ANNUAL CONFERENCE DATE

THE FIRST WEEKEND OF EACH NOVEMBER

"In 1729 my brother Charles and I, reading the Bible, seeing we could not be saved without holiness, followed after it and incited others to do so. In 1737 we saw that this holiness comes by faith. In 1738 we saw likewise that men are justified before they are sanctified; but still holiness was our object, inward and outward holiness: God then thrust us out to raise up a holy people."

This was John Wesley's answer in 1765 to the question as to the rise of Methodism. Wesley's Works, Vol. VIII, p. 300.
