~~was possible~~ in order to have it microfilmed. The latter is now in process at the Univ. of Michigan microfilming center.

In assembling those volumes of the WITNESS we had to borrow several volumes of it from the EASTERN NAZARENE COLLEGE Library. In returning them we have found that the UPS (United Parcel Service) will not take them because they are rare, unreplacable materials. And we hesitate to send them back by parcel post because of the terribly rough handling that they would be given. So, I am inquiring--all unknown to our librarian--as to whether or not you might be able to transport some (if not all) of these rare copies back to ENC. Please feel very free to be frank in your reply.

Shall we plan definitely on meeting at our house for an adjourned WTS Executive Committee Meeting? If so, we ought to get word to Bro. Lovell so that he can plan to be with us.

We haven't as yet received that promised copy of your book from B.H.Press of Kansas City. We're anxious to receive it.

Thanks for keeping me informed on your progress to date.

Sincerely yours and His,

Delbert
