THE NEXT SESSION.

 The next annual session will be held with Ebenezer Baptist Church, Wilmington, N. C., on Tuesday after the third Lord's day in October, 1890.

PROCEEDINGS.

ROANOKE SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH, October 22, 1889.

The Baptist State Convention convened with Roanoke-Salem Baptist Church, near Garysburg, on Tuesday, October 22d, 1889.

The first hour was devoted to prayer and praise service, in which many brethren took part.

At 10.30 a. m. the President of the Convention, Rev. J. J. Worlds, called the assembly to order, and requested Dr. A. W. Pegues and Rev. C. Johnson to conduct the opening service.

The Secretary being absent, Dr. N. F. Roberts was requested to officiate as Secretary pro tem.

Hymn 674 was read by Bro. Johnson and sung by the congregation. Dr. Pegues read the 13th chapter of I Corinthians and led in prayer.

Rev. A. Shepard, the acting pastor of the church, extended to the brethren and visitors the address of welcome. He greeted the Convention with a hearty welcome, and referred to the earnest struggle which the church had put forth in order to have a suitable house for the reception of the Convention.

Prof. S. N. Vass responded to the address of welcome in well chosen words, and represented the feeling of all the brethren present.

The President, before announcing the house ready for business, addressed the Convention as follows:

DEAR BRETHREN: Through the kindness and mercy of God we are permitted to meet in another annual session of the Convention. Let us, in the very beginning, return thanks to God for past blessings, and implore his guidance and protection in our deliberations, that the work may proceed harmoniously. We have met in the 23d session of the Convention for the purpose of executing such business as we trust shall tend to advance the work of Christ among the people. If we have made blunders in the past, let us strive to improve. God has wonderfully blessed our labors during the recess of the Convention, and cheering reports from all quarters come, bearing the blessed information that large numbers of precious souls have been gathered into the fold. The necessity of permanently organizing all our forces in the State grows, and we should, with the greatest zeal, strive to have all our churches tributaries to the Convention. The representation fee is light. The Constitution allows Associations to represent at fifty cents per church. There are several Associations in the State supporting local schools, which somewhat hinder them from representing. It would be wise to ask each church to send to the Association fifty cents annually, in addition to its regular contribution, to enable the Association to represent in this Convention. If this system is adopted, all Associations can unite with us, and still carry on their local work.

Again, the statistical work of each Association ought to be reported to this body annually.

Again, a missionary ought to be employed by this Convention to bring before the Baptists of the State the importance of uniting with this Convention.

And now, brethren, I appeal to you in behalf of the mission work, both Home and Foreign, and beseech you to provide some way to induce our churches to make it a part of their work. The millions of heathen, who worship not the true God, seek help from us. We ought to go to their rescue.

I would also remind you of our duty to ministerial education. This is a duty upon us and our churches. We must do what we can to help educate indigent young men called of God to the ministry and approved by our churches. We must teach the people to give more liberally for these great objects—teach them religion and charity.

We already see the rosy tints of a better day, and we pray God to hasten on its brightness.

I recently visited the Rowan and Johnston District Associations in behalf of the Convention, and I urged the brethren to help us make a strong and united effort to bring our Baptist strength together. In conclusion, permit me to admonish you to “let your light shine” that we may lead our forces on to victory.

At the conclusion of these remarks, the house was pronounced ready for business.

The pastor and deacons were appointed a Committee on Hours of Meeting.

Revs. P. F. Maloy, T. B. Edwards and J. A. Whitted were appointed a Committee on Credentials.

The Committee on Hours of Meeting reported, regulating the meetings as follows: Morning session, begin at 9:30, recess at 1 p. m.; afternoon, begin at 2 p. m., close at 5 p. m.; night, begin at 7 p. m., close at pleasure.

The appointment of Committee on Permanent Officers was postponed until the afternoon.

Brethren S. N. Vass, H. Pare and J. C. Pool were appointed on the Committee on Finance.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed on Programme for the joint meetings.

