WTS NEWS AND NOTES

Membership Dues: Membership in the Wesleyan Theological Society is on an annual basis. No individual letters are sent to members reminding them that their membership has expired and that they will not be receiving further issues of the journal. The status of your membership is recorded on your address label. If the year listed is 1998 you need to renew to receive further issues of the journal. Information on the publication schedule for the journal is listed below. Dues are: Full Members, $25; Associate Members, $25; Student Members, $10 and retired members $10.00. Journal subscriptions will also be $25. A single copy of the current issue is $12.50. Please use this opportunity to update your address.

Attention Retired Members: Charter members of the WTS who are retired may receive the journal free. Please notify the secretary-treasurer if you qualify to receive the journal free. Other retired members may receive the journal for $10.00 per year. This is in accordance with the WTS by-laws.

"Wesleyan Theology in a Postmodern Era will be the theme for the 1999 WTS annual meeting to be held at Southern Nazarene University, Bethany, OK, March 6-7. Please see the enclosed conference program.

Papers from the joint WTS-SPS Meeting "Purity and Power: Revisioning the Holiness, Pentecostal and Charismatic Traditions," are available for $30.00 from the WTS. P. O. Box 144, Wilmore, KY 40390.

Current Officers: Officers for the current year are: president-Douglas M. Strong; first vice president-Albert L. Truesdale; second vice-president-K. Steven McCormick, William C. Kostlevy, secretary-treasurer; Barry Callen, editor of the journal; Stephen Lennox, promotional secretary, David Bundy and Stan Ingersol, editorial committee.

WTS Journal: Volume 33:2 of the Wesleyan Theological Journal, Fall 1998, was mailed in September. If you did not receive your copy, please notify the Secretary-Treasurer. The next issue will be volume 34 (Spring, 1999).

Wesleyan Theological Society Endowment Fund: At the 1995 annual meeting the WTS voted to establish an endowment fund. Contributions to the endowment fund must be designated as endowment fund contributions, and they must be a minimum of $100.00 per contribution.

2000 Annual Meeting will be at Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA March 3-4, 2000.
