Dear Dr. Wynkoop:

A few days ago I dashed off an informal note indicating that I will be happy to serve on the Panel on Saturday morning November 3 at the Wesley Theological Society to discuss the Seminar on War and Peace which was held at Winona Lake this June. I look forward to that opportunity.

Thank you for the invitation to join the Wesleyan Theological Society. Actually, I submitted my request for membership just a few weeks ago.

One final question. I noticed in your instructions to all participants that you indicate that they should have their manuscript ready to hand to the editorial committee at the fall meeting. I assume that this does not pertain to the comments by members of the panel. Is that correct?

Warm regards,
