Reports

REPORT OF THE GREENSBORO DISTRICT

Bishop Love, fellow ministers, laymen and friends:

This one hundred-fourth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, Central Jurisdiction, marks another milestone in our program of kingdom building. It is befitting that early in this my fifth annual report I should express my gratitude to Almighty God, in whom we live and have our being, for health, strength and guidance, which have been mine throughout the year.

And to you, Bishop Love, my sincere appreciation for your able leadership, your sympathetic and understanding brotherly love and concern, as expressed by you personally and through your office.

To my fellow ministers on the Greensboro District who have made possible this report, I am deeply grateful.

This year brought with it many difficult problems, but they have served as a challenge to stimulate most of the men to give their best to the end that their accomplishments speak more eloquently of the success of the District than any words. Due to the time element, this report will of necessity reflect only some highlights of the conference year.

Shortly after the adjournment of the last Annual Conference the ministers and lay workers of the District and local churches were called to meet at Union Memorial for our second planning meeting. The response was most gratifying. The ground work for team action and the part each was expected to play in the second phase of the Quadrennial Program was emphasized. This initial meeting paved the way for the success of our subsequent District meetings.

With the guidance of our Executive Secretary, J. T. Jones, and Conference Secretary of Evangelism, O. W. Burwick, and District Secretary of Evangelism, Eugene Black, and their co-workers, the laymen of the local churches have been led to see and understand their role as disciples of Christ in a new light.

The Greensboro District consists of twenty-nine charges. With the exception of three, I have visited or held official meetings on all charges each quarter. In each the total program of the Methodist Church has been emphasized. Laymen have been urged to make diligent efforts to give their best in service and finance as an expression of their concern for Christ's ministry to the world.

In our fourth quarterly conferences we have urged that the salaries of our ministers be consistently raised not only as a means of adequate support for the present ministry but also a means of helping in the recruiting and attracting young ministers to our Conference. Too long have the lines of salary advancement been held. It has become noticeable beyond the confines of our Conference and is a handicap in our efforts to recruit others, and sub-standardizes our Conference. I do not believe that either our ministers or laymen are satisfied to allow this to happen. Many of our churches have responded favorably to the request to raise the minister's salary. Some are willing to begin next year. Others are willing to consider the matter prayerfully and to try to work to this end. There are a few who still feel that if God calls a man to preach, money ought not to enter into the picture. This group is gradually fading away.

One of the achievements that we have reason to feel proud of is in the field of evangelism. In our first quarterly conferences we enthusiastically set high membership goals. A major portion of these goals was realized through the Bishop's Crusade. Through this special program The Commission on Membership and Evangelism in the local churches was challenged and made aware of the effectiveness of personal witnessing continually for Christ and His Church.

The response to both General and Conference benevolences has improved over last year. There are considerably more churches in the 100% class this year. My observation of the cheerfulness with which this has been accomplished is that it has been done in the finest Christian tradition, which opens doors of blessings for the giver as well as the receiver.

The temporal side of the church continues to expand in new buildings, extensive remodeling, the replacement of out-dated furniture with modern new furniture, new carpeting and new decorating.

Leaksville, under the leadership of D. S. Harkness, has erected a beautiful modern church which is the pride of the Greensboro District and of the North Carolina Conference. We were privileged to hold our District Conference at this church.

On highways 65 and 68 near Wentworth stands the newly erected beautiful cement block St. Paul, built under the leadership of Wilbur Saade.

On the Mt. Zion and Zion-Hill Charge Brother Minor and his people have completed a nice cement block church.

Cox's Chapel, under the leadership of G. L. Warren, has been brick-veneered and has the appearance of a completely new church.

Holmes' Grove, under the leadership of John A. Gray, has purchased four acres of land for their new church site.

Mt. Carmel, under the leadership of Samuel NeSmith, has purchased five or six acres for a new church site.

Wesley Chapel, under the leadership of W. L. Napper, installed pews and pulpit furniture in its sanctuary and completed its educational unit at a cost of approximately seven thousand dollars.

There are others whose work is outstanding and deserve mentioning but time will not permit. I will simply say that the above mentioned highlights are reflective of the dedication and loyalty of the Greensboro District team.

Last but not least: There are two groups that always stand out in our minds when we are preparing our reports, namely, the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Ministers' Wives. They play a double role in all these achievements. As laymen they are a part of all that takes place in our churches, but in a special way we have learned to rely upon them to make a distinct contribution which always has a telling effect in the success of our District program.

In conclusion, may I say that whatever measure of success attained this year has been due to team work, for which I am grateful to my fellow workers and to Almighty God.

Respectfully Submitted,
L. A. BROWN, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE LAURINBURG DISTRICT

Bishop Love, members and friends of the one hundred and fourth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Central Jurisdiction, The Methodist Church: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to the Father's plan gave himself for our sins and thereby rescued us from the present evil world order. To him be glory in the Church of Jesus Christ forever and ever.

It is with a deep sense of humility and a great pleasure that I present this report for another year's work done on the Laurinburg District. I am thankful to our heavenly Father for strength to carry on, for guidance and protection through the year. I am grateful to the District Staff, the ministers and the laity of the District for their excellent support. This is their report.

Bishop Love, members of the Conference, the Laurinburg District cannot boast of having a one hundred percent report, but I thank God that in everything we are thirty percent above last year.

Our District is organized to the fullest extent. We have held training sessions this year for each commission and organization.

Our Commission on Membership and Evangelism has tried to seek out the unsaved and the unchurched on the District, and to exercise all diligence that they may be led into a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, and into the fellowship of the church. We are happy to report for the Bishop's Crusade one hundred and thirty additions. For the year we have a net gain of one hundred and ninety-seven.

We believe that the Church is the congregation of those who are "sent". They are sent to the world. The Church is the believers in Christ, not just when they gather to worship, but twenty four hours of the day, every day, in every aspect of human experience, dispersed into every place. The missionary program of the Church has been kept before the members by the District Secretary of Missions and the Commission on Missions in the local church.

Our Commission on Education has used every teaching method to get the educational program over. We are trying our utmost to, have trained workers in every Church School. Our Christian Workers' School, with a certified faculty, was largely attended. I feel that much good was done.

Stewardship is a spirit of sharing, a recognition and an acceptance of responsibility. Jesus Christ is Lord of our possessions. Tithing is a goal of Christian Stewardship. Jesus Christ is Lord of our time and talents as well as our possessions. He is Lord of our work. We should not be ashamed to take him to our work with us and to have him see the task we perform. He is Lord of life, but he will be Lord in all lives only as we accept him and serve him. Our District Director of Stewardship is leading the District forward in this program.

Our Commission on Christian Social Concerns, under the leadership of the District Director, has tried to lead men to serve him in public and private morality, through Christian brotherhood, in our industrial life, and world peace.

Through the aid of the Conference Board of Missions and the Board of National Missions, Church Extension Section, we were able to purchase for five thousand dollars, a church on the south side of Fayetteville. The property was appraised at $20,000.00. We have established a new congregation. The District Director of Evangelism and the Conference Secretary of Evangelism led us in a week of evangelistic visitation, and we were able to find more than one hundred prospects. We have a fairly good membership there now.

We were able to move into the new church at Beaver Dam in April. The first Sunday in July the Pastor led the congregation at Millers Chapel, Saint Paul, North Carolina, into a new, modern church building.

The Women's work of the District is moving forward under the leadership of Mrs. Mary B. Carroll. Our goal is to have every woman on the District taking an active part in the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The Methodist Men are holding their own under the guidance of our District Lay-Leader, Mr. Bruce Hargrove.

The youth of our District are led by Reverend Miles Murphy. Two rallies have been held this year, and both were very largely attended. We feel that the greatest work on the District is being done among the youth.

We are happy to report that our chain has not been broken by death this year. Most of the ministers and their families have enjoyed good health.

I have been able to hold all of my quarterly conferences and group meetings. I have preached in every church on the District. Mrs. Townsend and I have been blessed with perfect health. Neither of us has had to call a doctor, for which we are grateful.

Our real goal is to make every church on the Laurinburg District a Praying Church, a Stewardship Church, and Advancing Church. A wise man once said, we do not need to be afraid of a statistical goal so long as the number one goal is persons, boys and girls, men and women, dedicated to Christ's Will and Way.

In this period fraught with such perils and possibilities, we believe, as Methodists have from the first, that "the only infallible proof of a true Church of Christ is its ability to seek and to save the lost, to disseminate the pentecostal spirit of life, to spread scriptural holiness, and to transform all peoples and nations through the Gospel of Jesus Christ, Who is Lord."

May God refashion, empower, and use us in this holy task.

Respectfully Submitted,

S. LLOYD TOWNSEND, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE WESTERN DISTRICT

Bishop Love, fellow Superintendents, Officers, Pastors, Lay-members, Fraternal delegates of the North Carolina Conference, it is with deep gratitude that I stand before you to make this, my fifth Annual Report of the Western District, of the North Carolina Conference. Since I made my last report to this conference, I have experienced many personal difficulties. These difficulties have been experienced by some of you, and will be experienced by all of you, eventually. My presence here today is not due to the strength within me, but it is due to the inconceivable love and mercy of God. I dare not attempt to make this report to you without having given this testimony.

