Dear Eldon,

Greetings! We often think and talk about you fast. We take notice of the "foot-prints" you make in various affairs but could not track you down to your lair until very recently. In our recent program committee meeting the plan for our 1973 Nov. meeting was approved. Your name is on the agenda as you will see by the tentative program enclosed. This very important subject, hermeneutics, will be presented - 2 papers, presumably from different standpoints. Instead of respondent papers - or "minor papers" it seemed wise to open the subject for discussion. I would suggest that your preparation include such matters as the foundation for a Wesleyan hermeneutic and some examples of it, etc., etc.

Greetings to you and yours.
Mildred Wynkoop

P.S., perhaps you could let me know soon about your availability for this task -
Hopefully
M
