growth of Presbyterianism in early Mecklenburg in its struggle for religious and political independence.

It is estimated that twenty thousand attended the four performances at Southern States Fair Ground on June 14, 15, 16 and 19. More than two hundred persons served on committees and approximately four hundred were in the cast.

We are grateful to the churches which supported the undertaking financially, and to all individuals who had a part in the production. Professor John Richards McCrae of Converse College selected and trained the cast and directed the magnificent spectacle. Mrs. Lillie B. Smith was in charge of the costuming. We are indebted to these and those in the cast for devoting their time and their talents in making the drama a success.

We rejoice that Sugaw Creek is planning to observe this fall its two hundredth anniversary and we would commend to the other colonial churches—Hopewell, Steele Creek, Providence and Philadelphia—that they take steps to follow the lead of Sugaw Creek and fittingly celebrating their bi-centennial.

Our financial report is incomplete for a few bills have not yet been presented. We request that the committee be continued until a final report may be made later to Presbytery. We still have a balance in the treasury.

We are especially indebted to the following without whose help the pageant could not have been produced:

LeGette Blythe for his genius in conceiving and his master hand in writing the script; Kenneth W. Whitsett for his artistry in giving life and color to the past; Roy W. Robinson for his careful supervision of the lighting and sound effects; J. B. Kuykendall for his superb handling of publicity; John McDowell, for being "Johnnie-on-the-Spot" in co-ordinating the scenes; Donald Francis MacDonald for his suggesting our director and for his assistance to him; Rev. A. Leslie Thompson for promoting the religious phase of the drama by contacting the churches; Professor Donald Plott of Davidson College and the choir for their rendition of the sweet music of the Psalms in the traditional Rouse's version; A. Grant Whitney, Chairman of Executive Committee, for his attention to details and his keeping the group in perfect accord; and last but not least, Dr. R. H. Stone for his vision in promoting the observance and making his dream become a reality.

We crave the privilege of introducing to Presbytery, and having Presbytery officially recognize these persons whose labor and love made possible the wonderful historical drama and whose remuneration and reward will be only your thanks and the satisfaction of a job well done.

R. A. Grier, Chairman

We recommend that this matter be referred to the Trustees of the Presbytery with full authority to act for the Presbytery in such manner as in their judgment seem wise.

The Two Hundred Tenth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
September 20, 1955

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Tenth Stated Meeting in the Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Moderator, the Rev. Sheldon M. Hutchison led the opening worship and preached the opening sermon based on Ephesians 4:1-16 on the subject "Ecclesiastical Nomenclature."

HISTORY OF THE SUGAW CREEK CHURCH

A copy of "A History of the Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church" by Rev. Neil R. McGeachy was presented to Presbytery by the host Pastor, the Rev. Leslie Thompson. In lieu of a full account of the two hundred years-long history of the Sugaw Creek Church, the pastor presented Mr. L. P. Hunter who gave a resumé of the past ten years. It is as follows:

Since a great deal of the history of Sugaw Creek Church has already been presented in recent months in the historical pageant, "Voice in the Wilderness," and Reverend Neill R. McGeachy's A History of the Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church, my history will briefly cover the past ten years.

Early in January, 1945, Reverend Neill McGeachy announced to the officers of Sugaw Creek that he was accepting a call to the First Presbyterian Church, Statesville, North Carolina.

After losing a pastor who had served us well through most of the trying years of World War II, we now set out to find another leader for our congregation. Our search came to a happy conclusion with the acceptance of a call from our congregation by our present pastor, the Reverend A. Leslie Thompson, who with his wife and two children moved to Sugaw Creek in May, 1945.

While our Pulpit Committee searched for a new pastor we completely renovated the Sugaw Creek Manse from top to bottom at a cost of approximately twelve thousand dollars. From time to time we have made additions and necessary repairs to our manse.

Within the past ten years we have covered with new roofing all of the buildings on the church property. We have built a modern Boy Scout Hut at the rear of a large play area.

The old Session House on our grounds, where many of our elderly members attended school, has been remodeled within the past ten years, and used as a Sunday School classroom.

Because of the pressing need for Sunday School space in 1946, we built a temporary Adult Educational Building at a cost of about three thousand dollars.

During the year 1948 we constructed choir elevations for both Junior and Senior Chords. Within the ten years covered by this report we have installed a memorial organ and chimes to the memory of those sons of Sugaw Creek who gave their lives for our country.

All groups of our church are organized and our music department has made great progress under the leadership of choir directors and musicians employed by our church.

Our Women of the Church are well organized with thirteen circles and have, on more than one occasion in the past decade, shown the men how to get things done. They conduct Scripture study courses and Bible lectures for the whole congregation.

Our deacons within the last few years have installed the rotary system, and report good results. Our elders and deacons hold regular joint meetings and called meetings as often as necessary.

We have within the year, districted our congregation into nineteen districts with one deacon and one elder in charge of each district. This aids greatly in our contacts between officers and members, and also supplements our pastor's work.

Our Mens' Club functions to give every man in our church a job, and to tie him closer to Christ through service.

Our full-time director of Christian education, Miss Margaret Hood, integrates the work of our various departments, and works diligently with our young people at the Pioneer and Senior levels as well as with the Westminster Fellowship Group.

Other of our youth activities include our Girl Scouts, Brownies, and Boy Scouts.

So far I have told you about some of our buildings and the various organizations. Now for some of the results of our labors. Within the decade we have had: a senior elected moderator of the Assembly's Youth Council; a candidate received by the Presbytery for the gospel ministry; one young woman become a director of Christian education; and another serving as a secretary for an executive of the Synod of North Carolina. At present we have two young people seriously considering full-time Christian service—one, the ministry; the other, World Mission Service.

Next what have we done with our stewardship program? We use the every member canvass system. Our giving has increased approximately four hundred per cent to the regular budget, benevolent giving has increased about the same proportion. Our goal is to reach the point where we give to benevolences more than we use for ourselves.

We have maintained a good record for prompt payment of Presbytery's askings for benevolent causes through its local treasurer.

What has Sugaw Creek done in ten years for those outside the church? We have organized and maintained a visitation Evangelism Program, supported by about thirty of our men and women. This one effort has brought Christ to many and many to Christ.

Our outpost Sunday School, conducted by our laymen and laywomen, has brought in recent years, fifteen souls to Jesus Christ.

Our pastor and members of the Session have served communion to the shut-in members of our congregation.

How well have we persuaded others to join their hearts and hands with us in the Lord's work? Our Sessional records read as follows: three hundred and sixty-three by certificate and two hundred and twenty-eight on profession of faith. This gives us an average of a little better than one person a week.

We look back upon the past with grateful hearts for God's blessings upon this church and for the long line of faithful ministers who have served us so well.

Before closing let us turn our attention to the preparations we have made as we begin our third century of service. We invite you to see our new Educational Building and Fellowship Hall, which are now nearing completion. These facilities, combined with our present ones, will accommodate more than eight hundred Sunday School pupils, with room for approximately three hundred in our dining hall. This is part of Sugaw Creek's own program of progress. We are humbly grateful to our Heavenly Father for these splendid additions to be used in His work.

We embark upon this the Master's work with a simple faith in Jesus Christ, a certain assurance that this is truly God's program among men to bring salvation to all through His Church. To this noble cause, we of Sugaw Creek, dedicate our new buildings. May all who fall within the shadow of Sugaw Creek be blessed as we have.

The Pastor, Rev. Leslie Thompson then introduced Mr. Robert W. McConnell, Senior Elder of the Sugaw Creek Congregation. Announcement was made of the Bi-centennial Services, October 9-14, 1956. The motion was made to adopt the reading of the history of the Church and to enter it into the record.

The items "Presbyterian Home—Special" and "Presbyterian Orphan's Home—Special" are expected to be taken care of by special offerings. Any special offerings taken and sent into the Presbytery's office for these items can be applied as a credit on the church's apportionment to the extent but not in excess of the percentages shown for these items in this budget.

The quotas to local churches were obtained by the formula used last year, viz.—one third (1/3) apportioned on the basis of membership; one third (1/3) on contributions to Assembly, Synod and Presbytery causes for the last three years; and one third (1/3) for total contributions, less building expenses for the last three years.

The Council has been investigating the possibility of a full time Chaplain at Presbyterian Hospital. A definite proposal will come before Presbytery in the near future. This effort has the hearty support of Dr. C. M. Boyd, our present hospital visitor.

Your Council has made plans to carry out the suggested Every Church Canvass as outlined by our General Council and adopted by General Assembly and our Presbytery. This plan calls for visitation with the combined officers of each congregation. The objective is to deepen our congregational interest in the benevolent causes of our church and to encourage the payment of the benevolent budget monthly so that the several causes may have operational accounts without borrowing. The Council requests the support of each church in this important endeavor.

We call your attention to the fact that Presbytery's office and Camp Stewart—as well as our per capita askings of Assembly and Synod are paid out of our Presbyterial askings of $1 per member per year. While not a part of our benevolent budget these are gifts for the on-going of our work, on the levels of Assembly, Synod and Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,
W. M. Boyce, Chairman

Rev. Sam Inman was asked to make a statement for the Stewardship Committee regarding the projected plan for the Every Church Canvass. A motion was made instructing the Office of Presbytery to break down the apportionment for each church three ways, membership, contributions for the past three years, and for total contributions less building funds.

Rev. David E. Wilkinson presented Mr. John Kimbril, President of Presbyterian Youth Fellowship of Mecklenburg Presbytery who made an oral report on youth activities. A Convention for Youth in North Carolina was announced as set for December 27th at Davidson College. A Training School for Leaders and Commission Chairmen is being planned for February 4th and 5th.

Announcement was made of the publication of the historical drama "Voice in the Wilderness" written by Dr. LeGette Blythe and presented in Southern States Fair Grounds June 21st, 22nd, 23, 1955.

The Two Hundred Eleventh Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Sharon Presbyterian Church
Route #2, Charlotte, N. C.
January 17, 1956

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its 211th Stated Session at the Sharon Presbyterian Church, Route #2, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date.

After the opening worship Dr. Legette Blythe, Moderator, brought a message on "The Gentleness of Jesus."

The History of the Sharon Church—Dating from April 1944 to the present date was read by Miss Maude Rea who was presented by the host pastor, Rev. E. B. Cooper.

THE HISTORY OF SHARON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Rev. C. H. Little was pastor of Sharon Presbyterian Church at that time April 1944 and on December 1, 1946 he retired, on his 33rd anniversary. After these years of faithful service to this church, our community was blessed by his home in our midst, until his passing July 29 and laid to rest on July 31, 1954. One of our members said this of Mr. Little, "He was a friend of all and an enemy of no one."

Rev. James B. MacLeod was called and came to Sharon April 1, 1947, and resigned July 9, 1950. We reluctantly granted Mr. MacLeod's request. Someone said that Mr. MacLeod's service here was like a beautiful flower that opened in the morning and closed in the evening.

The Congregation at once elected a committee to secure a Pastor. They found a native of New Jersey in Washington, Georgia, The Rev. Edward B. Cooper. We called him, and he accepted the call in April 1951. He moved in the manse with his family, Mrs. Cooper and four children, and began his work May 1, 1951. Since that time our church has been making steady progress.

The membership in 1944 was 214, and the membership at this time 1955 is 400. The church has 15 elders and 12 deacons.

In the summer of 1947 the Sanctuary windows were replaced with the beautiful colored glass ones we now have.

The new manse was built in 1948-49.

Since the coming of Mr. Cooper, the Sanctuary has been renovated and the grounds have been beautified by careful planning of drives and walks, and planting of shrubbery (a project of the Sharon Garden Club).

Beginning September 8, 1952, the basement was made ready for worship service while the work was being done. We moved into the newly renovated Sanctuary the first of January 1953.

There has been much improvement in the basement for the fellowship of the congregation.

Our Sunday School has outgrown the Educational Building, and the Intermediates and Young People's classes have been transferred to the Scout Hut to ease crowded conditions.

The Sunday School enrollment as reported in 1944 was 150. This year 1955 it is 350. In April 1945 the attendance for the month was 441, and in April 1955 it was 1,455. Seeing our great need for more room, a Steering Committee was elected by the Congregation to study plans and appoint other committees. A Congregational meeting was called for August 14, 1955 to hear the report of the Planning Committee which presented to us, the location and floor plans for the Educational Building and Fellowship Hall. This was approved and accepted. We are praying for the guidance of the Spirit of God with our efforts to raise the amount needed. "Except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it."

In 1953 we started a Sunday School Library and have books for all departments of church work, including books for children and some Christian fiction.

Many of our Young People have attended the Summer Conferences, and also have Vacation Bible School every year.

A Christian Education Committee was organized in 1947.

During the week of September 18-25, 1955 our first World Mission Conference was held as part of the work of the Forward With Christ Movement. As one result of this conference we were privileged to add part time support for Miss Louise Fleming, who went to the Congo. We give partial support to the Rev. Donald Williams in Brazil.

The Rev. Charles Conrad Caldwell, a son of Sharon Church was licensed to preach April 14, 1953, and was ordained June 14, 1953. He was associate Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina from June 5, 1953 to October 31, 1954. On November 1, 1954 he became Pastor of Belton Church of Belton, South Carolina.

William W. Davis, Jr. another son of Sharon is in training for the ministry.

The organ was presented to our church in 1949 by Mrs. Charles S. Andrews and brothers T. Guion Griffith and Robert Griffith in memory of their parents Emily and Thomas Griffith. Mr. Griffith started this memorial in honor of his wife but upon his death it was presented as a memorial to both parents by their children. In December 1953 Mr. George W. Elliott, Sr. and Mrs. Zoraida M. Elliott gave the tone cabinet and chimes for the organ in memory of their mothers, Mrs. M. K. Elliott, and Mrs. Cynthia C. Merritt.

The motion was made to adopt the reading of the history of the Church and to enter it into the record.

Report of the Committee on Ministerial Education—The report for the Committee on Ministerial Education was made by Rev. Russell Kerr, Acting Chairman. The following report was adopted:

The more detailed report is given at the Spring meeting of the Presbytery.

However, it will be of interest to the Presbytery that the applications of five new candidates are now in the process of being completed and these young men will be presented at the Spring meeting.

Through the committee Candidate William F. Scholl, Jr. requests that he be transferred to the Presbytery of New York of the Presbyterian Church, USA.

Candidate Franklin McKinley Penninger makes the request that he be allowed to withdraw from the care of the Presbytery.

By the removal of the Rev. G. Dana Waters to the Presbytery of Congree, the committee is left without a chairman. The committee has expressed to Mr. Waters its sincere appreciation for the very excellent way in which he has carried on the work of the committee.

Russell M. Kerr, Chairman pro tem

Report of Committee on Education—Rev. Lawrence I. Stell, reported for the Committee on Education. The Committee requested Presbytery to docket for Spring Meeting a special hour on Higher Education. The report was adopted.

Assembly's Work Committee—The Rev. A. Leslie Thompson reporting on Assembly's Work Committee presented Mr. Joe McLaney, Chairman of Sub-Committee on World Missions, who gave a very challenging message on Missions. It was received as information.

Dr. Charles E. S. Kramer, President of the Assembly's Training School, was then presented by the Chairman, who then in turn brought an interesting report on A. T. S.

Report of Special Committee on Segregation—The report of the special committee on Segregation was presented by the Rev. James A. Jones. A motion to table the report was defeated by a vote of 70 to 57. The statement of principle at the first of the report was adopted and admitted to the record. The entire report with the recommendations was adopted. The office of Presbytery was authorized to furnish printed copies of the Committee's report to each Session in Presbytery.

The Presbytery in its 206th Stated Meeting, September 14, 1954, instructed that a committee be appointed "to study the matter of segregation." Acting on this instruction, the Moderator of the Presbytery appointed the following as members of this special committee: the Reverend A. A. Allen, the Reverend Henry G. Bedinger, the Reverend W. M. Boyce, Jr., Mr. Philip F. Howerton, the Reverend Jas. A. Jones, Dr. Hamilton W. McKay, and the Reverend M. B. Prince.

The committee met in the late autumn of 1954 with all members present. After considerable discussion it was voted that no report be submitted to the Presbytery until after action had been taken by the Synod of North Carolina upon a report of its "Ad Interim Committee on Resolutions Concerning Segregation From Certain Churches," which committee was appointed by the Synod in July 1954.

The second meeting of the committee was on December 7, 1955. In view of the fact that the Reverend A. A. Allen had removed his residence from the bounds of the Presbytery, at least temporarily, the Moderator named the Reverend W. T. Taylor to serve in his stead as a member of the committee. The assignment given to the committee by the Presbytery and the report which should be made to the Presbytery were discussed at length. The chairman of the committee was instructed to prepare a preliminary report for the committee upon which it could act and out of which would grow its communication to the Presbytery.

The third meeting of the committee was on January 16, 1956. The committee adopted a report which is herewith presented to the Presbytery.

The action of the Presbytery which resulted in the committee's appointment was of the most general nature. The committee judged that its first responsibility was to delimit its task. The subject of segregation has been so widely discussed, the aspects of it are so varied and involved, that the committee concluded it must spell out for itself what appeared to it to be its function. It was agreed that the committee would try to do two things: (1) It would examine the recent actions of the General Assembly and of the Synod of North Carolina to determine their accuracy of Biblical interpretation and their compatibility with the law of the Church; (2) It would recommend to the Presbytery any specific alterations in procedure or emphasis which seemed to be proper and constructive in the light of the whole subject.

In reporting to the Presbytery the committee calls the attention of the court to this question as viewed on two broad levels, the level of principle and the level of practice.

At the level of principle, the committee makes these observations:

1. The matter for discussion before us must be put and must be kept in an ecclesiastical context. The Presbytery is not here discussing what should or should not be done in the matter of segregation in political and civil affairs. Such questions are important, of course, and with them churchmen will be concerned. But the Presbytery of Mecklenburg has no responsibility and no right to legislate on the matter for the general body of our nation's citizens. It does have a duty to examine the pertinence of any procedure in the life of the Church, seeking to determine the propriety of such procedure in the light of the Bible and in the light of the standards of the Church's order.

It may be objected that the whole question of segregation is so complex, has such wide and incisive implications for the whole order of social life, is so entangled with custom and heritage, that any isolation of the subject to the "ecclesiastical" realm is impossible. The committee is not unaware of this difficulty, but it would insist that, difficult or not, such a limitation of the subject must be imposed. It would call to the attention of the Presbytery that over the centuries the churches generally, and the Presbyterian Church particularly, have lifted problems about which honest men disagreed out of their secular relationships and set them before the conscience of the Church for its review, solely on the basis of the Faith's plain or implied teaching. In our generation the courage and vision of our forefathers in similar matters need to be borrowed by their children. That an issue is complex is no reason for the Church's being timid in confronting it, else the Church can be innocuous when it should be prophetic. That an issue is confused, provocative of disagreement among men of good will and good reputation, is no justification for ignoring it, rather is the Church thereby called to seek with patience and prayer such a measure of the light of God upon the question as shall make all who love the light of one mind. It is in this spirit that the committee has tried to perform its assignment.