This report constitutes the inspirations, devoted and untiring efforts of our pastors, and members throughout the Western District. To these dear people whom I have served this year, I wish to express my profound gratitude, and sincere appreciation, for the marvelous work they have done to make this report possible. I shall always feel indebted to all of them.

Evangelism

The work of Evangelism has been given a major portion of our time. The Bishops' Crusade, which was our major outstanding evangelistic effort this year was observed. The result of this crusade was not as successful as we had hoped, however, we realize that even a limited success in Evangelism is worth our efforts.

The crusade was not observed on the proposed schedule because of the numerous circuits of our district.

Many of our pastors consider their work as a continuous evangelistic program, and these pastors always report many accessions each year. We are far from being satisfied with the total work of Evangelism of the District.

We still have churches whose reports show no conversions, no accessions, and no obvious passions for lost souls. It is disturbing to me, to observe this situation, when both minister and people are complacent. We live and hope that soon each one of us will hear again the voice of Jesus when he said, "Go ye therefore and preach, and I will be with you always."

Ministerial Support

Our District is located in the beautiful rolling hills of western North Carolina, where there are few industries and a limited agricultural activity. This situation limits the income of our members, but I feel that this situation does not warrant the small salaries that are paid our ministers. We have only four charges that pay their ministers above three thousand dollars ($3,000). The other charges pay downward to three hundred dollars ($300). All of the charges are able, and should pay more another year. I am hoping that the lay-members of this Annual Conference will go back to their several charges and encourage their members to do a better job on ministerial support.

II. The following are the totals of finances of the District:

Of the twenty-two charges of the District, seven charges have reported 100% of their askings. Six others of the churches have reported over 7% of their askings. The nine others have made a very poor showing. Every charge except two has paid its District Superintendent's salary in full. There will still have to be something done to encourage a few of the pastors to pay their group insurance. Seven hundred, thirty-three dollars ($733) has been paid on an apportionment of nine hundred, twenty dollars ($920).

The following are the unofficial totals paid on the different apportionments of the Western District:

World Service	$2,483.00	Conference Claimants	4,348.00
Conference Cultivation	1,000.00	Episcopal Fund	741.00
Church Extension	1,049.00	General Administration	167.00
Advance	420.00

Jurisdictional		Conference Journals .....	205.00
Administration .....	134.00	Board of Education .....	595.00
Interdenominational		Church School Rally Day ..	161.00
Co-operation .....	93.00	World Wide Communion....	153.00
Bennett College .....	1,743.00	Student Day Fund .....	132.00
Gammon Theological		Wesley Foundation .....	260.00
Seminary .....	55.00	Reserve Fund .....	160.00
Allen High School .....	63.00	Group Insurance .....	733.00
Pastor's School .....	170.00	One Hour .....	115.00
Area Leadership School ....	154.00	Race Relations .....	144.00
Area Offices Expense .....	476.00

The total amount raised for all purposes except Conference Claimants and Episcopal Fund was $13,269 of an apportionment of $21,000.

Including Conference Claimants and Episcopal Fund paid in the amount of $5,089.00 and sum total reported for the Western District (except the amount that will be paid at Conference time on the Minister's Wives Fund) is $18,358. This report could and should be better, but it is an increase over last year.

This report shows an increase of $5,050.00 over the (my) first annual report.

Building and Improvement

In building and improvement we have gone far beyond our expectations. The following is a listing of buildings and improvements. A new parsonage was completed on the Mooresville Circuit at a cost of $10,000.00; at Marion the church was completely renovated at a cost of $9,000.00. On the Stanley Charge there was an exchange made of property. The church was moved from one lot to another. We acquired through this exchange a beautiful and level lot near the residences of our members, worth five times the value of the old property. A new church has also been erected during this year at Elbethel on the Tucker's Grove Charge. Many other churches are in the midst of building funds. The charges are as follows: Catawba Ct., Hickory, Kings Mountain, Lenoir, Lowesville, Mount Holly, Newton, Shelby, Stanly, Tuckers, West Asheville and Brooks Chapel.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service

The women of the District are carrying on in their usual fine manner. There are Societies in most of our churches. In every instance these dedicated women are doing a great work in the spiritual and financial program of the local churches. Mrs. P. Pearson became President of our District Society during this conference year.

District Conference

Our District Conference was held at Conover the first and second of December. Reverend R. D. Sharpe was the host pastor. We enjoyed the wonderful hospitality afforded us by the pastor and people. The amount collected during our Conference was $8,900.00. The Conference closed with a fine program presented by Bennett and Morristown Colleges.

Minister's Wives

The Minister's Wives have not only responded to the conference project for retired ministers, but also they have graciously served as first ladies of our parsonages. They hold places of leadership in the church and in many cases have full time jobs. These dedicated women are really the power of the man behind the pulpit.

Conclusion:

I can not end this report if I did not say to you, Bishop Love, that I have been greatly inspired and encouraged by your wise counsel and clear understanding of the problems that face your assistants as District Superintendents. You have given us support and freedom to go into orbit if our ability would allow us. You also have been patient with us when we failed, and have praised us in our successes. I can never really show by actions nor explain in words the deep feeling of gratitude I have in my heart for the kind consideration that you have given me. May God bless you and cause your administration of the Area to be a great success. Again, to the pastors and lay-men of the Western District may I say to you, that I shall never forget your kindness and devotion to the task assigned to you. To all of you I dedicate myself anew to the unfinished work of the kingdom.

Through the inspiration of God let us—

Keep Heart

God may be delayed by evil but he suffers no defeat.

Even as a chance rock in an inland brook

May change a river's course, and yet no

Rock nor the baffling mountains of the world can

Keep it from its destiny—

The Sea.

God is not foiled. The drift of the world's

Will is stronger than all wrong.

Earth and her years down Joy's bright way,

Or Sorrow's long road is moving slowly

Toward the purpose of the Skies.

Respectively Submitted,

H. W. PHILLIPS, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE WINSTON DISTRICT

Bishop Love, Members of the North Carolina Annual Conference and Friends:

As I stand before you at this time to make my second annual report as District Superintendent of the Winston District, I am indeed mindful of my indebtedness to Almighty God for His divine guidance and loving care, which He has extended unto me this year, for which blessing I am most grateful.

To you, Bishop Love, many thanks for your wise counsel and sympathetic understanding, without which this report could not be the same. It has been wonderful working with you this year.

The Winston District has been blessed with the good-will, cooperation and untiring efforts of a wonderful group of ministers and laymen; working unceasingly in the promotion of the Kingdom of God, through the program of the church. Mere words cannot express my appreciation to them for so great a service. All has not been merry with us. Our losses have been painful. But, our gains have been very gratifying. From among our ministerial ranks, Brother C. L. Gidney was called from labor to reward early in the conference year, leaving a note of sadness in our District and in the Conference.

Immediately after the close of the Annual Conference, we held our first District meeting at St. Andrews Church in Winston-Salem, N. C., at which meeting our program schedule was approved. The appointments for benevolences were accepted by the pastors and laymen of the charges in the District. On August 12th, our first District roll-call for benevolences was made, to which every charge in the district answered. Our next District meeting, on October 21st, was high-lighted by the presentation of the annual program by the Ministers' Wives. The program, as well as the reports, were very gratifying.

In the area of Evangelism, we have had a great deal of action this year. We had two workshops on Visitation Evangelism, both of which were well attended by both ministers and laymen. We had a reasonable degree of success in the Bishop's Evangelistic Crusade. The pastors' reports to the Statistician will show marked progress in this area. For the most part, there is an active Commission on Membership and Evangelism in every church. The Official Membership record book, complete in every possible detail, is a must in every local church in the District.

Under the leadership of its President, Mrs. Marion W. Pavne, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Winston District is still setting the example for the rest of the conference, as it leads on from one degree of success to another. Again, this year the records will show the Winston District Women's Society of Christian Service leading the conference in total contributions.

The District Youth program is another special feature in our District. The District Youth Institute was conducted in Saints Home Church, June 19-23. It was largely attended and served not only as a source of information but, of inspiration as well, to all who attended it.

We held our District Conference May 18-19, with St. Mary's Methodist Church, Trinity, N. C., the Rev. W. P. Coble, Pastor. We were royally entertained by the pastor and people. The District Conference was high-lighted by workshops on Evangelism and on Christian Social Concerns. The pastoral reports will show the results of a most profitable statistical session which was held at our District Conference, also. Another very special feature of our District Conference program was a presentation by the District Music Committee, featuring the District Choir in Concert. And upon that happy note, the report of the District Music Committee for the District Choir is as follows:

Report of the Winston District Choir

The District Choir continued in its second year ever striving to put forth an effort to gain knowledge of Church Music as it is related to our total Church program.

