CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and messengers composing the Abbotts Creek Association. Greetings:

As I was appointed by our last association to write a Circular letter, I now make the attempt, feeling my weakness and inability to write of any importance to our Brethren and Sisters, who compose this association, I now ask the Lord to guide my mind and give me words that will be profitable in building up the household of faith, and cause them to rejoice in the Lord Jesus Christ, who is our Salvation.

Let us ever remember our elder brother, Jesus Christ, though we feel so unworthy to claim this relationship with him who is just and Holy in all His ways.

Paul in his letter to the Ephesians, 2nd Chapter, says Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God, and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone. In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an Holy temple in the Lord, In whom ye also are builded together for an Habitation of God through the Spirit.

Dear Brethren when we can look away from our empty selves and view the fair Church of God, and are given a hope that we are a part of that building, and our relationship to this building was wrought in Christ Jesus, who is the chief corner stone, and also the cap stone that holds this building together. It makes us rejoice in the Lord, and then we can say of a truth, what manner of men ought we to be.

Dear Brethren our Churches are suffering to day on account of the neglect of our duty. Shall I say it is the duty of each church to discipline her members when it is necessary? Church discipline when carried out in a spirit of love, is the life (so to speak) of the church, and means much to the growth of the church.

No one of us is perfect, so when we see our brother or sister in error, we should go to that brother or sister, not as though we are perfect and they imperfect, but knowing our imperfection and weakness in many ways, we should go to them and tell them how weak and unworthy we are and what a cross it is for us to come to them to bestow labor on them, feeling that they are more worthy than we, but for the sake of Jesus who bore our sins in His own body on the cross, and healed us by His stripes, they should turn away from wickedness, which is in my mind to repent, and if we succeed we have these words to comfort us, "Know ye not that you have saved a soul from death and hid, (not made public) a multitude of sin.

Dear brethren we should strive to keep the unity of peace among ourselves, if we do this, then the dear ones that are on the outside of the sheepfold will have a greater desire to come in and travel with us, may God help us to show by our walk and conversation that we have been brought nigh unto Him by the blood of Jesus Christ.

We should be careful not to do anything that would cause or influence those who have a hope in God, and are on the outside of the church, to refrain from doing their duty.

And when trouble arises in the church and one or more has to be excluded, we should, as good soldiers of the cross, do nothing that would influence or strengthen them to continue to rebel against the church. We should be ready to receive them back into our fellowship and the church when we see that they have repented, but not before.

And may I say that when any member of any church continues to keep company with an excluded minister who go on preaching and refuse to lay his gift down, are no more good soldiers of the cross, but they are acting cowardly, and should be dealt with by the church of their membership.

Now a few words to our ministers. Since the majority of our troubles grow out of shifting ministers who travel from pillar to post all over two or three states, and stay out months at a time, I am persuaded to think that there is little if any good in such trips, if a minister is worth so little to their home people, that they can do without them two or three months at a time. In all probability you would not be worth much to those churches over in other states. But if you must take a long trip, then try the destitute churches one time and see if the Lord is in the matter.

This does not apply to ministers in sister associations who correspond in sister states. Brethren, our Moderator is well informed and should keep himself informed as to the order or disorder of traveling ministers and should keep the churches in his association posted as to any ministers conduct, and we, or the churches should stand by their moderator and other ministers of their association when advised of the outlook for trouble on account of imported preachers.

Now may I say a few words about the hobby riders who cast a chill over the church as well as the dear ones for whom we have fellowship on the outside of the church, there is but few of this class and we hope that they will be fewer in the future, there is no food in hobby riding to the church, or to the loved ones outside the church who are sick on account of sin. I am glad that I can say of a truth, that our ministers are not hobby riders, and we ought to appreciate them, and not forget to administer to their needs, especially those who stand firm in doctrine and church discipline.

Now may the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, be with us and cause us to have a peaceful and lovely association, and may He protect and keep our loved ones from all harm, who we have left at home, to Him be all Honor Glory and Praise, Amen.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers, messengers and members who may compose the 104th session of Abbotts Creek Primitive Baptist Association to convene with the church at Cotton Creek on Saturday before the 4th Sunday in August, 1929:

Having been appointed to write a circular letter, it is with a full knowledge of my weakness and ability to explain the mysteries of the Scriptures that I write.

Brethren, I must talk to you of what my experience teaches me, for that is all I know of spiritual things (if indeed I know anything spiritually). "The wisdom of the world is foolishness with God." Cain's offering was not acceptable to God because it was an earthly offering.

"Those who worship must worship in spirit and in truth". God gives the Spirit to worship and the poor sinner is stripped of every false idea when he worships God.

Every burden is removed and the sins that so easily beset us, and we run the race with patience, trusting in God, rejoicing, shedding the tears of joy. Oh! that these seasons would continue, but God knows best. He chastens all his children. The autumn winds must blow, the leaves and flowers fade, for this is a journey through the wilderness.

"All his children shall be taught of the Lord". Taught that Christ is their savior, the one and only salvation for Time and Eternity. There are no two salvations.

Jonah said "Salvation is of the Lord". Jonah spake these words after he had suffered many afflictions, and this is the way we learn the truths of spiritual matters. David prayed that God would restore to him the Joys of his salvation. David was a man after God's own heart, but he did not have control of a salvation to release him from his troubles but was just as dependent on God to deliver as at His first deliverance. God delivers us from our troubles at His own good time, but we often wonder that we are thus cast about and sometimes become weary and nearly faint. But when we are permitted to see Him through the lattice, then we rejoice and believe we are on our journey to the Celestial City.

"Thy people shall be a willing people in the day of thy power." His power shows them their sinful ways, their helpless condition, their vile nature, their condemnation for sin. Then they become willing to say "God be merciful to me a sinner." Yes willing to plead with God for mercy; to part with worldly pleasures; to suffer afflictions with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of Sin for a Season.

Paul says when he would do good evil is present. He gave advice to the churches of Asia and instructed his son, Timothy, in the Gospel as to his conduct in the ministry, but denied that any of this wisdom came from his education at the feet of Gamaliel. We are living today in the most enlightened age of all time, from a literary standpoint, but in religious matters darkness covers the face of the earth. More fallacies and doctrines of men are taught than at any time in history. Christ is dishonored; his virgin birth denied. But the God who parted the Red Sea and delivered the children of Israel out of Egyptian bondage is still delivering and will deliver the last one of his elect. This is a part and parcel of the covenant that the Father made with the Son before this earth was fashioned.

At the final consummation of all things he will call his people from the North and from the South, from the East and from the West to the Land of Promise, to the Celestial City, the Home of the Elect.

"Oh! Happy day when saints shall meet
To part no more the thought is sweet."

The last promise to His people will be fulfilled when they enter the portals of Heaven and with a triumphant shout shall say "Oh! Death, Where is thy sting? Oh! Grave, Where is thy victory?" "Come in ye blessed of my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you before the foundation of the world". Prepared by the atoning blood of Christ shed on Mt. Calvary. This is all the preparation that has ever been made to save poor sinners. This is the Highway and no ravenous beast can enter there, but the Redeemed of the Lord shall travel this way when they come to Zion with songs of everlasting Joy. We are told that those who travel this way obtain gladness and that sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Have we not all experienced this?

