Established in 1965

March 8, 1974

Dear Brother Rose:

As past president of W.T.S. you may want, and you deserve, copies of the minutes. Please check them carefully and inform me of any corrections.

I have sent calls to all new members, about 135. This includes those joining since I became secretary.

Looking forward to seeing you at C.H.A.

In Christ
O. J. Fackl

The Lakeville Postmaster tells me that we can mail journals directly to a church for about one half the cost of sending a journal to the pastor. I asked him about this. The reason being I wanted to see what it would cost to send a Journal to a library. He tells me there is a special rate from one religious organization to another. I could address the Journal to the Church for many pastors. We cannot put the pastor's name on the outside. I could write it in the Journal. I am addressing and stamping the envelopes and waiting them to Dr. Purviser. I do not want to "mess" it up for him. We could do the same for Professors by sending the Journal to the colleges, at least to the Christian colleges. We might save $18.00 or $15.00, if we can make this work.

Does it work it. It will cost 16 cents to mail, a Journal this year, or is it 18?
