RICHARD S. TAYLOR, M.A., TH.D.
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF THEOLOGY AND MISSIONS

Sept. 10, 1965

Prof. Merne A. Harris
Vennard College
University Park, Iowa

Dear Brother Harris:

I guess I accepted as too final ~~the~~ originally proposed date for our first society meeting, which I had down in my book as Nov. 12,13. In view of this I committed myself to an 8-day revival meeting in one of the local churches here, the previous week.

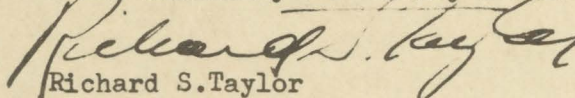

I have asked Dr. Willard Taylor to go in my place, reading my paper with emendations and lead in the discussion. He is absolutely tops in my opinion both as a theologian and as a Bible scholar. It looks as if he will be able to do so, stopping enroute to Boston Massachusetts, where he is due Sunday the 7th. It would be necessary however to put him on Saturday morning, so he could go on in the afternoon, allowing for the need to get to Detroit, etc.

If this is satisfactory with you, please contact him personally. I'll leave the matter now in your hands.

Dr. Taylor is professor of biblical theology here at the seminary.

I am anxious for this society to succeed, and sincerely regret my inability to be present the first session.

Yours sincerely in Calvary bonds

Richard S. Taylor