All responsible choir leaders met in August to plan for a Church Music Workshop to be held last November. Rev. J. T. Jones, Conference Executive Secretary, Rev. J. H. McCallum, Chairman of the Worship Committee, Rev. J. J. Patterson, Winston District Superintendent and the Winston District Music Committee, D. W. Andrews, Jr., J. Livingston and H. G. Cole, were able leaders in the Workshop. Dr. J. A. Dillard was guest Instructor in Voice and Organ.

All choirs of the District were invited to participate in the Hymn of the Month Program beginning in September, 1961, continuing to August, 1962. These hymns were presented at the planning meeting.

Again, the District Choir thrilled the audience in its second appearance at the District Conference in May, under the direction of D. W. Andrews, Jr.

As the Conference year comes to a close, we wish to keep in focus a few objectives that will ever remain and remind us "Why We Have Choirs"

1. To create a conduct of life worthy of those who stand before others in the public worship of God.
2. To help create an atmosphere of worship.
3. To lead the congregation in singing and praises of God correctly.
4. To carry forward the Christian message in music.
5. To show an appreciation of the great Christian music of the centuries.

H. G. Cole, Chairman
D. W. Andrews, Jr., Director
Joe Livingston

Work in the Charges:

Time will not permit me to make mention of every charge individually. For the most part, all of the charges on the Winston District have had a wonderful year. However, there are a few high-lights I should like to mention at this time. They are:

Brooks Memorial, Rev. W. S. McLeod, and the people of this church have enjoyed another very successful year. Several thousand dollars have been raised and spent for renovation and redecoration of the church including the installation of a beautiful symbolic window and carpeting. Rev. McLeod closed his active ministry with a year filled with many gratifying experiences, including the burning of the mortgage and dedication of the Church. Because of declining health, Brother McLeod is retiring at this session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Rev. Paul G. Carter and the members of Lovell Chapel Church, Pilot Mt., N. C., have had a dream year. Even though it is not unusual, it is still amazing how this pastor and people put together the mere fragments of a dream and turned it into a reality in such a short time. Twelve months ago, a new church was under discussion. Last Sunday, Brother Carter and his people officially opened a most beautiful, new Lovell Chapel Church.

This has been another great year for our St. Paul Church, Winston-Salem, N. C. Under the daring leadership of the pastor, the Rev. L. M. Mayfield, this congregation has paid for all of its beautiful furniture, which cost more than $12,000.00. This has been done in a twelve month period. All benevolence causes have been taken care of and 65 members have been added to the church.

The people of Saints Home Church closed this conference year with much rejoicing. After 13 years of struggle under heavy indebtedness, this congregation, led by Rev. W. R. Royster the first six months and Rev. R. B. McRae the last six months of the conference year, paid its mortgage loan in full and burned the mortgage.

The Rev. H. A. Smith and the people of St. Stephen Church in Madison, N. C. opened their new church this year. This is one of the conference's most modern structures. It is just as beautiful as it is modern.

Not only has St. Mark in High Point, under the leadership of Rev. J. E. Brower, made improvements in its building, but, for the first time in many years, paid all claims in full.

Respectfully submitted,
J. J. PATTERSON, Superintendent
Winston District

REPORT OF THE TELEVISION, RADIO AND FILM COMMISSION

Bishop Edgar A. Love, Ministers and Delegates of the North Carolina Conference, Central Jurisdiction:

This Commission has continued to make progress during the past year. It brings the best programs over more than three hundred (300) stations, having an audience of more than a million listeners daily. Some of the best half-hour dramas of the Christian Gospel, interpreting the teaching of our Christ and bringing us face to face with our Church, family and society responsibility, make up our programs.

Our latest film is "Breakthrough No. 2". It takes into account two well documented findings; that children watch television for entertainment and the excitement it offers, expecting to learn little or nothing in the process; and that about the fifth grade level there is a discernable shift toward desire for programs which deal with the real world in which the child lives — a world of people, who think, question, and grow into personhood. This film provides for and fills these demands. It is surely an accomplishment of the first magnitude.

A series has been produced which deals with the fundamental experiences of the junior-age child that the adult viewer can learn something about the child as he sees life through younger eyes.

Our Television, Radio and Film Commission is seeking an extra giving for this film "Breakthrough" from every Annual Conference. The present need is $125,000.00.

There is a present need for a TRAFCO Director on each District, and one member on the Conference Board of Education. This is requested for the good of sending films to them and they in turn will send them to the minister who needs them. There may be many other needs of the local churches that they may serve.

Recommendations

That each District Superintendent appoint a director for his District, and send name and address to the Conference TRAFCO.

To appoint one person in each church as a local chairman of Television, Radio and Film Commission.

I am Yours for a Greater Use of These Series in the Coming Conference Year.
G. E. HOGUE, Chairman

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SECRETARY OF EVANGELISM*"Jesus Christ Is Lord"

Bishop Love, Members of the Conference and Friends:

May I begin this report on a note of gratitude? I am grateful to the General Board of Evangelism for its keen and penetrating insight into the needs of our local churches and their concern in meeting these needs by preparing and circulating evangelistic and devotional materials through the Conference, and to District Secretaries of Evangelism. They prove by so doing that they believe evangelism is the first business of the church.

Secondly, I am grateful to our resident Bishop, Edgar A. Love, who as you know is Vice President of the General Board, which indicates his consciousness, his evangelistic fervor, his creative mind, and his deep devotion to the cause of evangelism. And to Dr. W. D. Lester, a member of the General Board and acting Chairman of the Central Jurisdictional Board.

Thirdly, I am grateful to our District Superintendents for their leadership in the cause of evangelism. These men surely put forth every effort in implementing the program of evangelism that was adopted at our last session of the Annual Conference. Therefore, to the consecrated Ministers and Laymen of our Conference, I am deeply grateful to our Lord Jesus Christ to whom we owe all that has been accomplished.

Specifics

1. "The Bishop's Evangelistic Crusade," March 11-18, was again a success as every district and local church participated in some way in the crusade. As an indication of this, may I share with you one report? The Laurinburg District: S. Lloyd Townsend, Superintendent.

2. The District Secretary of the Greensboro District, and myself, attended the Council on Evangelism which met June 30,-July 5, 1961, Y.M.C.A. Building Blue Ridge, North Carolina. This was truly a great meeting with all of the Departmental Committees heads present, and leaders from across our great church. Great preaching, Morning, Noon, and Evening. There were fourteen groups of the twelve meetings before breakfast every morning and after the evening worship.

3. I nominated, after consultation with the District Superintendent, twelve laymen, for membership on the "National Lay Committee on Evangelism." They met on the campus of Purdue University last November, but because our Conference had no funds only one attended at his own expense, Dr. Ross E. Townes, a member of our Asbury church, and an Instructor at N. C. College, Durham. Laymen have tremendous potential for the work of evangelism.

Recommendations

1. That this Conference vote to observe the celebrating of Aldersgate Year. The year 1963 is the 225th anniversary of John Wesley's Aldersgate experience. The general purpose of the Aldersgate Anniversary Year is "to call Methodists, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to seek a new life in Christ and the church, and to witness out of a heart-warming experience that Jesus Christ is Lord.

2. That July-August: Groups of "The Twelve" be organized in every local church. "The Twelve" is a small group which meets regularly to learn the deeper meaning of Christian discipleship and to extend the invitation of Christian discipleship to others.

Participation in groups of "The Twelve" will inspire your church membership to become dynamic disciples who possess radiant faith and who witness to others concerning the faith.

3. That in November a Conference wide meeting be called by the Bishop, in order that Laymen and Ministers may share in the preparation for the "Celebrating of Aldersgate Year Anniversary". At this time the launching of the program for the Year will take place.

4. That the Commission on World Service and Finance, increase the budget for the Board of Evangelism to the amount of $200.00.

(b) and that the Districts be given a small apportionment each for the work of the Board of Evangelism, namely Greensboro $45.00, Laurinburg $30.00, Western $30.00, and the Winston District $45.00.

(c) and that the Districts apportionment, when raised, be sent to the Conference Treasurer, and

(d) that the amount of $30.00 be given to each of the District Secretaries, to be used by the District Secretary in his respective District in working with the District Committee on Evangelism, in training, and promoting the local churches' Commissions on Membership and Evangelism, in work-shops, etc., under the guidance of the D. S., and in cooperation with the Conference Secretary of Evangelism. (This amount is sorely needed if we are planning to do anything in the Year of Evangelism. This will give the Annual Conference Board of Evangelism a budget of $350.00).

5. That each local church "Committee on Rolls and Records" will audit regularly the membership records and make monthly reports to the Commission and to the Official Board. This means the committee will:

(a) Keep complete, accurate, up-to-date records to membership.

(b) Keep a separate roll of preparatory membership (see Discipline, No. 132).

It is of utmost importance to know who, where, and how many members.

