

December 21, 1959      COMMISSION ON EDUCATION MEETING

The Commission on Education meet on Monday night, December 21, with Mr. Tom McCauley, vice-chairman, presiding. Nine members were present.

Mr. Shoaf described the recent reaction of parents in the Day School Kindergarten as being a problem of misunderstanding and a lack of adequate information being given to parents. He reported that the Day School Committee was working on the problem and would make every effort to remedy the situation.

Mr. McCauley reported on student attendance and participation in the 12th grade. He expressed the concern which he shared with the teacher of this class about excessive absences and asked for suggestions. A number of points were suggested.

Mr. Whitford reported on the leadership class and stated that the course would be held January 17 to May 29. He urged support in securing members for the class.

The question was raised about progress on getting the pianos repaired. It was agreed to raise the question in the official board about progress on this project.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer.

Tom McCauley, Vice Chairman

E. C. Shoaf, Acting Secretary

The Commission on Education met on Monday night, December 21, with Mr. Tom McCauley, vice-chairman, presiding. Nine members were present.

Mr. Shoaf described the present reaction of parents in the Day School Kindergarten as being a problem of misunderstanding and a lack of adequate information being given to parents. He reported that the Day School Committee was working on the problem and would make every effort to remedy the situation.

Mr. McCauley reported on student attendance and participation in the 12th grade. He expressed the concern which he shared with the teacher of this class about excessive absences and asked for suggestions. A number of points were suggested.

Mr. Wifford reported on the leadership class and stated that the course would be held January 17 to May 29. He urged support in securing members for the class.

The question was raised about progress on getting the piano repaired. It was agreed to raise the question in the official board about progress on this project.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer.

Tom McCauley, Vice Chairman

E. C. Shoaf, Acting Secretary