Dear Inactive Member:

Another Fiscal year for the Wesleyan Theological Society will end October 31. On November 6 and 7 the Society will hold its sixth annual conference at Vennard College, University Park, Iowa. Typically, this is a time of rich fellowship around themes of mutual interest to Wesleyan scholars. We believe that this year will be no exception; and we hope that you will be able to be with us there.

Since you are no longer an active member, the 1970 Journal was not sent to you, as it was to those who paid their dues. We hope it is not your purpose to withdraw completely from the Society. We need you. We believe this fellowship and doctrinal study to be important to us all in these days when many are departing from the faith. Why not send in your dues ($5.00 for full members, and $2.00 for associate and student members) and share actively again with this fine group of Wesleyan scholars.

Cordially,

W. Ralph Thompson