Conclusion

Paul defines our Mission for us: "I feel myself under a sort of universal obligation, I owe something to all men (Romans 1:14 J. B. Phillips Trans). This is the characteristic of the New Testament. Always its people keep bursting in on us, their eyes shining, their hearts on fire, crying, "We have found it!" "The thing for which the whole world has been seeking, and it works!" Do you go down before your temptations? So do we, but not now, with this wonderful Savior to bring us through. Do you find life too difficult for you? So did we, but not now, with the amplitudes of grace there are for us in Christ Jesus. Or maybe it is pinched and tame? With Christ, and in Christ, it grows satisfying and successful and exciting beyond measure, becomes another and a richer thing.

It was because the early Christian felt that, said that, proved that, that they drew others to the faith. Is it because we are so dull and unexcited over it that others look at us, think there is nothing in it and turn away? "They must sing better songs 'ere I learn belief in their Savior; his disciples must look like the saved," said Nietzsche — and surely that is reasonable.

The only way in which we shall win our community and world for Christ is by convincing those outside that we have something infinitely valuable that they lack. Then of themselves they will come running for a share in it. And that we do possess such a unique thing is the truth set down with vividness in the New Testament.

The General Board of Evangelism, along with your Bishop, District Superintendents, and Secretaries of Evangelism, desire that every local church be an evangelistic unit. Our goal is for every church to be:

- A PRAYING CHURCH
- AN OBEDIENT CHURCH
- A SPIRIT-FILLED CHURCH
- A WITNESSING CHURCH
- A SHARING CHURCH
- A JOYOUS CHURCH
- A SUFFERING CHURCH

Respectfully submitted,
OSCAR W. BURWICK, Secretary

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

Bishop Love, Members of the North Carolina Conference and Friends:

On this anniversary occasion it is a pleasure to report to you the progress of last year and the plans for the coming year.

The past year has been an eventful one and noble success has been our gain. We have increased our Methodist Men's Clubs and Charters and throughout the conference on all of the districts, there is a renewed interest in the work of the Laymen's Organization.

During the conference year, I, as Conference Lay Leader, have spoken and appeared throughout the conference making speeches and serving in whatever capacity I was called upon to render service.

The District Lay Leaders and myself, along with several others, created a car pool and journeyed to Purdue University in July, 1961 to attend the National Methodist Men's Conference. Each person enrolled in a work-shop of their special interest in order to bring back to the local churches a better approach to the problems in their varied fields of interest. The knowledge and inspiration gained at this gathering will have far reaching benefits throughout the North Carolina Conference and Methodism.

Methodist Men's Organization

Our goal is two-fold in this area. First, to see that every Church has a Methodist Men's organization, and secondly to see that each organization carries out and performs the purpose for which they are established. Statistically speaking, there are about 5,000 men in our Churches in North Carolina. What a vast storehouse of energy we are, what a potential we have in developing a Christian dynamo. Our endeavor for the coming year is to harness this latent power and enliven the spirit and hopes of the great number of men inactive in our cause.

Christian Stewardship

All of our hopes, aims, aspirations are but naught if we fail to practice and witness in this capacity. When men grow proud and their hearts are full of love — for themselves — they have less and less room in their hearts for God. We must not fail to use for God the material things entrusted to us. Because the material things are used by God to test our worthiness. Jesus Christ is head of all, and we are stewards of all we possess, our time, talent and money. The Laymen of the North Carolina Conference must rededicate ourselves to this concept.

Retreat and Workshop

It will be the endeavor of each district to hold several workshops on the district and sub-district level this year. Our work is one of education also — and down to the grass roots must this message be taught and practiced.

District Parsonage

The North Carolina Conference is one of the very few conferences in Methodist that does not have a single District Parsonage. Continuous effort is being put forth to eliminate this condition and the Board of Lay Activities with your help is committed to putting special effort in this behalf for the coming year.

The program of the Methodist Men offers a great opportunity for men to grow spiritually, both as an individual and as a group. It affords a field in which men can work. How can we expect to harvest in any field if we fail to plant and cultivate?

Through the Methodist Men we have a proving ground. To prove to ourselves — that Jesus Christ is Lord.

CLARENCE M. WINCHESTER
Conference Lay Leader

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

A year has gone by since we met in Louisville with over 200 persons from all sections of the United States to plan a Quadrennial Program on Race for The Methodist Church. Many important things have happened in many Regions, but, your Conference Board would like to share with you some of the activities we have participated in during the year.

1. Our Regional Consultative Committee had two meetings this year, the first was held in Statesville, and the second in High Point. Rev. A. Dudley Ward, Vice President of the Division of Human Relations and Economic Affairs, was with us in the first meetings, and Bishop Nolan B. Harmon was present in the second meeting. The Bishop's contribution to the meeting was that we should let the Executive Committees of the three (3) Boards in North Carolina, comprise the greater Regional Committee.

2. The Western North Carolina Conference School on Christian Social Concerns: This meeting was held in the beautiful Wesley Memorial Church in High Point. The purpose of the meeting was: "to provide advanced training for selected leaders in order to develop new techniques in handling social problems; and to provide background information that will stimulate new understanding of social concerns."

3. The Cincinnati Exploratory Meeting, March 26-28: We were well represented at this meeting "to help study and analyze all pertinent data related to the issue of segregation in The Methodist Church, with particular reference to the Central Jurisdiction and its dissolution as a racial unit in The Methodist Church."

4. A standing invitation to other Board Meetings: We give thanks to Almighty God for being able to communicate across Jurisdictional lines, with Boards of Social Concerns in North Carolina and Virginia. You would be interested to know that some of our Local Commissions have been meeting together in two of these conferences.

5. Statewide Convocation on Christian Social Concerns: In one of the Board Meetings of the North Carolina Conference (S.E.J.), your Conference Chairman suggested that the three (3) Boards of Christian Social Concerns should have a Convention together. On April 26-27, 1963, we will have this convention, at West Market Street Church here in Greensboro. A budget has been set for $1,800, and our share of this is only $300.00.

6. The District Directors: A meeting of the District Directors and the Executive Committees of the three (3) Boards of Social Concerns will be held at Lake Junaluska, September 10-11, 1962.

7. The Churchmen's Study Tour of Europe and Russia, July 20 to August 30, 1962: This study tour is designed to help churchmen acquire information and insights which will enable them to be more effective in their work for peace and world order. Half of the time will be spent in Czechoslovakia, Poland, and Russia, for the reason that the cold war between the East and West is the major threat to the human race. The other half will be spent in the significant Centers of London, Geneva, Helsinki, Stockholm, and The Hague. The tour will be led by Dr. Carl Soule, Executive Secretary for the Division of Peace and World Order.

The North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences are helping to sponsor your Conference's Chairman, by contributing $500.00.

Recommendations

WE RECOMMEND THAT:

That Commitment Sunday will be observed, December 2, and an offering be taken for our Committee on Temperance and General Welfare.

Respectfully Submitted,

GLENN A. BROOKS, Chairman

REPORT OF OBJECTIVES FROM THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND GENERAL WELFARE

Bishop Love, members of the conference, delegates and friends:

The program of Temperance and General Welfare for the past conference year consisted of local church studies of community needs in the fall; observance of Commitment Day and Christmas for Christ with a family emphasis in the winter; and special studies at convocations and workshops in the spring.

The objectives for the coming year are broad in scope and will require additional time and work on the part of pastors and local church commissions on Christian Social Concerns.

Due to insufficient funds for mailing and traveling purposes, the objectives for the coming year are submitted in forms of Recommendations in this report. Consequently, each pastor will receive the same in the next issue of the conference journal.

The objective-recommendations are as follows:

1. Purchase copies of audio-visual such as "To Your Health and How Long the Night." Secure free materials and distribute to church members.
2. Arrange for speakers, panels, and discussions on the issues of Social Welfare, Juvenile Delinquency, Mental Health, Medical Care, Traffic Safety, Population and Planned Parenthood, Narcotics, and Gambling.
3. Cooperate with the State or Area Methodist Student Movement.
4. Provide youth activities weeks studying alcohol problems and moral concerns.
5. Support a program of alcohol education in the public schools through the state temperance organization and with state education officials.
6. Use materials on the items listed in number 2 above in preparatory membership classes.
7. Study the welfare needs of the community and find homes for welfare children.
8. Observe Commitment Day in every local church.
9. Make every effort to surround alcoholics and their families with an atmosphere of love and concern.

By doing these things, we will make the program of temperance and general welfare an active concern in our churches and in our conference.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERY E. ROBINSON, Chairman

The Committee on Temperance and General Welfare

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PEACE AND WORLD ORDER OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Bishop Love, Members and Friends of the Conference:

The Committee on Peace and World Order of the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns is reporting on the following issues: Communist China and Formosa, the German question, disarmament, and ban on nuclear testing.

Communist China and Formosa

The settlement of the question of the representation of mainland China is a long-standing problem which should be settled in order to facilitate proper international communication, negotiation, and the future control of world disarmament.

The Chinese nation of 700 million people ought to be represented in the United Nations by a government in actual control of the Chinese mainland.

The government called Nationalist China, now located on Formosa, is no longer in political control of the Chinese mainland.

The present government of mainland China, established in 1949 and called the People's Republic of China, is the defacto government of China.

The admission of the People's Republic of China to the United Nations, as is the case of any nation-state, does not involve approval of that nation's institutions or policies but rather involves simply recognition of its existence as an established government.

