John Thomas of the Toisnot Baptist Church, and some of his descendants.

Research made and genealogy compiled by Marybelle Delamar, Raleigh, North Carolina, 1946.
THOMAS

John Thomas of the Toisnot Baptist Church in Edgecombe (now Wilson) County, North Carolina, and some of his descendants.

1 - JOHN THOMAS, was born in Virginia, and married there Christiana Roberts. The family came to North Carolina before November 16, 1747, when John Thomas purchased of William Cotton 250 acres on the east side of Toisnot Swamp Creek in Edgecombe County (Edgecombe County records in the Halifax County Courthouse. Deed Book 3, p 172). This was the first of a number of tracts of land that he acquired on Toisnot Swamp, Buckhorn Branch, and neighborhood, for some of which he made deeds of gift to his two oldest sons, John and Jonathan, on September 24, 1759. In the deed to Jonathan for 200 acres on the north side of Toisnot Swamp he excepted one acre for the use of the meeting house, "where the meeting house now stands". (Edgecombe County Deed Book C, pp 34/45).

When Morgan Edwards made his tour of North Carolina in 1772/3 to gather material for a history of the Baptist Church, he said of the Toisnot Church and of John Thomas and his family in part as follows:

"They originated from the general baptist. The names of them who first declared for the particular scheme are Rev. John Thomas and his wife, Moses Baker and wife, Jonathan Thomas and wife, Sarah Hickman, Obedience Thomas; the 14 were constituted on the particular plan Sep. 7, 1758. The first minister is the present Rev. John Thomas, a native of Virginia; Brod a churchman. Embraced the sentiments of the Baptist in 1748 & had the ordinance administered to him by Rev. Josiah Hart. Ordained by Rev. mess. George Graham & John More, at which time he took on him the care of the chn. His wife is Christiana Roberts by whom he has children, John, Jonathan, Obedience, Theophilus, Millicent, Teresa; married into the William Hilliard, Rogers, and Hill families and have raised 22 grand children." (Tour of Morgan Edwards of Pennsylvania to the American Baptists in North Carolina in 1772-73, edited by G. W. Paschal, and published in The North Carolina Historical Review, Vol. VII, No. 3, July, 1930).

The church was "constituted under the particular plan" on September 7, 1758, and was licensed under the Tolerance Act by the September Court 1759, when the minutes show that "On Petition of Jno Thomas & others of the Profession of Ana Baptist for Lycencing the Meeting House built by the Society on the sd Thomas Land near Jonathan Thomas's- Ordered that the same be lycenced."

After having served the Toisnot Church for something like thirty years, the Reverend John Thomas, on October 20, 1777, was elected Moderator of the Kehukse Association of which the Toisnot Church was a member. He did not confine himself to church work, however, as he was active in the civic affairs of the county. The minutes, over a period of time, show that for many years he served as justice of the county court, was on commissions for building and repairing bridges, and in divers other ways participated in the affairs of the community.

His will, dated April 21, 1788, was proven in February 1789. His legatees were his wife Christinalor, son John, grandson Jonathan son of Jonathan, daughter Treasy Hill, granddaughter Millison Horn, and son Theophilus Thomas. These correspond to the children as given by Morgan Edwards in 1775, except one daughter. Either Obedience or Millicent must have died without issue.

The date of the death of Christinalor, the widow of the Rev. John Thomas, is not known. Since provision had already been made for the disposal of the property following her death, no will or division of estate is to be found for her.

John and Jonathan Thomas, the two oldest sons of the Rev. John Thomas, were Baptist ministers also. Information of them can be had from histories of the Baptists in North Carolina, and from the Edgecombe County records.
This line is traced through the third son, Theophilus.

2 *THEOPHILUS THOMAS, the third son, and perhaps the fourth or fifth child of the Reverend John Thomas and wife Christinalor Roberts, must have been born in Virginia and brought to North Carolina by his parents when a child. He probably married shortly before his father made a deed of gift to him for 273 acres of land on February 20, 1771 (Edgecombe County Deed Book D, p 304). His wife was Mary Gibble, daughter of Frederick Gibble who named his son-in-law Theophilus Thomas in his will dated December 19, 1780 (Edgecombe County Wills at North Carolina State Department of Archives and History).

Theophilus either lived very quietly in Edgecombe or resided elsewhere for some years before his marriage. After that, however, he added to his holdings of land until he had acquired a sizable estate and gradually became active in county affairs. By 1779, his father having retired from the county court, Theophilus was appointed a justice, and seems to have served almost continuously until a few years before his death in 1803. In February, 1790, he was appointed sheriff and served one year.

On account of the North Carolina Revolutionary Accounts being so unsatisfactory, it has not been possible to find what part he played in the conflict. There are records of several payments having been made to Theophilus Thomas. Also in the collection of Comptrollers Vouchers covering Revolutionary service and supplies there are several canceled vouchers for him. He is shown in the 1790 census of Edgecombe with three males over sixteen, five males under sixteen, five females and twenty-one slaves.

The will of Theophilus Thomas was made on June 25, 1803, and probated in November 1803, while that of his widow Mary (Gibble) Thomas was made on this family have been secured, and are attached)

January 19, 1810, and probated in May 1810. From these two wills it is found that Theophilus and Mary had the following children:

- Obedience, m Brownrig
- Millicent, m Mason
- Ichabod
- Benjamin
- Teresa, m Enos Tart
- Tabitha, m Simms
- John
- Theophilus
- Elizabeth, m Cobb

3. Ichabod Thomas, the third child of Theophilus Thomas and wife Mary Gibble, was born about 1774, in Edgecombe County, and married in that county between November 23, 1799 and Dec. 1, 1800. Susannah Barnes, daughter of Archelaus Barnes and wife Margaret (Peggy). The marriage bond carries no date except 1799, but can be narrowed down to the last few weeks of the year as it is made to Governor Benjamin Williams who did not take office until November 23, 1799.

