LONNIE McD. CATRON

Lonnie McDonald Catron was born April 4, 1871, and departed this life October 4, 1949, making his stay on earth 78 years and six months. He was married to Mary Jane Roberts January 26, 1892. To this union were born three children, one son and two daughters: Creed Catron, of Galax, Virginia; Anna Edwards, of Baltimore, Maryland; and Lela Fields, of Galax, Virginia.

Brother Lonnie professed a hope in Jesus and soon joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Pilgrim's Rest, the third Saturday in August, 1911, and in June, he was ordained to the work of deacon and in 1920 he was appointed clerk of the church. He served the church faithfully for 37 years as deacon, and as clerk for 28 years.

Brother Lonnie, as we call him, was a faithful man in every sphere of life; faithful in his home as a husband, faithful as father to his family, faithful to the church and community. The church has lost a faithful member, and the community and county, one of its best citizens. He bore his affliction without a murmur, and we feel assured at the moment of his passing his spirit or soul returned to God who gave it, and is at rest in His peaceful presence.

At rest, sweet rest, awaiting the adoption, the full redemption of his body, which will be raised from the dead at the second coming of the Lord, changed and glorified, and soul and body will reunite in a glorified state to live in the presence of Jesus in the glory world.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

He leaves many relatives and friends to mourn at his passing.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

Written by Elder S. P. Roberts, Rt. 2, Independence, Virginia.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Words of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

5. We believe in man's incompetency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe the saints are preserved in Christ Jesus and called and shall never fade away.

9. We believe that full baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances—that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and a general judgment.

11. We believe the joys of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

12. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.

2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall arise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to make his speech.

4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the Moderator till he is done speaking.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before, so as to make remarks on his slips, failings or imperfections; but shall fairly state the matter as nearly as he can so as to convey his light or ideas.

6. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.

7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.

8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of public speech.

9. No member of the Association shall address another in any appellation but the title of Brother.

10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in his speech or prohibit him from speaking till he gives his light on the subject except he break the rules of this Decorum.

11. The names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

12. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as any other member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall not vote unless the Association be equally divided.

13. That any member who shall wilfully and knowingly break these rules shall be reproved by the Association as they shall think proper.

OBITUARIES

LUCY EMMA RECTOR AND JOHN MITCHELL RECTOR

Lucy Todd Rector and John Mitchell Rector were blessed to live a happy 59 years together; and, as they lived together, so they died together.

She was born into this world on January 16, 1874, and calmly departed on February 8, 1951, at the age of 77 years and 22 days.

He was born on April 14, 1870, willingly following her in death on February 9, 1951, concluding a useful span of life lasting 80 years, eight months, and 25 days.

They were united in wedlock in August, 1892, and to this union were born six children—one son, James Leon, and one daughter, Ruth, preceding them in death by several years.

They leave to mourn their departure: two daughters, Mrs. Lon Mac Reeves, of Sparta, and Miss Rose Rector, of Baywood, Va.; and two sons, Montague T. Rector, of Baywood, and Ben Haswell Rector, of Ennice. They also leave behind 12 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a host of grieved nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

In addition, she is survived by two brothers, Izeriah and Levi Todd, both of Galax, Va.

In early life—together—they joined the Crossroads Primitive Baptist Church in which they both remained faithful and beloved members until death overtook them. They practiced their religion every day of the week as kind and generous neighbors and friends to all.

In their waning years they experienced almost continuous illness but bore their afflictions cheerfully and patiently throughout the long days and nights until the gentle hand of God beckoned them to enter His Eternal Kingdom together—as they had lived their lives together.

Her unflinching good humor in all times of stress made her life a beacon for troubled hearts of all kinds. As a wife and mother, she devoted her entire life to the service of her family.

Throughout his long life John Mitchell Rector was widely known for his faithful service to the Primitive Baptist Church. He served loyally as clerk of the Mountain Primitive Baptist Association for 35 years; as a deacon in the Crossroads Church for 25 years; and, also, as a clerk for that church for almost 30 years. His every task in connection with the services he performed with a glad and willing heart, since he virtually lived for his church and his family.

The world is now a better place in which to live, because Emma and John Mitchell Rector have been here.

ROBERT BRUCE MC MILLIAN

Robert Bruce McMillian was born May 30, 1881; departed this life August 5, 1949. He was married to Maude Shepherd, Sept. 23, 1906. To this union were born ten children—eight girls and two boys; two girls preceded him in death. He joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Fox Creek in early life and lived a faithful member until death. He was ordained deacon of Fox Creek Church several years ago and filled that office faithful until death. He was a kind husband and father always doing every thing he could do for the comfort of his family. He served Allegheny County as sheriff for a number of years. He was a prosperous farmer. Brother McMillian was an humble and faithful man and was held in high esteem by his countrymen and also by the church—always showing much care for his unworthy pastor.

May the Lord comfort his bereaved widow. Through indervery and faithfulness of his life he has left the children a rich legacy. May the Lord bless each of them to keep in memory his good council and advice as a loving father.

Funeral service was conducted by Elders S. P. Roberts and Coy Walker; his body was committed to its last resting place in the cemetery at Cranberry Church to await the second coming of the Lord. Precious in the sight of God is the death of His saints.

An unusual large crowd attended the funeral from all parts of Allegheny County.

Written by his pastor, Elder S. P. Roberts.

ALMEDIA HACKLER

Our dear mother was called to never-ending eternity on March 8, 1951—Almedia Helborne Hackler was born October 27, 1860—age 90 years, 5 months, and 8 days. She married Elder F. M. Hackler February 12, 1879. To them were born five children—3 girls and 2 boys; all of whom are members of the church, except one boy.

She professed a good hope in Jesus in early life and united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Rock Creek. She was a faithful member of the church and attended regular as long as her health permitted.

May the Lord continue to bless the lonely children. Mother will be greatly missed by her friends, church and the children. Precious in the sight of God is the death of His saints.

Written by her daughter, Mrs. Amelia Hawks.

CHARLIE M. REYNOLDS

Charlie M. Reynolds, son of the late Isom Reynolds and wife, was born in Allegheny County, N. C., June 15, 1879; departed this life June 5, 1951; at the age of 72 years. He was married to Della Richardson Feb. 28, 1900. To this union two daughters were born—Flora and Amma, who preceded him in death. He professed a hope in Christ and joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Antioch, N. C., June 14, 1909. He was ordained deacon the fourth Saturday in June, 1918. He later moved his membership to Crab Creek Church the fourth Saturday in January, 1926. He was appointed church clerk the fourth Saturday in October, 1947, and served both clerk and deacon until death.

Brother Reynolds was a faithful man in every sphere of life. The church has lost a faithful and devoted member, and the community and county one of its best citizens. He leaves a lonely wife, many relatives and friends to mourn his passing. Funeral services were conducted at Crab Creek Church by Elders Douglas and Kilby; his body now rests from the many years of toil to await the Resurrection morning when it will be raised a spiritual body and fashioned in the likeness of Jesus.

Written by Mack Rector.

BIRDELLA DICKEY REEVES

Mrs. Birdella Dickey Reeves, widow of the late Ellis F. Reeves, was born in 1868 and passed on to her eternal home December 19, 1950, after a period of declining health. She was married to Ellis F. Reeves in 1889; to this union were born three children: John Mack Reeves, Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. R. S. Wellborn, Independence, Va., Fred Reeves, also of Independence, Va., who preceded her in death some few years ago.

Sister Reeves was a life-long member of Peach Bottom Primitive Baptist Church. She led the most high, virtuous, honorable, quiet and peaceful life in the home and community and church. Her faithfulness in every sphere of life we feel assured is unexcelled.

