

Quarterly Report of the Wesleyan Service Guild

The Wesleyan Service Guild, which consists of the working women of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, had at the beginning of the year fifty members.

There are nine subscribers to "The Methodist Woman" and six subscribers to "The World Outlook."

The program material used follows:

Worship material of the Woman's Society of Christian Service based on the theme, "A New Earth, Wherein Dwelleth Righteousness"; supplementary materials from "The Methodist Woman" and "The World Outlook"; Pamphlets on each country of Latin America have been discussed.

One delegate was sent to the North Carolina Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service March 10-11 held at the Steele Street Methodist Church, Sanford. We cooperated in the church-wide study on Latin America — February 17th and 24th.

The Guild has paid — $ 31.87 on pledges.
5.10 cultivation fees.

Respectfully submitted,

Juanita P. England
President

Quarterly Report of the European Commission

The European Commission's annual report contains a number of interesting
features, and the beginning of the year
has seen the publication of the annual report and six subscription
forms.

The Commission's annual report
contains a number of interesting
features, and the beginning of the year
has seen the publication of the annual report and six subscription
forms.

The Commission's annual report
contains a number of interesting
features, and the beginning of the year
has seen the publication of the annual report and six subscription
forms.

Respectfully submitted,
James O. ...
President