Psalm Prayer

Psalm 146

L: Praise the Lord!
P: My inmost self, praise the Lord,
L: Praise the Lord as long as I live;
P: I will constantly sing to my God.
L: Do not depend on the noblest people,
P: For no human power can save you.
L: Their breath departs; they return to the ground;
P: On that very day their plans will perish.
L: Happy are those whose helper is Jacob's God,
P: Whose hope is in God the Lord--

L: The maker of earth and sky and sea,
P: And all the things that are in them;
L: Who always does what is right,
P: Who brings justice to all the oppressed.
L: The Lord, who gives good to the famished,
P: The Lord, who sets the prisoner free,
L: The Lord, who gives sight to the blind,
P: The Lord, who lifts up the humbled,
L: The Lord, who loves those who act justly,
P: The Lord, who protects the refugees,
L: Who comes to the aid of the orphan and widow,
P: But subverts the plans of evil people.
L: The Lord will always rule,
P: Your God, O Zion, forevermore.
