Dr. Merne A. Harris
Vennard College
University Park, Iowa 52595

Dear Doctor Harris:

I am in receipt of two letters from you recently: one containing monies (mostly sales of Journals), and one relating primarily to Dr. Greenlee's dues.

With regard to the latter, I find no record of his having paid dues in 1967. From his letter, I note that the college issued the check for his dues on March 10. I assume that the error is mine; nevertheless I am asking him to see if the canceled check has come back to the college. That is the only way I know to be sure if the payment actually reached us.

In answer to your note: yes, we had received a check recently from McGregor's. It was not for $100, though; it was for $3.00.

The inclosed application blank (for Darrell Moore) is for a new professor at Spring Arbor--a Nazarene.

Since my last report to you, Itty Matthews and Kenneth Greenwood have paid their dues--the latter through you.

Dear Doctor Martin:

I am in receipt of two letters from you recently: one containing names (mostly sales of journals), and one referring primarily to Dr. Graciano's case.

With regard to the latter, I find no record of his name in my files in 1967. From his letter, I note that the college issued the check on his dues on March 1. I assure that the error is mine; nevertheless, I am asking him to see if the canceled check has come back to the college. That is the only way I know to be sure if the payment actually reached us.

In answer to your note: yes, we had received a check recently from Graciano. It was not for $1.00, though; it was for $3.00.

The enclosed publication (from the Journal of the American Society for a New Professor of Latin American Studies) is since my last report to you. The Katsawa and Katsawa Presswood have paid their dues—the latter through you.

Sincerely,
W. Ralph Tompaso
