OPENING PRAYER

Glorious God, source of joy and righteousness, enable us as redeemed and forgiven children evermore to rejoice in the singing of your praises. Grant that what we sing with our lips we may believe in our hearts, and what we believe in our hearts, we may practice in our lives; so that being doers of the Word and not hearers only, we may receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray, saying...

“Blessed Be the Lord God of Israel”

Thomas Tallis
1505-1585

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began. that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways ;to give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, to give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Magnificat

Domenico Cimarosa
1749-1801

“My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden. for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his name. And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel; as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation. he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation, my father's God, and I will exalt him. The Lord is a man of war: the Lord is his name. The Lord is become glorious in power: O thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy. Though hast overthrown them, rose up against thee which consumed them. Thou didst blow like the wind, the sea covered them. they sank as lead in the mighty waters. The
