Dr. Wayne E. Caldwell - WTS
216 East 43rd St.
Marion, Indiana 46952

Dear friend Wayne,

HAPPY NEW YEAR!! And GOD BLESS THE CALDWELLS!! I talked last Friday with a young lady whose name, as I recall, was Mary. She had seen you recently and said you were home, had surgery, and that you were up and around and vigorous as ever. Wonderful! All this is good news indeed.

We are having a mini-sale of WTS JOURNALS during the JANUARY INTER-TERM, and I am enclosing checks totaling $40.00 on the sale ($20.00 from Michael W. Sigman, and $12.50 and $7.50 from Melvin J. Franklin. Melvin wrote a check for $12.50 for the student "sawing" on the sale, then had to write another check to make the $20.00).

Ten sets have been sold already, and that has taken most of my supply. I HAVE AN AMPLE SUPPLY OF THE FOLLOWING:

Vol. 15, No. 1
" 16, No. 2
" 17, No. 1

Will you please send me 15 copies each of all the rest of the WTS JOURNALS? I would appreciate it if they could be sent immediately, if that is humanly possible.

I'll retire, God willing, in May 1985. Meantime I hope to lower your stockpile of Journals about 7 1/4 inches by that time -- the LORD HELPING ME & US!

Cordially & gratefully, your brother,

Bill

P.S. Please send the JOURNALS TO me at ATS.--so box or boxes will be delivered at the seminary.
