

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
A FELLOWSHIP OF WESLEYAN ARMINIAN SCHOLARS

7/7/73

Dr. Delbert Rose
Wilmore, Ky.

Dear Delbert, -

A large packet of mail met us as we passed through Bangor, Maine. Your letter was in it. I am trying to keep up with events and plans and programs during our rather extended absence from Nashville so was glad to find our mail here.

My usually poor "ball-penmanship" is worse here because of the very informal and rough accommodations (our Chevy pick-up pulls our small camping trailer - but it is fun, even in the torrential rains). We hope to explore Nova Scotia and will check General DeLaney in Halifax a number of times during July for mail.

① The last rough draft (very rough) of the program had 2 or 3 omissions. I corrected them as I sent them out but forgot to make the correction on all of them. Prof. Matzke is securely confirmed in his spot as originally planned and a letter of assurance sent to him.

② Ronald Sider accepts his assignment on the panel and tells me his application for membership has been submitted. He seems enthusiastic.

③ I will need your information re meals, housing, etc., as soon as we return from this trip - about Aug 15.

④ Later today, I'll get out the piece of luggage in which the WTS program material is awaiting my attention and place Carter, Blaney and Howard as moderators.

I like the idea of Blaney on the Fri. eve. spot.

Charles Carter wrote me. He is not sure he can attend so I'll place him on a ~~more~~ less (what I mean is - a spot that can be "negotiated" more easily). His wife had a very radical operation for cancer and the treatments following seem so despicable to them that to change before she is released creates some reluctance to return to the States right away.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE THE FIRST WEEKEND OF EACH NOVEMBER

This is not final however. I couldn't get to the copy machine before we left so I would have sent
