THE MISSIONARY SPIRIT,—IS IT OF GOD, OR IS IT OF MAN?

[EDITORIAL OF "PRIMITIVE BAPTIST," JUNE 5TH, 1876.]

What a question! What a grave and serious question to be answered! I feel the weight of responsibility. May God give me grace to answer it correctly, honestly and impassionately.

Some time back I wrote on Missions, which brought upon me a heavy storm of persecution, notwithstanding I proved, from their own standard work, that they were of Rome. I now propose, in obedience to God, to try the spirits of Missions. 1 John iv. 1: "Try the spirits whether they are of God." The gift of discerning spirits is of God, and bestowed upon some of his servants for the protection of Zion. 1 Cor. xii. 10. "The Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits," &c. 1 Tim. iv. 1. The latter days here means the latter days of the Gentile dispensation, as the latter days of the Jewish dispensation spoken of elsewhere had passed away. Is this that time? Surely it must be, for there are ten thousand or more witnesses clustering around us to prove it beyond a doubt. If this be so, every soldier of the cross of Christ, every member of this little invincible army, should prepare himself. Eph. vi. 12, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Does not the Missionary spirit embrace these things? If so, Zion must, if she does her duty, fight them, or wrestle against them. How then are we to decide this great question of whether the Missionary spirit be of God, or of man? It is very easy, it is very clear and plain to all who have unprejudiced and unbiased minds, thus: Every spirit that lacks harmony with the sacred scriptures, "which were given by inspiration of God, and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction and for instruction, that the man of God might be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto every good work," is of man. 2 Tim. iii. 16. There is no appeal for the justification of anything from the scriptures that God will justify. By its teachings we should decide all questions connected with our faith. To say more would explode the whole Book of Revelation. If the scriptures are lacking in anything as a furnisher, the Great I AM has been derailed, and the Bible is imperfect. But we do not charge God with any such remissness and folly. And we therefore deny that the Missionary spirit is of God. For the whole thing from beginning to end is a heterogeneous mass of additions, both in theory and practice. It is just like man, its author—imperfect, selfish, and mean, fraught with damage and destruction to Church and State. The scriptures clearly reveal the path of life (Christ) and the path of duty. These things are made so plain that if a man possesses the Spirit of Christ, though he be a mental fool, he shall not err therein. Isa. 35: 8. But the Missionary spirit does not assent to these things, but claims it to be their duty and privilege to set up any institution that they may choose as auxiliary to the church. Now to show that the missionary spirit is of God, you must find authority for it in the scriptures. Can you find anything in the Bible to authorize or justify a school for the education of preachers? Not a bit of it. But to the reverse, it shows us that "God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; and base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea; and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are. That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord." 1 Cor. i. 27, 28, 31. Can you ever bring about agreement with this declaration of Paul and the missionary spirit? Then if the theological school system is not taught or authorized in the Bible, how can you avoid seeing that so far as that thing is concerned, it is of man, and not of God. If it was of God, the Bible would throw its light upon it and justify it. Therefore we have a perfectly justifiable right to say that it is of man, and for man, and that it is not of God, for his glory nor the good of man. Why seek to make men wise in letters, as conducive to the Spirit, when they are fools in divine things? Has not the Lord said that "the wisdom of the world is foolishness with God"? 2 Cor. iii. 19. "But the mouth of the fool feedeth on folly." Prov. xii. 14. If then, there is no precedent nor precept in the Bible for the establishment of schools to teach men the great mysteries of the Gospel, and cause them to be more efficient in teaching the unsearchable riches of Christ, for us to contend for them is to allow and justify any and every religious error in Christendom, and also the idolatrous worship of heathens; for the Bible as much sustains one as the other. And hence it is alarming to see the exertions that are now making in this Centennial year to endow those schools. When we remember that the man of sin was generated in the first of those schools in the 3d century; and when we remember the vast amount of oppression and blood-shed that was brought about by it, under the reign of the beast with his seven heads and ten horns, we are amazed to see Baptists so earnestly and assiduously engaged in these things. Do they not know, or have they forgotten the history of the church; and of this man of sin, and that which gave him power? Do they not know that the graceless man, brought up at the school of Clément, elected a Pope to enforce their edicts, so that the people might be forced to respond to their demands for money, which established the great Catholic power, which has bound and kept the world in chains? Do they not know that it is a fixed principle, that like causes will produce like effects in all ages, the world over? If, then, one school for illegitimate purposes brought about so many and such great calamities, what may we look for but oppression and woe, when we see all sects engaged in this nefarious work? It is manifest already to all reading and observing men, that this thing is the primary cause of the ruin of this Government. Need I adduce stronger proof than that the first memorial sent up to our Congress upon the slavery question was signed by 300 school clergy? They said that they could not be happy to live in a government where slavery (as they called it) was tolerated by law. They said they could not be successful in the great work of evangelization whilst there were millions of heathens in America who could not be lettered. As the numbers of these school clergy increased, the cause of rebellion against the laws and government of our veteran fathers increased, until finally they provoked the oppressed and threatened portion of the people to rebel against their rebellion. Having then concocted and fixed up so many machines to work in their interest, such as Temperance Societies, Sunday Schools, Tract Societies, Bible Societies, State Conventions, Protracted Meetings and Missionary Societies, and all denominations working together in these things, it was a very easy matter to turn the masses against us, and to teach them that we were rebels, when in fact we were only rebels in a secondary sense. We rebelled against the rebels. The God of heaven, and every honest, sensible man knows this to be so. The theological school has ever been the parent of all other money-grabbing and catch-penny institutions, from the rag society to the Missionary Society; all of which carry the mark of Cain—destruction and death. They (the school clergy) have fixed the standard of morals and the customs and public opinions of the country, and when these things are wrongly fixed or established, the innocent and pure in heart are bound to suffer. If they acquiesce they suffer the tortures of a guilty conscience, and if they remonstrate or protest, they are crushed.