In our judgement, therefore, the People's Republic of China should be admitted to the United Nations as the representative of mainland China.

We further believe that the government called Nationalist China should continue as a member of the United Nations and represent the island of Formosa, on which that government is located, until such time as the future status and control of Formosa can be settled by international negotiations through the United Nations.

The Reunification of Germany

The German nation is now split into two zones, East Germany and West Germany. This concept of a split nation is alien and contrary to modern political theory and is not conducive to normal contemporary relations.

It is, therefore, our judgment that a commission be set up by the United Nations to consider the social and economic problems attending to the reunification of Germany and propose measures to alleviate these.

This commission could also hold a free election among the German people to determine whether such unification should take place.

Disarmament

We support President Kennedy's statement that "it is . . . our intention to challenge the Soviet Union, not to arms race, but to a peace race . . . until general and complete disarmament has been achieved."

We urge implementation of the position of the 1960 General Conference on disarmament. The General Conference stated: "We call upon the United States and all other governments to declare complete, universal and enforceable disarmament to be their goal and to move in this direction."

Ban on Nuclear Testing

In the explosion of hydrogen bombs man has released upon this earth a degenerative power. The explosion of these bombs has set in motion the disintegration of the very structure of life, and no one knows what the final result will be.

Dr. Albert Schweitzer, world famous theologian, philosopher, musician, and medical scientist, has had the courage to tell the world that these explosions should be stopped at all costs. In his "Declaration of Conscience," Dr. Schweitzer says: "None of the radioactivity of the air, created by the explosion of atom bombs, is so unimportant that it may not, in the long run, become a danger to us through increasing the amount of radioactivity stored in our bodies.

"What we absorb of radioactivity is not spread evenly in all cellular tissue. It is deposited in certain parts of our body, particularly in the bone tissue and also in the spleen and in the liver. From these sources the organs which are especially sensitive to it are exposed to radiation. What the radiation lacks in strength is compensated for by time. It works day and night without interruption.

"How does radiation affect the cells of an organ?

"Through being ionized, that is to say, electrically charged. This change means that the chemical processes which make it possible for the cells to do their job in our body no longer function as they should. They are no longer able to perform the tasks which are of vital importance to us. We must also bear in mind that a great number of the cells of an organ may degenerate or die as a result of radiation.

"Not our own health only is threatened by internal radiation, but also that of our descendants. The fact is that the cells of the reproductive organs are particularly vulnerable to radiation which in this case attacks the nucleus to such an extent that it can be seen in the microscope.

"To the profound damage of these cells corresponds a profound damage to our descendants.

"It consists in stillbirths and in the births of babies with mental or physical defects.

"We are forced to regard every increase in the existing danger through further creation of radioactive elements by atom bomb explosions as a catastrophe for the human race, a catastrophe that must be prevented.

"There can be no question of doing anything else, if only for the reason that we cannot take the responsibility for the consequences it might have for our descendants.

"They are threatened by the greatest and most terrible danger."

In the light of what atomic explosions are doing to our atmosphere and to life upon this planet, we strongly urge our country to take the lead in working to get a test ban on nuclear explosion now!

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM T. BROWN, Chairman

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION REPORT

"While the program of Christian Education is not the whole life of the church, Christian education must be vitally concerned with all that the church does. The program of Christian Education must serve the needs of all persons and all ages within the church's responsibility."*

It is the goal of this Board that the churches in the North Carolina Conference become acutely aware of the vital role that Christian Education plays in the total program of the local church. It is with this in mind that the Board submits its report.

Last year the Conference voted to enter into Christian Education on a full-time basis effective for the year 1962-63, and each year thereafter. Subsequently, the Conference adopted a budget of $6,060.00 to underwrite this program. The Conference Treasurer's report as of 22 May 1962 indicated that only two-thousand and six dollars ($2,006.00) had been raised. It is apparent as of this date that we shall not have enough money to launch into this full-time program this year. The only recourse left open to us this year is that we proceed with our Christian education program on a part-time basis.

In that the money raised this year was for a full-time Executive Secretary, we feel that the Conference should vote to use not more than $1800.00 of the money we raised this year for a part-time Executive Secretary. The Board recommends the same, in that the only finances available for the work of the Christian Education is from this source.

Last year also, the Commission on World Service and Finance, inadvertently left off the Conference budget any recommendation for operational expenses for the Board for 1962-63. The Board, therefore, has no operational expenses for next year. The Board recommends that two hundred dollars ($200.00) of the money raised this year be used for operational expenses of the Board.

We urge the Bishop and the District Superintendents to exert every effort to impress upon the pastors of the Conference the importance of Christian Education in the Conference and to make strenuous effort to raise the apportionment for the Conference Board of Education during the next Conference year.

Program Recommendations

We still maintain that in order to accomplish the aim of Christian Education, a trained leadership is indispensable. No program or movement arises above its leader. If the North Carolina Conference is to survive, not to mention grow, it is imperative that we provide leadership training on the Conference, District, Sub-district and Local Church levels. We, therefore, recommend the following:

1. That at least one person from each local church attend the Baltimore Area Leadership School at Bennett College, June 25-30.
2. That each district hold a District Leadership School; that no district hold a District Youth Assembly unless a District Leadership School is held.
3. That leadership training week-ends be provided on each District.
4. That each District be properly organized.
5. That more effective use be made of the Executive Secretary in local church situations.
6. That Church School Rally Day be observed in the Conference on September 30th.
7. That the District Superintendents invite the Executive Secretary to their annual planning conferences.

The Executive Secretary's report will show what has been done in Christian Education this year, and project plans for next year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH B. BETHEA, Chairman

JOHN G. CORRY, Secretary

J. T. JONES, Executive Secretary

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Mr. Chairman, and members of the Board of Education:

The report of the Executive Secretary is made with mixed emotions. Something has been done this year for which I am grateful; but so much was not done that should have been done, I have a feeling of dissatisfaction and failure. Some cause for optimism appears above the dissatisfaction and feeling of failure when I see the great potentialities for Christian education in our conference. The people in the local churches recognize the need for training in leadership, the need for a more effective and efficiently administered program and they are asking for help. This is a healthy sign and cause for optimism and encouragement. It says to me if the Board of Education can acquire the wherewithal to meet the needs in the several churches with a dynamic and effective program in Christian training, Christian education in our conference will have earned its wings.

This report is divided into two parts, what has been accomplished this year, and secondly, some needs and objectives for the coming year.

Work on the Districts

Considering the conditions under which our Christian education program operates I feel that it is both safe and honest to report that the most significant work this year has been done on the district level, with the Laurinburg District leading the parade. The Christian Worker's School on the district involved one hundred and thirty persons in a leadership enterprise. In November a district Coaching Conference for chairmen and members of the Commission on Education was held on the Laurinburg District. A continuation and expansion of the work now being done in this district will inevitably lead to a better trained and more efficient corps of leader in the churches of this district. Incidentally, eighty-five persons were in attendance at this coaching conference.

The Greensboro District held a coaching conference for age-group workers in April of this year. This was a significant start. Some sixty-one leaders were enrolled in this conference. Greater things are expected on the Greensboro District next year.

The Winston District, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen G. Cole and Mr. D. W. Andrews has done very effective work in the field of music education. Two choir clinics have been conducted on the district which were well planned and executed. The fall clinic was not confined to members of the Winston District. Persons having responsibility for music in the churches on the other three districts were invited. The Western and Laurinburg districts had representatives present. More than one hundred persons attended the clinics. Our plans call for expansion of this phase of the work next year.

The Local Church

I have been unable to touch the work in the local churches in any significant manner. It is my sincere hope that this condition will change in the near future. I have had invitations to St. Paul Church in Reidsville and St. Andrews in Winston-Salem. Twenty-five people were involved in a weekend conference on the work of the Commission on Education. This number included the members of the Commission from Wesley's Chapel Church along with those from St. Paul. The Commission on Education from St. Matthews Church was used as a model at the Greensboro District co-ordinating conferences in April, thus demonstrating the calibre of work being done there.

Miss Myra A. Roseman, the Conference Director of Children's Work, attended the Regional Workshop for Children's Workers in Nashville in Marsh. This experience will greatly aid our children's program for the coming year.

Needs

One of the pressing needs of the Christian education program in our conference is adequate financial support. Without it a program for the conference is well nigh impossible. We must continue our efforts in this direction. Sufficient finance along with the active support of the pastors will give the North Carolina Conference a strong Christian education program.

In the work areas there is a need for heavy concentration in age-group work, General Church School Work, efficient planning and administration of the total program at the local church level. There is also much need for improved methods and techniques in church school evangelism, fellowship and recreation, there are areas of Christian Family Life, and the role of music in Christian education and Christian worship. Perhaps all this will not be accomplished next year, but the challenge is before us. Let us begin.

