MODERATOR'S ADDRESS, PLEASANT UNION, EAST ARCADIA, OCTOBER 16, 1930

Brethren, we have come up here from the different parts of the bounds of our Association to recount the work which we have been permitted to do, during the year now closing.

Whatever has been the character of the work which we, as ministers, officers, and churches, have done, it is now final. We cannot change it, the seal has been placed upon it.

Let us, brethren, look with hope to the future. Let us all look ahead with determination and purpose to do better and more effective work in the future than we have done in the past.

In order to do more work or better work, why we must possess more power. We must have power to control self and not only self, but one must control, must have power over environments as well as over oneself.

Every man needs power. Every minister and church official seeks power. Every Christian has the Master's promise of power. But every man does not possess the promised power. And many, it is to be feared, never will. Many a man's life today is utterly lacking in power. Some of us here, brethren, can now look back across the stretch of the years with a sense of keen disappointment because of our many defects all because of the lack of power. All of us, my brethren, could have had power if we had been willing to pay the price for it.

Everything costs. There is a law of exchange that rules in every sphere of life. It is this, "to get, you must give." It rules in the business world. If I want a house or a hat I must pay the price. This rules in the physical world, in the intellectual world as well as in the material or spiritual world. If you and I, my brother, wish to have business transactions in this upper world of spirit life, we must be governed by this same law. To have power in our lives over sin and selfishness, and passion, and appetite; over tongue and temper and over self-seeking ambition; to have power in prayer, and in winning others from sin, one must do in this case just as he would do in the case of buying the house or the hat: he must lay down the required price. You say, what is the price of power? Turn with me to the talk of Jesus with Peter and others in the latter part of the 16th chapter of Matthew's Gospel and there we have it.

Christ Himself in simple words of far-reaching significance states, first the standard of power, and then the price to be paid by anyone who reaches that standard. Listen to the Master: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me."

In conclusion, brethren, let us all endeavor to feel deeply sensible, during the session of our Association of the presence of the Master, and that the opportunities afforded to do good shall not pass from us unappreciated and unused.

Let's seek the sprit of patience, of sympathy and of willingness to help, to the extent of our ability, the causes of missions and Christian education. And whatever else we can do to widen the Kingdom and manifest the power of the Master in the earth.

1. Are the brethren ready to pledge hearty and loyal support to the Convention?

2. Are the brethren willing to give a definite amount periodically to the Convention?

3. With the full support of the brethren the Convention will be able to enlarge its program of service to Shaw University—Christian Education and to Missions.

IN THE YEARS 1870 AND 1871

The Negroes of Robeson County, Cumberland County and Bladen County organized Sunday Schools, using the Blue-back Speller for their Sunday School books. Later local churches were organized Houses of Worship were built. These churches increased rapidly in membership. Later these churches decided to organize themselves in an association, and with the aid of the White Gray's Creek Association was organized with the name of the Colored Gray's Creek Association. Within a few years an Associational District was formed which took in Cumberland, Robeson, Columbus and Bladen counties, and a part of South Carolina. The Associational District grew so very large until it became necessary for the churches in upper bounds to ask for a letter of dismission to organize an association for convenience. Seven churches made application for letter of dismission which was granted in November, 1883. Early in February 1884, the churches which obtained letters to organize an association for conveniences met with the church at Swann's Creek in Cumberland County, N. C., early in the month of February 1884, and proceeded to organize. After Praise Services conducted by Rev. J. M. Whited, the meeting was called to order by stating its object. Rev. Samuel Boon, of Second New Light, was chosen Moderator. W. S. Smith, of St. John's Church, was chosen Secretary. Robert Gilmore, of Gray's Creek Church, was chosen Treasurer. After prayer and thanks to Almighty God for the movement on foot a committee was appointed to bring in a name for the new branch of the Association. Samuel Boon was made Chairman of the Committee.

Adjourned to meet with the church at Pleasant Grove, St. Pauls, N. C., October, 1884.

The next meeting of the first branch of the Gray's Creek Association met with the Pleasant Grove church, St. Pauls, N. C. The committee on name for the new association brought in their report. Chairman Boon reported Union because of strength, which was adopted. We are proud of the name of the Baptist Union Association, and serve God and our fellowmen under its name. At this session a home mission union was organized and plans discussed how to raise mission fund to send the Word of God into localities where the people did not have the Word of God. Rev. J. M. Whitted of Second New Light was chosen as missionary and sent forth to labor in destitute places. Many churches were set a part to serve God. Christianity grew steadily in Robeson County, Cumberland County and Bladen County. Funds were collected to buy church sites and build local churches for worship.

The Association grew steadily from 1884 till 1929 with an increased membership of 5,000. Each church is the owner of its site and house of worship. Later the Association joined the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

The Association was blessed with leadership. 1—Rev. Samuel Boon, 2—Rev. J. M. Whitted, 3—Rev. N. B. Dunham, 4—Rev. and Dr. E. E. Smith, who presides now. The churches all esteem these leaders and work together to win others to Christ. In 1908 the Moderator, Rev. N. B. Dunham, ordered that all the church deeds be recorded. A reserve fund was set aside to buy church sites and pay other expenses that might occur. $25.00 was paid for the site at Red Springs, N. C., and $10.00 for the site at Eddenboro, N. C.

