

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF AN ARTICLE
PROPOSED FOR PUBLICATION IN THE

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL JOURNAL

Papers of the Annual Meeting of the Wesleyan Theological Society
Bethany, OK, March, 1999

The Spring 2000 issue of the Wesleyan Theological Journal will carry a selection of the edited papers presented at the 1999 annual meeting of the Wesleyan Theological Society. All authors of papers presented at this meeting are encouraged to submit their papers for formal consideration.

The Society's Editorial Committee will meet in April/May, 1999, to offer evaluation and suggestions to the Editor concerning the articles to be published. Consideration will be given only to those papers submitted directly to the Editor for consideration. The fact that a paper is presented at an annual WTS meeting does not automatically qualify it for consideration. A paper must be submitted intentionally by the author for possible publication, either as presented at the meeting or as edited afterwards.

Submissions may be made to the Editor (1) at the annual meeting itself or (2) by mail any time before April 10, 1999 (this gives time for some editing by the author after presentation at the meeting). Send to the WTJ Editor, Barry Callen. His mailing address: Dr. Barry Callen, c/o Anderson University, 1100 East Fifth Street, Anderson, Indiana 46012.

Callen's....E-mail address: bcallen@kirk.anderson.edu
...Phone: 765-641-4559
...Fax: 765-641-3851

Materials are to be submitted to the Editor in both hardcopy and on computer disk (any wordprocessing program). The Editor uses a Mac with Microsoft Word, but can translate almost anything without difficulty.

When submitting, an author should include: her/his full professional title, current place of service, mailing address, and e-mail address.

All authors submitting proposals should hear from the Editor no later than early June, 1999, concerning whether or not the material submitted has or has not been accepted for publication.

[Of course, papers not presented at this meeting may also be submitted for possible use in whatever issue of WTJ where there is space available.]

Barry L. Callen, Editor
Wesleyan Theological Journal

GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSION OF AN ARTICLE
PROPOSED FOR PUBLICATION IN THE

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL JOURNAL

Papers of the Annual Meeting of the Wesleyan Theological Society
Bethany, OK, March, 1999

The Spring 2000 issue of the Wesleyan Theological Journal will carry a selection of the edited papers presented at the 1999 annual meeting of the Wesleyan Theological Society. All authors of papers presented at this meeting are encouraged to submit their papers for formal consideration.

The Society's Editorial Committee will meet in April/May, 1999, to offer evaluation and suggestions to the Editor concerning the articles to be published. Consideration will be given only to those papers submitted directly to the Editor for consideration. The fact that a paper is presented at an annual WTS meeting does not automatically qualify it for consideration. A paper must be submitted intentionally by the author for possible publication, either as presented at the meeting or as edited afterwards.

Submissions may be made to the Editor (1) at the annual meeting itself or (2) by mail any time before April 10, 1999 (this gives time for some editing by the author after presentation at the meeting). Send to the WTJ Editor, Barry Callen. His mailing address: Dr. Barry Callen, c/o Anderson University, 1100 East Fifth Street, Anderson, Indiana 46012.

Callen's...E-mail address: bcallen@kirk.anderson.edu
...Phone: 765-641-4559
...Fax: 765-641-3851

Materials are to be submitted to the Editor in both hardcopy and on computer disk (any wordprocessing program). The Editor uses a Mac with Microsoft Word, but can translate almost anything without difficulty.

When submitting, an author should include: her/his full professional title, current place of service, mailing address, and e-mail address.

All authors submitting proposals should hear from the Editor no later than early June, 1999, concerning whether or not the material submitted has or has not been accepted for publication.

[Of course, papers not presented at this meeting may also be submitted for possible use in whatever issue of WTJ where there is space available.]

Barry L. Callen, Editor
Wesleyan Theological Journal