Excuse me for a little digression in one thing. What effect has the great temperance question, concocted and urged by the school clergy, had upon the legislative powers of the country? It has deprived the sweating, toiling masses from the exercise of the privilege of even distilling their fruit. What is the effect of this? It opens the market for the deadly poisons put up in distilleries at the rate of from two to six hundred barrels per day! and I have good authority for saying that many of those great temperance lecturers are large stockholders in those whisky monopolies. Thus the honest, laboring people of the country are deprived by law of a privilege guaranteed to them by the Bible and by the laws and Constitution of our fathers, and are made tributary to those monopolies at the rate of millions to each State; and if we use a stimulant for medical purposes, or as a beverage, (which some will do,) we know not what kind of poison drug we are swallowing. God knew that the heavy wear and tear to which his creatures would be exposed in this poor world of changes, required that they should in moderation use an artificial stimulant in some cases, and therefore he authorized it, and our Saviour made it, for which he was branded by the school clergy of his day and their numerous satraps of being "a wine bibber." This is the missionary spirit. And if it is not taught in the Bible, it is anti Christ, and therefore not of God, but of man. This great missionary ball has grown to such tremendous proportions under the influence of its nursing fathers, (school clergy,) and is under such tremendous velocity, that it has rocked the very pillars from underneath the great temple of liberty, and crushed the life out of almost everything that is good and in harmony with the laws of nature, the laws of God, and the Constitution of our fathers. And hence it is not of God. It seeks for earthly power, self-laudation and praise, money, mere and fame. It strengthens the strong, it weakens the weak. It places the wicked in power, and oppresses the poor. It is the great gnawing worm at the root of the tree of liberty. It purloins the honor that belongs to God. It has divided families, churches, associations, and a nation, and, as Mr. Graves says, "they are of recent date, and have no foundation in the scriptures." And hence I say, it is not of God; if it was, it would seek his honor, and not money; it would seek his glory and not their own. As soon as this missionary spirit in the school clergy drove the negro from his normal condition it commenced operating on the poor credulous creatures to act in such a way as to destroy their old masters, themselves and the Government. They took the advantage of the credulity of the poor, ignorant creatures so as to ingratiate themselves into their favor, confidence and esteem, which made them an easy prey to their avarice. The missionary spirit took into their head the idea of establishing a Freedman's Savings Bank at Washington City, and sent missionaries into every nook and corner of the Government, exhorting the negroes to take stock in the Bank, and thus build up for themselves a great monetary power in the Government. The poor creatures, being torn away from the counsel of their honest old masters, and having been taught by the missionary spirit to despise them and ignore their counsel, they felt a pride in doing the bidding of their faithless counsellors; and soon, by working hard, stealing much, and living on the scraps of their income, raised a Bank with a capital of sixty million dollars! The missionary spirit took control of the Bank. The missionary spirit divided this vast amount among its favorites, giving the Young Men's Christian Association sixty thousand dollars of it for their part! The missionary spirit promised the negroes, when they were stealing them from their masters, a mule and 40 acres of land; but instead thereof, they have, by hook and crook, by hypocritical pretensions and religious appearances, swindled them out of all the money they have made since their fall into the missionary pit. "Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte," &c. The missionary spirit slaughtered two millions of the intellectual Anglo-Saxon race to pave the way by which they might elevate an inferior race, and raise them to an abnormal condition, and hurl the Caucasians under their feet.— The missionary spirit spreads the arms of her pretended philanthropy so wide as to take all the savage Indian tribes of the Continent into them, to the oppression and burdening of the impoverished people, when indeed the real object is to make and feather nests for the numerous drones in the missionary hive. It takes cognizance of all the barbarous tribes of the earth, whom God says he has cut off, to the oppression of the poor; and it may soon reach for the monkeys and kangaroos! The missionary spirit controls this once happy and prosperous Government, and all our oppressive and knavish rulers are in possession of it.— It is the great ligament that draws together, binds together and keeps together, all the oppressive powers of the earth. It is the spirit that puts Popes in saddles and Kings behind them, and hurls the masses under the heel of monarchy and despotism. It is hydra-headed, deceitful, cunning, covetous, avaricious, sly, forked-tongued, anti-republican, oppressive, anti-scriptural, anti-Christian, and anti-everything that is just, generous, fair, equitable and right. As it has grown in proportions and power, the true genius of American liberty has declined, until now in this great Centennial year liberty is but a name; and hence it requires great show and parade to make believe that it is a reality. True, there is nothing lost to the favorites of this spirit, such as have such place and power that they can oppress the poor by begging and oppress the Government by stealing; and they are numerous. They have woven the ingenious web, and the people, like incautious flies, have entangled themselves in it, until their power is gone, gone! See Proverbs vii, and you will find it all. We there find instruction and caution which we have neglected to heed, and we are now reaping the bitter fruits of disobedience to God.