The treasurer reported for 1884, 1885, 1886 and 1887 a balance of $40.67. The membership of the Association at this time was 1,083. Gray's Creek having the largest membership of all the churches with 154, Savannah next with 146. In 1908 an educational board was organized with the following members:

N. B. Dupham, E. E. Smith, D. Tyson, C. Wortkins, C. A. Cogdell, A. L. Johnson, J. S. Brown and M. D. Shaw.

Prior to this organization the Association collected funds to aid two ministers in school. They were H. C. McDonald and C. R. Bolden, who attended the Fayetteville school.

The Hammon's Creek Association, which was organized about 1885, Rev. Gilbert Morrison was chosen Moderator and Rev. George Williams secretary. The Association was organized with twelve churches. These churches worked together for a few years and six more churches were added. In 1890 Rev. Hays Cromartie became Moderator for two years, and Nelson McCall secretary. The following named ministers belong to the Association from the beginning:

Gilbert Morrison, Joe McKay, N. Robeson, H. S. McNeill, Gabriel McKay, Hays Cromartie, H. A. Wooten, Wayman Kelly and George Williams. In 1892 Rev. George Williams was elected Moderator and S. W. Smith secretary. They remained in office until the consolidation with the Union Missionary Baptist Association. This group of churches were the founders of Hoge's Institute.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg to submit:

Whereas, much discord, misunderstanding, and suffering have been visited upon our people by reason of excess in eating, drinking, and most especially in conduct and speech we therefore recommend that this Association go on record as being opposed to intemperance or excess in any form, and that we as a body frown upon anything that tends to lower the moral, social and spiritual welfare of our people.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES

Brother Moderator and Members of the Association—We, your committee, beg leave to make the following report:

First, the case against Rev. E. D. L. Council for fighting was considered. Brother Council confessed his wrong and said the Lord had forgiven him, therefore he asked to be pardoned.

Second, case against Rev. D. J. Devane of delaying in delivering promptly money intrusted to his care. Rev. Devane submitted to his mistake and asked pardon.

Third, the case against Zollie Jones charged with having killed Alhonso Wood. First—Jones was considered by the committee. A local minister of this Association with a message given him by the head of church (Christ): "Go and make disciples of all men." Second—Jones was considered as having lowered the standard of a minister. For the 13th verse of the 20th chapter of Exodus is "Thou shalt not kill."

Therefore, we find him guilty, and recommend that the right hand of fellowship be withdrawn from him and that the Deacons connected with the churches of this Association keep in memory the above transaction until further notice is given.

COMMITTEE.

THE MODERATOR'S CHARGE TO REVS. D. J. DEVANE AND E. D. L. COUNCIL AFTER CONFESSION

Brother President and Brethren--We, your Committee on President's Address, beg leave to make the following report: Whereas, the address was so instructive and carried with it a strong objective, we therefore recommend that a copy be sent to the Union Reformer, and also appear on the face of our minutes.

COMMITTEE.

REPORT OF FIELD SECRETARY

(REV. N. B. DUNHAM)

Brother Moderator and Members of the Association--The rapid flight of time has brought us together in another annual session. We have come from all parts of the field to report to you the work accomplished during this associational year. Our first visit was with the pastor and members of Laurel Hill church. Preached a sermon and lectured to the Sunday School. We found the church in working spirit. Leaving Laurel Hill, we joined the Mission Sisters at Leach Spring; found them going forward with a spirit of love. Leaving Leach Spring, we met with the Sisters' Union at St. Peter's Church. The church is business-like, every group is at work. It was our pleasure to speak to them in the morning session. They are really doing mission work. Miss Bunn of Selma N. C., was with them, and taught the Bible lesson Sunday.

SERMON BY REV. L. A. RAEFORD

I was with the brethren of the Ministers' Conference; preached an instructive sermon; found them in harmony.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

I was with them at First New Light. There are more young people influenced by this organization than by the regular Sunday School. It's like a small stream making to the ocean. Brother Ministers, they deserve our encouragement.

Our next meeting was with the Sisters at First New Light where they held the annual session. This was a wonderful meeting; the spirit of truth was present.

We assisted Rev. George Williams in revival meeting; also in the ordination of three Deacons.

Brother Moderator, our Mission Work is suffering because of the great money panic. "That's what the people say."

Now let the ministers, deacons, missionaries, Sunday School superintendents, Sunday School teachers, and others, go forward and never doubt.

Dear Brethren, our health was poor all the year, therefore it left us unable to accomplish our desire.

Received during the year--$17.00.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBITUARY

Brother Moderator and Brethren--Many of those seated with us in the past year have fallen by the way. The Master called and they answered. They passed out of this life into a perfect life with Christ.