2. In the judgment of the committee, the actions of the General Assembly and of the Synod of North Carolina dealing with the question of "enforced segregation" are consistent with and proper interpretations of the teachings of the Bible and of the Church. In view of the wide circulation of these actions and of their availability for examination by any who are interested, the committee does not believe it is necessary here to attempt to brief them, nor to quote at any length from them.

At one point, however, in the action of the Assembly, there is a matter upon which the committee comments. From many quarters the committee has heard objections raised to the term employed in the Assembly's action which says, "enforced segregation is unchristian."

That statement has been interpreted to mean that anyone who believes that segregation is expedient and permissible is not a Christian. While it is not the business of the committee to prepare a commentary upon the Assembly's action, it appears to the committee that such an interpretation is unfortunate and inaccurate.

Does it not rather seem that the action of the Assembly employs in this phrase a type of expression which is current in speech and in literature? It is not at all uncommon to refer to some procedure as "unchristian," without in any sense impeaching the essential Christian conviction and loyalty of a man who adopts such a procedure. Whether an individual is a Christian or not depends upon a personal, redemptive relationship to Christ. There may be moods and acts in his life which are "unchristian," a condition which he himself will most readily admit, seeing that not yet has the work of sanctification been complete in any of us. By the presence of such "unchristian" traits, whatever they may be, a man diminishes the quality of his witness for Christ and of his discipleship under Christ. By a patient, agonizing, persistent effort to eradicate such marks he grows in spiritual stature and in creative dependence upon Him Who moves to perfect our redemption.

It is in some such context as this, your committee feels, that the terminology of the General Assembly's action must be understood. The man who favors desegregation is not given license to sit in sanctimonious judgment upon his brother in Christ who holds the contrary view. Both of them are enjoined to examine carefully what the Holy Spirit has said and is saying to the churches, through the Holy Bible, through the witness of the Church over the years, and through the urgencies of our current scene. Something of this the Assembly and Synod have tried to do, and in the judgment of your special committee their actions faithfully represent what the Bible and the Church have to say on the subject.

3. The main matter in this whole discussion is not segregation or desegregation, but the nature of the Church. On this point the Bible and the standards of the denomination are unqualifiedly clear. The Church is the Family of God whose members are sealed into it by the grace of Christ through faith unto salvation. No church, whether a particular church or a whole denomination, whether from principle or custom, whether by design or indifference, can alter this fact. Whenever a particular church within our denomination attempts to modify the Biblical standards by which an individual is received into the Church, there is a violation of the plain teaching of the Scripture and of the categorical affirmations of the Church's government.

There are those who say, however, that the Session of a particular church, obligated to maintain its peace, may exclude members of a race from specific fellowship in performance of its duty. As a consequence it is concluded that for the good of such particular church, and for the honor of religion in presenting itself without strife before a community, Sessions may judge it best to delineate a policy which excludes Negroes from membership in some churches. Moreover, there are those who point out that conditions in some quarters of the Church are so strained and pressures exercised so profound, if not malign, that were not a local church to make such statement of general policy, it would be harrassed and embarrassed by people who would seek to "test the sincerity" of such an action as the law of the Church seems to some to require. Such individuals would appear before Sessions "to see what would happen,"

"to make fuel for their fire," "to gain notoriety," and such like. The committee believes that this is a calculated risk which the Church must be willing to take. It were far better for Sessions to face the adversities which may arise out of embracing the standards of the Church on such a matter, than to abdicate those principles and procedure upon which the Church itself is established, and in the practice of which we ourselves have been sealed into the Household of Faith.

4. The crucial word in the whole discussion before us is the word "enforced." Whatever the outcome of the present issue in this matter before us as a Church and as a nation, segregation within society will continue in a hundred forms. People of like mind and heritage, of like culture and disposition, naturally congregate. Already there is segregation in every church, as a visit to a church supper will make plain. There is segregation in a meeting of Presbytery, as men who attend upon its sessions with any regularity know very well. But the fact is, such segregation is voluntary. It is established by moods and habits which can be generated and practiced according to will. It is embraced for the sake of common benefit and for the prosperity of a common purpose.

Enforced segregation on the basis of race has no such characteristics. The committee evaluated its assignment in the light of the Scripture teaching that the men redeemed by Christ and growing in the grace of Christ "henceforth know no man after the flesh." If the Church is a confederacy of faith not established upon, nor maintained by rich or poor, bond of free, Jew or Gentile, male or female, where is there any ground for saying that a church that means to be loyal to the Bible's description of such a society can draw limits in its fellowship according to race.

The committee is well aware that no one in the Church questions for a moment the participation of men of all races in the "One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church." None has intimated to the least degree that the power of the Gospel is not available to and adequate for all who come to God by Christ. Those individuals within the Church who insist upon the maintenance of some fashion of enforced segregation declare without any qualification their concern for the evangelizing of the Negro, and their confidence that his relationship to Christ by faith is as inviolate and as efficient as their own. They talk of the Negro in "The Church" but not in "their church," as it were. But is it not true that the primary function of every serious churchman is to seek persistently and courageously how the marks of "The Church" can become the marks of "his church?" It would appear to the committee that the Presbytery would do well to advise any within its fellowship that approval of the glories and the marks which belong to the whole body of Christ lay upon a man a solemn obligation to seek such traits for that branch of the Church Militant and catholic in which his own lot is cast and under whose disciplines he follows after Christ, the Church's Great Head.

5. The primary business of the Church of Jesus Christ is the evangelization of the world. The primary business of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is the performance of this mission in the areas assigned to us for particular responsibility. It must be recognized that our Church has failed in so many ways to discharge its responsibility under God to the Negro in our midst. The Church has brought itself under judgment in this connection and within recent years has launched a program that seeks to amend the faults of nearly a century.

The committee believes that our Presbytery cannot discharge its obligation to Christ, to its community, or to itself apart from diligence and sacrifice in providing Negroes with facilities for worship and with leadership to guide them in their own spiritual development. There is need now, as never before, for an aggressive program of evangelism aimed at enlisting the Negro for Christ and of assisting him to give inspiration to his own people in their destiny under God. While the committee is convinced that there is no ground in Scripture or in the standards of the Church for excluding any race from any particular church, it is still true that some segregation among the races will continue, to the advantage of all, and to their contribution to that harmony in diversity which is so characteristic of all creation. It has been demonstrated that varieties of churches best serve the life of a community. Men do not possess at this stage of their sanctification sufficient wisdom to create one institution that will serve with equal effectiveness the lettered and the unlettered, the countryman and the urbanite, the artisan and the student. We may say that such should not be the case, seeing that our spiritual needs are met only in Christ, and that any church ought to seek to become all things to all men. But the fact remains that individuals differ. Within a local church there is variety of program for varieties of age groups. There are items of special interest and appeal to differing individuals within the one church.

It becomes the church to exploit these differences within people to their advantage and to the expansion of the Christian fellowship in our time. To attempt to legislate by fiat a condition which has obtained for centuries is as unwise as the refusal to take a stand on what the Church is in hope and prayer, is unpardonable cowardice.

Against this broad and general background of principle, the committee makes these observations about matters of practice which concern the Presbytery. The observations are in the form of resolutions presented for consideration by the Presbytery:

RESOLVED:

1. That Mecklenburg Presbytery and its constituent churches receive the recent deliverances of the General Assembly and of the Synod of North Carolina as actions in harmony with the standards of the Church and expressing views on the matter of segregation consonant with and derived from the teachings of the Holy Scripture.
2. That Presbytery commend to the Sessions of its churches a prayerful and diligent study of these actions by the Assembly and Synod, and of this report by its own special committee, urging that in such study it be remembered and emphasized that the Church is speaking to churchmen and is not legislating for the body politic, or arrogating to itself the unwarranted prerogative of dictating procedures to any local church, nor claiming for itself anything other than a careful seeking after the leading of the Holy Spirit. Who has been promised to the Church as its Guide into all wisdom. It is quite evident and expedient that the application of the principle set forth by the courts of the church will vary in local churches and in the context of the life of particular communities. In such instances the Presbytery urges the Sessions to move with care and wisdom in all matters pertaining to this question.
3. That Presbytery engage itself with all dispatch and concern to provide facilities and leadership for ministering to and the work of evangelism among the Negro population within the bounds of the Presbytery.

4. That Presbytery leave in the hands and under the jurisdiction of its executive agencies the application of the principles enunciated by this action, confident that such agents will be diligent in resolving matters which come before them to the advantage of the life of all the churches in the Presbytery and to the prosperity of those particular duties entrusted to each of the agents of the Presbytery.

5. That Presbytery call upon its members and upon the churches within its bounds to exercise the Christian virtues of patience and brotherly love as they seek to find for themselves and for our beloved Church the most effective way for applying to the life of the Church the principles which underlie and define the nature of our comradeship with all believers in the Family of God.

6. That Presbytery urge upon its elders and churches the need for solemn, believing, earnest prayer in behalf of all those charged with the difficult task of plotting a course for our citizens and for our fellow-churchmen in these days of pervasive unrest, lamented suspicion, and disquieting tension.

Respectfully submitted,
JAS. A. JONES, Chairman

The Two Hundred Twelfth Stated Session of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Bethel Presbyterian Church
Cornelius, N. C.
April 17, 1956

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Twelfth Stated Session in the Bethel Presbyterian Church, Cornelius, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date.

The Rev. Sam Zealy, retiring Moderator, led in the opening worship and preached a sermon on "Two Lost Sons".

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed, being led by the Rev. G. E. Dixon and Rev. T. Duke Williams.

The History of the Bethel Church was printed and put into the hands of the Presbytery by Rev. J. E. Wayland, Jr., host pastor. It was adopted as printed.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF BETHEL CHURCH

On or about January 1829 the Presbyterians living within the bounds of what is now known as Bethel Congregation met and resolved that a Christian Church of the Presbyterian Faith should be organized and located at some suitable point convenient for the congregation. At that time Hopewell, Ramah and Center were the only churches which the Presbyterians of this vicinity could attend and as there were but few conveyances and no good roads the women and children were in a great measure deprived of church privileges.

The original plot of 3½ acres was given by Miss Ann Potts. The first church building was erected in 1830 and stood until 1895 at which time the sanctuary of the present structure was erected. Few of our members can still remember this first building. One of the points of interest is that twenty-three colored communicated worshipped in that building. The last of these twenty-three, Selina Johnston, received into the membership of Bethel Church on profession of faith in 1853, died in 1927 at the age of 90. Bethel congregation at a meeting held in July 1895 resolved to build a new building. After crops were laid by the male members together with many other friends met and made bricks and commenced the work of building in earnest. Rev. Thomas Espy was the first pastor of this church from July 1829 to 1830. Since that time there has been approximately thirty-five pastors and supply pastors. The first children baptised in this church were Thomas Espy Potts and Thomas Espy Goodsey. No further record is known of Thomas Goodsey but Thomas Espy Potts was a member until his death. There were eleven charter members, four of which were elders.

Bethel Church has three octogenarians: Miss Rebecca Jetton, Mrs. Carrie Knox and Mr. Aibert Hall. Miss Rebecca Jetton, the oldest, has been a member since 1891 (sixty-four years).

Seven of our former pastors are still living. They are, in order: Dr. Bolling Hobson, Princeton, West Virginia; Reverend W. C. Wauchop, Concord, N. C.; Reverend R. C. Clontz, Davidson, N. C.; Reverend W. T. Smith, Charlotte, N. C.; Reverend W. H. Johnston, Charlotte, N. C.; Reverend J. L. Russell, Decatur, Georgia; Reverend B. F. Livingstone, Lexington, Virginia. Reverend S. A. Ewart, while pastor in Fayetteville Presbytery, was called from this life August 22, 1953. Among our former pastors the people of Bethel will long remember two faithful supply pastors who have been called on several occasions when we were without a pastor. They are Professor W. L. Porter and Professor E. A. Beaty, both of Davidson College. We are happy to have some of these pastors and supply pastors here today.

Presbytery has met three times at this church. April 1858, April 1879 and April 1923. The 212th Stated Session of Presbytery will meet at this church in April 1956.

There were thirty-six men from this church called into the service of their country during World War II. All but one returned. Lieutenant Adrin Vernon Knox was killed in action at Stavelot, Belgium, December 23, 1944. A memorial service for Lieutenant Knox was conducted at this church on December 30, 1946.

During the past ten years many improvements have been made. Eight Sunday School rooms have been added, a new floor in the sanctuary and new pews were recently installed. Also among the many improvements was a new addition to the kitchen of the hut. To this progress we owe much to the Women of the Church. The rug, painting, and flower stand in front of the church, are among the many things the women have contributed. At this time the women have four active circles which have a record membership.

Two missionaries have gone out from this church. Mrs. Bessie Knox Wilson served as a missionary to Korea for forty years, and Mrs. Hattie Knox Dodson, after six years as a missionary, died in Korea.

For the first time this church is supporting its own missionary. Miss Cora Wayland left the United States in October 1954 for her post in Mokpo, Korea. Bethel Church is proud of the great work she is doing as our missionary.

Our present pastor, Reverend J. E. Wayland, Jr., came to Bethel Church as supply pastor June 1, 1951, and was installed as pastor July 27, 1952. The people have been richly blessed by his pastoral here. Bethel Church now has a membership of 191, the largest at any one time. And our Sunday School has a membership of 238. Our Sunday School has been organized to the extent that children are properly grouped by age and sufficient teachers have been secured for all classes.

Our rooms are filled, including the hut and kitchen of the hut. For some time the kitchen has been used as Sunday School rooms. It is due to this crowded condition that the recent addition to the front of the church was so planned so as to have two additional rooms.

The Roll—The following were present or were enrolled during the meeting:

Report of Committee on Ministerial Education—The Committee on Ministerial Education made the following report which was adopted.

The Committee is happy to present to the Presbytery two candidates who are transferring from other Presbyteries, and who are seeking licensure and ordination at this meeting.

Mr. Melvin Stanyarne Bell is a native of Greenwood, S. C. and is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenwood where he served as a deacon of that church while carrying on a business career. Mr. Bell is a graduate of Erskine College and is a member of the graduating class of Union Theological Seminary. The Commission on the minister and his work will present to the Presbytery a call for the pastoral services of Mr. Bell at the Seigle Avenue Church. We recommend that he be received into the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry and that the Presbytery proceed to examine him for licensure. The required written parts of trial have been presented and approved.

Mr. John Richard Crawford is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Vernon A. Crawford former missionaries of our church in Japan and currently the Executive Secretary of Augusta-Macon Presbytery. Mr. Crawford was born in Japan. He is a graduate of King College, Bristol, Tenn. and is a member of the Senior class at Union Theological Seminary. Mr. Crawford is asking to be ordained as an evangelist in order that he might pursue graduate study in Scotland where he expects to go in the fall. He is transferring to Mecklenburg Presbytery at the present time as he is to work until he leaves for Scotland in the program of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte. We recommend that Mr. Crawford be received into the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry and that the Presbytery proceed to examine him and ordain him as an evangelist. We recommend that this ordination service be set as the second order immediately after lunch. The required written parts of trial have been submitted and approved.

We also present to the Presbytery the following men who have felt the call to the Gospel ministry and desire to be taken under the care of Presbytery as candidates for the ministry:

Mr. David K. Dunn is a resident of Mecklenburg County and a member of the Mulberry Presbyterian Church. He is a graduate of West Mecklenburg High School and is a member of the Senior Class at Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C. Mr. Dunn expects to enter Union Theological Seminary in Richmond in the fall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Dunn.

Lt. Kenneth B. Orr is a resident of Charlotte and a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church. Lt. Orr is a graduate of Central High School in Charlotte and graduated from Duke University in 1954. He is currently serving as a Lieutenant in the Air Force. He expects to pursue his theological studies at Union Theological Seminary after the completion of his term in the armed forces. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Orr of Charlotte.

Mr. John Roscoe is a resident of Rockingham, N. C. and is a member of the Watson Heights Church of Rockingham. Mr. Roscoe attended Wingate Jr. College and spent two years at the Baptist Theological Seminary in New Orleans, La. after which he was ordained to the Baptist ministry and for a time served the Baptist Church in Perdido, Ala. In 1951 he gave up the work of the ministry and returned to secular employment. He also left the Baptist church and became a member of the Watson Heights Church of this Presbytery. The feeling of a call to the ministry has returned to Mr. Roscoe and he desires to continue his work of preaching in the Presbyterian Church. The request of Mr. Roscoe is somewhat out of the ordinary but your committee has made a very careful investigation of this case and has had a lengthy conference with Mr. Roscoe about his future plans and possibilities. We recommend to the Presbytery that Mr. Roscoe be examined as a candidate for the ministry and if this examination is satisfactory to the Presbytery that he be enrolled with the understanding of the Presbytery that he has no immediate plans for the completion of his education to bring it up to the standards required by our church but that he be commended to such churches as might use him in preaching supply work in order that his talents may be used in a limited way in the service of the church and the proclamation of the Gospel. We have urged him as soon as possible, as the way might be clear, to make every effort to secure that training which will fit him more adequately for the Presbyterian ministry. Your committee recognizes the difficulties in this case but we feel Mr. Roscoe has a sincere call to preach the gospel and that the barriers before him are not insurmountable. He will continue to derive his principle source of income from secular employment.

Your committee continues to note with great joy the number and quality of the men who are offering their lives for the Gospel Ministry. We would urge each minister and church in the Presbytery to be alert in interpreting the opportunities for full time Christian service to the young people of our Presbytery.

CANDIDATES EXAMINED FOR LICENSURE AND ORDINATION—The Committee on Ministerial Education presented the following candidates for licensure and ordination: Mr. Melvin Stanyarne Bell and Mr. John R. Crawford. Mr. Bell was received as a Candidate for the Gospel Ministry from the Presbytery of South Carolina, and Mr. Crawford from the Presbytery of Holston. Being satisfied with the certificates of dismissal presented by these two candidates, Presbytery moved to the examination of candidates for Licensure and Ordination in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Church Order.

After hearing Mr. Bell preach his sermon on the theme of "Love" it was moved that the examination as a whole be sustained. A call for the services of Mr. Bell from the Seigle Avenue Presbyterian Church was presented. A motion was made that his examination for licensure be accepted in lieu of ordination and that a commission be appointed to install him.

A motion was made that the examination of Mr. John R. Crawford, Candidate for Licensure and Ordination be approved thus far, that Presbytery hear his sermon after lunch and that it proceed to his ordination if the way be clear.

CANDIDATES RECEIVED—The Committee on Ministerial Education presented the following candidates for the ministry: Mr. David K. Dunn, Lt. Kenneth B. Orr, and John Roscoe. Upon the recommendation of the Committee, the Presbytery proceeded to their examination in accordance with the Book of Church Order. The examination in each case was approved as satisfactory and they were received under the care of Presbytery as candidates for the Gospel Ministry.

The Rev. James R. Crook gave a brief charge to the candidates, and the Rev. Howard Chadwick led a prayer of dedication for the candidates.

Grier. A brief charge was given Mr. Crawford by the Rev. Lee Stoffel.

Presbytery proceeded to his examination according to the Book of Church Order. The examination was approved as a whole and he was enrolled as a member of the Presbytery upon the signing of the covenant.

A call for Rev. Wylie Hogue from the Wadesboro Church was found in order and was placed in Mr. Hogue's hands and accepted by him. A commission was appointed to install him.