The missionary spirit is a spirit of pride and arrogance, and is now prompting all sets to raise large amounts of money to endow colleges and to show to the monarchial kings of the earth and idol, oppressive pleasure seekers of the world who are to assemble at Philadelphia this year, all their wonderful works. And hence they have their laz, flattering drones all over the land collecting funds to enable them to appear in the pomp of old mother Rome. They put on such long faces, and appear so earnest about it, that they make their credulous hearers believe that Hades will be their home if they don't respond! Oh, fools! and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have written about these latter days. Forsooth, they would deceive the very elect if it were possible. They are the people who will protest against the decision of the Great Judge of quick and dead at the last day, and say, "Lord, we have eat and drank in thy presence, and cast out devils in thy name, and done many wonderful works." Matt. viii. 12. But the righteous little Bride, the little poor flock, will say, Lord, when did we do anything good? We have always viewed ourselves as worthless and defiled. I have often thought of the blasted anticipations of boasting Anti Christ on that day. What disappointment, horror and dismay will seize their guilty, oppressive and pretentious souls on that day, when they see little Esther go into the palace of the King, and pretentious, rebellious Vashti is lurked from power and place! As Anti-Christ boasts of numbers, wisdom, money, colleges, and many wonderful works, so she will be in that day. As the true church makes her boast of nothing but Christ now, so it will be on that day. The glory of his goodness, mercy and perfections eclipses everything with her through time, so it will be on that day.

All that I would have any desire to be at the great Centennial for, would be to convince the assembled millions of blind idolaters and pretenders that Christ is all and in all. That is the end of my ambition; beside that all is chaff.

The missionary spirit has placed before the people so many institutions and things for their consideration and thought, as auxiliaries and assentives to grace, that the people have well nigh lost sight of the real Substance, Source and Cause of salvation; and therefore we oppose the whole matter with all the honesty and devotion of our heart and strength of our soul and mind, though it might subject us to the martyr's doom. It has been but a few years since the missionary spirit was introduced into the Baptist church. Previous to that time all was peace and love. But so soon as we began to elucidate men to feed the flock of God, which God alone can do, why, here came the desolating institutions among us and divided us. Like a large majority of the Ishmaelites—yea, ten-twelfths, went off with Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and were carried into that broad bed spoken of in Proverbs 7th chapter, by wicked Ahab; so did a large majority of our family follow after the errors of Jeroboam, and have been our most inveterate, implacable, spiteful and inconsistent enemies ever since. In this country the churches were all in peace and prosperity until that spirit came among us. The poor creature that brought it here, after he divided all the churches, and brought discord, malice, variance, hatred and strife, such as had never been known in the Baptist family, took off his bridle-reins and hung himself to a tree. I suppose the cup of his iniquity was full, or else his great zeal for his idols had demolished the temple of reason, so that he knew not what he was doing. Since then there has been a mixing and uniting with the Missionaries and all other sects, until now they form one solid column, with all their arrows and darts dipped in vengeance and pointed at the little faithful few. And indeed the Missionary Baptists compose the foremost column in the charge, because they know that we know they are in Jezebel's arms in her broad belt of down. There is no people on earth so full of glaring inconsistency and effrontery as they are. They hold our abstract of principles on their church books verbatim, but in the pulpit and from the press if they don't fight it and disown it, they are ashamed or afraid to vindicate it. It clogs their proselyting machines, but not the wheels of Zion. The Missionary Baptists are bold to declare here, that if they believed the very articles of faith to which they have deceitfully subscribed, that they would take their fill of sin—steal, kill, rob, &c. This proves that they are hypocrites, and are not dead; for Paul says, "How can we that are dead to sin live any longer therein?"—The poor pilgrim may, by the weakness of the flesh, fall into sin, as the scriptures and the history of the church abundantly prove. But he does not live in it; he does not enjoy it; he is not contented with it; he does not fellowship it, nor does he fellowship himself for it; it grieves him. That is why so many poor, unfortunate pilgrims go hopping and hobbling. They have lost fellowship for themselves.—They can easily recognize brethren A, B and C as christians. But, oh me! how can I be, when I have had so many evil thoughts, words and acts? I can't see it. "When I would do good evil is present with me; so that the good that I would I do not, but the evil that I would not that I do." (Paul.) But those hypocrites who would take their fill of sin because of the yea-and-amen system of salvation by grace, know nothing of these conflicts and trials.