We are admonished not to neglect the assembling of ourselves together. I believe it is our duty to meet together, not only to hear preaching but to talk of His mercies, His loving kindness in the forgiveness of Sins and to speak of the Kingdom that is not of this world. This will strengthen us in our faith. "When thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." When we relate our experience we become witnesses to each other that we have received the same blessings in like manner; that we have traveled that Highway of Holiness, known only to the people of God, wherein is Peace and Everlasting Life. He tells us to walk in newness of life, show our faith by our works, be instant in season, out of season rebuke and reprove. These admonitions are to those who have been redeemed from sin and death.

Yours in hope,

Denton, N. C., Box 102

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers and Messengers who may compose the one hundred and fifth session of the Abbots Creek Primitive Baptist Association to be held with the church at Tom's Creeks, beginning on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in August 1930.

It has now been more than eleven months since I was appointed to this sacred task. The sense of my unworthiness has been the cause of this delay, but I hope to know nothing but to be submissive to the wishes of my brethren.

I feel now to be poor and weak and blind and deaf and dumb. Poor, because I have nothing in my hand to bring, weak because I have no strength of my own; blind, I cannot see except the Lord open my eyes, deaf, I cannot hear except the Lord unstops my ears and gives me understanding.

I have often wondered what the brethren saw in me that caused them to appoint me to this sacred task.

Many scriptures have come to my mind and passed almost as quickly as they came, but this morning the 28th, 29th and 30th verses of the eleventh chapter of St. Matthew seems to arrest my attention. "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Now somebody is commanded to come. Who is it? It is all of somebody, it is all who are weary, tired, heavy laden, yes, heavily loaded. The promise is, "I will give you rest." This is the language of Jesus.

What else besides come? "Take my yoke upon you and learn of me". I very well understand what the yoke in a natural sense means. When I was a boy I delighted in yoking a young ox with the old gentle and well established, "Jake." If the young ox wished to leave the road he was held in place by the older one.

To my mind, the yoke in a spiritual sense means, to join the church, take on baptism, then you are yoked up with the older and more established brethren whose presence will constrain you to walk in the paths of righteousness and the ways of truth.

The most beautiful thing about this text is the "Learn of Me". What are you to learn of Jesus? What does he say about it. He says, "For I am meek and lowly in heart." Oh what peace and fellowship the church would have if all its members were meek and lowly in heart. There would be no disputes, nor contentions, no wranglings. All would be peace and sweet communion.

Now there is a promise set forth in this text. What is it? "Ye shall find rest unto your souls."

Oh, what a precious promise! What is more enjoyable than rest? and especially, rest to the soul. I have been tired in body and then, how pleasant it was to lie down on a good bed and rest, but that bed has no rest for the troubled soul. Only Jesus can give that rest and how unspeakable is the joy when the meek and lowly Jesus removes the troubles from the weary heart and speaks peace unto the soul.

I must pass on to the part of the text. "For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." What are some of the burdens? The pastor is to be cared for. We should see to it that he is not burdened with attending the church without a just consideration from each member whom the Lord has blessed with plenty. Certainly this burden is light. Then there is the discipline of the church which is just as important as the doctrine.

If I unknowingly affiliate with disorder I should go to my brethren and tell it to them. Truly this burden is light. and the beauty about it is, when I settle with my home church, I have settled with all the churches. The church is the highest tribunal on earth. We have our inferior courts. You can appeal from them to our supreme courts, but there is no appeal from the decision of the church. Then truly, truly the yoke is easy and the burden is light.

Dear brethren, pardon me for this statement, and remember me when in the spirit of prayer.

Yours in hope,

Star, N. C.

L. A. WRIGHT

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas God in His infinite wisdom, love and mercy has visited us and has claimed by death our beloved Brother, Elder Samuel McMillon, on the eleventh day of April A. D. 1930.

And whereas we keenly feel that in his death the Church at Salisbury has lost a highly esteemed Brother, and a precious gift as a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and an humble defender of the doctrine and true principles of the Church. Also the several Churches which compose the Abbotts Creek Association have lost an able, faithful, humble servant, moderator advisor, one who stood faithfully on the walls of Zion, always giving warnings and advice when necessary for the peace and welfare of the Churches and the great cause he loved so well.

Elder McMillon delighted in serving his Master, going far and near to declare that doctrine that is sweeter than life and stronger than death. His last visit to Salisbury Church was on the fifth Sunday in March A. D. 1930, and on this last visit he was blessed to preach the Gospel in the power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit of God to the satisfaction of the faithful in Christ.

We feel that the memory of this servant of God will live long in the hearts and minds of the Lord's people who knew him.

And whereas Elder McMillon came to us by letter in the year of 1913, and has served us continually as pastor half time since he was chosen in 1916.

And whereas his wife has lost a faithful, loving husband, and his children a loving father. We hope they will remember his good advice and admonition.

Therefore be it resolved:

1st—That we bow in humble submission to the will of God who kept our precious Brother in life, and did not forsake him in death.

2nd—That we humbly beg the Lord to keep us and enable us to fight the good fight of faith as our precious Brother did, and finally land us safely on the sunny banks of sweet deliverance with him where troubles, trials, conflicts, sickness, sorrows and death will have no more power over us.

3rd—That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and one to Zion's Landmark for publication and have same recorded in our church book.

Done by order of the Church while in conference on Saturday before the first Sunday in May, 1930.

Elder D. P. BROADWAY, Moderator

C. B. OWEN, Clerk.

IN MEMORY OF ELDER SAMUEL McMILLON

It is with a feeling of profound sorrow that we record the death, since our last session of the Abbotts Creek Association, of Elder Samuel McMillon, our beloved Moderator. Elder McMillon was born the 18th day of April, 1870, and joined the Primitive Baptist Church at the age of 17, and began to preach soon thereafter, and departed this life April 11, 1930. He first visited this country about twenty years ago, and about two years later moved to High Point, N. C., putting his letter in the Salisbury Primitive Baptist Church. Elder McMillon was an able gifted minister, commanding the attention of his audience when he spoke, and preached in such language as not to be refuted. He was a bold defender of the doctrine and faith, and fearless in the defense of all that opposed the true principles of the Church. The doctrine he preached was in accord with that upon which the Church was founded, and in his life and preaching there was no compromise with any new theories or beliefs. Untiring in his labor for his family, his brethren and churches of this association. His life was spent in the service of his Master, and his example worthy of our careful emulation. We desire that the God he served may give us a spirit of thankfulness for directing this servant of His Own choosing to this part of His vineyard, which was so profitable to this association. For many years he was the faithful Moderator of this, the Abbotts Creek Association, where his passing out of this life has used a vacancy that cannot be filled, except the God of all mercies that raised and qualified our dear Brother McMillon, will rise and qualify another to take his place. We know that God will not leave Himself without a witness. We believe that Elder McMillon has entered into that rest that remains to the people of God, and we sorrow because we will never again see the face of him who was so untiring in looking after the good and welfare of our association. May God keep us, and cause us to stand faithful for the doctrine, practice and discipline in the same spirit of love and forbearance as our beloved, Elder McMillon, was blessed to do.