Report of New College—Mr. Elmer D. Meadley reported that he wished Dr. Warner L. Hall to speak on the question of the new consolidated college at Laurinburg. Dr. Lawrence Stell spoke to the question as ministerial chairman of Synod's financial campaign.

A motion was made that Presbytery approve the work of the consolidated college and commend it fervently to the churches.

Report of Presbytery's Manse and Building Fund—Mr. Harvey C. May, Director of the Manse Fund, spoke for ten minutes in interest of and in support of the work of the Manse Fund of Mecklenburg Presbytery.

Report on Women's Work—Rev. S. M. Hutchinson presented Mrs. Lloyd Ardrey, President of the Women of the Church. Mrs. Ardrey asked Mrs. Boyce Hunter, President of the Women-of-the-Church for 1955, to present the report.

The motion was made that it be adopted and admitted to the records.

In 1955 The Women-of-the-Church of Mecklenburg Presbytery served the Lord with joy and gladness.

Ninety-six of the Presbyterian Churches of Mecklenburg Presbytery have organized Women-of-the-Church groups. The reports for 1955 show that these women number 12,618 and that they are showing an increased interest in all phases of the church work and an evidence of Christian love in their relationships.

Their personal Christian faith has resulted in an increase in attendance at meetings of the Women-of-the-Church and at Sunday School. More women are studying the Bible and seeking to learn better ways to serve. In their own churches they have given countless hours of service through vacation Bible Schools, Sunday Schools, church nurseries, meals for various church groups, scout work and flowers for their sanctuaries. In their communities they have helped in hospitals, in Homes for children and for the aged, the Crittenton Home, in the P.T.A., Red Cross, United Appeals or Community Chests.

They have helped with the building of a new Negro church and with other Negro work. Their White Cross quotas were more than filled and money, clothing, and other things were sent overseas. Clothing was sent to the mountain missions, Christmas gifts sent to missionaries at home and abroad. Contributions were sent to Mission Court, to leper work, and to Assembly's Training School to help buy new furnishings. Much has been done for shut-ins, for college students, and for men and women in the armed forces.

The aim of the local organization is to enlist every woman for Christ and to find a place of service for her. An effort is being made to use the talents of the younger women.

During 1955 the Women of Mecklenburg gave $93,548 to benevolences and $52,852 to their local churches, a total of $146,400. All this has been done in His name and for His sake.

Marion M. Hunter (Mrs. B. W.)

The Two Hundred Thirteenth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
July 24, 1956

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Stated Summer Session at the Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date. Rev. R. A. Young, host Pastor, presided at the opening worship. The retiring Moderator, Rev. Roswell C. Long, preached the opening sermon based on Ephesians 4:8 entitled "The Ascension." Presbytery was opened by a prayer led by the Moderator.

History—The following history of the Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church was read by Mrs. C. D. Armstrong. It was moved that the history of the church be admitted to the record and that Presbytery engage in prayer for the blessing and guidance of God, as the Pleasant Hill Church looks forward to becoming a self-supporting church for the first time. The prayer was led by the Rev. A. Leslie Thompson.

A HISTORICAL SKETCH OF PLEASANT HILL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH 1836-1956

Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church is located in the southwest portion of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, on the Charlotte-York highway on a little hill in a natural grove of trees.

In 1836 when Rev. Samuel L. Watson was pastor of Steel Creek Church, the people of this, the lower section of the territory covered by his pastorate, feeling it was almost impossible for them to regularly attend services at Steel Creek, applied to Concord Presbytery to be set off as a separate organization, to be known as Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church.

Their petition was granted, and on November 15, 1836, Rev. Mr. Watson organized the church, consisting of 42 members.

A plot of land, as a site for the church, consisting of nine acres, was secured by gift from Alpheus S. King, one of the charter members.

The members then proceeded to build their first house of worship, a modest frame building, styled in the architecture of a hundred years ago.

Evidently the new church was not long in building, for the records tell us that the church was organized November, 1836, and that on June 4, 1837, the church was dedicated as a house of worship.

A section of the nine acres secured for the church surroundings, was reserved as a burial ground. A rock wall enclosed the first cemetery, and when some years later it was found necessary to enlarge the cemetery, wire fencing was procured and the extra space added.

Pleasant Hill and Steel Creek remained in the same pastoral charge for a period of 43 years, from 1836-1879. Pleasant Hill had services each third Sunday, the people worshipping with Steel Creek congregation when there were no services at their own church.

In October, 1879, Steel Creek Church felt that she was able to have a pastor for full time, so the bond between the two churches was severed, and Pleasant Hill was left to find some other church with which to unite for part time services as she was unable to support a pastor for full time.

Finally, in January, 1880, Pleasant Hill was successful in uniting with the Fort Mill, South Carolina, church, and for a period of two years these two churches were under the pastorate of Rev. F. L. Leeper; this, of course, could not be a satisfactory arrangement as the churches were not in the same Presbytery.

After the resignation of Mr. Leeper, in January, 1882, the church was again left vacant.

With due deliberations, conferring with Pineville church, and with consent of Presbytery, these two churches, Pleasant Hill and Pineville were grouped together. This grouping was most effective, Pleasant Hill now being able to have services for one half of the time.

In August, 1903, during a congregational meeting, a committee was named to take into consideration the repairing of the church or the building of a new one. This committee was authorized to present plans and specifications for the consideration of the congregation. These plans having been accepted, the committee, with the congregation complying, went to work with willing hearts and hands to build a new church. Although none of them had much to give in worldly store, they were willing to give in labor, so they proceeded with the erection of the second church building at Pleasant Hill. This building which was dedicated on June 11, 1905, is the present building.

During Rev. H. R. Borthwick's ministry, in September, 1907, the Mecklenburg Presbytery convened at Pleasant Hill for the first time during its existence. Until today this was the only time that Presbytery had met at Pleasant Hill Church.

In July, 1910, Mr. Borthwick offered his resignation as pastor of the church and for an interval of nearly two years, the church was without a regular pastor. During this interval, Central Steel Creek, an Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, made application to Mecklenburg Presbytery to be received into that body. The church transferred by request and in July, 1911, became a member of Presbytery.

and plans were made to group these two churches, Pleasant Hill and Central, under the same pastorate.

Rev. C. W. McCully, of Alabama, was invited to hold meetings at the two churches, with a view to call, and on June 12, 1912, Mr. McCully began his pastorate of these two churches. It was during his pastorate that the church reached her peak in spiritual activity, membership and in financial disbursements. A Sunday School room was added during his stay, and the Sunday School enrollment was the largest in the history of the church. Mr. McCully served the churches until November 19, 1919.

On March 21, 1920, a congregational meeting was held, and Rev. R. W. Culbertson was unanimously called to the pastorate of the church and in April, 1920, he began his work which lasted through a period of 11 years. During his ministry, the Southern Power Company having bought most of the land bordering on the Catawba River, a great many of the members of Pleasant Hill were forced to seek other places to live, so the membership of the church was very much depleted.

After the resignation of Mr. Culbertson in February, 1930, the church was vacant for nearly a year, the pulpit being filled by various supplies. On December 6, 1931, a congregational meeting was held, at which time Dr. R. A. Young, of Troy, Alabama, was unanimously called to the pastorate of the church. He accepted the call and began his pastoral services in February, 1932.

1936 was a memorable year at Pleasant Hill for it was at this time that the Centennial Celebration was held. On the day of celebration, August 29, 1936, members, friends, and loved ones came to pay their respect and express their well wishes. The morning and afternoon addresses were made by Rev. J. T. Wade and Rev. Howard Wilson, respectively, with Mr. T. F. Carothers reading the church history.

Now, for the third time, it was found necessary to enlarge the cemetery. This was done in 1940 and it was at this time that the old wire fence was removed and an attractive rock wall was built across the front by Mr. Alfred Leaper from Aberdeen, Scotland. This was made possible through donations by members and former members of the church.

In the early 1940's the Nell Erwin Bible Class, realizing the growing need for more space, started a Building Fund and by early 1944, with added interest of the entire church, plans were being made to build an Educational Building. A group of men from the Men's Bible Class, working together, soon completed a four room building, consisting of three classrooms and an assembly room. It was located some fifty feet to the right of the church. This building was dedicated on April 23, 1944.

From the time that the small educational building was completed in 1944, Pleasant Hill began to grow very rapidly, and by 1952 there was a great need for additional classrooms and a larger assembly room. Plans were completed for a new building and actual building started on March 8, 1953. With the cooperative labors of the entire congregation, the building was completed within a few months. A very impressive dedication service was held on October 4, 1953. Mr. W. E. Price was principal speaker.

After 23 years of faithful and dedicated service in Pleasant Hill and Central Churches, it was noted that Dr. Young was of retirement age. With this in mind a congregational meeting was held on July 3, 1955, at which time the congregation voted to recall Dr. Young for another year after his seventieth birthday, or until September 15, 1956.

During the past decade, Pleasant Hill has grown numerically and financially and since Dr. Young is of retirement age, it was evident that a change had to be made. The entire church prayerfully considered this and finally on May 13, 1956, it was voted that all bonds with Central Steel Creek Church be severed and that Pleasant Hill become an independent church. This is the first time in the history of the church that it has attempted to stand alone and have a pastor of its own. The entire church is prayerfully and most earnestly working toward a successful, independent church.

An active Manse Finance Committee was appointed on December 6, 1955, and on May 28, 1956, a Manse Planning and Building Committee was named. These are active committees at the present time. Also active at this time is the Pulpit Committee, which is attempting to secure a pastor for the church.

The Sunday School now has an enrollment of approximately 165. There are two active Young People's Groups in the church with a membership of about 15 each. The Women of the Church are divided into three circles and this organization is functioning splendidly at the present time.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. C. D. Armstrong, Jr.
Historian

All those attending the General Assembly were commended for their diligence by formal action of the Presbytery. The written reports of Ruling Elder T. M. Barnhardt and Rev. Harold D. Hayward were selected for their excellence and are as follows:

1. Report of Commissioner T. M. Barnhardt, Jr.

Mr. Moderator and Brethren:

First, I would like to thank the Mecklenburg Presbytery for the wonderful privilege that has been given me by electing me as a Commissioner to attend the 96th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. which has been held in Montreat, starting May 31. This is an experience I will never forget and it gave me insight as to the workings of the whole Southern Presbyterian church. It was most impressive in every way.

As you know, Dr. Richards has been the Moderator up until the Assembly met and Dr. Taliaferro Thompson of Richmond was unanimously elected as the new moderator. Dr. "Tolly" did one of the finest jobs I have ever seen in handling this Assembly and while it was expected, it was still a lot of satisfaction to his friends and acquaintances to see him operate so efficiently, pushing along to keep the assembly on schedule, but yet being very gracious regardless of who was on the floor. Not one time during the entire assembly was there a lag, but it was constantly on the move.

The thing that impressed me most about this Assembly is the fine spirit that was shown for and against, regardless what the subject was. I think it was out of respect to Dr. "Tolly" that tempers did not blaze from time to time. But out of respect to Dr. Thompson, everything was on a very high plane.

There were approximately 490 commissioners at this Assembly and each of these commissioners was appointed to one of the standing committees of which there are twelve.

I was assigned to the General Council Standing Committee for this Assembly and we met with the Permanent Committee of the General Council and with the Staff and two days of hard work. We were given an insight to the workings of the General Council.

Rev. J. G. Patton is the Executive Secretary and Rev. B. S. Hodges, Jr. is his associate. Both of these men, in my opinion, are outstanding men of business ability. It was seldom that they had to refer to anything to the many questions asked them—they had the answer instantly. I was extremely impressed with the ability of these two men.

I was entirely ignorant of the General Council and I found it was the old Stewardship Committee, but about six years ago when they streamlined everything in the Southern Presbyterian Church, this was changed to the General Council. They have charge of the budgets for the Presbyterian church and the totals this year were $6,931,896—this is an increase over the previous year of $388,823.

I found that four boards have separate treasuries and they have separate budgets, which are as follows:

Board of World Missions	$3,500,000
Board of Church Extension	1,518,225
Board of Christian Education	580,000
Board of Annuities and Relief	441,817

In addition to the above, the remaining causes—The General Fund which is the receiving and disbursing agency for the remainder of the approved causes of General Assembly, namely (Total Budget these causes $891,854.00)

Board of Women's Work
The General Council
Assembly's Training School
Montreat
Stillman College
Historical Foundation
American Bible Society
Administrative expense
National Council
World Council
Geneva Building
Lord's Day Alliance
Religion in American Life.

In addition to the general oversight of the entire budget, the General Council has charge of the publicity, and it was interesting to me to see that they had a reporter for the New York Times, a reporter for the Time and Life Magazines, a reporter for the Newspapers in Atlanta, two reporters for the Charlotte papers and one reporter for the Asheville paper. In addition to this, they had reporters for the four Presbyterian magazines.

They have also a third duty of the charge of the program for the entire Southern Presbyterian church, and we are now in the midst of the "Forward with Christ" Program, of which we had a number of reports and it is meeting with favor throughout the southern church. This will probably be extended until 1961 rather than bring in a new program before the 100th Anniversary.

Also, in the stewardship promotion, the prebudget canvass was thoroughly discussed and a number of the Presbyteries have had a meeting with the secretaries of the General Council and have put this in the various churches in the Presbyteries and they are meeting with splendid results. As a matter of interest, the Atlanta First Church put in the prebudget canvass last year and they increased their budget 40%. Similar reports from smaller churches throughout the Assembly were equally good or better.

I would certainly recommend to Mecklenburg Presbytery that we have Rev. B. S. Hodges come up and explain the prebudget canvass as I believe this would be most helpful for a number of churches that are having difficulty in raising their budgets.

Each of these 12 standing committees reported back to the General Assembly their findings and recommendations—all of which the Assembly as a whole voted on.

Sunday, they had the morning service, which was a communion service. They picked names from the various Presbyteries, one each; I believe, and I had the privilege of serving for the Mecklenburg delegation. It was a most impressive communion service.

The General Assembly adjourned Tuesday morning, June 5, at approximately 11:30 and the sessions, while they were long, were most interesting and I am pleased to say that I attended all the business sessions with a great deal of pleasure and enjoyment, because it was most interesting from start to finish.

I would like to thank you again for the privilege that you have given me in attending this General Assembly.

2. Report of Commissioner, Harold D. Hayward

My first contact with Presbyterianism at its highest court level left upon me the impression: what a great church we have and what a greater church we can be by the grace of God and hard work!

One senses something of the responsible attitude with which the commissioners regard their tasks. It makes one wish that this same high sense of duty and strategy could be conveyed down through us to the lower courts of the church and thence to the congregations where we serve and amongst whom we live our lives, we hope, to the glory of God.

One saw parliamentarianism at its best though sometimes faced with minor crises of procedure. One felt supremely confident because the Assembly was under the moderatorship of a man of the quality of spirit shown by Professor Thompson. There was give and take, especially when controversial matters were discussed. Yet a sense of humor and friendliness seemed to assure the outcome. Vote as we might that sense of humor was always present.

I noted with gratification that the reports of some of the committees having special tasks such as those dealing with Christianity and Health; Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage; the Position of Women in the Church; and others, took a second look at the Bible in making their reports and presenting their findings. By a second look . . . I mean . . . the ability to see the great dynamic movement of the Spirit of God underneath the words of scripture . . . a kind of a movement of change and development and flow such as one who is Christian might interpret in the ebb and flow of history.

It appeared to me that one of the finest of the stimuli to our committee-work (and I was a member of the Committee on Christian Education) was the voice of some lower church court bidding us consider certain matters definitively and make definitive answers . . . the overtures from the Presbyteries. Were it not for the overtures year by year we should be perfectly willing to allow our Boards and paid servants at Atlanta or Nashville or Richmond work out all our problems. But not so! The Presbyteries made their weight count—and this is fundamentally, in my humble understanding, good Presbyterianism.

I was a bit troubled at the start with the responsibility of attending many long meetings day after day but must now testify that the docket was well-arranged and it became no problem whatsoever for me to attend every meeting joyfully. I think this was true of my fellow commissioners. My only disappointment was occasioned by the half attendance at the Sunday afternoon meeting when our brethren from other denominations brought greetings. And their talks were excellent!

The music which introduced us to the new Hymnbook was skillfully arranged for each session. A bit of conservatism showed itself in the hymns chosen for congregational use. However, thanks to the Montreat Choir, new hymns were appealingly sung by that able group. Conservatively apparent, the scripture read or quoted was usually from the older version of the Bible translation.

Besides the humor of one dear brother's exposition of Adam's rib and the creation of Eve; here and there things sparkled with subtle and frequently sardonic wit. One exuberant brother arose to teach us a new verse to "Jesus Loves Me".

"Jesus loves me when I'm good, When I do the things I should;
Jesus loves me when I'm bad though it makes Him very sad."

In committee meetings I was interested to see how carefully the wording of reports and resolutions and especially the answers to overtures were considered. Dr. Richards, retiring moderator, who happened to be in the committee of which I was a member, was again and again very solicitous that just the right words be employed and none others. This shows our late moderator to be the great parliamentarian he is and reminds one of Dr. Jones of our own presbytery.

One of the signs of the moving of this church forward, in my judgement, was the spirit with which the commissioners insisted that each Board of the Church rotate its membership regardless of who may have been deemed absolutely "essential" to the work. The commissioners said "rotate" and the Board members were "rotated". The commissioners were voting for what they believed . . . for they believed as do I that this great church is loaded with talent . . . God-given talent . . . and it needs to be used . . . and used NOW.

Do you ask me how I voted?

Let me repeat the observation of Dr. Thompson about the commissioner who returned home with the remark that he attended every meeting, voted correctly upon every issue, although General Assembly did not always agree with him. Dr. Thompson could have been referring to me.

Fathers and brethren, I think this sums up my report of attendance as your commissioner. Let me express my appreciation for the opportunity to serve you and by serving you thereby representing our church before the world . . . a church of which we may be justly proud.

Additional Report of the Commission on the Minister and His Work—The Commission recommended that the Rev. W. B. Neill be honorably retired September 1, 1956, that he be certified in the Ministers' Annuity Fund, and that the Commission be empowered to take action in line with the ruling of the General Assembly on the date of retirement for ministers. The recommendation was granted.

Place of Next Meeting—Presbytery accepted an invitation extended by Rev. James Crook on behalf of Camp Stewart for the Fall Meeting September 18, 1956.

The minutes were read and adopted as amended.

Presbytery adjourned with prayer led by the Moderator, Rev. I. Howard Chadwick to meet at Camp Stewart, September 18, 1956 at 9 A.M. Charlotte, N. C.

Committee on Homes—Mr. J. B. Watt submitted through the Stated Clerk the following written report:

Barium Springs, N. C.

Report from Barium is most favorable. Illness among the children has been at a minimum and joy and happiness abound. The Home operated during 1955 entirely without deficit and Mr. McClure requests that the churches in Mecklenburg Presbytery be thanked for their generosity.

A cordial invitation is extended by Mr. McClure and the Staff to all Presbyterians to visit the Home to see what is being done there. Also, there is available just for the asking a 16MM sound and color film. This film is entitled "When the Bough Breaks" which is a story of actual life at Barium and made by the boys and girls themselves. All of us, of course, are urged to keep this Home constantly in our prayers.

PRESBYTERIAN HOME

High Point, N. C.