Sister Reeves was one of my helpers in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. She never overlooked her poor unworthy pastor and was ever willing to hold up his hands that the gospel might have free course to feed the Church of God.

She leaves many relatives and friends to mourn her passing and is greatly missed in the home and in the church and community.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." Sister Reeves did what she could. Her funeral was conducted by her unworthy pastor, assisted by Rev. R. L. Wiley and Rev. C. H. Williams; her body was committed to its last resting place beside her husband in Independence Cemetery to await the second coming of the Lord.

Written by her unworthy pastor, Elder S. P. Roberts.

OBITUARIES

JOHN M. WILLIAMS

Elder John M. Williams was born April 10, 1868 and departed this life March 9, 1952; making his stay on earth 83 years, 10 months and 29 days.

He was married to Lou Annie Atwood, Nov. 6, 1886. To this union were born eleven children, 7 of whom preceded him in death. He is survived by his companion with whom he spent more than 65 years of his life; also 4 children: Mrs. Leona McMeans, Eura Corneal, Carrie Billings, and Roscoe Williams, 26 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

In early life he received a hope in Christ and united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Antioch, July, 1888, and there remained a member until death.

In the year of 1888 the Church gave him liberty to exercise in public and in June, 1905, he was ordained to the full work of the ministry and exercised in public 63 years. In his declining years the Church did not cast him aside because he could not serve them, but held on to him as their pastor and leader in Israel. He was a strong believer in salvation by the grace of God. He traveled through rain and snow to serve God and the Churches.

He was a good father to the children, a good pastor, a kind friend to all who knew him. Our hearts are made sad with the departure of their dear one; also are made glad that he is now asleep in Jesus.

Blessed sleep from which none ever awake to weep.—Written by Nina Dancy Fender, by request.

WILLIAM LEE HALL

In memory of William Lee Hall, who was born in Smyth County, Virginia, March 10, 1879, and was united in marriage to Malinda Hamm on October 29, 1900. To this union were born 12 children: Noah Hall, Mrs. Tina Moxley, Mrs. Anna Combs, Mrs. Allie Parks, Mrs. Nettie Marsh, Arthur Hall, Mrs. Virginia Thompson, Mrs. Vina Widner, Brock, Cicero and Amos Hall. One son, Dando, preceded him in death a number of years ago. He professed a hope in Christ and united with the Primitive Baptist Church where he remained faithful until the end. He was often found rejoicing in his Saviour's love, always wanting the Lord's will to be done. So on Sunday, June 8, 1952, the death angel made its visit and relieved his suffering. He left us with a sweet smile on his face to go and forever be with God where no suffering or heartaches ever dwell, making his stay on earth 73 years, 2 months and 28 days. He leaves to mourn his going a faithful companion, 11 children, 59 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, 2 brothers and 1 sister, and a host of relatives and friends.—A Friend.

ETTA EDWARDS TRUITT

Etta Edwards Truitt passed away at her home June 1, 1952, at the age of 70 years and 8 days. She was the daughter of the late David and Caroline Edwards of Sparta, N. C. She had been ill for several years, and seriously ill for the past ten months. She bore her afflictions with much patience; all was done for her that could be done by the hospital staff, medical aid, husband and friends, but none could stay the hand of death. Surviving are: The husband, who was so good and kind to wait on her during her illness; three sons: Johnnie, of Baywood, Va., Garfield, of Sparta, N. C., and Talmadge, of Glade Valley, N. C.; one daughter, Mrs. Bessie Richardson, of Society Hill, S. C.; two brothers, Commodore and Robert Edwards, of Sparta, N. C.; three sisters, Mrs. Fannie Sparks, of Sparta, and Misses Sallie and Pearl Edwards, of Sparta, N. C.; and six grandchildren.

She professed a hope in Christ and joined the church at Zion almost 50 years ago. Sister Truitt lived up to her profession by her daily walks in life. She reared a model family; was a devoted companion to her husband and was daily doing acts of kindness and love for her children, husband, neighbors and friends.

The Church has sustained a great loss and her family suffered a loss that can never be filled.

VERDIE EDWARDS WILSON

Verdie Edwards Wilson, daughter of the late Richard and Rosabelle Edwards, was born March 23, 1883; departed this life Oct. 30, 1951; making her stay on earth 68 years, 7 months and 7 days.

She was married to Cabell M. Wilson October 8, 1911. To this union was born one son, Emerson Wilson of the home.

She professed a hope in Christ and joined the Church at Zion over 48 years ago. She leaves to mourn her departure: A lonely husband, one son, three sisters: Mrs. Myrtle Fender, Sparta, N. C., Mrs. Annice Richardson, Society Hill, S. C., and Miss Lula Edwards, of Sparta, N. C.; three brothers: Garfield Edwards, Emory Edwards and Luther Edwards, all of Sparta, N. C.

She had been in failing health for many years but bore her affliction with much patience, and although suffering much of her time in her last years, she managed her home work and duties to her family and friends to the end.

Being the wife of a Deacon she performed her duties faithfully till in failing health other kind hands relieved her of most of these duties. In her last years, not being able to attend her church meetings herself, she would insist on her husband going on to church when meeting time came. On the morning of Oct. 30, while she and her husband were returning from a visit to see her Doctor, she was fatally stricken. The Doctor was hastily summoned. All was done for her that medical aid, kind husband, son, neighbors and friends could do, but none could stay the hand of death. She was a kind entertaining woman in her home and was loved by all who knew her. She was a good wife and mother and will be greatly missed in the home, church and community.—Written by request by T. R. Crouse.

— OBITUARIES —

DEACON D. C. CHOATE

D. C. Choate, son of Joshua and Peggy Fender Choate, was born November 26, 1870, and passed away December 12, 1954 at the age of 84 years and 16 days. He was first married to Gerzilda Rector, unto this union one child was born, who died an infant, losing his wife while still a young man he was again married to Celia Margaret Higgins who survives. Unto this happy union two sons were born, Dr. V. O. Choate, Galax, Va., and Viril Choate, Raleigh, N. C. He is also survived by two granddaughters, Mrs. P. B. Honeycutt and Miss Connie Choate, both of Raleigh, and one great grandchild.

He was a devoted husband and father and never tired of doing something for his family's welfare, a wonderful neighbor and friend to all, a useful citizen, taking an active interest in the business welfare of his beloved Grayson County. He was a firm believer in salvation by grace and with his devoted wife joined the Church at Crossroads in 1933, a few years later was ordained deacon and served his church faithfully as long as he was able to attend. He is sadly missed by family, church, and friends.

Mrs. Arza Caudell

MRS. LAURA M. SAWYERS

Mrs. Laura M. Sawyers was born in Carroll County, Virginia, October 12, 1899, and parted with this life June 3, 1955, making her stay on earth 55 years, 7 months and 23 days. She was married to C. C. Sawyers, May 12, 1920, and unto this union were born five sons: Howard, Lacy, Eldridge, Earley, Alton, 2 daughters, Eula and Mildred, all of Fries, and she also leaves 7 grandchildren to mourn her passing. She joined the Primitive Baptist Church in 1938 and remained true to the faith until the end.

Her passing was easy—she only fell asleep in the arms of Jesus and we all hope to meet her on that beautiful shore where heartaches and parting will all be over and no suffering ever comes.

J. MERRIMAN EDWARDS AND WIFE

God in His infinite wisdom saw fit to call our beloved brother, J. Merriman Edwards to his eternal home January 4, 1945. He was born in 1887 making his stay on earth about 58 years. He joined the church at Zion in August, 1903. His wife, Minnie Richardson Edwards, was born July 27, 1885, and departed this life July 31, 1955 at the age of 70 years and 4 days. She joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Zion June 6, 1909.

