SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Thursday, September 23, 2004
Ten after ten o'clock in the morning

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP *

We worship a God that has not remained far off,
But came down and pitched his tent among us.
We praise a savior who made our sufferings his own
And in so doing, freed us that we might share the burdens of others.
Grant us the wisdom and the courage to rightly worship you!
Grant us the vision and the strength to rightly serve you!

OPENING PRAYER

Psalm 42:1-3, 11b

As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God? My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually, "Where is your God?" Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.
