To whom it may concern,

The General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns will hold a consultation on the Wesleyan Holiness tradition next February in Dallas. We want to prepare the 30 participants by sending reading materials in advance that define and illuminate the plenary discussion topics.

I am writing to ask your permission to copy and distribute to our small group of invited participants the following articles published in your journal:

Cubie, David L. "A Wesleyan Perspective on Christian Unity." Wesleyan Theological Journal 33.2 (Fall 1998): 198-229.

Dayton, Donald W. "The Doctrine of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit: Its Emergence and Significance." Wesleyan Theological Journal 13 (Spring 1978): 114-126.

Massey, James E. "Race Relations and the American Holiness Movement." Wesleyan Theological Journal 31.1 (Spring 1996): 40-50.

Mellen, Elizabeth H. "An Ecumenical Vocation for the Wesleyan/Holiness Tradition?" Wesleyan Theological Journal (anticipated Winter 1999).

The authors, Donald W. Dayton and Elizabeth H. Mellen, will be two of our presenters and they suggested that these articles be part of the preparatory material.

Yours truly,

Betty Gamble, Associate General Secretary