The Presbyterian Home is now filled to more than its intended capacity of sixty-one members. Its present membership is sixty-four. Of this number there are eleven from Mecklenburg Presbytery. The present cost of care per annum is $1,850.00 per member, which means that the care of the eleven members from Mecklenburg will cost $20,350.00. Of this amount these members themselves contributed in 1955 $10,440.00. As best that can be determined, the Home received direct from churches in Mecklenburg Presbytery and through the Presbytery's office during 1955 a total of $6,402.13. This total, plus the amount contributed by the members themselves, makes a total of $16,848.13. These figures, as you can see, reveal a deficit which should be called to the attention of every church. This deficit could very easily be met if all the churches would observe Mother's Day as a special day for the Home. Too few churches in the Presbytery are doing this.

It is suggested that pastors visit the Home and encourage individuals and delegations from their churches to visit. The Board of Trustees believes that there is too little knowledge of what the Presbyterians of North Carolina have in this newest project and is anxious that they visit there. It is only a two-hour drive from any part of the Presbytery and if given 24-hour notice, the Staff will arrange lunch for visitors at $1.00 each.

Standing Committees—The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported no items of business.

The Committee on Installations reported through its Chairman, Rev. E. Lee Stoffel, as follows:

1. The following be appointed a Commission of Presbytery to install Rev. B. Hoyt Evans as Pastor of the Hopewell Church on Sunday, September 30, 1956 at 7:30 P.M., Rev. J. E. 1. That the question of the "Ordination of Women as Elders or Deacons" be considered and the necessary changes in the Book of Church Order be voted on at the January meeting of Presbytery.

2. That the question of "Marriage, Divorce and Remarriage" be considered at the January meeting of Presbytery also, along with the consideration of deletion of Paragraphs 5, 6 of Chapter XXIV on Marriage and Divorce.

We express our gratitude to the elders, both ruling and teaching, who led us to the Lord's Table.

Respectfully,

Mr. Harold Burney
Rev. Fred Holder
Rev. Bill Lytch, Ch.

The Ad-Interim Committee on the question "when to give the deed of title of property to an organized congregation" made its report through its Chairman, Rev. James E. Fogartie. The motion was made that the report be received and the recommendations adopted.

This Committee recommends that the Presbytery give its Committee on Home Missions the following instructions:

1. The policy of the Presbytery is to transfer title as soon as there is reasonable ground for believing that the property will be adequately safeguarded and maintained for continued use in the work of this Presbytery, taking into consideration that so long as the local congregation receives financial aid from the Presbytery, the Committee on Home Missions is in a position to advise and instruct the officers of the local Church and require from them such reports concerning the maintenance of the Church property and the financial affairs of the congregation as the Committee deems appropriate.

2. The Presbytery is willing to rely on the good judgment of its Committee as to the capabilities of a local church and does not require that the local church meet any prescribed tests or prove itself in any particular manner, such as by becoming self-sustaining, or otherwise.

3. The Committee is urged to give prompt and serious consideration to any request for the transfer of title and report its recommendation to the Presbytery without delay.

Respectfully submitted,

James E. Fogartie, Chairman
Warner L. Hall
David J. Craig
Frank Orr
R. S. Hutchison

A motion was made by Rev. Robert Turner that Presbytery express its thanks to the First Presbyterian Church for the use of the property in which the offices of Presbytery are housed. The motion was enthusiastically carried.

Committee on Nominations—The Rev. I. Howard Chadwick reported the nomination of Rev. Ben Moore to fill the unexpired term of Rev. Chas. G. McClure on Presbytery's Council. He was elected. The request of Mr. Beaumert Whitton to be excused from serving on the Committee on Nominations was accepted and granted. Mr. Lewis Rose, Elder of the Myers Park Church, was elected to fill the vacancy on the Nominations Committee.

Consolidated College Campaign—A statement was made by the Moderator, Mr. Joe McLaney who has been serving as Chairman of Presbytery's Committee on the Financial Campaign for the New College. Rev. Lawrence I. Stell expressed concern for the phase of the Christian Campus program as related to the State Institutions in the Synod.

New Business—Rev. Clyde Pratt reported for the World Missions Committee. The recommendation was made and granted that on a given Sunday the ministers of the Presbytery exchange pulpits and preach on Missions. In case of churches having as many as two ministers, or in case of retired ministers, and ministers serving in other capacities, that all these men be used to fill the pulpits of fields which have more than one church. Dr. W. M. Walsh was elected to work out the details of the exchange.

Rev. Shelton Hutchison called attention to a worthwhile book entitled "People's Padre" and offered to loan copies to interested ministers.

Rev. Malcolm Williamson called Presbytery's attention to the changes in the statistical reports to the General Assembly, in particular the fact that the nearest dollar only is wanted.

Place of Next Meeting—Rev. Sam Inman extended an invitation from the Selwyn Avenue Church for the winter meeting of Presbytery. It was very graciously accepted.

A motion was made that the Minutes of Presbytery be adopted as read. Presbytery voted to adjourn to meet Tuesday, January 15, 1957 at the Selwyn Avenue Church at 9 A.M. The Presbytery adjourned with the Apostolic Benediction, pronounced by the Rev. Shelton Hutchison.

Respectfully submitted,

Joe W. McLaney, Sr., Moderator

Malcolm R. Williamson, Stated Clerk
A. Leslie Thompson, Assistant Clerk
Robert W. Rayburn, Permanent Clerk

The Two Hundred Fifteenth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Selwyn Ave. Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
January 15, 1957

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Two Hundred Fifteenth Stated Session at the Selwyn Ave. Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. at 9 A.M. on the above date. The opening worship was conducted by the Moderator, Ruling Elder Joe W. McLaney. The Rev. Sam M. Inman led in prayer. The Moderator brought a message on World Missions based on Matthew 28:18b.

The History of Selwyn Avenue Church—The Rev. Sam M. Inman, Host Pastor of the Selwyn Ave. Church presented the history of the Selwyn Ave. Church, which was adopted and is as follows:

HISTORY OF SELWYN AVENUE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The history of the Selwyn Avenue Church is rather adequately recorded in the Minutes of Mecklenburg Presbytery. The story of its beginning is recorded in great detail and at considerable length in the report of the Commission to Organize the church found on Page 15 of the minutes of the One Hundred Fifty-Fifth stated session on January 20, 1942.

On January 15, 1946 Presbytery held its One Hundred Seventy First stated session in this church at which time a history of the church was presented.

It is our purpose in this history to bring the Presbytery up to date and to record only those events of significance that have taken place since the last visit of the Presbytery.

The most significant work in the church for the past decade has been the completion of an adequate and permanent church building. When Presbytery met with us in 1946 we were meeting in a temporary frame building erected during the second world war. With the ending of the war, the church moved forward rapidly to project plans for a permanent building. In 1949 the work was started on the first unit. This building provided a very large fellowship hall with well equipped rooms to house the children's division of our Sunday School and the week day kindergarten school. From 1949 to 1955 the fellowship hall was used for worship as the facilities of the temporary chapel were no longer adequate to house the congregation.

As soon as the congregation occupied these new facilities it became immediately apparent that the completion of the building would have to go forward as rapidly as possible.

In May of 1954 work began on the sanctuary and the remaining portions of the educational building. On July 31, 1955 the congregation worshipped for the first time in the new sanctuary. It was an occasion of great joy and thanksgiving and the Session directed that the service be one of consecration. The Lord's Table was prepared and it was about this table that the congregation gathered to give thanks to Him who is the great Head of the Church for the manifestations of His presence and power in the program of the new church.

Presbytery comes to us at an important time in the life of this congregation. Sunday, January 13th, was the fifteenth anniversary of the formal organization of the church by the Presbytery. It marked the closing of an era of beginnings and launched the church on a new era of mature service.

It is hard to tell the story of a church in figures and statistics, for the story of this church has been one of love and sacrifice and dedicated service to Christ. But as the talents represented the extent of service in the parable of our Lord, so we would present a report of our work in a few figures that reflect in some small way the labor of love on the part of our people.

From a congregation of 42 members on the day of the organization of the church the membership today stands at 552.

In fifteen years 239 persons have publicly accepted Christ here and have joined the church on profession of faith. 586 have been received by letter or reaffirmation of faith.

The church has always been courageous and generous in its giving and has stood high among the churches of the Presbytery, the Synod and the Assembly.

In fifteen years the church has contributed $72,218 to the Benevolent program of the church, exceeding its benevolent askings every year.

The new congregation has contributed to all causes of the church a total of $605,344.

The church owns five acres of land on which it has erected a building valued at approximately $400,000. In addition the church owns a nine room manse that will be fully paid for during the year 1957. The total value of property now held by the church is conservatively estimated to be in the neighborhood of $450,000.

The program of the church covers all ages. A very active week day school with an enrollment of approximately 100, with five well trained teachers, is in session throughout the school year. The Sunday School includes departments for all ages from two years up, with the departments graded by ages throughout. The educational program recommended by our Board of Education is closely followed and every effort is made to equip our children, young people and adults with a well rounded and adequate faith.

Various activities make up the full time program of the church and a recent survey revealed that approximately 1500 people each week use the facilities provided by the church.

A well trained staff of 12 people coordinates the program and assists the minister and organizations.

Outstanding service has been rendered over the past fifteen years by the officers of the church, the permanent building committee, the young people's organizations and the Women of the Church. A present Sunday School enrollment of 617 reflects the interest of the community in this part of our work.

As the Selwyn Avenue Church enters a new period in her history we would express our gratitude to the Presbytery for the faith that it had in this church in its founding and the encouragement it has given to us through the years.

The Committee on Ministerial Education is happy to report to the Presbytery that there is continuing a steady flow of young men who are feeling the call to the Gospel Ministry. We are happy to present two new candidates to the Presbytery today and the committee is in correspondence with four additional men who have indicated their desire to be received at a future date.

We present to the Presbytery today—Ernest T. Severs—Mr. Severs is a resident of Charlotte and a member of the Thomasboro Presbyterian Church where he holds the office of a Ruling Elder. He is the son of the late Herman Fredrick Severs and Lillie Gay Kerns Severs. He has had an interesting and varied career in the business world and has served in many capacities in the church. He is at the present time enrolled at Columbia Theological Seminary where he has completed his first term of satisfactory work. The committee has had a full conference with Mr. Severs and while he lacks some of the educational requirements of our church we believe his background, his personality, and his ability will enable him to render a type of service greatly needed in our church today. We are happy to recommend him to the Presbytery as a Candidate for the Gospel Ministry.

We also present—James K. Wilson, Jr.—Mr. Wilson is the son of James Kiefer Wilson and Mildred Shaw Wilson of Charlotte and is a member of the Selwyn Avenue Presbyterian Church. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Central High School of Charlotte and in 1954 graduated with a B.S. Degree from Davidson College. He completed a tour of duty as an officer in the United States Army in September 1956 and is at the present time a member of the Junior Class at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. The Committee has studied the application of Mr. Wilson with great care and we believe he has every promise of rendering a most worthwhile service in the Gospel Ministry. We are happy to recommend him to the Presbytery.

We recommend that Mr. Severs and Mr. Wilson be examined as Candidates for the Ministry.

We have appointed Dr. H. G. Bedinger as examiner in Theology and Mr. Russell Kerr as examiner in Church Government and Sacraments for the day.

Samuel M. Inman, Chmn.

Rev. Sam M. Inman then presented the following men seeking to be taken under the care of Mecklenburg Presbytery as candidates for the Gospel Ministry: Mr. Ernest T. Severs, a Ruling Elder from the Thomasboro Church, now a member of the Junior Class of Columbia Seminary; and Mr. James K. Wilson, from the Selwyn Ave. Church, a graduate of Davidson College, and now a Junior at Union Seminary. Upon recommendation of the Chairman that Presbytery proceed with the examination, the Moderator examined the candidates on experimental religion and motives for their seeking the ministry. The motion was made that the examination be approved as satisfactory. The Moderator led Presbytery in the approved order for the reception of the candidates. Following the constitutional questions put by the Moderator, the Rev. Sam M. Inman delivered a brief charge and Rev. Sam A. Zealy led Presbytery in prayer.

- (5) Investigation of men agreed on by the committee and the Commission.

- (6) Final consultation of both committee and the Commission as to the name to be placed before the congregation. It is understood that if Home Mission aid is to be a part of the pastor's salary the Church Extension Committee must be consulted. (In order that the Commission on the Minister and His Work of Mecklenburg Presbytery may employ adequate procedures, the Commission will not be able to approve any name for presentation to a congregational meeting with a view to a call unless it be submitted to the Commission at least ten days in advance of said congregational meeting. It is the opinion of the Commission that in order to avoid possible embarrassment the name of any candidate should be cleared with the Commission prior to the issuance of a call for a congregational meeting.)
- (7) Call of congregational meeting by the session to elect a pastor (1 week's notice).
- (8) Congregational meeting to extend a call to a minister and to prosecute the call.
- (9) Original call forwarded to pastor-elect, duplicate to Commission on the Minister and His Work of Presbytery for presentation to Presbytery and it is then given to Stated Clerk of Presbytery, triplicate to Clerk of Session of church issuing call for insertion into Sessional records.
- (10) Prosecution of call before Presbytery and suggestions as to time, place and personnel of the Commission of Presbytery to install the pastor.

"If any church shall choose to subscribe its calls by the Ruling Elders and Deacons, or by a committee, it shall be at liberty to do so. But it shall, in such case, be fully certified to the Presbytery by the Minister or other person who presided, that the persons signing have been appointed for that purpose by a public vote of the church, and that the call has been in all respects prepared as above directed.

"One or more commissioners shall be appointed by the church to present and prosecute the call before the Presbytery."

Paragraphs 131-133 Book of Church Order.

The Two Hundred Sixteenth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
April 16, 1957

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its 216th Stated Session in the Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C. at 9:00 A.M. on the above date. The opening worship was led by Rev. Wm. E. Lytch. Selected verses were read from Matthew 26 and prayer was then offered by Mr. Lytch. The Moderator, Rev. David E. Wilkinson, preached a sermon on "Thirty Pieces of Silver."

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed with Rev. W. B. McSwain and Rev. A. B. Montgomery administering the elements. Presbytery was opened with prayer led by the Moderator.

History Of The Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church—

The Rev. W. B. McSwain presented Mrs. Gladys Helms, President of the Women of the Church, who read the history of the Clanton Memorial Church. A motion was adopted commending the church for its progress and entering it into the record of Presbytery.

THE HISTORY OF CLANTON MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church, one of the younger churches of Mecklenburg Presbytery, has a history reaching back into the nineteenth century. For it was in the year 1895 that Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Hill Abernathy, grandparents of Earl B. Clanton, now Clerk of the Session of Clanton Memorial Church, gave a tract of land upon which was built a brick chapel to house a community group that had been worshipping in Brown's School house just across the road. On October 31, 1948 a Commission of Mecklenburg Presbytery met in that same chapel and organized Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The chapel was built under the supervision of J. B. Clanton, father of Earl B. Clanton; labor and materials with the exception of the brick-laying were contributed by the people of the community. Lawrence Williamson, a member of the Steele Creek Church, then a boy of 14, seems to be the only person now living that helped in the construction of the building. The chapel was named Freeland's Chapel in appreciation of P. T. Freeland, a Methodist Layman, who served as the first Superintendent of the Sunday School. From the time of its inception until 1914, the work of Freeland's Chapel was carried on as an interdenominational project. This co-operative undertaking on the part of Methodists, Baptists, A.R.P.'s and Presbyterians started out very auspiciously, but finally dwindled away and in 1914 they were forced to close the doors. It was only a matter of time until the roof of the chapel caved in and the floor gave way and there was left standing only the hull of a building in which at one time had been carried on a thriving Sunday School work.

Better days were however in store for the chapel. With the coming of Dr. John W. Orr to the Pastorate of the Steele Creek Presbyterian Church in 1916, under his leadership services were revived at the chapel and the work was placed under the supervision of Steele Creek Church by the Trustees of the Chapel. Before services could be resumed it was necessary to give the chapel a general renovation. A new roof, floor and furnishings were provided. Mrs. John Weber provided the furnishings as a memorial to her Father and Mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Henry. These furnishings included a carpet for the entire floor which remained in use until 1954 when the chapel was again renovated, new pews, pulpit, pulpit furnishings, lighting fixtures, and a piano. No chapel in Mecklenburg Presbytery was more attractively furnished. Dr. Orr was succeeded by Dr. J. M. Walker as the Pastor of Steele Creek Church and he continued the work at the Chapel until his retirement from the Pastorate in 1948. The Sunday School Superintendents furnished by the Steele Creek Church seem to have been in this order:

Knox Price, John McDowell, Bob Griffith, James A. Nicholson, Bob Jennings, Tom Spratt, Parks Brown, Peyton Davenport, Robert E. McDowell, W. D. Loy, Rufus Grier.

Parks Brown served the longest of any in the group; from 1919 to 1935. For a more detailed account of the chapel work see "History of Freeland's Chapel Now Clanton Memorial Presbyterian Church", by Mrs. Grace B. McDowell, from which much of the above was gleaned.

With the coming of a new housing development into the community in 1948, the time had arrived for the organization of the Chapel into a Presbyterian Church. The leaders in bringing this about were: Rev. J. R. Rosebro, J. W. Conyers (then a Seminary student, now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Belmont, N. C.), Dr. R. H. Stone, and Rufus Grier. On October 31, 1948 the prayers of a faithful group of people were answered as a Commission from Mecklenburg Presbytery composed of Dr. J. M. Walker, Dr. J. R. Rosebro, Dr. R. H. Stone, and Mr. Rufus Grier organized the chapel into a Presbyterian Church. The new church was named Clanton Memorial in memory of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Clanton, parents of Mr. Earl B. Clanton. Of the 48 charter members received into the church, the following are still with us:

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Courtney, Mr. Jerry Courtney, Miss Carol Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Clanton, Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Furr, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Helms, Mrs. Gladys Helms, Mr. Dewey Helms, Jr., Miss Jean Helms, Mrs. Toni Windham Owens, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Overton and an associate member, Miss Mamie Farlow. Miss Mamie has not missed Sunday School in 38 years and has her attendance pins fashioned into a unique necklace.

During the first year and ten months of the church's existence there was no regular pastor. This was a very critical period in the life of the church, but through the assistance of the Home Mission Committee of Mecklenburg Presbytery regular services were maintained. No gains in membership were recorded, still this period cannot be written down as a void of accomplishments. For during this time when without leadership of a regular Pastor a small educational building was erected adjoining the old chapel at a cost of $12,000. With this addition in equipment an increase in the attendance of the Church School and other activities was noted. In the summer of 1950 Mr. William Clarke, a Seminary student, labored efficiently in our midst and with his departure in the fall we were in a position to call a pastor.

Rev. William Belk McSwain, Pastor of the Armstrong Memorial Presbyterian Church in Gastonia, N. C., was called and took up the work on September 1, 1950. During the next eighteen months all indebtedness was liquidated on our educational building and we emerged as a self supporting church. Up to this time we had been receiving financial assistance from Mecklenburg Presbytery on the salary of our Minister.

