

REPORT TO QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

May 9, 1944

The Wesleyan Service Guild of Duke Memorial Church is composed of three circles with a total of 54 members, seven of which have been added this quarter.

The quarterly report of the treasurer is as follows:

Amount pledged for the year	$ 213.85
Paid for Missions	44.50
Christian social relations	10.00

Special projects undertaken by the circles have been in connection with

1. The Durham Nursery School.
2. Cradle Roll Department of Duke Memorial Sunday School.
3. The Red Cross Sewing Room
4. Spastic Clinic

Circle B has been engaged in a special study of Christian Missions, led by Mr. George Ehlhardt, of the Duke Divinity School.

Special emphasis is being put upon increasing and nurturing the membership of the Guild.

Respectfully submitted,

Wixie E. Parker

Wixie E. Parker, President.

REPORT TO QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

May 9, 1944

The Wesleyan Service Guild of Duke Memorial Church is composed of three circles with a total of 84 members, seven of which have been added this quarter.

The quarterly report of the treasurer is as follows:

Amount collected for the year	$ 213.88
Paid for Mission	44.50
Christian social relations	10.00

Special projects undertaken by the circles have been in connection with

1. The Dorman Nursery School.
2. Gracie Roll Department of Duke Memorial Sunday School.
3. The Red Cross Sewing Room.
4. Gracie Circle.

Circle B has been engaged in a special study of Christian Missions, led by Mr. George Shilbardt, of the Duke Divinity School.

Special emphasis is being put upon increasing and nurturing the membership of the Guild.

Respectfully submitted,

Winnie E. Parker, President.