The order of business, recommended by the above committee and approved by the Convention, designated Tuesday and Wednesday to be devoted to the work of the Convention, Thursday for the Sunday-school work, Friday for the Ministerial Union, and Saturday for the Hayes-Fleming Foreign Mission work.

A few pleasant moments previous to recess were spent hearing remarks of reminiscences from our venerable brethren, A. B. Williams and G. W. Perry. These brethren were among the originators of the Convention about twenty-five years ago.

Invocation was offered by Rev. J. A. Whitted, after which the meeting closed with the benediction, pronounced by Rev. P. F. Maloy.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 2 p. m., and devotional exercises were conducted by Revs. F. R. Howell and G. L. Stith.

“Once more we meet to pray,” was sung, and Rev. Howell read the 10th chapter of Romans and offered prayer.

The proceedings of the forenoon were read and approved.

Mr. Daniel Cabel, deacon of the white Baptist Church near Garysburg, was introduced to the Convention.

The President announced the following brethren to compose the Committee on Officers: G. W. Perry, F. R. Howell, P. F. Maloy, J. A. Whitted and R. Shepard.

On motion, the special schedule of business was suspended to hear the report from the Committee on Revision of the Constitution.

The Constitution, as elsewhere published, was read and adopted.

Five minutes were given to each member to express his opinion concerning the proposed alterations offered to each article.

A motion prevailed setting apart one hour of the night session for the discussion of the "Race Question," and Hon. H. P. Cheatham was invited to make the introductory speech.

On motion, Bros. R. I. Walden, J. A. Whitted and O. Mills were appointed to draft resolutions expressing the opinion of the Convention on the treatment and condition of our race in the South.

Rev. Thomas Parker was chosen to preach a special sermon to the Convention to-night.

Prayer was offered by Rev. W. R. Shaw, music was rendered by the choir and Rev. G. L. Stith closed the meeting with the benediction.

EVENING SESSION.

At seven o'clock the meeting opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. S. N. Vass. "Nearer, my God, to Thee," was sung: a portion of the 25th chapter of Matthew was read, and prayer was offered by Rev. Thomas Parker. The choir sang, "Shall we meet beyond the river?"

Rev. T. Parker announced as his text, II Peter i: 1, "Lay aside all malice," &c. The sermon was replete with sound religious instruction, and was warmly received by the assemblage.

Prayer was offered by Prof. Vass; after which a collection, amounting to $5.04, was taken for the Foreign Mission work.

Business was resumed, and the following series of resolutions were read:

WHEREAS, Many outrages have been recently perpetrated upon many members of our race in various States of the South; and whereas, among others, some of the most intellectual and progressive men and preachers and Christian women of our own denomination have recently innocently suffered: therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Baptist Educational and Missionary Convention of North Carolina do most severely condemn those cruel outrages, and call upon the authorities of the different States to use every possible effort to bring the perpetrators to justice;

Further resolved, That we most cordially commend the action of the recent Baptist Convention at Indianapolis in setting apart a day of prayer to God in behalf of the oppressed of our race;

Further, That we shall use our influence in trying to establish peace and mutual understanding between the races, and to impress upon our people the necessity of avoiding by word or action anything that will produce race conflict and strife;

Further, That we appreciate the manly action of Gov. Fowle in trying to bring to justice the lynchers of two of the citizens of the State, but we do not agree with him in recommending the emigration of our race in great numbers from one part of the South to another, or to any other land, since we feel that we should share the privileges and benefits of this our native land.

Resolved lastly, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of the following papers: Baptist Pilot, Biblical Recorder, The National Baptist, Independent, Richmond Planet, Washington Bee, African Expositor.

On the adoption of these resolutions, Hon. H. P. Cheatham, Congressman for the 2d district, in a great speech, said: "The emigration of our people to the far South is a serious mistake, and ought to be discouraged. We are in this country to stay. It is our birth-place; our home; our native land, and we have a right to the undisturbed enjoyment of its rich blessings." The honorable speaker, reviewing the progress and advancement of our race since the emancipation, in a grand climax, added: "We have climbed domestically; we have climbed financially; we have climbed in every avenue of worth and manhood. There is no such thing as general emigration. It is impossible. Do not be alarmed and deceived.

