

Lynchburg January 15." 1858

My dear Brother

I have (?) yours of—and our much (?) and to hear from you & from your country I am and (?) to (?) on this (?) old fellow where money (?) perils of un"—am (?) to be a better (?) to (?) my manners, but not to cherry. My views of a Bishop, duty lent to know & (?) with enduring fidelity perform that duty, am approved to all parties among the (?) & seek (?) where to defeat them selfish (?)—

There are the finest sort of Material, in the Virginia Conference & but for a Nichimus Party, (?) in enemy time—The Editor must be permanent—in his office conference, and in the squabbles with other (?) & with all who are not for a reform—(not imply (?)) in our government & ministerial qualification—It has been told that (?) fails (?) to fret or lean me in the (?) where (?) do it, and I am to know that I have never returned his bad tempers towards me & (?) entered it-----you had better be cautious how you (?) charges in the duties of Elders & in the view of (?) conference—not the most distant chance to make any such charges---I have in my opinion but little change (?) any where accept in (?) who 10 or 12 years ago—wanted changes---hear my generally charged thru wishes or (?) lost all influence, or (?) away evil is a struggle for office in (?) place

I am very well & fast recovering my flesh, & hope soon to be as large as life & twice as (?) & hope (?) this (?) to visit Norfolk and Suffolk—

Give my kind regards to sister Riddick and the children

Yours truly

(?) Early

How is Mrs. Berry (?) in E. (?) and how does your Suffolk (?) along---and how does my friend (?) get along