Dr. Wayne E. Caldwell, WTS
215 East 43rd St.
Marion, Indiana 46952

DEAR WAYNE,

I am enclosing two applications for student membership in WTS:

- (1) Terry Clayton Priest, 304 Village Circle, Wilmore, Ky. 40390
- (2) Jonathan Scott Gill, #29 Broadhurst Manor, Wilmore, Ky. 40390

Jonathan Scott Gill bought a set of the WTS Journals for $21.00, including the current issue (Vol. 18, No. 2), so it reduced his membership dues to $3.00.

Next week I am planning to have a mini-sale of the WTS Journals, and I would deeply appreciate your sending me 15 COPIES EACH of EACH ISSUE, except:

- (1) V.16 No. 2
- (2) V.17, No. 1 & 2
- (3) V.18, No. 2

but 10/2/84

Please send them to me at the Asbury Theological Seminary address, and in that way they will be delivered to the Seminary where I will need them.

Gene Lintemuth, one of our administrative personnel, has found a place to store the supply of WTS Journals, and has assured me that there would be office space also (probably elsewhere) for office work and equipment.

At this juncture, then, I'm inclined to let my "hat" into the "ring" as a possible successor to you -- though I do that with some bit of fear and trepidation. I'm remembering, of course, that it is an elective office, and that there could well be other and better choices. Regardless of your successor or successors, you have set a standard that is a model for all. In my case, I would need a lot of secretarial help which would take some WTS funds. Have you had to hire much help through these last few years? I'm sure you had to have considerable help when you were on sabbatical. Your daughter did a fine job.

Are any of the issues of the Journal near exhaustion now? How many are usually reprinted?

My dear wife is not anxious for me to take on extra duties during this, my last year of teaching at ATS.

I do need your prayers. I've been asked to give the Holiness Emphasis Messages on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 16 & 17. That is a big assignment. Please pray for me.

I hope you are not having to work too hard with your new editorial duties, with teaching, etc. Many thanks for your help with the above requests.

Cordially, your friend in HIM,

Bill A.