They were ordained deacon and deaconess by Zion Church in Allegheny County, N. C. the first Saturday in July, 1923. Soon after they were ordained they, with their family of eight children moved to the state of Maryland and remained there till God called them to their eternal home. They were loved by all with whom they came in contact, and enjoyed attending church listening to the theme, Saved by Grace.

CONSTITUTION

1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

2. In the letters from the different churches there shall be expressed their number in full fellowship, those baptised, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

4. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a proper Decorum.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

6. Any church may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.

8. Every query presented by any member of the Association shall be once read, and before it be debated the Moderator shall put it to a vote, and, if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration and be deliberated; but, if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the minutes of the Association, the best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

11. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Associational fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute voluntarily such sums as they think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the Association, and the money thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the Association who shall be accountable to the Association for all money by him received and paid out according to the direction of the Association.

12. There shall be an Associational Book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by a secretary appointed by the Association, who may receive a compensation yearly for his trouble.

13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

14. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they deem it necessary.

15. The Association shall have power (1) To provide for the general union of the churches; (2) To endeavor to preserve inviolably a chain of communion among the churches; (3) To give the churches all necessary advice in matters of difficulty; (4) To inquire into the cause why churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association; (5) To appropriate the means contributed by the churches for an Associational Fund to any purpose they may think proper; (6) To withdraw from any church in the union which shall violate the rules of this decorum or deviate from the orthodox principles of our religion; (7) To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry who may be present, to assist in the transaction of business during their setting; (8) To adjourn themselves to any future time and place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament is the written word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe the saints are preserved in Jesus Christ and called and shall never fall finally away.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of our dead bodies from the grave, both of the just and the unjust, and a general judgment, and that the joys of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

11. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery, and in fellowship with a church of our faith and order.

— OBITUARIES —

MRS. MAXIE KOONTZ KILBY

Maxie Lee, daughter of John and Cornelia Koontz, was born November 10, 1882, died July 16, 1956, age 73 years, 8 months and 6 days.

She was married to C. B. Kilby on December 27, 1905. To this happy union were born three sons and two daughters. One daughter Alma, died at the age of 21 months. Surviving are: Mrs. Ilene Caudill, Carver, Delmas and Glai Kilby. She is also survived by 14 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Sally McConnell, and Mrs. Georgia Deberry, and two brothers, Preston and W. M. Koontz, and many, many friends and relatives.

Just one month before her marriage she united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Senter and was baptized by Elder D. Smith Webb and Elder Troy Kilby. They moved to Sparta in 1925 and a little later she joined Little River Primitive Baptist Church by letter and remained a loyal faithful member until death came.

Words fail us when we attempt to tell of her love and devotion to her church, her family and her friends. Her very life was centered in and around her church and in its well-being she was always vitally interested. Her home was a home for Primitive Baptists and her seat was never vacant at church unless providentially hindered.

She dearly loved the theme of salvation by the grace of God and her faith and confidence in the Redeemer seemed to me far above the average. Daily it was portrayed in her life, and truly it can be said she was the wife of an Elder. As far as it was humanly possible, we think she met the requirements laid down in the good Book.

To know Sister Kilby was to love her, her pleasant smiling face and her sweet personality made her hundreds of friends. Such a life does not die, in the heart of her friends and church she will be remembered many days hence.

We are fully persuaded that she is now basking in the sunlight of God's love, waiting the resurrection of the body.

To the family we would say, may the Lord whom she loved so devotedly comfort you and bless you, and to the church, we are satisfied your loss is her gain.

ARZA L. CAUDILL

Arza Lincoln Caudill, son of David C., and Wada Joines Caudill, was born August 16, 1884, and passed away September 25, 1955, making his stay upon earth 71 years, one month and nine days.

Among the many who are left to mourn his passing are his wife, Hattie Richardson Caudill; three children, Mrs. Howard Austin, Keith and Clay Caudill, all of Galax; two grandsons; one sister, Tena Whitehead, of Trinidad, Colorado, and one brother, Richard A. Caudill, of Liberty, Kentucky.

Arza professed faith in Christ when he was a young man, and on April 15, 1922, joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Baywood, where he remained a loyal and faithful member for the remainder of his life.

In the year 1950 he was ordained as deacon in his church, and in that capacity served until death.

His church has lost a loyal and devoted member; his family, a kind and loving husband and father, and the community a good neighbor in the truest sense of the word.

The following poem may well express the sentiment of the departed:

“I leave it all with Jesus, and go at His command,
And daily do I ask Him to hold my trembling hand.
Whatever may betide me—be joy or silent groan,
He’s promised to go with me, I will not be alone.”
“Dear Jesus, precious Master, when I come down to death,
My pulse shall cease its throbbing,
And still my fleeting breath.
Then burst my prison fetters, and take me to thy breast,
And grant me what I’ve longed for—sweet, everlasting rest.”

CONSTITUTION

1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

2. In the letters from the different churches there shall be expressed their number in full fellowship, those baptised, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God’s heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

4. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a proper Decorum.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

6. Any church may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.

8. Every query presented by any member of the Association shall be once read, and before it be debated the Moderator shall put it to a vote, and, if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration and be deliberated; but, if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the minutes of the Association, the best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

11. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Association fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute voluntarily such sums as they think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the Association, and the money thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the Association who shall be accountable to the Association for all money by him received and paid out according to the direction of the Association.

12. There shall be an Associational Book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by a secretary appointed by the Association, who may receive a compensation yearly for his trouble.

13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

14. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they deem it necessary.

15. The Association shall have power (1) To provide for the general union of the churches; (2) To endeavor to preserve inviolably a chain of communion among the churches; (3) To give the churches all necessary advice in matters of difficulty; (4) To inquire into the cause why churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association; (5) To appropriate the means contributed by the churches for an Associational Fund to any purpose they may think proper; (6) To withdraw from any church in the union which shall violate the rules of this decorum or deviate from the orthodox principles of our religion; (7) To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry who may be present, to assist in the transaction of business during their setting; (8) To adjourn themselves to any future time and place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament is the written word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe the saints are preserved in Jesus Christ and called and shall never fall finally away.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of our dead bodies from the grave, both of the just and the unjust, and a general judgment, and that the joys of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked will be eternal.

11. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery, and in fellowship with a church of our faith and order.

OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE MOUNTAIN DISTRICT PRIMITIVE ASSOCIATION, HELD
WITH GALAX CHURCH, GALAX, VIRGINIA, AUGUST 30, 31,
SEPTEMBER 1, 1957.

FRIDAY MORNING, August 30, 1957.

1. The Association met according to last year's appointment and opened by song and prayer by Elder Edd Davis, correspondent from Senter Association.

2. The Introductory Sermon was preached by Elder Edd Douglas, text, 1 Cor. 10:3.

3. After a short intermission the messengers assembled in the church house and were called to order for business by song and prayer by Elder J. M. Whaling, visitor from New Liberty Association.

4. Called for petitionary letters. None came.

5. Received and read letters from all our churches, except Cranberry, and seated their messengers.

6. Organized by move and second that Moderator and Clerk be elected by private ballot. Elder Edd Douglas was elected Moderator and Lon M. Reeves was elected Clerk.

7. By move and second our correspondents who were appointed last year to visit Sister Associations were asked to report and excused those that failed.

8. On motion, called for correspondents and seated the following:

Roaring River: Brethren J. T. Choate and Troy Miller.

SATURDAY MORNING, August 31, 1957.

