Dear Brother Worcester:

Thank you for your note of April 27, which has finally reached me. I apologize for the delay in replying.

I am sorry to hear of the difficult times you have been through. We will, of course, gladly enter you as an honorary member on our rolls.

In view of the fact that you weren't able earlier to notify us that you had retired, we will be happy to refund your membership contribution for the last two years. We will be sending you a check for $30.00.

Thank you again. May you deeply sense God's presence in these days.

Sincerely,

Howard A. Snyder
Secretary-Treasurer
