

A SERVICE OF PREACHING
Twentysecond Week After Pentecost
October 22, 1986

ENTRANCE AND PRAISE

Organ Prelude (a time for silence and meditation)

*Call to Worship

- L· All scripture, and all that is inspired by God, is profitable.
- P· WE GATHER TO LISTEN FOR GOD'S WORD.
- L· May all God's children hear the gospel trumpet.
- P· MAY ALL HEAR AND SOUND THE NEWS OF HEAVENLY GRACE.

*Hymn No. 100 "Blow Ye the Trumpet, Blow"

PROCLAMATION

First Lesson Habakkuk 1·1-3, 2·1-4

*Psalm 119:137-144

- R: Righteous are you, O God
- L· and right are your judgments.
- R· You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness
- L: and in all faithfulness.
- R: My zeal consumes me,
- L· because my foes forget your words.
- R: Your promise is well tried,
- L· and your servant loves it.
- R: I am small and despised,
- L· yet I do not forget your precepts.
- R· Your righteousness is righteous for ever,
- L: and your law is true.
- R· Trouble and anguish have come upon me,
- L· but your commandments are my delight.
- R· Your testimonies are righteous for ever,
- L· give me understanding that I may live.

*Gloria Patri

(No. 794)

Second Lesson II Timothy 3 14-4·5

The Sermon

RESPONSES AND OFFERINGS

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer

*Hymn No. 369 "Break Thou the Bread of Life"

(OVER)

SENDING FORTH

*Dismissal

L: Bless thou the truth, dear God, to us all.

P: WE SHALL FIND OUR PEACE IN YOU.

L: Always be steady, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil your ministry.

P WITH GOD'S HELP WE WILL BE FAITHFUL.

L: May the blessing and peace of God Almighty be with us all.

A: AMEN.

*The Sharing of Christ's Peace

Organ Postlude

Preacher
Liturgist
Reader
Organist

The Reverend Isaac Lim
Brinkley Sugg
Laura Lefelar
David Arcus