We feel keenly the loss that has come to us, in him being removed from us.

We therefore, the Abbotts Creek Association, now in session do Resolve:

1st. That we desire a spirit of reconciliation to Him Who gives and takes away.

2nd. That we extend our sympathy to the family in their sad loss, and to the bereaved church of his membership, also those that he served.

3rd. That a copy of this memorial be spread upon our minutes, and a copy be sent to the sorrowing family.

4th. Unanimously adopted by the Abbotts Creek Association, while in the 105th session, held with the church at Tom's Creek, Denton, N. C., August the 23, 24 and 25, 1930, and signed by the following authorized committee:

ELDER D. P. BROADWAY.

DEACON B. I. HARRISON.

DEACON C. B. OWEN.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers and messengers who may compose the one hundred and sixth session of the Abbots Creek Primitive Baptist Association to convene with the church at Sandy Creek beginning on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in August 1931.

I have been wondering just what I should or could write as a circular letter that would be of any benefit to my brethern or show anything but weakness and ignorance on my part.

While meditating on the subject after I had retired, I had begun to doze, when I was awakened by these words: "Right blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." I pondered over this scripture to know the qualification of peacemaker.

The word peace as defined by standard authority—a state of quiet, freedom from agitation, contentment, tranquility, reconciliation, harmony, concord. Then to be a peacemaker, one must be in possession of these qualities. Meekness belongs to the one who is a Peacemaker. He must be gentle, kind, loving, considering the feelings of his brother—putting himself in the background.

I used to think that discipline brought about peace, but to force a brother or a sister to our way of thinking, not considering the circumstances or the feelings of our brother, will not bring peace, and while we may execute discipline and force a brother to bow to our decision in the matter, we have failed to accomplish that which makes peace, love, and that which keeps us at each others feet. Sometimes the word discipline almost becomes hateful to me as it is sometimes applied to church government, as it demotes one in authority as having authority over another. Discipline belongs to the church and not the individual. The pastor should work for peace, strive for that which makes peace in their churches, in their association, and among the household of faith everywhere. How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Gospel of Peace. God calls to peace and not to confusion.

I believe that one of the writers said to mark those who cause division among you: "Let each church when they meet show that sweet love and fellowship for each other as we feel would be pleasing to our great Head and law giver, esteeming each other better than ourselves, and each Association come together in love, not to make laws, or to try cases, but to worship God. He makes the laws, He tries the cases, that do not belong to the Peacemaker, neither the Association.

Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you." This peace belongs to the church, and brings about a peace the world knows nothing about.

Paul says: "And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding—hence not by discipline." We can understand that. Don't understand me to want to abolish discipline, but when we have the qualifications of a Peacemaker, we have little use for discipline. When we can live at our brother's feet, when we can in honor prefer one another, we are represented in the Scripture as a body, and Paul says the body has many members, and if the foot shall say, because I am not the hand I am not of the body and concludes by saying, but that the members should have the same care, one for another and when one member suffereth all the members suffer with it; as, one member is honored, all rejoice with it. Jesus said, "If thy right hand offend thee, cut it off—but how tenderly we would care for the hand; we would call in the best physician, and only as a last resort amputate the hand; an only to save the arm and perhaps life to the body.

One of the writers says: "How pleasant for brethern to dwell together in peace, how sweet to go to our meeting and our association with that God given peace." How we love each other not looking for motes in our brothers eyes. Sometimes I find motes in my brother's eyes. Yes, they are there, but I just can't get them out. Then I get the beam out of my eye and look at my brother and behold the mote is gone. So brethern, when a brother offend and we go to him with a feeling of unworthiness esteeming the brother better than ourselves, not to lord it over God's Heritage, but with love and heartfelt desire for peace and to save our brothers most assuredly. We will accomplish good, but if we go to exercise authority and force the brother to acknowledge discipline and come to the church, we have failed to accomplish that sweet peace and love and esteem that belongs to the church. So let us be faithful to one another and in love prefer one another and the God of peace dwell in you all.

Let me live at your feet and do not judge me too severely in my weakness, but help me to bear my burden. When we look over a brother's faults and love him from the depth of our heart with that God given love, then we can have peace that passeth all understanding.

Submitted in love,

W. F. OWEN.

Williams, which charges have become public, and the said charges have been sent to the Clerk of the church of his membership, and he failing to follow the commandment of the scriptures to lay down his gift and the church of his membership failing to investigate these said charges. White Oak Springs Church in their regular conference on July 16, 1932, closed their doors against said Elder H. S. Williams and the church of his membership, and those who follow him in his disorder. That the Church of White Oak Springs also in the same conference forbade him to deliberate in the church or on the grounds. That in defiance of the act of White Oak Springs Church during this session of the Association he and his followers forcibly took possession of White Oak Springs church building, thereby forcing the membership of White Oak Springs Church to appeal to a judge of the Superior Court for relief, the Judge of the Superior Court granting the injunction forbidding him and his followers to use the church and its grounds before we could hold this session of our Association in peace. Therefore, be it resolved that we the Abbotts Creek Union Association do hereby unanimously sustain the White Oak Springs Church in their action against Elder H. S. Williams and his followers, and we also declare nonfellowship for Elder H. S. Williams and his followers until they set themselves in order.

24. The Association extends thanks to God for his blessings, and to the brethren and sisters and friends of this community for their hospitality and kindness during this meeting.

25. After the minutes were read and approved the Association adjourned to time and place appointed, and then went to the stand where the meeting was dismissed by Elder D. P. Broadway.

Primitive Baptist Association

Association

HELD WITH THE
FLAT CREEK CHURCH

Rowan County, North Carolina

Commencing on Saturday Before the 4th Sunday in Aug., 1933

MINUTES OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE
ABBOTTS CREEK UNION PRIMITIVE
BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Held With The Church at Flat Creek, Rowan County, North Carolina, commencing on Saturday before the fourth
Sunday in August, 1933

Proceedings of the one hundred and eighth annual session of the Abbots Creek Association.

1. After praise and prayer, Elder D. P. Broadway preached the introductory sermon from Ecclesiastes 3-14.

2. After intermission of one hour the messengers from the several churches met in the house and after praise and prayer by Elder J. W. Tuttle the letters from the several churches were called for, read and their contents noted. (See statistical table)

3. The rules of decorum were not read.

4. Chose deacon L. A. Wright Moderator.

5. RESOLVED: That inasmuch as there are confusions in diverse places as to with whom the associations shall correspond, we feel that it is best at this time to abandon our former method of appointing correspondence but we do advise our brethren and sisters, who have a mind to do so, to visit other associations as visitors only, and do heartily invite all true Baptist who are in order and good standing at home to visit us and worship with us, ever remembering that salvation is of the Lord and not of the Associations.

We advise our preachers to go anywhere they feel that the Lord has directed them and as they go, to preach that doctrine of salvation by grace as set forth by the apostles and prophets.

We have no bars to put up against those who feed the flock on strong meat nor do we have any bars to put up against those who feed on the sincere milk of the word.

Lower Country Line, Fishers River and Zion.