"We must toil and labor, and make ourselves men—men of business and of brains. I have not a word of disparagement to say against the white man in this State. He has done exceedingly well, and we have suffered comparatively little from his hands. We must cultivate friendly relations towards the opposite race. Let us be respectful, courteous, honest and manly. Let us discourage mobs and riots. It does not pay for the weaker race to be forever spiking the dominant race. Consider our educational advantages and advancement, and you will conclude that it is not best to emigrate. Look at our schools and colleges. Look at our educated ministers and learned men. We figure as factors in all the great denominations in this land. At the bar we hold a high place. The late Judge Griffin, of the West, who died a short time ago, was a colored man.

"The unjust bloodshed of Negroes in the South is looked upon with indignation and deep regret by the better class of white people. All we want in this country, all we ask, is protection of our rights, not social rights—we have all the social rights we want—but our civil rights; we want these protected. I never felt happier over the condition than now."

This distinguished gentleman ended his remarks amid great applause.

Speakers who followed were given five minutes each to express themselves. Dr. Roberts, Revs. Maloy, Parker, Whitted and Walden spoke. Further discussion discontinued, and the adoption was deferred until to-morrow morning at 11:30.

A committee was appointed on Place of Next Meeting, viz: William Devaughn, Luke Pierce, A. Cooper, J. C. Pool and ——— Andrews.

Revs. T. B. Edwards, William Reed and A. R. Middleton were appointed a Committee on Obituary.

The following brethren were placed on the Committee on New Churches, viz: C. J. White, C. H. Williamson and H. Lee.

The Committee on Temperance was appointed, viz: A. W. Pegues, H. Pare, J. A. Whitted and G. L. Stith.

The evening session closed with benediction by Rev. A. W. Pegues, Ph. D.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the night session was postponed.

APPENDIX.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, The Central Baptist congregation of Wilmington have lost their house of worship by fire, as a result of which much promising material is being annually lost every year to the denomination; and,

WHEREAS, There is not a Baptist Church in that city commensurate with those of other denominations; and,

WHEREAS, In Wilmington more than twelve thousand colored people are making it a profitable field of labor; therefore,

Resolved, That we commend most heartily their effort to erect a creditable house of worship, and its faithful pastor, Rev. L. T. Christmas, to the brethren of this and other States.

S. N. VASS.

TO PROTECT THE MINISTRY.

WHEREAS, We, as Baptists, are much disturbed by excluded and immoral ministers throughout our State who go from one place to another to hide their conduct and press themselves upon our congregations unsought for; therefore,

Resolved, That there be created a Ministerial Bureau to investigate all alleged charges brought against our ministers, and when any are found to possess a character unfit for recognition, to give publicity to the same.

P. F. MALOY.

REPORTS.

REPORT OF BOARD ON MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

We, the Board on Ministerial Education, beg leave to submit the following report:

This Board, according to the instructions of the Convention, organized by electing the following officers: Rev. J. J. Worlds, President; N. F. Roberts, Secretary; Rev. C. Johnson, Treasurer.

The funds which have come into our hands were small, therefore we could not assist a large number during last session, but made a beginning.

The Board agreed to assist ordained ministers, who were unable to pay their way in the Theological Department of Shaw University, to the extent of two dollars per month, and others, preparing for the ministry, one dollar per month.

The following brethren have received aid: Bros. T. O. Fuller, of Oxford; Jeffrey L. James, of Wilmington; R. L. Merritt, of Anson County; W. E. Andrews and J. C. Pool, of Wake County; D. T. Best, of Clinton; and W. D. Norman, of Hamilton. Four of these are ordained ministers, and two others are preparing to go to Africa as missionaries. There are brethren all over the State who are anxious to prepare themselves for the work of the ministry, but are unable to do so. It becomes our duty, as a denomination, to help them. By helping our pastor, and those preparing to become pastors, we strengthen the pulpits; and by strengthening the pulpits we strengthen the several congregations, and thus build up the denomination.

