Your application for membership in the Wesleyan Theological Society, together with your payment of dues for the current year has been received and processed. This is now your official notification that all is well and that you are now a member in active relationship at the level for which you made application.

As a new member I am happy to send you the current issue of the Journal herewith (unless you have previously received it).

As long as you keep your membership dues paid annually your Journal (s) will be sent each year after publication with no additional charge. You likewise are extended all the privileges which pertain to the membership you hold. Please note the Bylaws in the current issue of the Journal.

It is my sincere prayer that you will not only enjoy the articles of each Journal, but that the fellowship and involvement with other members of the Society will be both stimulating and spiritually enriching.

I would like to urge you to attend every annual meeting of the Society, announced well in advance each year on the first Friday and Saturday of each November.

Should you desire past issues of the Journal, please know that they are all available at the prices given in the current Journal.

Please let me know of any way that I may be able to help you. ALSO, PLEASE BE PROMPT IN SENDING ME ANY CHANGE OF ADDRESS WHICH MAY OCCUR. It is the only sure way of keeping our records current. Many thanks to you for compliance with the Bylaws of the Society as they pertain to you.

God bless you richly in the area of ministry to which He has called you and where you presently serve Him and your fellowmen.

Wayne E. Caldwell