10. Appointed R. F. Strange, Cleve Vanhoy and C. B. Owen to arrange the preaching for the remainder of the Association.

11. RESOLVED: That inasmuch as there are a number of good brethren and sisters who have been trapped in the Williams disorder and are desirous to get out of it and inasmuch as the church is a sovereign body and has the supreme right to manage its own affairs, we do advise all dissatisfied brethren and sisters to present their case to the church of their choice and we do further advise that the church hear any such and if satisfied that the applicant is worthy, that the church receive all such into its fellowship on confession of faith.

We do further advise, that where there are a sufficient number of dissatisfied parties to constitute a church, that they call a presbytery to inquire into the matter and act according to its findings.

We do further advise that as the Williams faction went out in disorder, that everything that they have since done has been disorder.

16. On motion it was unanimously agreed that the following article in Zion's Landmark of June 15th, 1932 by Elder O. J. Denny be copied in our minutes.

ORDERED STEPS

"The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord, and he delighteth in his way." Psalms 37th. Ch.

"It is not in man that walketh to direct his steps." Jer. 10:23. Surely this teaches that all spiritual or acceptable service, is of the Lord.

The Lord delighteth in the way of the upright man, whose steps he doth order, who walketh not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

The Lord not only ordereth the steps of his servants; but "The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue is from the Lord." Prov. 16:1.

God not only doth order the steps of his people which are acceptable unto him; but their feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace. Eph. 6:15. Feet imply walking. Shoes show the needed preparation for much walking. If a man walk disorderly, he cannot charge God with his folly. "A naughty person, a wicked man walketh with a froward mouth, he winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers. Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief, continually; he soweth discord. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly, suddenly shall he be broken without remedy." It cannot be said of such a man, that his steps were ordered by the Lord, nor that his feet art shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace.

David realized his inability to walk in the way of the Lord, except as he was taught and led of his Spirit, therefore; he said: "Teach me Thy way, O Lord, (my God) I will walk in Thy Truth, unite my heart to fear Thy name," We then hear him say, "Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound; they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance," and thus they walk acceptable before the Lord. In such blessed state of walking uprightly, they can say with David, "In Thy name shall we rejoice all the day; and in Thy righteousness (not in our own shall we be exalted." "For the Lord is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our King." Therefore "Not unto us, not unto us; but unto Thy name give glory."

Surely we are taught that not all the steps of man nor all the meditations of his heart are acceptable unto the Lord. "The curse of the Lord is in the house of the wicked but he blesseth the habitation of the just." Prov. 3:33. "My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to understanding; that thou mayst regard discretion and that thy lips may keep knowledge." "For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil but her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell." Prov. 5:1 to 5.

Not so with the steps of the man, ordered of the Lord, they lead not to death and destruction; but rather to life and immortality. "For the Lord giveth wisdom; out of Him cometh knowledge and understanding. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous; he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly." Prov. 2:6-7.

"When a man's ways please the Lord he (the Lord) maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him." Job. 16th. Ch. No wonder we read, "Better is a little righteousness than great revenues without right. Right steps, orderly walking, orderly living, in the kingdom of God is of Him, whom to know is life eternal. "All your righteousness is of me saith the Lord." "A man's heart deviseth his way; but the Lord directeth his steps." Jonah said in his heart "I will go not to Ninevah; but the Lord conducted safely to the appointed place and on schedule time.

Peter said, "I go a fishing; but the Lord directed the casting of the net before he caught anything. Man may appoint; but God often disappoints. If our walking is of Him, it will be an orderly walk, if our conversation is of Him, it will be to His praise, a godly conversation. If our hearts be not prepared, the fruits of the flesh will, surely, be made manifest, which are envy, strife, hatred, malice, etc. but of our service, our walking, our talking preaching' writing or of whatever nature, if it is the fruits of the Spirit, the fruits thereon will be joy, peace, longsuffering, goodness, meekness, faith. gentleness and etc. and against such there is no law to prohibit nor to condemn, neither in the laws of man nor the Law of the Lord.

May we not end this hurriedly written article by saying with David, O that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and His wonderful works to the children of men." All vile sinners, by nature, yet saved from sin and saved to all the goodness, and graces of the Kingdom of God, if saved at all.

In hope
O. J. DENNY.

CIRCULAR LETTER

Dear Brethren and sisters:

I was appointed at our last Association to write a circular letter, I tried to get the brethren to excuse me but they would not. Therefore I will try to write a few lines. Knowing my weakness and inability as compared to the good brethren and sisters it seems quite a task. One of the brethren remarked when I tried to excuse myself on my weakness, he said that was the kind they wanted, one with his head hung down. This being their desire I do not know where they could find a smaller one. Not withstanding the good Lord can furnish sufficient strength out of weakness and light out of darkness when he sees fit to do so. The God that made this earth stands fast. He has and will continue to do all His pleasure in earth and in the armies of Heaven. None can stay His hand, neither look upon Him and live. When we, if so blest, see by an eye of faith His greatness, goodness and mercies it is death to the carnal nature and mind which is not to the will of God neither in deed can be. This carnal mind is the thorn that Paul speaks of. He wanted it removed from the flesh but the Lord said let it alone, my grace is sufficient, though we are rebellious, go astray and suffer great loss in this world. Though we take the wings of an Angel and fly to the utmost parts of the earth behold the Lord is there, though I make my bed in hell behold He is there. I have said and still say that if the devil was so shrewd as to take one of God's children to hell, God would deliver them just as He delivered the Hebrew children from the fiery furnace even though it was heated hotter than it was want to be heat. The God of Heaven was able to make it a pleasant breeze. Brethren and Sisters, this is the God they let it rain. It isn't in their power to let the Lord do anything, neither such stuff as that in the trash box.

It is very dry at present and we all see the need of rain. Why don't they let it rain It isn't in their power to let the Lord do anything, neither can they stay His hand. He will do all His pleasure. The devil is as a roaring lion going up and down the earth seeking whom he may devour. I believe the earth in question means our old bodies. The devil is trying to get in among the children and tries to destroy them and does destroy a lot of our pleasures. He even misleads some of our ablest preachers and causes trouble in the church and when he is cast out he draws several stars with his tale, deceiving them to suit his job. What a pity the children of God will let a thing as hateful as the devil and his imps come in and keep house for them and tear it down. A house divided against itself cannot stand, so let us strive to lay aside all malice and with our best ability pray to the good Lord to remove every hindering cause of a free display of His grace being displayed among us and with patience run the race that is set before us, ever looking to Him and giving honor for all goodness and blessings and not charging Him anything wrong in the least degree. All sins great and small come from the devil. It don't seem, brethren and sisters, that I have given justice to the cause. I have given a little hint, so guess I had better close by asking for an interest in your prayers and to look over my weakness and forgive me if I have said anything wrong. I am your little brother if one at all.

LEVI TROGDON, Franklinville, N. C.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To Ministers and Messengers who may comprise the 109th session of the Abbott's Creek Association which is to convene with the church at Pierce's Chapel: Dear Brethren, as I was appointed by you to write our circular letter for this year, I will now make the attempt if the Lord will enable me. I know without Him I cannot write anything that will be any comfort to His dear people. Brethren, you know when I was mentioned for this task I asked to be excused, but when you all did not listen to my pleading I began to wonder in my mind if I would be favored with a subject to write upon.