The year of 1953 will go down as a memorable year in the life of our church. Almost from the time of the arrival of our Minister on the field, the church was looking forward to the day when a new sanctuary could be built. In the early part of 1953, in anticipation of a new sanctuary, an electronic organ was purchased; soon thereafter Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Clanton presented the church with a beautiful set of chimes to go with the organ. It was a happy day when on June 7, 1953, a Ground Breaking Service for a New Sanctuary was held. We were certainly venturing out upon faith for we had only $3,000 in the building fund at this time. At this service however, the Home Mission Committee of Mecklenburg Presbytery, represented by Mr. Pat Gilchrist, presented the church with a check for $3,000 followed later by an additional $1,000. Myers Park Presbyterian Church gave $2,000. The Steele Creek Presbyterian Church, though in an extensive building campaign of its own, gave $500. In November 1953 with the walls of the church up and ready for the roof, we found ourselves without funds upon which to proceed. It was then that Miss Hattie Marks, a devoted member of our church who has since joined the Church Triumphant, presented the church with a gift of $5,000 upon which to proceed with the work. This act of generosity on the part of "Miss Hattie" so inspired the membership that we were able to carry the building program on without interruption until its completion.

Sunday, June 6, 1954 we held our opening service in the new sanctuary with every pew filled; chairs were brought in to accommodate the overflow of worshippers. The entire services were broadcast over station WSOC. From a financial statement given to the congregation it was shown that the new sanctuary with twelve class rooms in the basement had been built at a cost of $43,638.25. Furnishings amounted to $8,539.50. A total of expenditure of $52,177.75. Friends worshipping with us on the opening day were lavish in their praise about the beauty of the sanctuary. Those in a position to know the cost of building told us that what we had built represented an expenditure beyond $90,000. Several things conspired to keep down the building expense: some contributed labor and materials, ability to buy many materials at wholesale price, and the securing and sawing of much of the framing that went into the building by Mr. Harvey B. Hunter, an elder in the church.

During the sixth anniversary of the Church, October 31, 1954, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Clanton presented the church with a gift of $10,000, and it was designated "The E. B. Clanton Fund". $4,500 of this fund was applied to our church indebtedness; the balance was used to renovate the old chapel into the beautiful Fellowship Hall, and to make many other needed improvements in the church property and grounds. While the accomplishments of Clanton Memorial cannot be explained apart from the devoted and sacrificial efforts of its members, and many are worthy of individual mention; yet the officers and members of the church consider it appropriate to record a word of gratitude and appreciation for the services rendered to this church by Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Clanton, and Mrs. Clanton's sister, Miss Hattie Marks. This one family has given to the church since its organization more than $20,000 in special gifts alone. Their greatest contribution, however, cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents, for they have brought into the life of this church a spiritual content that cannot be measured. "Miss Hattie" will be remembered among us as a quiet, soft spoken, unassuming lady, with a humility and gentleness like unto her Saviour. Mr. and Mrs. Clanton are affectionately called by the church family "Earlybird" and "Miss Sybil". In the latter half of the chapel work in this community, it was Mr. and Mrs. Clanton who supplied a leadership and devotion that kept the work going; even so, in the early life of this church they have manifested a loyalty and devotion which has enabled the church to come through the critical years of its infancy and to stand today with a most promising future. Within late years Mr. and Mrs. Clanton have gracefully withdrawn into the background as additional leadership has come into the church, still they can always be counted on for Counsel and help whenever it is needed. "A benediction to the church in its most needed hour", must be the verdict of history, concerning the E. B. Clanton Family.

Death has reached into our congregation since its organization, removing some of our most valuable leaders: Mr. Dewey Helms, an elder; Mr. Robert Hutchins, Superintendent of the Church School, and an Elder; Mrs. Adrian Price, a Church School Teacher; and Miss Hattie Marks, who has already been noted.

Reviewing the eight and a half years of our life as a church of Mecklenburg Presbytery we are able to record in visible assets: a two acre church lot, a Church Sanctuary, 17 class rooms, a kitchen, a beautiful Fellowship Hall, and a Scout Hut. All of this is valued very conservatively at more than $150,000. Our membership is now beyond the two hundred mark and our Church School enrollment is 290. All of the various departments of the Church are organized and functioning well. Our church indebtedness of approximately $15,000 will be liquidated within the next five years.

As we now approach near the end of our first decade of service as a church of Christ, efforts are being made to quicken our labors and plans are now on the drafting board for the second decade of service. To meet the opportunities before us in this second decade will most certainly demand an additional educational building to care for our growing Church School. Looking to the past, we gratefully exclaim: "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us, whereof we are glad". Turning to the future, we consecrate ourselves anew, believing that tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among us, for our God is able.

Your committee has six applications in the process of investigation. We would urge our ministers and Sessions to keep the call of the Gospel Ministry before the young men of our Presbytery that the field now ripe unto the harvest in our Southland may be provided for well trained, consecrated laborers for the harvest.

(a) The report of the Council On Christian Relations to the General Assembly in 1956, entitled, "The Church's Relationship to Community Delinquency Problems", now available in pamphlet from the Assembly's Division of Christian Relations, Atlanta, Georgia.

2. Second, we would remind the Presbytery of certain recommendations adopted by the General Assembly in 1956 in the area of Christian Relations:

(a) That the session of each Church be urged to appoint a committee or use an existing committee to interpret, encourage and support the work of Christian Relations".

(b) "That Church leaders, both ministers and laymen, and church members generally, accept their responsibility as Christian Citizens in promoting justice and good will, and in sustaining law and order in their local communities during these days of tension and transition in the South".

3. The special emphasis in this last year of the Forward with Christ Program is "Christian Citizenship", and we would call upon the leaders of the local churches to implement in every possible way the study of this theme.

RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) That Presbytery be led in prayer by one of its members in behalf of our nation, that it may have the wisdom and strength to follow God's guidance during these critical days, and in behalf of our church, that it may be true and faithful in witnessing to the redemptive power of God's love.

(2) That a program in the area of Christian Citizenship be presented at the fall meeting of Presbytery by the Committee on Church Extension through its sub-committee on Christian Relations.

A prayer was offered to Almighty God for our nation and church by Rev. Roswell C. Long.

B. Home Missions—The Home Missions Committee's work was reported by the Rev. Robert Turner, Chairman. A motion was adopted to admit the report to the record as follows:

The work of Home Missions in Mecklenburg Presbytery continues to move forward under the direction of the Committee on Home Missions. There are now twenty-four churches in 15 fields in the Presbytery which receive aid on their pastor's salary through the funds of the Home Mission Committee. In addition to the fifteen pastors in these fields, there are two women workers in the Seigle Avenue Church and a third woman worker is being sought for the South Tryon Street Church. There have been ministerial losses during the past year but the regular schedule of preaching services has been maintained through the efforts and under the direction of our Executive Secretary, Rev. R. H. Stone. The following new men have come into the Home Mission work of the Presbytery during the past year: the Rev. M. S. Bell, Seigle Avenue Church; the Rev. McK. A. Cochran, Amay James Church; and the Rev. James B. Reaves, the Hickory Grove area.

Dr. Charles M. Boyd continues to serve as minister to the hospitals, this work also being financed by the Home Mission Committee. Dr. Boyd reports that during the past year he called on 7400 sick Presbyterians who came from 15 different states. His average visit to each of these patients is three.

The Church and Manse fund has aided three new buildings; namely, the Amay James Church and Educational Building, the Ridgecrest Educational Building and the Pleasant Hill manse. $1,035 is being held for the new work in the Hickory Grove area. Additional property has been added to the Seigle Avenue lot. The Committee through its funds has aided the following building projects: The Turner Church, Ridgecrest Educational Building, Belk Educational Building, Watson Heights Church (with an annual payment), the Amay James Church Educational Building, and the Third Presbyterian Church. Ninety people have been received into our churches on profession of faith and eighty by letter. An additional twenty-five have been received by letter awaiting the organization of the church at Hickory Grove.

The Committee had a good year financially, last year receiving from the benevolence funds of the Presbytery and other sources a total of $77,151.16. Of this amount $21,206.23 went for salaries and payroll taxes; $14,500 went for new buildings; $9,904 to Negro work; $3,600 to the minister to the hospitals and other causes bringing the expenditure to $67,196.00. The Church and Manse Building Fund has made a valuable contribution to the work of your committee. The call for the Amay James Church resulting in $1,382.50; for the Ridgecrest Church, $1,186.50; and for the Hickory Grove new work, $874.00; and for the Seigle Avenue manse, $315.48. All home mission men and their wives who could attend were sent to Montreat for the Home Mission Conference. Their expenses while there were paid.

The prospects for the work in the Hickory Grove area are encouraging. Under the direction of Rev. James B. Reaves a group of people are meeting regularly in the Hickory Grove School. Committees have been appointed to begin a stable work in that community. The group has decided upon a piece of property for their proposed church and have requested the committee to assist them in the securing of same.

The following recommendations were adopted.

(1) That Mecklenburg Presbytery authorize and instruct its trustees, if the way be clear, to purchase the lot for the proposed church in the Hickory Grove area, consisting of approximately 8 acres to be purchased from Mr. Charlie Morris under arrangements agreed to by the Home Mission Committee and Mr. Morris. The cost of the land will be approximately $8,000. The Home Mission Committee to make the necessary down payment and the trustees to be authorized to negotiate the necessary papers for the final payment on this property.

(2) That Mecklenburg Presbytery endorse a special appeal in the churches in the Presbytery for the Church and Manse Building Fund and that pastors and congregations be urged to consider a special Sunday for such a presentation. The Home Mission Committee is to provide brochures for presentation to the members of the congregation for this purpose.

(3) That the Presbytery endorse the approval of the committee granting permission to the First Presbyterian Church of Rockingham to relocate their church approximately four blocks from the present site on Highway No. 1, North.

(4) That Presbytery approve the sale of the Irwin Street property by the Home Mission Committee for $4,000 and that the Trustees of Presbytery be authorized to transfer the title to the Apostolic Church of God.

C. Evangelism—The following recommendations were adopted.

(1) That each church sponsor at least one Visitation Evangelism Program each year and one protracted series of evangelistic meetings.

(2) That each member of each church be asked to take part in Friendship Evangelism. (See pamphlet to be distributed.)

(3) That each church be asked to set as a minimum membership goal of 10% gross increase upon membership for 1956.

Men's Convention in Miami—The Rev. Robert Turner, Regional Director of Christian Education, for the Synod of North Carolina, made a brief announcement about the Men's Convention to begin October 10th.

Presbytery's Council—The Rev. A. Leslie Thompson, Chairman, reported for the Presbytery's Council. A motion was made and carried for the adoption of the report, and for it to be entered into the record.

Mecklenburg's Presbytery's Council met on Friday afternoon April 12, 1957 at Sugaw Creek Church at 2:30 with the following members present—

Rev. A. L. Thompson, Rev. David Wilkinson, Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, Mrs. Lloyd E. Ardrey, Rev. J. R. Crook, Rev. Ben Moore, Rev. C. S. Miller, Rev. R. H. Stone and J. B. Kuykendall.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, the Rev. A. L. Thompson and the Rev. R. H. Stone led in prayer.

The Docket of the Spring meeting of Presbytery was presented by the Stated Clerk of Presbytery and the following changes were made—

The Council voted to hear during the time for Communications on the docket—

Miss Virginia Irene Morris, Director of Christian Education for the Presbytery—

Mr. J. B. Watt, Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Homes in the interest of the special offering to be taken in the Churches of the Presbytery on Mother's Day.

The Rev. Wilber Cousar in the interest of World Missions.

The Council set at 12:30 the time to hear the Rev. Marshall C. Dendy of the Board of Christian Education on the matter of the proposed Book Store for Charlotte.

The attention of the Council was called to the fact that our Chaplain to the Hospitals—the Rev. Charles M. Boyd—received no funds from the Home Mission Committee to pay for notices mailed to Churches and Ministers notifying them of members of their churches in the Hospitals.

The Council voted to request the Home Mission Committee of Presbytery to appropriate the sum of $100 per annum to be used by the Chaplain to the Hospitals for this purpose.

The audit report of all funds of Presbytery handled by the Executive Secretary and Treasurer was presented by the Rev. R. H. Stone for examination of the Council. The report was found in order and approved.

The Council voted to request the Trustees of Presbytery to make an inventory of all assets of the Presbytery and to report their findings to the next meeting of Presbytery.

The Council approved the payment of an audit fee of $100 for auditing the Books of the Executive Secretary and Treasurer.

Also approved for payment was a bill for $42.42 as a premium on bond for Treasurers of Presbytery's funds.

The Rev. Mr. Stone called the attention of the Council to the fact that his office was without the assistance of a Secretary whereupon the Chairman of the Council and the Executive Secretary were requested by the Council to employ a suitable person as soon as possible.

The Rev. J. R. Crook reported to the Council that an audit of the books of Presbytery's Committee on Christian Education was being made and that this audit would be turned over to the Stated Clerk when completed.

Mr. Stone reported that Presbytery's Office had purchased a film on Temperance the title being "Far From Alone" to be used by the Churches of the Presbytery in an effort to instruct particularly our Young People in the evils of alcohol. The Council authorized the payment of the purchase price of $150 with the understanding that any churches using the film would make a voluntary contribution to its use.

The Council was advised that the Executive Secretary of Presbytery as well as any employees of his office were not insured under the Insurance and Hospitalization plan now available to our ministers.

A motion prevailed that such insurance and hospitalization be secured for the Executive Secretary and employees of his office.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Ben Moore.

A. Leslie Thompson, Chairman
Malcolm R. Williamson, Secretary

Woman's Work—The Rev. Shelton M. Hutchison, Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Woman's Work, spoke briefly and then introduced Mrs. Loyd E. Ardrey, President of the Women of the Church of Mecklenburg Presbytery. The report was adopted and is as follows:

From the reports of the 95 local presidents of organized groups of Women of the Church in Mecklenburg Presbytery it is evident that they have indeed, during the past year, gone FORWARD WITH CHRIST THROUGH CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE. Those groups which are not organized were, thru a key woman, kept informed of the program of the church.

Compilation of these reports show a total of 13,127 women in 485 circles. Not only is a gain noted in membership, but in the spiritual life of the churches as a result of the year's emphasis "Christian Family Life". The joint meetings with the Men of the Church have, in most instances been quite successful; younger women are assuming positions of leadership; more families are attending Sunday School and worship services as a family unit; reports also show an increase in family altars and in tithers, as well as a greater sense of responsibility as parents.

As has been customary for some years, early in January two Training Classes were held in the Presbytery at which time groups of study were arranged for every woman of the organization. The church's program was outlined and all were given a vision of what we would like to accomplish in 1956. We believe that programs and materials provided for their help have been better presented as a result of these classes.

In February a group of women from Mecklenburg, together with several from other presbyteries, visited our mission at Ybor City as this was to be one of the recipients of our Birthday Offering. These women then presented the birthday objective at the various churches in the presbytery. The interest and enthusiasm of the group was reflected in the response to this appeal. Our Birthday Offering of $7,480.-04 was the largest we have ever had.

Our District Conferences, Institute for Christian Family Living at Oaklawn Center, Synodical Training School and the various conferences at Montreat were well attended. At our Presbyterial meeting at Plaza Church in November we had a total attendance of 549 and the offering of $275.55 was given to Christian Higher Education.

The stewardship of the women was evidenced in their many gifts of service, and that of their possessions in our overall gift of $137,-494.00—$91,849 to benevolences and $45,645 to local churches.

A motion was made and sustained to set the quorum for each Commission at two ministers and two Ruling Elders.

Judicial Business—As Chairman, the Rev. W. M. Walsh reported for the Committee on the matter of the seeming conflict of the action of the Commission on the Minister and His Work as a Committee and as a Commission. The report was adopted and the recommendation of the appointment of a committee to make a further study of this matter was adopted.

From the study of this Committee we conclude that according to the Book of Church Order, the Commission on the Minister and His Work functions—

1. As a Committee, in which function it can act only in an advisory capacity and to examine and report to Presbytery on matters pertaining to—

a. Advising with Sessions regarding Temporary Supplies; b. Advising with Sessions regarding Stated Supplies; c. Advising with Sessions regarding Pastoral calls.

2. As a Commission to inquire into difficulties within a church, and it is only in this function that the Commission may deliberate upon and conclude the business referred to it.

This Committee finds that by custom the Presbytery has delegated to the Commission the power to dismiss ministers and to approve temporary Supplies.

In view of what appears to be the conflict between the provisions of the Book of Church Order and the rule which has been established by custom, this Committee recommends that the Commission on the Minister and His Work be empowered as in the past with reference to Temporary Supplies and dismissals until a further study of this matter can be made and appropriate action taken by the Presbytery; and to that end, we recommend appointment of a committee of five members to make the necessary study and recommendations to the next meeting of Presbytery.

Rev. W. M. Walsh, Chairman

A motion was made and adopted providing for the appointment of the Standing Committee on Judicial Business for this session plus the Moderator, Rev. W. M. Boyce, Sr. to bring in to the next meeting of Presbytery a report on this matter. This Committee is composed of the following: Rev. W. M. Walsh, Chairman; Rev. J. B. Reeves; Rev. W. M. Boyce, Sr.; Ruling Elders, Charles M. Hassell; and H. J. Auten.

Committee On Synod's Minutes—The Rev. William F. Mitchell, Chairman, reported for the Committee on Synod's Minutes. The report was adopted and entered into the record and is as follows:

A motion was made and adopted by the Stated Clerk, the Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, commending Mr. Roy Covington, the Religious News Editor of the Charlotte Observer, and that his national award and recognition be noted by this Presbytery.

Boyd. The Moderator, Rev. W. M. Boyce, Sr., preached the opening sermon entitled "A Setting for Serious Thought" based on Isaiah 1:18, 20. The Moderator opened the Presbytery with prayer.

HISTORY—Rev. I. Howard Chadwick, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, introduced Mrs. Frank Orr, President of the Women-of-the-Church, who read the history of the Westminster Church which was admitted to the record, and is as follows:

The History of the Christian Church had its inception not in the outward manifestations of Pentecost but in the ancient inner covenant made between God and Abraham, the father of the Israel of God. The history of Westminster Presbyterian Church begins not at the actual date of organization but in a covenant between God and a group of his people who shared a burning conviction that the total ministry of Christ's Church is rendered less effective by Protestantism's too-numerous divisions, and who believed that God was calling and directing them into specific action in this matter.

Such was the conviction of a nucleus of members of the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Charlotte who believed that the overall objectives of Christ, his Church, and his Kingdom could best be served by joining forces with one of the mainstreams of Presbyterianism rather than continuously struggling to maintain and operate a denomination so similar in tradition, doctrine, and policy, and with no essential or vital differences. It was their further belief that if the movement toward mending the rifts in the body of Christ is to be realized ultimately, it must have a beginning here and now.

