Today's sermon was inspired by the glass panel created by artist Diane Palley. The panel, based on Psalm 42, features silk-screen and sandblasting. From the top of the panel, tears fall as raindrops, evoking the passage "tears have been my food/bread day and night." These tears enter the stream which sweeps downward, teeming with fish, and providing life-giving sustenance for the wheat, barley and fruit depicted at the bottom of the panel.

This Week in Goodson Chapel

Thursday 10:00 a.m. Dr. James Crenshaw, Robert L. Flowers Professor of Old Testament, preaching.