When this scripture which I think is the writing of the Apostle Paul which I feel is the most important subject for the peace, happiness and prosperity of the church or association. The scripture referred to is this, Let brotherly love continue. Brethren, this language of the inspired Apostle established the fact that there is somebody in possession of this wonderful love. Nothing can continue that does not exist. I feel that this love is far superior to natural love. The scripture says God is love, therefore there cannot be a more important favor bestowed on us poor sinners than the love of God revealed in a poor sinner's heart. Brethren, I do hope when we meet in our association this love will exist as it has in the past. I hope the preaching brethren may be blessed with liberty to proclaim the unadulterated gospel of Jesus Christ. Written I hope in a spirit of love.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the ministers and Messengers composing the 110th Abbotts Creek Primitive Baptist Association, to be held with the Cotton's Creek Church.
Greetings:

As I was appointed at our last association to write a circular letter to be inserted in our 1935 annual minute, I now make the attempt. I feel wholly unfit and unqualified to write anything that will be of interest or benefit to the household of faith, I do not know what the words mean, quote. Growing in grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, unless it is having less confidence in the flesh, learning obedience by the things I suffer.

I hope my brethern will give this their careful consideration, and not expect anything brought up out of deep water, for I can only wade around in shallow water, and cannot dive down into deep matters, but just have to pick up the little things that float on top, and sometimes it comes in handfull's and may be thrown out on purpose.

I have been thinking of late of our great salvation which was worked out in the chambers of eternity, before any of the works of creation was done, even before time it's self begun. This work was so complete in Jesus, that nothing that man can do or will ever do, can change the destination of those that God made choice of, and elected to be the bride of His son Jesus, God knew all of them by name before any of them was created, and their names were written in a safe place, where nothing can dim or erase.

There are great armies working frantically trying to save men and women by their good works, not knowing that their good works and best righteousness are as filthy rags in the sight of God, and do not know the working of the spirit in this matter, neither do we understand it except by the spirit, for it is spiritually discerned.

Some of the Romans must have believed in good works in order to their salvation, for in Paul's letter to the Romans, Quote "Now to him that worketh, is the reward not (is not) reckoned of grace, but of debt, but to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

God imputeth righteousness to men without their good works, saying: "Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven and whose sins are covered not, for our good works, but by the suffering and death of Jesus on the cross.

We hear Paul saying, "For if they which are of the law be heirs, Faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect," because the law worketh wrath, for where no law is, there is no transgression, Therefore it is of faith that it might be by grace; so there is nothing mixed with grace that does the saving but it is through faith, that it might be by grace.

Some of our ministers are accused of preaching salvation by obedience, I have found this to be untrue. No one would expect a natural child to obey until it has natural life, and the child's obedience did not cause or give natural life, neither does obedience cause or give us spiritual life, but it is a spiritual live child that are admonished to obedience, not to make it a child, but because it is a child.

We are saved by the obedience of Jesus, when we were yet without strength, and when we were yet sinners Christ died for us, and justified us by his blood, and we are saved from wrath through Him, and by him we were redeemed to God. This was done by Jesus himself, without the aid of any man, for we here Him saying, before he made his advent into the world, "I have trod the winepress alone, I looked and there was none (no one) to help, I wondered and there was no one to pity, my own arm hath brought salvation.

By grace ye are saved, Jacob have I loved, but Esau, have I hated, before they were born, before they had done good or evil, that His purpose according to election might stand, not of works, nor of obedience but all of grace, and through faith, again can the Ethiopian, change his skin, he might color it, but that would resemble man's work in making a proselite, it would not be changed, neither can the Leopard change his spots, the same would apply to him changing his spots. It is impossible. So it is impossible for one that is accustomed to do evil, to change and do good works, as the child has to have natural life before it can cry, so the child of God has to have spiritual life before they can discern the things of the spirit, they are ready then to be admonished to obedience in the service of their master.

Man in nature cannot perform spiritual works, as such work is only performed by and through the spirit, one asked Jesus, saying "good master-what can I do to do the works of God? Jesus said, "this is the work of God, that ye believe on Him whom He has sent, "that is God's work, not man's work, man cannot cause man to believe on Jesus, that is God's work, man's works are all mixed with sin, No man in the flesh can please God, neither is he subject to His laws, nor does he know them, for they are spiritually discerned.

God, in His foreknowledge knew a people and they are not so few, as they are innumerable to man, and those that He foreknew, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His son Jesus, moreover, He calls—justifies—and glorifies them, even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles, Come let us reason together, If foreknowledge and predestination are the same, as some would have us believe and we are sure that God foreknew-elected-preserved-called-justified and glorified the elect family and will safely house them in heaven, we are also sure that God knew the destination of the non-elect, also all manner of evil and sin that ever will be committed, if the teaching of some that claim to be called of God to preach are true, then, all alike would be doing God's will, in all they do, whether right or wrong, this is a dangerous doctrine, and it destroys the church, and will cause divisions wherever it is taught.

Let us be content to believe the scripture, for they were given us for a guide and for our council, God's work was all good and very good, and His ways are past finding out, and who can know them, no one except those to whom He will reveal them, then why fuss and wound each other over the hidden mysteries of God? If God made the devil, it is none of our business. If He did not make the devil, it is none of our business, and if He wants us to know how the devil got here He will reveal it to us, and I feel it is enough for me to know that the devil is a close companion with me, and when I would do good, evil is present with me, if I have a few moments of rejoicing I have hours again to complain. Brethern, let us be good to each other, esteeming our brother better than ourselves, and we should rejoice that we are in peace among ourselves. The above are a few of my scattering thoughts, and they are precious to me, and I hope no one will be hurt because of what I have written, if it finds space in our minutes, your salvation does not depend on what I believe, and my salvation does not depend on what others believe, but our salvation depends on, and hangs on one that is a nail in a sure place, one that is spoken of as the chief corner stone, also the cap stone, and rock of our salvation. May God humble His called servants, and make them to realize that they are just servants and not great leaders, that they may wait for their gifts to make room for them. Every good gift comes down from God and will make room for its self, May God bless us to live in peace.

Your Brother, in hope,

C. B. OWEN,

100 Heilig Ave., Salisbury, N. C.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Elders, Messengers, and Brethren, composing the Abbotts Creek Association, Greeting:

Having been chosen by our last associated meeting to write the circular letter for our next coming association, and as the time is near at hand, I shall now make the attempt.

Now, dear brethren, I hope you will pardon me for any personal reference, and, as Saint Paul said in II Corinthians 11th and 1st, "Bear with me in my folly."

I want to say a few words about a circular letter and what, in my poor judgment, it is, or should be.

Although I have been out of school for several years, I still like to mingle with the teachers and students and for a little amusement I have asked them a few questions. Among these questions was, "What is a circular letter?"

Now this seemed a very simple question but the answers were rather slow in coming from the students. From among the highly educated lady teachers came the answer, "A business letter." Now this is true in part; the answer I had for this question was that it might be a business, social, political, or religious, but never a love letter. As a circular letter is embodied in one form and addressed to a small or large number of people, as a rule, while the average love letter is personal and addressed to only one.

