Dear Wayne:

I am indebted to you for several pieces of correspondence, as yet unacknowledged, as well as for a supply of the new stationery.

My main purpose in writing is to let you know that I mailed the corrected proofs of the Fall Number of the Journal to Old Paths on January 24, and received confirmation of their arrival on January 28. I am chagrined at the delay in publication, but they did not get the proofs to me until the middle of December instead of the first week of November as they promised. By that time I was swamped with final examinations, Christmas and--for the first three weeks of January--our Doctor of Ministry Seminar which is a dawn-to-dusk affair, five days a week. At all events, they have had the proofs for about 10 days and should not take too long now to do the printing. I have told them you will be in touch with them to take care of the remaining stages of the operation as in the past.

I am already at work on the Spring Number and hope to avoid delays such as we have known in the past, even though not all of the conference papers have come in. A number of book reviews have been turned in, which should add spice.

I hope you are having a good semester and look forward to seeing you at CHA.

All good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

alex