Fully persuaded of the rightness of their purpose and confident of the leading of the Holy Spirit, this group on August 3, 1952, made the final decision to sever connections with the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and to seek admission to the Presbyterian Church, United States. The courage and industriousness of these people are reflected in the events following their decision. The fact that they did not contend for property or money is to their everlasting credit. In the beginning, as they laid plans for their first service on August 10, 1952, they possessed nothing; no money; furnishings; equipment; no sponsoring church providing funds for an initial investment; no hymnals; no pastor—nothing except a profound sense of a divine vocation and mission, an unmovable faith, and a willingness to work. By the time appointed for the first service, however, the Veterans' Club at 1019 East Morehead Street had been rented at a cost of $50 per Sunday, a pulpit borrowed, hymnals purchased, choir robes made by the Women of the Church, and bulletins printed for the first service. At seven o'clock on the morning of August 10, 1952, a group of men equipped with mops, scrub buckets, dust rags, and other implements was on hand to prepare the building. By 9:30 the church school teachers and staff members, organized during the week, were prepared to assume their duties. Classrooms, though meagerly and sparsely equipped, were in readiness. At the eleven o'clock hour 240 gathered for the first service conducted by Dr. W. M. Crow, then pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, North Carolina, and indicated their intention of becoming affiliated with the infant congregation.

A zealous spirit and unabated labor characterized the ensuing weeks as plans progressed and arrangements were completed for the official adoption of the new child. On August 19, Mecklenburg Presbytery, in a special called session at Davidson College, received Westminster's petition for organization, set up a schedule of supply ministers, and appointed a commission to receive her as a member of Mecklenburg Presbytery. On September 14, 1952, regarded as the birthday of Westminster, the commission from the Presbytery officially effected the organization with a membership of 301. In a memorable service the Rev. Jonas A. Barclay pronounced the invocation, Elder W. E. Price read the Scripture, Dr. W. M. Boyce offered the pastoral prayer, Dr. H. V. Carson preached the sermon, Elder Rufus A. Grier gave the Covenant Vows, Dr. W. M. Boyce installed the 14 elders and 21 deacons, and greetings were extended by Elders W. E. Price, Rufus A. Grier, and Beaumert Whitton. Elder Rufus A. Grier reported on the selection of a name for the church and by majority vote "Westminster," one of the most hallowed names in Presbyterian history, was selected. Dr. Herbert V. Carson of the Queens College faculty, who was appointed as Stated Supply Minister, pronounced the benediction.

Such was the genesis of Westminster Presbyterian Church. The fact that this congregation in its beginning and development had been called and directed by God has been made manifest in subsequent events. On October 5, 1952, the congregation approved the purchase of a four-acre building site at the intersection of Crescent Avenue Extension and Colville Road. New members, responding to the challenge of this enterprising group, came in a steady stream. On May 10, 1953, the Pulpit Nominating Committee submitted to the congregation as prospective pastor the name of the Rev. Howard Chadwick, pastor of Fairview Moravian Church of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and the congregation voted unanimously to extend the call. The Rev.

Mr. Chadwick and his family moved into the newly purchased manse at 2000 Beverly Drive on June 2, 1953, and on the following Sunday, June 7, the new pastor conducted his first service for the congregation. By the end of 1953, a $57,000 Fellowship Building had been completed, and church offices were moved into this building where all week-day activities were held. On February 13, 1955, Westminster met for the last time at the Veterans' Club, and on the following Sunday services were held in the worshipful Belk Chapel on Queens College campus.

Here the congregation continued a healthy and steady growth. On July 25, 1955, ground was broken for the construction of the new sanctuary. This beautiful and commodious new church, constructed in the contemporary style of architecture, was occupied for the first time on November 18, 1956, when the opening service was conducted.

Membership of Westminster has now passed the 675 mark. With adequate facilities, full-time director of Christian education and secretary, an ever-enlarging staff, Westminster stands ready to serve in Christ's name her community as another church in "the city of churches."

MEMORIAL—The Rev. Tom MacLean read a memorial for Rev. John R. Rosebro, which was adopted. A motion was made that a prayer commemorating the service of Mr. Rosebro and prayer for his family be offered. The prayer was led by Rev. R. H. Stone.

THE REVEREND JOHN R. ROSEBRO, D.D.

The Reverend John R. Rosebro, D.D., honorably retired member of Mecklenburg Presbytery, departed this life on May 21 at High Point Memorial Hospital. Dr. Rosebro had been in declining health for some months and had been residing at the Presbyterian Home in High Point since December 14, 1956.

He was born at Hampden-Sydney, Va., April 29, 1874, a son of the Reverend and Mrs. John William Rosebro. He was graduated at Hampden-Sydney college in 1894 and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from his alma mater in 1926. For two years he taught at Austin College, in Sherman, Texas, and entered Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, at which he was graduated in 1902. In the same year he was licensed by East Hanover Seminary and ordained by Baltimore Presbytery of the U.S.A. Church and installed as pastor of the Waverly Presbyterian church of Baltimore, which he served until 1905. He was married to Miss Christine Neilson in December of 1904. She died in 1940. Returning to his own Presbyterian Church in the U.S., he became professor and acting president of Fredericksburg College from 1905 until 1910. Then followed a series of pastorates: Whitmire, S. C., 1910-13; Smyrna, Tenn., 1913-18; Hebron church, Lexington Presbytery, 1918-24; Holmes church, Norfolk Presbytery, 1924-40. Retiring in 1940, he came to North Carolina to make his home in Gastonia and Charlotte.

In the years that followed Dr. Rosebro labored most fruitfully as supply minister in a number of churches in the Charlotte area of Mecklenburg Presbytery, including St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Clanton Memorial, Avondale, Paw Creek and Cook's Memorial.

Noteworthy is the fact that funeral services for Dr. Rosebro were conducted from the same church (Covenant Presbyterian) in which fifty-eight years earlier, during a summer visit to Charlotte, he heard and responded to the call to the ministry. (At that time the church was Westminster Presbyterian).

Dr. Rosebro is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Christian Meacham, of Charlotte; two sons, R. N. Rosebro of Gastonia and J. W. Rosebro of Charlotte; and two brothers, Reverend F. B. Rosebro of Philadelphia, and C. H. R. Rosebro of Roanoke, Va.

Report Of Ad Interim Committee on "Commission on Minister and His Work".

Rev. W. M. Walsh, Chairman, reported for the committee. A motion was made and prevailed that the report be adopted. The report is as follows:

At the January, 1957 meeting of Presbytery this Committee was instructed to ascertain and report on the rule with reference to certain functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work. A thorough study has been made by your committee, and we make the following report:

In 1950 the Presbytery of Mecklenburg sent an overture to the General Assembly asking whether or not the rule that had been followed by Mecklenburg Presbytery permitting the Commission on the Minister and His Work to dissolve pastoral relationships and to dismiss ministers to other Presbyteries is in harmony with our Book of Church Order. To this overture the General Assembly replied that the action is in harmony with the Book of Church Order if presbytery has authorized the Commission on the Minister and His Work to dissolve the pastoral relationship and dismiss the minister to another presbytery. The General Assembly further stated "when taking such action, a quorum of at least three ministers and one elder must be present." The overture referred to is on Pages 28-29 and the reply to the overture may be found on Page 60 of the minutes of the 1950 General Assembly.

In view of this action of the General Assembly this Committee recommends that Presbytery authorize the Commission on the Minister and His Work to dissolve pastoral relationships and dismiss ministers to other Presbyteries.

This Committee further recommends that Presbytery authorize the Commission on the Minister and His Work to clear the names of ministers for calls and approve the terms of such calls.

Respectfully submitted,

Walter M. Walsh, Chairman

The Two Hundred Eighteenth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Plaza Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
September 17, 1957

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its two hundred eighteenth stated session at the Plaza Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C., at 9 A.M. on the above date. The opening worship was conducted by Dr. R. H. Stone. The moderator, the Rev. A. T. Taylor, preached a sermon on "Knowledge Concerning Christ" using Philippians 3:10 as his text. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed with Dr. D. E. Wilkinson and the Rev. John Lake administering the elements. They were assisted by the elders of the Plaza Church.

The History of the Plaza Presbyterian Church was given by Mrs. J. B. Caddell of the Plaza Church. It was adopted and is as follows:

HISTORY OF THE PLAZA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The first steps toward organizing The Plaza Presbyterian Church were taken on the fourth Sunday in February, 1905. Permission was received from the Mecklenburg Board of Education for the use of a room in the Belmont Graded School. Under the direction of Reverend L. D. Neal, Assistant Pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, a Sunday School was organized within two weeks. Mr. W. J. Cook, who was the husband of the oldest living charter member of the church, was appointed superintendent.

The school room was soon unavailable for use and Mr. Cook held Sunday School in his home. Later the Woodman of the World Hall building, over Spoon's Store on Pegram Street, was rented. The records say, "Sabbath School was held regularly with alternate periods of encouragement and discouragement."

It was the desire of this group to organize a Presbyterian Church, and a committee was appointed to solicit funds for this purpose. A lot on the corner of Pegram Street and Saint George was donated by the Louise Mill Company. A house of worship was erected on this site at a cost of $1,350.00. At a meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery on September 18, 1907, a petition signed by 47 persons was presented, asking for the organization of Belmont Church. The request was granted.

On October 6, 1907, a commission from Mecklenburg Presbytery formally organized The Pegram Street Church, with thirty charter members. Three of these are living members of Plaza Church today—Mrs. W. J. Cook, Mrs. A. E. Alexander, and Mrs. Jewel Yandle.

Pegram Street Church was a Home Mission Church for almost nineteen years. The first regular pastor, the Reverend A. R. Harrison, served one year, 1909 to 1910. The second pastor was the Reverend T. D. Cartledge, serving from 1914 to 1917. He was the father of Mrs. J. L. Fesperman. The Reverend J. H. Dixon was pastor from 1917 until the time of his death in 1919, which occurred in the church during the morning service. He was succeeded by The Reverend J. E. Wool, who served the Church from 1919 to 1922. The Reverend I. E. Wallace was the stated supply from 1924 to 1926, when he was installed as regular pastor. He served until 1932.

It was during the pastorate of Doctor Wallace that the church was moved to its present location. The first service in the new building at the northeast corner of the Plaza and Mecklenburg Avenue was held on the morning of May 16, 1926. A formal opening service was held in the afternoon. The name of the church was at that time changed to Plaza Presbyterian Church. It was a building designed as the first unit in the educational building. The main auditorium seated about 300 persons. The complete cost was $20,000.00, including the lot. There were 150 members at that time.

Doctor Harry K. Holland began his pastorate on November 20, 1932 and served until January 30, 1941. During that period the church membership and budget increased greatly. More elders and deacons were being added, and our Sunday School became more systematically organized.

Doctor J. Walton Stewart, Jr. became pastor in April, 1941 and served until October 30, 1950. During this time our church enrollment doubled and the Sunday School attendance greatly increased.

On July 27, 1941, the congregation voted to authorize the officers to proceed with necessary plans for the building of a sanctuary. On Sunday, October 12, 1941, after the observance of the Lord's Supper, the "groundbreaking" ceremony was held. Mrs. Dan Johnston, one of the most honored members of our church, lifted the first shovel of dirt. This building was completed in 1942 at the cost of approximately $31,000.00. The old educational building was renovated in 1949 to provide additional space.

Our present pastor, Doctor David E. Wilkinson, was installed on July 29, 1951. During the last six years, a new educational building has been erected, and our sanctuary enlarged and remodeled as it is today. The church membership is the largest it has been at any time, and the members have been greatly blessed by Doctor Wilkinson's ministry. In May of this year, King College conferred on him the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Divinity.

We have a well organized Sunday School with well trained teachers. For this we owe a debt of gratitude to our Director of Christian Education, Mrs. A. T. Brown, Jr. The present enrollment is 994. While it would be impossible to name all the workers, we would like to pay a special tribute to Mrs. Lois Trotter, who has served the Primary Department long and well. There are many who would "rise up and call her blessed."

The Women of the Church, organized in 1909, has grown along with the membership of the church. Today there are sixteen circles, and the women are actively engaged in all areas of the church's total program.

The Men of the Church are also organized, being interested in various worthwhile projects and particularly in the Explorer Scout group. They promote good fellowship and athletic activities.

The Youth Organizations consist of the Westminster, Senior, Pioneer, Junior, and Primary Fellowships. The scouting program offers to the boys and girls of the community the opportunity to develop a strong character, and train for the duties of adult life. Through capable and consecrated leaders, the young people are prepared to accept responsibilities in the church.

The week-day kindergarten and private first grade fills a great need in the church by giving the child a solid foundation and background for his future education.

Mr. J. Clyde White has served as Director of Music of the Church for the past nineteen years. In recognition of the outstanding service Mr. and Mrs. White are rendering the church, a reception was given in their honor this year.

Plaza Church has grown from a Home Mission Church of thirty charter members to the present membership of approximately 1,000. The budget for 1957 is $65,808. It is with humble hearts that we have witnessed evidences of God's plan being worked through the members. There has been a marked increase in our benevolent giving, and a growing interest in World Missions is manifested. Spiritual growth has also been reflected in the increase of daily Bible readers, family altars, and tithers.

While we are rejoicing on this our Fiftieth Anniversary, we are keenly aware of our need to lengthen our cords, and strengthen our stakes, that we might bear a more effective witness for the King and the Head of the Church.

We are grateful to God for His accomplishments through us, and "Unto Him be the glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end."

Your Committee on Evangelism in the name of the Head of the Church reminds you that Evangelism has many facets: Prayer, Personal, Friendship, Visitation, Mass, Protractive, Teaching and Pulpit.

We therefore urge each church to employ such phases as will promote this principal, primary and permanent task of the church. We lay upon your heart, brother Ministers, to call for a decision for Christ at every occasion you preach. Perhaps God will trust us with a genuine revival, if we remain faithful.

Sam Zealy, Chairman

The Stated Clerk reported copies of committee memberships are available. He asked the churches to remember to pay the Presbytery tax and to turn in to the Stated Clerk the listing of church officers.

Reception Of Ministers—The Stated Clerk reported that he had certificates of transfer for the Rev. J. R. McAlpine III from Winston-Salem Presbytery and for the Rev. N. E. Oplinger from Knoxville Presbytery. Both letters carried commendations. These certificates were found in order and Presbytery proceeded to examine the ministers in accordance with the Book of Church Order.

The Moderator examined them in experimental religion, Dr. L. I. Stell in theology, and the Rev. B. H. Evans in church government and the sacraments. Each part was sustained as satisfactory. The examination as a whole was sustained as satisfactory and the ministers were enrolled as members of the Presbytery upon the signing of the covenant.

Ministerial Candidates—The Rev. Sam M. Inman, Chmn., reported that there were no candidates to be received. There are now 53 candidates under the care of Presbytery.

Report Of The Committee On Bicentennial Committee—Mr. Rufus A. Grier made the following report, which was adopted. The Committee was discharged with a vote of deep gratitude for a splendid job.

Your Committee appointed on January 15, 1952 in the 195th Stated Meeting held in the Presbyterian Junior College "to study and present plans for the 200th Anniversary of Presbyterianism in Mecklenburg Presbytery" will make its final report.

To the original committee other members were added by subsequent Presbyteries. There were many meetings of the Committee. Many men and women gave of their time and talent in preparation for the Bi-Centennial Celebration. The result was the production of "The Voice in the Wilderness"—an historical drama—by Dr. LeGette Blythe. In preparation and presentation of the drama it is thought that one thousand people participated. The production was shown in four evenings beginning—June 14, 1955—in the Southern States Fair Ground. Each evening except the last people—totalling 4,500—were turned away. An estimated audience of 20,000 people were thrilled as history of more than 200 years ago was relived by a splendid cast. There was no admission charge—which amazed many. Prof. John McCrae, of the Converse College faculty, was the able director.

Your Committee thought that an observance of such splendor and magnitude should be preserved. Mr. William Loftin on faith published the work in a beautiful volume with a picture of the four hundred member cast on the jacket. This work has called for a second binding. Selected portions have also been filmed in color with a sound track. The original will be kept in the fireproof safe in the Presbytery's Office. Two copies for use have been made. They are to be rented at ten dollars per showing until rentals amount to $350.00. After this one of the prints will be loaned to the Charlotte Public Library.

Two scrap books have been prepared—one to be kept in the Presbytery's Office and the other sent to the Historical Foundation.

Opposite is the financial statement showing the total cost $7,859.75, all of which has been audited with the exception of the current year's transactions of $49.59, which will show up in the next audit. There is an indebtedness of about $350.00 which will be cared for by the film rentals.

We had wonderful cooperation on the part of constituent churches and individuals and corporations. There were a number of excellent by-products. Praise for the author, the director, the cast and the production came from many sources.

Your Committee would thank you for giving us the privilege of such an undertaking, which is said to have had the largest cast of anything yet produced in America. We feel that our denomination was strengthened by such a celebration.

We hereby ask that the Committee be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,
Rufus A. Grier, Chairman

Preparations For General Assembly—the Rev. Lee Stoffel made a motion that the Moderator be authorized to appoint two committees—one on Communion and the other to carry on the exchange of pulpits in the City of Charlotte and throughout the Presbytery. The motion passed.

Report Of The Committee On Homes—was presented by the Chmn., the Rev. W. F. Mitchell. It was adopted and follows:

First of all, we would express our gratitude to God for His blessings bestowed upon the Homes at High Point, Barium Springs, and Montreat.

Your Committee would report the following:

I. The Presbyterian Home, Inc. at High Point has a total of 75 on the campus, which is their present capacity. Mecklenburg Presbytery now has twelve members in the Home, none on the approved waiting list, and seven applications are on file for admission.

Presbytery should know of the financial support that the Home receives from its members. Nineteen people contribute only their old age assistance checks, $60 per month. From six the Home receives the old age assistance and a partial supplement. Seven contribute their old age assistance and full supplement. At present, 35 pay in full the $150 per month.

Your Committee is concerned to find that of the 107 churches in Mecklenburg Presbytery, so far, only 20 have sent in their Mother's Day Offering for support of the Home which totals $1,593.15.

The Session and Pastor of Sunset Hills Presbyterian Church visited the Home on August 4 and were very cordially received. Your Committee would suggest that other Sessions consider doing the same to become better informed.

II. The William Black Home at Montreat reports an excellent season. The building was filled to capacity most of the summer and people from the outside came there for meals. Improvements planned for the near future include new kitchen equipment.

III. On August 4th Little Joe's Presbyterian Church at Barium Springs was dedicated to the glory of God, with Dr. W. T. Thompson preaching the sermon.

Your committee would call attention to the fact that the main life-line from our churches to the Orphans' Home is the Thanksgiving Offering, plus the Benevolence percentages which are given.

The most pressing need for physical equipment is a cold storage plant which is needed for chilling and storing food and dairy products from the farm, orchards, and dairy.

Two new cottages have recently been completed making the capacity of the Home two hundred and fifty. There is immediate space for 32 additional children and applications on hand are now being processed. It appears that before the end of the school year our family at the Home will require all the available space.

The Home for Orphan Children stands ready to serve the churches of the Presbyteries as the need and opportunity arises.

Respectfully submitted,

William F. Mitchell, Chairman

New Business—Report from the Committee on Home Missions presented by the Chairman, Dr. W. M. Boyce. The recommendations which follow were adopted:

Since it is general practice for the WOMEN OF THE CHURCH to be represented on some presbytery committees, we recommend to Presbytery that the Presbyterial chairman on Church Extension become an advisory member of Presbytery's Home Mission Committee.

Since the BELK LARGER PARISH is no longer actively operating, we recommend that Presbytery dissolve the Parish and permission be given the Home Mission's Committee to set up new fields within the former parish.