Now, dear brethren, after all, was I not wrong in my answer? For when I asked these questions, I had no idea of ever being called upon to write a circular letter for our association, but since undertaking this task, I have been led to believe that the circular letters for our association should be a love letter of the highest order, or, at least, actuated by a spirit of love Divine, thereby carrying its own compensation for what might otherwise be a disagreeable task.

Now, dear brethren, it has been said that 'we know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren.'

However, I often get so low down in the valley that it seems I must be left completely out of the Divine arrangement, and that I love no one, or, at least, no one loves me. Also, so sick at heart that I am made to wonder, "Is there no balm in Gilead, is there no physician there." When it seems that the fountain of everlasting water described by Jesus to the woman at the well has dried up as far as I am concerned and there is nothing left for me but desolation and despair.

Then it is good to go up into the House of the Lord and hear the ringing of the golden bells and get a deep drink from that fountain that was opened up in the House of David as it comes powerfully, yet, so gently flowing into and over the soul, then in this condition we feel the love of God in our hearts so strongly that it seems we might remain in this condition indefinitely, but such is not the case, and we must again take up our crosses and keep on trying as best we may to follow the straight and narrow way.

Although, dear brethren, we may get so far away into the wilderness that we can't get to Church, let us remember that the Rock is there, the Great Rock, carrying the fountain prepared to furnish our every spiritual need, although we have no Moses to smite the Rock, what have we then? It seems that the heart-felt cry of the poor publican was the key to unlock the door of the fountain, a task that would otherwise baffle the skill of the most cunning smith. The earnest desire of the heart in fervent prayer is sufficient for us until we are delivered into 'that City to come, which we are seeking; a City not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.'

Finally, brethren, let us hope and pray that peace and good will may prevail among our churches.

And as God is the author of our Faith, if we have any, He is also the Finisher of the same. Then let us ever look unto Him for a just and wise consummation of all things.

Your Brother in hope and faith, if one at all,

B. F. COCHRAN, Star, N. C., July 1, 1936.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Mininters, Messengers and Brethren which compose the 112th annual session of the Abbotts Creek Association, GREETINGS:

I was chosen at our last Association to write a circular for this season. It did not cross my mind until the first Sunday in July when my wife informed me that I was to write it. I never felt more unqualified in my life and began to ask this question, "What shall I write?" I hope the Lord will guide my mind in a peaceful direction. Brethren, our Association is in a very peaceful condition. This meeting is not one to be dreaded for fear of confusion, but one that we have been looking forward to with our minds set on meeting our brethren and sisters from the different parts of the state. I hope that it will be a meeting that we all will be proud of and we do appreciate very much the presence of our visitors. We especially appreciate the ministers and hope they have come laden with the true gospel which does not divide the flock. It is useless for me to quote a scripture and try to interpret it, or to try to set forth the doctrine that we believe. All of our correspondent know what we believe, also, our enemies know what we believe and practice. We believe the same thing that our dear forefathers in Israel preached and practiced since the days of the Apostles. It is also useless for me to discuss a get-together meeting for we are already together and in peace, and our correspondents are together and in peace.

Brethren, the greatest peace move that Primitive Baptist who are in disorder could institute, would be church discipline. The ministry should be disciplined when necessary, for much of our troubles are caused by preachers who desire to have men follow them rather than follow Christ. If churches would nip the cause of trouble in the bud, it would not bloom. It seems that some Primitive Baptist think that all that is necessary is just to have their names on the church book. Brethren, you have seen green trees with one or more dead limbs on them; the dead limbs are attached to the tree just as firmly as the green ones. There is just as much sap in the tree where the dead are attached as where the green ones are attached, but the dead limbs are not drawing any substance out of the tree, it does not add any beauty to the tree, nor does it bear any fruit. "What good is it on the tree?" "None whatever." It is diseased and should be cut off, so it is with a church member who will allow such small excuses to keep them away from their meetings. There is nothing wrong with the church, it is alive, there is enough food for all, but except ye abide in the tree or vine, ye will become cold. The more one stays away from church, the less he cares for the church and one in that condition is as a dead limb on a tree. They make a bad impression, so does a member of the church who is in the same dead state. You can stay away from your meetings until you forget the smell of the pomegranate and the sound of the golden bells. When one unites with the church it is his duty to attend every meeting possible, even if he has to make a sacrifice. The more you sacrifice, the more you enjoy your meetings, the more you help your pastor, the better you will feel. Don't just shake hands with your pastor and tell him you enjoyed his sermon, the Arminians do that. Go one better than they. When you shake hands with your pastor, leave a little token, make a little sacrifice. That will be bad enough for where there is but little sacrifice there is but little gained. Lord, help us to deny ourselves for the cause sake, make us know our duty and give us a will to perform it. We should visit sister churches if we expect them to visit us. We appreciate those who come to our Associations. They had to make a sacrifice, we hope they will not regret it. May the Lord care for their loved ones who stayed at home to bear the burdens while they are here serving us as well as the Lord. We hope to show our appreciation for their visit at our Association for which they had to make a sacrifice to attend.

We have not invited any one who we had any reason to believe, had an axe to grind, and if any one should come looking for a grinding stone we will direct him back home. We stand on this firm ground, that every church is a sovereign body, and that the association is not a Supreme Court, and when any association recognizes an excluded faction of an association, she steps into disorder and should be marked as one upholding or backing a disorderly faction. Brethren, we love peace, and invite all not perfect, therefore we are liable to make mistakes, and stand ready to not perfect, therefore we are liable to make mistakes, and stand ready to make amends for any wrong we may do. This letter may not be accepted, if it is accepted it will be through love for the cause and through pity for the writer.

May the Lord bless you all to pray for one like me, and for each other in my prayer.

Your Brother in hope.

C. E. OWEN.

CIRCULAR LETTER

TO THE MESSENGERS AND BRETHREN, COMPOSING THE 113TH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE ABBOTTS CREEK PRIMITIVE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION;

GREETINGS:

Having been appointed to write a circular letter, and not knowing just what subject or topic would properly constitute a circular letter, I am at a loss to know what to write. However I know unless I am guided by the Spirit, I can only write of carnal or natural things.

Paul tells us in 1st Cor. 2-14, that the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto Him, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

We are born into this natural kingdom, not by our own will or any effort on our part, not being consulted as to when, how, nor as to what parent, either black or white, or by what name, and having been born into this natural kingdom, we can only understand natural things as we grow and are taught things pertaining to our natural minds and inclinations.

Being born in a natural kingdom and having a natural inclination we will follow after the things of nature, things that we know about. The natural born child can be taught the things pertaining to this natural kingdom, he can be taught to keep the law, to live sober'y, truthfully, and honestly as becoming a good citizen, a good neighbor, and so live as to honor his Father and Mother, and being well thought of in the community in which he lives, and to all whom he may come in contact with, and yet this natural born babe, as he grows with all his environments knows absolutely nothing about spiritual things, and can never know until born into the spiritual kingdom. To him it is like peeking into the bung-hole of a barrel, did you ever try that? You don't see much, but when one is born of the spirit, born into that spiritual kingdom, is like being in the barrel peeking out of the bung-hole, quite a difference.