The Board desires to help at least thirty in the Theological Department this year. To do this, more funds must be raised for this special work.

REPORT OF REV. F. R. HOWELL, MISSIONARY.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE CONVENTION—It affords me great pleasure to meet in a grand body like this—a body that has met for twenty-three consecutive years. It is true we have had to meet a great many embarrassments in the past year. viz.: 1st, we had to meet our poverty-stricken congregations, caused by the short crops of 1888; 2d, we had to meet greatly afflicted and discouraged people—discouraged by the acts of the last Legislature in regard to landlords and tenants; the said act made it almost impossible for a farmer to live in some portions of the State; and, 3d, the great emigration fever that broke out in the State—almost like the exodus of Egypt—mostly in Eastern North Carolina, during the past year. And, brethren, as every pastor well knows, the spiritual condition of a church is soon impeded by its financial depression—and the emigration movement had such an effect that no one seemed to know what was best to do. Yet through all these trials God has led us safely along, and we have many reasons to rejoice. As a denomination, we have one of the best schools in the South—Shaw University. This Institution is, or should be, the pride of our race, especially to us in North Carolina. We owe, also, a life-long gratitude to the American Baptist Home Mission Society of New York for its work among us.

Now, dear brethren, we can see the hand of God at work for us. We started out with nothing; we had no education as a race, nor any experience as a people; we had never felt any responsibility, nor never knew anything about leadership. But to-day we represent one hundred and twenty thousand communicants, and among them are men and women of nearly every calling and profession in business—intellectual and industrial—viz.: teachers, preachers, lawyers, doctors, professors, farmers, mechanics; in fact, every practical profession in life.

Now, Mr. President, there is one thing I would advise for our development—that is unity. We hold too many separate meetings in the State. To unify our work and be a Convention indeed, we must meet at the same time and place. Having Dr. Thos. E. Skinner, one of the best Theological teachers in or out of the State, and Dr. H. M. Tupper at the head of our school, with Dr. N. F. Roberts, the Professors and leading pastors, our denomination is a power, and the Convention must be a success.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION BOARD.

DEAR BRETHREN: We have held but one meeting, and have not accomplished as much as we hoped for, although we have done what we could to awaken interest in the work.

We employed, as missionary, Rev. F. R. Howell, paying him $300, this being one-half of his entire salary, the American Baptist Home Mission Society paying the other half.

The missionary raised the amount promised by the Board on the field. The total collection made by the Board is $338.98.

Prof. A. B. Vincent, special agent of the Home Mission Society of New York, reports that he has collected during the year for the Home Mission work $49. Rev. S. N. Vass, special agent for the same organization, collected $93.38. The total amount raised for the general Home Mission work is $481.36. The total expenditures of the Board was $322.75.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBITUARY.

We, your committee, learn with profound regret of the death of Elder Z. Haughton, of Charlotte, N. C.

Rev. Haughton was one of the oldest and most successful ministers in the State, having served prosperously as pastor of our churches at Salisbury, High Point, Lexington, New Berne, Charlotte and Wilmington. He organized the large and prosperous Ebenezer Church of Charlotte, and remained pastor of it until his death. He was an earnest, faithful, consecrated worker, and baptized more than 2,000 candidates during his ministry.

Resolved, That we keenly feel the loss which our denomination sustains in his death, and express our sympathy with the church, in their bereavement, over which he was pastor, and the family from which he has been taken so useful a helper.

Resolved, further, In respect to our deceased brother, that the last half hour of this afternoon be spent in eulogizing his life and labors.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Ebenezer Baptist Church and the bereaved family of the deceased brother.

Respectfully,

T. B. EDWARDS,

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Convention that every possible influence should be used for the symmetrical development of our people, and that everything should be destroyed which tends to obstruct their intellectual, moral and spiritual progress; and, whereas, one of the primary causes of the present condition of poverty and ignorance among our people is due to habits of intemperance; therefore be it

Resolved, That intemperance can be suppressed, and ought to be suppressed.

