SERVICE OF WORD AND TABLE

Wednesday, September 20, 2006

Ten o'clock in the Morning

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: O God, take pity on us and bless us, and let your face shine upon us, so that your ways may be known across the world, and all nations learn of your salvation.

People: Let us rejoice in the Lord and extol him with songs.

Leader: Let the nations be glad and rejoice, for you judge the peoples with fairness and you guide the nations of the earth.

People: Let us rejoice in the Lord and extol him with songs.

Leader: The earth has produced its harvest: may God, our God, bless us.

People: Let us rejoice in the Lord and extol him with songs. Amen.

Opening Hymn No. 57

"O FOR A THOUSAND TONGUES TO SING"

AZMON

OPENING PRAYER (in unison)

O God, our resurrection and life, the promise of your new life in Christ is like a breath of fresh air in a dry and thirsty land. We have gathered as believers, and as those who are honestly seeking the truth.

Guide our worship this hour. May your truth touch not just our intellects, but also our deeper yearnings of heart and soul. We bring with us our daily concerns, as well as our more eternal questions. May your new creation in us shed light upon our everyday walk. Amen.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

This week in Goodson Chapel:

Service of the Word: Thursday, September 21st, 10:00 am, The Rev. William Ritter, Visiting Instructor of Homiletics.

The Friday Service: Friday, September 22nd, 2:30 pm, Rev. Patrick Thompson, Black Campus Ministries

Morning Prayer is held weekly in Goodson Chapel 8:20-8:40 am. We are united with Christians throughout the world in this daily ritual, using the rite from the Book of Common Prayer. Contact Jessie Shuman-Larkins (jms29@duke.edu) for more information.

Our Praise and Worship Team ministers for the Friday Service, with Gospel/Praise selections. Please contact Jared Wilkins (jared.wilkins@duke.edu) or Monique Williams (monique.williams@duke.edu) if you would like to be a part of this musical ensemble. The group rehearses once a week and new members are welcome.

Do you play an instrument? We are especially interested in identifying woodwind and string players for a music ensemble to accompany a Taizé service on Friday October 20th. Please give your name to Tim Berlew (timothy.berlew@duke.edu).

Friday, September 29th at 2:30 pm, "A Service of Psalms," featuring the acoustic bluegrass music of Folk Psalm. Charles Pettee and Folk Psalm offer an exciting and entertaining concert of bluegrass and new acoustic music featuring Charles Pettee's settings for various Old Testament Psalms, as featured on the CDs Steady Love and True Wealth. FolkPsalm features the talents of renowned professional musicians from NC, including Pettee, the longtime mandolinist and songwriter for Flying Fish recording artist The Shady Grove Band, Duke Divinity student, Lizzie Bahnon, founding member, vocalist, and original fiddle player for Asheville, NC's the Steep Canyon Rangers, and Taz Halloween, vocalist extraordinaire. They perform masterfully arranged instrumentals, and intricate harmony vocals that delight even the most discriminating audience.

The service will be built around Psalms and prayers, both read and sung, featuring more than eight selections by our guest musicians.

Students of Dr. Ellen Davis will recall Folk Psalm's memorable performance last year in her OT 11 class. We are pleased to welcome them back for this "sung" service of worship.

GLOBAL PRAISE SERVICE OF MUSIC & TESTIMONY, Tuesday September 26th. A service of worship & music celebrating the gospel of Jesus Christ and the work of the Church in the world. The Service will include highlights of Duke Divinity student field education and academic experiences from around the world.

5:45 p.m.—Free Light Supper in Refectory to include tour of student displays of pictures and artifacts from international experiences

7:00 p.m.—Worship Service, Goodson Chapel

During this worship service Divinity Students will offer multi-media and musical testimonies of their field education and academic engagements in Uganda, Peru, South Africa, Brazil and the Middle East.