The missionary spirit is a proselyting spirit; it is a seducing spirit; it is a covetous spirit; it is a deceitful spirit; it is a hypocritical spirit; it is a persecuting spirit; it is a croaking spirit; it is a worldly spirit, a carnal spirit, a bewitching spirit—anti-Bible, anti-christian spirit; it is the spirit of Rome—the persecuting spirit of Rome, that drove our pilgrim fathers to the wilderness wilds of America as an asylum and resting place from oppression and tyranny. But as soon as our peace and prosperity was discovered, this hissing, forked-tongued serpent raised his head in the Old World, and seeing our happy and prosperous condition, swam across the briny deep and made a deposit of his eggs in the New England States of America. The Puritans hatched the first brood in Massachusetts, and they commenced winding through every department of Church and State. It now holds the reins of Government, and is seen to be a thievish spirit. It is so strong and united now in all sects and parties, and grown to such great proportions and power, that nothing but a supernatural power can control it. Its poison fangs have communicated the deadly virus of oppression into everything. The office-holders and salaried priests do not feel the ponderous weight of its oppression.—But the honest poor do feel it, and are groaning under their heavy burdens imposed by it. Thousands of honest people are truckling after it in its winding trail, who are blinded by the God of this world. To such I proclaim again: "Come out of her, my people! Be not partakers of her sins, lest ye be partakers of her plagues." The great name of God's justice is full of plagues for those oppressive wretches who have received the mark of the "beast" in the forehead and in the right hand for advantage. Oh, Babylon! thy huge golden pillars will be uprooted by the Eternal God, who holds the hand of poor little Zion to prevent her sinking under the deep, heavy waves of oppression and persecution. He will unearth all your abominations, and expose you to the open view of angels and the spirits of just men made perfect. The missionary spirit is in opposition to the bible and the church.

— I am not ignorant of the result from the publication of this Editorial. It will greatly exasperate all those who are coming money by its operations, and they will hiss all their little dogs at us who bark for bread. Some may think that I have dipped my pen in gall. It is not so. I have dipped it in the ink of truth and sincerity, which may stir up the gall of the guilty. And hence if they taste anything bitter, it is their own gall, and not the bitterness of my pen. If there is any thing in the 'theorem' or practice of the missionary spirit answering to the gospel of Christ, I cannot find it; only some apply the true ordinances. We are in the latter days, and may look for perilous times.

O B I T U A R Y.

The REVEREND N. M. SENTER was born in the State of Virginia, Smyth or Washington county, on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1810. He attached himself to the Primitive Baptist Church of Jesus Christ at Piney Creek, at the age of 17 years; and was licensed to speak in public in the name of King Emanuel the 1st Saturday in January, 1828. He was dismissed by letter from the Piney Creek Church on the 1st Saturday in July, 1836, and on the 2d Saturday in July, 1836, laid in his letter at the Senter Church, and was ordained to all the functions of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and the ordinances of the Church the 2nd Saturday in May, 1838, by solemn prayer and laying on of hands by the presbytery, (Elders Drury Senter Solomon Stamper presbyters.) Consequently he lived in a day when the modern Missionaries began to make inroads in the ranks of the Baptists of this country. And after favoring them by circulating books for them for about one year, he raised his warning voice against them and continued to do so while he lived in this unfriendly world. Even in seven of these once United States he studied to show himself approved unto God a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, giving to each their portion of meat in due season.

