Resolution Upon the Death of Rev. J. M. McCall

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God who does all things well, to take from our number Elder J. M. McCall, who departed this life on the 27th day of October 1912, we feel assured that our loss is Heaven's gain, therefore we bow in humble submission to Him who works and no man can hinder.

Resolved, That we commend the bereaved family to Him who said "I will be a husband for the widow and a father to the fatherless." Trust in Him, He will take care of you.

Elder J. M. McCall was a live Christian gentleman, always active in the things that concerned his church and people: there was nothing more dear to his heart. The last spiritual work of his was just before leaving the association. He returned to his home apparently well, looked after some domestic duties, retired, and awaked in the presence of his Master.

Elder N. B. Dunham was called to preach the funeral at the request of the deceased. Some time prior to his death he choosed him to preach his funeral. He was about 82 years old and had been in the ministry about 45 years: true to his calling and active in business as a Christian.

We will miss the presence of the brother and his council and advice. Heaven hath need of him. The Lord doeth all things well.

Report of Committee on Education

We, your committee on education, beg leave to submit that education has two great objects:

First: The foundation of character. Second, the equipment for life's work.

As to the first of these objects the problem is about the same everywhere, and, as to the second, different environments and opportunities should be duly considered before deciding as to the kind or character of education needed.

As churches and as Christians bound together by ties which only death itself can break, laboring in union, working together, shoulder to shoulder to extend the kingdom of God and his Christ, we should urge and encourage our young people to attend school. We should manifest more interest in the training and development of our boys and girls.

Our association is already helping quite a number of our young men and ministers to attend school, raising about $200.00 annually for that purpose.

We point with pardonable pride to some of the most promising young men and ministers in this section of North Carolina, as having been inspired and encouraged to attend school by aid received from the Educational Board of our association.

We recommend that the association continue its laudable work in this direction and that the following young men who are asking aid to attend school be assisted:

S. R. Kemp, Maloy Wright, Alexander Robinson, N. W. Whitehead of Second New Light; J. W. McLaughlin, of Laurel Hill; Lacy Clark and Cromwell Shaw of Oak Ridge; Colon Boon of First Baptist, Fayetteville; J. H. McSwain, of Second Baptist, Fayetteville; Neill A. McMillan of Swann Creek; Rev. W. R. Monroe of Mt. Pisgah; W. T. Currie, A. S. King, W. H. King of Pleasant Grove; Rev. A. P. W. Smith, of Flat Swamp; Floyd Campbell of Shiloh; John McNeill of St. John.

Respectfully submitted,

E. E. Smith,	N. B. Dunham,
S. W. Justus,	P. W. King,
J. J. Scarlette,	F. D. Bandy, Committee.

Whereas, The procedure of the Educational and Missionary Convention in its session held in Fayetteville in the autumn of 1911, was, to our mind, unchristian and arbitrary, and

Whereas, we feel that the will of the majority of the ministers and representatives to said convention was not expressed on more than one occasion; and

Whereas, this association has been a regular contributor and supporter of the convention for more than 25 years, paying into its treasury hundreds of dollars without ever receiving at any time any financial aid from it, notwithstanding the messengers from the association to the convention last session were instructed to ask a donation for our Red Springs church which was then struggling to raise $1,000.00 to secure a central location; therefore,

Resolved, that this association will not represent in the convention this year.

Committee.
