*OPENING PRAYER

Christ, Messiah, Anointed One, we come anointing you with our praise. We come bringing our alabaster jars, our myrrh, nard, and incense, for you are worthy of every good gift. We bring you the gift of ourselves as we kneel to anoint your feet. We give you the gift of our passion as we use our hair to dry your body. We pray that our worship this hour might be pleasing and acceptable in your sight. Holy Dove, we thank you for your presence among us. Amen.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

Precious Lord, we confess that we have sinned against you. We are the lover that leaves your bed. We are the Judas that leaves your table. We have betrayed your kiss and given you over to abuse and death. We have treated your sons and daughters as we have treated you. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. We pray for the strength and courage to stand beside you in the abused women and men we know. And we thank you for ever seeking our public embrace, for still finding joy in our compromised praises of you. Amen. (pray silently)

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit, to give ourselves for others, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

HAMBURG

1 When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss
And pour contempt on all my pride

3. See, from her head, her hands, her feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or lifted veil prove royal crown?

2. See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down.
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were an offering far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

 All who are able please stand.*

 The communion elements are bread and grape juice*