1. The Association met pursuant to adjournment and was opened for business by song and prayer by Elder C. B. Kilby.

2. By motion called roll of messengers, marked off those absent.

3. By motion called on Committee on Arrangements to report and they reported the following, and were dismissed:

(a) That we recommend to the Association that we refrain from seating Abbott's Creek Association at this session.

(b) That we print in our Minutes the obituary of any member of our churches and that their relatives bear the expense of printing and they are to be in a condensed form. The Elders and their wives and the Deacons and their wives obituaries will be printed as usual.

(c) We, the Mountain Association, disapprove of seating independent churches in our body inasmuch as it is Associations corresponding with Associations. This is not a declaration of non-fellowship, but we extend a hearty welcome to all peace-loving and orderly Baptists as visitors among us.

(d) The next session of the Association convenes with Little River Church in Sparta, N. C., Alleghany County, to begin on Friday before the first Sunday in September 1958, and Saturday and Sunday following.

(e) Rules of Decorum, Articles of Faith Constitution be printed in our Minutes.

(f) That we leave the matter of Eld. Coy Roberts to Pilgrims Rest Church.

(g) Committee of Arrangements go back to old custom of sitting at some home for deliberations.

(h) That our churches refrain from granting letter only for convenience.

(i) That Number 10 item in Articles of Faith be printed as follows:
We believe in the resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust, and a general judgment and the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

Matt. 25:46, 1 Thess. 1:9.

(j) Usual number of Minutes be printed and distributed as usual.

By move and second the work of the Committee on Arrangements was approved by the Association.

4. Called on Committee that was appointed to assign correspondents to sister Associations to report. They reported the following assignments, and the Committee was discharged:

Washington: Elder Edd Douglas, Bro. J. H. Stamper, Bro. Raymond Nichols and Bro. A. J. Reeves.

— OBITUARIES —

Lonnie E. Carico

Lonnie E. Carico, son of Frank and Mary Gordon Carico, was born October 13, 1899, and passed away in Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, March 3, 1957, making his earthly pilgrimage 57 years, 4 months and 18 days.

On December 24, 1921, he was united in marriage to Cora Louella Nichols, daughter of Elder Hiram Nichols, a well known Baptist minister of Alleghaney and Grayson Counties. Lonnie and Cora lived a happy and congenial life together for more than 35 years.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children, as follows: Mrs. Elmo Vaughan, Pearisburg, Va.; Mrs. Ray Wilson, Baywood, Va.; and Edward Carico, of Galax, Va.; four grandchildren, and one step-granddaughter, also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Earl Weatherman, Galax, Va.; Mrs. Luther Hutchens, Yadkinville, N. C.; Mrs. Floyd Jones, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Tom Glasco, Galax, Va.; Mrs. Paul Rinchardson, Hesperia, Mich.; Dewey Carico and Ben Carico, Galax, Va, and Claude Carico, Roanoke, Va.

Lonnie, together with his wife, united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Baywood, September 23, 1927, was baptized by Elder C. B. Kilby, and on June 18, 1951, was ordained deacon in the church, filling this office faithfully and attentively the remainder of his days, attending both days of his last Church Meeting.

Lonnie had been afflicted for several years but bore his afflictions cheerfully and patiently until the last.

He was a good husband, a loving father, always interested in the well-being of his children and grandchildren, a useful citizen and a good neighbor. He will be missed in his church, in his home, and in his community.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls His own,
And bids them leave this world of woe
For an immortal crown.

Is not even death a gain to those Whose lives to God were given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close
To open them in Heaven.

S. C. Richardson

Starling Columbus (better known as Lummie Richardson) son of Calloway and Cynthia Edwards Richardson, was born May 8, 1873 slipped quietly away February 25, 1957, aged 83 years, 9 months and 17 days.

He was married to Cornelia Reynolds October 27, 1892. They were blessed to live happily together for a long time and in October, 1956 they celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary. To this union were born twelve children, three daughters, Clara, Bessie and Beulah preceded him in death by several years. Those surviving are: Glenn, Odell Wayne and Woodrow of Boone, N. C., Arzie of Independence, Va., Albert of Sparta, and three daughters: Mrs. Zora Irwin and Mrs. Maude Andrews of Sparta, and Mrs. Ruby Choate of Wilkesboro. One sister, Mrs. Mallie Joines and one brother, Isaac Richardson. Eighteen grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren, many relatives and an unusually large number of friends.

He joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Antioch in early manhood and about thirty years ago he was ordained a deacon and remained a faithful, conscientious, interested member until death. He tried and did to the best of his ability, fulfill the office of deacon of his church. Not long ago he remarked to his wife that he would be glad when he could go to Antioch to stay.

In 1910 he was elected sheriff of Alleghany County and held the office two terms. Genial, kind and a warm friend to everyone, especially to those in need, Sheriff Richardson was probably as well known and liked as any resident in the County. He was a life-long farmer and for many years a merchant in Sparta.

For many years he had been a great sufferer; he had all the medical attention and care humanly possible, but to no avail. He spent the last three months of his life in Alleghany County Memorial Hospital. He as always pleasant and welcomed his many friends kindly. He seemed to take all his suffering with a smile and bore it all so patiently never murmuring about his lot.

We feel that Brother Lummie's passing is only a happy exchange for him.

To his devoted wife who has cared so tenderly for him, and to his grieved sons and daughters, may the God he trusted comfort you in these trying hours.

Written by request, Mrs. Lon M. Reeves

Cabell M. Wilson

In the early morning hours of February 19, 1956, the earthly suffering of our beloved brother, Cabell M. Wilson, mercifully came to a close as he passed from this life to life eternal. Born November 21, 1883, the son of Curren and Isabelle Galyen Wilson. He was married to Verdie B. Edwards October 8, 1911, and to this union was born one son, Emerson E. Wilson, of the home. He is also survived by five sisters, Delia Lowe, Bessie Choate, Bitha Galyen, Sina Graham and Sara Hawks. He joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Crossroads in early manhood and was baptized by Elder Smith Webb. His wife joined at Zion Church and was also baptized by Elder Webb in July, 1903. Brother Wilson later moved his membership to Zion Church by letter the second Sunday in April, 1915 where he remained a faithful member, true to the Primitive Baptist faith, a strong believer in salvation by the grace of God. He served as clerk for years until he and his dear companion were ordained as deacon and deaconess to Zion Church the first Saturday in July, 1923. His companion preceded him in death by four years and a few months. Brother Wilson will be sadly missed by the church, family, friends and neighbors. We don't feel he is dead, but fell asleep in the arms of Jesus to await the resurrection morning when the body will be raised a spiritual body, fashioned in the likeness of Jesus. He was a tender, loving husband, kind father and never tired of working for his family's welfare. He was a wonderful neighbor and helped out in sickness and in their many other needs.

Levia Higgins Smith

Levia Higgins Smith, daughter of the late Bud and Margaret Higgins, was born February 6, 1898, departed this life April 24, 1957, at the age of 59 years. She was married to Luther Smith on March 3, 1912. To this union was born six children, one daughter and five sons, all surviving: Mrs. Clifford Rector, Glen, Kyle, Dean, Don and Dwayne Smith, all of Ennice, N. C. She professed a hope in Christ and joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Crab Creek the fourth Saturday in September, 1946 and was baptized with her husband one month later at the October meeting. She, together with her husband, was ordained Deaconess the fourth Saturday in May, 1948. She fulfilled her duties willingly. She was ill six months. She bore her afflictions with much patience. All was done for her that could be done by the hospital, medical aid, husband, children and friends, but none could stay the hand of death. She always attended her church meetings and after she became ill she was blessed to come to the new church building four times, for which we were all very thankful. The church has lost a faithful and devoted member and the community a good friend and neighbor. She leaves a lonely husband, children, grandchildren and many relatives and friends to mourn her passing. Funeral services were conducted at Crab Creek Church by Elders Douglas and Kilby. Her body was laid to rest under the beautiful flowers from the many years of toil to await the resurrection morning when it will be raised a spiritual body and fashioned in the likeness of Jesus.