Archelaus Barnes named both his daughter Susannah (Suckie) Thomas and his son-in-law Ichabod Thomas in his will dated February 4, 1807, proven Court 1807. Peggy Barnes, widow of Archelaus and mother of Susannah, namedSusannah Thomas a legatee and Ichabod Thomas an executor in her will dated March 2, 1816, and proven August 1816. (Edgecombe County Wills with the North Carolina State Department of Archives and History).

Like his father and grandfather before him, Ichabod Thomas was active in county affairs. He was elected justice, seemingly to succeed his father, shortly after the latter died, and he served at least through 1817, from which date the search for this service has not been made.

He died in January, 1828. A Special Term of the Edgecombe County court was called for January 25th of that year when it was stated that Ichabod Thomas was dead intestate, and that the situation of his estate required the immediate care of some discreet person. The Court then appointed Wadd Thomas special administrator, and at the February term, 1828, appointed him administrator. He gave a bond of $10,000.00 with Archilas B. Thomas and Thomas Amason, securities. The division of the estate was made on November 6, 1829 and recorded in Edgecombe County Deed Book 19, p 437. The following were the heirs:

- Lot 1 drawn by Bennett Thomas
- Lot 2 " Morrison Thomas
- Lot 3 " Edwin B. Thomas
- Lot 4 " Margaret Thomas
- Lot 5 " James Thomas
- Lot 6 " Temperance Price
- Lot 7 " Wadd R. Thomas
- Lot 8 " John I. Thomas
Susannah Thomas, the widow of Ichabod Thomas, was still living on February 16, 1838, when she sold the whole of the dower in her husband's estate and included Lot No. 2 drawn by Morrison Thomas (Edgecombe County Deed Book 22, p 46). Nothing more is to be had of her from the Edgecombe records. Her children had begun to go to Sumter County, Alabama, several years before and by 1838 most of them had left Edgecombe. She, probably, was selling out to join them in Alabama.

The following information is had of some of the children of Ichabod Thomas and wife Susannah Barnes:

Bennett (given as Bennett B) was living in Sumter County, Alabama, in 1891. (Goodspeed);

Morrison Thomas was born in Edgecombe County, April 17, 1802 (Goodspeed) and married first Sarah Turner, September 12, 1826, and second, February 12, 1828, Patience B. Horn (Edgecombe County Marriage Bonds). He moved to Sumter County, Alabama, and from there to Grenada County, Miss. There are several sketches of members of his family in Biographical Memoirs of Mississippi, Vol. 2 (The Goodspeed Publishing Company. Chicago. 1891), but in the genealogy it is stated that he was the son of Theophilus, instead of the grandson;

Edwin B. Thomas was living in Gainesville, Alabama, in 1891, engaged in merchandizing;

Margaret Thomas, married April 26, 1830, Warren B. Barnes (Edgecombe County marriage bond), and went to Sumter County, Alabama, where she was living on July 3, 1833, when she and her husband sold her part of her father's estate (Edgecombe County Deed Book 22, p 206). According to Goodspeed, the family moved to Mississippi in 1850, where Margaret died eighteen years later leaving a large family, two of whom, Willie and Margaret, were still living in 1891;

James Thomas died in 1867 leaving a wife and two children, presumably in Sumter County (Goodspeed);

Temperance Thomas married Elijah Price, and was living in Sumter County, Alabama, in 1838, when she and her husband sold her part of the estate of her father, Ichabod Thomas (Edgecombe County Deed);

Waid R. Thomas died in Meridian, Miss., leaving a wife and two children (Goodspeed);

John died in Alabama the latter part of the war and left a wife and child, both of whom died a short time later.

The items from Goodspeed are given only for what they may be worth. In the publication all the children of Ichabod Thomas are given as children of Theophilus, and the middle initial "F" is given in the names of Margaret, John, Wade and James. In the division of the estate, Wade is the only name in which the initial "R" is used. There are some other differences in initials of the children between Goodspeed and the division, but no doubt the full name of each is known by the descendants.

After Morrison Thomas moved to Grenada County, Mississippi, his "kinsman", Bryan W. Herring, of Duplin County, North Carolina, sent him a copy of the entries from the Bible of Theophilus Thomas, grandfather of Morrison Thomas, the Bible then being in possession of Bryan W. Herring's sister, Toracy Barnes of Wilson County. This copy, together with letter of transmittal from Bryan W. Herring to Morrison Thomas, dated April 5, 1869, became the property of the latter's daughter, Rebecca F. Herring who married Caswell C. Peete, and is now in possession of their son J. L. Peete of Memphis, Tennessee, who furnished a photostatic copy to Mr. J. T. Thomas of Cruger, Mississippi, together with a certified copy of births from the Peete Bible.

Although these records were made available after the genealogy was compiled, they are included in the appendix through the courtesy of both Mr. Peete and Mr. Thomas.

According to promise I now write you and give you a correct transcript of the births & deaths found on record in an old Bible formerly the property of John R. Thomas your uncle which was printed at Oxford in England by Thomas Baskett Printer to the MDCCXLIX (1749). But before proceeding let me state to you that I find two records in the Bible one of your grand father and mother and their children, the other of your uncle John R. Thomas' children including the date of his death no other records are to be found in the book it is much mutilated, but could be rebound and preserved and might prove a blessing to future generations, it is scarce book being 120 years old and contains many forms (?) of prayers and catechisms not found in our present copy of the Bible.

Sister Teracy and her children are in pretty good health. I left my family in good health. My son Needham expects to go to Kentucky in a few days on a visit to Benjamin and to find him a home should he like the country I expect to stay