Religious Emphasis Week at The Agricultural and Technical College

The general theme for Religious Emphasis Week was: "What Can I Believe?" The Wesley Foundation cooperated with the Canterbury Club (Episcopal Student Group) in sponsoring two discussion groups during the week. On Monday evening, January 22, we discussed the topic, "Can I embrace Modern Science and Christianity at the Same Time?" On Wednesday

Speakers Brought to the Campus by the Wesley Foundation this Year

On Wednesday evening, March 7, we brought to the campus Dr. Darrell Randall, Associate Professor in the School of International Service at the American University, Washington, District of Columbia. He represented the General Board of Social Concerns and spoke on the topic, "The Race for Peace." He made a keen analysis of the present international crisis and pointed out the role of Christianity in creating world peace.

On Friday, April 6, and Wednesday, April 11, we brought Miss Barbara Leonard to the campus. Miss Leonard spoke on her work as a missionary to the Philippines and of opportunities for missionary service. In addition to speaking to a public meeting, she spoke to a total of 416 students in three classes. She made a profound impression.

Some of My Extra Campus Activities

Other participants on the panel were: Dr. Walter Hudgins, Chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy, High Point College; Mr. Hughes Cox, Professor of Philosophy, High Point College; Mr. Benjamin Wilson, Professor of English, Greensboro College; and the Reverend Charles Shannon, Pastor of Brace Methodist Church, Greensboro, North Carolina. The topic for discussion was: "Does Agnosticism Meet the Needs of College Students Better Than Christianity?" The discussion was part of the Religious Emphasis Week Program.

On Friday, January 26, I served as one of the leaders on a panel at the Methodist Student State Conference held in High Point, North Carolina. Other leaders on the panel were: Dr. J. Lem Stokes, President of Pfeiffer College, Misenheimer, North Carolina; the Reverend William C. On Friday, May 18, I addressed a Freshman English class at The Agricultural and Technical College on "The Religious Philosophy of Emanuel Swedenborg."

The Community of Lay Scholars

In 1958, the Methodist Chaplains at Wake Forest College, Duke University, and the University of North Carolina organized The Community of Lay Scholars. They "set up a two year curriculum aimed at preparing future teachers, housewives, lawyers, doctors, chemists, and nurses for their vocation as ministers of the laity (the whole people of God)." It was their intention that these laymen "should know the full range of Christian thought and experience and be able to witness to it in understandable terms out of personal conviction and commitment."

In January of this year, I was invited to become a member of The Community of Lay Scholars. I joined with the understanding that I would organize a branch of The Community at The Agricultural and Technical College next school year.

Each year, The Community of Lay Scholars brings an outstanding theologian to the campus of the University of North Carolina to deliver the Wesley Lectures. On May 4 and 5, we presented Dr. Marqus Barth, Professor of New Testament at the University of Chicago and son of the world famous Swiss Theologian, Karl Barth, as Wesley Lecturer. May I say a word about his closing lecture? This lecture dealt with the place of the Holy Spirit in the interpretation of the Scripture. This was the greatest message that I have ever heard on work of the Holy Spirit.

This has, indeed, been a great year.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM T. BROWN

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY

Bishop Love, Fathers, Brothers, Sisters, Friends:

This is my 10th annual report to the Conferences of the Baltimore Area. It is not a report in the sense that it attempts to detail my activities over the past twelve months. Such would consume too much time and space, and it would not be especially contributory to constructive recommendations for the future. Briefly, I will say that I have been privileged to serve all our Annual Conferences—the Delaware, Washington, and North Carolina. I have attended Annual Conference Sessions, district meetings of various kinds, workshops, convocations, institutes, and have preached in many pulpits. On many of these occasions, I have substituted for Bishop Love; on others, I have responded to personal invitations. But these things, as important as they are, do not constitute my major responsibility, which is to help the bishop carry the heavy administrative load which is his, in office routine and in executing the program of the General Church. These have been happy and challenging years, and, with all members of the Baltimore Area family, I anticipate the sorrow which will be ours on the bishop's retirement two years hence. No one could work for a more understanding, tolerant and companionable person.

This report will deal essentially with one vital responsibility of our office, that of caring for our pastors' group insurance plan. As I have stated before, it is a great responsibility, requiring much of our time, and for which we receive no compensation or commission or any material reward. We recommended the plan to the Conference because we know of its great need. We have had some 15 deaths among the insured members of our Conference in the last two years and nine months since the plan become effective on September 1, 1959. Every one of these claims has been paid. The money was a veritable God-send to the widows of the deceased brethren. It was practically all some of them had. There is desperate need for this type of insurance for us. Many of us could not possibly get similar insurance so cheaply, if indeed at all. The thing that distresses us is the fact that many of our men still do not pay their insurance premiums. In many cases of the deaths among us, the insurance was not paid in full, if at all either year. Happily, we can report that in every case, however, the widow did reimburse the Conference treasurer, who advances the premium each month for the entire Conference.

I am making this intimate appeal to my fellow workers: Brothers, please support this plan. None of us like to anticipate death; we all want to live as long as possible. But we must face facts: Life is uncertain, and we owe it to those whom we love to leave them as much protection as possible for the time when they will need it most, probably.

Our insurance happens to be with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. This is a good plan, but there are others as good, doubtless some better. Which plan is not important to us, except the one most practicable. Until we can find a better plan, let us support the one that we have. Our Conference treasurer reports that this has been our best year in receipts from the charges on the group insurance. But the response is far from 100% and we simply cannot expect to burden our treasury much longer carrying a load that we should carry ourselves. Let us review the facts:

The cost of the insurance is only $43.00 a year. The benefits are $2,000.00 payable to the beneficiary at death; $4,000.00 in accidental death. All full-time employees, lay as well as ministerial, of our churches are likewise eligible for the insurance. The church is asked to pay the premiums for the pastor and/or lay employees. At age 70, the accidental death and dismemberment clause automatically ceases, but full natural death benefits are effective until age 72 (or retirement, if a member retires before age 72). The benefits are then reduced one-half, or to $1,000.00. It should be remembered that the Conference voted two years ago to pay the premiums for all retired men. (Note: Men already retired at Conference session of 1959 were not insurable).

We have kept the policies on file in our Area Office, on advice of the company, if the policy holders so consent. However, we have brought all policies to this session, and those desiring them may have them, or they may examine them and return them to us, if they desire us to keep them on file in our office. Let me repeat our plea: BROTHERS, PLEASE SEE THAT YOUR GROUP INSURANCE IS PAID, for it is being paid for you otherwise. If you do not desire this protection, kindly inform us.

Retreat

This next word is to our pastors' wives regarding the 1962 Ministers Wives Retreat, which will be held at Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., July 3-5. Please remember, that all wives of ministers, or widows of ministers, or women pastors are eligible to attend. The Retreat is always a rich spiritual and fellowship experience for the women attending; it will be especially so this year, for the North Carolina Conference women want to be our hostess and plan many fine things for us in the way of entertainment. They are not obligated or asked to do this; they are asking to do it. Buses will leave from Baltimore and Washington. These details must be completed soon.

Workshop

I would like to call attention of pastors to our workshop on Church Music which will be held at Camphor Church, Philadelphia, August 14-16, concurrently with the Delaware-Washington Conferences Conference on Missions. This will be a great opportunity for your organists and choir directors and singers to get help and directions which they may need to improve the music of your churches. The registration will be the same as that for the Conference on Missions delegates, $6.00, and the board and lodging about $5.00 a day. You will be receiving announcements from us soon.

I wish to thank Bishop Love for the confidence he imposes in me in entrusting to me responsibilities of major proportions: to the district superintendents, pastors and laymen of all our Conferences for their cooperation and help and, above all, to give thanks to Almighty God, who has preserved my health and who has safely guided my feet through these ten years of service in my present work.

May the peace of God be with you all, now and evermore. Amen.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL LYMAN RIDOUT
Area Administrative Secretary

REPORT ON TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION

Bishop Edgar A. Love, and Members of the 104th Annual Conference, Central Jurisdiction, Greetings:

The Commission on Town and Country has had a small measure of success. This year some of the Rural Charges have worked on such projects as the "Lord's Acre" and the "Lord's Hour." This type of program has worked well on many charges.

We still urge for another year the Five Point Program to be selected from the Twelve Point Program. They are the following:

1. To assist Methodist couples to find places on farms and other occupations in the rural charges.
2. To provide religious services for isolated groups, families and new un-churched communities.
3. To strengthen the Program of Christian Education in the Local Church.
4. To urge the adoption of an adequate salary plan in our Annual Conference.
5. To help create in our ministry a deeper sense of mission and evangelism.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That on each District the Superintendent appoint a chairman on Town and Country Work and also one in each church.
2. That a Convocation on Town and Country Work be held in a central location of our Conference.
3. That the Conference provide seventy five dollars ($75.00) to support the convocation.

Respectfully submitted,

G. E. HOGUE, Chairman

We have examined the statement of recorded cash receipts and cash disbursements of the North Carolina Annual Conference for the period July 1, 1959, through July 31, 1961, in the manner and to the extent outlined below.