One is not consulted, nor has any duty to perform in order to be born into this kingdom no more so than the natural born child, he is passive in the hands of his spiritual parents, and when he is born, the spirit leads, guides, and teaches it as he grows into spiritual manhood. He begins to hate that he once loved, he sees a new world and as he is led and instructed by the Holy Spirit, he can worship God. You know brethren, we cannot worship God, unless led by the spirit of God, but when led by His spirit we can hear the gospel sound and love it, and it is food to our hungry souls.

And we don't want to hear it with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the spirit and power of God, and the Lord will never forsake His spiritual born children, but will lead, guide, and direct them in righteousness until finally landed safely on the sunny banks of sweet deliverance, where we shall see Jesus and be like Him and be satisfied.

Submitted with love to all.

Yours with a sweet hope.

W. F. OWEN.

CIRCULAR LETTER

TO THE MESSENGERS AND BRETHREN THAT COMPOSE THE 114th
SESSION OF THE ABBOTTS CREEK ASSOCIATION—GREETING:

As I was appointed to write the Circular Letter, I not knowing how to start nor where to begin, will make the awkward attempt, and knowing that without the guidance of the Almighty it will be a poor attempt.

I will say by the mercy and grace of God we have peace among ourselves and should take heed, that we do not sleep but should at all times be ready to detect anything that would destroy our peace. Put on the whole armor of God ready for action if discrepancies should appear among us.

We should labor together in love as becometh the children of God, denying ourselves for our brethren and the needy, the orphans and widows.

We have so many different factions to come in contact with we know not where to go, for in them some know the truth yet in reality deny it. Oh that God might give such the Spirit of Truth.

Knowledge from God promotes truth, charity and love, but when we get off on the isms of man, it shows unfaithfulness of their calling if per-adventure they have been called. The apostle John says he that is borned of God heareth God's word and he that is so borned will understand the spiritual guidance and preach the truth and not get off on man's isms. If our leaders or editors of our church papers would denounce such man-made isms as some preach and advocate, I think there would be less of it preached, but as long as the editors fellowship such it will encourage them to preach it and mislead the weak minded to follow it.

In Paul's writing to the Galatian brethren Chapter 1 second verse: But I certify you brethren that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man (2 verse) for I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

If our preachers would preach that which was taught by Jesus Christ there would be less confusion and fewer factions and splits in our churches and associations.

Written in love and no hard feeling toward any, may the Grace of God be with us now and forever, Amen.

J. S. JAMES.

CIRCULAR LETTER

Salisbury, N. C., Rowan County.

TO THE ABBOTTS CREEK ASSOCIATION,
GREETINGS:

Dear Brethren: As I was appointed at our last session of our Association, to write a circular letter for this session, I now make the attempt. I do not know the purpose of a circular letter, therefore I will just do the best I can, hoping the Lord will guide my mind, and if I make a mess of it, I will not say the Lord did it. We have come through a long siege of Association troubles, causing many to fall out with Associations. Several churches are living out to themselves, on account of the troubles that have caused divisions among good brethren, in different Associations.

There is nothing wrong with Associations, the trouble comes from individuals, in individual churches, who make up the Associations. So an Association is just what the churches of its membership make it. If all of the churches are in peace, then the Association will be peaceable, for it is the associating ourselves together, that constitutes an Association, and fractions of the different churches that meet together do not have as much power as the whole church, therefore the Association is powerless, and can only pass on Association matters.

I hope to live to see the time when all orderly Primitive Baptist churches come together in an associational capacity, to sing, pray and preach together; that is what it is for, not a supreme court.

I am glad to say that all of our churches are in peace and fellowship with each other, so that when we come together in an association we can enjoy our meetings, enjoy the brethren and sisters who come to be with us. Many Associations take up too much time in their business, cutting short the time for preaching. This ought not to be, and we go through as quick as we can so as to have more time to devote to preaching, without wearing the congregation out waiting for preaching.

What I say to the churches in the Abbotts Creek Association, I say to all churches in sister Association, "Watch for trouble makers." The Scriptures teach us to mark them who cause divisions among us, and I say, if you cannot reconcile them, get rid of them, the sooner the better for the health of the church. Pray for each other; if we do that, we will have peace. The church cannot live with luke-warm members in her membership. That is a bad disease, they should be hot or cold, and if too cold, the church should turn the heat on them.

We do appreciate our visitors from sister Associations, especially the ministers. We need your co-operation, your love, your fellowship and your advice in matters pertaining to the peace and fellowship of correspondence. We always try to preach all ordained preachers, that come to our Association, and if possible, all licentiates, but we should not worry our congregation with late hours in order to preach all licentiates, and they should not feel hurt if they are not called on when they visit out of their home Association. I think it best for churches to keep their licentiates at home until they are satisfied that they are called to preach, then ordain them, or loose them and let them go. I have heard young licentiates dwell long and loud on their calling, as if that proves that they are called, but the only proof that they are called, is that they do preach. It is the duty of all churches to watch those that they turn loose, and if they think that their gift is not profitable, call them in, it may hurt the one called in, but it is better to hurt one, than to hurt the cause.

I know this is an unusual letter to offer as a circular letter, but it is all I have to offer. I asked our Moderator to explain the purpose of a circular letter, and he said it was to set forth the doctrine.

We have many ministers to set forth the doctrine, some do and some don't; they could also give good advice to the churches; some do and some don't; they could admonish churches to look after the welfare of their pasters; some do and some don't. Those that do are called money hunters; some are and some are not. Churches should look after their pastor's moral conduct, as well as their finances, some do and some do not. All church members should give as much to their pastor and church as they throw away for foolishness, some do and some don't. Church members should give their moral support as well as financial support to their pastor and church, some do and some don't. Our preachers should admonish church members to do their duty, or that there is a duty for all to do, after they are made alive in Christ, some do and some are afraid to dwell on the subject of duty.

There is a duty for all to do, not to get life, but because of the life, and in order to live after we are made alive.

Paul said in Ephesians 2:1: And you hath He quickened, (made alive) who were dead in trespasses and sins. There is no spiritual duty to teach the dead, but after one is made alive in Christ, there is a duty for them to perform. They should go home to their friends, join the church, be baptized, attend church, help pay the expenses of the pastor, and the church. We should help our pastor for more than one reason, we should help to lighten his financial burdens, also to show him that we appreciate him. Many other things could be said along the line of duty. I want to say in closing, that our churches believe in the sovereignty of the church, they have a right to accept or reject any who may come among them, they are the judges. If each would so judge those that would divide the flock, and turn them down, send them away, have nothing to do with them, trouble would soon cease among our people, and peace would abound.

Your unworthy Brother,

C. B. OWEN.

Whereas, the Association appointed Brother Leland Maness to write a Circular Letter to be printed in our Minutes of this session, and failed to do so, the Association chose to reprint a letter written by the late Brother A. M. Surratt, whose membership was in Flat Creek Church, Rowan County. The letter is as follows:

Minutes of the Ninety-third Annual Session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association, Held With the Church at Cotton Creek, Montgomery County, North Carolina, Commencing on Saturday Before the Fourth Lord's Day in August, 1918.