Flora B. Anderson

Flora Belle Halsey, daughter of the late Joseph M. and Caroline Halsey, was born August 12, 1889 and died May 6, 1955, the span of life lasting 65 years, 8 months and 14 days.

She was married to Staley E. Anderson March 14, 1913. This home was blessed with four sons and four daughters, of which six are living. She joined the Primitive Baptist Church and was baptized August 29, 1915, at Williamson, West Virginia, later moving her membership to Barton's Cross Roads, where she remained a faithful member. Her sympathy for the sick, her interest in the affairs of her church portrayed her true character. She was proud of her children and their welfare was her greatest concern. Her life was one of diligent labor and sacrifice for her family and loving concern for her neighbors. She will be missed among us. Mother Anderson had a great love for the word of God. She has read the New Testament through 32 times, according to the record she kept. She also read the Old Testament through several times and enjoyed talking about the teachings of the scriptures. Her conversations were strengthened by quotations of favorite verses. She taught her children to read and study the Bible at an early age.

Blessed are they that die in the Lord.

CONSTITUTION

1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

2. In the letters from the different churches there shall be expressed their number in full fellowship, those baptised, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

4. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a proper Decorum.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

6. Any church may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.

8. Every query presented by any member of the Association shall be once read, and before it be debated the Moderator shall put it to a vote, and, if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration and be deliberated; but, if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the minutes of the Association, the best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

11. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Associational fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute voluntarily such sums as they think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the Association, and the money thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the Association who shall be accountable to the Association for all money by him received and paid out according to the direction of the Association.

12. There shall be an Associational Book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by a secretary appointed by the Association, who may receive a compensation yearly for his trouble.

13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

14. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they deem it necessary.

15. The Association shall have power (1) To provide for the general union of the churches; (2) To endeavor to preserve inviolably a chain of communion among the churches; (3) To give the churches all neces-

any advice in matters of difficulty; (4) To inquire into the cause why churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association; (5) To appropriate the means contributed by the churches for an Associational Fund to any purpose they may think proper; (6) To withdraw from any church in the union which shall violate the rules of this decorum or deviate from the orthodox principles of our religion; (7) To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry who may be present, to assist in the transaction of business during their setting; (8) To adjourn themselves to any future time and place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament is the written word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe the saints are preserved in Jesus Christ and called and shall never fall finally away.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, both of just and the unjust, and a general judgment and the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

11. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery, and in fellowship with a church of our faith and order.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.

2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall arise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to make his speech.

4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the Moderator till he is done speaking.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before, so as to make remarks on his slips, failings or imperfections; but shall fairly state the matter as nearly as he can so as to convey his light or ideas.

6. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.

7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.

8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of public speech.

9. No member of the Association shall address another in any appellation but the title of Brother.

10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in his speech or prohibit him from speaking till he gives his light on the subject except he break the rules of this Decorum.

11. The names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

12. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as any other member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall not vote unless the Association be equally divided.

13. That any member who shall wilfully and knowingly break these rules shall be reproved by the Association as they think proper.

O B I T U A R I E S

Margaret Ann Edwards, oldest daughter of Henry and Cornelia Choate Richardson was born September 30, 1873, passed away March 20, 1958 at the age of 84 years, 5 months and 20 days. She was united in marriage to D. M. Edwards on April 15, 1894. They lived a happy and congenial life together till the year 1936 when he passed away suddenly with a heart attack. Unto this union 9 children were born, two of whom passed away in infancy. The surviving ones are: Henry Edwards, Mrs. Gilbert Atwood, and Charlie Edwards, Mrs. Harley Cheek, Emmett Edwards and Mrs. Delmas Kilby. She is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Walter Blevins, S. A. Richardson, Mrs. Arthur Greene, Mrs. Arza Caudill, Mrs. Robert Hanks, and H. I. Richardson.

In early married life they both united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Union, and a few years later were ordained deacons and in that capacity served the church faithfully and attentively till death.

She had been in declining health for several years and seriously ill for several months but was so patient and good through it all. She had made her home for some time with her oldest daughter and family where she was tenderly cared for. The doctor, family and friends did all they could but when her earthly life was finished she quietly and peacefully slipped away to the blessed heavenly home prepared for the people of God, where there will be no more sorrow, sickness, toil nor cares, for all tears will be wiped away.

John M. Ward. In the early morning hours of March 12, 1958 in a Marion, Virginia hospital, death claimed one of Saddle Creek's oldest and well beloved citizens.

John M. Ward, eldest son of the late Johnson and Nancy Wingate Ward, was born on February 11, 1876, in the Saddle Creek community near Independence, where he lived 82 years, one month, and one day.

On December 10, 1898 he was married to Etta Roberts who passed away September 30, 1952. To this union 6 children were born, 3 girls and 3 boys. One daughter, Ethel, died in infancy.

Surviving are: Dwight, Albert, Paul, Mrs. Thomas McBride, Miss Esther Ward, 10 grandchildren, and 13 great grandchildren. Four sisters also survive: Mrs. Bettie Ward, Mrs. Lona Robbins, Mrs. Lura Parks, and Mrs. Mollie Martin, and a host of relatives to mourn the passing of a good neighbor and friend.

He was a member of the Saddle Creek Primitive Baptist Church, joining and being baptized 47 years ago. He and his good wife was deacon and deaconess for more than 30 years. He was a faithful and loyal member until failing health about six or seven years ago prevented him taking an active part in his beloved church work.

Children, do not think of Father as being dead; he has just crossed over the tide to be with Mother and Sister, where there will be no more suffering and pain, no more sad good-byes.

To the relatives and friends, you have lost a beloved member of your church, a good neighbor, a loyal friend, but our loss is heaven's gain.

Burton Pedry Shockley was born in Carroll County, Virginia, August 23, 1868, departing this life January 15, 1958, making his stay on earth 89 years, 4 months, and 22 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Marietta Worrell, who still survives, July 4, 1893. To this union were born five children: Mrs. Orilha Conover, Mrs. Elva Wyrick, Miss Delphia Shockley, and a daughter, Alma Attaway who preceded him in death. Also surviving is one sister, Mrs. Lennie King.

He joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Galax the second Sunday in May, 1932, and was ordained deacon the same year. His great devotion to his family and church was not excelled. His counsel was safe. He was indeed a great soldier of the cross—was held in the highest esteem by his brethren, his neighbors, and his friends; was a loving father, a kind husband, a friend to many, but his chief conversation was of heaven and divine things. We feel our great loss is his eternal gain. Brother Shockley was blessed with good health, considering his age with the exception of his eyesight which had been gone for several years. He so often spoke of the mercies of God and that He doeth all things well. He truly was a great gift to the church as he filled the office of deacon so well.

May God continue to bless those that are near and dear unto his memory.

William Thomas Rector, son of John and Rosa Roberts Rector was born August 30, 1860 and passed away May 30, 1958 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eddie Hoppers of Whitehead after an illness of five months, making his stay on earth 97 years.

