Dear Sir:

I received WTS New and Notes yesterday, and noted that the label on the envelop read "1990." I also noted the explanation in the newsletter that this represented the last year dues had been paid. I did not pay my 1991 dues until December, 1991, and at the same time I also paid dues for 1992. The check for $30.00 has been processed by my bank.

If a double-check does not confirm the receipt of this check, I will order a copy from my bank for your information.

Thanks!

Yours in Christ,
