

Report of the Methodist Youth Fellowship for the Fourth Annual
Quarterly Conference - October 11, 1943

Assemblies:

At the Louisburg Assembly the following delegates from Duke Memorial were present:

- (1). Jean Berry
- (2). Albert Highsmith
- (3). Ruth McDonald
- (4). Modean Glenn

Duke Memorial was represented by the following delegates at the Lake Junaluska Assembly:

- (1). Jean Berry
- (2). Sarah Taylor
- (3). Modean Glenn
- (4). Harriet Boddie
- (5). Eleanor Allen
- (6). Emily Boyd

At these Assemblies the delegates received many suggestions and ideas for their commission activities and learned more about the state and national organization of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

During August a supper meeting of the Youth officers and counselors was held, at which the church roll was studied and the decision was made to invite inactive members to work on the separate commissions.

Retreat: At the first of September a devotional and planning conference was held in the form of a Sunday afternoon retreat at the Bird Sanctuary. Chaplain Allbright of Camp Butner was the inspirational speaker at this meeting, and he delivered a very helpful sermon to the young people at this time.

At the last of September another Commission and Council meeting was held for the purpose of planning advance programs. The worship service leaders were chosen for two months in advance at this meeting.

Recreation: During the month of July there was an open house at the church each Saturday evening for the privilege of the boys in the service, at Duke University and at Camp Butner.

During August a swimming party was held at Forest Hills.

During September a weiner roast was held at the Boy Scout Camp at Sacarosa.

Methodist Youth Fund Pledge: Pledges to the Methodist Youth Fund were made by the group on October 10th. The new financial year was started with a clean slate .

Respectfully submitted,

Louise Saffery
President of the Youth Fellowship