He was married to Miss Lucy Ellen Wagoner January 4, 1883, and unto this union were born three children; one boy and two girls as follows: Isom Gwyn Rector who preceded them in death February 18, 1886; Mrs. Rosa Jane Rector Osborne, Laurel Springs, N. C. Mrs. Carrie Ruth Rector Hoppers, Whitehead, N. C.; His first wife preceded him in death September 21, 1916. On May 7, 1920 he was married to Mrs. Cora Long Woodie, who survives. Also he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lou Emma Peck; five half sisters: Mrs. Della Barden, Mrs. Celia Blevins, Mrs. Edd Hendrix, Mrs. W. M. Caudill, Mrs. Manda Caudill; one half brother, Elmer Rector; three grandchildren: Mrs. John A. Weaver, Jr., Thomas Hassell Hoppers, William Dewey Hoppers, and two great grandchildren.

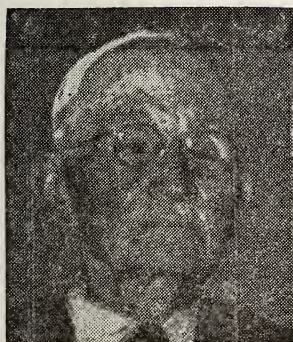

Brother Rector professed a hope in Christ in early manhood and joined the Union Primitive Baptist Church where he served a faithful member for 73 years and a deacon for 20 years. He was an old-time Christian, good citizen, and a loving father. He was one of the directors of the Northwestern Bank, Sparta, N. C. He was a good neighbor and was loved by everyone, known as a good father of which his children can recall the good things he did for them. He will be missed by his family and many friends, but we feel that our loss is heaven's gain.

"Only one life, it will soon be past, only the things done for God will last." Therefore may we so live and work each day that when our race on earth is run and the day of life is done, that there will be no vain regrets.

A precious one from us is gone, his voice we loved it still, a place is vacant in our home which never can be filled.

Elder Shade G. Caudill, 87 dies at Lawrence Hospital in Mooreville, September 17, after an illness of several weeks. He was born in Alleghany Co., and lived there for several years then moved to Iredell County, near Statesville, N. C.

He joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Union the first Saturday in September 1891, where he remained a loyal member until death. He was ordained to the ministry and faithfully served many churches as long as he was able to attend. He was pastor of the Union Primitive Baptist Church at Whitehead where he held his last service in May, 1957.

Elder Caudill was married twice, first to Miss Sue Long, who died October 3, 1934 and later married Mrs. Leota Reeves, who survives. Also surviving are two sons and four daughters of the first marriage: Robert L. Caudill, Jesse Caudill, Mrs. Blake Deal, and Mrs. Dura Deal, Mrs. Mamie Brawley, Mrs. Claude Lipe; three step-sons, John A. Reeves, Wayne Reeves and Olin C. Reeves; three sisters and three brothers survive: Mrs. Candice Edwards and Blanch Edwards, Mrs. Florence Edwards, Edwin Caudill, Dr. W. C. Caudill, and Dr. Estel Caudill; forty grandchildren and around a hundred great grandchildren, also many relatives and friends who mourn his passing.

Funeral services were held at Union Primitive Baptist Church September 18, 1957 by Elders Charlie Hall and Walter Evans, who spoke sweet words of comfort to the bereaved family. The body was laid to rest at Statesville in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

Yes, he has gone in spirit where our hopes are, and we believe he is enjoying what he had hoped for. May the Lord give us grace to be submissive to His will. May we say, Thy will be done, not ours. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord.

Lou Annie Atwood Williams was born November 23, and died October 18, 1954, making her stay on earth almost 85 years.

On November 6, 1886 she was married to John M. Williams, who was later ordained to the ministry. To this union were born 11 children, 7 of them, and Elder Williams preceded her in death. She is survived by four children, Leona McMeans, Eura Cornel, Carrie Billings, and Roscoe Williams. Several grandchildren and great grandchildren also survive.

She received a sweet hope in Christ in early life and united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Antioch. In the last several years of her life she was not able to attend church often, but she always was interested in the welfare of the church and wanted it to stay in the old paths. When she saw or heard of worldly things about to tear up the church and happiness of God's children her heart was made sad. She was firm in the faith of salvation by the grace of God and gave Him the honor of all things good that His people received. She was a good mother and companion and is missed by all who loved her. She spent many lonesome days alone with the children caring for them and her home while Elder Williams was away from them caring for the churches that he was called on to serve.

She loved to have preaching in her home and feasted on the gospel, and even though she couldn't get up from bed, this didn't hinder her from shouting praises to her Redeemer's name. She would raise her voice in hymns of praise to her Lord. She loved the good old songs, the old paths, election by grace and predestination of God's children.

Let us not grieve for one that has passed on that was so firm in the doctrine of the church, but hope that it will please God to call others to follow in the good old paths as she has done.

Elizabeth Billings Cleary. It is with a sad heart that I, by special request of an afflicted son, attempt to write a short sketch of the life and of the passing from this world of trouble of our beloved and faithful sister, Elizabeth Billings Cleary, who peacefully and quietly fell asleep in eJesus her Lord and Savior in the early morning of October 13, 1957. After having lived 83 years, and 2 months and 8 days with her dear family, and in the midst of so many friends. She was happily married to William Cleary, January 9, 1890, who preceded her in death in 1955. Twelve children were born to this happy union to make even happier this dear and humble home: John, Flora, Ivan, Fred, Robert, Ella, Blanch, Bertha, Jean, Alice and Troy. This dear humble, and loving sister and mother received a sweet and humble hope in Christ, God's eternal and only begotten Son, who came here to save poor helpless and ruined sinners, and united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Union in 1894 where she remained a faithful and loyal member until God called her spirit home. She attended the dear old church she loved, even after her body was so feeble and old she could hardly sit up. Yet she was blessed to rejoice in hope of eternal joy. She oftentimes would request services at her home which this writer attended many and enjoyed. It seemed that the Spirit of the living God just dwelled in her heart and the angels around her bed. For many years she had been a sufferer, attended with much pain, which she bore with patience. Waiting her change to come when she would lay still, be quiet and be at rest. This dear woman was a kind, devoted and loving mother. A loving and wonderful companion and good neighbor. Her home was always welcome to her many friends, perhaps even more welcome to the servants of God, who came preaching salvation by free, sovereign, eternal grace and peace by the blood of the cross, which she so much loved, believed and enjoyed. Surviving besides her 12 children, one brother, H. G. Billings, 28 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild, a number of nieces and nephews and many, many friends to mourn her passing.

Her funeral was conducted by Elders C. B. Kilby, R. N. Joines and the writer, her unworthy pastor at Union, in the presence of a large crowd of sad and sorrowing relatives and friends, her body was laid to rest in the church cemetery to await the adoption, yes the redemption of her body at the resurrection of the dead, and join her disembodied spirit and be translated in her entirety amid the inconceivable glories of an eternal day, where she will enjoy beauties and splendors never imagined on earth in the land of heavenly glory, the eternal and abiding city, by reason of the electing grace of God, the firm and everlasting covenant, the redeeming blood, the high, holy, and effectual calling having been made partaker of divine nature. Yes, where all of God's vessels of mercy will be carried some sweet and happy day.

Our home is lonely now, since you have gone away,

But we hope to meet you in a better land, some bright, happy day.

Written by request.

—Walter Evans

CONSTITUTION

1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

2. In the letters from the different churches there shall be expressed their number in full fellowship, those baptised, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

4. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a proper Decorum.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

6. Any church may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.

8. Every query presented by any member of the Association shall be once read, and before it be debated the Moderator shall put it to a vote, and, if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration and be deliberated; but, if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the minutes of the Association, the best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

11. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Associational fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute voluntarily such sums as they think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the Association, and the money thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the Association who shall be accountable to the Association for all money by him received and paid out according to the direction of the Association.