The Home Missions Committee desires to present the following resolution in appreciation of the services of Dr. R. H. Stone:

The Committee of Home Missions, Mecklenburg Presbytery, wish to express to Dr. R. H. Stone our appreciation and thanks for the very efficient service rendered the work of this committee in the past sixteen years.

Dr. Stone has been a faithful Servant of the Church, has labored in season and out of season to forward the work of Home Missions in this Presbytery. Through his enthusiasm, energy and love of the Lord in the period of service in this Presbytery nineteen Churches have been organized with a membership of 4,175.

We will be interested in his work in his new field of endeavor and shall remember him affectionately in our prayers.

COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The proposed amendment to the Book of Church Order approved by the 1957 General Assembly was approved by the Presbytery. It is as follows:

The General Assembly, meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, April 25-29, 1957, approved the following amendment to Par. 107, Book of Church Order and directed that it be sent to the presbyteries for advice and consent:

It is recommended that every candidate for the ministry should put himself under the care of Presbytery, which should ordinarily be the Presbytery that has jurisdiction of the church of which he is a member. Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of a Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry or mission service shall have been a member of one particular congregation of the Presbyterian Church in the United States for the six months preceding the filing of his application. The Two Hundred Nineteenth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Badin Presbyterian Church,
Badin, N. C.
January 28, 1958

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its two hundred nineteenth stated meeting at Badin Presbyterian Church, Badin, N. C., at 9 A.M. on the above date. The moderator, the Rev. Ben F. Moore, led the opening worship and preached a sermon entitled, "Ambassadors for Christ," using for his text, II Corinthians 5:20.

Memorial—The Presbytery noted the sudden death of one of her younger ministers, the Rev. George W. Powell of the Pleasant Hill Church. Dr. R. A. Young led in prayer for the family, friends, and congregation in their bereavement.

The history of the Badin Presbyterian Church was given by Mrs. J. H. Devereaux. It was adopted and is as follows:

HISTORY OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, BADIN, N. C. 1917—1957

The First Presbyterian Church of Badin, N. C. was organized March 18, 1917 by Rev. Leonard Gill, assisted by Rev. William Black, with Rev. D. B. McLaughlin as the first pastor, who served about a year. There were forty-nine (49) charter members, several of whom are still living.

Our next pastor was Rev. Walter A. Creason, who was here only three months when he became a Chaplain in the Army.

Rev. T. G. Tate was called to this church and began his pastorate January 1, 1919. He served three years. During these years we worshipped in various places, and while in the school building we were able to build the brick structure we are so proud of.

Our church was built in 1920 by the Aluminum Company. The cost at that time was $10,000.00 The building committee met September 14, 1919 and was composed of: Mr. T. G. Tate, Chairman; F. F. Manly; W. I. Stokes; R. A. Sappenfield; C. B. Gilbert. Mr. W. H. Belk gave the first money and only large donation, amount of which was $1,000.00, and when it was built the Badin Church was the only brick Presbyterian Church in Stanly County.

First Church Officers: Three Elders—M. R. Ritch, Donald McQueen and John Pannill. Three Deacons—James Livingston, L. L. Autry and Thomas Cotton. The total membership at that time was 128 members.

Mr. Tate was called to Gastonia and in September, 1922 Rev. A. S. Anderson accepted the call to this church. With the membership increasing it soon became evident that more room was needed, and under the supervision of Mr. H. B. Rhea, our Sunday School Superintendent, the building was built back of the church for the use of classrooms.

Mr. Rhea was killed in a tragic accident while at work at the Aluminum Plant on August 24, 1937.

In March, 1938, the church adopted the Rotary system of officers and increased the number of Elders to 9 and Deacons to 12.

In 1939, our church was deeply shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden passing of our beloved pastor, Rev. Alden S. Anderson, and once again we were without a preacher.

We had different pastors preach for us in March, April and May. In July Rev. W. T. Smith of Triangle accepted the call to this church and brought his family here to live.

Mr. Smith was not here long before he discovered the need of more room for our growing congregation. He immediately started excavating under the main part of the church and where before was rock and clay, is now three nice rooms. Mr. Smith was a tireless worker and he and some of the men did most of the work, while others canvassed the members for donations for materials.

The ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone took place May, 1941. It had been planned for years before, but postponed. Rev. Tate was guest speaker and had charge of the services. At the same time two plaques were unveiled, commemorating the lives of our former pastor, Mr. Anderson, and our Sunday School Superintendent at that time, Mr. H. B. Rhea. The plaques were presented by Mr. S. A. Copp, Superintendent of Aluminum Company and one of the Trustees of the church. Alden S. Anderson, Jr. unveiled the plaques.

Rev. Smith accepted a call and left us on March 31, 1942.

Twenty men from this church were called into the service of their country during World War II. All but one returned—Marine Johnny Davis, who died from wounds suffered in the battle of Saipan. A memorial service was held August 27, 1944.

Mr. B. F. Carter pioneered the movement to organize the Men's Brotherhood, under the minutes of October 31, 1943, approved by the Session. He was the first president and Mr. A. C. Gardner, who was present at the meeting, was the first secretary.

For some time the members of our church had been giving serious thought toward the purchasing of a manse—we were still without a pastor, with visiting preachers filling the pulpit from time to time. Our dream of acquiring a manse was realized at last and we were able to pay half the purchase price of $3,000.00, the rest to be paid in payments over a period of time. Sometime later the debt on the manse was completely paid up and the deed recorded.

On October 24, 1942, Rev. Daniel K. Snyder from Roberdel, N. C. accepted a call to our church and came at once with his family.

A project which has been the dream of all the organizations of the church for several years was the erection of a Fellowship Building. That dream was realized this past year of 1957, and is the answer to the many needs of our congregation with its varied uses for Sunday School, the Women of the Church, and Men's Brotherhood, as well as for social activities. Our "Open House" was held for members and friends of the community October 20, 1957.

The interior of the church has been remodeled twice, and during the first remodeling a Hammond organ was installed in December, 1949. The value of the church property to date is $50,000.00. Sunday School enrollment is 150, and total membership 215. There are two active Young People's groups in the church with a membership of about 12 each. The Women of the Church are divided into 4 Circles, and this organization is functioning splendidly at the present time.

The finances of our congregation are on a good, sound basis and under the efficient leadership of the pastor and officers the church has prospered. New life was instilled into every department of the work.

We feel we must point with pardonable pride to the work of the Women of the Church. We have a high percentage of active members, and each one feels a personal responsibility for whatever she is given to do. The work goes smoothly and is a great help toward the progress of our church. Mrs. Snyder is a tireless worker in the organization and has served in every capacity in which she has been called upon to serve.

Our pastor is a devout and sincere leader and all phases of church work go steadily forward under his guidance and work to increase the membership of our church, the slogan of which is, "The Little Church with the Big Welcome."

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. J. H. Devereaux, Historian

The Two Hundred Twentieth Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Philadelphia Presbyterian Church
Mint Hill, North Carolina
April 15, 1958

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Stated Spring Meeting at the Philadelphia Presbyterian Church, Mint Hill, North Carolina on the above date. The retiring moderator, the Rev. W. B. McSwain, led the opening worship and preached a sermon on the text, Lamentations 3:21-23. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Rev. Russell Kerr and Dr. Cecil Lawrence, assisted by the Elders of the host church. The Moderator opened the meeting of Presbytery with Prayer.

Memorials—Were read to Dr. Charles M. Boyd by Dr. W. M. Walsh, and to the Rev. George W. Powell by Dr. R. A. Young. These memorials were adopted as printed below by a rising vote with prayer for their families.

CHARLES MORGAN BOYD

Charles Morgan Boyd was born in Cayce, Miss., April 25, 1875. In his sudden death on February 25, 1958, the Presbyterian Church, U. S., lost from the early roll, by translation, one of her most honored and faithful ministers. He literally slipped away into the presence of the Saviour Whom he loved and Whom he served with sincere devotion throughout a long ministry. Dr. Boyd received his collegiate training at Erskine College, S. C., winning both the B.A. and M.A. degrees from that well known institution of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. At Erskine Theological Seminary he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity in 1902. He was ordained by the Second Presbytery of the A.R.P. Church on November 13, 1902. He served in this branch of the Presbyterian Church, in which he was reared, over a period of eight years, with pastorates in Prosperity, S. C., 1902-1906, and in Anderson, S. C., 1906-1910.

In 1910 Dr. Boyd began his service in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. and continued in this connection until the close of his life. He years of which period he was also instructor in Church History in was pastor of First Church, Tuscaloosa, Ala., 1910-1931, during six years of which period he was also instructor in Church History in the University of Alabama. In 1920 he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Davidson College, and in that same year he was moderator of the Synod of Alabama. In 1931 he accepted a call to the Westminster Church of Charlotte, N. C. and served this church until his retirement from the active pastorate in 1945, when he reached the age of seventy. In his several pastorates Dr. Boyd's work was characterized by his adhering to a forward looking program, with particular emphasis upon the training and development of the youth of the Church. During his entire ministry he was deeply and especially concerned for the Home Mission Work of the Church, and gave it his full support. He was a successful administrator, a faithful and sympathetic pastor, an earnest preacher of the "glorious gospel of the Son of God."

Soon after his retirement in 1945 Dr. Boyd was called by Mecklenburg to be its first Minister to the Hospitals of Charlotte. Here he found a large field of service as he visited continuously in these three large institutions, giving special attention to Presbyterians within the bounds of the Presbytery, tenderly ministering to their spiritual needs in the name of the Great Physician. Many expressions of appreciation from these patients came to Dr. Boyd and, after his going, to Mrs. Boyd also. One of the valuable features of his ministry in the hospitals was the information he sent the ministers of the Presbytery concerning patients from their respective churches. In many cases this was the first and only information received, and was much appreciated. These so-called retirement years were filled with activity, for in addition to his busy hospital schedule Dr. Boyd frequently supplied pulpits throughout the Presbytery.

On November 4, 1904, Charles M. Boyd and Ella Jane Lee were united in marriage. She survives him, having been his devoted companion and helper for more than fifty years. He is also survived by a brother, William Boyd, of Covington, Tenn. The funeral service on February 27 was conducted by Rev. M. S. Bell, pastor of the Seigle Avenue Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Boyd holds her membership, by Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence, Executive Secretary of Mecklenburg Presbytery, and Dr. R. H. Stone of Greensboro, former Executive Secretary. The service, simple and comforting, was largely attended, many of his brethren of the Presbytery being among those present. The interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery. We know he has entered "into the joy of His Lord."

THE REV. GEORGE POWELL.

George Powell was born at Mt. Olive, N. C. on July 12th, 1928. After graduating from Guilford College in 1952 he entered Columbia Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia, from which institution he received his B.D. degree in June, 1955. After graduation he began work in the Helen and Nacoochee churches in Athens' Presbytery of the Synod of Georgia and was ordained and installed as pastor of this group of churches in July of 1955. In December of 1956 he began work in the Pleasant Hill church of Mecklenburg Presbytery and was installed as pastor on January 26th, 1957, the fourth Sabbath of that month. On January 27th, 1958, just one year after his installation at Pleasant Hill, he died of a heart attack.

The Rev. Mr. Powell quickly became known as a man of deep spirituality, great energy and untiring evangelistic zeal. He loved people and made many friends. This passage of scripture seemed to be one of the directing principles of his life; Romans, 12:11, "Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord."

R. A. Young.

The History of the Philadelphia Presbyterian Church was given by Mrs. J. M. Black of this church. It was adopted as follows:

HISTORY OF PHILADELPHIA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MINT HILL, NORTH CAROLINA

The History of Philadelphia Presbyterian Church from 1944 to 1958, prepared by Mrs. J. M. Black, to be read to the Mecklenburg Presbytery at its 220th stated meeting, April 15, 1958.

The recorded history of Philadelphia Church begins with the call for a pastor in 1770. We believe there was a place of worship in this community before that time, since dates on some stones in the original cemetery date back to 1750.

The history of this Church from the beginning was read to Presbytery in 1944. At that time the second addition to the original church, erected in 1825, had been completed. The membership at that time was 349. Our benevolent giving amounted to $1,370, to local and building $8,425, total $9,795. The Rev. F. R. McAlister had completed his third year as pastor of this church.

Following the close of World War II the church and community experienced such growth that, in 1949, the Elders and Deacons recommended to the congregation the third addition to our church. The congregation endorsed the plan of erecting the addition to the front of our present Sanctuary, and the following building committee was appointed: Dolph C. Black, Chairman of the Board of Deacons; Carl J. McEwen, Chairman of the Building Committee; John M. McEwen, Treasurer; W. Olin Wilson, and Ned E. Dorton. Ground was broken in 1950. The building was completed in March, 1951. The cost of this building was $50,000, or more, including the labor that was given by the men of the church. The building was dedicated in 1955 on Homecoming Day, the fourth Sunday in July. Rev. F. R. McAlister preached the anniversary sermon, the Rev. Andrew McClellan, of Kilmarnock, Scotland, gave the dedicatory address.

Mr. McAlister resigned from this church in 1952 on account of ill health. During his pastorate the membership of the church grew from 297 to 428; the Church School was enlarged in the Children's division; the work on the beautification of the cemeteries was begun; and the annual budget was increased from $2,475 to $17,936.

Prior to calling a pastor after Mr. McAlister's resignation, Dr. H. V. Carson supplied our pulpit for several months.

The Rev. Russell M. Kerr was called as pastor of this church in April, 1952. Mr. Kerr was installed September 14, 1952.

The church has continued to grow, and its organization has been enlarged. In 1953 a four-room brick home for the sexton was built at a cost of $5,000. This was paid for through the current expenses of the church. In May, 1956, ground was broken for the erection of a new building for the educational and fellowship program. In planning for this building a Building Council, consisting of 29 members, representing the various departments of the work of the church, was appointed. After a careful study, their recommendations were adopted and the following Building Committee appointed: Dolph C. Black, Jenks A. Ellington, John M. McEwen, Chairman, Olin H. Mullis, W. Olin Wilson, James H. Black, Treasurer, and Ned E. Dorton, Chairman of the Finance Committee. The architect for the building was R. Edwin Wilson and Associates. The contractors were the Reynolds Construction Company.

We moved into this building in May, 1957. The building has nine class rooms on the ground floor, housing the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary departments, with one adult class. On the first floor there is a large fellowship hall with stage, a parlor, and kitchen. The cost of this building was $80,000, with some painting and furnishings to be completed.

Our program for young people is growing. In addition to the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship, the cub scouts, boy scouts, girl scouts, and youth choir have been organized. Our Church School has been fully graded. We have 528 on roll in our Church School, the largest number in the history of our church.

The Session has been organized for its work by the setting up of committees responsible for different parts of the church program. These committees, under the leadership of the Session, include representatives from the Board of Deacons, the Women of the Church, the congregation at large. The congregation has been divided into districts for visitation. In 1953, in recognition of the work being accomplished in our church, we received a third place award in the Town and Country Church Development program in North Carolina.

The organization of the Women's Work of the church has grown into ten circles, with a total active membership of 160.

At present the membership of our church is 611. Our budget in 1957 for benevolences was $7,271, local and building $32,683, a total of $39,954.

Our church staff includes the following:

Russell M. Kerr, Minister
 Rev. and Mrs. C. J. McClendon, Missionaries to Mexico
 (partial support)
 Mrs. Arthur H. Hood, Church Secretary
 M. L. Newell, Sexton
 Carl G. N. Cronstedt, Director of Music
 Mrs. Ralph S. Leete, Youth Choir
 Mrs. Thomas M. Higgins, Organist

We do not have a record of a son of this congregation entering the Missionary until, in the year 1895, Rev. J. M. Forbis entered the Gospel Ministry. Since then ten others have gone from this church into the Ministry: Rev. Will Mann, Rev. R. M. Tarlton, Rev. John A. McMurray, Jr., Rev. S. Evans Brown, Rev. F. R. McAlister, Jr. (these latter three being sons of pastors of this church), Rev. T. DeWitt Mullis, and the four Long brothers—Byron, Roswell, Flynn, and Chalmers. These four were sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. Reese Long. We doubt if this record of four sons entering the ministry from one family is equalled in Mecklenburg Presbytery or the Synod of North Carolina.

We love our Church, PHILADELPHIA, for all that the name implies "brotherly love," including love of country, love for our fellowman, love for Church, and above all, love for Jesus Christ our Savior. This spirit characterized the founders of this church and has existed in the hearts of its membership down to, and including, the present generation. That this spirit of brotherly love may continue to prevail is our earnest prayer.

Reports of Executive and Permanent Committees—

1. Sub-committee on Women's Work—The Chairman, the Rev. J. S. McClure introduced the President of the Women of the Church of Mecklenburg Presbytery, Mrs. J. C. Price, who gave a report to the Presbytery. This report was adopted as follows:

Within Mecklenburg Presbytery there are 95 organized groups of Women of the Church, comprised of 13,153 women serving through 489 circles.

Through the study Christian Citizenship in 1957, we feel that each woman is more aware of her responsibility as a Christian citizen in her church, community, state and nation. Christian attitudes are more evident in her daily living, and her Christian viewpoint broadened.

The interest of the women to learn more of the total program of the church, and their particular responsibility, was evidenced by the increased attendance at the Training Classes, District Conferences, Synodical Training School and the Montreat Conferences.

During the year each phase of the church's work has been emphasized and needs presented. Interest in Intergroup work has increased, with special concern being shown for the migrant workers in North Carolina. In June 20 women were sent to the Christian Conference for Negro women at Teachers College, Winston-Salem, and 4 to the conference at Stillman.

Through the planning of the chairman of Church Extension, a group of our women visited Emmanuel Center in Baltimore, and got first hand information of our work among the Jews, which was presented in many of the local churches.

Our Birthday Offering in May amounted to $7,382.97, which was given to student work in Mexico and medical work in Korea.

Many of the women are active in the Christian Education program of the church, serving as teachers in the church school, leaders in youth and scout groups, and various congregational committees.

The Annual Meeting of the Women of the Presbytery was held on November 4 and 5, First Presbyterian church, Albemarle. The attendance was good with many of the churches represented.

We thank God for the privilege of serving Him, and pray that this year of emphasis on Christian Citizenship may prove to be but the beginning of a new way of life for each of us.

Mrs. J. C. Price, President

2. Committee on Church Extension—The Rev. Sam Zealy gave the report of the Sub-committee on Evangelism which was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Evangelism would lay upon your hearts these matters, and urge you to adopt as recommendations:

1. The Pre-Assembly Conference on Evangelism affords opportunity for all our Ministers and Laymen to gain added inspiration and knowledge in this field. Please be present for all meetings.

2. The total ingathering for 1957 was 3,128; profession of faith 1,024; letters and restatement 2,104. It seems fitting that we set our goal for 1958 at 5,000!

3. Each Church and Minister is urged to participate to the maximum degree for the Billy Graham Crusade beginning September 21.

Respectfully,
Sam H. Zealy, Chairman
James B. Reaves
I. Howard Chadwick

Dr. W. M. Boyce, Chairman, gave the report of the Subcommittee on Home Missions. It was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS

There are at the present time 16 Churches receiving aid through the Home Mission Committee. There will be three additional Churches added to this when Jack Morrison comes to Mt. Carmel and Norman and Edwin Byrd to Cameronian.

