

March 28, 1933.

The meeting was called to order by Prof. Holton, and Dr. Stanbury led in a word of prayer. The minutes were read by the secretary and approved.

The report on the children's work was not so encouraging, as it has been very hard to get someone to carry on the work. Mrs. Ormond said that she thought Mrs. George Manning was going to take over the work now.

Mr. Phillips reported that the Junior congregation was getting along nicely, and that preparations were being made to receive some of the children into the church on Easter Sunday, with special training leading in that direction.

Song leaders were asked for for the Intermediate and Senior Departments. Mr. James Godard was suggested for the Senior Department, and Dr. Stanbury said he would see if he could get someone from his class on the campus for the Intermediates.

The time for the opening of the morning worship services was again brought up, it having been found that the time of 9:30 previously set was not so satisfactory. After some discussion, Dr. Stanbury made the motion that the uniform time of 9:40 be set for opening, with a gong being sounded at that time, at 10 O'clock for the beginning of classes, and at 10:40 for the close of the session. The motion was unanimously carried.

The need for a young adult class was brought up and discussed. It was deemed a very wise thing to try to organize this class right away, and Prof. Holton was to see Prof. Proctor about getting it started.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.
