

Work

Def. Exertion of strength or faculties to accomplish something toil, labor, employment, occupation.

People work for different things:

1. Money
2. Specific things: bicycles, houses, etc., trips
3. To provide for loved ones
4. To get along better with others.

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March,

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Signed.....

2

Illustration: ~~old~~ fashioned horse-drawn, steam-pump
fire engine ~~not~~ drawn up hill ^{to water} by ~~winded~~ horses. By men surrounding it and each showing on his ~~own~~ part at the chief's signal, hill was ascended, water reached,
pump operated and other horses saved.

So, in camp each will have certain work to

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March,

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Signed.....

do. By himself it
wouldn't amount to much.
But if each "pushes" by doing his work -- in class,
in team-work, in camp chores
-- we'll have a good camp.
Same is true of a big store:
each doing his part the best he can; in a home; in anything. If anyone stumbles it is harder on the rest of all work.
"each for all" it is easier
on the rest.

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March,

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Signed.....

4

Dud. illustration:

a traveller ~~of~~ came upon a group of men
erecting a building.

Turning to one he asked what he was doing:

"Oh, I'm making a living," he answered.

The second one asked replied, "I'm doing a good job of laying these stones."

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March,

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Signed.....

The third one to whom the question was put said, "I'm helping to build a temple in which people will worship God."

and likewise in our daily duties at home ~~or~~ ^{or} camp, if each does his duty to the best he can feel not only that he is

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March,

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Signed.....

helping others out
that he is doing the work for God. 7

Why is each of us working for all the rest, here, at home and elsewhere? Let us
answer in our hearts
"To please God by serving his sons and daughters here on earth."

4 hours
Camp. notebooks / held in

CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

The Stewardship Year

Believing it is incumbent upon me as a Christian to attend Church regularly:

And because this is Stewardship Year for Methodist:

And because Special Emphasis will be made upon Stewardship at my Church during January, February, and March.

I will earnestly endeavor to attend at least one Service each Sunday during this Period.

Reporters report to base at 2:30

Signed _____

Mar. P. C., St. Mary's location