

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

1500 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20016-5690 • (202) 885-8600 • Fax: (202) 885-8605

15 February 1999

Frederic Bence
Department of Religion and Philosophy
Indiana Wesleyan University
1000 South Washington
Muncie, Indiana 46953-4999

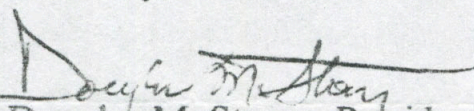

Dear Bud:

On behalf of the Executive Committee of the Wesleyan Theological Society, I gratefully accept the invitation extended by you and the administration of Indiana Wesleyan University to host the Annual Meeting of the WTS on March 2-4, 2001. We look forward to visiting your campus. Given the school's location in the midwest--near to many Holiness institutions--there will (most likely) be a relatively large attendance when we meet at IWU.

William Kostlevy, Secretary-Treasurer of the Society, will send you a list of expectations for host institutions (most of which you already anticipated in your letter to me). The specific details will be arranged between a person that you designate at IWU and the President and First Vice President of the Society at that time. The President of WTS in 2000-2001 will be Steven McCormick of Eastern Nazarene College. The First Vice President of the Society for 2000-2001 will be elected at our upcoming meeting in Oklahoma City.

Thank you for your willingness to serve the broader Wesleyan Holiness academic community.

Sincerely,

Douglas M. Strong, President
Wesleyan Theological Society

cc: William Kostlevy
Steven McCormick