There are 13 Ministers receiving financial aid from the Home Mission Committee (This includes Jack Morrison and Edwn Byrd.)

The following Churches are being supplied:

Rev. W. B. Neill is supplying the New Salem and Hawley Memorial Churches.

Rev. W. S. Boyce is supplying the Unionville Church.

Dr. R. A. Young is supplying the Banks and Six Mile Creek Churches.

This summer we will have seven boys and girls assisting us in the program. There will probably be four Seminary students and three girls who look forward to going to the Training School later on.

The single most important item in this report is the common knowledge that Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence has taken up his work as Executive Secretary of our Presbytery. This responsibility places him in intimate association with pastor and people in our Home Mission fields. We are confident that his leadership will be ambitious and effective in this important area.

Recently, two surveys have been initiated. One by Mr. Hal Hyde, Secretary of Urban Church Department, and the other by Dr. J. M. Carr, Secretary of Town and Country Church Department. These findings will give us needed guidance in the placement of new churches and the placement of men in the more sparsely populated rural fields. It is the aim of your Committee to utilize to the full the capacities of our ministers by giving them full pastoral opportunities. By proper groupings, we hope, also, to conserve our resources so that new opportunities may be grasped. The Larger Parish ideal is strongly recommended by our Assembly leadership.

Regarding the request of Presbytery that this Committee make recommendations relative to the requests of self-supporting churches for aid in building programs, your Committee feels that further study is needed. This is in line with the advice of Presbytery's Council which was sought by your Committee.

Respectfully,
W. M. Boyce, Chairman

3. Presbytery's Council—This report was given by the Chairman, the Rev. Carl S. Miller. It was adopted as follows:

Presbytery's Council met in the office of Presbytery on Friday afternoon, April 11, 1958 at 2:30 o'clock.

Those present were—Carl S. Miller, J. Cecil Lawrence, E. Lee Stoffel, B. F. Ferguson, James R. Crook, W. B. McSwain, Warner L. Hall, Ben F. Moore, C. G. Sellers, R. A. Young, Mrs. J. C. Price and Malcolm R. Williamson.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Carl S. Miller and opened with prayer by James R. Crook.

The prepared docket of Presbytery was presented to the Council by the Stated Clerk which was adopted with the following changes—

1. The Rev. E. Lee Stoffel was requested to present to Presbytery such information as he felt would be helpful to Presbytery regarding the forthcoming meeting of The General Assembly to be held at the First Presbyterian Church beginning April 24th. This report to be presented to Presbytery during the hearing of Communications.

2. That Dr. Warner Hall be heard just before lunch on the matter of Higher Education with particular reference to the Consolidated College.

Dr. E. Lee Stoffel presented to the Council a recommendation from the Chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Manual of Presbytery which is as follows—

"Due to the fact that the salaries paid the clerks of Presbytery have not been changed in some time, and due to the further fact that other salaries have increased considerably within recent years, the Committee on the Revision of the Manual would respectfully recommend to Presbytery's Council that it suggest to the Presbytery a change in salaries as follows—The salary of the Stated Clerk to be changed from $600.00 to $900.00 per year; the salary of the Permanent Clerk to be changed from $80.00 to $100.00 per year; and the salary of the Assistant Clerk $80.00 per year, no change recommended."

We would like to indicate to the Council that the salary was fixed by the manual under the old manual but it was the feeling of the committee that the amount of the salary should not appear in the manual but rather should be left to the discretion of Presbytery to be fixed by that body upon recommendation of the Council. This procedure is being recommended in the new manual and it seemed that the recommendation for the change in salary should be made in connection with the revision of the manual.

This recommendation regarding salary changes was adopted by the Council and the Council recommends its adoption by Presbytery.

The Council voted to request the Commission on the Minister and His Work to make an investigation regarding the salaries of ministers serving self supporting churches whose salaries are below the minimum set by Presbytery for those ministers serving aid-receiving churches and to request Sessions if any to bring the salaries of their ministers up to the minimum of $4200 per year.

After hearing a request from the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Home Missions that the Council express itself on the matter of the Home Mission Committee granting aid to other than those Churches now classed as aid-receiving Churches the Council voted to confer with the Home Mission Committee regarding the possibility of securing funds for the assistance of Churches in need of financial help within the bounds of the Presbytery.

At the request of the Executive Secretary the Council voted to grant him permission to employ a young girl for the Summer months to assist in the office and to work under his direction in whatever filed work she could do during the time of her employment.

Mr. C. G. Sellers was requested to review the books of the Central Treasurer of Benevolences and to assist in the sending out statements to the Churches of Presbytery showing the amounts received toward their respective Benevolent apportionments.

The Rev. E. Lee Stoffel reported that the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Evangelism had recently attended a conference on Evangelism at the invitation of the Rev. Albert E. Dimmock, Secretary of the Division of Evangelism which was held in Richmond, Virginia and that the Chairman had requested that he be reimbursed for travel expenses in the amount of $18.00. Since apparently there were no funds available for the payment of this bill from any of the Committees of Presbytery the Stated Clerk was directed to pay it from Presbytery's Business Fund. The Council further requested that in the future members of any committee of Presbytery secure authorization for travel expense in connection with their work before incurring the expense.

The Chairman of the Council was requested to report to Presbytery concerning plans for securing a Hospital Chaplain to replace Dr. Charles M. Boyd who recently passed away.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by the Rev. Ben. F. Moore.

Carl S. Miller, Chairman
Malcolm R. Williamson, Clerk

From this Presbytery the Minutes record attendance as follows:

The attention of Presbytery and the Churches is called to the list of Special Offerings on Page 19 of Synod Minutes and of Recommendation 26 on Page 77 regarding the World Friendship Book, A.S.S. project for 1958.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL EDUCATION—was given by the Chairman, The Rev. Lawrence I. Stell, as follows:

Report of the Committee on Ministerial Education

Since the last meeting of Presbytery, the following candidates for the Ministry have asked for transfer: William Neill Gordon to Brazos Presbytery; Angus R. Shaw III to Abingdon Presbytery; J. Arthur Beard to Enoree Presbytery.

Also, Miss Florence Monroe's name should have been removed from the list of candidates for Lay Service since she graduated and has been serving the Church. Also Mr. Jerome Fleischer has been ordained in the Baptist Church and asks that we drop his name from our list of candidates.

Grades of the candidates have been reviewed by the committee.

Loans for several candidates have been approved by the committee after study and investigation.

The committee presents to this meeting of the Presbytery two candidates for Lay Service: Miss Caroline Goodman, who has been serving as D.C.E. at the Hamlet Church; and A. T. Brown, Jr., who has been serving as Administrative Asst. in the Plaza Presbyterian Church. The committee has examined these and recommends their examination by Presbytery and admission to the list of candidates for Lay Service.

The committee also presents five young men as candidates for the ministry. Their papers are in hand and the committee has examined both the papers and the young men—and recommends that Presbytery examine them for admission to the list of candidates for the Ministry. They are: Walter Ronald Case, member of the Hopewell Presbyterian Church; Richard A. Curnow, Jr. of the South Park Church; James Eller, of the Sharon Church; Reid Huntley of Westminster Church; and Graham Reid Jr. of Trinity Church.

Respectfully submitted
Lawrence Stell, Chairman

The Presbytery received the report as information and adopted the recommendations. The families of the candidates were introduced to the Presbytery.

Reception of Candidates—Two candidates for Lay Service in the Church, Miss Caroline Goodman of the First Presbyterian Church of Hamlet, and Mr. A. T. Brown of the Plaza Church of Charlotte, were introduced to the Presbytery. Each made a statement as to his experience of Christ and motives for entering the Lay Service.

The following candidates were introduced: Walter Ronald Case of the Hopewell Church, Richard A. Curnow, Jr. of the South Park Church, James Eller of the Sharon Church, Reid Huntley of the Westminster Church, and Graham Reid, Jr., of the Trinity Church. The educational background of each was given by the Chairman. The Moderator gave the examination on Experimental Religion and Motives for seeking the Ministry. The examination was sustained as satisfactory and the candidates were enrolled after the Service of Dedication, led by the Moderator and assisted by ministers of churches to which the candidates belong. The Rev. Richard Curnow delivered the charge and the Rev. Howard Chadwick led in prayer.

RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES FOR LICENSURE AND ORDINATION—Dr. Stell introduced Mr. A. Jackson Morrison and Mr. Edwin Byrd, both graduates of Columbia Theological Seminary. He also introduced their families. The Moderator then examined in Experimental Religion, Dr. Stell in knowledge of Theology, Dr. H. G. Bedinger in Church Government and the Sacraments, and the Rev. B. H. Evans in English Bible. Each part was sustained as satisfactory. Mr. Byrd preached his sermon, and both sermons were approved by the Presbytery. The examination as a whole was sustained as satisfactory.

The following motion passed by unanimous vote, $\frac{3}{4}$ being required: "That Mecklenburg Presbytery approve the parts presented and the examination of A. Jackson Morrison for licensure and ordination under the extraordinary clause. In doing so, Presbytery records the omission of the presentation of certificate of graduation from an approved four year college, and the study of the original languages in the Seminary. In the light of the spiritual maturity of Mr. Morrison, Presbytery is satisfied that he will prove an acceptable minister of the Lord in the service of his Church."

The Rev. Henry S. Robinson, Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work presented the following calls, which were presented and accepted:

Calls—from the Cameronian Church for the services of the Rev. Edwin Byrd. Terms—$3000 annual salary (1500 from Home Missions), Ministers' Annuity Fund, and one month's vacation.

From the Norman and Mt. Carmel churches for the services of the Rev. A. Jackson Morrison. Terms—$1000 annual salary from Norman; $2000 from Mt. Carmel ($1500 from Home Missions), Ministers' Annuity Fund, and one month's vacation.

Commissions—the following Commissions were appointed:

To install the Rev. Edwin Byrd as pastor of the Cameronian Church on Sunday August 10, 1958 at 7:00 P.M. Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence to preside, the Rev. Stewart Yandle to preach the sermon, the Rev. John McLaney to charge the congregation, Elder Oscar Byrd to charge the pastor, and Elder Hewitt Haney to read the scripture and lead in prayer.

To install and ordain the Rev. A. Jackson Morrison as pastor of the Norman and Mt. Carmel churches on Sunday August 3, 1958, meeting at the Norman Church at 4:00 P.M.

Members of the Commission—Dr. J. Cecil Lawrence, Dr. H. G. Bedinger, the Rev. J. R. Hobson, Elders Harvey Morrison and Lee McInnis.

Visiting ministers to be invited by Presbytery—Hugh Pollard and C. C. Hamilton.

Dr. Lawrence is to assign the parts. A quorum on the Commission to install and ordain Mr. Morrison is to be three ministers and one elder.

Mr. Byrd was then ordained in the presence of Presbytery. Those participating in the ordination were: Elders from the Cameronian Church, Elder Oscar Byrd, father of Mr. Byrd, and the Rev. Stewart Yandle, his former pastor in Norwood.

The motion passed that both Mr. Morrison and Mr. Byrd be received by the Presbytery and be enrolled upon the signing of the Covenant at the proper time.

The minutes were read and approved.

After a motion to adjourn, the Moderator pronounced the Benediction.

Malcolm Williamson, Stated Clerk
William M. Boyce, Jr., Permanent Clerk

The Two Hundred Twenty-First Stated Meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery

Central Steele Creek Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, N. C.
July 22, 1958

The Presbytery of Mecklenburg met in its Stated Summer meeting at the Central Steele Creek Church, Charlotte, North Carolina, on the above date. The retiring moderator, the Rev. J. R. Crook, led the opening worship and preached a sermon, using the topic: "An Introduction to the Study of Learning Within the Covenant Community." The moderator opened the meeting of Presbytery with prayer.

The history of the Central Steele Creek Church was given by Mrs. E. L. Grier, Sr., of the Church. It was adopted as follows:

HISTORY OF CENTRAL STEELE CREEK CHURCH

This church was formed in 1882 from a merging of Blackstocks (4 miles south) and Little Steele Creek (2 miles north)—both A.R.P.

In November of that year, Rev. C. E. McDonald was installed as the first pastor. The sanctuary and manse were built the next year at the present site. Rev. McDonald demitted the charge after serving ten years. The following pastors served in the order named:

Rev. R. L. Grier (1893-1897)

Rev. G. W. McCracken (1897-1898)

Rev. S. J. Patterson (1898-1905)

Rev. J. P. Snipes supplied 3 years

Rev. C. Y. Love (1908-1910)

Rev. R. R. Caldwell (1910-1911)

On July 31, 1911 the church transferred from the First Presbytery of the A.R.P. Synod of the South to Mecklenburg Presbytery and united with the Pleasant Hill congregation in a joint pastorate. At that date there were 39 members on Central Steele Creek's roll.

Rev. R. R. Caldwell was offered the joint pastorate but refused, so Mr. C. W. McCully was called. He served from 1912-1919. Rev.

R. W. Culbertson served from 1920-1931 and resigned because of declining health. Our membership then was 81.

In 1932 Dr. R. A. Young came to us from Alabama. Four years after he began his most dedicated service of 24 years, a fund was started for an education building. This building was dedicated in 1939 and was the start of our building program. At this service one of our deacons, Mr. J. P. Grier, made a motion that we start a fund for a new sanctuary. Ten years later on July 3, 1949, a consecration service was held in our new sanctuary. The new manse was completed in 1954. The next year Dr. Young called a congregational meeting to decide on starting a fund for a new educational building. However, after a long, fruitful, faithful service, Dr. Young retired before this program was completed.

At this time the joint pastorate of Central Steele Creek and Pleasant Hill was dissolved.

Rev. Joe E. Stowe assumed the pastorate of Central Steele Creek on March 15, 1957. Since his coming the new education building has been built and an accredited Sunday School Program organized. In the fall of 1957 a training school was held for all christian education workers in our church. Miss Virginia Morris, our able teachers and pastor, our Sunday School and young people's program was completely reorganized, our teaching force strengthened, and our literature, equipment, and supplies improved when we occupied our new facilities in January of this year. We feel that God has blessed us in our united efforts for a better christian education program.

In addition to our Sunday program, we have for the first time this summer a planned week-day recreation program for everyone. A schedule and supervision for groups including everyone from toddlers through adults has been carefully worked out. The equipment and lighting for our recreation grounds have been a project of the men of the church.

At present, we have 252 church members, 55 of which have been received under Mr. Stowe's able ministry.

We are glad to have Presbytery meet here today; and, we want to thank our Dear Heavenly Father for blessing us so abundantly, not only physically and materially but, most of all, spiritually. It is our hope and prayer that we may be able to continue to further His Word and His Work in His great Kingdom.

Mrs. E. L. Grier, Sr., Historian

REPORTS OF PERMANENT COMMITTEES

Presbytery's Council—This report was presented by the Chairman, the Rev. Carl Miller. The report was received as information and the recommendations adopted as amended.

PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL

Presbytery's Council met in Presbytery's Office on Friday afternoon, July 18, 1958 at two o'clock with the following members present—Ben Ferguson, C. G. Sellers, Carl S. Miller, Warner L. Hall, R. A. Young, J. Cecil Lawrence and Malcolm R. Williamson, together with the following visitors—W. E. Price, J. A. Barrus, President of the Men of the Presbytery; and Russell Kerr, Chairman of the Committee on Christian Education. The meeting was called to order by the Rev. Carl S. Miller, Chairman and opened with prayer by Rev. Russell Kerr.

The Rev. Russell Kerr presented the proposed budget and askings for the Committee on Christian Education for the year 1959. These askings which were approved by the Council called for an amount of $14,725 for the Committee's Work, $11,478.00 for the operation of Camp Stewart, and an additional $500 for their proportionate part of the cost of Printing the Mecklenburg Presbyterian making a total budget of $26,703. Mr. W. E. Price presented the proposed budget for the sub committee on Home Missions in the amount of $130,000 which was approved.

The budget for the askings for Assembly's causes in the amount of $372,559 and Synod's causes in the amount of $236,641 was presented by C. G. Sellers. This was approved.

Mr. J. A. Barrus, President of the Men of the Presbytery called the attention of the Council to the fact that the Rev. J. G. Patton, Secretary of the General Council, had been invited to hold a series of Stewardship Conferences in the Presbytery September 8-12. This matter was endorsed by the Council.

The attention of the Council was called to the fact that at the recent meeting of the General Assembly an increased assessment of three cents per capita had been approved for the year 1959 making Mecklenburg Presbytery's assessment $6,813.45. Two cents of this assessment to be used to defray the expenses of representatives to the General Council of the World Presbyterian Alliance in Campinas, Brazil July 27-August 6, 1959, and one cent to defray the expenses of the Centennial Committee. It was also pointed out that at the meeting of the Synod of North Carolina held at Davidson College the Synod approved a recommendation from Synod's Council that Synod's assessment to the Presbyteries be increased from five and one half cents per capita to thirty four cents.

Inasmuch as these assessments would mean that our Presbytery would have to increase its per capita assessment a minimum of 31½ cents, and inasmuch as our assessment is now $1.00 per capita it was the feeling of the council that we should not impose this increase on the churches of the Presbytery at this time. It was, therefore, voted that we recommend to Presbytery that the assessment for 1959 remain at the present level and the operation of Camp Stewart beginning in 1959 be paid altogether from the Benevolent funds of Presbytery contributed for the Cause of the cause of Presbytery's Christian Education and that the Council study further ways and means to meet any deficit which may arise in meeting these additional assessments and report their findings and recommendations at the Stated Summer Meeting in 1959.

The Stated Clerk of Presbytery submitted an audit of his accounts as treasurer of Presbytery's Tax Fund for the year 1957 which had been prepared by CPA C. C. Fullagar. This audit showed a correct and accurate account of all funds received from the Churches of the Presbytery for the year 1957 together with all disbursements.

The Stated Clerk called attention of the Council to the Annual Meeting of the Stated Clerks Association to be held at Montreat August 13-14 and he was instructed to attend the meeting with expenses to be paid from Presbytery's Business Fund.

The Stated Clerk was instructed to secure approval of Presbytery of Resolution prepared by Mr. John S. Cansler, Chairman of the Trustees of Presbytery with reference to the payment by the Home Federal Savings and Loan Association of bills in connection with the construction work of the Seigle Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The Chairman of the Council called attention to a letter from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of our Presbyterian Home at High Point with reference to a Campaign for Funds for the Home. He was requested by the Council to report this matter to Presbytery for consideration and action.

The Council approved the docket for this meeting of Presbytery with the following changes—

1. The report of the Committee on Nominations was stricken from the docket as they are to report at the Fall Meeting.
2. The Moderator of the General Assembly was granted time to make his report during the morning Session.
3. The Rev. D. E. Wilkinson was granted time to speak in behalf of Annuities and Relief.
4. The Christian Education Committee was granted time to speak in behalf of a proposed Leadership training school for the Presbytery.

There being no further business the meeting of the Council adjourned and was closed with prayer by the Rev. Warner L. Hall.

Carl S. Miller, Chairman

Malcolm R. Williamson, Secretary

The following motion was passed: That Presbytery requests Synod's Council to investigate the cost of Synod's office with a view to some curtailment of expense. A motion passed that churches be notified as to the amount of their benevolent apportionment early in September.