Resolved, further, That we shall give our active influence to any wise and practical movement, having for its object the suppression of this traffic.

Resolved, further, That for the good of the cause of Christ, and, as an example to their people, it is the duty of the Christian leaders of the people to strictly refrain from the use of all intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

A. W. PEGUES,
Secretary.

THE MINISTERIAL UNION.

In agreement with a resolution adopted by the Ministerial Union, in Raleigh, May 24th, 1889, the Union held a special session at Garysburg, October 25th, to complete its routine business and perfect arrangements to unite with the Baptist Educational and Missionary Convention. On examination, it was ascertained that thirty-seven members of the Union were present. At 4 o'clock, the President, Rev. L. H. Hackney, called the meeting to order. The object was stated, and a Committee on New Members, consisting of Revs. A. W. Pegues, J. A. Whitted and N. F. Roberts, D. D., was appointed.

The Constitution was amended, arranging the annual meetings to be held at the same time and place that the State Convention comes off, and making the officers of the Union and the elective members of the Board of Managers of the State Convention the Executive Board of the Union.

The officers were re-elected to serve one year from date.

The payment of assessments on the Baptist printing press was called for and thirty-six dollars were raised. This amount was turned over to the Printing Committee. The brethren who were unprepared to settle promised to forward their money to the editor of the Baptist Pilot by January, 1890.

The necessity of supporting the Baptist Pilot was warmly discussed. The success and management of the paper were highly complimented.

A resolution setting apart the third Sunday in January to raise money to aid the press was unanimously adopted.

Bros. Joseph Ratliff, J. C. Parham, Henry Lee, J. C. Pool and H. Cowan were received in membership.

The Ministerial Bureau, organized by the Educational and Missionary Convention, was heartily endorsed.

Speeches were made advocating the elevation and improvement of the ministry.

The Union adjourned to meet in Wilmington, October, 1890, on Tuesday after the third Sunday.

GARYSBURG, N. C., October 24th, 1889.

The Society was called to order by the President, Rev. A. Shepard, and, after preliminary exercises, the meeting was declared open for the transaction of business.

The Treasurer made the following report, which was adopted:

It was shown by the Treasurer's report that the Baptist State Convention turned over to the Society, out of funds specified, $11.12. Rev. H. C. McDonald brought with him for the Society about $15, which he turned over. This work was performed by him in answer to the request of circulars distributed by the Secretary. He did nobly.

The Treasurer stated that the Society would not be able to pay Rev. J. O. Hayes, our missionary in Africa, his quarterly salary, which was due October 31st. Out of the $75 due, only $55.21 were on hand. The members of the Society paid in $8.97. A strong appeal was made to the Society to do all possible at once, so as to send the salary as soon as possible. Bro. Hayes is altogether dependent upon us for support. Several encouraging addresses were made by brethren present, in which they promise to do their best to raise the money.

Mention was made of the fact that there are at present in Shaw University, Raleigh, three young men and one young lady from Africa. The young lady and two young men came directly from Sister Fleming at Palabala, on the Congo. The names of these young men are Robert Walker and Henry Stephens, and the young lady's name is Estey Caroline Fleming, named after Estey Seminary, where Miss Fleming was educated. The other young man comes from the Gold Coast, on the West, and his name is J. J. France. All the persons show much talent as well as devotion to Christ. Never before have we been so near Africa, and never was our duty greater.

All of the old officers were re-elected. Rev. Luke Pierce was, however, elected a Vice-President in place of Rev. Z. Houghton, who had departed this life since the last meeting in Raleigh. Rev. H. C. McDonald and Rev. A. Cooper were also made Vice-Presidents. The Society was much encouraged by the prospects of the work. After prayer, the Society adjourned to meet at the same time and place as the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

THE HAYES-FLEMING
FOREIGN MISSION SOCIETY.
-----

Believing that greater interest should be taken in the preaching of the gospel to the people of Africa, and in their conversion and christianization by the colored people of the South, and with no hostility to any other organization laboring either for Home or Foreign evangelization, but for the purpose of sending our money directly to those with whom we are acquainted, and in whose work we are deeply interested, we have organized the Hayes-Fleming Foreign Mission Society, with the following Constitution:

ARTICLE I. The officers of the Hayes-Fleming Foreign Mission shall consist of a President, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and a Treasurer, to be elected annually by the Society.

