

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, and in the minutes were read by the secretary.

As a supplement to the report on the falling off of our attendance at the last meeting it was reported that there was a slight increase during July and August over last year.

There was no definite report on the teacher for the local girls' class in the Young People's Department; Mrs. [Name] had been seen about it and was to give her answer later. It was reported that the boys' class had been started and plans were being made to increase the enrollment and attendance.

The question of [Topic] was brought up, again. The action was made after much discussion, that we keep it on the fourth Sunday of September; it was passed unanimously. The following numbers (approximately) were reported to be present:
[List of names and numbers]

An examination of the samples of the new [Topic] record system was made; and it was noted and passed that we adopt it for our church school. Mr. [Name] was appointed to have charge of conducting the necessary business and of seeing that the records are properly kept. He was also authorized to buy a [Topic] board, the cost not to exceed $50.00.

The question of someone to look after the [Topic] roll was again brought up. It was moved that [Name] be appointed to have charge of the [Topic] department in charge of the

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, and Dr. Stanbury led in prayer. The minutes were read by the secretary and approved.

As a supplement to the report on the falling off of our attendance at the last meeting it was reported that there was a slight increase during July and August over last year.

There was no definite report on the teacher for the local girls' class in the Young People's Department; Mrs. McAllister had been seen about it and was to give her answer later. It was reported that the boys' class had been started and plans were under way to increase the enrollment and attendance.

The question of Promotion Day was brought up again. The motion was made, after much discussion, that we keep it on the fourth Sunday of September; it was passed unanimously. The following numbers (approximately) were reported to be promoted: Nursery Department 2, Beginners' 31, Primary 20, Junior 28, Intermediate 25, Senior 12.

An examination of the samples of the new Cokesbury Record System was made; and it was moved and passed that we adopt it for our Church School. Mr. Proctor was appointed to have charge of ordering the necessary supplies and of seeing that the records are properly kept. He was also authorized to buy a bulletin board, the cost not to exceed $20.00

The question of someone to look after the cradle roll was again brought up. It was moved that Mrs. Sterling Nicholson be elected secretary of the Nursery Department in charge of the Cradle Roll. The motion was passed and Mr. Holton was to see her about it.

The need for a younger adult interest group in the adult department was considered. A committee of Dr. Stanbury, Mr. Barker, and some third person whom they were to name, was appointed to find a teacher and discuss the possibilities of organizing such a class right away.

It was pointed out that a general council meeting of all the Church School workers was needed at least once a quarter. It was decided to plan for one the early part of October.

The need for teachers in the Senior Department was again brought up, and Mrs. Stanbury and Mrs. Smith were suggested.

The matter of the fourth Sunday collection for Missions was discussed, and it was agreed that the departments of the Young People's Division would keep out and send in separately their offering.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again September 27.

The following were present: Dr. Stanbury, Mr. Holton, Prof. Proctor, Prof. Wilson, Mr. Barker, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Duke, Superintendent of the Beginners' Department, Mrs. Cates, Superintendent of the Nursery Department, George Foster, Mrs. Cannon, and Reba Cousins.