Cash on deposit at July 31, 1961, was reconciled with the balance reported by the bank. We were unable to trace individual recorded receipts to the bank deposits. We inspected paid bank checks representing recorded disbursements for the year. No vouchers, invoices, or other evidence supporting disbursements were submitted for our inspection. We did not request independent confirmation of recorded receipts from the various contributing churches and individuals.

As the scope of our examination did not include independent confirmation of cash receipts and as vouchers, invoices or other evidence supporting disbursements were not available, we are unable to express an opinion upon the statement of recorded cash receipts and cash disbursements.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT BOUNDARIES June 14, 1962

The Committee to study possible changes in District Boundaries met on the above date and made the following recommendations:

Due to the fact that Central Jurisdiction Conference boundaries are under proposed changes as recommended by the Jurisdictional Committee of Five (5), we recommended that no District Boundary in the North Carolina Conference be changed at this time.

J. W. JONES, Chairman

JAMES W. FERREE, Secretary

BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

Your Board of Hospitals and Homes is primarily concerned in making a study of the best method in providing needed assistance to the constituents of our Conference. Our problem has many facets and is not easy to resolve.

We recommend that the Golden Cross Enrollment Society become active in each Local Church in compliance with Section 2, par. 1559 in the Discipline.

ALVIN L. MORRISON, Chairman

ECHOES AND CHALLENGES

From The

THIRD QUADRENNIAL METHODIST CONVOCATION ON URBAN LIFE IN AMERICA

St. Louis, Mo., February 20-22, 1962

Reported by John G. Corry, Delegate to the Convention

Dr. Haskell M. Miller ably listed some of the sentiments most strongly expressed in the Creative Exploration Groups as follows:

—We must have specialized programming in our urban churches to meet the needs of special groups.

—We must involve laymen more in the witnessing (the priesthood) functions of the ministry.

—The church must find out what the real needs of the people are, whether they live in the suburbs, in unchurched areas, or in the heart of the city. The church can no longer rely upon traditional assumptions of what these needs are.

—We must continually review our theological and ecclesiastical concepts of the true nature of the church and the mission it has in modern society.

—We must improve the quality of theological awareness among the people of our churches.

—In order to become meaningfully involved in urban renewal and city planning, the church must understand and relate to the planning process and the power structure of the community. This is another area of challenge for lay participation.

—One important reason for the church's ineffectiveness in the inner city is that it is oriented to stable-family emphases, whereas stable whole-family units are not the normal pattern in the inner city social structure.

—A truly redemptive ministry to the needs of people may challenge us to a new alignment of our loyalties, so long limited to a local church or even to denominational demands.

—To provide an effective mission of the church we must develop plans for financing the total church and placing our best leadership in places not formerly associated with the highest status.

—Worship experiences of the church must be vitalized, dramatized, and made more available—possibly through services at other times than the traditional Sunday hours.

—We need a recovery of the true koinonia in the church—through the formation of new small groups as well as through revitalizing the existing groups. But such groups will not in themselves guarantee the coming of the Kingdom.

—Some Methodist Ecclesiastical machinery must be reworked to equip the church to minister to the needs of people. In particular, we need longer tenure of leadership at policy making levels and more continuity in planning and programming.

—The church must not be afraid to adopt and use unconventional methods, but it must not put its trust in bizarre, unusual and spectacular approaches.

—we must quit using the suburban church as a "whipping boy" and find instead better practical ways of recognizing and using its strengths and resources.

—We should appreciate the strength and integrity of the existing institutional structure of the church. We should also courageously undertake an honest and realistic appraisal of the church's many shortcomings so as to improve its effectiveness in adapting to the whole range of problems and needs of people in our cities.

(The Convocation frequently criticised the bureauocracy in the church and still more frequently called upon the Bishops and the church boards and agencies to develop and implement more adequate church-wide strategies for the church's mission.)

Additional sentiments from the Convocation Exploration Group work sheets listed by the directors of the City Department:

—These days call for cooperative planning on the part of Methodist ministers and laymen in the small city. The appointments can be made to bring a variety of talents in ministerial leadership to serve all kinds of needs.

—Many First Churches sponsor new churches, yet in some smaller cities the First Church pastors oppose new churches. Some contended that there are more Methodist where there is more than one church in the smaller city.

—There is an abundance of lay leadership in the Methodist Church. Many laymen can be challenged for important services. Skilled laymen can help in counseling, planning, surveying, and in communications. One church has challenged laymen willing to be loaned to a church in a changing community. There is a place for the deaconess, and one group said a place for lay brothers in the work of the Methodist Church.

—A dominant demand of the conference was in the area of planning for a Methodist strategy. One exploration group worked out an organizational plan for the General Church, for the regional and metropolitan areas, and for the local levels. Methodist laymen who are skilled city-planners are ready to help. A few ministers have taken graduate studies in city planning. The people must be involved in the planning process, and we must avoid just planning for them.

—A seminary trained, experienced young pastor is desired in the new church opportunity. Some retired men have done a good job, but it takes a great deal of energy to start a new church with so many young adults and their families.

—The conference has learned that with help most new churches reach self-support and can be well organized in eighteen months, while groups that grow up on their own take an average of five years before things are ready for full-time pastor and well rounded program.

—There was room to argue over how large a church ought to be. One group explored the idea that when a church has 500 members, it ought to give the next members to begin a new congregation.

—The suburban church has a mission to meet through pastoral care the transplanted people in an unrelated community. The church and its Christ must become the center of interest for them.

—In a residential church as elsewhere, the church program ought to meet the needs of the people, and give them an opportunity to witness to others. Residential churches can be linked in interest with a store-front church, an inner-city church, a mission church school, and can provide funds, services and leadership.

—The residential church has a responsibility to work for good government for the whole city. These churches might consider special ways to train members for potential place of service in government, business, labor etc.

—The college church and Wesley Foundations need to cooperate in theological teaching, but it needs to be done on an understandable level for the students. Yet, pastors need to remember that there is a difference between the level of a freshman and that of the junior and senior.

—“We need to appeal to the ‘eggheads,’” but the Methodist student magazine ought to try to appeal to the larger student group as well.

—The college church needs a strong voice in the pulpit. The preacher needs to be an energetic man who understands students' needs, and he needs to be ahead of them with a “grasping”, seeking mind.

—The apartment dwellers have a built in protection from the visitor. The church is asking if it has made a wrong image of being concerned for self rather than to have the help for persons' needs. The church is seeking ways to be understood and ways to open channels of communication with those in high-rise buildings.

—Churches have often created a wrong image in the eyes of the people before urban renewal or clearance was begun. The present church may also create the wrong image for the people who move in after renewal. One of the greatest services a church can give in some of these areas is the service of the trained social worker.

—Good church extension is the result of good planning. The opportunities are so great that the whole church should be interested. It takes the team work of the local churches, the district, the city society, the Conference Board of Missions, and the Division of National Missions. Where this team work has been developed, there are local churches individually or in groups sponsoring new churches, district and city societies buying land, making donations, and the Division of National Missions helping with services, and with gifts and loans.

—It is time that we stopped selling church property in our cities to other denominations and for other uses. The plea is to keep it and find some use for building or land until the planning body of the conference, organized or to be organized, has ample opportunity to determine what the situation may be in this area in the future.

—You can get more people into the new churches in the suburbs. But, the city church is a feeder for the suburbs. If the people get left out of the church in the city, there will be no point of contact when they move out. Our connectional system must find ways of being connected with churches that can help and those who need help.

—The gathered community of the parish should serve the geographic community around the church.

—Leadership needs to be educated and dedicated. Leaders are called to be prophetic and to be servants and not simply coordinators.

—Does church architecture speak to the transient people of our city? Does it speak of something that is permanent? Are these people not seeking something that is more than temporary?

—The church must maintain a ministry to its support members.

—Each minister should work in his own church, so that re-appointment would be an advancement.

RESOLUTION REGARDING AN APPROACH TO THE ABOLITION OF THE CENTRAL JURISDICTION

WHEREAS, the College of Bishops of the Central Jurisdiction, acting upon the request of the Committee of five (5), appointed by the 1960 Central Jurisdictional Conference, convened a study conference in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 26-28, 1962, and

WHEREAS, the purpose of said study conference was to assist the Committee of five (5) to:

1. To determine and assess the progress of the Methodist Church in the matter of readjusting its racially jurisdictional structure so as to abolish racial segregation in the Methodist Church;
2. To discover and identify possible alternatives available to the Methodist Church on all levels in dealing with this problem;
3. To explore procedures for seeking a consensus within the Central Jurisdiction with respect to achieving the goal of an inclusive Church; and

WHEREAS, the Cincinnati study conference formulated and adopted a set of principles and recommendations regarding the abolition of the Central Jurisdiction as a racially segregated unit in the Methodist Church:

Be it, therefore, resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference does hereby give its assent to these principles and recommendations of the Cincinnati study conference as possible alternatives for the final abolition of the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

The North Carolina Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns
GLEN BROOKS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Words are inadequate to fully express the appreciation that we, the ministers, laymen, and friends have for Dr. Willa B. Player, who has so graciously permitted us to hold the 104th Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction here at Bennett College, surrounded by all its natural beauty

To the District Superintendent of the Greensboro District, the pastors and the members and friends who have shared in any way toward making our stay happy, our thanks to you.