12. There shall be an Associational Book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by a secretary appointed by the Association, who may receive a compensation yearly for his trouble.

13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

14. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they deem it necessary.

15. The Association shall have power (1) To provide for the general union of the churches; (2) To endeavor to preserve inviolably a chain of communion among the churches; (3) To give the churches all necess-

any advice in matters of difficulty; (4) To inquire into the cause why churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association; (5) To appropriate the means contributed by the churches for an Associational Fund to any purpose they may think proper; (6) To withdraw from any church in the union which shall violate the rules of this decorum or deviate from the orthodox principles of our religion; (7) To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry who may be present, to assist in the transaction of business during their setting; (8) To adjourn themselves to any future time and place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament is the written word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.
4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.
6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.
7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
8. We believe the saints are preserved in Jesus Christ and called and shall never fall finally away.
9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.
10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, both of just and the unjust, and a general judgment and the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.
11. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery, and in fellowship with a church of our faith and order.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.
2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.
3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall arise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to make his speech.
4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the Moderator till he is done speaking.
5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before, so as to make remarks on his slips, failings or imperfections; but shall fairly state the matter as nearly as he can so as to convey his light or ideas.
6. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.

7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.

8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of public speech.

9. No member of the Association shall address another in any appellation but the title of Brother.

10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in his speech or prohibit him from speaking till he gives his light on the subject except he break the rules of this Decorum.

11. The names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

12. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as any other member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall not vote unless the Association be equally divided.

13. That any member who shall wilfully and knowingly break these rules shall be reproved by the Association as they think proper.

O B I T U A R I E S

ANDREW JACKSON WOODRUFF

Andrew Jackson Woodruff was born Jan. 26, 1869, and passed away June 22, 1958, making his stay on earth 89 years, 4 months and 27 days.

He was married to Cynthia Wolf on December 31, 1893, and to this union were born four children, all four preceeded him in death.

"Uncle Jack" joined the church at Woodruff Saturday, Sept. 2, 1901. He was ordained a Deacon in June 1921, serving as Deacon for 12 years. He later moved his membership to Little River in Sparta where he remained a faithful member until death.

He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his passing.

The only ones left in the home are the wife, "Aunt Cynthia" and Martha Fender who came there to make her home at the age of 8 years.

"Uncle Jack" was a devoted husband and a good neighbor, kind and true and always ready to lend a hand to any one in need. He moved on through all the hard trials with unswerving faith, neither turning to the right or left. The life he lived should be a pattern for us all to go by. We must remember as we live so shall we die, "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord."

EARL FARMER

Earl Farmer, son of Thomas and Mary Rutherford Farmer, was born February 8, 1893 and passed away March 8, 1959, age 66 years and one month.

August 19, 1913 he was married to Matilda Toliver and to this union were born seven children. One daughter, Mary, died when four years old. Those surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Glyde Delp, Mrs. Betty Ruth Kyles; four sons, Talmadge, Bill, Walter and Tom Farmer. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren and one great grandchild, many relatives and a great number of friends.

In May 1952, he united with the Primitive Baptist church at Elk Creek. He remained a faithful member until the end and filled his seat at church as long as he was able. He so much enjoyed having his friends visit with him in his home and did his utmost to add to their comfort and welfare.

He lived his entire life in Alleghany county, living at the time of his death very near the place of his birth. He was a life-long farmer and for the last 25 years he had operated a fish camp. Earl had many friends and his wife said if he had an enemy, she did not know of one. He remarked to her that he did not want one of his fellowmen to feel badly toward him. For many months he had been a great sufferer. All that our local doctors and doctors of other hospitals could do was of no avail. He bore his afflictions with much patience, never complaining but desiring, if it be God's will, to get well; if not he told his pastor that he was not afraid to die and was ready when the summons came. What a beautiful thought. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

ROBERT LEE EDWARDS

Robert Lee Edwards, son of the late David and Caroline Edwards, was born April 24, 1892. Death came to him on July 30, 1958. He had reached the age of 66 years, 3 months and 6 days.

He was twice married. On November 26, 1909, he was first married to Berkie Ethel Edwards. To this union were born three children: an infant who died at birth, Clarence, and Mrs. Parley Truitt survive. Mrs. Edwards passed away on Aug. 8, 1924. On October 21, 1925, the second marriage was to Ruth Crouse. To this union were born two children: Mrs. Odell Smith and Miss Wanda Lee Edwards.

Surviving also are the following sisters and one brother: Mrs. Eddie Sparks, Misses Sallie and Pearl Edwards and Commodore Edwards. One sister and two brothers preceded him in death.

At the age of seventeen, he joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Zion where he was a faithful member until his death.

He was not only a good, devoted husband, father and grandfather, but he was a real friend to all who knew him. But of all the good deeds he did, and they were many, nothing stands out any more prominent than his fine Christian life and knowing him as we do, we are prone to believe that today his soul is at rest in "that house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

FLORENCE CAUDILL EDWARDS

Florence Caudill Edwards was born Jan. 7, 1882 and passed away March 13, 1959; daughter of Terrell and Caroline Caudill, and was married to Center Joshua Edwards on Oct. 17, 1900. Two sons, Terrell and Cleveland, preceded her in death. Those surviving are two daughters and one son—Mrs. James Mason, Mrs. Luther Vaughn and Clay Edwards, all of Bel Air, Md., three brothers, Dr. E. L. Caudill, Dr. W. C. Caudill and Edwin Caudill, and two sisters, Mrs. Candace Edwards and Mrs. Blanch Edwards.

She was a member of Union Primitive Baptist Church for many years and was a firm believer in salvation by grace.

VIOLET HAMPTON BOYER

Violet Hampton Boyer, daughter of Litrell and Rosa Kirby Hampton, was born Aug. 31, 1885, and passed away Oct. 25, 1958, making her stay on earth 73 years, 1 month and 25 days.

Mourning her passing are three daughters, Mrs. Ruby Smith, Mrs. Emma Galyean and Mrs. Hazel Hackler; two sons, James and Crilly Ray; four sisters, Mrs. Cora Boyer, Mrs. Cena Dameron, Mrs. Ruth Hampton and Mrs. Julia Woodyard.

She professed faith in Christ about 50 years ago and joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Baywood where she remained a loyal and faithful member for the remainder of her life. Her church has lost a loyal and devoted member; her family, a kind and loving mother and the community a god neighbor in the truest sense of the word. Sincere dedicated concern for goodness, receptiveness to truth and God, understanding of God's grace and mercy reflect her quiet manner of life.

KELLY EMORY ANDERSON

Kelly Emory Anderson was born April 2, 1888, son of Kenny and Emaline Anderson, and died October 12, 1958, age 70 years, 6 mos. and 10 days.

On May 1, 1910 he was married to Sarah Jane Watson. To this union were born 13 children, six of them dying in infancy. Surviving are Mrs. James Bartelbough, Mrs. Roy McVisker, Mrs. Kyle Rector, Mrs. John Robert Anderson, Basil, Clifton and Amos. Mrs. Anderson passed away Feb. 22, 1935. Elder Anderson was united in marriage to Dorothy Nell Boone on July 23, 1936 and to this union were born six children, one dying in infancy and surviving are: James Kenneth, Mack, J. C., J. D., and Celia Mae Anderson of the home. Elder Anderson is also survived by his wife; one brother, Walter and one sister, Mrs. Noah Sexton.

Elder Anderson was united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Little River in 1923 and was ordained a minister in 1925, serving faithfully until his passing.

He was a good and loving husband, a good, kind and loving father, providing for the comfort and welfare of his family.

