Dear Delbert.

Thanks for your letter and the stationery. Also for the good suggestions. The work of the Journal is coming along well from my end of things, although as you know I was slowed up because of the problem of a printer within our means. I even tried to get the lady who had done the typing in former years, because there was noone here with an IMB machine of the right kind, except our printer of course.

I followed your suggestion of having the printing done in Wilmore, but was unable to get hold of Mr. Nelson until after Christmas--and then by phone. He was agreeable to taking the job, and thought he could have it done on time. But I have had nothing from him on paper, so all I have to go for terms of printing is what you have told me. But I → have sent him several articles to get started on, with the directions, and have more on my desk ready to mail. If they were able to get started on the typing last week, there should be no holdup, unless they run into some snag.

I shall follow your suggestions regarding back page, etc. → Also to print 2500, dropping the membership list, and adding the constitutional changes, and so on.

copies

I have been in touch with Paul Bassett a number of times for his article--again today--and we may have to get along without his article which I think was good. This may cut us short, so ? → we may have to fall back on the one you suggested earlier. How difficult would it be to get it? < Both Kuhn and Peisker agreed on dropping Thompson's paper. >

I think having a membership application blank would be good. ←

Perhaps you could keep your eyes on the progress there; if I could hear from Mr. Nelson I would feel much easier. Perhaps he is working full time on the job, but I would also feel easier if I knew the conditions under which he is accepting the job.

Again thanks, cordially,

Harvey J. S. Blaney