As we assembled here for this Annual Session, we have been mindful of the great unfinished task which they who have gone on before us have thus far so nobly advanced. We, too, have resolved to take up the Cross and carry on until we shall hear the words from the Great Commander, "Well Done."

We wish to thank Bishop Edgar A. Love for his wise guidance, patience, and understanding. To those who have addressed our sessions, both ministerial and laymen, who lifted our souls heavenward and sent us on our way rejoicing, a very special thanks.

Thanks to our First Lady, Mrs. Edgar A. Love, for being among us this week and for adding both charm and dignity to this occasion.

May the blessings of Providence abide continually with all who labored to make our stay complete. May each pastor return to his charge with a determination to make his better—best.

Respectfully Submitted,
Committee on Resolutions
J. F. SAWYER, Chairman

RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Conference apply for membership in the North Carolina Council of Churches.

Submitted,
H. W. PHILLIPS

APPRECIATION TO THE LOVES

(On the eve of the 10th anniversary of the Bishop's election to the Episcopacy)

By Daniel Lyman Ridout

Bishop Love, Fathers, Brethren and Sisters of the Conference:

It was Lord Bacon who said, "Reading maketh a full man, writing an exact man, and conference a ready man." I want to be exact, so I am writing what I wish to attempt to say at this time. I want to be full, so I am reading. I want to be ready, so I am conferring with you on this important matter.

I am free to confess that the words I am about to speak sound for all the world like a first-class eulogy. Such, however, is not the case, for I came not to bury a friend, but to praise him. I see nothing wrong, however, about paying eulogistic encomiums to the living. Perhaps if we did more of that sort of thing, we would all live longer.

"If you have a friend worth loving, love him—
Yes, and let him know that you love him,
Ere life's evening tinge his brow with sunset glow
Why should good words ne'er be said
Of a friend until he's dead?"

We are on the eve of a very significant anniversary—one that means much and is close to the hearts of us all. It was ten years ago that two of Methodism's ablest sons were elevated to the episcopacy of The Methodist Church by the vote and through the wise choice of the delegates to the Fourth Central Jurisdictional Conference. One of those sons was assigned to the Baltimore Area, and for ten years, we have been blest with the able leadership of Edgar Amos Love. No one was more deserving than he of the honor which came to him; no one could have graced the office with more dignity and with greater efficiency. Wherever he has worked, and wherever he has gone, he has commanded the confidence and respect of all whose lives he has touched—for he has evidenced dedication of purpose, keenness of intellect, sagacity of mind, and immaculacy of heart, coupled with the common touch, which has made him the friend of all, both great and small.

After having worked intimately with him for ten years as his most unworthy administrative assistant, I want to give you a true picture of what I think of him.

1. He is capable. He knows the church. He is a great administrator. He leaves a profound impression upon the Annual Conferences of the church over which he presides outside his own Area. Some have been in the South, among our own people of color; some have been in the North, among people of fairer skin. They all join in one accord in saying: "His name is Love; his manner bespeaks love."

2. He is thoroughly honest. Any Christian is thoroughly honest, but some well meaning Christians fall short of the mark of the high calling of God in Christ through some so-called minor sinning, committing such "little sins" (and I have "little sins" in quotes, to be sure) as falsifying their ages to get insurance or jobs, or to have a year or five longer to remain effective.

Any of us who travel on expense accounts, without too much compunction of conscience, may pad them a little—or much—to make sure that we come out all right. When Edgar makes his monthly expense account and sends it to the World Service treasurer, if there is doubt in his mind about an expenditure, he cuts it out. I am in position to know that the church owes him hundreds of dollars that he failed, indeed refused, to include in a perfectly legitimate statement of expense.

He is courageous. His name has been associated by his enemies with that of another great Methodist Bishop, G. Bromley Oxnam, both of whom have been called Communist sympathizers and fellow travelers of those martyrs of the faith who refuse to bow to bigotry and who dare to defend liberty and justice and equality with honor and truth. Thank God, all of us who may have been so labeled by the conservatives, the recalcitrants, the die-hards and the enemies of social change count it an honor so to be called. For they are the enemies of democracy. They are the traitors to the ideals and principles of the founders of the American Republic.

As president of the controversial, all-but-outlawed Methodist Federation of Social Action, and of the even more controversial and pinkly labeled Southern Conference Educational Fund, Bishop Love has for many years championed the cause of the underprivileged, the downtrodden, the oppressed, and the disenfranchised. And he has done this where it might hurt his personal reputation and prestige most—in the deep South. On last April 13—Friday, the 13th, of all days!—he went to the citadel of American bigotry and brutality—Birmingham, Alabama—and presided over a meeting of the Southern Conference Educational Fund—the first integrated meeting in Birmingham in 25 years.

4. He is a big man—not physically, no, no—but morally and spiritually. You can differ with him vigorously and remain his friend. I have written some strong editorial comments in The Baltimore Area Messenger the last ten years. He has never read a line of anything before it appeared in print. He has not once said, "Dan, this is a little too strong. I am not so sure that you should be so critical of our Methodist Church" . . . I have known pastors literally to insult him as he sat in the chair presiding over an Annual Conference. He has yet to get ruffled, or upset, nor has used vengeance as a weapon in dealing with any man. I have known men to malign him and lie on him, but he has dealt with them, in the making of appointments, on the basis of what they have done and can do to promote the interests of the Kingdom of God. That, my friends is an evidence of true religion, pure and undefiled.

5.—And finally, he is compassionate, as any bishop or priest or minister or lay Christian must be. He is touched by the feeling of the infirmities of his brethren. I thought, until I went to work with him, that I was the world's softest touch, but not so, Brethren. Edgar is softer. Where there is destitution, or emergency, or mental anguish, or distress of any kind, he helps. (Don't anybody get destitute or distressed before you go home, please, or he'll go home broke)! It can be said of him, as it was said of our Master, "He looked upon the multitudes, and He was moved with compassion."

It is cliché to say that behind every good man there is a woman—a mother or sister, or especially a wife. And what shall we say of Virgie? Blessed with the graces of charm and beauty, Virginia Ross Love is the kind of woman whom Shakespeare describes as having "a voice, gentle, soft and low—an excellent thing in woman". Time does not permit us to pay her the tribute that she highly deserves.

I only need to say that I wonder how Edgar fooled her into marrying him. I have always said that however good a man is, he is underserving of the good wife he has. Perhaps he quoted poetry to her. Indeed, he must have quoted to the love he sought this greatest of love poems, Love's Apotheosis, by Paul Laurence Dunbar:

"Love me, I care not what the circling years to me may do,
 If, but in spite of time, and tide, and tears, you prove but true.
 "Love me. Albeit grief shall dim mine eyes, and tears bedew,
 I shall not e'en complain, for then my skies shall still be blue.

"Love me, and though the winter's snows shall pile and leave me chill,
Thy passion's warmth shall make for me, meanwhile, a sunkissed hill.
"Love me, and when the days have lengthened into years, and I grow old,

O spite of pains, and griefs, and cares, and fears, grow thou not cold.
"Then hand in hand we shall pass up the hill—I say not down,
That twain go up of love, to gain love's crown.

"Love me, and let my life take up thine own, as sun the dew, Come, sit my Queen, for in my heart a throne awaits for you."

And so Edgar and Virgie, we take this time to congratulate you on your 10th anniversary in the bishopric of The Methodist Church. You have maintained the nobility and integrity of the office, and you have honored it, as the church has honored you. We have not attempted to canonize you, or to deify you, or to immortalize you. The length of days and the record of history will determine that. We offer you no material gift, but we give you renewed assurance of our love and of our devotion and our appreciation for your safe and consecrated leadership. May God give you length of years, health of body, ever-increasing wisdom of mind, and strength of spirit, that you may continue to serve him with vigor and with fruitfulness.

XIV Historical View

From the organization of Methodism in America, the work in North Carolina was continued in Virginia and afterwards in the Virginia and South Carolina Conference. In the year 1836, the General Conference was set up in North Carolina. Its first session opened as a part of the Virginia Conference, but when it adjourned, there were two Conferences.

Facts from the first ninety sessions are gleaned from the General Minutes from the Conference Journal for those years, which is now in custody of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the Conference of December 4, 1844, there were 10,495 white members and 3,100 colored. Without consulting the wisdom of the latter, nearly the whole membership became a part of a new church, organized in May, 1845, and called the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Some of the colored members entered the A.M.E. Church, some the Colored M.E. Church of America, but thousands turned gladly to the bosom of the old Methodist Episcopal Church as it returned to the State after the Civil War.

Between the years 1844, when the Church was separated over the slave question, and in 1865, when at the close of the War, the M.E. Church returned to shepherd its scattering flock in North Carolina, there was no session of the North Carolina Conference.

From the North Carolina Conference, the Blue Ridge was formed with twelve preachers, 2,839 members and probationers, and 41 church edifices.
