Grief Awareness Week: November is National Hospice Month calling attention to those at the end of life's journey, and their care providers. Within this context, the Duke Institute on Care at the End of Life and H.O.L.D. (Helping Others/Ourselves in Life and Death) are sponsoring Grief Awareness Week, November 6-12, in conjunction with Duke Bereavement services and Duke Home Care & Hospice. There will be a display of books and resources near the Refectory, a special focus on grief in this week's worship times and an opportunity to participate in a community art project. Please join in praying for all in our community and world, children, teens and adults who are grieving losses in their lives.

Special events during Grief Week:

Wednesday, November 6th "Grieving in the Midst"· Brown Bag Discussion offering a supportive place to share our stories of loss and grief and how we cope in the midst of study, work and ministry, 12:30-1:20, 0015W

Throughout Grief Week: There is a Grief Week weaving project outside the Goodson Chapel where members of the community may place a strip of cloth in memory of someone or to honor a loss or grief in their life. This weaving will be made into a stole for use in worship. We invite your participation in the weaving and/or in writing a grief related entry into the journal on the same table.

Morning Prayer is held weekly in Goodson Chapel 8:20-8:40 am. We are united with Christians throughout the world in this daily ritual, using the rite from the Book of Common Prayer Contact Jessie Shuman-Larkins (jms29@duke.edu) for more information.

Our Praise and Worship Team ministers for the Friday Service, with Gospel/Praise selections. Please contact Jared Wilkins (jared.wilkins@duke.edu) or Monique Williams (monique.williams@duke.edu) if you would like to be a part of this musical ensemble. The group rehearses once a week and new members are welcome.