What we write or say will not add or detract from his way and manner of life. And it can well be said of him, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." The hands of loved ones ministered to him in his last hours, but could not alleviate his suffering.

Funeral service was conducted at Zion Church by his beloved moderator, Eld. Edd Douglas and Eld. Charlie Kilby, Elder Walter Evans and Eld. Matt Edwards of Fisher's River Association. Interment was in church cemetery.

DON MITCHELL BOYER

Don Mitchell Boyer was born in Alleghany County, North Carolina, on March 19, 1884, son of James Mitchell and Mary Atwood Boyer, and died Sept. 14, 1958. He was united in marriage to Violet Hampton June 14, 1905. They were blessed with eight children. Twins, Mabel and Hal, died in infancy, and Helen died at the age of seven.

Surviving are Mrs. Ruby Smith, Mrs. Emma Galyean, Mrs. Hazel Hackler, James and Crilly Ray; two brothers, Garland and Crilly; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Davidson and Mrs. Viola Adams, 15 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

For the past few years he had been in ill health but he bore all of his suffering with patience and leaned on the arm of a heavenly Father who is our refuge and strength. The affliction and suffering seemed to make him stronger and more faithful. He carried heavy burdens all along the way but was not known to grieve or complain about them. He was a constant source of inspiration to his family and those who knew and loved him. No more loving father and husband have we known. He dearly loved his grandchildren and they in turn loved him.

In April 1954 he was baptized and united with the Primitive Baptist Church at Baywood. Although he was converted while working in West Va. as a young man he always felt too unworthy to unite with the church earlier. However, he was a faithful attendant and a strong believer in the Primitive Baptist faith long before uniting with the church. In his last years he became more and more devotional, giving good counsel to all, meekly submitting all things to God's will.

JOHN ALBERT EVANS

John Albert Evans, son of William and Laura Crouse Evans, was born Aug. 13, 1881, and died in the Sparta Memorial Hospital Jan. 14, 1959, making his stay on earth 77 years, 5 month and 1 day.

On Feb. 26, 1910 he was married to Nancy Taylor who preceded him in death several years ago. To this union were born 3 children: Mrs. Kyle Edwards, W. Claude Evans and Kyle Evans, deceased. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Betty Edwards and Mrs. P. J. Richardson, also two grandchildren, Doris Jean and Peggy Sue Edwards.

He was a member of the Crab Creek Primitive Baptist Church, a devoted husband and father, who always applied the Golden Rule in his daily walk of life. He will be missed by his family and a host of friends.

LEOTA CLEMENTINE ELLIOTT

Leota Clementine Elliott, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Elliott, was born Dec. 15, 1889 and departed this life March 28, 1959, making her stay on earth 69 years 3 months and 13 days.

September 19, 1906 she was married to Columbus Reeves, who preceded here to the great Beyond May 10, 1932.

To this union were born three sons, John Alexander, George Wayne and Olen Columbus.

In early life she professed faith in Christ and united with the Brush Creek Methodist Church. In later years about 1938 she joined the Union Primitive Baptist Church at Whitehead, N. C. to which she remained a faithful member until she was called to her eternal home.

In 1936 she was married to Elder Shade Chadill, who also preceded her to the great Beyond in Sept. 1958.

She will be remember by her three sons, 4 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren as a most wonderful and loving mother and grandmother; by her neighbors and friends as one who was ever ready and willing to lend a helping hand in time of need or distress, and by all who knew her as a living example of the Golden Rule.

To know her was to love and admire her great patience, courage and loving kindness.

Let us not mourn at her passing, but rather let us rejoice in the hope that our loss is Heaven's gain, and that her trials and troubles in this low ground of sin and sorrow are over, and that her soul now rests with our heavenly Father, who doeth all things well, according to His purpose

CLAUDE ANDERSON LAWSON

Claude Anderson Lawson was born April 18, 1889, and departed this life December 4, 1958, making his stay on earth 69 years, 7 months and 16 days. On November 9, 1932 he was married to Mattie Hayes who still survives. Also surviving is one sister, Mrs. Linnie Freeman, and one brother, Boyd Lawson.

He united with the Missionary Baptist Church in Feb. 1935, and was later ordained a minister of that faith. In May 1952 he professed a hope and joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Elk Creek, and was later liberated to preach. At the time of his passing he was a member of the Crossroads Church.

He was a life long merchant. Though he has been in very bad health for a number of years, he bore his suffering calmly and without complaint.

His passing from these earthly scenes has left a void in our lives; but could he speak with us today he would say, "Let not your hearts be troubled, Where I am there ye may be also."

CONSTITUTION

1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the Association who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

2. In the letters from the different churches there shall be expressed their number in full fellowship, those baptised, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last Association.

3. The members thus chosen and convened shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches, nor shall they infringe on any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

4. The Association, when convened, shall be governed by a proper Decorum.

5. The Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk who shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

6. Any church may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association, and manifested by the Moderator giving the delegates the right hand of fellowship.

7. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the Association.

8. Every query presented by any member of the Association shall be once read, and before it be debated the Moderator shall put it to a vote, and, if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration and be deliberated; but, if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

9. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the consideration of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

10. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the minutes of the Association, the best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

11. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an Associational fund for defraying the expenses of the same, for the raising and supporting of which we think it the duty of each church in the union to contribute voluntarily such sums as they think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the Association, and the money thus contributed by the churches and received by the Association shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the Association who shall be accountable to the Association for all money by him received and paid out according to the direction of the Association.

12. There shall be an Associational Book kept, wherein the proceedings of every Association shall be regularly recorded by a secretary appointed by the Association, who may receive a compensation yearly for his trouble.

13. The minutes of the Association shall be read and corrected, if need be, and signed by the Moderator and Clerk before the Association arises.

14. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they deem it necessary.

15. The Association shall have power (1) To provide for the general union of the churches; (2) To endeavor to preserve inviolably a chain of communion among the churches; (3) To give the churches all necessary advice in matters of difficulty; (4) To inquire into the cause why churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the Association; (5) To appropriate the means contributed by the churches for an Associational Fund to any purpose they may think proper; (6) To withdraw from any church in the union which shall violate the rules of this decorum or deviate from the orthodox principles of our religion; (7) To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry who may be present, to assist in the transaction of business during their setting; (8) To adjourn themselves to any future time and place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. We believe in only one true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament is the written word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.

5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature of his own free will and ability.

6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that God's elect are called, converted, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe the saints are preserved in Jesus Christ and called and shall never fall finally away.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, both of just and the unjust, and a general judgment and the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

11. We believe that no minister has the right to administer the ordinances only such as are regularly called and come under the imposition of hands by the presbytery, and in fellowship with a church of our faith and order.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened and closed by prayer.

2. A Moderator and Clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall arise from his seat and address the Moderator when he is about to make his speech.

4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the Moderator till he is done speaking.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before, so as to make remarks on his slips, failings or imperfections; but shall fairly state the matter as nearly as he can so as to convey his light or ideas.

6. No person shall abruptly break off or absent himself from the Association without liberty obtained from it.

7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times on one subject without liberty obtained from the Association.

8. No member of the Association shall have liberty of laughing during the the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of public speech.

9. No member of the Association shall address another in any appellation but the title of Brother.

10. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member in his speech or prohibit him from speaking till he gives his light on the subject except he break the rules of this Decorum.

11. The names of the several members of the Association shall be enrolled by the Clerk and called over as often as the Association requires.

12. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as any other member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall not vote unless the Association be equally divided.

13. That any member who shall wilfully and knowingly break these rules shall be reprovred by the Association as they think proper.