He was an able defender of the Church which is the pillar and ground of truth,—was perfectly sound in the faith once delivered to the saints. He was an excellent counsellor, a wonderful disciplinarian, an extraordinary advisor in Church and Association.

He was Moderator of the Mountain District Association for many years up to the year 1838, when the Senter District was set off from the Mountain.—He was then called to the Chair in the Senter District, which position he filled up to the year 1865, when a political secret-oath-bound party, called Red Strings, brought up trouble in the churches of the Senter and a portion of the Mountain Associations, which caused a division in the Senter, and took off some members from the Mountain.—Elder Senter stood firm and cried out against it and every other false way. In 1866 he sold out and moved west and settled in Kansas, where he remained a few years and lost his wife; he then returned to his native country and married the widow Belindy Koons. He was again called to the Chair as Moderator of the Senter Association, which position he filled with respectability up to the day of his death. Just before his death, while his mortal frame was racked with pain, he seemed to be in some kind of a trance or sleep, and when he came to himself he called for paper and pencil and drew up a short diagram of two contending armies in battle array, but was too weak to make fully known the idea he intended to convey.

He left all the evidence necessary to satisfy the people that he had been so long identified with in church fellowship his dear companion and children—telling them that in that great battle he had been speaking of that he had come out more than conqueror.

He leaves four living children, a dear companion, ministers, members, churches and Associations, to mourn the loss of husband, father, brother and friend. Thus on the 24th of July, 1877, he folded his arms in death—laid aside his mantle—received his passport from this world of sin and strife, and is now gone to reap the reward of his labor.

His troubles on this earth are all o'er,
He's met his Saviour on that bright shore—
In that bright world—that heaven above,
Where Jesus reigns in peace and love

OBITUARY.

The subject of this notice, brother Solomon Perry, was born in Grayson county Virginia, April 5th 1805 and died near Horse Creek Church, Ashe county N. C., Nov. 24th 1890, making his stay on earth 85 years, 7 months and 19 days. Joined the Primitive Baptist church in his 19th year at Elk Creek Church on Sunday after the Church was constituted on Saturday, in the year 1823; was dismissed by letter and joined the North Fork Church, Ashe county N. C., about the year 1832, and was taken as a part of a body and was constituted into Horse Creek Church August 31st 1840; was ordained a Deacon the same day, and went as a messenger from Horse Creek Church to the Three Fork Association when Horse Creek and other churches were given off to go into the constitution of the Senter Association in '53, and went as a messenger for many years, and remained strong in the Primitive Faith until his death, and advised the members of Horse Creek Church to receive no man in the pulpit but the Primitive Ministers to demoralize the Peace of Zion. He leaves his second wife and eleven children and many grand children and friends to mourn their loss. In consideration of all these things, as it pleased God to remove him from our midst by death, as we trust from his earthly to his Heavenly home, that we bow in humble submission to Him who does all things well, and while we deeply mourn the loss we have sustained, yet we rejoice to believe that our loss is his eternal gain. In the death of brother Perry the church has lost a useful member, the community a good and worthy neighbor and his family a kind and affectionate husband and father. That we as the church extend our heart felt sympathies to the bereaved family and ever pray that our Heavenly Father may lighten their deep and sad afflictions by His abundant grace and mercy.

H. B. Miller,
Richard Perry.

OBITUARY.

Elder T. C. Barker, son of Edward Barker, was born in Ashe County, State of North Carolina, about the 10th of Dec., 1836, was married to Mary Blevins in 1858. They lived together until it pleased God to call her from him by death, which was about 16 years. She left him three sons and two daughters. Then married Caroline Blevins in the fall of 1877. United with the Primitive Baptist church at New River, Ashe Co. N. C., about 1878 or '9, was licensed to preach on the 1st Saturday in Dec., 1881, and on the 31 day of August, 1883 was ordained to officiate in all the ordinances of the Gospel. Elders B Kilby A J Taylor, J E Baldwin, W B Halsey, Presbytery. He traveled and preached by day and night, and studied to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. He was an able defender of the church which is the pillar and ground of truth, was perfectly sound in the faith once delivered to the saints. He leaves six children, a dear companion, ministers, members of churches and Associations to mourn the loss of husband, father, brother and friend. Thus on the 12th of Feb. he folded his arms in death, laid aside his mantle, received his passport from this world of sin and strife and is now gone to the inheritance incorruptable.

His troubles on this earth are all o'er
He's met his Savior on that bright shore,
In that bright world—that Heaven above
Where Jesus reigns in peace and love.