ART. II. The membership of this Society shall consist of members of Baptist Churches and congregations, Sunday-schools, auxiliary societies of the Hayes-Fleming Foreign Mission Society, and any other Baptist missionary or educational organization.

ART. IV. The Society shall have power to appoint committees, organize auxiliary societies, appoint missionaries, co-operate with other missionary organizations in this country or Africa, establish rules and by-laws for its government, and transact all business necessary to its existence and success as a Foreign Mission Society, in all things exhibiting the spirit of Christ, and adhering to the doctrines and teachings of the New Testament.

ART. V. This Constitution can be changed by a two-thirds vote of the delegates enrolled at any annual meeting of the Society: Provided, that the proposed change is submitted in writing at the previous annual meeting of the Society, in the form of a resolution and properly entered upon the records.

6. No money shall be expended by the Society save what is necessary to pay postage, stationery, foreign drafts, cost of circulars and printing, also for salaries of missionaries or the education of natives. 11. Any by-law can be suspended or changed by a two-thirds' vote of the delegates enrolled at any annual meeting of the Society.

By P. F. Maloy:

WHEREAS, It is the sentiment and purpose of Baptists of this State to maintain gospel temperance, and to diffuse such a spirit in each community, church and Sunday-school that we have stronger and better leaders, as well as workers, in our congregations: and whereas, this Convention has always stood upon the principles of temperance in the fullest sense of the word: therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention recommend that each church, through its pastor, and each Sunday-school, through its superintendent, organize temperance societies and temperance bands in their different churches and Sunday-schools, and continually bring the question of gospel temperance before their congregation and Sunday-school.

By Miss Susie Green:

WHEREAS, The temperance cause has a tendency to build up fallen humanity, and so many do not engage in this noble work: therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention, and each one of us as delegates, or as workers in this Convention, should see to it that our towns lift up the temperance banner, and organize temperance meetings weekly for the benefit of gaining those who are degrading themselves by the use of intoxicating liquors.

By Miss L. A. Cook:

WHEREAS, Intemperance has caused so many widows and orphan children, and has caused the jail-houses and penitentiaries to be filled, and caused so much degradation among our people: therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention indorse the cause of temperance and impress the idea of temperance societies on every community and help to tear down the cause of Satan, and in its stead establish the cause of Christ.

Rev. J. A. Fuller, of Oxford, N. C., was introduced to preach the annual sermon. His selection was from the 10th and 11th verses of the 62d chapter of Isaiah, "Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather but the stones; lift up a standard for the people. Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, say ye to the daughter of Zion, behold thy salvation cometh; behold his reward is with him and his work before him."

The following brethren addressed the Convention in its joint session: Rev. C. S. Brown, singing, "Lord, I care not for riches;" Revs. J. J. Worlds, Devaughn, F. R. Howell, A. W. Pegues, Thomas Parker, A. Buck, O. S. Jones, Miller, H. Scott, R. Shepard, Bro. A. R. Middleton, Revs. C. H. Williamson, T. B. Edwards, L. T. Christmas. All of the brethren spoke encouragingly of the work. Their remarks were inspiring and touching, everything pointing toward unity and success. Never was there a time when the Baptist forces of North Carolina were in more harmony, and it is hoped that great work will be accomplished through the Baptist forces for the upbuilding of the Master's kingdom.

Collection for the Pilot, $6.

The next session of the Conventions will be held in the Ebenezer Baptist Church, on Tuesday after the third Sunday in October, 1890.

J. A. WHITTED,
President.

Recording Secretary.
