Dr. Delbert Rose
Wilmore, Ky.

Dear Delbert,

In pulling all the pieces together after adjusting and readjusting the WTS program details I find some interesting results. By far, the church contributing the most speakers is the Wesleyan Church. I decided, therefore, to indicate the institutions represented rather than the denominations. I think 14 schools, one pastor, and three "General" men are included. Thirty persons (not counting myself) are involved, besides the committee members, (8 are in Wilmore, but this is very OK)

I am sending the "dummy". I find 3 or 4 places that I do not have the information to complete. Perhaps you can hastily insert the needed info. You might check on my accuracy in other matters, too.

There are several uncertainties.

1. Dr. James Hamilton was not sure about his relationship to the Asa Mahan Study. His letter came to me too late to reach him before his summer trip to the West. I wrote his Wilmore address but have had no reply. Could I impose on you to phone him and assure him of his importance to this subject (I scheduled him last so as to have his study fresh in our minds). He may want to change the title I have given in the program.

2. Laurence Wood is transferring to Houghton, but because he has been in Roberts Wesleyan and not yet in Houghton I listed the former — to ~~not~~ indicate our college spread.

3. Please fill in Dr. Bogart's "pedigree" (status, type of service, Ed. ad)

4. I have put Harvey Blaney in the Pentecostal Role for the same reason I listed Wood in Roberts Wes, but reversed my logic in doing so.

Delbert. I am asking Prof. Lovell to consider having the program printed there. And, your doing the cards, as you suggest, is certainly a fine idea.

Perhaps there is more to say but if so I'll write later — and hasten to get the "dummy" typed — Sincerely, Mildred

P.S. any of the in-person absences because of illness, Wynkoop, Hartzfeld please return

Dear Howard's letterhead only indicates the Assoc. of Evang. McMasters. Do you know his official relationship to this body?