CIRCULAR LETTER

The time for our Association is drawing near, and a letter is expected to be printed in our Minutes. As I was appointed to write one, I will now make the effort, not knowing what to write. But it is the desire of my heart to write what is acceptable unto the Lord, and comforting to His people.

I have no particular subject, though the Scriptures are abundantly full and free, and so strong in favor of the Primitive Baptist Church of Christ, that the enemy has no ground at all to build upon, yet he claims ground in his blind zeal, and strives to get the upper hand of all Christ's servants. So Christ commanded His children to watch and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

Dear people of God, we are living in a time of great distress of coldness in the churches, and trouble in the land, war and bloodshed, and it has not come without a cause. The nations have become too highly exalted, and we are coming down to poverty, and I fear the children of God have failed to keep the precepts and examples of Jesus Christ, as He has laid them down and have, therefore, become cold, weak and faint: And the greatest remedy I know is to humble ourselves down to the very dust, if possible, before the great Judge of all the earth and confess all our sins to Him and beg for mercy. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from unrighteousness. See I John 1:9.

Let us never forget to study our Bible prayerfully, and pray fervently in secret. Daniel prayed three times daily to the great God of Heaven and came safely through the lion's den. David left on holy record that he prayed three times a day. At midnight Paul and Silas prayed and sang praises unto God, and the prisoners heard them and immediately the prison house was shaken, the doors were all opened, and every one's hands were loosed, and the keeper of the prison was converted or saved and all his house..

This is one of the many displays of God's mighty power, and we love to write of His doings. He is the same God of all power now and forever, and He is in Heaven and is happy there within, and of His Own Self needs nothing that poor sinful man can do or give. Yet He says in His glory that He delighteth in the man that feareth His name and trembleth at His word. Precious words indeed to the poor and needy.

Well, I will close my scattering remarks by asking the dear brethren of the Abbott's Creeek Association to accept the above if in accord with the Holy Word of God, and if not, pardon the error, and make any changes necessary.

Your unworthy servant,

A. M. SURRATT.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers Who May Compose the 117th Session of the Abbott's Creek Union
Primitive Baptist Association.

Greetings:

Dear Brethren: As I was appointed to write the circular letter I will now make the attempt, even though I keenly feel my weakness. I hope I may not write anything that will bring reproach.

I have been meditating on what the circular letter was intended for, and after some thought, I come to this conclusion: That it is to let our correspondence and those from afar off know that we are in peace with one another, and that love and fellowship abounds throughout our association, and that we are standing steadfastly, as we hope in the Faith that was once delivered to the Saints, being guided by the stakes of truth. Peace, wonderful peace. We truly hope and pray that the Great God of Heaven and Earth will continue to verify the saying, wherein it is written, "My peace I give unto you, My peace I leave with you." Brethren, when confusion arises it is evident that true love vanishes. Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the Sons of God. I John 3:1. This love is stronger than natural love. It was for this love of the Great Redeemer that Stephen remained faithful even unto death. It was for this love that Daniel continue to call upon his God, even though the King sent out a decree that "Whosoever ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save Thee oh King, he shall be cast into the den of lions." It was for this love of the Father that the three Hebrew boys were cast into the fiery furnace. It was for this love that God had for them that He delivered them. It was for the love that He had for those that were given to the Son that He came down to this sinful world; suffered and died that they should be redeemed and finally saved from an everlasting torment. Then what manner of creatures ought we to be?

Humbly submitted for the consideration of the association.

Yours in humble hope,

PHILLIP H. YOUNG.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers that compose the 118th Session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association, Greeting:

Dear Brethren:—As the Brethren appointed me to write a circular letter, I will try in my weak way to write one. I feel like any one else would have been better suited for this than I, but if God will direct my mind, I will make an effort. The Lord directed the mind of the Prophets and Apostles to write the Scriptures and the Lord is still the same today as He was back in that day, and will be the same God at the last day; because He said in Rev. 22:13, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. And the 14th verse says: Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City. Every one that has a hope in the Lord Jesus Christ, when they received that hope, I believe there was a commandment came with it, and we believe that commandment is to go home to their friends, which is the church, that they may have right to the Tree of Life and may enter in through the gates into the City, which we believe is referred to as the church, for we find in the 15th verse of the 22 chapter of Revelation: For without are dogs, sorcerers and whoremongers, and murderers and idolaters and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. We know these are not in the church. These belong to the world. Jesus said, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No man cometh to the Father but by Me.

When we see the love of Jesus in that humble person, we know there is no harm. Let us strive for peace among us, always look on one another for good and not evil. If we are out looking for faults we will surely find them. Especially this poor sinner, for I am just full of them. I am glad the Apostle Paul said in Ephesians 3rd chapter and 8th verse: Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is grace given.

Brethren, if you think this is worth printing, do so, and if not, just remember I have written according to my feelings. Hope when you are down in the valley of doubts and fears. Please remember me and mine.

Submitted with love to all.

Yours in humble hope,

L. G. CASHION.

CIRCULAR LETTER

Goldston, N. C.

Dear Brethren:

As I was appointed at the last association to write the letter for your consideration, I feel so much of my time that I do not know anything aright, I do hope that love may abound through this setting, I want to be at the feet of my brethren.

When this task was put on me I felt like that I never could write anything that would be of any comfort to any one, I hope that I have realized it is through the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ that we live, move and have our being, He knoweth our ever needs, he has all power in Heaven and earth, and beneath the earth.

CIRCULAR LETTER

To the Ministers and Messengers Who May Compose the 120th Session of the Abbott's Creek Union Primitive Baptist Association—Greetings:

Dear Brethren:

Having been appointed to write the circular letter for next year, and not knowing the purpose of a circular letter, how to begin, or what to write, I hope God will direct my mind, and enable me to write something beneficial, or at least something that will not offend, for we find in Matt. 18:6, "But who-so shall offend one of these little ones which believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depths of the sea."

At the Association it impressed me and made me rejoice to see such brotherly love and peace manifested, and also sad to think in what contrast this is, to the terrible conflict which is raging on foreign soils. I believe we should look unto God Who, according to Isa. 45:7, "makes peace."

In the 26th chapter of Leviticus we are promised that if we walk in His Statutes and keep His commandments that, "He will give peace in the land," and again in Proverbs, "When a man's ways please the Lord He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him."

We are exhorted many times in the Bible to maintain peace. "Seek peace and pursue it," for according to Paul, "God hath called us to peace." We highly commend our beloved ministers who continually strive for peace and good fellowship, "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace," for "the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace"; and Brethren, your reward is great. "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God."

Christ said just before leaving this world, "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth." Paul said, "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace," Rom. 14:19, "And be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Brethren, when we receive peace from Him Who is the "very God of Peace," "and let the peace of God rule in our hearts," there is no room for malice, wrath, envy, or trouble hunting, and there will never be trouble among our churches. "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another."

It is my prayer that, "the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Phil. 4:7.

Humbly submitted in love, J. ASHBURN WILLIAMS.

- 2.. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
