Armor D. Pelsker, M.A.

In our meeting the other day (Rose's house) I discovered that you would be willing to prepare and deliver a paper at the next WTS conference entitled, I believe, "Theological Implications of Genetic Engineering." This is surely an up-to-the minute subject of real interest and importance and fits perfectly into the kind of program we have in mind.

If my theme title passes the approval of the committee it should read, "In Wesley, in Perspective," or, "Wesleyanism, in Perspective." I think the four sessions will revolve around: Historical Perspective, Theological Pers., Biblical Hermeneutical Persp., and Wesleyanism in Contemporary Perspective. The last one would be yours. Perhaps, rather than respondents, a panel discussion would be able to explore the matter most efficiently in this case. I believe Delbert is talking to you about this assignment.

Very Sincerely
Mildred Wynkoop
