1. The 14th Annual Meeting of the WTS will be held November 3-4, 1978, at Mount Vernon Nazarene College, Mount Vernon, Ohio.
2. The 1978 program will be a combination of Biblical and Theological themes as they relate to some of the Historical concerns which were registered at the Huntington Convention last Fall.
3. Members who attended the 13th Annual Meeting held at Huntington College, are urged (if they have not already done so) to send responses to the papers that were read, to Dr. Leon Hynson, Editor, at the earliest possible date, for possible inclusion in the 1978 Journal.
4. Of special interest to all students in any College, University, Seminary or graduate school is that Journals may be purchased for $1.00 each or $10.00 for the full set of 12 Journals (1966-1977), plus $1.00 postage & mailing when a full set is ordered.
5. WTS members who are professors are urged to let their students know of this real bargain. Send all orders with payment in advance to the Secretary-Treasurer.
6. Applications for members with payment of dues for one year in advance ($8.00 for Full members, $5.00 for Associate members and $3.00 for Student members) may be sent directly to the Membership Chairman, Dr. David L. Cubie, Mount Vernon Nazarene College, Martinsburg Road, Mount Vernon, OH 43050.
7. Membership Dues for 1978 are payable now. A notice is enclosed which shows the current status of your membership and dues. Please remit your dues to me at your earliest convenience, along with the copy of the poll we are taking with regard to the time and times of the Annual Meeting which may be best.
8. A new Standing Rule directs that any member who does not pay dues during any given calendar year will not receive the Journal the following year. Heretofore, the Journal was sent whether a member had paid dues or not until the member was placed on the inactive list.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE THE FIRST WEEKEND OF EACH NOVEMBER

9. Formal invitations are being accepted by the Executive Committee for the 1979 Annual Meeting or beyond. These should come from the President or chief administrator of a College, University, Seminary or other institution and may be sent to the President of WTS, Dr. Melvin E. Dieter.

Thanks for your cooperation and consideration of all the items in this letter. Your attention to the interests and support of the program of the WTS is sincerely appreciated. May the Lord give each of you a great year in the sphere of your special labors for the Master!

In Christian bonds,

Wayne E. Caldwell

Wayne E. Caldwell
Secretary-Treasurer

P. S. If you are no longer a student, please let me know this. The rule is that when you are no longer a student you may choose either an associate or a full relationship in the WTS. Your dues would no longer be $3.00, but $5.00 for Associate and $8.00 for Full Membership. Thank you for keeping me informed.

BE CERTAIN TO NOTIFY ME OF A CHANGE OF ADDRESS!

Any member, in any category, who has kept their dues paid in full, may, upon retirement, continue in the category of membership they have maintained and receive all the rights and privileges of WTS with no further payment of dues. IF YOU ARE NOW RETIRED FROM THE ACTIVE SERVICE YOU WERE IN, PLEASE LET ME KNOW THIS ALSO.

Also, when you are deceased, let me know, otherwise I shall keep on mailing you things to your earthly address.

MAY THE LORD HASTEN HIS COMING, YET BE MERCIFUL TO ALL!
